

First Strong 601

Chapter 601 - Scott's intentions

Although this guy is respectful in tone, his expression is obviously with a glimmer of gloating.

Moreover, he came to ask Dorothy, but did not get off the bus. So he spoke through the window and explained a lot of situations.

Even if Shen Lang is not familiar with him at all, he does not know what the Scott adult is, and can guess one or two. ,

Scott is definitely also a bat, and his status should be above Dorothy!

It was nothing to do with his shot yesterday, but last night Dorothy and Thomas took the shot and there was an article to do.

“When Scott wants to see me, he has to come in person. What are you?”

Dorothy sipped a cold drink.

The foreigner’s face was stunned. I thought that this time I would help Scott, and Dorothy must be obedient, so that he can feel a little face.

I didn’t expect the other person not to give him a face, even the face of Scott’s adult is not given!

“Miss Dorothy, you should pay attention to it. That is Scott!”

Dorothy reached for the past, clasped the roof from the window, and then slammed it up!

The foreigner was shocked, is this going to be shot for him?

The driver who drove the car was screaming!

After the car was smashed, it quickly flipped three hundred and sixty degrees in the air, and then fell back to the ground, and it was already across the street.

This hand made him dare not sigh again. This is just a warning, just scare, if Dorothy wants to kill him, it is easy!

“Go!”

When he turned to Shen Lang and Zheng Yumeng, Dorothy put away his cold face and smiled.

Zheng Yumeng smiled and gave a thumbs up: “You are just two faces, now very kind, just cool!”

Dorothy feels a little sweaty, and her heart is not good to say: To say two faces, who can compare you? I am only a change in attitude. Sometimes you are like changing someone...

They are saying a few words, but they haven't left yet, Dorothy's phone rang.

Needless to say, of course, the foreigner called to report to Scott that the car was no longer across the street.

Dorothy looked at it and was ready to cut off the phone.

“Take it! We have been away for a while, we still have to deal with things.” Shen Lang whispered.

This Scott is a bat, and it sounds like a low status. Dorothy can not be afraid of anything, but leave him with him for a while, if the old nest is taken over?

Dorothy nodded and immediately connected the phone.

The contents of the phone, Shen Lang and Zheng Yumeng, both next to them, heard that Scott let her meet at the beach and have something to discuss with her.

Although the tone is still good, it also expresses an attitude that cannot be dismissed, and also emphasizes that it is not far from their hotel.

“Go! We will go with you.”

Shen Lang first opened up, and his business has been solved. Now that the problem of Dorothy has been solved, he can leave.

The Comprehension Exchange Conference is still going on today, so the monks living in the hotel in the city are rushing to Jinlongwan Resort.

Just now, Dorothy screamed at the scene of the car flipping three hundred and sixty degrees, and many people saw it.

However, ordinary people are frightened. The monks have had the experience of last night and they are afraid to come close.

The three were very tired to come to the place where Scott had met, that is, at a nearby seaside, but not a well-developed beach bath, just by the sea.

After the foreigner left, he had already arrived here. After seeing them on the side of the road, he did not come over and greeted him. He went straight to the grove.

The three people of Shen Lang followed and went to the seaside.

There is a man with a long body standing on a boulder, looking at the direction of the sea by the sea.

Under the boulder, there are two people standing, one is an old man with a meticulous hair comb, and the other is the foreigner who just came over.

“Mr. Scott, I am coming, what is it for me?” When there was a dozen meters away, Dorothy stood down and asked.

The man above the boulder turned around and looked down at the three of them. His eyes circulated on the faces of Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy, and finally fell on the face of Shen Lang.

“You are Shen Lang? Did Dorothy kill Thomas and Matthew last night?”

Shen Lang is also watching him. This Scott is a man who looks like he is about forty years old. His face has the three-dimensional facial features of the Western race. The whole appearance is quite handsome and straight.

Standing on the boulder, he is looking at the scenery while waiting for others. Now he is also looking down on the top, which can create an advantage in momentum.

Although I already knew that they were going to make a fuss about what happened last night, I didn't expect him to open his mouth and said that Dorothy had killed Thomas in order to kill the waves.

Shen Lang has not spoken yet, Dorothy has frowned.

“Mr. Scott, what do you mean?”

This sentence makes her not good debate. Because she did shoot for Shen Lang, Thomas and Matthew were controlled by Shen Lang, and finally he smashed, but the process of killing was caused by her blood.

Scott lifted a finger and put it on his lips, gracefully doing a “squeaky” action or continue to look at the waves.

It's a bit uncomfortable for Shen Lang to look at his appearance.

I have been accompanying Dorothy. It is because no matter what they have, I have solved it first. Now I am directly directed at him. Don't blame him for participating.

“Scott is right, shut your ass? What are you counting?” Shen Lang asked coldly.

In this sentence, the old man standing next to him looked at Shen Lang, and the former foreigner had already retreated a little distance without any trace, for fear of being trapped.

“It's interesting. Some people dare to talk to me like this. It's really interesting.”

Scott smiled and then said to Dorothy: “Dorothy, you heard, not that I am looking for him, he is disrespectful to me. I need to maintain my dignity...”

“What do you want to do?” Dorothy frowned more, and took a step to the side, blocking it in front of the sinking waves.

This is of course an act of her subconsciousness, and she does not need her protection.

“Look, I originally taught her about it. But you have to maintain him, that makes me a little sad.”

Scott shook his head exaggeratedly: “Right, this Shen Lang little white face... Oh, no, boy, don’t know my relationship with Dorothy?”

“What do I have to do with you!” Dorothy colded her face.

Scott sighed: “Dorothy, I know you said this, I don’t want me to say our relationship in front of him, not really hurt my heart, but he wants to make it clear. ”

“Fart! Who is your woman!” Dorothy roared.

“Near Nicholas promised to marry you, and he did not cancel the marriage contract when he died. Of course you are my woman!”

