

First Strong 45

Chapter 45 - Reporter

Although Yue Zhennan wants to go to C County immediately, but he is not idle every day, there are many things that have already been arranged.

Moreover, he also deliberately took a gesture, so that he is a big man who has a big head, so that he will pass the past and go straight, is there a share?

The next few days of Shen Lang, as usual, at school, study review, test what, or just take time to go back to drink Baibao Rehmandour.

In terms of medicinal materials, he also continued to book 500,000 with Han Manager, and agreed to send it next week.

He ordered some small bottles online, almost the size of a perfume bottle, used to hold the treasure.

Not to go to school portable, he just came back to drink it. This is the last part, divided into dozens of small bottles.

The last piece of jade, the Yue family did not hesitate to buy two million, and it was also the energy of the above. The last words of Yue Sheng also let him confirm that the Yue family is seriously ill or needs to prolong life.

The strength of cultivation is very precious for Shen Lang. It is better to sell this treasure to God.

Half-day leave on Saturday afternoon, Shen Lang packed up and went home. This time he brought five small bottles of treasured soup and one ginseng.

It is not that he does not want to give more to his mother, but that his mother is an ordinary person. He needs to take it slowly after dilution. If he is too much, he will not be able to bear it.

For the mother's question, he also already thought of an excuse, saying that when he came back, he got a bag on the street and handed it to the police, and the owner was waiting anxiously there.

When he returned something to him, the owner had to pay for it, but he refused. So he gave him a few small bottles of herbal tea, saying that it was very healthy to drink with water. He learned that he was a high school student and gave him this ginseng.

This excuse, although the mother is a bit skeptical, but also accepted. Because Shen Lang has always been like this, when it comes to things, it will not be greedy, nor will it require the remuneration of others. It is estimated that the loss of the family is also a wish. In the presence of the police, there should be no harm to people.

This small bottle is not a good packaging. It looks like three products, really like herbal tea. There is no packaging for ginseng. It seems to be similar to the Codonopsis sold in pharmacies. It is not worth much.

The mother immediately went to buy a chicken ginseng soup to supplement her son, and these herbal teas also let him drink. Shen Lang said that he was willing to drink soup, but this herbal tea tasted too bitter. If the mother did not drink, he threw it.

Mothers can still accept herbal tea for Chinese medicine. If you know the good medicine, you can use a little bit of fire to detoxify. The people sent it with kindness and threw it, and promised her to drink water slowly.

Waiting for the chicken soup to go well, the mother went to work at night, and told him to eat more soup, and the rest would eat it tomorrow morning.

Obviously, even if it is considered to be ordinary ginseng, the mother still hopes that the ginseng chicken soup will be given to the son to make up the body.

This makes Shen Lang very warm and very moved, he did not eat much, keep the mother back to eat tomorrow.

He also got inspiration from selling the jade of the Yue family, which was the need to sell medicine. Now, in addition to refining medicine, there is enough money, so he placed an order online and spent 10,000 yuan to buy a piece of jade.

Ten thousand pieces of jade, for the jewelry worn by ordinary people, can be bought well, but it is not a top good jade.

Shen Lang can't buy anything now, including the one he sold, which was abolished that year. Now just need a piece of a little better, less than a lot of impurities to make a carrier.

Jade was received today, but he could not give this to his mother, which is not easy to explain.

After the mother went to work, he injected vitality into the jade. He did not want to inject vitality into the Yue family, but he did not hesitate to the mother. It was completely inferior to the spirit of the jade that was given to the Yue family last time.

He opened the pillow that the mother slept, stuffed the little jade into the center of the cotton, and then rearranged the pillow.

The mother is very provincial, the pillow will not be thrown for many years, and usually there is a pillow towel, and the pillowcase will not be removed frequently. Even if the pillowcase is removed, the jade stuffed into the cotton will not fall out.

Shen Lang wants to be protected in this way when the mother sleeps. The energy he injected will last for almost a year before it dissipates. Although some will be wasted, it will make your mother healthier.

This is only temporary. When there is a better chance in the future, he will secretly protect his parents in a better way.

On Sunday, Shen Lang received a call from Yue Zhennan, saying that he came over at noon and asked him to go to the Yue Yue Hotel in Huayue Hotel for dinner.

Shen Lang knows that he can't help it anymore!

Bai Shenghua's five million, Yue Zhennan has been transferred to him, he also received the bank's information, knowing that his account has been upgraded to a gold card VIP user.

Shen Lang was prepared and prepared a small bottle in his pocket.

At noon he did not go to the cafeteria and went straight out of the school gate.

Dong Wenbin also went out to eat with Lin Yun and Li Rong. He saw Shen Lang going out and let him secretly resent. He felt that Shen Lang's two weeks of eating and drinking "spending" were his money.

"Fuck! See how long you can use it!" He vomited. It was his week's living expenses. Shen Lang is now used for two weeks. It is estimated that there are still few left, and it is not necessary to return to the embarrassing days. ?

At this time, they saw a luxury car slowly coming over and stopped directly in front of Shen Lang, then the driver immediately got off the bus, ran to open the door to Shen Lang, ask him to get on the bus!

This made the three of them look a little bit and then reviled together.

"Paralyzed! And hit the senior car to force!"

"Is this guy stealing money? Even if he plays dozens of pieces, he can't afford it."

When I heard the words of two younger brothers, Dong Wenbin was like a sickle. This special use is definitely his money!

Looking at the car and driving away, the three people reviled than the middle finger.

Shen Lang saw them coming out behind, but they didn't pay any attention to them. As long as Dong Wenbin no longer provoked him, it would be a fly completely ignore him.

Of course, the car is Yuezhennan. He considers that Shenlang is going to class. If he is not good, he will recommend it in a small restaurant on the edge of the county. This is something he can't accept, and it's not convenient to talk.

In order to let Shen Lang come to the only moon palace that he can see, he arranged the driver to pick up the bus.

“Lang brother! I am waiting for you here!” When the car arrived at the door of the lobby, Yue Zhennan smiled forward.

Shen Lang certainly does not believe that he will really wait here. It is estimated that the driver reported when he received him, counting the time.

“Nobody else?”

“No! You like to socialize, I will find someone to accompany you, but you don’t like it, I will definitely not add chaos.” Yue Zhennan smiled and led Shen Lang to the box.

In order not to waste the time of the waves, he arranged it properly, and it was just already cooked. Then the screenkeeper was screened back for easy conversation.

“You, okay, twenty or thirty years, you are the first to interrupt the white seven-legged legs!”
