

First Strong 491

Chapter 491 - No return to hell

Shen Lang said that the unique character, Fuyang real people have been taught, and dare not talk to him about conditions.

I immediately told it seriously: “Five hundred years ago, I found no return to the sea, it is said that it is the shortcut to the fairy world, and the world is full of heroes!”

That time, I went to the sea of innocence, and many people were holding on to the thoughts of not going back. If you can really enter the fairy world, of course, you will not come back again; if it is not the door to the fairy world, it is very likely to be an abyss of hell, that is, if you want to go back, you will not come back.

However, the ones who went there that time were all the top-ranking strongmen. If they went to sway, they could not return safely. Other people were killed.

Therefore, many people have not told the family to the real martial art, and some have left their weapons and weapons collection.

The heroes who went to that time did not return.

The “gate of the fairyland”, which was originally regarded as a new hope, became a “no return to the sea”.

The successors of the generation at that time knew this situation, and many people knew it.

However, since the predecessors Yinghao can not succeed, in order to avoid the blind death of young disciples, everyone agreed to avoid this topic.

After a generation of blockades, waiting for the next generation, there are very few people now knowing.

Although this is a legendary past for Fuyang real people, it still makes him stunned.

Shen Lang listened very carefully and also confirmed his previous conjecture!

Gao Hanqiu's ending in Tianshan Jianzong was unsatisfactory, and his Qiushui sword was left in Jianzong. Later generations of disciples would rather believe that the Zhongxing ancestor was breaking through the void and feathering the fairy.

However, only a few hundred years have passed, and Shen Lang has become more and more in-depth with the realm of comprehension, only to find that there is a fault.

Now the name of the realm of comprehension has changed. I don't know many people and things hundreds of years ago.

He once wondered if something happened in the collective, and now it is finally confirmed.

It should be shortly after his fall, and perhaps for a few decades, there has been a "gate of the fairyland", which has led to the rush of masters.

The final result was that the strongest top monks at the time disappeared in a very short time.

So there is an obvious fault.

After this "gate of the fairyland" became "no return to the sea", it was also forgotten together.

Jiangshan has talented people, and the strongmen of later generations, of course, are shaping their glory, and will not trace the ancestors who have disappeared.

"Since history, you know why you still have to go?"

Shen Lang immediately asked, he estimated that the real people in Fuyang still have some concealment.

"Because of the secret!"

Fuyang lived out of the mouth.

“When I figured it out...”

Speaking of this, Fuyang real people gave a “you know” look, did not elaborate.

“So I am going to follow this opportunity, I want to go with it. What if?”

“If you die there?” Shen Lang sighed.

Fuyang real people smiled a little bit awkwardly: “I also know that there were so many heroes in the past that I couldn’t come back. I can’t see enough with my ability.”

“But in my life, how to live has already survived. It is my greatest achievement to steal the secrets. It is not the life I want to live again.”

“I don’t see you are still very adventurous.” Shen Lang is still ridiculous.

As described by Fuyang real people, now he is also far from the sea. Not as good as his real life, but don’t care. Absolutely not as simple as he said!

“When everything has changed, I don’t mind fighting!” Fuyang said very seriously: “Even if it is dead, it is worth it!”

Whether he is really so thoughtful, or have other ideas, Shen Lang can’t see his words, and he will not continue.

“Although I don’t know what you said, there is no return to hell, but with our current strength, it should not be able to go.”

Shen Lang directly said.

This is not related to the infernal relationship with him. It is not true that it is not important. It is related to this big change in the fault five hundred years ago, and he will eventually explore it.

But people still have to be self-aware. When they went there, they were all top-notch. Shen Lang thought that he did not have this strength.

If there is no self-protection ability, there is a chance to go through the sky, and I dare not try it.

The forest of death is a small slap in the 20s, and he has been there in Qiangjialing.

Fuyang real person immediately said: "I don't mean to go right away, when you go, take me with you."

He had not contacted Shen Lang before, of course he would not be anxious to go immediately.

Shen Lang immediately asked: "Where do you say this place can go at any time?"

The real person in Fuyang immediately realized that he had inadvertently captured information and was captured by Shen Lang.

"I don't marry you. For the non-return to the sea, our celestial sects are recorded, and the past generations have also been pursued. So the approximate place is clear, and it is certain that it has been there, but occasionally some years are gone. of."

After listening to these clues, Shen Lang actually has a general impression.

It is very likely that he was sensing the apocalyptic waters on the plane during the Chinese New Year!

Before he thought about it, it might be the reason why the earth's aura is more full, but what kind of situation is the seabed, only to wait until the future strength is stronger.

Now combined with the words of Fuyang, it is likely that it is a door to space!

The cultivation of the power of 500 years ago should have discovered this place through the aura of the aura. Through the rich contrast of the aura, it will be the door to the fairyland.

As for the ones that have gone, they are not coming back, and there is nothing strange about it.

Whether it is a fairy or not, the aura that overflows is so full, which shows that the world's self-cultivation environment is good.

How do you go back to the small village in the small village?

It is Shen Lang himself, and during the Chinese New Year, he went to the rivers and rivers to go to a class meeting, and at other times he would not return to Cao County.

Yi Jin returned home to visit relatives, there are also, but as the top of the comprehension old age will not be small, there will be no parents like them to let their loved ones, friends of the same level, almost all together went.

Whatever the rest of the disciples will not be so shackled. And if you get to a great place to practice, everyone will be hungry.

At that level, a retreat for decades is nothing unusual. If you come back to the sea, you will not leave any traces.

"I don't lie to you! I really know the address!" Seeing that Shen Lang does not speak, Xiangyang real people think that they do not believe him, and quickly cried.

"Leave your contact information. When I decide to go, I will call you." Shen Lang took out his mobile phone and jokingly added: "I hope it will not be decades later."

Fuyang's face is awkward, and he is concerned about Shen Lang. The growth rate of these two years is enough to make anyone jealous. So I don't think it will take long. If it takes decades, he really doesn't know if he has patience.

From his expression, Shen Lang guessed that he or their celestial patriots, there is no secret to go to the sealess prison!

Chapter 492 - Genius crash

Everyone has a secret.

It is impossible for anyone to have an interest and a selfless contribution.

Shen Lang knows this very well, so I have no problem at all. As long as it is reliable and gets the benefits they want, it is a win-win situation.

Just like Mo Qi and Dorothy.

When Shen Lang and Fuyang came out, all the Ye family gathered in the yard. In addition to being driven out before, there are still some strengths.

Of course, the so-called strength here is actually a superb warrior.

After all, there are only a handful of Ye Family monks, and now there are only two, one is the leaf bamboo, which is still in the virtual world, and the other is Ye Shiguang, who used the Lingshi and Shenlang to change the treasure.

Ye Shiguang has now broken through the Yuanyuan and reached his goal in life. After Ye Shifeng was buried in the Tomb of the King, and Ye Long was abolished, he was fragrant.

Others are evacuating the old and the weak women, so as not to be washed in the blood.

Although Ye Long was abolished, he was still a spiritual leader, and he was in the center with Ye Shiguang.

Ye Kuzhu was thrown out by Zheng Yumeng because he just wanted to break in, and then he was forbidden to move on the ground.

“Everyone has to be nervous. I have no grudges with Master Shen. I can even say that God has been dealing with each other for a long time. I just talked about each other’s friendship.”

The real people in Fuyang have already arranged the appearances at the moment. When they came out, they also talked with a kind smile.

However, this swollen face is full of fat, and if you put gold on your face, it is to make Ye Jia up and down a little dark eyes.

Was stunned by vomiting blood, is it just friendship? That's really going to be done, isn't it already seen the king?

However, other people's fists are big, even if they lose to Shen Lang, they are far from being able to match them, or they must be honest.

