

First Strong 391

Chapter 391 - Must be

Tang Yuan certainly did not specifically target him, because this is the bag that was first made. When giving the bag, I don't know if he wants to bid.

In addition to the snow Linguo and the phoenix, the ones bought in front of the light are really not worthy of attention.

But if Tang Park puts trackers in all the bags every time, isn't it discovered once?

Even if a lot of people are cautious, they throw a bag when they go out, put on their own safes, and so on, there is always something like he is not prepared.

Then there is another possibility, this time only special customization!

That goal is very obvious, it is estimated that Xuelingguo is not the focus, the phoenix is!

I think of it again, and the last bid to the 75,000 is also a must-have gesture.

Is that the owner of the Tangyuan behind the scenes?

It is said that this person and Tangyuan made a deal, knowing that there is a phoenix in advance, and doing double insurance. If you don't have a bid, track the winner?

But this is a bit unreasonable, because at the time he did not work with Su Meizhen, the scene also directly into the snow ring and the phoenix into the storage ring.

When they left, they first confused the traces in the crowd and then merged below.

Under such circumstances, the people on the scene could not find it, and the high-definition surveillance could not catch it. It was the woman who also looked for it by his smell.

In this way, Tang Yuan may have this thought on the other side, but it may not be able to lock him.

However, since this is discovered, Shen Lang will not bet on the possibility.

This is not a buyer, but the organizer Tang Yuan participated in the whole process of watching all the monitoring, it is possible to find that the three of them wear the same gold watch!

In the course of the auction, although he did not reveal the gold watch, he did not dare to say that he had not been discovered.

This time, his gains are not small, far exceeding expectations, and it is still good to make a fortune.

Now other buyers are still in Qingchuan City tonight. If they are tossed up and let more people fish in troubled waters, he will not challenge everyone.

After considering it, he immediately left the bag in the room, and the other things were taken away, and then went straight down to check out!

There is very little check out at night, and there is no need to queue. However, there are fewer room attendants on the floor, and the hotel's service is not enough. It is necessary to arrange for people to check the room.

Shen Lang can only stand and wait for a while.

At this time, he sensed that there was a comprehension in the lobby door!

Looking into the past, I saw that a car had just arrived at the door of the lobby and someone was getting off.

Shen Lang immediately carefully converges on his own strength and does not produce a trace of energy fluctuations.

Three men and one woman came in.

The youngest man is also in his forties, and the other two are about fifty. The woman is much younger, about twenty-seven years old.

“Go up one level at a time, fast, but don’t be amazed.”

One of the Pentecostal men whispered and looked around to look for the elevator.

At this time, the woman’s gaze was looking at the front desk.

Shen Lang just thought about avoiding being discovered, and he left immediately. But when I saw the woman, I already knew that it was too late.

The woman who was looking at it was the papaya woman who had been close to him in Tangyuan and said that she had to be a waiter.

“No, I have already seen him.” The woman whispered, then slowly walked over here.

The three men were taken aback and quickly looked over and saw the waves at the front desk.

Is this the target of this trip?

“Sir, the room is ok, trouble.” The front desk clerk has already refunded the deposit, saying that he has just checked the room.

Shen Lang looked at a few people who came over, did not rush to the outside of the hotel, he chose to go to the lobby.

Seeing him moving, several of them were wary of a few points, and the footsteps followed the move to the lobby bar.

Shen Lang found a seat and sat down, then pointed to the opposite side, indicating that several people who were slowly approaching came over.

He recognized the woman because she had seen the photo.

The woman should have locked him from the smell.

Then there is nothing so secret, let them come directly.

Because the time is not early, the lobby bar waiter has already got off work, and there are no guests sitting and resting, it is a convenient place to talk.

The woman was not restrained, and she came over and sat down opposite Shen Lang.

Three men, one standing behind her, the other two pulled the stool next to it, and also sat down on her side.

Shen Lang raised his hand to form a noise barrier around him. Although there is no one, it is still convenient to speak.

“Predecessor brother, you can let me find it.” The woman smiled charmingly.

She held her elbows on the table and pressed the huge papaya to the table. Now there is no cover of the **** cloak, but also changed clothes, and her body is fully highlighted.

Shen Lang knocked on the table with his finger, “Let’s talk.”

“For me!” The man of about fifty on the left said, “This time, our goal is our phoenix. Before that, I was bidding with you.”

Shen Lang nodded, “Listen it.”

“We are sure to have something to gain. But considering that there will be an accident, we will first use the layout of Tangyuan, and please ask Miss Fengjiji to help...”

When it comes to “the wind is no Ji”, the woman throws a wink at Shen Lang and recruits.

“I locked you and watched you go. Tangyuan didn’t have a car to track, but it was arranged on the Qingchuan Bridge and waiting for it. It has been tracked here.”

The wind did not smile and added.

“And then?” Shen Lang said faintly.

“Then we rushed over. I didn’t expect the older brothers to check out overnight. If this is gone, where can I find you?”

The wind has no singularity and a sorrowful look.

However, this will not make Shen Lang unable to eat, and will not feel the goose bumps, because it can be seen that this is not a real gesture.

“It seems that I have finished one step and are blocked by you.”

“Hey! How can I say this? This is called a fate!”

She blinked: “Don’t you say that we have a chance to touch it? I found you, you haven’t gone yet. Isn’t that just a matter?”

Shen Lang looked at her turned to look at the man just now.

“How? I want to hand over the phoenix, or else I will kill me?”

The man looked at Shen Lang and took it up, and there was no more silence.

“I said, our aim is to be a phoenix, and it is necessary to get it. It is not that we are deceiving, it is really urgent, and we hope that you can cut the love transfer.”

He arched his hand and emphasized the “transfer.”

“But... I need this stuff too. After all, this is something that can't be bought with money.” Shen Lang shook his head slightly: “You are so energetic, why not find the seller? They may still have it.”

“They have a lot to come and don't give people a face...”

“Brother, don't talk nonsense with him!” The man on the right took a picture: “Kid, give you a chance! The original price is transferred, we guarantee that you will leave Qingchuan City safely!”

Chapter 392 - Same level transaction

“Sorry! My younger brother is not intentionally offended, but anxious.” He abanded his hand at Shen Lang and apologized.

At the time of the bidding, this person was also **** for tat, but now it is more polite, obviously a singer and a white face.

“I can't get out of Qingchuan City. It's not that others have the final say. It's my own decision.”

Shen Lang knocked on the table again: “I checked out and left, I don't want to have more trouble. If I am afraid, I can leave directly from Tangyuan.”

The man on the left gave a wry smile: “Know, you are the sinking wave!”

“Well? You know me?” Shen Lang was a little surprised.

His recent popularity has increased greatly. It is not surprising to hear about his name, but as old as they are, there should be no young people's interest, and he can still know his appearance!

“You have been very strong in the recent past. With your own strength, you will destroy the Chu family first, and then destroy the home. The enemy also includes Miao Zan, Ma Shibin, and even the West Gate.”

When the man said it, the other three people were surprised.

Feng Wuji discovered that Shen Lang was so young, thinking that he was an endorser for the elders of the division, so even if they did not help to help them, they were still polite.

The one on the right feels that it can be straightforward and forced to buy and sell.

Now I heard the introduction of this person on the left, only to know that this kid is actually a hard bone!

The wind didn't have a big eyes, and said softly: "You are the younger brother of Shen Lang, and I still lie to me to call your predecessors, really bad."

"I am not the younger brother of Shen Lang, I am Shen Lang."

After Shen Lang returned to her, she continued to say to the person on the left: "You should also hear about my style."

"The sky is not afraid of fear, sinister and deceitful, shot hot, there is a killing madness."

"..." Hearing this, Shen Lang was speechless.

"Rely! Is Laozi so unbearable? Shouldn't it be a junior genius, is the top ten outstanding young monks ranked first in the heroes?"

