

First Strong 341

Chapter 341 - Kill the vampire

“kill—!”

Originally opposed to a few hours of exhaustion that has been exhausted, there are now sinking waves, have been reactivated, become defenses for offense, screaming, flying from the sandbank to the other side of the river, chasing out the superpowers who escaped!

The superpowers on the river side are afraid to move. Including several vampires who have just reacted, they are also afraid to move. Shen Lang is nearby, and it is estimated that they will be able to kill them immediately.

Now they are eager for Shen Lang to chase Nicholas, and there may be a chance to escape.

Nicholas, the tyrannical tycoon, played the advantage of the vampire's speed when he escaped, faster than before Tallo. The moment is already a few miles away!

It was at this time, as if a gust of wind swept through!

Everyone has not seen clearly what is going on, and they have found that Shen Lang has disappeared!

With the reaction of Shen Lang, of course, he can pursue it earlier. He intends to let Nicholas run a little further. Then drive the gods and catch them at an ultra-fast speed!

A few miles away, of course, Nicholas's vigilance has been loosened a lot. He has succeeded once, and he believes that this time will be successful. He is gone, and there is Dorothy, and there should be no other vampires who can't escape.

The wishful thinking has just started, and you will find an abnormality behind you!

He just looked back and saw the flash of light has come to the front!

At this time, the deep waves do not need to speed up the pursuit, and the speed of the boat, he self-controlling the sword!

Qiu Shuijian once again drank blood, and a sword cut Nicholas' neck!

At the same moment, Shen Lang also took Nicholas, who had lost his mind and lost his head. Because of inertia, he was still running fast...

Shen Lang stretched out his hand and gathered all the blood he had sprayed from his neck, and used his suction to extract his blood. All condensed into a blood group.

After a few seconds, Shen Lang returned to the river.

The vampires and superpowers standing by the river shook.

Just an opportunity to find Shen Lang to chase Nicholas, they also want to escape in other directions, the only one who will organize them, is Dorothy, there is not much deterrent.

But because of caution, they took a look at it. I wanted to see how far it was, how long it would take to return. I didn't expect that they found the time to look at the eyes. Shen Lang had already caught up. Going out to Nicholas!

This riverside is very wide, there is nothing to block the line of sight, there is no smoke or something, they are not ordinary people, they can clearly see everything that happens in the distance.

Shen Lang catches up and cuts Nicholas's head directly with a sword. Nicholas has no chance to evade!

This really shocked everyone, including Dorothy!

Where can I escape? The speed of this chase, can they still run like a girl for hours? Estimated to catch up in a few seconds!

Can they compare to Nicholas? They didn't see that Costner was killed, but what they see now can already make them guess.

When Shen Lang came back, everyone was pale and waiting for the trial.

Shen Lang did not look at them, the blood group flew to the front of Dorothy.

Dorothy, who has just been shocked, is a bit embarrassed at the moment.

Although she has already died once, she is already chilling, and she has just said that she is okay. But that is her father after all! Shen Lang cut her father's head down and condensed the blood. Now it is a little unacceptable to her.

Waiting for Shen Lang to talk, seeing this dignified atmosphere, there is a more striking vampire, and immediately said.

"Nicholas is cruel and tyrannical, and can sacrifice his daughter for the sake of profit. It is really unworthy to lead our family. Dorothy is dead and resurrected. It is a miracle. There must be great achievements in the future. I hope you will inherit the blood of Nicholas and become our new one. The patriarch!"

This request made Dorothy come back.

She has already separated from Nicholas, and even if she still recites the feelings of her father and daughter, she can't stop her from being the master of Shen Lang.

And in fact she has just saved it once!

Nicholas is close, and it is very likely that he will be confused by a passionate gesture, and then take the opportunity to sneak into the waves. She stopped in front of saying something, that is, to avoid Nicholas shot.

But after all, it was still unsuccessful. Nicholas did not want to explain and apologize to resolve the grievances, but chose to flee immediately.

Now that the person is dead, his blood is equal to a vampire's wealth. If she does not inherit, she will sprinkle it on the ground, which is a waste.

But Dorothy is still a little hesitant. She is still a vampire after all. If she inherits the blood of Nicholas, she must shoulder the responsibility of taking care of the family, and she is now a strait.

Shen Lang saw her eyes and looked at her, and she nodded to her.

Dorothy took a breath and then reached out to catch the blood group and began to absorb it.

Shen Lang didn't look at the situation on the other side. When he landed, he observed it. No one on the other side was a desolate opponent. Their escape is to give a chance to avenge their own revenge, and to pursue the person who has just chased her.

"How come you don't escape?"

Shen Lang's words came out and several vampires took the initiative to kneel down.

"We don't accept Nicholas, we want to save Dorothy, but we don't have the right to speak. Now that Dorothy is back, we are willing to follow Dorothy and follow the adults!" Just that eye-catching, continue to speak if.

When the rest of the superpowers saw it, Nicholas was killed, and the vampires were paralyzed. What do they insist on? Waiting to die?

Ever since, they have also straightened down.

"We are actually following the small Costner and Nicholas specific what to do, we are completely unclear, just listen to the order to fight. Just Nicholas confuse us, said that the East 婊……"

Shunkou said here, he quickly interrupted, and then slapped himself a slap in the face.

"He said that the beautiful girl's party killed Costner, let us ask her to investigate, we are all used. Please be forgiving!"

At such a moment of life and death, he almost repeated the swearing words, which is not the current ones, but completely true.

Shen Lang glanced at them and said faintly: “Your choice is smart, look at your companions!”

Their attention has always been on Shen Lang and Nicholas. When the waves come back, the atmosphere is not dare to come out. Now it is even more desperate to ask for mercy. Where is the time to pay attention to the situation?

Now I heard Shen Lang said, looked at the past, but saw that only one person standing is far and near, that girl! Others... No need to say more!

Chapter 342 - Conquer

“We are willing to loyal to you!”

“We are willing to loyal to you!”

After one person took the lead in speaking, all the other people called together and they all expressed their position.

A sinking wave can easily kill A-class superpowers. A girl can easily kill a group of B-class and C-class superpowers. What is the room for them to resist?

It is loyalty, others are not necessarily rare!

At this time, Shen Lang reached out and waved. They all looked down on their heads and felt a pain in their eyebrows. Then there was a cold intrusion into the brain...

These super-powered people are shaking a little, not knowing what happened just now, but the uncomfortableness of entering the brain from the cold air, it would not be a good thing to think about it. Maybe it will be more uncomfortable than death!

Shen Lang slowly said: “You a few vampires, after listening to Dorothy’s command, and you ... are listening to Miss Zheng’s command.”

“Yes!”

They all agreed, vampires are willing, originally Dorothy is the daughter of Nicholas, now dead and resurrected, and then inherit the power of Nicholas, it is normal to become their new leader.

But these superpowers were forced to helpless. The original boss, Costner, died and now has a new boss.

Although forced, although helpless, there is nothing unwilling. The strength of the original people is much stronger than them. They can be killed like other people. If you keep them, do you want to eat?

“What I have just injected into your mind is my control over you. If you have any resentment or dare to sland your boss, you will be worse than death! Do you understand?”

“understand!”

After Shen Lang finished speaking, he pointed his finger and said: “It is like him.”

Everyone looked at the past without understanding, and then saw a person hugged his head and rolled it up on the ground. The trembling look was even worse than the ordinary man.

They are very clear, this is a B-level superpower, usually not weak, and now I have not seen how to attack Shen Lang, suddenly become like this, there is only one possibility – something that just entered their minds!

“I don’t dare... I don’t dare... I am just a little, a little... Sorry, sorry...”