Zheng Yumeng looked at Shen Lang and saw that he had defaulted to the "friendly declaration" of Fuyang's real person. He raised his hand and untied the ban on the leaf and bamboo, and threw him to the side of Ye Long.

Fuyang real people did not look at the leaves and bamboos, but smiled at Shen Lang.

"The purpose of my visit has been reached. I have to do this, so don't go over it, contact us!"

After that, he did not take the leaves and bamboos and flew directly away. It has disappeared from Yejiacun in an instant.

The real person in Fuyang is the biggest backing of Ye Family. When he left the mountain, he just started to panic about the Ye family who was disdainful.

They realized that they did not ridicule the qualifications of Fuyang real people!

Even if the real person in Fuyang is beaten to vomit and fall, there is still the right to talk to Shen Lang in the end, and they are no different from ants in front of Shen Lang.

Do you care about the life and death of an ant?

Do you want to annihilate them, it's just between you. Don't talk about entanglement, you don't have a sense of guilt, let alone guilt!

However, they secretly confessed that the real person did not have loyalty. He ran away if he could not win. This is why he put the Ye family up and baked.

Their eyes all gathered in the leaf bitter bamboo – the apprentice of Fuyang real people.

The human heart is the same.

At the beginning of the Chu family, the Yue family elites blamed their help.

Now provoked Shen Lang, Ye Jia elites, but also blame the leaves and bamboos that have brought them glory.

“What did you say on New Year’s Eve?”

In the face of Shen Lang’s questioning, Ye Long’s face was bleak. The last time he was still impassioned, relying on a hard bone to let Shen Lang net open.

But now, in less than half a year, I can’t do it myself, and proactively provoke the incident. What else do you say?

“It has nothing to do with Ye Lao, this time is me!”

Ye Kuzhu stood up.

The blow he suffered this time was no lower than the last time.

The last time I was directly squeezed by Shen Lang, I didn’t have the power to fight back.

Not to mention this time now, Shen Lang simply disdained him, just a female hand, he played without the power to fight back!

What made him even more shocked was the god-like master in his mind!

The performance of Fuyang’s real people directly caused his  to collapse and the feeling of destruction. It’s just because of the pressure of the Shen Lang. Actually, regardless of the life and death of the Ye family, he ran alone!

“I am so bad that I am not righteous, I am not as good as a pig!”

I wanted to express my heart with resentment, but now I have collapsed and I just want to die.

When he said this, he shot his head directly to his head!

As a monk who is still in the virtual world, there are many ways to commit suicide.

But he deliberately chose the most staunch one!

Just everyone's eyes made him feel that he was complained by everyone. Revenge is hopeless that even Master has abandoned it. These add up, so that he wants to smash his head directly and give it back to everyone...

At the last time, Yue Zhennan spoke for Ye Kuzhu, but this time he got him here again. If it wasn't for Shen Lang's timely arrival, the consequences would be hard to say.

So he did not speak again. When he saw this scene, he unconsciously opened his mouth and wanted to save.

But what can he save? His strength is not as good as the leaves and bamboos. When the opening is finished, it is already late!

Ye Long did not shout, but he was abolished. When he turned his head and saw it clearly, he couldn't talk anymore.

Ye Shiguang has no openings, after all, it is related to interests!

After Ye Shifeng died, it was the abolished Ye Long temporary patriarch. There is nothing to say about it. He is highly respected. Other people do not have this qualification.

After Ye Shifeng became a self-cultivator, his identity was different, and his right to speak at Ye Family also increased.

However, Ye Long did not let him take over as the patriarch. The reason is of course because of the relationship between the leaves and the bamboo.

By the time the leaf bitter bamboo returned strongly, it almost became the leading figure of Pingxi. It was a nail on the patriarch, and there was that strength, and the qualifications were not a problem.

Just because Ye Kuzhu didn't pay much attention to Ye Family, or followed Master, let Ye Long continue to be a temporary generation.

Ye Shiguang is of course reluctant. This time, the leaves are suffering, and it should be able to break the competitiveness of the patriarch.

So he has no chance to dissuade him, but he is interested. Of course, he does not want Ye Kuizhu to really die, and still keep a signboard of Ye Family.

At the critical time, the body of Ye Kuzhu was not allowed to move.

Provoking for a long time, he finally waited until Shen Lang to shoot him again.

Just a moment, he has clearly felt that he can only be regarded as "inch" in the first half of the year, while others are sprinting in a hundred meters!

"I thought you still have the bones, giving you a strong chance to find revenge for me. But you don't live up to it..." Shen Lang shook his head.

No one in Yejia can save him. Ye Kuzhu is not strange, but there is no one to stop, and no one excuses or shares him, so he is ruined by this family.

"You killed me, I won't hate you. I really thank you!"

Shen Lang reached out and sneered: "I won't let you go!"

The leaf bitter bamboo suddenly felt an abnormal condition in the body, as if the body had been evacuated.

"What happened to you?"

“Yejiu genius You don’t hate me, just re-cultivate from the superb warrior!”

Shen Lang just took his repairs to almost all of them, and the rest is equivalent to the super-wu.

Leaf bitter bamboo desperately stumbles, this is really better than killing him!

Shen Lang did not bother to kill other people, but gave Ye Shiguang a warning eye that made his soul shudder. Then Shen Xing directly took Zheng Yumeng, Yue Zhennan and Mo Qi together.

“The university is going back to kindergarten. You are really too embarrassed.” Zheng Yumeng couldn’t help but swear.

The leaf bitter bamboo has become a small black spot, and in the end, Yejiacun is also a small black spot.

“Speaking a little bit, this is his robbery, but also his chance. In the past, this life will be better than before!”

A commentary by Shen Lang, let Zheng Yumeng, Yue Zhennan and Mo Qi think about it.

Chapter 493 - Eve of the fair

The last time I met with the south of Moqiyue Town, there were also half a year in the past. The two of them also worked hard to cultivate and did not slack off.

However, they are not as fast as the waves, and there is no obvious change. With their talents and resources, they can go further in a year or two. It is already very good.

No more changes, you may enter two or three realms in your life, and you will be at the end.

In Pingxi alone, such a repair is already a first-class person, but Shen Lang still feels a little inadequate.

This time, although it is the relationship between Fuyang and real people, in fact, as long as he supports, Ye Zhuzhu will dare to shoot.

The real people in Fuyang are not enough to worry about, and the leaves and bamboos are also abolished. Yue Zhennan is the strongest in Pingxi.

However, considering that there will be variables in the future, Shen Lang will help them to take a ride, and lift Mo Qi to the middle of the Yuan Dynasty, and upgrade Yue Zhennan to the peak of Yuanyuan.

And from the “phoenix marrow” inside, take a point, give them two to serve.

Like his parents, taking the phoenix is a long-term change in physique.

In this way, their two next goals are the return to the late Yuan Dynasty and the early days of the virtual world.

Yue Zhennan saw Zheng Yumeng again, and it was a bit embarrassing.

At the beginning, they were promoted to be self-cultivators by Shen Lang on the same day. Now, two years later, Zheng Yumeng is already a master of masters.

However, he believes that Zheng Yumeng is a descendant of the king, has such achievements, and has no embarrassment, but maintains a very respectful.

Everyone chats, that is, simple narrative. Other aspects, because of the different levels, are more difficult to talk about together.

Shen Lang wants to say that the Master League and the like, Yue Zhennan will be a look of sorrow, and Yue Zhennan wants to say the development of Pingxi, Shen Lang will have no interest.

After separation, Shen Lang and Zheng Yumeng returned home.

In addition to accompanying their parents, they are in the opposite room.

Of course, it's not that parents think that glues like paint stick together, but they compete with each other for time.

Shen Lang is because of the news of "no return to the sea", let him realize that it may actually have a "celestial opportunity". But the strength is not strong enough, he can't go.

Zheng Yumeng was from Yuezhennan, and he had a deeper understanding of what Shen Langming said before.