Hearing his whisper, the wind did not eat and laughed. "It's just a young genius. In the eyes of my sister, it's just handsome and handsome."

"..."

Shen Lang is not able to move, but she has always been such a "feeling attack", it is also a bit too much to eat.

"So, I am not coming to force you, I am coming to you." The man on the left said seriously.

Shen Lang believes this is the truth, because this is the result of strength!

If he does not have the strength, the other party will be forced and even robbed. He has this strength, and the consequences will become a request.

He is madly practicing, and he hopes to improve his strength as soon as possible. The big goal is to return to the peak state. But in the process, it also includes not being pressured by people, and relying on fists to harden to defend themselves.

“Is this my attitude?”

“My name is Zhuo Yuan. This is my younger brother Liu Zifeng and Yang You.”

The person on the left introduced himself, Liu Zifeng on the right and Yang You on the back.

“We are asking for the phoenix for this time, not for ourselves, but for the elders of the division, who are seriously ill, continue to tide over the difficulties, and hope that you will be able to fulfill!”

Zhuo Yuan did not live in the end, and immediately found a lofty reason. In order to seriously ill the elders, it is out of filial piety.

“It’s a little difficult.” Shen Lang stretched out a lazy waist: “I am not inhuman, but you also said that I have a lot of enemies now, I need the phoenix to enhance my strength.”

“You already have two snow Linguo!” Liu Zifeng next to it could not help but say.

Shen Lang looked at it: “I can give you one for Xueling, do you want it?”

Liu Zifeng was a slogan.

Snow Lingguo is not suitable for everyone. Of course, the biggest benefit is the martial art that Tianshan Ice Palace is suitable for. The others can only be refining medicines, and that is just a medicine.

What they need is life-saving, and Xue Lingguo is useless, so there is no auction before.

“Shenlang younger brother, you are so young, there are plenty of opportunities. It is better to let people give it! As for your scruples, Zhuozhen people can speak for you.”

In the end, Feng Wuji is the person they invited. Even if she does not want to offend the Shenlang, she still has to give advice.

However, this suggestion is said, Liu Zifeng next to him and Yang You behind are frowning directly.

This is not as simple as sounding, the wind is no Ji, this is to ask them to stand up and sink!

The consequence is that it is against the people of Ximen and others.

“You are a bit harder, I don’t need people to cover it.”

Shen Lang smiled and vetoed the proposal of Feng Wuji, and then said to Zhuo Yuan: “You have an attitude, and the transaction can be discussed.”

When the words were spoken, Liu Zifeng both stretched their brows. Zhuo Yuan was also a little surprised. He did not expect Shen Lang to speak so well.

Is the legendary killer madman not slaughtering people without a word? How could it be so friendly?

It’s not like being afraid of them!

“What is your condition?”

“You know who I am and I should know that I am not bad.”

These days have already spread, and Shen Lang’s self-destruction of Ximen’s seal is because he wants to harm him because of his spiritual stone, and he rewards the Promise Gate and so on.

However, Liu Zifeng, they are secretly pouting, and feel that Shen Lang is pretending to be forced. Today, he spent more than one hundred medium spirits, but it is not bad!

“What do you mean... you want to trade, but don’t want to be a stone?”

“You want to save the life, I can accept other replacements. As long as it is the same level, or the same value of the elixir, I can accept.”

What is needed for Shen Lang is a good elixir, not necessarily a phoenix. If there is a substitute, you can be a good person.

“Crap! If we have the same level, we still have to use such painstaking efforts to seek the phoenix?” Liu Zifeng immediately put a sentence.

Zhuo Yuan smiled and said: “We will not pay back the Lingshi. This is ready. But other elixir is really not at the same level.”

Shen Lang shrugged. “Then I can only say sorry. Because I have a lot of Lingshi, whoever sells the elixir, I don’t mind buying it.”

Seeing that Liu Zifeng is going to get angry, Zhuo Yuan is busy waving his hand and sealing his mouth directly, so as not to make the atmosphere stiff.

“Do you think this is not the case? You are asking for the elixir! You don’t have to be our family I can tell you a secret, related to a big chance, you may get a lot of elixir... ..”

“Then why don’t you go?” Shen Lang smirked and interrupted him.

Zhuo Yuan is a bit embarrassed: “This... I will say it clearly, there is an ancient relic that will be opened. Our elders can’t wait, or else we don’t have to worry so much.”

“Don’t you know me? Didn’t know my past? The people who thanked the family in the same year used the same words to fool me, tricked me into the dead forest, and joined the Chu family to kill me.”

Shen Lang sneered a sneer: “The cost of harming me is that Chu Xie and two, hundreds of people are dead! This is still the good heart of Laozi, not killing ordinary people, not killing old and weak women!”

When he said this, the chilling gas rushed in and made them feel cold!

In front of this tidal wave, although they are younger than them, the people who kill are the ones that add up to them like him!

Chapter 393 - Ancient ruins

Zhuo Yuan shook his head in a hurry: “I misunderstood, I don’t mean this.”

“What does that mean?” Shen Lang looked at him with irony.

“I mean... I can give you this information. If you don’t go, of course, you decide for yourself...”
Zhuo Yuan didn’t know how to explain it.

“So, you have this information, the price of eight thousand Lingshi? You a message, you have to change the phoenix that I don’t sell for eight thousand Lingshi?”

In the words of Shen Lang, Zhuo Yuan smiled bitterly, but it really turned darker.

“No... I mean, the ancient ruins of Qiangjialing will be opened. I will provide you with information and give you a chance to explore. And, at that time, we will do our best to help you find the same level of elixir. !”

Shen Lang had no intention of exchange at all, but when he heard the “Thousand Caves”, interest came.

Qiangjialing is an ancient ruins. When he was alive, he also called this name, and he will see the sky from time to time.

Untimed means that there is no fixed time, but at least it will be opened once in a hundred years. Every time you open it, there will be traces to check. According to the experience recorded in ancient times, you can also calculate an approximate time.

“Do you think it is fair to me?” Shen Lang faintly asked.

“Shenlang brother, you will help! Shuiyue Dongtian is urgently needed now, or else it will not be like this. At that time in Qiangjialing, maybe you can get ten eight heavenly treasures? !”

Feng Wuji once again screamed for help.

“Oh, really, this way, then I will be divided into what thousands of caves?” Shen Lang is not moved.

“Nine thousand Lingshi!” Zhuo Yuan bit his teeth.

This is from Tangyuan to here, how long it takes, and earned a thousand Lingshi, which is proportionally speaking, it is also a net profit of more than 10%, which is very cost-effective.

Liu Zifeng was sealed by Zhuo Yuan, but his expression was still very annoying.

“Nine thousand Lingshi, Zhuozhen people are really very sincere.” Feng Wuji also seriously.

Shen Lang’s finger knocked on the table: “Nine thousand, don’t want it, eight thousand!”

“...?”

Several of them were surprised.

I don’t believe that he said this is the truth. At the beginning, they said good about the original price transfer. How can it be difficult for a long time to make a compromise?

“What about other requirements?” Zhuo Yuan asked cautiously.

According to rumors, Shen Lang will certainly not suffer losses, and suddenly willing to transfer the original price, certainly another picture.

“The information of Qiangjialing, rest assured, will not want your secrets, as long as the time and place, then I will see if you want to be busy.”

“It’s that simple?” With this information, Zhuo Yuan still can’t believe it.

“If you get any treasures in Qiangjialing, I hope that I can sell them at the same price.”

Zhuo Yuan and Liu Zifeng and Feng Youji exchanged a look.

With this request, they believe that this is the real intention of Shen Lang, but it is not excessive. After all, the phoenix is too rare. Even if others get similar in Qianglangling, they will not sell it.

“The deal!” Zhuo Yuan on behalf of their water moon, and reached out.

Shen Lang did not shake hands with him, but directly took out the lobular rosewood box and placed it on the table, opening it in front of them, confirming that it was a phoenix.