Chapter 602 - Men’s showdown?

Scott’s words made Dorothy angry, but Shen Lang was listening to it. Combining her previous situation, I believe this is true.

This Scott’s strength is comparable to A++’s superpower, much better than Nicholas. In the past, Nicholas should have a heart, so she gave her daughter.

Dorothy is not willing to marry Scott, will not go back to the East.

But like Scott, what kind of woman do you want to have? Nature will not help Nicholas for Dorothy.

Or to say a little bit, if it's just a woman who plays with it, he doesn't lack it. He wants to show his wife, and he doesn't look at Dorothy.

So Nicholas later agreed to Costner, using Dorothy to sacrifice and open the forbidden passage. In an attempt to get a leap in this way.

Since the beginning of the year, Dorothy has not only succeeded Nicholas, but also incorporated Kostner's men. It is a wrong leap, which has revived Scott's interest.

"Is it? Nicholas has a marriage contract with you, then you go to **** to find him to marry you!"

Dorothy continued to roar, she did not have any good impression of Nicholas.

"You are now a hard wing, so you want to resist? Hey, tell you, it is impossible, you must be my woman! I will protect your family, otherwise you will be delisted by the bat club and will be sanctioned!"

Scott proudly announced that he would eat her.

"You are just taking advantage of your father is the current president, the bat will not be the president alone!"

Dorothy disdains the irony: "Again, even if it's a name? Who is rare with your garbage!"

"Listen! I really have no exaggeration!"

The foreigner immediately called out: "They are such insulting bats! Especially this swell!"

The old man who had never spoken, slowly said: "Miss Dorothy, your words have passed, and you can take back what you said, we can see it as not heard."

"No, you know that you are angry. I didn't look at you before, so I specially found such an oriental sheep to stimulate me. But I have to admit that you used to have no glory, but now it is like a wild cat. Deeply attracted me..."

Scott's big section is not afraid of being blushed in front of many people. Hearing Dorothy directly wants to do it.

"Compared to this little yellow man who needs your protection, I can protect you and your family."

Scott finished and looked at Shen Lang: "Come on! Today I will have a duel with you, men and men's showdown! Dorothy, you can rest assured, I will not kill your little yellow man, only let You see the gap with us!"

When he said the word "we", he did not hide the pride of the vampire.

Dorothy's look has completely cooled down: "Scott, you will regret your provocation today! I will kill you!"

At this time, Shen Lang's hand stretched out from behind, hugged her shoulders and held her to the side.

"A waste wood, I don't know how much it is."

Shen Lang comforted one sentence and asked: "His father is the president of the bat club? It sounds very powerful. If you kill him directly, kill all three of them."

Dorothy turned to look at Shen Lang. She just said that she would kill Scott. Naturally, it is natural, but the same words are said by Shen Lang, and it is very likely that it is the truth.

Shen Lang wants to kill Scott. She has no doubt whether she can do it or not, but Scott's father is a big man worthy of jealousy.

Killing Scott will inevitably come to find revenge, so that you have to pay attention.

"Oh! Sure enough, you Orientals like to talk big, you seem to call this bragging, bragging, do you want to help me blow?"

Scott's Chinese is obviously not just a simple exchange, but a deep understanding of the connotation.

There was disgust in the eyebrows of Dorothy, and Scott's overly provocative words at this time would only make Shen Lang speed up his slaughter!

"Scott is not a thing, but his father is very powerful. Count him out, if you really want to kill... then you have to kill the two together, you can't miss the news."

When Dorothy said this, it was the direct normal voice, so that everyone heard her.

The foreigner who had already retired a little, and the old man who stood under the boulder, looked badly. This was a killing for them!

Not to mention Scott, he used to be indifferent to Dorothy. Dorothy Nicholas, they only looked up to him and tied her up, and now he said that he is not a thing!

Shen Lang said that he would kill him. Dorothy actually said that he would kill her, and he thought about Shen Lang. He scolded his father and actually killed the other two people together!

"It's against you, I'm not going to kill you! Not to mention that your actions against Thomas and Matthew last night have already caused condemnation around the world!"

Scott finished the sentence Then cold and cold said to Dorothy: "Bike! Go away! Wait for me to pack him up and pick you up! You will regret the disrespect to me today. !"

"Do you start with it, which is so much nonsense?"

When he finished speaking, he found that Shen Lang had already reached the boulder he stood on.

Although Shen Lang unexpectedly took the lead, Scott did not see the whereabouts of Shen Lang, but also surprised him.

His shots are now not only representative of him, but also a matter of jealousy, but more about vampires and races, the West and the East.

Therefore, Shen Lang has already come first, and he really has no other nonsense, and he directly grabbed the neck of Shen Lang!

Before the palm of his hand has arrived, he quickly poked out a few inches of claws from his fingertips and directly stabbed the throat of Shen Lang!

With the sharpness of his claws, the degree of vulnerability of the throat, once pierced, can be directly killed!

The space above this boulder is limited, and everyone's distance is close. At his speed, it is impossible to escape from the budget.

But when I saw the claws coming to the throat, Shen Lang was dodging and did not dodge!

“Be careful!”

Dorothy and Zheng Yumeng both exclaimed, because they all clearly saw that the claws were stabbed in the throat of Shen Lang, and the Shen Lang was really not dodging, instead of moving the shadows left too quickly.

The former foreigner found that when they started, they quickly quit and went out for more than ten meters. He was for safety reasons. But this also made his perspective very good, seeing Scott's scene in the throat.

“Good!” he blurted out.

Chapter 603 - Drink some blood tonic

Scott looked at the throat of Shen Lang and was stabbed in his own paw, and could not help but reveal a sneer.

really!

As he guessed, this swell is nothing but a slap in the face. Although the skill is a little bit, it must be a personal reputation that a group of people work together to help him.

It's like the killing of Thomas and Matthew's credit last night fell on his head, but it's definitely the same as Dorothy's.