If she can't keep up with the pace of Shen Lang, it may become like this in the future!

What is the relationship between the two people?

Even if he is married, the strength is not enough to keep up with him, then he can only stay at home, looking forward to his occasional reunion.

This is stress and her motivation.

Of course, in addition to cultivation, men and women who have just ignited the flames will inevitably have to fight for more time to do something about that.

A few days later, Shen Lang would have to leave. This time, when he came back to visit his parents, he was already taking time off.

Shennan Han Fengying and his wife are naturally very sad, but this time they let Zheng Yumeng follow, feeling that she has taken care of her son, can be more assured.

Shen Lang did not disappoint their thoughts. Zheng Yumeng also looked forward to it and took her to Qingchuan City.

Come to Qingchuan City, Shen Lang is also a little emotional.

The last time he didn't even have an invitation, he followed Wu Bowen and sang the invitation of Su Datong.

This time, although he still did not hold the invitation, but it can be said that this time Tangyuan is directed at him.

Shen Lang still stayed at the last hotel. After that, he contacted Gao Li and Qi Sheng.

I agreed to meet here before, including the hotel is also good.

Gao Li and Qi Sheng quickly came over and they had already checked in here.

The two are moving around the world, and of course there is another identity. Otherwise, the status of “100-year-old”, whether it is an airplane or a hotel, will attract people’s attention. The age of identity is similar to their appearance.

Seeing Zheng Yumeng and Shen Lang together, they did not have any surprise. When they went to Qiangjialing last time, Shen Lang also squeezed a room with Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy.

This is also a comrade-in-arms who has ventured to Qiangjialing. Gao Li and Qi Sheng have a cordial feeling for Zheng Yumeng.

However, they feel a bit strange, I feel that Zheng girl is warm, but a bit rusty.

This is the same as when I first met, so they didn’t ask much and didn’t think much. It is estimated that when she is performing the task, it will be as cold as a person!

This conjecture also made them feel awkward. Now they may be able to do it. At the age of this, they can’t do it.

They immediately reported back to Shen Lang, and they already had a high exit, and contacted the Tangyuan trade fair.

This special trade fair, unlike the previous “anonymous stealth”, is a semi-public form.

Still at that scene, there will be a batch of resources released from Qiangjialing. You can choose Lingshi to buy, or exchange the necessary items.

In addition, some of the more precious ones, and no specific items to be exchanged, will be in the form of auctions.

This time, the participation of this platform in Tangyuan is even greater. Everyone is also based on the credibility of the Tangyuan-Master League headquarters.

According to the news they have heard, this time the scale is not big or small.

Because it is the transaction of thousands of ridges, it attracted many martial arts families from the top grade to come to Taobao.

Because it is the same relationship, the general family martial art, only know that consumption can not afford, it will not come.

Gao Li has already received an invitation letter, and he has booked the car, and will send them directly together.

But soon, Shen Lang found that the decision to live in the same hotel was wrong!

After the departure of Gao Lisheng, he was not allowed to be peaceful, and several visitors came one after another! Obviously it is because of the last relationship, but pay special attention to this hotel information.

The first one came was Su Datong and Su Meizhen.

Su Datong's intention is very simple, that is, he hopes to go along with Shen Lang and see the higher level of heaven and earth.

Their brothers are very obsessed with this aspect, Wu Bowen did not come this time.

Shen Lang estimates that Wu Bowen was glimpsing him, because the invitation letter of Su Datong was used last time. This time, Su Datong was not invited, and he came to speak, which made people feel that they were asking for a return.

The bond between him and Su Datong is Wu Bowen. Lao Wu feels embarrassed and can't refuse the younger brother. He can only avoid it.

Su Datong will bring Su Meizhen, and it is estimated that it is to add a little more weight.

Shen Lang does not like to owe people to the world. Although the last time the medicinal materials of the dead forest were sold to Su Datong, it has already paid attention to human feelings. But once again, the official invitation letter was once again, and he certainly agreed to be refreshed.

And intentionally said that you can invite Wu Bowen together, he believes that Wu Bowen must have also arrived in Qingchuan!

Su Meizhen did not say anything during the whole process. She would have liked to see if Shen Lang would still remember her. I didn't expect a beautiful woman in the room...

Zhuo Yuan still used the "beauty plan", but still invited the wind to help.

Their purpose is to hope that if there is something good in Shenlang in Qiangjialing, they can trade privately. They are willing to pay the same price and only want to buy it.

Chapter 494 - Surprise breakthrough

For the request of Shuiyue Dongtian, Shen Lang can only be perfunctory, because he himself wants to buy resources, and Lingshi, he has so many and can't use it now.

It's gone, and it's the same as Joe's, and the purpose is the same.

Compared with the Shuiyue Cave, the Beihai Qiao family is of course different. They promised something better. If you want to exchange other items, Joe's family can be satisfied.

Shen Lang is still a guest to deal with it, and did not agree with what Joe.

This is not Thaksin's letter, but the strength of Joe's family is still clear. The letter is nothing but Qiao Yong!

There is no problem with Qiao Yong, but he also called Qiao Shuyu as “Qiao Gongzi”, which is also the way to protect Joe Shuyu. It is not enough to see his position in Qiao.

Of course, Qiao Shuyu should be a genius, but also a genius that the family values, but it is still too tender, and now there is no right to speak.

There is Joe’s endorsement in the back. It’s hard to refuse anyone. It’s a look at the deep waves, but it’s not eating this set.

Even Tang and Mid-Levels did not give face, and even arrested two strong claims in the late stage of real life. Can he still come hard?

After coping with a few dials, Shen Lang directly refused, whether it was coming in person or screaming and hearing his phone contact, they were all gone.

The trade fair is tomorrow, outside the closed door, Shen Lang also took a look at the high and the two, if there is a home to disturb, let them stop in advance.

Gao Li and Qi Sheng are all in the heart, saying that they will definitely complete the task.

In the two old guys, two young men and women of the 20-year-old live in the high-rise Riverview Suite. Is it going to watch TV?

Of course, it should be a good “Dunlun”!

They are old, and they have already lost their interest in this area. Otherwise, they will bring beautiful women. In front of the floor-to-ceiling windows, they will come to the Tangyuan on the other side of the river. It is also very interesting.

Shen Lang and Zheng Yumeng are certainly not so thirsty. They are truly grasping the time to cultivate.

When I was sitting in the Tianshan Jianzong, I refining the brain of the giant rhinoceros beast, and the strength of Shenlang was greatly increased.

These days in Pingxi, it is the inner Dan who began to refine the giant rhinoceros beast!

Refining and absorbing all the marrow fluid and inner dan, it really can make him soar.

This order is also intended for Shen Lang.

First, through the refining of the spinal cord, the body has been greatly evolved, regardless of the tolerance of all aspects, and various limits, have pushed up to a very high level.

After refining the brain, it is a further fusion.

When the refining process absorbs the inner dan, it will not be unbearable because the impact is too big. It will also give Nedan a familiar feeling, which can be refining faster and better.

This is also why he does not need to retreat, and he can practice more calmly.

If this process is reversed, then the light is refining the inner Dan, it may take a little half a year, and it may be dangerous.

In Pingxi, he gave the Yu Dan of the Yu Wenba collection to Zheng Yumeng to refine.

Her physique is very rare and special, and many resources, even the best things, can be afforded, and it is a little envious of Shen Lang.

However, the more it goes to the end, it is more troublesome to “feed” her.

Now hurry to retreat, Shen Lang is trying to raise a little more before the trade fair.

After all, this is the base camp of others. It is confidence to come, but confidence requires self-proclaimed strength.

In order not to be noticed, before this small retreat, Shen Lang has placed a barrier enchantment in the room so that the outside world will not feel the change here.

Among them, he and Zheng Yumeng are also practicing without sleep and sleepless nights.