Seeing the phoenix marrow, Zhuo Yuan, their eyes are straight, and I can’t wait to grab it directly!

Zhuo Yuan wants to transfer the original price, and is also ready for 80 medium-spirited stones. A bag is placed on the table to let Shen Lang click.

After both parties confirmed that there were no problems with the items, they each collected them.

“Thank you for your success! Since I have agreed to trade, I will not say more nonsense of gratitude. I will tell you the time and place, and then we will trade again!”

Feng Wuji gently patted the chest and stunned a wave of waves.

“At the end of the day, everyone is happy, and people are afraid that you will fight. Now you can stay in contact?”

Shen Lang did not say anything this time, took out the mobile phone, and Zhuo Yuan, Feng Wuji added WeChat.

“We will leave now! By the way, I will remind you that there may be someone who plays the idea of a phoenix. You are careful.”

When Zhuo Yuan got up, Feng Jiji also stood up and supported the table and leaned over to Shen Lang.

“Your little girl is not there, do you want me to be a waiter? If you are cold, people will warm up.”

She leaned closer and let the neckline wide open, and the two papayas swayed between the waves.

Zhuo Yuan has already got the phoenix marrow, and the pressure has been unloaded. At this time, there is also a worry about watching the wind and no jiao.

“Or, the wind girl you leave first, let’s go first.”

Feng Wuji faced Shen Lang, deliberately sticking out his tongue and rubbing his lips, and his mouth was smiling and responding to Zhuo Yuan.

“Forget it, the little brother seems to have been scared by me.”

He said that he had smashed his left eye to Shen Lang, then stood up and left with them.

Shen Lang thought slightly, thinking about her just blinking, just picking him, or is there any other hint?

He also got up and left. At the door of the lobby, their car immediately came over. When they wanted to ask if they would send him, Shen Lang had already left quickly.

After a few seconds, the car has not yet started, and he has not seen him.

“Brother, are you afraid of what he does? This is too wrong!”

“Shut up!” Zhuo Yuan snorted, and then thanked the wind.

“Wind girl, thank you very much this time. Thanks to your timely finding of him, you also help you to mediate the atmosphere.”

Feng Wuji nodded and did not have the charm of the previous, coldly said.

“Sister Liu, I advise you not to hit his idea. It is not that you can’t do it. Since the purpose is achieved, there is no need to provoke a comet!”

“Hey!” Liu Zifeng was a little dissatisfied.

Zhuo Yuan is also a serious warning: “The wind girl said that it makes sense. Once it is provoked, it is not your own business. It is to bring us to the water and the moon!”

Seeing that he is still not convinced did not add a good sentence: “How about you than the West Gate?”

Liu Zifeng naturally refused to accept it. He felt that Shen Lang could not do the West Gate seal, but he did not say anything now.

Shen Lang left the hotel and went to the riverside. He drove away from the boat and flew away from Qingchuan City!

Although the phoenix is the original price to let go, but he is not worth it, regardless of the promise of the water and the moon, but the value of the information of the thousand caves!

Qiangjialing is similar to the Death Forest. It is a small world, but it is totally different. The forest of death is actually a pure land of no development, and Qiangjialing is the real place of death!

But in Qiangjialing, the chances of getting all kinds of good things are far better than the death forest.

The key is that Qianlangling has a great grasp of the waves. He is not so simple to go to the bustle. It is necessary to get a good ticket. Of course, you must plan well first.

As for whether anyone in Qingchuan City to follow the hotel to find him this evening, I am too lazy to pay attention.

Chapter 394 - Shen Chang

Shen Lang left Qingchuan City and continued to the west.

When he was resting in another city, he sent out a lot of information.

One is for Wu Bowen, saying that he left first. Wu Bowen immediately replied that they also left. He had already looked for him and found that he had checked out.

There is also a message for Zheng Yumeng, let her set out to return to China, first set his parents in Pingxi, and then agreed to a time to meet.

Zheng Yumeng is one with the stagnation, and she needs to marry her. She is also bringing Dorothy.

There is also a contact with the falling rain, and agreed to go to Tianshan to see her.

But not going to the Ice Palace, it was the cave that had hidden her before.

Rain fell and agreed, and he was suggested to hide in Tianshan before.

She probably thought that Shen Lang had tried it in the past few days, and couldn't seal the West Gate, so she was going to go to Tianshan to retreat.

Except for them, there is no contact between Tianshan Jianzong Shenlang.

Rainfall can receive the signal and is still outside the home. Tianshan Jianzong does not know when it will come out, without the meaning of instant messaging.

The contact arranged these things, and Shen Lang continued to go west, first to go to the Tianshan Jianzong.

The last flight was to use the holy armor. Although the black technology network of the river city is not used here, the function should be discounted, but it is still positioned and stored.

So now I have to find Tianchi, just follow the “Navigation” of the Holy Grail, and I don’t need to search for the Carpet in the Tianshan Mountain as I did last time.

After a lapse of months, I will come to Tianchi again.

Whether it is strength or mood, Shen Lang is very different from the last time.

There was no longer a long time opposite the Tianchi, and there was another person on the rock.

“Where... Hey? Are you an elder?”

The guardian of the mountain gate is still the young man.

But this time, he recognized Shen Lang at a moment, and also exclaimed “Shen Elder”!

Shen Lang is a bit speechless. When did he become an elder?

The young man quickly jumped over Tianchi and then bowed and invited Shen Lang to enter.

“Why are you calling me an elder?”

“You are the elder, the elders announced. You please!”

“Great elders? High separation?”

“Yes.”

Shen Lang slightly frowned, I don’t know what the old man is doing.

The last time he was here, but the two were cut in the same way. Can you accept that it is because of the relationship between the cold and the autumn, how can he be declared as an elder?

This guarding the mountain gate will not know too much. Shen Lang did not ask much, and went directly with him.

“I... go to report first.”

After entering the illusion, he immediately said, and then quickly ran inside.

Shen Lang is not afraid that they will ambush people and slowly go to the valley inside.

“Occasionally, the elders are coming back!”

Soon, a person rushed over and the young man did not see it. He should continue to report to Gao.

Looking at the man in his forties who was in front of him, Shen Lang remembered that he seemed to be praised.

“Well, yes, why do you call me an elder?”

“Haha, the elders are laughing, and when you see the elders, you will understand. Please come here!”

Under the guidance of the praise, all the way to the last Jiange, on the third floor saw a high separation.

“Shen Lao is back.”

Gao Li did not have the first arrogance, and a peaceful arrival greeted the door, and then sent away the praise.

“High elders, what is the situation?” After Shen Lang entered, he asked directly.

“Shen’s younger brother’s teacher, when the year and the cold autumn, there is a great source, with our swords, it is like a brother relationship. Please sit!”

The high separation is probably known as he enters the valley, and the tea is ready now.

“The last time I had the heart to invite Shen Laodi to be the elder of our swordsmanship, but I was in a hurry and had not had time to say it. After that, I announced it with other people, and I hope I will not be surprised.”

Shen Lang looked at him like a smile: “You are so relieved? I am a stranger with unknown origins. I also split your sovereigns into two pieces. It will not let me relax my vigilance, and then kill me for revenge. ?”

“No, no, absolutely not. The younger brother took me into the Jianling, which is the best proof!”

Gao said seriously: “That is a forbidden place that we can’t open. The cold autumn handbook that you gave us has greatly helped us. There are many deviations in the practice, and they have been repaired.”

“In terms of identity, you are definitely your own. In terms of credit, it is absolutely enough. It is also the Sovereign and I discuss, invite you to be the elders of our swords!”

“I can.....”

Not waiting for Shen Lang to refuse, Gao Li has already pre-emptively said: “You don’t need any responsibility, you want to come and want to leave, if you encounter something, Jianzong will fully support it!”

Shen Lang is actually not difficult to understand. Before he left, Gao Li gave five medium-spirited stones, a bottle of medicinal herbs, and said that he would help him to get Chu Mo.