It is impossible to escape now, and it is confirming his conjecture.

His previous ridicule against Shen Lang, as well as his attitude on the boulder, is a high-level disdain and your attitude.

When Shen Lang and Dorothy stimulated him to do it, he would not be merciless.

So when the paw of one hand stabbed the throat, the paw of the other hand was even before the eye was stabbed.

Double insurance!

Even if the throat is shunned and blocked, it can be a hedgehog, and it is also destined to win.

When it was said that it was too late, the reactions of all parties were actually in the same moment.

Also at that moment, Shen Lang was calmly reaching out and grabbed his hands.

The reason why I have to use the throat to harden, Shen Lang is trying to try to see how strong the body is now, and the throat is almost the most vulnerable part, there is no problem here, not to mention other places.

Originally refining and blending the myelite of the giant rhinoceros beast, it has already made him a strong copper-clad iron bone. Last night, it was subjected to electric shock quenching, and reached a new height.

But after all, it is the throat, Shen Lang is still fully prepared, on the one hand, the use of "King Kong is not bad body power", plus a layer of guardian.

On the other hand, the "Phantom Meteor Step" is also a good thing. Once it is punctured, it will quickly retreat.

In this respect, he is confident that he can avoid backwards at the moment when the epidermis has just been pierced.

When the throat was stabbed, Shen Lang immediately had the most direct feeling. Although the pain was inevitable, but with the strength attack of Scott, he could still withstand the puncturing!

The throat can reach this level, it is already very bad, and Shen Lang is satisfied.

At the same time his hand also grabbed Scott's elbow, like a steel tongs, and his hands were twisted sideways.

Just stabbed the claws of Shen Lang's neck, the other paw will be stabbed to the eye, and it will be opened to both sides.

When Shen Lang grabbed his elbow, he quickly kicked it out from the bottom up.

“咔嚓” sounded, and Scott's arm was kicked, and the sound of broken bones was directly transmitted.

The feet of Shen Lang did not recover, and they changed the angle directly in the air, once again hitting Scott's abdomen!

When the foot is changing, the hand is also changing. The original elbow is grasped and turned into a spin-up, grabbing his two wrists.

The foot kicked Scott's lower body directly to the back, but he was able to withstand it, and their body was very strong.

Whether it is the kicking of the front foot or the sniper of the abdomen is not the ultimate goal of Shen Lang.

After grabbing the wrist, he turned to the inside and left, and then slammed into the past!

Scott's arm was broken, his wrists were no longer strong, but under the smashing of the wrist, it was almost the same force that manipulated them accurately into the past.

The claws that have just been extended are immediately inserted into the fingers of the other hand!

Ten fingers and even the heart, Scott, who had just snorted in both feet, couldn't help but scream out under the ten fingers.

The original Scott, who is not going to be crushed in this way, but he just felt the paws stabbed in the throat!

At that moment, he was really a negligent triumph, waiting to see the throat of Shen Lang being punctured, he was preparing to **** the blood of Shen Lang!

Where do you think that the throat is pierced and not dead?

Then I discovered that it seemed that the stab was stabbed, but did not penetrate it, as if the bullet hit the bulletproof vest.

This embarrassing process is a good opportunity for Shen Lang to attack.

And how fast is the speed of Shen Lang! The entire series of attacks is done in an instant. When Scott reacted, it was when he was hit by three combos, but it was the pain of ten fingers.

“stop!”

The old man who said that the boulder was standing below, was still calmly watching Scott's shot. When he found out that it was wrong, he immediately jumped up and rushed to the past with incredible speed.

But at this time, a man was killed from the cross, just a punch, hit his waist, and directly flew him out, hitting a big tree dozens of meters away. .

The big tree was deeply rooted and was bent to the side.

“Scott is not talking about men's duel? You are joining forces to attack, do you want him to be unworthy of being a man?” Dorothy did not look at him, and said coldly.

After the old man struck, he immediately rushed over, but after hearing this, he stopped.

Dorothy said that it is really related to the dignity of men. If he said that he had a good showdown, but he had two hits, even if he won, he would not be glorious.

But more importantly, Dorothy just kicked him out with a punch!

Of course, because his mind is on the rescue of Scott, but Dorothy is also clearly under the mercy, so you can see the power of Dorothy.

After Shen Lang let his Scott hands interspersed with each other, he then quickly pulled hard!

This time, the two hands put the target on the hand that was kicked off the bone. This is a slap in the face, and the arm is broken from the broken bone!

The nerves of one root and the blood vessels of a strip are all broken and the pain can be imagined!

“I’m going to kill you!”

Scott screamed, revealing a ***** tooth!

At this time, the sinking wave that had just broken his arm was to plug the broken arm into his mouth and completely plug his mouth.

“Don’t waste! Vampires, drink some blood to make up.”

Scott’s painful roar was blocked and he was quickly freezing the wound’s blood vessels. When I heard this, I almost died!

Who will put his own blood to make up?

The old man desperately flew again.

But even if he was prepared, Dorothy was still faster than him, kicking him out in advance!

At the same time, when Shen Lang was plugging Scott's mouth, he quickly flew past, kicked Scott's chest and kicked him from the boulder to the sea!

When it was halfway down, Shen Lang was chasing it up faster and waved his hand!

A strong suffocation, directly cut off another Scott's arm!

Chapter 604 - Bloody vow

This is another thing that happens quickly in an instant.

It was an unimaginable experience that Scott had just pulled off his arm and was stuffed into his mouth. He was kicked in, and when he flew to the sea, he had already accepted his life.

The following is sea water, how can it not hurt too much, even if the head goes on again, there is no big problem, unless it is a serious impact on the reef.

So he is still concerned about the injury of the arm and the one that has just been smashed on his chest.

I didn't expect that Shen Lang would catch up, and it was catching up so fast, and it was a "knife"!