Wait until midnight, Shen Lang's body slammed!

Suddenly there was a feeling of squatting and squatting, which made him very surprised.

The inner Dan, which refines and refines the giant rhinoceros beast, is planned, and it is almost the same. What surprised him was that "Yin and Yang Bo Ruozen" actually broke through to the fifth weight at this time!

"Yin and Yang Bozheng" broke through the fourth weight. Until now, only half a year, plus the need to absorb the power of the stars, Shen Lang has no more time to practice in this area.

So I never thought that I could break through to the fifth weight so quickly. I just thought that after refining and absorbing Inner Dan, I could enhance my strength.

This gave Shen Lang an unexpected surprise, and then immediately checked the body carefully, confirming that there is no problem to be assured.

This is his later practice, which is well known. Although it is a bit more than expected, it also understands why.

In the end, it is that the accumulation is strong enough, and the improvement is easy.

The ability to absorb the stars from the fourth weight does not mean that only the power of the stars can be used. Instead, with the improvement of the realm, relying on the aura of the earth, it is necessary to consume a huge amount of time. The power of the stars is a faster and more ambiguous. Shortcut.

If he has time to absorb enough refining stones, he can achieve the same effect.

Now, relying on the relationship of the giant rhinoceros beast, he has reached the fifth-heavy condition.

This result also makes Shen Lang reassured, although he has just broken through to the fifth, but now his realm is equivalent to the late real life!

And this is just the realm of manifestation. With his ingenious body and incomparable combat power, it will not be inferior to the peak of the real world!

Shen Lang then observed Zheng Yumeng, who is still practicing. She can basically confirm that she can't fully absorb it tonight, and there will be no big breakthrough for the time being.

However, when she was in Qiangjialing, she was already in the early days of the realm, and she had enough resources to quickly break through the medium term.

This time when I saw her in Pingxi, it was a breakthrough in the medium term, but the realm was still unstable.

It is precisely because of this, Fuyang real people are also respectful to her, this is not only for the respect of the "Buddhist descendants".

The inner Dan obtained by Yu Wenba will also have a great effect on Zheng Yumeng, helping him to quickly stabilize the realm and greatly advance a step.

But to advance to the end of the real world, you still need resources and time.

But this speed is already very amazing.

Shen Lang was in a good mood, and immediately began to absorb the power of the stars.

His knowledge jumped to the top of the hotel I feel that the moon is very big tonight, although it is not a full moon night, but it is almost the same.

"Absorbing the essence of the sun and the moon" is one of the most common ways for practitioners since ancient times, and it is also the cultivation method of many spirits and beasts.

After the fifth weight of Shen Lang's "Yin and Yang Bo Ruozen", all aspects have been greatly improved, and the speed of absorbing the power of the stars has also increased greatly.

Suddenly, the moonlight in the entire Qingchuan area seems to be obviously dimmed a bit!

Of course, ordinary people will not pay attention to it. At most, they feel that there is a slight occlusion of the ashes or the clouds. Of course, there are too many entertainments for ordinary people, and few people have been watching the moon in the middle of the night.

It was a general monk and did not feel the difference. But this time, the monk who is absorbing the essence of the moonlight is discovering this change with horror.

This is a huge size that they can hardly imagine. What kind of power is it that can be swallowed up for a month?

Chapter 495 - Stealing the dragon

Let alone swallow a month!

Shen Lang has seized the resources of Qinghua in the Qingchuan area in a near-hegemonic way!

It can't be preempted. The sun and the moon have been illuminated since the ancient times, and will not be reduced by the absorption of people. The entire Qingchuan may not be able to absorb much.

But compared to other people's methods, he is simply a whale.

Shen Lang absorbed it for an hour and stopped. This process, let the masters who absorbed the moon, although not shivering, but also stopped absorption, careful attention to the changes in the moonlight.

It was not until he stopped that he was relieved a little, but he also realized that there was a big man in Qingchuan.

After Shen Lang stopped absorbing the power of the stars, the gods became higher and higher, and they watched the city of Qingchuan under the moonlight in a bird's eye view.

Originally, he just relaxed and appreciated the scenery, but this one was surprised.

This Qingjiang River and the nearby mountains and rivers are not only the topographical composition of Qingchuan, but also an important landscape environment resource.

From the aerial bird's-eye view, Shen Lang can clearly see that there is a bureau of “Dragons and Dragons”!

The first of the dragons is the water dragon of Qingjiang, and the group dragons accompanying it are the dragons formed by the mountains and rivers.

The big environment is naturally born, but in ancient times there were high-profile people, so that the people can open a foundation here, whether it is land migration or a foregone conclusion from the waterway, is the embryonic form of Qingchuan.

It is not surprising that this piece of land will be prosperous. Many cities have formed congenital conditions. In ancient times, the most direct harmony between mountains and water.

The one that Shen Lang sees now is artificial. In a key place, a “Dragon Ball” was drilled, and the Qingjiang River was properly expanded and reorganized, and the mountainous terrain was also adjusted.

Eventually formed the “Group Dragon Arch”.

This is the big battle of the terrain, and it is of course the Qingjiang River and the mountains and rivers. To a certain extent, it has captured the overall resources of Qingchuan City!

In other words, without this “Group Dragon Ball”, Qingchuan City will get bigger and faster development with the country's economic boom.

On the other hand, everyone living in Qingchuan City, all buildings, is also contributing energy to this bureau.

Although relatively weak, all together is also a strong force, such as high-rise buildings along the river.

This should not be the personal site of Tang Banshan, but the base of the Master League headquarters!

It can be seen that they used to be a talented person with feng shui and arrays before they could arrange such a prosperous bureau.

In the “Dragon Ball” of Tangyuan, cultivation is equivalent to the help of Qingjiang River and nearby mountains and even the entire Qingchuan City. Naturally, it is far better than the general environment.

This can be regarded as the use of an excellent environment, artificially created a hole in the land.

Finding this, let Shen Lang be a bit stunned by the Master League.

However, he now has the idea of ”stealing the Dragon Ball”!

Tangyuan is the foundation of others, and it is definitely impossible to sell. Either forcing the possession of the occupation, or destroying it!

Destruction will be easier, but such a wave will not benefit. The cost of occupation is too great to be completely undesirable.

Therefore, he has the mind of “stealing”, that is, to absorb the energy of “Dragon Ball”.

Although it is temporary, it may be a one-off, but if you are alone, it will be a great harvest.

The risks are certainly there, and they are not small, but most of them have come to participate in this special trade fair today. Even if you make a move, it is difficult to determine who it is.

After the end of tomorrow, many people will go straight away. It is not so easy to fish in troubled waters.

If it is someone else, even if the gods can extend to the Tang Garden on the hillside across the river, there is no way to absorb the energy.

But the Shen Lang is different. He doesn't need the gods to extend the past. He directly uses the method of "Yin and Yang Bo Ruozen" to absorb the power of the stars!

Even the power of the stars can be quickly collected, and the dragons that come together in this "group of dragons and arches" can of course be sucked.

He has no past investigations, and he has no idea when he entered the Tangyuan. The Master League should have a secret method to gather all the dragon energy, or to gather in a smaller area.

In this case, there are two possibilities for his absorption now.

One is the dragon that has just gathered, and it is more intense than the ordinary environment. The short-term harvest is not big, and it may even be worth the loss.

The other one is to absorb the dragons that they can't collect and collect. They have to prepare for the whales to swallow the cows, or they may be "supported".

In addition to preparing for absorption, he needs to be prepared to "stolen and wipe the mouth", otherwise others will directly chase it...

At midnight this night, the essence of the moon was “suddenly swallowed”, only a few people found it.

But the situation that followed was to let all the monks who came to Qingchuan City discover it!

In the direction of the Tang River on the other side of the city, a fascinating aura suddenly rises to the sky!