The one who was rolling and begging for mercy, I heard everyone suddenly understand, and he turned out to be distracting!

Shen Lang hit a ring, the man immediately stopped the pain, and quickly squatted on the ground and did not dare to move, and the moment was full of sweat.

When the threat was just mentioned, the thoughts of Shen Lang completely locked each of their expressions. Seeing that everyone else is confessing to life, only this one is a bit disdainful, and does not seem to believe that it will be controlled.

Then gave him a chance to kill chickens and monkeys.

I really want to kill that person, and the warning effect is not as good as it is. Let them feel that the real thoughts can be discovered and they are not as good as death, so that they can really scare them!

Because the cold gas that had just been injected into their minds was just a drop of water that Shen Lang had inhaled from the courtesy of the river, scattered into their minds. It was just uncomfortable at the time, but did not control their brains.

After all, Shen Lang never thought about going here to develop, let alone accepting some Western superpowers.

But now they are kneeling in front of them and cutting their heads. It is better to leave a force for Zheng Yumeng to send. But the premise must be able to completely control them!

These are the real non-families, and they are the boss who killed them. In order to survive, they can't buy the benefits. Strict means must be taken, and after they have accepted their lives, the next step is to be able to enlighten and apply.

“Do you know how easy it is to kill you?”

If you are in the dark, let the person tremble: “Know, know... I don't dare to have any disagreement! Please forgive me!”

“I was supposed to kill you all. You didn't have much effect on me. Instead, they might cause trouble. You said that allegiance is loyal, and my heart is soft to leave you a life!”

“Thank you for your fortune! We are sincere and sincere!”

The other people were shocked. It was just a matter of one person. It was a surprise to them. Now, listen to this, don't let everyone alone, and quickly loyal to the group.

“Since you haven’t killed you, you won’t kill you in the future, but if there is rebellion in the future, it will be a hundred times more painful than before, and worse than death!”

In the scene just now, everyone has been scared, and now I heard that it will be a hundred times painful, and there is no doubt.

After the effect was achieved, Shen Lang did not force them too much.

“Correcting one point is not to say that you have to be loyal. If you want to leave, you can discuss it. There is no problem. What I can’t allow is rebellion! Do you understand?”

The bleak has come back, and jumped over the river to the back of the sinking waves. At this moment, the blood on the sword is wiped out with ice.

This cold shampoo has already made those super-powerful people secretly scared. They know that the above-mentioned stains are the blood of their former partners. If they just ran, this is the end!

“We don’t dare, absolutely don’t dare.” They quickly stated their position again.

“Don’t say no, we are very open-minded, just like the company. If you have an idea, you want to launch it, you can come up with sincerity to talk about it. There is no problem at all. If you eat it, you are not loyal to the boss. This is not allowed!”

“Yes!”

Shen Lang did not have more nonsense, and looked back at it.

Desperate nodded, indicating that those who just fled, have already been killed.

“Agree with Miss Zheng for a time, things in Costner, you need to have a good handover.”

“Yes!” One of them braved the enthusiasm and exchanged contact information, and said that he would cooperate with everyone to accept Miss Zheng’s leadership.

Shen Lang looked at Dorothy. She had just absorbed all the blood of Nicholas. This is not something she can bear, but the complete absorption of refining will inevitably lead her to evolve again!

“You go back with them first, and help Miss Zheng later!”

When she heard the order of Shen Lang, Dorothy was a little surprised. She was prepared to follow Shen Lang. Now it is to leave her.

However, she immediately understood that had to follow Shen Lang before, because she had no way to go, and the family was disconnected. But now it is different, now she is coming back to take over the family!

Shen Lang left her down, let her evolve well, and also took control of this vampire family.

This is of course for her good, perhaps also the test of meaning!

“Yes! I will definitely help Miss Zheng!” Although at the request of Shen Lang, she did not call the master in public, but when she spoke, she was bent and her posture was very respectful.

And they else can hear that Shen Lang confessed a “help”, she is respectful and will “assisted”, which shows that her posture is lower!

These vampires and superpowers are secretly scared. Dorothy will soon grow to the level of Nicholas, but they are so attitude towards Shen Lang. Do they dare to be distracted?

Chapter 343 - Rank 1

On the way back, Desolate probably told Shen Lang about it.

Originally, Zheng Yumeng was waiting for him to come back. When they met them, they were found by Nicholas, and then the group came. After Zheng Yumeng discovered so many people, one was nervous and the other was excited. It was rare to have a chance to fight and I wanted to verify the strength.

The answer is self-evident. Whether she is in actual combat experience or maneuvering ability, she can't play all her physical strength. After discovering the danger, she will take over her body after the sorrow, and then she will retreat.

The whole process is also because Nicholas himself did not shoot, so she still has a little resistance. After a hundred miles of escape, I was finally trapped in the middle of the river.

Desolate, of course, thought about fleeing to places where there are many people in urban and rural areas, so that there can be more cover, and there are police officers and the like, which can make the other side have scruples.

But they have a lot of people, and they can form a route of escaping, blocking her way to the city. Although she can also kill a path, but the killing will delay the time, let everyone besieged, she is not an opponent.

Therefore, the route of escape is more like they forced her to go past, and has been going to a sparsely populated place.

Today, I took over the majority of the A-class superpowerer Costner. This thing is also like Zheng Yumeng. It is desolation and better, but for her environment and social conditions, she is her. I understand that to manage these people, she is also responsible.

After Zheng Yumeng regained consciousness, he felt very embarrassed. He couldn't help the sinking waves, but he was desperate and saved. But I heard that letting her manage a group of superpowers is also exciting.

Although she does not have any management experience, but the family that was born, she still has some ears and ears, and there are things that can be consulted at any time.

Shen Lang did not return to Zheng Jia, and directly re-booked the ticket back to China.

At the time of returning, Shen Lang still used the more than ten hours at high altitude, and tried to absorb the power of the stars.

However, with the last experience, this time he maintained a vigilance and avoided the unconscious, affecting the aircraft.

In fact, the last time I met him, I wanted to break through, and I was still impatient. Now it is not only upgraded to the fourth weight. In a few days, it is also consolidated and familiar. Therefore, the speed of absorbing the power of the stars is greatly improved, and the manipulation is smoother and will not affect anything.

Nothing happened, nothing happened.

The destination that came back was not the place to come. It was at the international airport of the big city near Pingxi, and when I went back, I flew directly to the Tiandong City where Xie's family is located!

But people are here, but they are not in a hurry to find a home, or to understand the situation of the parties.

After the hotel settled down, Shen Lang and Yue Zhennan contacted each other and learned that these Tian Xie's family did not attack them, so they were relieved. It seems that like the exposure in the comprehension group, Xie's family has forbidden the protection of the core members of the family, and only sent people to inquire about the news.

There are no sects in Shen Lang, there are not many friends, and there is no mixed circle. Therefore, if you want to know other aspects of the outside world, the main thing is to rely on that comprehension group.

In the past few days, the atmosphere of the New Year has faded. He challenged the Xie family and did not move. It also reduced the enthusiasm of the gossip. The group mainly discussed the top ten rankings of the heroes.

Shen Lang did not care about the heroes list, but did not read the information, but found a favorable exposure!

One person exposed the material, saying that it was received by the wind, Xie Daoling came out personally, all kinds of brushed face brushing human feeling cards, invited to help boxing, it is necessary to take Shen Lang in one fell swoop!

Xie's family has already released the wind, shaping them into the appearance of the victim, and turning the sin into the evil door of killing. But Xie Daoling also invited the boxing, which surprised everyone.