Going out, Yang Yang also sent a black card, saying that it can be brushed outside.

These are all happening after Qiu Shui Jiandong wears the Sovereign, but he can also win over him. Of course, not only because of the Jianling, he should want to get more secrets from him.

It's just that Shen Lang didn't expect Gao to leave the capital and directly let him be the elder of Tianshan Jianzong!

Although it is just a name, there will not be much actual benefit, but it is not easy to hang this name.

At this time, he praised a wheelchair and it was the sovereign of the sword.

The Sovereign left the upper half of the body, but actually saved his life, but now, but the rest of the month, has also recovered as usual, showing that the Tianshan Jianzong's heritage is not ordinary.

Of course, this recovery is only a basic survival, and people are still abolished. The mana may be less than 10%, and they will remain alive in front of them.

After chanting, he was very interested. After he sent the lord and the wheelchair, he left.

"The elders said that they are all true, and they hope that the elders will promise. If you miss the elders of Shen, I will be the sinner of Jianzong!"

Shen Lang looked at his present appearance and sighed: "The sovereign, I made you like this, you don't hate me?"

"Hate."

The lord of the lord did not deny it His look was a bit sloppy, but there was a detachment after the thought.

"But I am finished, but Jianzong saw hope!"

He stared at the sinking waves and said seriously: "In fact, I hope that you will be the lord of the Jianzong! But with the high elders, other disciples need time to accept, so I hope to be an elder."

Listen to what he meant, and wait for other disciples to accept it, and then pass it on to him as the lord.

Shen Lang shook his head: "Let's say it, look at the cold and autumn. I will respond to the elders. I will try my best to protect the sword. But the sovereign is even, I have my mission, not so much time, Don't delay."

Yan Zun and Gao Li exchanged a look, rejected the possibility of the sovereign, and made them a little disappointed.

After all, they have analyzed it afterwards. This young man named Shen Lang is not a pool of things, and there will inevitably be a bright day.

However, it is also gratifying to be able to promise to be an elder.

Chapter 395 - Unintentional secret!

Shen Lang also felt incredible, and inexplicably became the elder of Tianshan Jianzong!

However, this time he came to Tianshan Jianzong, this is to want to compensate them.

Because of the last healing, thanks to the resources inside the Jianling, Qiu Shuijian played a very important role in killing Chu Mofeng.

After this is the old man, like Zheng, he is more concerned about it.

In addition, we are going to borrow local retreat here!

The hatred between Chu and Xie has been reported, and the other is not an irreconcilable contradiction.

Ximeng and Miaoza are still very abominable, but it is caused by interests. As long as the strength is strong enough, it is not a problem.

Conversely, if the strength is not enough, not only will it be robbed, beaten, but also stigma!

Now that I am an elder, everything will go with the flow.

“These are my little things!”

Shen Lang directly released those things bought in Tangyuan.

Although in his eyes it is “broken copper and iron”, Yan Zun and Gao Li are not invisible, but at least the cheapest is also worth a spiritual stone, to the disciples below, or a gift .

It’s not awkward to take out a gift worth dozens of Lingshi at a time.

“My disciples thank you for the elders.” Yan Zun smiled and handed.

His current attitude is also very good, and he can only accept anger!

“That is for young disciples, and this is for the swordsman. How to use the degree, it is up to the sovereign.”

Just that is the “empty inventory” of Shen Lang, now the shot is the real gift!

“This... how does this make...”

“Shen Laodi...”

The Sovereign and the Elders are shocked!

Because Shen Lang’s shot this time, it’s directly fifty medium spirits!

It’s a big pie, it’s a huge pie!

Shen Lang waved his hand and gave them a serious look.

“The two have made me an enemy to be an elder. There may be various considerations. But I have a feeling for Jianzong and I am a brother of the martial art. This time, it is a special return!”

“At the end of last year, I urgently need healing and recovery. I need to improve my strength. Whether it is forcibly taking away the Qiushui sword or retreating in Jianling, it is very important to me.”

“When I left, the elders also gave me five spiritual stones. For me at that time, it was also a charcoal in the snow, so I am not far away from the West.”

After listening to Shen Lang’s words, Gao Li and Yan Zun felt a little embarrassed.

The last time the Shenlang was considered to be Enwei and Shi, the injury could not be relied on to Qiu Shuijian to reinvent the deity. Even if Gao Li can take him down, other disciples may have damage.

Later, it was discovered that Shen Lang could bring them the legacy of their ancestors, and they also put down their grievances and hoped to pull him to the ship of Jianzong.

Why did you announce it early and let everyone know that it was unprepared to avoid the waves.

Just like today, they don’t know why Shen Lang came, and quickly sent the elders. Even if you can’t become a person, you shouldn’t suddenly shoot.

I did not expect that people actually came to repay, but this made their plans redundant.

“The grace of dripping water is reported by the spring, Shen Laodi Gao Shi! Gao is not as good.”

The high-definition thumbs up and praised, and the sovereigns nodded again and again.

“Okay, you have a picture of me. It is normal. If I don’t have value, I don’t deserve it. As long as there is no malice, now is my own.”

Shen Lang emphasized a little, no malicious! Whether it is Jianling or Gao Hanqiu manuscript, or anything else, it is understandable.

“Yes, yes, we are all ourselves.”

“Then I will be welcome! This is the gift of Elder Shen to the sword, as a sovereign, I must record it.”

Both of them are old guys, and they immediately took the opportunity to get closer.

Later, he talked to Shen Lang about the situation of Tianshan Jianzong. After all, he is also a core executive.

Because of the physical relationship, Yan Zun is not all that he said, Gao Li helped a lot.

Tianshan Jianzong is in the Western Region. On the one hand, it is a low-key behavior. On the other hand, it is also a decline in strength. In order to avoid damage to the foundation, it does not compete with the famous members of the Central Plains.

Among all contemporary disciples, the elders have the strongest strength. The elders are the highest in the world and reach the end of the real life!

This is also why he could not put Chu Mofeng in his eyes. Now that he knows this, Shen Lang is also a bit scared. If it is not used in Gao Hanqiu, even if he gets the Qiushui sword, it will be high. Leave shooting to die.

In addition, there are three elders, all of whom are in the middle of the realm. In recent years, most of the time they have been retreating in the late stage of enlightenment.

The four elders and the sovereigns are the core of the highest power. However, the realm of the sect of the lord is only the beginning of the realm, so it was dried up by Shen Lang.

In addition, those who have reached the realm of existence will be regarded as elders, and there are two others, but their status and authority are not as good as those of them.

The middle layer is based on the virtual reality, and the praise is the successor of the lord, so many things are handled by him. In the realm, he is also at the peak of the virtual world.

The young disciples at the bottom, and the disciples around the world, are at various stages of the Yuan Dynasty.

The whole state is still very benign, and they have no other entertainment in this hinterland, and everyone is hardworking and hardworking. The overall strength is far stronger than that of the Chu family and the Xie family.

But in this way, for them, it is still the status quo after the decline! Still have a jealousy of the Central Plains giants!

It can be seen that there are still many famous schools that are hidden from the world.

Yan Zun also told about the history of the martial art. It was originally the Gao Hanqiu that brought the Tianshan swords to a new height, but it did not inherit.

I didn't know what happened a few hundred years ago, and I didn't leave a lot of things for Gao Zushi. Qiu Shuijian stayed in the door first. Later, it was adhered to by the foundation, and it was also step by step to the present.

“I don't know what happened in the past. I heard that many of the ancestors' ancestors have disappeared, and it can almost be regarded as a generation of the entire realm of cultivation.”

Gao is a bit awkward: “Shen Laodi knows a lot about the situation of Hanqiu Gong. It is estimated that your teacher has not experienced the broken generation?”

But I don't know if the old man is chatting, letting Shen Lang hold it.

With the contact with the real world of more than he also has such confusion. Whether it is his past life, or some other old people, enemies, it seems that there is no trace left.