When everyone found this, they were all surprised and looked at the past, and the aura of the sky disappeared directly into the air above the Qingjiang River, without any traces!

The whole process actually lasted for a second or two, and it was almost a flash. If it wasn't too much, the monks would not notice it.

Then, they found that there were a large number of monks flying up in the Tangyuan. Each of them was a master of the middle of the real world. There were also swords and flying magic weapons flying quickly in the air.

Everyone wants to watch the excitement. Even if they don't go to Tangyuan, they can also be on the riverside or on the rooftop of a tall building.

But when you see this battle, you are still unable to move.

I am sure that there are any good things in the Tangyuan that have been taken away. It is under anger. At this time, go out and don't hit the target.

At the moment, Shenlang is the absorbing dragon that has just been absorbed in the room and absorbed the refining and refining!

Although it is only a second or two seconds, as he guessed, it is the latter possibility.

Inside the “Dragon Ball”, it seems that a little bit of water has been oozing from the well, and he has just slammed a bucket.

Although the time is very short, Shen Lang is estimated to be the other party's use, accumulated in a few years!

This large harvest, combined with the strength of the moonlight and the stars of the previous hour, is enough to make Shenlang consolidate the fifth.

Because this is pure aura energy, refining is much faster than using Nedan Lingshi. It doesn't take too much time, and Shenlang completely absorbs and digests them.

At this time, he found several masters landed on the roof of their hotel!

Obviously, they are the rooms that can lock the waves. They didn't come in directly because they were high and they were already on the roof when they were close.

Chapter 496 - Kick fly

“Which friend is coming over?”

Gao Li asked a faint voice on the rooftop, and the momentum of the peak of the realm exuded, completely covering the entire building.

Not only did the few masters who just landed feel the pressure, but they also felt the pressure when they lived in this hotel and next to the hotel.

“Is this supposed to be a high-ranking senior? We are all in the Master League headquarters. We have just had a strange appearance in our headquarters, and we are looking for this!”

As a local snake, they are very clear that Tianshan Jianzong lived here, and they just came to Shenlang.

But now the few that come, the strongest is the late stage of the real thing, it is very powerful in the usual, can face the high level of the battle with the Tang Banshan, can only be a junior.

“Don't say that no one of us is going out, it is the whole building, and there are no monks coming and going. This is still a sure thing!”

Just the abnormal shape, the high separation is of course clearer than the general monk, he even suspects whether it is a shot.

But after all, there is no evidence, and the other party directly to them to find it, it is too specific.

Gao Li is only a person with the principle of righteousness, not a good-tempered person!

He has been the first person in the Tianshan Jianzong for many years, and he is above the sovereign, the Presbyterian Church. Plus the strength of its own is high, the temper that is formed, Shen Lang is also the first to go to teach.

Now it is to convinced Shen Lang, and in the face of the Master League, there will be no embarrassment.

The sacred priest was not addicted last time. This time the trade fair is also ready to start. If someone fights with him first, he does not mind.

“This is your way of hospitality? Think of us as thieves? Is there any evidence for you to point the finger at us directly?”

裴连连连连,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,

Listening to his yin words, plus the “speaking is not going to fight” posture, let the master league headed this secretly bitter.

Although it is already quiet in the middle of the morning, Qingchuan City is very lively tonight, and many Dahao are watching the fun in the dark.

When something like this happened, their first reaction was to make a ghost, but there is really no evidence.

“We are just investigating passing by, Tianshan Jianzong... Shen Lang master? Just a big move, can he still sleep?”

Although he said that he did not mean to find out, but in the words, directly pointed the spearhead to the head of Shen Lang!

Gao Li and Qi Sheng's face sank.

“What are you doing? Also come with my master to see you?”

裴裴裴澎湃,,,

He is also a hundred-year-old, will he really be willful?

Even if you want to do it again, you will see the situation clearly. After all, this is a plan to force the court and surrender, but not a coward.

Now deliberately showing this way, is to fight for the initiative of the Jianzong side!

He can only be ranked third at the moment, and he can completely mess up and mess up the water even more. After him, Gao Li can also ease negotiations, followed by Shen Lang.

Others will not be aware of this. At first glance, this old guy is like a gangster. If he doesn't agree, he will start playing. At this critical point, who can afford the consequences?

The man smiled and explained, and immediately dug a pit: “Just thinking about the two masters, Master Shen must have a supreme realm, maybe help us solve the problem...”

They used a conspiracy. If the sinking waves did not come out, they fell into suspicion. Even if there is no evidence, other people would rather be credible.

If they come out to clarify, even if they can't find any clues, they can see if there are any abnormalities. Go back and have a confession.

“Just the sacred has said, what are you? How much face do you have?”

This sound can be spread not only on the rooftop, but also spread out to all hotel buildings along the river, even on the opposite bank!

This is also said in the form of sound wave work. It is targeted, and only the monks who are at least still in the virtual world can hear it, and will not make ordinary people inexplicable.

Such arrogant and provocative discourse came out, and immediately let the surrounding secrets watch the lively spirits of all walks of life.

Hummer honeycomb is a nuisance, but in the case that its own security will not be affected, it is very pleasant to see other people's hustle and bustle.

After Shen Lang spoke, people also came out from the balcony of the Linjiang Suite.

He didn't fly to the top of the platform, it was a step by step volley, which is much more difficult than a quick leap.

Although there is no long hair flying robes and fluttering celestial winds, but this posture is also full of force.

And along with Shen Lang, there is Zheng Yumeng.

She is flying directly, and the whole person is very excited.

Because it is obvious that this is not like usual, even if it is not well-known, there are many people who are coming to pay attention to it.

Even if everyone's focus is on Shen Lang, but the woman who came out of the same suite with Shen Lang, can someone else understand what relationship?

This gave her an excitement to be pushed to the front as a "slow woman."

When I heard the words of Shen Lang, the master who was in the late stage of the real world had already had a big headache.

In the same way, it is said by the sacred sacred, and there is still room for explanation. If Shen Lang says it, there is no room for manoeuvre.

And seeing Shen Lang and a beautiful woman coming out of the room, no more explanation is needed.

When young men and women sleep well, what is wrong with you? Maybe you are still doing something shy, don't need time to wear clothes?

It is no wonder that Gao Li and Yu Sheng are angry. They cannot explain that the young master is sleeping with his sister.

Nowadays, it is forced to clarify with the beautiful women. This is not only an interruption, but the Tianshan Jianzong is smashed up and down, I am afraid that it will not be good.

“I have seen Master Shen Lang, I am the headquarters of the Master League...”

Seeing that Shen Lang has come to the air, this master of the late stage of the real life has bowed his hand and introduced himself.

But his words did not finish the opportunity!

Shen Lang just stepped on the roof, and the other foot had already kicked him in front of him. The speed was so fast that he could not imagine, and he could not dodge.

The powerful force is to directly play him from the hotel rooftop, like a meteor, flying fast in the air, directly falling into the river in the distance!

This change made everyone stunned!

And they haven't reacted before Shen Lang has one foot in a row, and the other masters have been kicked together in Jiangzhong.

Poorly these usually domineering masters of the department, this time is like a football without any resistance, straight kicks.

rub! Too domineering!

Don't talk nonsense, don't say hello, just fly one by one!

These are the masters of the middle and late stages of the real world!

Looking around the bustle, whether it is the probe look, or the knowledge of the detective, have been shocked speechless.

He is excited to shoot a thigh, why people are so strong! Why people will be masters!

He just prepared to start with a word, and people want to start doing it. This is the gap!

If there is still no kicking out on the rooftop, he must definitely start directly...

Chapter 497 - Strong reputation

They are real masters who live in the real world. Even if they fall from the top of a high-rise building to the ground, they will not be seriously injured, let alone the water buffer in the river.

For them, height is not the key, flying is not the key, the key is whether the kick that Shen Lang kicks is heavy!