Many people in the group were on the top of Biyun Peak on the same day. They all witnessed it. Although Shen Lang killed the Chu Mo, he did avoid Xie Dao Ling.

As a result, in everyone's opinion, it is still unreasonable to kill Chu Mofeng. To be realistic and to fight with Xie Daling, Shen Lang may not be an opponent. It would be the correct tactic to break the words of the Xie family one by one.

To put it simply, anyone who thinks that Shen Lang is still weak is not thinking that the weak party has not asked for help, but the strong party is looking for someone to help boxing!

This makes everyone a bit unfair, and it is shameless to vomit Xie Dao Ling. However, I have to admit that from a responsible point of view, Xie Daoling's unscrupulous means is to be a more correct decision than the unscrupulous intention of Chu Mofeng.

As a result, the disk is heavily inclined to Xie, and if Shen Lang dares to do it, it will soon be killed!

This makes everyone no longer discuss how many wins and how to win, but hope that he will start later, and then set the top rankings of the heroes in the top ten.

After all, the discussion of this list of heroes in the past few days was due to the sinking waves. If the swell has been killed when it is discharged, it is boring.

From these messages, Shen Lang is also very thorough. In the end, there is not so much justice and evil, and there is no compassion and benevolence. Everyone will pay attention to him and will support him. It is nothing but a "fun"!

To his enthusiasm and advocacy, to drink with him, the mouth called "Shen Xiong" "Lang Ge", not really how to treat him as a friend, but because in the same group, they can first know his first hand Exposure, which allows them to be in other groups, can have a bragging capital.

However, this is not a chilling heart. Originally, he also used such a platform to use his intricate identity to help convey information, and did not invest in feelings, nor did he expect other people's friendship.

“Xie Dao Ling invites people to help boxing? No problem, come and kill one, come and kill two pairs!”

“Isn't it portrayed me as a killer? I will see who is not blinking, dare to ignore the risk of the family division being tied up, to help the boxing Xie Daling!”

After Shen Lang threw out such a sentence or two, it detonated the group.

“Domineering! Lang brother is not a wave brother!”

“Wang brother, have you been to these days? Everyone is waiting for your good news!”

“Yeah Xie's family has been shrinking, but you don't do it, play psychological warfare?”

“I propose that you should be the first in the heroes list for the domineering declaration of the wave brother!”

Shen Lang Shenlong did not see the end, everyone Aite did not respond, they are used to it. In the past two days, I discussed the final ranking of the heroes list. The first wave of Shenlang, which will have entered the top ten, will eventually be ranked fifth.

But he just said a friend who helped the Xie Dao Ling, to kill one, to kill two pairs, and let everyone get excited. Under the suggestion of someone taking the lead, several people immediately succumbed.

Others also want to take advantage of the waves and set the controversial heroes directly.

Shen Lang hasn't talked anymore. After brushing dozens of chat records, and then “Top Ten Outstanding Young Monks” list, it is so simple and rude, the first name – Shen Lang!

Chapter 344 - The first is too arrogant?

They have been discussing it all the time, and some people have specifically collected the records. Now they have rated Shen Lang as the first. Others have been almost certain, that is, fine-tuning the order.

Immediately began to publish the first top ten outstanding young heroes in the group, and Shen Lang was listed as the first.

Immediately afterwards, many people said that they would forward this freshly baked list of heroes to other groups and circle of friends.

They started to build momentum before, and now they will send out the results, and they will not look awkward. Some people still understand.

And while Shen Lang is still online, they also immediately asked questions.

“Excuse me, Lang Ge, for our freshly baked list of heroes, you must be the first to be deserved, what about other people? How do you think about them?”

They are just some young people. This is just a WeChat group. It is not the authoritative ranking of the seniors. It is a small-scale joke, and Shen Lang has not said anything.

“I don’t have any opinion, because you are telling the truth, the second to the ninth, I have not seen it, and I have never heard of them.”

When this answer came out, it immediately attracted a string of amazing emoji.

What does Shenlang mean?

Really haven’t heard of it?

If you haven’t heard it completely, you can understand it, but in addition to the latest ones he has come out, others are famous, at least you should have heard of it.

Besides, even if you haven’t heard of it at all, shouldn’t you have a few words such as “Thundering the Ears” and “Long-standing Names”?

Shen Lang said so hoist... that is not to put them in the eyes!

There is a grudge against Xie Jia. Do you need such awkwardness for other irrelevant young talents? This is too bad for people?

However, the atmosphere was very warm and the atmosphere was warm. It's still the same thing. It's not too big to watch the fun!

What are they about? Anyway, they are not able to beat the waves, and they will not fight with Shen Lang. If they say such things, they will not offend them.

But this is, after all, the rankings in the group. The listed finalists are young monks who are known to everyone. There are also people who are familiar with them, or worship, so in addition to most people swearing, there are some irons of dissatisfaction.

Someone asked him if he was ranked first in the list of heroes, and said that if other people are not convinced, they will come to challenge him, will there be any worry.

Shen Lang didn't have so much interest in talking to them. He said that there was no comment, and there was no worry. Then he went straight.

But just because the expression is very simple, for those who have the heart, there are many articles to do!

When forwarding this "Top Ten Outstanding Young Monks" list, many people added the "interview" to Shen Lang's number one, saying that in Shen Lang's view, this is nothing at all. For the other nine people, I have never heard of it. If you want to challenge him, don't look at it!

In combination with the fact that he has turned over the Chu Mofeng, and now he is on the road with Xie Dao Ling, it seems that Shen Lang really despise the taste of those people who listed him with a list.

Originally, a group of young people came up with the list of grass-roots teams. As a result, the first stern gesture of Shen Lang made many people who did not see the information in this group, and added their own comments.

One pass and ten hundred pass, less than half a day, it has already swept more than half of the real world. Everyone is discussing this heroic list and they are discussing this first wave.

This grass-roots team leaderboard, the people who have enough grades are disdainful, and they must be ranked in the top ten. They may not know anything other than Shen Lang.

But now the discussion is so enthusiastic, its gold content, authority, is already secondary, and its popularity will open!

However, there was no such a messy ranking in the realm of comprehension, and now one suddenly appears, filling the gap. In the absence of authority, the first to eat crabs becomes authority!

Which of the young monks who entered the list, which one is not a genius? Even during the Chinese New Year, it is not forgotten to practice, let alone the end of the year.

However, they did not hear anything from the window, and their brothers and relatives, teachers and friends, and so on, there will always be people concerned, and then they will be sent to them for the first time.

In the eyes of friends and relatives, of course, they are biased towards their own people, and they always feel that the ranking is still low, unless it is the first. But now the first place is the Shen Lang without friends and relatives, and everyone else feels suppressed!

From a rational point of view, everyone understands that the problem is in the list of people, not the people on the list. However, in combination with the more arrogant “Shenlang madness”, everyone pointed their finger at Shen Lang!

Some people think that this guy is too mad, but it is a new-born kid, so it is so hard to put on those who are more famous than him, it is worthless to say that he has never heard of it.

Some people think that this list is likely to be made by people who spend money on it. The purpose is to let a group of famous monks raise their worth!

Others feel that Shen Lang may be deliberate and want to challenge other people because he is the least known, and no matter who wins, he is cheap. The best way for such a shameless speculator is to not take care of it and lose it.

In any case, the name Shen Lang, after killing the wind on the New Year's Eve, once again brushed up and became a hot topic of discussion.

If you can have the same statistical curve as the big data of the network, then today is bound to be a new high peak!

The sinking waves at this time are sleeping in the hotel!

Others are in Tiandong, but the last time Xie You received him, let him live in the hotel directly, and later went to Xie Xun's office, and did not go to Xie's headquarters.