Unprepared, his other arm was broken by a sputum, and a lot of blood poured out.

He had just stopped the blood, and now he stopped the blood of this arm, and the arm was still biting in the mouth, and there was no sound.

Now that both arms are gone, he can't grab the arm that has just been cut off, only to fall into the sea together.

After the old man was kicked by Dorothy, Ben had given up, and Dorothy was there. He did not hope to help.

But after seeing Scott being kicked into the sea, Shen Lang actually chased the past!

That's not the same, Shen Lang said that he wants to kill Mr. Scott!

He immediately fled to the beach quickly, regardless of his injury.

Then I saw that Scott, who had one less arm, was falling into the sea.

The old man quickly fell, but it was too late. Only when Scott was planted into the sea, he took it in the water and picked up the arm.

But when he held the man, he could not fly from the water.

Not because of the weight, but the waves have not left!

Shen Lang suspended in a few meters above the sea. At this moment, the sea area of several tens of meters was directly suppressed, so that the old man could be caught by the invisible wall.

"You have broken Mr. Scott's arms, what do you want?" He stood on the sea and asked aloud.

At the moment, Scott is already in a coma, and in his arms, his face is pale.

But Shen Lang is very clear, this Scott is comparable to the strength of a++ superman, even if he is cut off by two arms, it will not faint.

Now I am in a state of coma, naturally because I have realized that I am not an opponent. If I am awake, I can't let my face go to beg for mercy, so I will die to solve it.

"What do you want?" Shen Lang asked: "Today, you are coming to the door first."

The old man said slowly: "This is no wonder that Mr. Scott, Thomas and Matthew died last night, because Dorothy is on the scene, so many superpowers come to the door and say that it is the killing of our bats. They are dead, let us give a confession!"

“Fart! Last night, both Cohen and Aru were blaming me in the group. I killed them both.”

Shen Lang sneered.

In fact, there may be such a reason. The super-powerful person there can not find a channel for venting. If he dares not come to him alone, he will buckle this matter to Dorothy.

And this Scott, more likely to take the opportunity to attack, put pressure on Dorothy or something.

“It’s not that we have the final say. After all, Miss Dorothy was on the scene last night. They will treat you as an enemy, and will also take Dorothy as an enemy, and Miss Dorothy belongs to the bat club, Scott. The gentleman must speak out.”

After the old man finished speaking, he couldn’t help but hit it up.

“We didn’t have any hostility! We are looking for Miss Dorothy to discuss the business, and you have to follow suit, which has caused the current situation.”

“So, is the problem on my body?”

Shen Lang sneered aloud: “I see that I am still killing all three of you!”

“Wait!” The old man was taken aback. With the strength that Shen Lang just showed, and a powerful Dorothy, it is really not a problem to kill all three of them.

“Mr. Scott’s father is the president of the bat club. You are seriously hurting his son now. The consequences are already very serious. If you kill us three, you can’t hide the news. The consequences are not only you, but also Will include Miss Dorothy, including everyone in her family, will be hurt!”

“You really don’t know who I am, who am I afraid of?”

Shen Lang’s hand, a water column flew up, and when it fell into his hands, it had already condensed into a huge ice sword.

“Killing a few of you is like killing a chicken! After talking about the bat, it’s just a bunch of clowns in my eyes!”

With a wave of his hand, the huge ice sword quickly smashed out and ran directly to the two of them!

The old man clenched his teeth and did not evade.

He knows very well that dodge is also a death. He really wants to survive. Instead, he wants to take advantage of Mr. Scott’s prestige, so he can’t flash. Dodge shows that he has just been in the fox.

But the Scott who was pretending to be in his arms couldn’t help it!

If it is really drowned here, it is too embarrassing!

So he couldn’t help but struggled out and wanted to go out to avoid it.

Although he was unable to fly away because of the above suppression, he still avoided more than ten meters and avoided the ice sword attack.

But something interesting happened. The sword of Shen Lang seemed to be huge, but it was only lying on the sea in front of the old man, letting his body fluctuate, but did not hurt him.

As a result, the old man appears to be calm, and the dead Scott is paralyzed.

Under the shack, Scott also decided to take the initiative: “Shen Lang! You really have strength, I also recognize you. Now I am talking to you about a condition...”

Since he has already spoken, he has let go of everything.

“I swear in the name of the Scott family! As long as you let me go, I will not bother you, I will not bother you any more. And I will give up Dorothy...”

“Let it out? What does Dorothy have to do with you? The relationship of the bats?”

Shen Lang’s hand trembled, and the huge ice sword in his hand quickly turned into a small water column, which extended to Scott’s face.

When he came to him, he re-condensed into ice and became a slender ice sword of more than ten meters. Yes... Dorothy has nothing to do with me. I used to entangle her. I swear in the name of my family, as long as you let me go this time, I will not entangle any Dorothy again, nor will I retaliate against her family members! ”

The arm he had in his mouth, now with the other arm, is in the hands of the old man.

Therefore, he can only break the wound of the condensed work, squeeze out a little blood, and fly in the air.

“The blood oath! If there is a violation, let me vanish!”

Shen Lang never believed in what he promised or vowed. This can completely repent, but now look at his blood vows, but also notice that the old man is a little moved, I believe it has a certain effect.

Chapter 605 - Vulnerability

“Can I trust you?”

When he heard the words of Shen Lang, Scott was a little humiliated, but still looked up and looked up.

“You can ask her!”

Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy are on the edge and are watching them.

Dorothy nodded. “The blood oath is binding. If it is not done, it will be countered.”

“But I married your two arms, you don’t hate me? Don’t ask me for revenge?” Shen Lang asked again.

Scott lowered his head and prevented Shen Lang from seeing his eyes and expressions.

“Say not to hate you for being fake, but you can only blame me for not being strong enough. I will abide by the blood oath!”