However, since Shen Lang kicked them into the river, obviously there is no meaning for them to live. Anyone can see that this is just to face, and to punish them with a small punishment.

The surrounding eyesight was good to watch the river surface carefully, but they did not see them flying out of the water surface one after another. It is faintly visible that several gradually emerged from the water!

This makes everyone pay attention to it, if it is just killing people...

That time, the special trade fair will not be able to continue any more. This is no longer a face problem. The master league will not be willing to give up!

Observed here, the Tangyuan side is of course also observing. When I saw this change, several figures quickly flew into the river, and the few were fished up and flew back to Tangyuan.

“The old man in the middle of the mountain, if you don’t welcome me, then you can say directly, we won’t squint and ask for help, don’t do these tricks for me, you know that playing tricks with me is not cheap!”

The sentence of Shen Lang, or the sound wave spread out, directly to the opposite side of the Tangyuan, also let the surrounding monks can hear.

He just opened the first sentence and attracted everyone, and then with his debut, he came up with a domineering sweep. Everyone has already made an impression on Shen Lang.

Now, the second sentence, directly to the Tang Banshan, is still openly shouting, so that everyone has to serve.

“Oh, Master Shen misunderstood. They are not sensible. Thank you for helping me to teach them. Spring is worth a thousand dollars, so you don’t bother Master Shen!”

Tang Banshan had to come out and respond. He had just been beaten, and he could only recognize it without evidence.

However, he was not polite, and when he directly responded publicly, he slammed Shen Lang’s phrase “Spring Time”, suggesting that he was working on a sister.

But what does this count?

Shen Lang’s sister is also her own sister, and it’s not awkward. And he is twenty years old and he is not married. There is nothing to blame, whether it is legal or moral.

In this game, the Master League is shameful and loses points, so that everyone is secretly embarrassed.

Shen Lang said coldly: “Then call back the other mice! You have a problem, I am not suspected, other friends are the same!”

This is said, let some monks who are not so strong, secretly applauded.

The Masters Alliance has come across the river, not just those few, but only a few names have found the sinking waves, and some other buildings, or the riverside, are also being inspected.

Even if they didn’t find them directly, it seemed to be regarded as a suspect, and it felt uncomfortable.

They can only recognize it if they are uncomfortable. If they come out to speak, it will be regarded as a guilty conscience.

Tianshan Jianzong stood up, and Shen Lang was forced to expel them. It has already made them admire.

Now, for the sake of everyone, let the people of the Master League withdraw, and they are more than happy.

However, it can only be secretly screamed. At this time, I dare not publicly admit it.

“It makes sense. We will call everyone back. The League of Masters will not offend the factions. The cheapness of the alliance is not so good. If anyone wants to dig our corners, be careful...”

Tang Banshan said a few words, but apparently still regarded Shen Lang as a warning object.

However, Shen Lang did not listen to him any more, and turned and waved his hand, indicating that Gao Li and He Sheng went down to rest, and he himself flew into the room with a beautiful woman.

This allows Tang Banshan to only support the air...

Originally, the dialogue across the river was also against the air. But it still stays in the other's ear, but now it can be passed over, but the other person turned and did not listen, it is still awkward.

Just talking, is the master of the Master League, Tang Banshan, that is the strongest of the true peaks of the realm, but Shen Lang is not a face!

Some monks living along the river, some of whom used to deal directly and indirectly with Shen Lang, and are familiar with his style inside and outside the Qiangjialing.

But there are some that I have never seen before, this time it is awesome.

The grievances of Shen Lang and Chu Jia and Xie Jia, although famous, are like the ranks of young monks, and the grades of the whole influence are limited.

A thousand caves are pulled to a higher level.

With the masters of the league, from the West Gate to Yuwenba, then to the Tangshan, until this evening, is to a higher level.

For example, the existence of Qiao's family, even before Joe Biao Yu did not bother to pay attention to the level of Shen Lang, until the island.

The Masters League is also full of embarrassment. It was a great influence, but it was just because of the confrontation with Shen Lang, and it became a topic of discussion.

Don't say to help them find and provide clues, even the arguments are just a matter of words.

Shortly after Shen Lang and Zheng Yumeng returned to the room, a slight knock on the door sounded. Zheng Yumeng opened the door in the past and was two people coming in.

"Master, it is our protection is not good, just disturbed you." Gao Li first arranged a soundproof cover, and then bowed his head.

Before Shen Lang was a closed-door thank you, whether it was cultivation, or it was so embarrassing, it was very uncomfortable to be disturbed.

The excitement of Zheng Yumeng has not retreated. In the face of both of them, he is even more shy, and the weak one retreats behind Shen Lang.

“Nothing, actually I spy on them.” Shen Lang did not hide them.

Under the surprise of Gao Li and Qi Sheng, he simply said the “Dragon Ball” game and made them amazed.

Master is Master!

At this point, they have lived a lot of ages and have not discovered and heard that they have traveled to Qingchuan. The monks who went to the Tangyuan Fair did not know much, and no one found them.

Geng Sheng is a bit more excited, the old man is now a bit like a broken brain, and he wants to follow the battle!

“Tonight should be peacefulGo to Tangyuan tomorrow, everyone is careful!”

“Yes!” I got the point of Shen Lang. They also suspected that people who went to Tangyuan would not contribute to the “Dragon Ball” in the invisible. Of course, they would be more careful.

“Go!”

After sending them out, Shen Lang said that he had time to ask: “Is that Inner Dan refining?”

“Yeah!” Zheng Yumeng nodded.

Shen Lang grabbed her hand and entered a trace of vitality to inspect it. She sighed: “Yes, your body is really good!”

“Where is it?” Zheng Yu dream bit his lip and stalked him.

“...” Shen Lang is speechless. The “body” he just said refers to her unique physique, but she deliberately misinterprets it into a body.

Chapter 498 - Going to Tangyuan again

Perhaps it was just that Shen Lang didn't mind showing her face, taunting his woman's identity and making Zheng Yumeng more active and enthusiastic.

Shen Lang's surprise breakthrough this evening, and unexpected big gains, is very good.

I have already passed the Master League just now. I think that there will be no more movements this evening. However, before the “battle”, he did not forget to add a barrier to the enchantment, so as not to be looked at by a human being.

They have been quite familiar with unlocking a lot of postures in Pingxi for a few days. At this moment, they are also very invested.

But in the middle of the half, there was an accident.

Shen Lang suddenly found that Zheng Yumeng under his body whispered and looked at him with incredulous eyes. The shame and sly look made him understand.

This is a bleak!

“You are... bleak?”

“Yeah.” Desolately smiled slightly. “I thought there was something...”

What makes her even more embarrassing is that although Shen Lang found it wrong, the action continues!

The feeling is the physical instinct. As soon as she takes over the body, it is a wave of strong feelings...

Shen Lang coughed a bit: "That... I and Zheng Yumeng... got together... but I don't know how she just summoned you..."

"Then you continue... I will change her back."

Desolation is the remaining god, but in the end it is a female sword fairy, and now it is so filthy, even if you know that it is not aimed at her, it can not stand it.

Of course, Shen Lang will not be abandoned halfway. Since she has said that she will continue, then continue.

However, Desolate wants to change Zheng Yumeng back. Zheng Yumeng's Yuanshen this time is rare and stubborn, but she has not been easily slowed down by her!

It may also be because she is now in a state of confusion, unable to concentrate her willpower...

When the cloud stopped raining, Shen Lang just lay down and found that Zheng Yumeng turned over and stood in front of him, smiling at him.

"how do you feel?"

Shen Lang could not help but look at it, this time naturally changed back to Zheng Yumeng.

"While people live in your body, they are also dignified. And she is a more powerful master than you. If you force someone to change it and still resist it until now, it is too much..."

For the lessons of Shen Lang, Zheng Yumeng just smiled and nodded. When he finished, he asked again.