The first intimidation of Xie You's intimidation has already made Xie's family up and down. Then I will go to the office again, and it will be empty.

"I have already arrived in Tiandong. I have no chance to go to the home for the time being. If there is a group of friends at Tiandong or nearby, welcome to come over tomorrow, can give me a little thank you information. Of course better."

After waking up, Shen Lang went up again.

Today, all the members are very excited, because they have made the "Top Ten Outstanding Young Monks" list, which has been known all over the world. Although they are not on their own list, the glory of the "creator" makes them And have been honored.

Also put some information into the group, and discuss how to expand the influence of this brand.

Shen Lang suddenly exposed it, and they still thanked them for their expectations. Everyone was excited!

"When is tomorrow? I will book my flight now!"

“What specific address, I am also gone!”

After the atmosphere came up, Shen Lang said the address, a coffee shop near Tiandong Square, and then did not keep everyone secret. There must be some lurkers in the group who have made friends with Xie. All he wants is to spread the news!

Chapter 345 - Sound east hit west

The place chosen by Shen Lang is a landmark place like Tiandong Square, but it is actually a place where he can see from the hotel room!

The hotel where he stayed, is in the vicinity of Tiandong Square, the coffee shop that is said to be on the opposite street, and then to Tiandong Square.

When going out to eat, Shen Lang bought a telescope and brought it back.

The news will definitely be passed out. Xie will inevitably attack in advance. If it is an ordinary person, of course, it is not a problem. With his current ability, it is the second generation core of Xie Xun. It is not a problem.

But in order to thank the children's safety, it is very likely that Xie Daolin will personally go out!

With the strength of the true master of the real world, if Shen Lang uses the knowledge of God to investigate, it will certainly be perceived. It is the distance and height, and he has to keep good and not be exposed.

At this time, the tool will work very well. The telescope does not produce any energy fluctuations, and it can clearly see the scene.

The time agreed by Shen Lang was at noon, and Xie's family took action early in the morning. I should even say that I got the news last night and they started to arrange it right away.

The most obvious thing is that the hotel he stayed in, and the nearby hotel, on the floors of different heights, leaning against the street, there was an emergency check-in last night. As he thought, these people are also holding telescopes, occupying a high point of view, and monitoring in all directions.

By the time of this morning, many people in the vicinity, including the waiters in the coffee shop, had changed to the Xie family.

Shen Lang almost watched them before 10 o'clock in the morning, they had already laid down the nets, waiting for the net to pick up at 12 o'clock!

Xie's family is still very energetic in Tiandong. Such a large-scale mobilization of people, a large number of people in different environments, but everything is quietly carried out, and did not cause a little noisy.

Whether it is the opening of the Jinyuan or the pressure of the forces, they all illustrate their influence in Tiandong.

However, one thing that makes Shen Lang feel very interesting is that through the investigation of the gods, he found the "eyes" arranged in different height rooms. They all took the telescope, but gave him a cover!

In this way, even if he finds that he is looking at the window with a telescope, Xie Daoling will think that it is one of the "eyes" arranged by Xie.

Shen Lang looked at the information in the WeChat group. Most of the monks who said that they had to come by the plane immediately last night could not make it.

After all, they are not idlers. Even if you want to join in the fun, you need to plan ahead. Just like the trip to Yunzhou before the New Year's Eve, many people have adjusted their time.

It's a bit unprepared to say that it's a temporary move away. And the last time was a big bright to see the excitement, this time it was the taste of private gatherings, it would obviously offend the family.

Xie's family is not only a big enemy, but the face of the turtle is shrinking, and Xie Dao Ling is a master of real people, and invites people to help boxing, which must be victorious.

Then there is a risk of standing in the queue!

Even if young people are really loyal and bloody, their elders will educate them. It's good to watch the bustle and far away. I really have to run over to Tiandong to offend Xie's family. After that, the trouble will be big.

As a result, many people did not take the lead again. Some excuses said that they couldn't buy a ticket for the ticket to Tiandong. They asked the brothers to shoot more photos.

Shen Lang estimates that no one will come over at the end, or someone will come. When they arrive at the coffee shop, they will pretend to be close-ups of passers-by and not dare to come forward.

The result was completely within his calculations and he did not care.

In the past one minute and one second, when the group was approaching twelve o'clock, the group began to be lively. Many people waited for the frontline report and asked if they had arrived at the scene.

Under such circumstances, the buddies who had arrived at the scene, who were really rushed to the scene, were embarrassed to pretend to die, and they took photos and sent them to the group. Said that he has arrived, Shen Lang has not yet appeared.

I saw the situation on the spot and everyone kept him on the air.

The one who dares to show up is of course a bit of ability and background. He also implicitly expressed the situation on the spot. It is suspected that many people who are arranged by Xiejia are mixed in the coffee shop, and there are waiters and guests!

He was on the scene, bringing people in the group and other live broadcasts, and it was getting more and more excited.

And the people who are arranged by Xiejia are more and more anxious!

Because they have been monitoring from the early morning to the present, there is no gain at all. I don't know if Shen Lang will come over and how it will come.

On the first day, I said that I wanted to engage them. As a result, there was no movement for several days. This time, many people suspected that it was a bluff.

However, this is a message from a third party, nor is it directed at Xie Jia. The accuracy seems to be even greater, and now they can only be trusted by others.

At twelve o'clock, the time agreed by Shen Lang did not arrive.

The group is asking questions about the scene, and there are some ironic words.

“I knew that I would put a pigeon, and he wouldn't dare to appear!”

“That is, before the first day, I said that I would like to thank the family. I haven't moved yet.”

“We can't control the family, but it's a little too interesting to turn us around.”

At this time, Shen Lang sent a message.

“I went to Tiandong Square. All the people inside and outside the coffee shop are Xie's people! I only said in the group, who leaked the information?”

As soon as this statement came out, those ironic ones did not dare to happen. The person who had just broadcast live, said a lot of people who thanked the family. Everyone knows well, and now Shen Lang asks, it is a bit embarrassing.

There must be more than one message, or it was passed to other people, and the others were passed to Xie.

“I am not afraid of the ambush of the home, but I can't scare the ordinary people can't do it in the coffee shop and the Xie family!”

After the message was sent, Shen Lang did not look at their reaction, but noticed the changes around him.

He soon saw that several cars parked on the side of the road were immediately past the Tiandong Square in front! Look at the “eyes” around, and drive back.

Obviously, the news in the group was uploaded to Xie. Xie’s family immediately adjusted and chased him in the front square!

“Thank you have too many people to arrange, I may find me. I will lead them to Shenmuya in the suburbs. I can’t do it in Tiandong Square.”

In addition to Xie Daoling, it is definitely the strongest batch of Xie. Many of the “eyes” in the vicinity are not the children of this family. Even if there are children of Xie, they are insignificant.

I feel that they are better than people. Shen Lang has already adjusted the tiger to the mountains. At this time, you can use your knowledge to check the situation of all of them. Through them answering the phone, making phone calls, the personnel were quickly screened one by one, leaving one of them, that is the person who was notified to hurry home!

Chapter 346 - Find out Xie You

How many people really rushed to Shenmu Cliff, Shenlang has not been paying attention to, these withdrawal of eyeliner, some are going to check out, some do not need to deal with anything, leave directly.

The one of the Xie’s children who he screened from everyone, did not need to do anything, went directly to the parking lot and drove away.

When he hurriedly got on the bus, he just opened the door and immediately heard the sound of the door. He looked back and didn’t know where to run out of a person and went directly to the back seat of his car.

“You...” This question has just been asked, and he already has the answer. “You are a sinking wave.”