Shen Lang nodded. “Good, your decision has saved you from the Scott family. Otherwise, the consequences will be very bad.”

“...” Scott certainly won’t believe this, but now he is a loser, what else can he say?

The old man saw that he could have such a result and he was relieved.

“Now it is a peaceful solution. Can you let Mr. Scott go? We urgently need treatment!”

He came to the side of Scott with his two arms on the sea: “As long as you can get your arm back, everyone doesn’t have so much enmity.”

This is actually a very real thing, as Scott himself admits that it is impossible to hate his arms, but if he can pick it up, he will be much lighter if he is injured.

“Go! Remember your blood swear, if you violate it, you don’t need your back, I will let your blood flow into the river!”

Shen Lang threw the ice sword in his hand and fell into the sea and returned to the sea state.

He turned from the air and went back to it, nodding to Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy.

“Let’s go!”

The foreigner had already run away by himself.

Originally, they were looking for a place where no one was using the magic weapon. Now they are directly here, using the **** boat, and the three people flew together.

Looking at the waves of the distant moments, Scott, who returned to the boulder, was full of hate.

The old man is putting his arm close to the wound in the past to see how he can pick it up...

“In fact, he played a trick.” Dorothy sighed: “He said he would abide by the blood oath, but if it is strong enough, the blood oath can be lifted.”

Shen Lang smiled and said: “You should have discovered this loop just now.”

Dorothy nodded.

“You don’t say it, you don’t want to protect him. But I am afraid that I will kill him and offend his father, which will bring me danger.”

Dorothy nodded again, her current strength, can ignore Scott, but can not ignore the bat club president.

“In fact, there is still a loophole.” Zheng Yumeng inserted a sentence.

“Oh? You are coming to listen.”

Zheng Yumeng did not participate in talking before, but it was also done by the onlookers.

“He just said that he would not take revenge and would not find Dorothy again. But he did not say that his father, if it was his father, or someone else to help him revenge, it should not be subject to the blood oath. “”

Dorothy’s face changed, she did not think of it.

Shen Lang applauded and nodded: “Yes, Xiaomeng now considers things more comprehensive and thoughtful.”

Zheng Yumeng is a bit embarrassed: “So to say... you thought of this? Why did you let him go?”

Shen Lang sighed.

“In the eyes of outsiders, I am a bloodthirsty murderer who kills people and kills the fire. But in fact, what kind of person I am, you should be clearer.”

Both of them nodded, but they didn't understand what it had to do.

“If you say a little bit of a point, most of the enemies are forced by others. I certainly have my temper and I won't make a fuss, but in terms of reason, most of them are reasonable.”

“It's the same today. From the temper, from speaking, of course I will not fall into the wind, killing him can say anything. But in practice, Scott has not been to Dorothy, nor is it right. How am I.”

“But...” Zheng Yumeng frowned. “He just said that he wants to kill you. If he has the upper hand, will he let us go?”

“Is it also a temper?”

Shen Lang smiled and said: “Maybe if he wins, it may really kill us, or it may not. So this is just a concept, and it cannot be condemned because of a concept.”

“Just from the angle of offense, or the outcome of the duel, I broke the punishment of his arms. It is already enough. It should be a great lesson.”

Zheng Yumeng's 噗哧一 laughed.

“You made me ring Don Juan: Goku wants to eat me. It's just a concept. It hasn't become a fact. You have no evidence. What crimes do he have?”

“It's better to wait for him to eat me, you have the evidence, and it is not too late to fix him.”

The lines on her back made the atmosphere a lot more active.

Shen Lang smiled and said: "I will not be pedantic, and I will not be able to make a living. If he can accept the lesson, it is a good thing. If he is intensified, the consequences will be different next time."

Dorothy is apologetic.

"My host is sorry, because my relationship has been implicated in you. This is not something I have concealed. It was previously mentioned by Nicholas. I refused it. I didn't know what they had achieved. Before Scott also Not pestering me anything..."

Shen Lang nodded, almost as much as he guessed.

After she evolved to the strength of the a+ superpower, she only let Scott pay attention to it, and to achieve the strength of the a++ superpower, it is even more powerful and valuable.

Scott's choice of wife, or the woman around him, may not be because of love because of love, but because of value!

The three people went all the way west, and returned directly to the Tianshan Mountains from the seamounts on the seashore, and found the Tianshan Jianzong.

Tianshan Jianzong maintains the state of strict defense of the enemy. When he sees that Shen Lang is back, he is naturally very happy.

This time, Shen Lang went out, not only Miss Zheng Yumeng came back, but also brought back the vampire servant Miss Dorothy.

It is a comrade-in-arms who has experienced thousands of caves with Gao Li and Gao Yang. It is also a powerful woman.

After the happy, everyone gathered in the meeting of the Presbyterian Church, including two female members who have also been guests.

I received the information from Shen Lang before, and I learned that there is also a supervisor and a law enforcement elder in the Master League. Both of them are top-level masters, and they are also cast a shadow.

“Look at the pressure of all of you, let me tell you good news first!”

Everyone is watching Shen Lang This young chief elder is their backbone.

“First, I have very friendly cooperation with the sons of Beihai Qiaojia and Nantian family. Not to mention direct intervention, at least we will not have problems in public opinion, nor will we be smashed by more knives.”

“Secondly, the last generation of the Tianshan Ice Palace’s palace is falling, and it is about to break through the peak of the realm. I have already said that she will help us against the Masters Alliance.”

Everyone heard the news and everyone was refreshed. The Beihai Qiao Family and the Nantian Family can make a lot of things tilt as long as they exert a little influence.

Although the Ice Palace is in the same Tianshan Mountains, in fact, the Tianshan Mountains are too big, far apart, and it is difficult to count as a neighbor. It is not easy for Shen Lang to take the support of the falling river.

Chapter 606 - Delivered to Nedan

Because the Ice Palace is a female disciple, Tianshan Jianzong has been low-key and crouching for many years. There is not much exchange between them. It is not very clear about the strength of the river.

