Chapter 54 - Shen Lang's guidance

Shen Lang was also a bit surprised. I didn't expect Yue Qiang to be so refreshed.

Twenty times the profits!

Yue Qiang's attitude made Shen Lang's attitude a lot more friendly.

"Mr. Yue did not bargain, it is a respect for me, and recognition of the treasures of the soup. I should also give in a little friendship!"

"Oh?" Yue Qiang smiled.

He was originally thinking about a single family. If he sinned against the other side like Yue Sheng, he might raise the price even higher, and he was even more afraid of discounting the efficacy. If you dilute a little, you will earn it back, so you will accept it generously.

"You provide medicine, I collect 3,515 bottles."

As a family of Yue, of course, I don't know how to count. According to Shen Lang, the cost should be less than 15,000, which is rounded up. The key is to let them provide medicine!

Shen Lang personally bought medicinal materials from Qiongzhitang. Of course, the price is not cheap. In exchange for the Yuejia arrangement, the long-term purchase from Qiongzhitang or other medicinal materials, the cost of 500,000, the pressure to 400,000 is completely no problem, even thirty Everything is possible.

This is equivalent to a direct drop of 5,000 bottles, and actually hit a 10% discount.

"Enough! Our Yue family is very happy to be a good friend of you!" Yue Qiang's face is sincere.

Obviously, they have accepted the advice of Yue Zhennan, and have abandoned the collection and collection, but instead changed the way.

Shen Lang nodded and said that he accepted their “friendship.”

“Shen brother, can you give me a bottom, this treasure is still a  soup, people have the specific effect of strengthening the body and prolonging life?” Speaking of the specific price, before the transaction, Yue Qiang also needs a guarantee.

Shen Lang understands what he means, and he does not say so implicitly: “Ordinary people, general minor illnesses, chronic diseases, chronic diseases, etc., can basically be eliminated, and the body and spirit are very good; If you have been taking it for a long time, there is no problem for you to continue for three or five years...”

“Just three or five years?” Yue Sheng is a little dissatisfied with this effect.

Shen Lang glanced at him: “This is not the commandment lying on the hospital bed. It is the life of the elderly. But when the vitality is burned out, it is not the treasure that can be brought back to life.”

Yue Qiang looked at Yue Sheng and stopped his debate. They are very clear that the father is too old, and the most advanced medicine can only make him alive. Not to mention three or five years, that is, three or five months, and no doctors can guarantee, let alone live as ordinary people.

“If you prove that you are a  stick, you will...”

“Yue Sheng!” Yue Qiang busy pulled him and interrupted his rumors.

Shen Lang faint smile: “My treasure is still a  soup, although it is not a  medicine, but it is not a placebo. Ordinary people can improve the body in a few bottles, it is used to continue life, one bottle a week is enough. More than one million, let you get angry, and Mr. Yue Sheng is not enough!”

“You, you...” Yue Qiang has obviously stopped him, and this is as if he can’t bear the money, so Yue Sheng did not say goodbye: “I just want to talk about it.”

Yue Qiang listened to it is a lot of peace of mind, he really worried that this medicine is a bottle of weight a day, that year is a small cost of 20 million. In the past five years, it has been nearly 100 million!

Although Yuejia is able to get this money, it also has this value, but there is no doubt that the cost is not small, and this is not scientifically guaranteed. When you know that you only need more than one million a year, it is not a problem at all.

The two uncles are here, Yuezhennan dialect is a lot less, and generally there is no share of his speech. But now Yue Sheng has made the atmosphere stiff, and he hastened to play the round.

“Lang brother, you can say that ordinary people can take it. What about young people like me who are already very strong, what will they take? Is it going to be... Hey, what about the golden gun?”

The presence is a man, in this way to ease, this is the most common, he is also joking.

Shen Lang looked at him: “This is not a medicine to stimulate that! But... like those who are old, who are already imaginary...”

Having said that, he paused.

Yue Qiang Yue Sheng listened a little bit, although they have not reached the point where they have no desire, but they are really unable to do so.

The pause of Shen Lang makes them a little anxious. If they want to ask questions, they will appear to be in the right place. They can only drink tea to hide their mood.

Yuezhennan was originally an active atmosphere. At this moment, he understood the thoughts of his uncles and was busy with the eyes of Shen Lang.

“It is no problem to be more difficult in the young people, but to reproduce the vitality and return to the state of thirty.” Shen Lang said casually.

This made them both a little excited, Yue Zhennan coughed a bit, and helped to ask: “But you are not saying that it is not stimulating that medicine?”

“It’s not to stimulate that aspect, but the body function has improved, and all aspects will improve. Of course, it will also rejuvenate!”

If you are in the dark, let them be greatly moved. Some people exercise every day. Fifty-year-olds have more than 30 bodies, some are sloppy in the belly of the wine, and thirty may be like fifty. If Baibao Resin Soup can make them rejuvenate for ten years, even if it is only five years, it is exciting.

Shen Lang looked at Yue Qiang again: “The pattern is bigger! Don’t just think about your own things. If you give some big people who are in need of age, the benefits that can bring you Yue family will be far better than Tens of thousands of profits in this district!”

As soon as this statement is made, Yue Qiang is also awakened as a dream!

The core purpose of their coming is to find a life-saving medicine for the father, and to accomplish this goal is a success. As for the improvement of other people’s health, it is a icing on the cake.

Now the guidance of Shen Lang, let him understand that this is really a golden avenue!

Whether it is an ally, a leader or a person, there will be physical problems, and no further progress, or even retreat to the second line in advance, it is a helpless loss. The treasure is still used, it is really great value Thank you, thank you! “Yue Qiang is standing up to Shen Lang for a while, not only thanking the transaction, but thanking him for this direction.”

Shen Lang just nodded and received his gift.

Why do you make a wedding dress for the Yue family? On the one hand, he does not have this connection at all, that is, he gives it to the mayor for free, and people will believe it. The endorsement of Yuejia has this effect.

On the other hand, it is too cumbersome to operate these connections. He does not want to waste time and energy. It is king to use time for cultivation and to improve one’s strength.

Therefore, it is most cost-effective for him to take a sum of money directly and use this money to collect resources for cultivation.

Even if it is 20 times profitable, this time is a win-win!

“I represent Yuejia, sincerely and willing to trade 50,000 bottles! The cost of medicines is covered by us.” After realizing the great effect, Yue Qiang actively increased the price to 50,000.

This time, Yue Sheng did not say anything.