"You are so cool?"

"...cough!" Shen Lang coughed a bit, sorry to answer this question.

Although he did not think about suffocating, she is only the existence of the god, but because Zheng Yumeng, the medium, although still the same person, still let him experience two different souls.

“Hey! The promise is already obvious! Now it’s my turn...”

Gao, who is very interested in them, did not come to Shenlang to have breakfast. The two people are also divided. Because the holy guards the floor, no one is disturbed. Gao Gao is going to socialize with other martial art.

This special trade fair is still scheduled for the evening.

Before going there, Su Datong took Su Meizhen and Wu Bowen, and came over early. They also said that they had arranged for the car to pick up and drop them.

However, Gao Li also arranged the vehicles through the disciples of the Tianshan Jianzong secular, let them catch up with them.

When Wu Bowen greeted Shen Lang, he was still awkward.

He is really obsessed and wants to see the medicinal herbs that he has not had the chance to see for a lifetime, but it feels a bit cheeky.

Shen Lang does not matter, the impression of this old man is still good.

Su Meizhen still did not speak alone with Shen Lang, but in the end, under Su Datong’s reinstigation, he found an opportunity to come and say hello.

“Is this your girlfriend? Very beautiful.”

She can’t tell what it feels like, it’s probably a woman’s nature, and her focus is on Shen Lang’s girlfriend.

Zheng Yumeng nodded with a smile, briefly introduced the name and took the initiative to reach out and shake her.

Don't look at Shen Lang's face, she puts herself in a humble way. In front of others, she is still very angry. After all, it is also a rich family. From a young age, I have seen a lot of entertainment.

She did not regard Su Mei as a competitor, and she was not a level with her. Even if they felt each other, it was only temporary.

Su Meizhen immediately did not talk to Shen Lang, but chatted with Zheng Yumeng.

There are always some common topics between girls of the same age, and it is easy to get used to it.

Of course, Shen Lang did not pay much attention to her. The last time he could make a joke, now the father of the family is here!

Although he also saw that Su Datong wanted to match his daughter with him, it was not that simple.

When the time came to the fair, the group left the hotel by car.

The Tianshan Jianzong side is actually relatively simple. The strongest of the swordsmen are here. There is no need for secular disciples to take charge of their safety. All that is needed is to arrange reliable vehicles.

When I came back to Tangyuan, Shen Lang's mood was different.

Last time I came to this fair, he just disposed of some of the lower-level resources that the dead forest got, and urgently needed better resources.

Here, I not only bought the snow nectar, but also changed the phoenix, and more importantly, the rust sword and other items.

This is not a leak, but it is impossible to ask. If the other party knows the value, it will definitely not sell it.

Even after the man heard that Shen Lang defeated others by rusting swords, he would not feel that it was the magic of the sword. He only believed that it was the strength of Shen Lang.

Now Shen Lang is not so urgent, it is good to have something to gain, no, no disappointment and anxiety.

He is more interested in scrutinizing this “Dragon Ball”.

However, even if he was inspected this time, he did not rush.

The last night happened, the Master League headquarters has made a quick response, not that he wants to grab it and get it again.

On the contrary, it is very likely that the flawed snake will be deliberately exposed!

The rules are the same as before. Wait until the start time, everyone goes to the second floor, this is the time for free trading. This time, buyers and sellers understand each other, and there are more variables in price and willingness.

After free trade, you will go to a conference hall on the third floor and start the final part of the auction.

For the powerful family and martial art like Qiao’s family, the purpose of their coming is the item for auction.

No matter what the martial art got, dare to take out the auction, it means that the value is very high. Moreover, it is an agent of Tangyuan, and the value is generally not qualified for bidding.

However, when you are free to trade, everyone will go shopping together.

After all, before seeing the real thing, it is not clear what is going on.

And no matter how the situation is bound to win, the competition is still the strength of their own financial strength. Being able to find baby in ordinary items, that is the success of luck and eyesight, and the sense of accomplishment that is missing is not comparable to the auction.

Shen Lang is also the same mind. After starting to go upstairs, he will tell Su Datong that they are free.

The three came in as his followers and were not questioned. But the items in Qiangjialing are not what they can afford. Shenlang does not want to waste more time explaining them.

Just came upstairs, the wind is no Ji, but it is shaking a pair of huge, came to the side of Shen Lang...

Chapter 499 - Fight for the wind

Feng Wuji just screamed with a flirtatious sensation, and immediately felt the gaze of Gao Li and Yu Sheng coldly watching.

This made her pressure a big one, and she was afraid of being stunned with Shen Lang, but she did not dare to make it.

I didn't know the situation last time. Now I know it. They all call Shen Lang as a master. If she calls Shen Lang's younger brother, isn't it cheaper for them?

“Hey, make a joke, Master Shen Lang, can I follow you?”

Her son and animal are harmless, and her expression is spoiled with a trace of pity. This is still a manifestation of her natural charm.

For other men, in the face of good looks, big-minded and so close to the wind, no matter how good, even with caution, will not refuse face to face.

But the wave is a direct shaking head!

“Why? Don't worry, people won't ask you what you ask for, and you won't have any intentions for you. Just want to follow you and touch your luck.”

Feng Wuji shook the sleeves of Shen Lang and shook it.

She really is very close to the position, because she is already already awesome. If she is holding the arm of Shen Lang, it will be a bit too much.

Even if the target will enjoy the arm and the temper on her chest, but also care about the eyes of others.

Now she just stretched her fingers and pinched her sleeves, but it kept the two people at a certain distance and would not appear to be relatives.

At the same time, her shaking, not only the shaking of the arm, but the body is followed by shaking, and the natural waves can see obvious undulations at close range.

“You have your companion, and I... you should have noticed it, my companions are separate, only we ourselves go together!”

The division of a companion and his own, let the wind have no idea how to interface.

She also wanted to say that everyone is a friend, and it's not a big deal...

“You shouldn't know so many people? It's better to be a role for you to introduce, just beside you, who you want to know, I will tell you right away!”

This said, let Shen Lang look at her more.

“Don't doubt, I have a lot of research on the information and intelligence, the appearance of various characters. I dare not say that it is the most recognized on the spot, but certainly more than your own people, all familiar partners on the scene.”

“Okay. Keep it! But let me make it clear, I won't give you any return.”

Shen Lang did not hesitate and immediately made a decision.

He and Zheng Yumeng don't need to say much, basically don't know anything. Gao Li and Qi Sheng have not walked in the Central Plains for many years, and only those of their generation are familiar with it.

Even if they are holding their feet in the air these days, they are certainly limited. It is still helpful to have such a person follow.

“Hey, everyone said it, just want to smear the waves... the master's luck, not dare to return.”

In a few simple sentences, they have already negotiated and have not delayed anything.

After everyone arrived at the second floor, they still had a rough glance at each other. If there is any intention, they will start first, so as not to be picked.

“What luck do I have to be worthy of you?” Shen Lang asked casually.

Feng Wuji did not deliberately charm this time, but answered him in a relatively plain tone.

“Actually, I don't know... just my researcher and information intelligence, of course, I have studied you.”

“Oh? What did you find?”

Shen Lang doesn't mind, people like him who are quickly picking up, many martial art families will study.

“I found that I didn't make a good end with you. Even if I won it for the time being, I will pay a terrible price soon. And being a friend of yours, even if you temporarily lose money, will eventually make a big profit!”

The wind did not say this, and the high and the sacred side of the side could not help but think deeply.

Yuwen Ba Niu? Is one of the most typical examples! Tang Banshan will be the same, and they themselves, including the Tianshan Jianzong, are all earned.

Zheng Yumeng was originally plain and dull, and did not feel that she would threaten her, nor did she have any jealousy, just silently follow the other side of Shen Lang.

But when I heard this, I was a little surprised.