Now, listening to the meaning of Shen Lang, everyone understands that this should be the support of a person who is in the river, not the support of the Ice Palace.

“Thirdly, Dorothy is now very strong. In addition to the lack of experience, the strength should be able to fight the ally.”

Just a little spirited, after hearing this news, everyone is moving!

This young blond girl can actually fight the gods of the gods!

The last time I fought together, I was surprised. The last time, they were acquainted. The strength of Dorothy is similar to Zheng Yumeng (desolation), although the help is great, but how It also does not reach this level.

However, after careful consideration, after the return of Qiangjialing, the realm of Shenlang has risen sharply, and Gao has also broken through the bottleneck of many years. It is not surprising that Dorothy has made progress.

The last fierce beast, all the blood, was concentrated and taken away by her, maybe it was these that made her leap!

“Congratulations to Miss Dorothy! I need to take care of it in the future.”

Gao Li represents Tianshan Jianzong and handed a gift to Dorothy.

Dorothy smiled and said: “This is what I should do.”

Although they are not quite sure about her relationship with Shen Lang, she also knows that she is completely obeying the arrangement of Shen Lang.

With such a strong support, everyone is in the bottom of their hearts.

“There is still the fourth?” He Sheng couldn’t help but ask him.

The first three points are not easy to do. It is also of great help to the current situation of Tianshan Jianzong. still got more?

“The fourth point is related to you!” Shen Lang smiled and nodded.

“I?”

“Master, it’s not that I am incompetent. It’s really a short time. Even if there is a phoenix, there is no way. I know that there is still a self-knowledge. The phoenix can help me speed up when it comes to the water, but I can’t let me do it overnight.”

“If...and add a Nedan?”

In the hands of Shen Lang, there was another inner Dan, which was like a smile.

This time, everyone is not only moving, but also eagerly staring at Nei Dan.

The value of Nedan, all monks understand. And to get to their level, it is even clearer that Nei Dan has greatly helped them.

But this is something that can’t be met, and it can’t be expected. If it can’t be obtained, it is very difficult for the outside world to buy, and the cost is very huge.

The last time in the giant cave of the giant rhinoceros in Qiangjialing, it was the sinking of the waves. They have nothing to say, after all, Shen Lang is the biggest credit.

Behind the strength of Shen Lang, it is naturally related to the marrow fluid of the giant rhinoceros beast.

And the giant beast under the suspended island rock formation, whether Nedan has been obtained by the waves, they are not known.

But no matter what, Shen Lang does not owe them anything. It is already very grateful to help Gao Li break through the bottleneck.

Now he has found Neidan for the sake of sacredness. This makes the sacred sacred, let the Tianshan sects up and down, are grateful.

When you look down on the waves, you will bow down.

“Thank you for Master’s grace! With this help, you can certainly hit the peak period. But now that the war is coming, Nedan is best used on Master himself to spend the crisis of the lord. Come to Japan, I believe Master can bring it to you.” We have more and better resources!”

This statement not only expresses gratitude and loyalty, but also compliments the sinking waves, and even counts as retreating.

This is the sacred self, do not know how many points are true, how many points are modest.

“You call me a Master, of course I will not treat you badly, accept it! The other side has two strong people who have the true peaks, so we have to prepare, foreign aid is ultimately foreign aid, it is impossible to stand by, or need itself Strong!”

This said “foreign aid”, including Dorothy just next to it.

After hearing this, he did not humbly, licked a few heads, and then took it with respect and respect.

“Thank you Master! You are sure to report to death!”

“If you don’t want to be late, you should hurry and retreat and practice! Let us discuss other things.”

“Yes!”

Looking at the sacred excitement of the feet, the other elders are not envious.

Shen Lang glanced at them and said with a smile: “You don’t need envy and regret. When you break through, I will prepare better resources for you.”

“Of course, Nedan is a rare thing, and I can’t share it when I come to see people. But Lingshi, everyone can use it casually!”

Shen Lang took out a bunch of Lingshi and handed it over to Zun Zun, who distributed it. For the elders, disciples, and reserves.

You are already used to Shenlang can shoot Lingshi every time he comes back, just like no money. The harvested Lingshi is much more than his management as a sect.

He is also very regretful. Why didn't he have a long-term vision? If it does not become what it is now, he can enjoy these resources very well. It can shock the mid-term of the real world. For decades, he can continue to be the sovereign. It is entirely possible to reach the end of the real life and the peak.

Other elders also understand that the holy people have the value of blasphemy, and they are still in a distance. If one day reaches that level, it will receive such attention.

The resources are now much better than before, only to practice hard!

Shen Lang continued to talk to everyone about the Mid-Autumn Festival, and they worked with Qiao Shuyu on their trials. Jianzong still had to be handed over to everyone for management.

Chapter 607 - Re-enter the dead forest

After Shen Lang's confession of Tianshan's Jianzong, he did not stop, and immediately left, with Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy back to Pingxi.

This time I went to the Death Forest Trial. Although there are a lot of medium Lingshi, don't worry that there is no power to get stuck in it, but if you listen to the meaning of the two, you may want to get some Nedan. It is estimated that you will go deeper. Go to a dangerous place.

I don't know how long it will come back. Shen Lang decided to take them both together and go back to spend the Mid-Autumn Festival with their parents.

The outside world knows that he will go directly to Tianshan from Haishan, and no one thought that he would return to Pingxi.

The Completion Exchange Conference ended on schedule, and like the previous ones, it seems to be a group of spirits. But this time there are actually a lot of dark tides!

One is that there is no plan to go to the Hells, and some of them have closed-door meetings, so that the monks and abilities who are not among them feel uncomfortable and have some possibility to move.

There is also one that is the birth of Shen Lang, and the things that compete on the beach can be said to be small and small, and will not attract high-level attention.