Like Zheng Man, he is only partial, and his final achievements are limited.

What about the rest? Thirty years of Hedong's thirty years of Hexi, is the change in the years and dynasties?

However, after finding the Tianshan Jianzong, it was proved that the previous sects were still handed down, so that now they are scrupulous about the Central Plains, and the sects of the Central Plains are the same.

This confusion he has no way to talk about, can only wait until the strength is stronger and contact with the real world more, to find out.

And just after the high separation, let him find a clue!

Broken generation!

A large number of repairers have disappeared!

Time can't be specific, but it should be an era with his past life, just a little later.

Chapter 396 - Chief elder

For the problem of high separation, Shen Lang shrugged.

“I don't know, maybe it's been passed down from generation to generation. You said that the generation is really true in the realm of cultivation?”

Gao Li shook his head: “It's also a guess of some information! After all, everyone will not always have to communicate with each other. Some information is known to be pieced together.”

This is true, like they are in the depths of the Tianshan Mountains, not a magic weapon, or a real-time comprehension, it is not an easy task.

“But everyone said that the feelings are increasingly declining. Five hundred years ago, there were heroes. It is said that there are still half fairies and the existence of the great gods. Unlike now, the realm of the gods is almost to the limit of the monks.”

Gao is very embarrassed, but it is not to remember the ancestors, but hate not to live in that era!

Although he and Yu Zun did not say much, but Shen Lang can guess a few points.

The three elders have been retreating. He is the strongest elder, but he can see it every time. Is his time not precious?

Obviously not, it is very likely that he has been stuck in the late stage of the deposit, and has broken through hopelessness. Reconciliation and non-reconciliation are of little significance.

The current embarrassment is also a bit of an old-fashioned mentality. I feel that the times are not good. If he lived in the previous era, he might have achieved more achievements like the ancestors of Gao Hanqiu.

“Great God...” Shen Lang smiled faintly.

He used to be the god!

In this world, he must also embark on the road of the Great God!

“But...” The high separation after the feelings is another story.

“If you have anything, just say it.” Shen Lang saw it, there should be something for him to help.

The retreat of the Jianling is of little significance to him. It should be the secret of the cold autumn hand book.

“Shen Laodi, I used to study the handbook of Han Qionggong before, I have some incomprehensible places, I don’t know...”

Gao is almost a hundred years old, and he has to ask a 20-year-old boy for advice. Even if he is psychologically prepared and said to export, he is still a bit embarrassed.

Shen Lang nodded. “You are not afraid that I will steal the secret content. I don’t mind.”

Gao is busy saying: “Family! Now it’s a family.”

He said that he immediately took out a piece of rice paper, and there was a small copy of it, which is difficult for him to understand.

Seeing that he is ready, Shen Lang is also a slight glimpse.

Said to be a family, in fact, still afraid that he learned, so just excerpted a paragraph.

Gao Li and Yan Zun's face are also a bit embarrassing.

If the secret of Gao Zu Shi is not for Shen Lang to help them find the forbidden land, then they are still sleeping!

If you really want to be greedy with their secrets, then you will find a way to steal them, and you need to give them back generously.

But in the end is the secret of the sect, they can only be cheeky and do not know.

“If it's someone else, you can take a paragraph like this, there is no context, no comprehensive text, even if you can understand it, it is easy to mislead you.”

The words of Shen Lang's blunt words made Gao go hot from his face and could only nod silently.

“But I am a genius, this paragraph is still understandable.”

At the beginning, the realm of Shen Lang was higher than that of the cold autumn, let alone he reached the peak. For these, it is nothing at all. You can point out the key points.

Just like reading an article and taking a separate paragraph, you can have a variety of literal interpretations. But if you understand the author and understand the environment at the time, the true meaning of the article will naturally not be limited to one paragraph, but can be directed at the true meaning.

Gao Li will resort to Shen Lang, who was also a dead horse.

With his centuries of cultivation, the most thorough study of Jianzong's classics, whether it is Yizun or several other elders, can not give him more help, but count on his guidance.

So he can put down his dignity. If the teacher of Shen Lang can really prove each other?

However, Shen Lang is only in his early twenties. How can he have a relationship? No matter how genius, the solution is limited.

What he hopes is to give him some inspiration, to use the stone of other mountains to let the onlookers clear, to let him jump out of fixed thinking, and to find another way.

However, I did not expect that Shen Lang actually said all the key directly to him!

This has gone far beyond the understanding of this paragraph, but to cohere a lot of things that he did not show.

If that time did not personally follow Shen Lang into the Jianling, he really doubted whether it was another copy of Shen Lang.

But even if you copy a copy, everyone's time is the same, Shen Lang also went out to fight for revenge, it is impossible to have more time for his research, and he does not understand the classics of Jianzong, how can he surpass him!

After the sputum was poured into the top, Gao Li looked at Shen Lang's eyes and was full of hope.

Genius can no longer explain, and the source is not enough to express.

He has a strange idea, doubting the boy in front of him, will be the reincarnation of the cold autumn!

Only in this way can we explain why Qiu Shui Sword will listen to his call, why he can unlock the Jianling forbidden land, and know the secrets that have not been seen!

Gao left the station and then bowed to Shen Lang.

“Thank you for the elders, your words, so that I can save a few years of enlightenment!”

Shen Lang understands that he is stuck on the edge of the breakthrough for a long time. The contents of this manuscript give him a lot of inspiration, but after all, he still has limited understanding.

Just pointing, let him be transparent. Of course, people in this realm do not need to teach by hand.

“It seems that the harvest is not small, congratulations to the elders!”

“The Sovereign, I propose to start today, my position as the chief elder, from the elder Shen!”

Gao Li suddenly came to such a sentence, so that Yan Zun was surprised.

They sent the elders to pull the waves, but also to cover more content. It does not lose any resources by itself. To put it bluntly, it is a false name, just like other elders who are bold and true.

But now, if you leave this high, it is equivalent to giving the highest honor of the sword and even the seat of the highest authority to Shen Lang!

However, he has been a lord for many years, his eyes are also sinister, and he is familiar with Gao, and he has just seen the light in his eyes.

“Of course! I think so too. Since it is a great elder, let’s not have to negotiate more, so I decided!”

The guidance of Shen Lang, he is also listening to the side, but the realm is not enough, the harvest is limited. And to look at the attitude of high separation, it should be sure to break through the peak of the real thing that has been stuck!

That is really the joy of the sect!

It is not an exaggeration to let Shen Lang be the chief elder. Don’t say that people have given so many spiritual stones. This high-level guidance alone is invaluable.

It's a bit strange that Shen Lang looked at them.

However, Gao Li suddenly changed from enthusiasm to respect, and the amiableness of "Shen Laodi" became the honorary name of "Shen Elder", and the details such as "you" were used to see that there was no malice.

From the strangeness of Yan Zun, I also see that this is not planned, it should be just the guidance, let him really convinced!

Even if he had two years of experience, he did not think that Gao Li was regarded as an ancestor reincarnation!

Chapter 397 - Team point

Since the high separation, Shen Lang did not refuse, becoming the chief elder, can give him more voice.

He can't help the swords, he still needs to be able to use it when he needs manpower.

After Gao Li gave up the chief elder to Shen Lang, the three of them, plus the other three retired elders, are really the core circle.

Shen Lang also directly said the purpose of his coming over.

In addition to giving back to Tianshan Jianzong, he was originally preparing to retreat here. Now he is his own person. He will give him a retreat and he will not need any tongue.

However, Qingchuan and his party let him get the news of the opening of Qiangjialing.

Although I didn't get more information from Shuiyuedong Tianzhuoyuan, the time and place still know.

Calling Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy, of course, is also for this matter.

This is a rare event, and it's hard to wait until the next time you've missed it. Of course, the chance is not such a thing, but other opportunities are not fixed.

When he said this, Yan Zun and Gao Li also seriously thought about it.