After he answered himself, he smiled and said: “So... I just told you that you want to lead everyone to Shenmu Cliff to fight, it is a fake, you deliberately cheated everyone.”

Shen Lang nodded: “Drive.”

He has no choice but to drive out first.

“You want me to take you to the house? Impossible!”

When he drove off the parking lot, he slowed down and started talking, trying to get a chance.

At this time, he found that Shen Lang reached out and took his cell phone away, so that he could not sneak out the dialing.

“impossible?”

“Of course, I am afraid of dying you. You want me to take you to thank you. I have no way. I can't say it, it doesn't mean that I am so sturdy.”

He laughed at himself and then explained: “I mean, Xie Jiake is not a fixed place. I am just a small man. I don't even know where they live. There are three caves in the rabbit. What?”

“Moreover, you have to attack us recently, so that the Xie family is in a state of alert. Do you think they will live in a place waiting for you to enter the old nest?”

“Oh? What you said seems a bit reasonable.” Shen Lang said faintly.

“Of course, I am not a thank you. I have a specific layout. I guess it. But if it is me, it will definitely let everyone live in different places. Thanks so many friends and relatives, scattered dozens. Hundreds of households, how can you find someone alone... Hey! What are you doing?”

He still didn't talk, and found that Shen Lang searched his clothes pocket.

“You are not thankful, but it is called Xie Yuan. They also gave you a manager. The treatment is good.” Shen Lang found the business card from his pocket.

This is the remorse of Xie Yuan!

He is a child of Xie's family. He usually has to hold a job position and must deal with it externally. Now, especially during the Chinese New Year, although everyone is not allowed to go out, there are still some important customers who come to visit, and some friends will come in, so he has to carry business cards at any time in his pocket.

Today, I came out to perform the secret mission of the family. I didn't even think of it, I just caught it. I was caught. You know that today at Tiandong Square, there are many tasks like him.

"I am only a distant relative, so to work, it is actually a miscellaneous. Now, just a salesman who sells a building is a manager and a director. Actually, there is nothing."

Xie Yuan explained it in front of me, and the voice was already a little trembled.

"I really thought that I was a killer madman? Even if it is a killer, I still have the bottom line. If I look at the Chu family, I will not kill them. So even if I adjust the tiger away from the mountain today, I will not take the Xie Dao Ling. Kill your old and young."

Hearing the words of Shen Lang, Xie Yuanxin was put down a little, but the atmosphere did not dare to speak out.

"But there are two people, I can't let go. If you kill more, look at Xie Dao Ling."

"What are you talking about... Xie You?"

"And Xie Xun."

Shen Lang said faintly that no matter who the initial decision was made, the two were directly implemented. Especially Xie You, on the surface, with your brother and sister, a pair of heart-warming with you, the result is to dig a big pit to bury you!

"..."

"You choose one. Take me to find them, or you will die by yourself."

In the case of Shen Lang, let the back of the Xie Yuan cold sweat.

The car had already been driven to the outside street. The silence of Xie Yuan was exchanged for a sword. The back of the seat was pierced directly from the back and stood against his head.

“I will take you there!” Let Xie Yuan choose to crash and die. He can’t do it, but he still hesitates to see if there is a better way.

But now that death has come to mind, he immediately made a decision.

Shen Lang receives the sword, “Give you fifteen minutes!”

“How is it enough for fifteen minutes?” Xie Yuan called. “Although I know where they live, I can’t find it at a time. And now it’s a lot of people at noon, in case of a traffic jam...”

“If you go on nonsense, it will be fourteen minutes left.” Shen Lang grabbed his hand, unlocked the phone, and then ignored him.

Xie Yuan’s heart sank, this is no room for negotiation!

fifteen minutes!

Anyway, he still has to fight!

He is very familiar with the city of Tiandong, but the urban area is not small. Even if it is unimpeded in 15 minutes, the distance that can be run is limited. Can he still find more than 100 yards in the urban area?

However, this idea is to make his heart move, the fast brakes will inevitably attract the attention of the police. If you stop it, you may be able to save him!

Thinking of this, he quickly drove up and drove up.

Shen Lang did not care about his careful thoughts, but looked at his mobile phone.

As a core elite, Xie Xun is estimated to be participating in the round-up of him. He will seek Xie Xie, who knows everything and will definitely be the key protection target.

He first searched Xie You's phone number, and the note in it was You Ge. Then according to You Ge, I found the micro signal and sent a message in the past.

"You brother! I didn't catch the swell, my family worried that he would scream at the west and let the tiger leave the mountain. Let me come over to protect you and send me a position. I will rush over."

Xie You can of course not sleep at this time, but also the mobile phone is concerned about the dynamics.

"What can your kid protect me? Isn't it for me to protect? But how do you know that I am not at home?"

"Haha, Shen Lang will definitely inquire about your place of residence. With your wisdom, you will definitely not let him guess!"

"The most dangerous place is the safest place! Come and pick me up."

Xie Youfa came over to his position, that is, Shen Lang did not think that this kid is still calm even in a restaurant on the same street!

He chose that place, and on the side of the hotel where Shen Lang lived, he could also pay attention to the coffee shop.

Shen Lang pays attention to the coffee shop in the above, and there are people who pay attention to the coffee shop. People who enter other restaurants like this have not noticed so much.

"pull over."

"What?" Xie Yuan just accelerated, is preparing to red light, suddenly heard the stop, could not help but be shocked, worried about being seen through the waves. "Don't you say ten minutes?"

“Let’s continue!” Shen Lang opened the window.

Xie Yuan was a bit hesitant. I didn’t know if the acceleration would stop. At this time, I felt a heavy foot on my foot and slammed on the throttle. The car slammed and slammed out and rushed to the red light!

When he found the abnormality, he quickly turned the steering wheel to avoid hitting the car, but the foot could not stop, and the brakes were not good. The result of turning the steering wheel was to hit the sidewalk and then hit a wall to stop...

Chapter 347 - Funeral dog

Xie Youzheng sat elegantly in the window seat on the second floor of the restaurant. Here you can see all the things in the opposite coffee shop, but it is not important now.

Originally, he also wanted to experience the feeling of heartbeat stimulation, and see if he was close to Shen Lang and could not be discovered.

He is not a fool, because he knows that Xie’s family has laid down the net here. If it is discovered by Shen Lang, he can delay the time and act as a bait.

It is a pity that Shen Lang discovered it after all, but left the square. Whether it is really going to Shen Muya and Xie’s decisive battle, or just an excuse for running a road, it has nothing to do with him.

It is impossible for him to formally challenge the Shenlang. The Pingxi boy who defeated him at the beginning has already grown into a towering tree that he cannot reach.

Just Xie Yuan contacted him. In Xie You’s opinion, of course, it’s not that Xie Yuan came to protect him. Instead, he found his adventure in the family. He asked Xie You to supervise and send him back!

It is because he thinks that Xie Yuan is also nearby, knowing that he is nearby, but he is not sure which store he is in, so he will send the position without doubt.

He did not delay too much. After the information was sent, the waiter came over to pay the bill.

Now it is estimated that Xie Yuan came from the parking lot nearby. It should be almost there, so I looked around and waited for the car from Xie Yuan to come, and he went on. In order to avoid waiting, this is an elegant gesture.

But just watching it, he saw a face that recently made him a nightmare!

Xie You Huo Ran stood up and stared at the incredible.

It is Shen Lang!

This guy has not gone far!

What does he want to do?

Is it because after cheating the Xie family, I have to go to the cafe to meet people?

This kid is crazy? Still too arrogant?

After Xie You was shocked, he immediately fell down and ignored himself to hide himself under the table, but he still felt that he would be seen, and pulled a stool and blocked it.

