

First Strong 37

Chapter 37 - Kill!

If it is an accident, Shen Lang can accept it.

If someone wants him to die, then he doesn't mind killing!

He didn't know anyone in Pingxi, and no one knew him. Plus, it can be arranged so well, it doesn't matter if you destroy a car. Who else?

In order to cover two million, you must kill him? This Pingxiyue family can't be graded anymore!

"No one sent it, my brakes failed!" The truck driver hard bite and refused to admit.

Shen Lang's feet lifted, and quickly smashed down, the goal is his head!

The truck driver who was swearing to death did not have time to make a sound. His head slammed on the concrete embankment, and the black car driver who stumbled beside him only felt the blood splashing him!

"Don't say it will die!"

These two are not the first time to kill people, Shen Lang does not give them the opportunity to bargain, and directly stepped on one!

The partner next to him didn't make a sound, let the black car driver really chill, and he wanted to jump into the river now, but it was too late.

"Don't kill me! I said, I said! It's the Seven Lords, and the Seven Lords arranged us to do it!"

"What seven grandfather?" Shen Lang asked coldly.

Does Yue Sheng rank the old seven?

“White Seven...” The black car driver smiled a bit. Since it has already been said, there is nothing to hide.

“What is the white and white? I asked the people behind the scenes!”

Shen Lang stepped on his chest and immediately made him feel like a mountain was coming over.

“White Seven is not a jealousy, he is the boss behind the scenes.” The black car driver said painfully. “He, his people, are said to have been abandoned by you seven or eight, including Dai boss, Bai Qiye thinks your goal is him, so first start with strong...”

Abandoned seven or eight? Wearing the boss?

Shen Lang slightly frowned, originally all kinds of signs indicate that it should be the person arranged by Yuejia, did not expect what Baiqiye.

Xiaonanmen Antique Street is covered by Dai Laos. Bai Qiye is his boss. Is it the real behind-the-scenes boss?

“Daily boss in antique street?” He confirmed it.

“Yes, yes! It is said that you have smashed the antique street, that is, the face of Bai Qiye was hit in public, and the next step will be...”

“Where does he live?” With the information behind the boss, Shen Lang has a bottom.

He didn’t sneak away in the afternoon, and he left the car with a bright light. If this Bai Qiye is really the underground underground of Pingxi, that afternoon is enough to investigate the hotel where he lives, and the rest just arrange for people to wait.

I almost smashed the Yue family!

The black car driver smiled bitterly: “I just do some dirty people. I don’t have the qualification to connect with Bai Qiye. I don’t know where he lives. I can know this because it is so popular today that many people are saying that. The middleman also deliberately ordered the White Seven to order, let us go all out to do it...”

Shen Lang understands that they are not the hitters of any family, but they are special killers, such as killers.

“You can die.”

“I didn’t lie, I really don’t know!” The driver hurriedly called.

“You plan and have already killed me, shouldn’t I avenge myself?”

Shen Lang sneered, if he was not good enough, he was killed by both of them. In the end, he still had an accidental crash. The driver must have escaped.

The driver of the black car was pale, and he had been observing on the road. He felt that such a young man, unlike the sultry singer, only now knows the mistake...

Shen Lang went down again, flattened his head on the ground, and both of them hung up.

Bai Qiye!

Now killing only two execution killers, this behind-the-scenes boss who wants to kill him, can’t keep it!

On the road, Shen Langyun pushed the trucks on the edge and fell down. He overturned some cypress trees and smashed the two bodies on the embankment.

Shen Lang has no intention to go to the Qiongzhitang warehouse. Such a powerful underground amnesty has already regarded him as an enemy. He has already ordered a killing. If he does not fight back, there will be various kinds of dark arrows in the back!

For his dark arrows, he also has the ability to protect himself. If he gives the other person more time, investigate his details and target his parents?

It's not too late for a gentleman to revenge. He is not a gentleman. He has a hatred, not even waiting for the night!

When leaving the scene from Yanjiang Road, Shen Lang directly called Yue Zhennan's phone.

Yue Zhennan heard Shen Lang inquired about Bai Qiye, first of all a bit wrong, then it seems as if he had guessed something.

"Is it for someone to pass the words of the Seven Masters? Nothing, the things that happened in the antique street, we have already greeted the police. It turned out that it was the person of Bai Qiye, may not have called, I will arrange it properly."

"Rosie!" Shen Lang interrupted his words: "You tell me that he lives there, I will visit. You don't know, I will hang up!"

Yue Zhen Nan Yi spirit, faintly can hear his anger, but this is to make things big!

However, after thinking about it, Shen Lang is comparable to the strength of the six-segment super-martials. Is it qualified to talk to Bai Qiye?

"Know, of course I know. My message is sent to your mobile phone, but Shen Laodi is still calm."

Since the message was sent, Shen Lang directly hangs up his phone. Yue Ergong is depressed and smiles. This guy is not a face and he is not given to him!

When receiving the information, Shen Lang also hit a taxi, the map looked at it and let the driver go nearby.

In addition to the address, Yue Zhennan also sent a picture of the simple information of Bai Qiye. His original name was Bai Shenghua, and he was nicknamed Qiye. It was a big bang in Pingxi.

Bai Shenghua can be safe and stable because it has been on the shore for a long time, but it is invisible to control a lot of power Both black and white can be eaten. The place where he lives is a neighboring villa. It is not a residential area for real estate development. It was a piece of land that was built in the early years, a villa that was built by itself, and a yard.

In addition to the residence, the extra land is covered with an elegant clubhouse. There is no general entertainment, such as drinking tea, chess and private food. Now the land of that piece alone is worth more than 100 million.

In other words, Da Bai Bai Qiye, the entrepreneur is the white boss.

Shen Lang observed the terrain and went straight into the courtyard of Bai Shenghua's house and went to the villa.

Not far from the villa, there was a big wolf dog rushing over!

The pace of Shen Lang did not stop, did not look at it, and immediately punched the big wolf dog who had bitten over. After the dog's head was hit, a strange scream was made, and then it fell to the ground, and the canine flew to the ground.

"Who?" Hearing the arrogance of the wolf dog, someone has ran out to check.

Before the man saw the situation, Shen Lang had already arrived in front of him, and he slammed him down to the ground.