But the killing of two a++ level abilities of Thomas and Matthew that night attracted a lot of enthusiasm, especially the Western abilities, more or less a bit of a rival.

And Scott's experience is still spread, so that everyone has to serve, Shen Lang is really a curse, no one is afraid. The offenders were offended and the vampires were offended.

Shen Lang left the seamounts and went back to the Tianshan Mountains. The Master League was also helpless, let alone these outsiders, so even if they were familiar with Thomas, they could only go back first. No one could come forward to find the waves. revenge.

But this time, the name of Shen Lang was directly spread to overseas, and it was also hostile to many people.

It's still unclear what kind of reaction Scott's father, the president of the bat club, will react.

Back to the home of Pingxi, Shen Lang did not go out to see Yue Zhennan, they just spent a festival with their parents.

Shennan Han Fengying and his wife are also insisting on cultivation. Although the progress is limited, after all, they have used the phoenix marrow, and there are more waves for them to improve. The effect is still obvious. They all look younger.

However, for the identity of Dorothy, it is not easy to explain, can only be said to be Zheng Yumeng's overseas friends.

After the festival, I will be ready to go!

Both Joe Yu and Nan Yiye came to the information and confirmed the address and time of the meeting.

Shen Lang is also a strong direct expression to bring a Dorothy.

He has already added two people, and Qiao Shuyu has invited a canoe, and there are three more girls. No one is inconvenient.

Shen Lang took them both, from Pingxi, and rushed to the agreed city.

Here, Shen Lang is coming for the third time. The first time it was just after it came out, it was the nearest city. At that time, I was poor, I had to take an old ginseng and I went to Qingtian Medicine to change my money.

That is, I met Wu Bowen here.

The second time, it was because the boss of Qingtian Medicine Bank took away the money from his card and ruined the storefront of a number of Qingtian pharmacies overnight and directly killed him.

Now Wu Bowen is still in this city, Shen Lang did not contact him. Just after that, I found a place to find, and agreed on the place where everyone would meet.

Although they come from all over the world, they are all high-level comprehensions. They will not be trapped by traffic problems such as traffic jams. They will basically meet on time.

Nan Yiye is a person, without other people.

The falling canoe was invited by Qiao Shuyu and came with Rain.

Shen Lang is carrying Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy.

Everyone had a meal together and they were familiar with each other.

Then I went straight to the top of the mountain.

Once again, Shen Lang is a little embarrassed.

“I came out here, I don’t know if I can get in.”

Of course, he has a solution, but he did not say it. Instead, he carefully tested two people, Joe Shuyu and Nanyiye.

Of course, Joanna can also guess that the wave of a wave a year ago is much weaker than it is now. It can live for a year and a half, and can also find it out. It is definitely a good understanding of the transmission array.

However, as children of the family, they could not be seen by Shen Lang, so they were busy together. Soon in this dusty mountain that did not know how many hundred years, they found a transmission array and placed the power source of Lingshi. The formation is reopened.

“Put it in batches! We stay at the end!” Nan Yiye said, indicating that Shen Lang first took them in.

“it is good.”

Shen Lang is also not polite, with Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy advanced.

Both the canoe and the falling rain have been to the death forest, and there is no fear of transmission.

After entering, it was still in the megalithic temple, and soon the canoe and the falling rain came in. After waiting for a while, two talents, Qiao Shuyu and Nanyiye, came in.

They should have destroyed the formation outside and not let other people have the opportunity to come in, even if their whereabouts are confidential, but also to prevent it.

Shen Lang is very familiar with this place. When I was stuck here, I tried to find out here many times to see if there is any way to go out.

Now that he is back, he is very embarrassed. He wants to ask for a medium spiritual stone, which is not found anywhere. It’s a hundred now, and he can get it for a thousand.

This is less than a year, there is such a big change!

Others came for the first time, and they were shocked and amazed at the shrine of the towering boulder.

“Okay, we have come in, we can go further.”

The opening remarks of Shen Lang made Xiao Shuyu and Nan Yiye slightly stunned.

They did not disclose more of their information until they determined that Shen Lang would bring them in.

“The distance from Death Valley is about one or two hundred miles away. The business of Death Valley is clear to you. With the entrance and exit as the center, the radius is almost explored, and the harvest is sure, but definitely not We all expect it.”

“I’m going deeper here, and I’ve explored it a long way. After all, I was stuck here for a year and a half.”

When he said this, other people didn’t have much deep feelings. Only when it rained, she came here, and it was also clear when Shen Lang was at that time, and he saw that he was trapped by Chu Yunfei. it’s here.

It was already very difficult for an 18-year-old boy to survive in the dead forest. I still have to live alone for a year and a half. I really don’t know how he came over, but how Looking for a way out.

“In a simple sentence, this is a large area, and there are various resources and levels that are relatively low. If you are a beast, you may have to try your luck.”

Then he smiled: “I haven’t encountered a lot in a year or two, or I have already been eaten.”

“Do not worry! We are ready to have a map!” Joe Shu Yu took out what he prepared.

Chapter 608 - Half indigenous

Joe Shuyu took out a map, and Nan Yiye also took out a map.

These maps are family secrets for them, so they have not been checked before.

Now everyone is here, to face this dead forest together, to find resources, of course, we must cooperate.

After the two people's maps were taken out, they were checked against each other.

Sinking a glance, you can see that this is a copy of the map, it should be only a part, their family has a more detailed map of the dead forest!

However, it does not matter, his contribution is limited, it is impossible for people to find all the family.

“The two maps can be matched, it should be this area!”

The three men checked the map on the ground, and several girls looked around at the back.

Comparing the two maps, although different, it can be seen that there is a similar similarity.

This area, where the two of them advocate access to resources, is very likely to hunt more beasts!

“Shen brother, you have a long time here, can you locate it from here?”

Their map does not have the seat of this temple, so two people cannot recognize the direction and distance.