“In fact, we also received the news, but we were not prepared to go.” Yan Zun slowly said.

Still the same scruples, the great opportunity of the Thousand Grottoes, will inevitably make many hidden sects come out, including many strong.

Because this is not the same as the death forest at the entrance to Death Valley, and there is no age limit, anyone can go in.

Of course, in theory, if you are strong, you will be more in-depth and your goals will be heavier. The general strength, it is a little cheaper.

If you can't eat the meat, the soup can still be given a bite.

However, as the lord, especially in the current Tianshan Jianzong, the dedication is still safe first!

Just like the death forest that is limited by the age of twenty, every time it is opened, it is also a familiar martial art family, but in it, it will still be a murderous battle.

Humanity is always complicated. Everyone is an expedition. Some people will directly target the expedition.

Yan Zun does not want to take risks to gamble on resources that are completely unsure, so they have already characterized this matter.

Now that Shen Lang has raised it, the meaning is also very obvious. If people want to pull up the Tianshan Jianzong, let them marry.

“Shen, how do you feel the risk? How about the harvest? We are worth it?”

Gao's attitude toward him is different, even if they have been qualitative before, they will ask again.

“High risk and high harvest!”

Shen Lang answered him succinctly.

He is now asking if the swords are willing to be together, of course, they can take them to play with them. Can increase his strength on this side, but also let them harvest.

If they don't have the will, he can do it.

The team has a big strength, small and small.

“It seems that the elders have plans, I am a young man, and it is difficult to make a breakthrough. Maybe you can try it, maybe you can get a chance.”

Although Gao Li said “maybe”, the attitude has already been put out.

Yan Zun could not help but sigh, he did not expect Gao Li actually to the point where Shen Lang has so attached importance, it is worse than this!

He was not as good as Gao, and now he has saved a shell. Of course, there is not much voice.

“I think I can try it too. If you have a long elder, you should have a big gain. I personally support it!”

Yan Zun is supported in the name of the individual, which means that the identity of the sovereign is still reserved.

“Shen Elder, what do you mean?” Gao Li was asking.

Shen Lang fully understands their minds, and Yan Zun is forced to speak reluctantly, and the high key is still his personal attention.

“The concerns of the Sovereign are right, the Swordsman can’t hurt the roots... but the opportunities are not missed.”

Yan Zun just felt a little gratified, and the latter sentence made him jealous.

“If I lead the team, there is no guarantee that there is no danger. But I can guarantee that the harvest will be greater than other sects!”

Gao Li has been watching the Shen Lang. When he was talking, his eyes revealed his self-confidence and he was excited again.

If it is the reincarnation of the cold autumn, maybe you have been to the Qiangjialing in the same year, you can naturally guarantee a bigger harvest!

As for danger, there is definitely something.

“Then I will join!” Gao Li immediately formally stated.

Yan Zun did not speak and continued to look at the waves.

“In fact, I went to Qiangjialing. As long as I can come back, even if I don’t get any resources, it is a great experience for people...”

Shen Lang wants to take a little young and good seedlings to exercise, but seeing the more conservative attitude of Yan Zun, changed his mind.

“The three retired elders are not bothered. The other two presbyterians are the pillars of Jianzong in the future. Young disciples... For security reasons, they will not choose.”

“Just... are you with the elders?” Yan Zun was a little surprised.

Shen Lang will respect his decision and make him a little gratified. But as the person who has just been promoted to the position of “Chief Grand Elder”, the first suggestion can only bring one person, and it is too disrespectful to others.

“Take a tribute again! Since it is cultivated as a future lord, it has to be practiced in various environments. It is important to be mature and stable, but blood and edge are sometimes needed.”

Shen Lang is a personal point.

Yan Zun was amazed again, and did not expect that Shen Lang actually considered the praise.

Of course, he can't let the commemoration happen. He is now in a situation where he must accelerate the development of successors. Once something goes wrong, it will be troublesome to retrain.

However, Shen Lang said that it is also true that a sovereign must have seen the big world and must be discouraged. These praises are still lacking.

“It is a privilege to have a long-aged elder and a high elder. I agree.” Yan Zun immediately nodded and agreed: “Would you like to select a few young disciples?”

Shen Lang hesitated, then shook his head.

“Still forget it! If you let me arrange it, if you let me arrange it, I am ready to sacrifice a batch. If I come back to the 12th and 3rd, I will be an elite.”

Needless to say later, Yan Zun can not afford the damage rate of ten or seven.

This creates the elite, he would rather filter through time, and at least it will be the cornerstone of the sword.

After confirming 荀尊 summoned the praise, let him announce two things, one is Gao Lichan to let the chief elder position to Shen Lang. The other one is Shen Lang's great gift to Jianzong.

Although they have announced the elders in advance, everyone can accept that it is just a name. Airborne into the chief elders will inevitably lead to a rebound.

These huge gifts are the key to balancing everyone.

The subtext is that you can make such a big contribution and become an elder!

I also told him this decision and let him be prepared.

Although the age is not too light, I am a little excited to hear about this news. The usual life is unchanging. If you can go to the ancient ruins, it is not just a gold-plated, it is a chance to give yourself a leap!

He has to take over, first of all, to break through the realm.

Let them prepare, Shen Lang is going out for a trip, first go to the ice palace to meet the rain.

Chapter 398 - Leap of falling rain

On the day of the agreement with the rain, Shen Lang “navigation” by the sacred armor, and found the cave that was previously wounded.

When he had just arrived in front of the cave, the gods were sensed, and the rain was already waiting inside.

Falling rain is also a refined person. He came from the Ice Palace in advance and practiced in the cave. However, she immediately discovered that someone came and received the work.

Go in immediately, push the stone door and enter the cave.

“You came.”

“you arrived.”

The two asked at the same time, and then they could not help but smile.

The relationship between the two of them is a bit special. Before the students were not familiar with them for a few years, they only began to have an intersection after the last half of the semester.

Because the time is short, the contact is not too much, in the end it is not too familiar.

However, because Shen Lang let her pretend to be a girlfriend, she also used Shen Lang to pass on her boyfriend's information to the family.

After she suddenly left, it made everyone's relationship broken, but I did not expect to meet in Death Valley.

The feeling of knowing what happened in his hometown, plus the maintenance of a person in the dead forest against four, naturally upgraded.

But then it's another year and a half, and then I'll be back again.

That is, the days of recuperation here, meet every day, and get acquainted with it again.

However, the character of the rain is bleak and cold, and Shen Lang has no thoughts to pick up the girl, so the two people are not too hot.

It's a bit difficult to meet again after a month's time.

However, the tacit understanding of the two people at the same time, let them quickly resolve a trace of embarrassment.

"You are not only daring, but also a big life." Rain fell and sighed.

When she knew that Shen Lang was in Chuzhou, she immediately rushed over and just saved him at the most critical time.

At that time, the opponent was Chu Xiangxiong, and the monk who was still in the virtual world had already suffered both losses.

Unexpectedly, after he was injured, he did not know how to get the Qiushui sword, and successfully killed Chu Mofeng.

This news made her a little restless in the New Year, because Xie Daolin personally shot and killed him.

And he is good, actually issued a “hunting kill” on Xie’s home on the first day of the year!

Not to mention the days before, not only did Xie’s family kill 7778, but also offended many masters such as Ximen. Still not an individual, I have to deal with three sects directly...

Bold, big, and add a temper!

Falling rain is also secretly strange. How did you not see that he was such a strange person in school?

In combination with the rapid growth of Shen Lang, and the changes in personality and other aspects, she really doubts that she has changed.

“It’s not a big life. I don’t have much uncertainty. Even if there is an unexpected ambush, when I am going to escape, I will never marry a hero.” Shen Lang said seriously.

“What are your plans?” Rain did not blame him, but asked him.

Shen Lang shrugged: “When the New Year was over, I went back to Li Cao and attended some of their class reunions.”

“Yeah.” Rain fell silently agreed.