He felt that he had not been discovered, looked at it carefully, and then saw that Shen Lang did not look up and looked over, but stepped into the store!

Xie You wakes up and realizes how Shen Lang may go back to see those people. It is also clear that “the most dangerous place is the safest place”! So he ran to the opposite side of the coffee shop, but the Xie family would not think of it, but they could see the opposite situation, and the calmly loaded!

He has already finished loading, and at this time, Shen Lang will come to the same place, and it will definitely be a more convenient upstairs!

The seat he chose is naturally the best in all aspects, and Shen Lang will certainly look at it here...

The rest of the time, probably up to tens of seconds. What he hoped was that the waiter below told Shen Lang that there was no seat on it, but could not stay here waiting for a miracle.

According to his own style, he will come up without paying attention. Shen Lang is so embarrassing, it will certainly be like this!

Xie You was nervous, his brain turned quickly, and people stood up and saw many people looking at him strangely.

At this moment, I couldn't care for the embarrassment, and quickly rushed to the bathroom.

There is no back door on the second floor. With his strength, it is a breeze to break the glass and jump out. But let's not say that the waves are the opposite of the coffee shop, they will watch it, but instead I exposed myself.

Therefore, he did not care so much, went to the bathroom, but also afraid that if Shen Lang first went to the bathroom, he rushed directly into the women's toilet!

Rushing into the female toilet, for the female guests who were disturbed, Xie You can only stun the person first.

It's a shame to thank the children of the family and escape to the women's toilet.

But he is very pragmatic, not to mention the elegance of what is forced, is the face of dignity, this time can not care, living is the first.

He is hiding in the dark, but also secretly smiles. Also said to experience some of the feeling of heartbeat, this time came true!

I knew that I left, what are you waiting for!

However, he still forced himself to calm down and silently looked at the time and calculated how much time it took to find the seat and then sit down and watch the environment after Shen Lang came up.

He must grasp the second, wait for Shen Lang to observe the inside of the restaurant, and watch the opposite coffee shop through the glass before he can rush out!

The opportunity is only for a while, because coming out of the bathroom, from the corridor to the stairway, will be observed there.

After waiting for a while, he estimated that the opportunity had arrived, quietly opened the door of the female toilet, waited and watched, and then prepared to go straight down the stairs.

At this time, I saw that Shen Lang was standing there, and took a mobile phone to shoot at him!

Xie You can't take the picture from the female toilet, and desperately rushed to the stairs.

At this moment, he has no other thoughts, only – run!

Xie You played the fastest time in his life, and he did not care about any courtesy. He did not care about the guests and the waiters.

When I went to the following, I couldn't even open the door. I smashed the glass and shattered the glass. When I ran over, I wore it out directly from the broken glass door.

Of course, Xie Yuan can't wait any longer. He must take advantage of the familiarity with Tiandong, run hard, and smash the waves as soon as possible!

He is like a dog at home...

When he was in the toilet, there was still a ten-second time. He could call a help phone. But at that time, let myself calm down, and then calculate the Shenlang to that point, to be accurate to the second, there is no way to take care of it.

Now I can only run hard, and I have no time to call.

If you take the street road, you will be seen by Shen Lang. At the speed of Shen Lang, it is said that you have also got the magic weapon of Chu family. It is looking for death!

So he quickly turned to the alley, but this is around the Tiandong Square, even if the alley is not remote, he can only keep turning and go to places where there are few people.

He is not the same as the previous desolate preparation for running to the city. Shen Lang is going to kill him. Even if there are people, it will kill, just like killing so many people in Chu.

And with the strength of Shen Lang now, even in the crowds, it should be able to directly kill him without hurting others.

So he ran to the crowd and only delayed his escape because of obstacles, and he could not protect him.

All the way to run all the way, to a dead end where there is no way, Xie You did not stop did not look back, but prepared to fly over.

When the result just leaped into the air, I found a person standing on the wall, but is it just a wave?

Under the horror, he did not know what to do.

I could only watch the slap in the palm of his head and slammed him on the ground.

“You pretend to be a brother and brother, actually harm me, I still gave you the opportunity to escape, enough?” Shen Lang faintly asked.

Xie You sneered a sigh: “Oh! You don’t pretend to be benevolent. If you win the king, I won’t win my speech. Whatever you win is your reason! Kill me!”

“It’s useless to be a hero with a hero, since you know you are damn...”

Shen Lang stretched his hand and waved through the wind, cutting off his head directly!

Chapter 348 - All members challenge the waves

After killing Xie You, Shen Lang took the picture again.

Xie Yuan is also a self-cultivator. It is just that such a collision is not enough for him to die. At this point, he may have started to contact the Xie family.

The number of Xie Yuan's number has not been kicked out. Shen Lang sent the photo of Xie You's death to the group of Xie's family through Xie Yuan's mobile phone.

Back in the hotel room, he used his mobile phone to send out a small video of Xie You hiding in the women's toilet.

In the group, this is also a hot chat. Everyone can only hope that the people who came to the scene can broadcast live.

However, the people who come are also very embarrassed, risking offending the family, they go to the coffee shop and say. After all, it is a public occasion, you can go to Shenmu Cliff. If you haven't found the Shenlang yet, you will be troubled by the Xie family who was furious and angry.

They came from other places, didn't understand the environment, and didn't drive by themselves. When they drove past the car, it was estimated that everything was over.

Without their first-hand information, everyone can only guess what Xie Jia and Shen Lang are doing.

At this time, Shen Lang suddenly appeared and released the video.

Everyone was excited to see that Xie You was forced to hide in the women's toilet. This is to laugh together. After all, it is not a problem. Under the danger of life, it is understandable to hide in the women's toilet.

After everyone asked Shen Lang what to do next to Xie You, Shen Lang sent a photo of the separation of the head and body.

This time, let the group cold inside.

Shen Lang is still the Shen Lang!

Not to mention the killing madness, at least it is not merciless.

However, there is no direct relationship with them. Everyone still looks at the lively mentality. Today, this is the first shot. It has already killed Xie You. Will the frontal war be far behind?

And Xie Jia, on his own site, under the dense net, but was killed by Shen Lang, the family, can you live on this face?

For a time, everyone persuaded Shen Lang to be careful, and Xie's family must start to counterattack.

In addition, in private, many people also forwarded this first-hand exposure to other groups.

After Xie's family was found to have been played, it was immediately withdrawn from Shenmu Cliff. This has been played twice in succession!

What is more serious is that Xie You was killed after they were transferred from the mountains!

Of course, Xie You violated the order, did not hide at home, and ran to the scene of the incident. But the accident was chased out from the Tiandong Square area. It also shows that Shen Lang really came to Tiandong City, and also arrived at Tiandong Square at noon!

Running under the eyes and killing under the eyes, this taste is too flamboyant.

And when they have not had time to have more reaction, the outside world has already spread the news, and the exposed person is Shen Lang himself!

In addition to exposing the screen of killing Xie You, this guy waved and humiliated Xie You, and took pictures of Xie's children who were scared to hide in the women's toilet!

Xie Daoling is the most annoying one. He ordered to thoroughly check the vicinity of Tiandong Square!

However, the strict investigation of the Tiandong Square is only superficial. The real intention is to exert the foundation of the Xie family, and to go down all the way, and quickly find all the ordinary hotels and hotels in the city.

There are only three things.

For the first time, Shen Lang chose Tiandong Square and deceived them to Shenmu Cliff. He was still in Tiandong Square. However, Xie You has been successfully killed, and he will not stay in Tiandong Square any more.