She has been with Shen Lang for a long time, of course, it is more clear, and it is indeed like the wind.

However, Feng Jiji can draw this conclusion. I believe that the information collected by Shen Lang in the past two years has been collected. Is such a woman only because of research people and information?

Shen Lang smiled and said: "I feel like this too!"

Then he didn't talk to her anymore, and started a booth and carefully reviewed it.

For the case of Qiangjialing, he did not say that he knows the most, but he knows more than the average person. So how many of these resources from the thousands of caves are true and how many are fake, he can easily distinguish them.

However, if you don't see it, if you don't have the heart to trade, even if you find that you are posing as a fake, you have not debunked it.

Because it is only "counterfeiting" the "origin" of Qiangjialing, but it is not necessarily "pseudo-inferior", otherwise others will not buy.

Looking down in a circle, Shen Lang could not help but be disappointed.

The last time I missed a lot of small things, this time I saw a lot of items packed into thousands of caves.

Among them, I also saw the boring Su Meizhen, Su Datong and Wu Bowen are obsessed, but she is far from reaching.

Looking at Shen Lang, one left and one right, followed by two different types of beautiful women, so that Su Meizhen was a little angry.

Everyone came together, but you let us go and leave, and I accepted a fox at my side!

However, the wind has no intention to throw a few winks to her.

The last time I was with Shen Lang, she was not only giving up, but even this “Pose of God” squeezed her, which made her a little angry.

However, she still has dignity. This is a big crowd. Let her go to compete with other women for a man to fight for a man she still can’t do it.

Under the temper, she thought of a way to grab a thing at a nearby booth and look at her absent-mindedly.

Then I immediately turned back and whispered to Shen Lang: “Shen Lang, you can help me look at this, I think it is a very good thing.”

Shen Lang just sent them three, just don’t want to waste time. But now Su Mei’s ignorant mouth calls him, and he can’t ignore it.

Who knows if she will continue to raise her voice and scream?

Can’t you seal her mouth?

Tonight, all of them are monks who have been graded. The Master League is even more like an enemy. It is really a matter of confusion.

“What? I look... oh!”

Shen Lang had no choice but to go, but he was not close, and his face was full of surprise and joy!

Chapter 500 - Artifact

After the movement last night, Shen Lang is undoubtedly a very eye-catching one today. Many of them come to have an identity, and they will not come directly to the wind, such as Wu Jiji, but they all pay attention to his movements.

Just Su Mei's call has attracted many people's eyes, and some of them are the eyes, or use the gods to pay attention.

When Shen Lang revealed the color of surprise and joy, everyone immediately turned their attention to the items held by Su Meizhen.

Shen Lang holds a large number of Lingshi, and it is suspected to be quite rewarding in Qiangjialing. Moreover, Tianshan Jianzong's famous nights call him a master. Even he is this expression, and that thing is definitely a good thing.

Don't say that other people are looking at it carefully, that is, even the seller of the booth is also a little suspicious to see what Su Meizhen has just held.

Although this is brought out from Qiangjialing, it does not seem to be a magical place. It is just a fierce beast.

Is this a very vicious beast?

"This is...what?" Su Meizhen found a lot of eyes to see, but also a little pressure, whispered a question.

Shen Lang nodded and then shook his head again.

"I don't want to say more, but... how can I sell this?"

The seller's original psychological price is just one or two medium Lingshi. It's a chicken rib. It's useless. It's idle and wasteful. After all, it's brought back by Qiangjialing.

However, after watching the expression before Shen Lang, I thought it should be a very valuable thing.

“You really have a vision, this... twenty medium spirits!”

The seller is still a bit hesitant, the opportunity to open the price is only once, if the offer price is low, others can promise that they can no longer sit on the ground, then the loss.

“Yeah.” Shen Lang nodded, and then looked carefully and hesitated for a while.

But still let go, said to Su Meijun: “Let’s see it!”

“Hey!” Su Meizhen agreed.

She last followed Shen Lang and watched the trade of Lingshi. When she heard that the offer price was twenty medium spirits, it was not something she could afford.

Of course, she has no interest in herself, just want to attract the attention of Shen Lang.

After she let go, she naturally followed Shen Lang.

Zheng Yumeng had talked to her before, and did not say anything.

The careful thoughts of several beautiful women, no other monks can care about anyone. They are concerned that Shen Lang did not buy anything!

A few months ago, at the Tangyuan Fair, Shen Lang was a very local tyrant, two Xue Lingguo, and a phoenix, which were bought by his Lingshi.

Now that I have more Lingshi, I have not shot any of the 20 medium-spirited stones in his area. It is not worth the money.

Otherwise, I want to suppress the price in this way.

However, he did not blame the profiteers, indicating that it is not worth the money, and it is not much different.

More thoughts and more, recalling the expression of Shen Lang's surprise, if the twenty medium spirits are worthless, it will definitely not let him react!

That means that the purpose of not buying him is not to suppress the price, maybe it is for low-key processing, I want everyone to not pay attention, and then arrange another person to buy it!

When they had just walked away, there were a few people who couldn't stand it, and went straight to see what it was.

When the seller saw that Shen Lang was not going to be a bit disappointed, he was relieved, at least that the offer price was not lost.

"That... you really don't want it? Want to be bought by someone else?" After leaving a little, Su Mei couldn't help but whispered and asked.

Gao Li and Qi Sheng are also the same mind, although with their eyes, they have not seen anything unusual, but since Master is optimistic, there is naturally a reason.

The wind is no Ji, but it is a chuckle: "All said that the chest is big and brainless, how can you have no brain?"

It is worthwhile to study people. In a group of people, only she can see that Shen Lang was deliberately just to transfer the attention of those who care about him.

Su Meizhen still didn't understand it. She was inexplicably said. She said: "You are big! Can you eat as a meal?"

Feng Wuji is laughing and eating: "Can you eat rice, you have to ask Shen Lang."

Gao Lisheng and Sheng, both turned to look at the various things on the booth, pretending not to hear their bickering.

Su Meizhen listened to her words, and then looked at her expression of expression, and then reacted, and her face was rosy.

“Hey! There is no ivory in the dog’s mouth!”

Shen Lang just deliberately like this, in addition to shifting the attention of other people, it is also because of boredom.

Just a rough walk around, he has already seen it, basically there is nothing good that he can see.

These things are indeed brought out by Qiangjialing, but they are basically chicken-ribbed things.

For example, in the famous monuments such as the Great Wall Pyramid, a brick is excavated. In addition to the added value of its “born”, it is practically a brick, and it may not even have good quality.

Of course, this is also the relationship that he has a higher vision now. If it was placed at the last trade fair, there are still some that can be seen.

After a while, the bones of the animal were bought.

The person who bought it felt that it was worth buying the things that Shen Lang wanted to buy. The seller sold more than ten times the original expectation, of course, it is worth it.

The people of Shuiyue Dongtian are also searching carefully. Although they have obtained a lot of them themselves, the opening of Qianqianling is too rare. It is good to be able to hoard more.

Qiao Gongzi, their eyes are relatively high, and these scenes are also invisible. Like Shen Lang, they are waiting for the auction.

However, many people came to the scene and the transaction was successful. Everyone knows that the back is the main event, but there must be enough capital to afford it.

Wait until the end of the free trade link including the monks who sell the items, all went to the large conference room on the third floor, waiting for the start of the auction.

The auction link was hosted by Tang Yuan and they were responsible. Although a little commission will be drawn, it is valuable after all, and there is a guarantee for both buyers and sellers.

The ceremonies of the Tangyuan auction, first came after a period of enthusiasm for the atmosphere, and immediately started shooting.

“Our first competing product is going to give everyone a blockbuster feeling!”

After that, the girl was sent to the stage, and then he opened the red cloth in public.

Appearing on the tray is a special crystal box, and then the box is opened.

“Is it felt? I feel it!”