She is bleak again, and she is not a ruthless person. For a few years of classmates, especially some girls who are close to each other, they still have feelings.

However, she also understands that everyone is not a passer-by, so after she left, she deleted everything and did not contact you again.

“I also feel that the gap between everyone is getting bigger and bigger. It is also a farewell. I will rarely see them again in the future.”

Shen Lang stunned, then smiled: "I said this, not to talk to you about class reunion, I want to tell you, since I have embarked on the road of comprehension, I have to go forward!"

"The road ahead is rugged, the future is uncertain, but it can only continue." Rain fell and nodded.

"I also reflected on it. Although the battle is quick, it is very risky. There are more offensive enemies and more trivial things. I need to retreat for a while."

Falling rain immediately said: "That's here! I can't come to see you every day, but I can also bring you some supplies of living items in a while."

Shen Lang shook his head: "You should have heard that I have the Qiushui sword. It is Tianshan Jianzong. I am now with them."

"You joined the Tianshan Jianzong?" Rainy asked, and revealed a faint color.

Shen Lang never said his teacher's door, but since he can borrow the Qiu Shui sword, it must be uncommon. Maybe his master is the name of the Tianshan Jianzong.

"Tianshan is too big, although they are all in Tianshan, but we have nothing to do with them."

Shen Lang did not say much about the relationship with Tianshan Jianzong. Could it be that he has just become the chief elder of Tianshan Jianzong?

That would definitely be considered by her to be bragging, but she felt that he was frivolous.

"Well, I just want to tell you, don't worry about me. I have a place to live, there is no danger."

"Okay." Raining smiled gently: "Then you have to cheer, I have reached the realm you can't imagine."

She is really a petite girl, even if she is the first in all aspects of reading, the speed of cultivation is fast.

After all, it is pure body!

Falling River is also trying to train her. It is estimated that most of the Xueling Fruit that was obtained in the past is used on her body.

When she went to the death forest together, she should also be the peak of the Yuan Dynasty. In that batch, it was one of the best.

After a year and a half, it was far away from Chu Yunfei and others!

Her rush to Yunzhou is a matter of heart, it is a coincidence to arrive in time.

However, after arriving in Yunzhou, they were able to find out that the situation was critical and quickly rushed over, and they were able to save people in the deadly battle of Chu Yuxiong. It is not a coincidence that the magic weapon and the magic weapon can be summarized. It can be seen that she is very powerful!

After Shen Lang's "blood-induced madness", the person was very weak, and he was healed here. Even if he had been with him for many days, he did not know what level she was.

When I went to the Ice Palace, I was practicing at a retreat.

Just meeting, Shen Lang feels that her temperament has reached a new level, completely different from before.

Now she confidently said this sentence, Shen Lang estimated that when he saved him last time, he has already reached the peak of the virtual world, and now, it should have just broken through the realm!

Twenty-year-old Jurchen! It's not inferior to the talents of the heroes list Xueba is a schoolmaster!

What is the first thing!

However, he is not bad now, although the conditions are far from good, his experience, his exercises, his adventures, etc., have been added.

“You mean this... let me work hard, so that I can't match you later?” Shen Lang tweeted.

Rain fell a little smile: “You don't want to overtake me?”

“Ah?” Shen Lang's eyes widened. This, this... How is it so open?

“You mean better than you, you can fuck...”

“When you announced in public that the ultimate goal was first, I was the first, didn't I want to overtake me?” His expression made the rain a bit strange.

Shen Lang spit a sigh of relief: “I thought you said that you are doing exercises...”

Chapter 399 - Upstart delivery

It took a second for the rain to react to what he meant.

She was cold and bleak, and could not help but be slightly annoyed: “Worse!”

“Haha, I want to be embarrassed! I still want to fall into the rain, how can students be so bold?”

Only the two of them are here, Shen Lang does not mind swearing, hit a haha fool.

But the words behind the rain, but he did not think of it!

“And, the exercise is the flat tongue ci, the transcendental super is the tongue of the tongue. The meaning of your wretchedness is another word, even if it is fake, it should be the fourth sound, not the first sound. ”

“Schoolmaster is a tyrant, and you are left behind...”

Shen Lang really wants to cry and tears. He really wanted to marry, not deliberately misinterpreting.

But she is such a serious problem of correcting pinyin, it will definitely dilute any warm atmosphere.

The rain fell and shook his head: "The old and honest children have learned badly..."

"..." Shen Lang smiled bitterly: "How long have we been away from school, but also as my monitor?"

"Oh, you have the ability to be stronger than me, then I can't manage you anything."

Shen Langxin said that the old masters who lived in the real world have been stunned, let alone you a new female master?

However, of course he can also hear that it is the meaning of motivating him to go up, and he will not be disappointed.

"Right, ask you one thing. Thousands of caves to reopen, will your ice palace also go?" Shen Lang asked seriously.

It's a bit surprised to see the rain: "Do you know?"

However, she immediately reacted, and she must have known it from the Tianshan Jianzong.

"Well, yes. Master's meaning is to let me go through the experience." For Shen Lang, she does not have to guard the secret.

Shen Lang thought about it. The meaning of falling rivers should be that the rain has broken through the realm of existence and has a certain ability to protect itself. It is precisely when more training is needed and more resources are needed.

But he has another plan!

"I want you to stop."

“Well? Why?” It was a bit strange to fall. “You are... know what’s the problem?”

“That is not. But the Thousand Grottoes must be very dangerous. I think what you need now is to consolidate the realm, not to take risks at this time!”

Shen Lang said very seriously. After the breakthrough, the realm is still unstable.

Even if he had a past experience in the past, the second day in the second day on the plane to break through the “Yin and Yang Bo Ruozen” is also creating chaos.

After arriving at the Zheng family, he also continued to practice steadily.

He is because he has reached the realm of the Great God before, so he knows the specific situation at any time. In this respect, there is a shortcut to experience.

But other people are not up to it, and it takes longer to stabilize the realm.

Of course, this is not necessarily a retreat. Daily practice is just fine. In the case of the ancient ruins of the crisis, once there is any change, it is dangerous.

“Thank you.”

She understands that this is really concerned about her safety and will be so truthful. Going home for the New Year, whether it is an elder or a friend, knowing this news is a kind of compliment.

“But Master...”

Her words have not been finished, Shen Lang has taken two wooden boxes out.

“I understand – resources! You have broken through the realm of existence, with your talent, there is a great future behind, and may even progress quickly, but need more resources!”

Shen Lang said, while opening the lobular rosewood box, revealing the snow fruit inside.

“The fallen river predecessors will pay more attention to you, and it is impossible to exhaust the power of the ice palace. After all, a martial art needs long-term planning and development.”

When the division has been unable to supply more, and has the capital to walk the world, of course, you have to earn more resources yourself.

“You are this...”

For Xue Lingguo, which was directly plugged in by Shen Lang, it was impossible to say anything.

It turned out that this is the real purpose of Shen Lang to see her!

I thought I was coming here to borrow a place to retreat, or a date that my men and women admired. I didn't expect to give her such a big gift!

“I can't accept it. On the one hand, it is too expensive. On the other hand, it will trap you in the wrong.”

The rain fell immediately and rejected the good intentions of Shen Lang.

In her opinion, this is definitely the collection of the Tianshan Jianzong. Even if Shen Lang's master is very good, he can get the snow fruit. But this will inevitably make other people in Tianshan Jianzong dissatisfied.

Shen Lang laughed and said: “You think too much. This is not what I stole, I bought it with my own Lingshi! I want to give it to anyone, not to Tianshan Jianzong, they have not Qualifications govern me.”

“Buy? Where are you coming from...”

After the rain fell, the reaction came over: “Before the legendary Qingyuan Tangyuan Fair, someone once bid for two snow Linguo, and there is a bottle of phoenix, is that you?”

She was really shocked, and she did not expect that there were so many spiritual stones in Shen Lang.