Including hotels near that, it will also be very conspicuous. And he wants to live, it should be a fake ID card, the biggest possibility is a small hotel with a small stay.

The WeChat group also summarizes various information, and everyone is excited about the live broadcast of Gossip. Everyone will forward the picture of Shen Lang, and someone will pass his speech to Xie Jia.

Similarly, some people will pass the message of Xie's family to the group.

This is someone who has heard the words and said that in a group seeing the words of Xie Xun, Xie Xun said that the last time he was squatting, he was responsible for it. If Shen Lang wanted revenge, he would have the ability to rush to him.

Xie Xun said that he will wait in the middle of Tiandong Square at two o'clock in the middle of the night to fight a fair battle with Shen Lang.

If Shen Lang does not dare to come, or to use a despicable means of sneak attack, then he will hide it, to ensure that the Shen Lang can no longer be found!

Everyone immediately asked Shen Lang to see if he would go to the scene to go to the appointment.

Undoubtedly, Xie Jia wants to use his hatred of Xie Xun and lead him out. Like his arrangement today, this is to turn passive into initiative.

“Xie Xun is a fart! What qualifications does he have to fight with me? What qualifications does he have to talk to me? Can’t find it, can all his family relatives hide it?”

“Running a monk can’t run the temple, can their home industry hide?”

Shen Lang’s statement made everyone unable to refute.

Yes, Shen Lang is now alone, and his family is harmed by them. Just make sure that you are fine. Xie’s family is big and big. Since it is a component of power and strength, the same bloatedness has become a crisis everywhere.

“Xie Xun is not qualified, thank you Dao Ling? He should be able to represent the family.”

“Yes, if Xie Dao Ling asks you for peace, will he let go of Xie?”

Everyone forgot, after I heard that Xie Daoling was looking for people to help boxing, they all thought that Shen Lang would die, but it was only a matter of time.

But today, the casual wave of Shen Lang, the Xie family played a group, and successfully killed the first important goal of his revenge.

So that they all think that Xie Dao Ling should be summed up...

“There is no peace of mind in me! Of course, Xie Daoling can surrender and apologize to me, enough sincerity. I can let go of Xie’s!”

If this is said yesterday, they will feel that the waves are too arrogant. But now, no one thinks that he is bragging. It seems that this is the case...

This attitude, of course, was immediately passed out and passed to Xie’s family.

Xie Xun is angry and angry take the initiative to act as a bait, the result is that others do not disappoint him!

He regretted that the reason why the Ministry directly killed Shen Lang, and with the strength of Shen Lang at that time, he could not escape his palm. If you kill it, there is not so much fart now.

But now he has no way, can only adhere to this challenge, saying that he will be in Tiandong Square two days in the morning, waiting for Shen Lang to go to the appointment.

If Shen Lang does not dare, don't be forced everywhere!

Then, some people later sent information to the group, saying that the young monks on the "Top Ten Outstanding Young Monks" list challenged Shen Lang, hoping that he would not go to death tonight, and wait until they have finished the challenge.

More than one person, in the top ten, except the second and third, from the fourth to the tenth, did not accept the waves. They all felt that if he died in the hands of Xie Dao Ling, he would have fulfilled his reputation and kept pressing them.

So seven successive challenges were launched, saying that they rushed to Tiandong and let Shenlang not die, and then die after they were defeated!

Chapter 349 - Challenge me? I have money!

Before Shen Lang didn't pay attention to the heroic list, it was originally made by the group of friends. I didn't expect it to have caused such a big sensation. These are all true!

This is the time to bring trouble to him, who has the time to accept their challenges one by one.

And the reason for these guys is actually to be squatting before he was killed by Xie Daolin.

"What do they count? Do you want to challenge me to challenge? Isn't it just a challenge for me?"

"Tell them, I want to challenge me. I will come up with the sincerity of 100 medium-spirited stones. I won't win, I won't return it!"

When the conditions of Shen Lang are released, let's not talk about the reaction of the challenged people. The comprehensions in the group have heatedly discussed it.

"One hundred medium stone, how is this possible!"

“Don’t say that a person is a martial art, and a family may not be able to come up with it.”

“Is it really a hundred-year-old Lingshi?” Otherwise, others will say that you are afraid of them, and deliberately open a sky-high price to refuse.”

“Yes, that’s a medium Lingshi!”

In fact, everyone’s doubts are not wrong. After all, a medium-spirited stone can be exchanged for one hundred elementary spirits.

Asking for a hundred sincerity gold is equivalent to asking people to prepare 10,000 elementary stones!

I thought that when Shen Lang searched for a medium Lingshi in Xie Tongwen, it is estimated that Xie Jia was prepared for them to use for redemption when necessary.

Even in the secret room of Chu Mofeng on New Year’s Eve, it was only fifty medium spirits.

The old A-class superman who was killed in the previous two days, that is also the one who has a bunch of comprehension forces, and even has a storage ring, but there are more than 80 medium-spirited stones.

This can basically be judged, even if there is a family of real masters like Xie, the medium Lingshi, which is estimated to be dozens.

Shen Lang can be such a big lion, on the one hand, it is really necessary to raise the threshold to force them to retreat. On the other hand, he also has a lot of medium spirits, which can be said to be a local tyrant.

When Chu Mofeng got it, he gave a part to the desolation, but with the collection of the A-class superman, he still has more than one hundred.

The most important thing is that in the city of the river basin, the production of Lingshi is more abundant, and Bihai sent him a box with a breath of hundreds of pieces!

“The reality is like this. When I said that I was challenged by the wind, others were when I was a cat and a dog. The Chu family was disdainful, let a group of juniors kill me.”

“Now I am famous, they want to step on me, and of course they have to pay the price!”

The words of Shen Lang make everyone very speechless.

Someone reminded me a bit: “Lang brother... In fact, the Heroes list is ours, and we still take care of ourselves.”

“Really, they are from the second to the tenth, but they are all famous people.”

“It really can be said that they are dissatisfied with the list we shot, and put the spear on your head, but it is really not on the top of your brother...”

After reading their words, Shen Lang laughed and teased them.

“What you said makes sense. Then come face to face their challenges. I believe they are also very happy.”

When the words came out, everyone who was speechless to Shen Lang immediately called.

“Don’t! We will die opponents there.”

“Yeah, we did the heroes list, and we didn’t expect such a big concern.”

“Lang brother, we are famous for making you, you can’t pick a child.”

“Don’t do it! The real brothers of Lange can kill, I believe they can’t talk to them!”

Shen Lang also reassessed it. If you really want them to take a thousand medium spirits, they will definitely not get it. Everyone will say that he is afraid of losing, and he has found such an excuse.

The key point is that from the words of these people, they also feel that letting Shen Lang first is the ranking of internal care!

When the “judges” who made the list said so, he was the first in the list of heroes.

Shen Lang doesn't care if he doesn't care, but now it's already on the shelf to roast the fire.

He estimated that the other top ten outstanding young monks on the list should be similar ideas.

Since they are famous people, of course they will not care about this cottage list, but they have already been arranged. They have been heated up in these two days, and they are not allowed to care.

Perhaps the second and third of the two can still remain detached. It is also possible that they are behind others.

Anyway, he knows this heroic list. He didn't stop others from putting him in. He didn't quit the first time. When he was challenged, he would blame others. It was not enough for the husband.

Besides, fame is supposed to rely on a battle!

If it is not a battle with the Chu family, he will not have the visibility of today. Now I am working with Xie Jia. Everyone is not optimistic. If you want to be famous before he is killed, come on!

Add another fire to the Xie family!

“Well, look at your face, I will make a discount. There are too many medium-spirited stones, ten medium-spirited stones, or equivalent items, which is the final bottom line.”