His generosity is known. When she was at school, she was given a Lingshi. At that time, he had no Lingshi himself.

The last time he was healed here, he also actively returned to the Ice Palace, but the items he took out were all obtained in the dead forest for a year and a half.

Looking at the elixir, the bones of the beast, in fact, she was very sad at the time.

Because this is his loneliness to survive in another world, it is a day when you can't see hope, and you are suffering every day.

Those rewards, the main lord of the palace still feel dissatisfied, but also want to get more from him, but the rain was very touched at the time, I feel as valuable as a mountain.

However, it also shows that Shen Lang does not have a Lingshi, or else it should give her a stone. It's separated now, but it's so mad!

“Yes. But the original price of the phoenix is transferred to the people of Shuiyue Dongtian. It is said that their elders are waiting for their lives. The information of Qiangjialing is what they gave me. Otherwise, the phoenix can also give you...”

“No, no, I don't mean this.” Rain fell and shook his head: “I mean, this is how many thousands of Lingshi you spent on bidding, how can you give it to me?”

“Do you think I bought it? Why buy two? Just because it has a miracle effect on you!”

I heard the news before the rain, and I was envious and regret.

Xue Lingguo is really wonderful for his pure Yin . The continuous leap now is the effect of a snowy fruit in the dead forest.

But she is also very clear that the price of more than two thousand Lingshi, even if the teacher or the family is affordable, it is impossible to make so much for her alone.

But she did not expect that she was envious, and she regretted that she was originally for her!

Looking at the natural waves, the rain fell and sighed: "Don't do this... I can't return. You have saved me, and the snow Lingguo is also thanks to your life to block them, or else... .."

"You have not saved me?"

Shen Lang once again stuffed things into her hands.

"Oh! Don't wear it out, I don't mean anything else. It's not to make you grateful or guilty."

"It's just that I met, they are maximizing your effect here, and I just can afford it. You should be a slinger, have money, play the face of the nouveau riche, earn face in the goddess!"

Chapter 400 - Please

Seeing Shen Lang in order to let himself accept with peace of mind, he will not hesitate to devalue himself.

There was a strong warmth in her heart.

She is a very good-born, and has a great talent, and she has been cultivated by her aunt.

It can be said that there is something, but no matter what others give her, it is to please her, all with utilitarianism, and they are affordable.

But the Shen Lang is not the same. When she gave her a spiritual stone at school, it should be his only.

And she did not feel that he had the meaning of pleasing beautiful girls, purely rewards, including the last time here.

This time is also this day.

More than two thousand Lingshi, no matter which martial family, is not a dispensable little money.

And he didn't tell her at all, just because she needed it, she bought it regardless of everything, and it was auctioned for it!

There was no request for her, and she was worried that she would have a burden and would not hesitate to belittle herself.

Falling into the rain will not be arrogant, and her background will be so talented that she knows how superior she is.

But if Shen Lang just wants to get a good woman, more than two thousand Lingshi, enough to let a lot of young female monks take the initiative to dedicate themselves.

If you change to worldly money, it is worth one billion yuan, and dozens of hundreds of young and beautiful women can easily get it.

Just because she needs it, because she doesn't want her to venture to find resources, she will do all the decisive shots.

This... should be like, it should be love!

Even if he didn't say anything at all, she felt it.

"Okay! I accept." Raining makes you smile with a relaxed smile.

Although her mood is not easy, she does not want to sink her waves in order to make her easy to devalue herself.

"That's right. The two snow-fruited fruit in the district is not a big deal. What's the phoenix, I have a chance to get you a little."

Shen Lang is active in the atmosphere with exaggerated bragging.

"Oh... at school, my grades are better. I will be treated as a goddess, but now you are really walking through the world, have seen the world, and still feel the goddess?"

Rain fell in a joke tone and asked.

“Please! Goddess is not because we are small places, what time is it now. The beauty of the country and the whole world can be seen by everyone. I have never seen pork before.”

Seeing her white eyes came over, Shen Lang hit a haha, and quickly took it, it is not very good to compare the beauty to the “pig”.

“No kidding.” Rain said seriously.

“They, I accept it, and I understand your mind. However, when I can help or protect you in the future, you can’t refuse me for the face!”

Shen Lang smiled and shrugged: “Of course.”

She is to be strong, even if she accepts this gift, she will help him after growing up.

“However, if you want to protect me, you have to cultivate it. Although your talents are improving fast, I am not slow!”

This is also a confession, but she still grinned: “Can you progress faster, can you catch up with the speed of your Hummer?”

“Hey, hey... Ok, everyone is messing with me.” Shen Lang is innocent: “For example, your cousin.”

“Speaking, I have not officially apologized to you, I was really sorry last time.”

That time she was in a retreat, and in the name of her, she sent someone to swindle Shen Lang, but fortunately he was fine.

“It doesn’t matter, ask her blessing, see your grandmother, haha!”

Shen Lang made a joke and then reminded him intentionally or unintentionally.

“That... In fact, I am also relatively stingy. This is for you, not for the Ice Palace.”

When the rain fell, I understood it. Shen Lang was afraid that she would hand it over to the division.

She smiled slightly: “I know that you don’t trust my cousin, but the big thing is Master, you have seen Master. I will tell her that she will definitely use it on me.”

There is nothing to say about Shen Lang. Can you not let Luohe know?

Moreover, in order to maximize the effectiveness of Xueling Fruit, it is certainly better to have a rich experience, and it will be much better than a sneak sneak ate.

“I can rest assured that.”

“In fact, the boat was apologized to me afterwards. Let me tell her an apology, but you have always been irritated. I didn’t think about it every time I contacted you.”

“Understood. Your Master said that she saw her in Tiandong last time, knowing that she is not a bad person.”

The raft will be rushed to Biyunfeng on New Year’s Eve. I believe it is also arranged by the river, but it is not convenient to help him.

Going to Tiandong, I said, I want to do something and to resolve the grievances of him and Xie Daolin.

Although she did not succeed, she also worked hard, and they also scrutinized her existence.

“That... can I ask you for a favor?”

It’s hard to see the faint expression of the rain, and Shen Lang guessed it at a glance.

“What do you mean... will she go to Qiangjialing?”

Rain fell and nodded: “The two of us will definitely have one to go, and only one will go.”

She didn't say more, but she could basically guess.

For Luohe, this is not only an ice palace disciple, but also a child who has settled down. There are dangerous things, she can't let both go.

But they are all in the growth stage, they all need to experience and need resources!

If you don't have to go to the rain, then you will naturally let the canoe go.

After all, besides danger, this is also a big chance.

“Well, I promise you, if I meet, I will try to take care of her.”

Shen Lang seriously promised, but it can only be like this, can not promise more.

After all, the identity of the two of them is not the same, leaving aside the relationship with him, not to mention, the canoe is now the palace!

If it is raining, she can pull her out of the ice palace. However, if the palace leader leads the team, it will not be able to merge and act together.

So when I can only meet her when she is in danger, she will help me if she meets again.

Thanks to the rain, she also knows that Shen Lang did not remember to hate the palace, it is not bad, just look at her face and take a look.

However, she just said this Her sister-in-law is not a leisurely generation.

And knowing that Shen Lang will go to Qiangjialing, she will also say the same to follow the canoe, and hope that when she meets, she can also help Shen Lang.

It's just that she won't talk to Shen Lang now.

After finishing the business, and chatting for a while, Shen Lang left the cave and returned to Tianshan Jianzong.

The appearance of Qiangjialing is time-limited and can only be arranged before retreat.

If you can get good resources, of course, it is more cost-effective than retreat. This time, there will be a lot of opponents. He led the team not only to strengthen his strength, but also to make the people around him have something to gain.

For Jianzong disciples, he has no feelings. Of course, he is willing to say the survival rate of the 12th to the third, but it is not to be degraded for Zheng Yumeng's bleak, Dorothy, and Gao.

Naturally, we must be prepared. Tianshan Jianzong, as well as the sword altar!