“Since you said that they are all famous people, can't you get it out?”

The conditions that Shen Lang opened out made everyone a little bit tangled.

For them, the ten medium-spirited stones are still a huge sum. Even if the family martial art can get it, it is just for a sincere effort to fight, it is too much to be missed.

Besides, people are famous people. They should have to pay the fees. As a result, Shen Lang, the newest person to become famous, has to charge a high appearance fee. Why is it too disrespectful?

“This... I think they should be affordable. But it is not for the sake of helping others. It is a bit unfair to take the sincerity of the people.”

“I am going to challenge them?” Shen Lang went straight back.

“People will say that you are making money...”

“Crap! They are looking for me to challenge, I don’t make money, white to accompany? People can’t accompany people who drink with wine!”

“...”

Before the Shenlang exposed a few words, I ran to make their impressions of Shenlang all mysterious and mysterious, and the dragons did not see the end. I didn’t expect him to speak more, and his mouth was so powerful!

“Forget it, Laozi has money! It doesn’t take advantage of these boys.”

“You said this, if you are willing to come up with ten medium-spirited stones of sincerity, they lose, and I will not refund the sincerity. They want to win, I will refund it. If that is twenty, they lose. Still belongs to me; won, except for refund, I pay twenty!”

Originally, they were stunned by Shen Lang. They said that “I have money for Laozi”, and they are all ridiculous. Can they be wider than a powerful family sect?

However, Shen Lang directly took out the bets of twenty medium Lingshi, so that everyone was excited.

It's just the sincerity of white, it's unfair, but I can win twenty medium-spirited stones in World War I. I believe these outstanding monks should be more interested!

Chapter 350 - Magic bomb

After Shen Lang opened the conditions, he will withdraw from the line. Anyway, they will spread out, and there will definitely be a variety of irony and discussion. He is too lazy to wait for them to make their own decisions.

After the news spread, the supporters of the young masters were sulking in different places. Why can He De ranked first? Why can someone else make a sincerity?

Even many people inquire about adding groups to smash the waves!

Originally, this was just a WeChat group of ordinary young monks. Now because of the existence of Shen Lang, the value has doubled.

Others are asking to add groups and not to let the people in the group feel more face.

The group owner limits the invitation to pass the group, and does not let anyone pull in, unless it is really very good, otherwise the general monk will not come in.

But the most depressing, in fact, Xie Xun!

He first challenged Shen Lang, and the result was that he was not able to take care of him because he was inconvenient to participate, and he did not dare to help others to say more. He could relay the conditions of Shen Lang to Xie's family. Screenshot by.

Now Shen Lang is to continue to wager a duel with others before Xie Jia. Not only did he ignore him, but it also seemed to indicate that it would not happen tonight.

But he said that he will definitely appear tonight, but Shen Lang did not say that he would not come, so that he would be embarrassed.

Go or not?

If you go, maybe Xie Jia will have to throw up an empty night and night!

If you don't go, you will give Shenlang a space to make a fuss. When you want to lose face, you will be laughed at.

The key is that if he is a person, he will do it, and he will not do it. But now it is different. This is spread. If you don't go, you will lose the reputation of Xie's family.

He went alone, that is to find death, must be protected by Xie Dao Ling and others.

And a lot of people got the chickens and the dogs jumping in the air, but they were comfortable eating and sleeping in the hotel.

At one o'clock in the morning, such a cold day, there was no one in the square, and Xie Xun arrived at two points earlier than him.

He came to the middle of the square alone, surrounded by empty people, which is convenient to see the waves far away, but also shows that the Xie family did not ambush more people around.

But there are no ambush people, not only do they know, but anyone can guess!

After Xie You died, Xie Xun is another killing target of Shen Lang. Now he is putting himself in the spotlight.

It is to challenge the duel, but in fact it is waiting for Shen Lang to kill him!

Xie Xun took Xie You's phone, there is still a contact method of Shen Lang, he dialed in the past, the other party did not answer, can only send a voice message in the past.

"I said that I have already arrived at Tiandong Square. I am alone in the entire square. Don't you dare to come?"

After Xie Xun finished the message, he took a look at the time. There are still more than ten minutes from two points. This is very tough, but he can only wait.

Of course, they can also guess that Shen Lang is very likely to feel that after watching the situation in the distance, so not only the people who thanked the family, lurking in the night, Xie Xun in the square, there is no more Play with your phone to avoid appearing to be a contact.

One or two in the morning, it is usually the coldest winter night, but the temperature of this point is not a big deal for Xie Xun. He stood up straight and did not walk back and forth.

1.50 in the morning.

Shen Lang appeared on the roof of a roof in the distance. I can't see the square here, and I can't see Xie Xun. He is directly driving the magic boat!

Flying fast in the Shenzhou boat, I went straight from the air to Tiandong Square in the blink of an eye!

And the energy fluctuation of the magic weapon, immediately let the Xie Dao Ling lurking in the darkness sensed!

He couldn't help but sneer, and they expected it to be good. Shen Lang wanted to smack the West and deliberately let the young monks, as if they would really not be here, and actually killed them by surprise!

But today I have been played twice, can they still be fooled?

You don't need to say more, and you don't need to play any ciphers. People who are ambushing at different angles around the square are ready to do so.

Before Xie Daoling was on top of Biyun Peak, I saw the magic of Shen Lang falling from the sky. I know that he has a flying magic weapon, so it is necessary to take a quick break after the break, and not let the Shen Lang attack Xie Xun and escape the opportunity!

Of course, it is best to shoot when he attacks, and can't let Xie Xun die.

When I said that it was too late, I just sensed the energy fluctuations of the magic weapon. The Shenzhou boat has already taken the Shenlang to the top of the Tiandong Square. Their spells are already ready, just wait for the Shenlang to appear!

At this time, there was a situation where everyone on the scene was surprised.

The sudden flash of fire in the air, when everyone stared, the lightning speed, directly to the side of the square Xie Xun!

Because Xie Daoling and others are protected around, even as a bait, Xie Xun does not worry about danger.

I just found out that something was wrong. When I wanted to escape, I found that it was too late. The huge impact immediately wrapped him up. Not only was everything around him covered in a wide range!

There was no roaring loud noise, only a flash of fire, Xie Xun was directly destroyed! There are no people in the middle of the square, and there are no buildings, but the masonry on the ground is still greatly destroyed!

“not good!”

When Xie Daoling saw the flash of fire, he already knew that the estimate was wrong, but even if he wanted to rescue Xie Xun in the past, it was too late.

In addition to watching the destruction of Xie Xun, he can only chase the waves in the air!

Yes, Shen Lang did not stop at all. It was flying directly from above. When it was approaching, it used another magic weapon – the mixed bullet!

This is another magic weapon of the Chu family. Last time they just used a fake one-time shotgun, which completely destroyed a building.

Now this real magic weapon uses and there is no huge sound of explosion, but the effect is far better than the imitation, directly killing Xie Xun into a powder!

In fact, even if his reaction and speed are fast enough, but just dodging a few meters, a dozen meters, it has no effect, the same is still within the scope of an attack.

Like Xie Dao Ling, there are two other figures flying in the sky. They are in the three directions of the square. Originally it was three insurances to ensure that Shen Lang could attack and catch up immediately no matter which direction he came from.

If it is airborne from above, it will have to bear the blow of their three sides.

But the waves don't land at all, just swiftly passing from the top, so that the attacks they prepared are not useful.

They are flying to catch up, and it is already a step behind compared to a boat that has no pause. And the  of the boat is the first flying magic weapon, the moment has gone, they want to catch up, it is too late.