Shen Lang looked at the map carefully and checked against the place where the brain passed.

The map book is a plane, it is difficult to express the real scene, which is densely primordial forest, and it is more difficult to display reference objects.

Moreover, their maps are hand-painted by generations of generations. The accuracy is limited. The areas where different people walk are different. Finally, the complete map is integrated and pieced together.

Shen Lang is carefully recognizing, everyone is watching his expression.

“Before they used the entrance to the Death Valley as a reference point. There is no landmark reference. But according to the extensive rivers and rivers, I still have a little confidence.”

Everyone was a little disappointed when I heard the previous sentence.

It's hard to come here, even the map has it, but there is no direction, it's really a blow to people. It is easy to get lost and follow a repetitive route in a searchless search in this dead forest.

Such a forest, such a large territory, a few hundred meters of deviations, is completely the same route, it is also difficult to detect.

When I heard the last sentence, I was excited.

Is it a half-indigenous person who has survived here alone and lived for a year and a half?

Shen Lang closed his eyes and checked it, then opened his eyes and pointed it.

“The whole should be in this direction. The distance may be different. I have not gone so far before. If the ratio of this map is prepared, then the estimate should be five or six hundred miles.”

Nan Yiye and Qiao Shuyu are not sure that their map ratio is very accurate, and there is only one approximate orientation reference.

But given the direction and approximate distance, this made them relieved.

“Five or six hundred miles, we are looking for the past! The error is certain, and it will be adjusted as soon as you leave. The map looks like a small piece. In fact, it will be a huge area, it should not be found!”

Qiao Shuyu encouraged everyone.

Shen Lang smiled and said: “The distance here can’t refer to the distance outside. There is satellite positioning, which can be accurate to a few meters. Here, the error is big, and the road is difficult to go too much.”

“Haha! It doesn’t matter, isn’t there your old driver? You can live here for so long, you must have extraordinary talent!”

“Okay! It’s not too late, when we are all excited, let’s speed up!”

Shen Lang is not anxious, but to consider efficiency.

This time, the strength of all of them was not low. It was not the same as he was at the beginning. Plus, they also carried certain food and drinking water reserves and prepared for long-term battles.

In addition, in this dead forest, water and fruit, animals are not lacking, he did not starve to death in the past, there is no problem in this regard.

But morale is very important. If you don’t see any resources for two weeks in a week, everyone will be anxious.

When you are in a good mood now, try to get as much as you can, and then you can be a little more relaxed.

Shen Lang did not use the **** boat to walk with everyone, but everyone flew.

Compared with the fact that they have not yet been in the virtual world, the lowest canoe is now a master of the real world. Naturally, it is much easier. Everyone is using the tree to borrow and fly, avoiding a lot of rugged mountains.

“It’s incredible! Death Valley also said that you can’t come in when you are over twenty years old...” The canoe was also in before, but I didn’t expect to have a chance to come in again.

The same is true of falling rain. The last time they explored this, they finally got the snow fruit. Now revisiting the place, but it is completely different from the original.

Although they were all a group of boys and girls, they were intriguing and always wanted to murder each other.

Now it is a group of masters, but it is a trial of unity.

Shen Lang is leading the way. He not only has to hurry, but also observes the surrounding environment. He must also remember the area he has traveled in his mind at any time, and also corresponds to the situation of the two maps.

In addition to eye observations, his knowledge is also spread out as much as possible. On the one hand, it is terrain, on the other hand, it is also dangerous.

The seven-member group went all the way, slowly lacking a sense of freshness, just silently observing, silently rushing.

They are also very clear that if they pass by the ground, they will certainly have a lot of gains, but this time everyone's goal is relatively clear, and the general exotic flowers and plants are out of sight.

Now they are much faster than Shen Lang. Even after they got to the back, they need to recognize and add calculations. It is already a lot harder and the speed is much lower. But for a long time, before the night, they still came out two or three. Miles.

“Just rest near here!”

Shen Lang took them from the treetops to the ground.

“Tomorrow we will be slower, but one day should be enough for us to arrive.”

“Well! There are a lot of uncertain dangers at night It's better for everyone to take a break.” Nan Yiye also agreed with his decision.

“It's not a dangerous problem! It's mainly a road trip at night, there will be no sense of direction. If it is a little deviation, it may be a few hundred miles in the night. Then it will be too much to get back on the right track. It will be too much. The road can't be done!”

This kind of Shen Lang is deeply experienced, and he has experienced it before. It's just a lot of time before, just wandering around, over and over again and again.

He is now at the heart of this team. Several girls are invited and brought in, and they have not participated in any opinions. But the two sons, Joe and South, who have maps and information, can't take the initiative.

After all, Shen Lang is half an indigenous!

Chapter 609 - Camping, earthquake?

When Shen Lang is on the road, he constantly observes the environment. Now he will choose this place to sleep, and of course he is also very particular.

First of all, this is not a deep valley jungle, avoiding the possibility of a strong beast living, or a poisonous gas in the middle of the night.

Secondly, in places with high terrain, the possibility of snake worms and ants is also smaller.

Then there is the advantage of maintaining the terrain around, and once there is any danger, not only has a certain buffer time, but also can leave more calmly.

When Shen Lang stayed here last time, there was no resource. The three days of food and water in a backpack could not do anything.

This time, with a magic weapon for storage, it is naturally much better. When you come, you will also prepare more things. However, there is not much food and water prepared, which can be found in the forest.

Considering that there are four girls in this trip, in addition to their own necessities, personal care, he also has to take care of it, not like he finally became a wild man.

The tent is too occupied, and it takes time to build it. So I didn't buy it, but I prepared a sleeping bag and a moisture pad for each of them.

Although it also occupies a place, in the end, if you get a lot of resources and need space, these can be abandoned.

After all, it was the first night, everyone was very emotional, and there was a camping mind.

So the division of labor, the four girls went to pick up some dry branches to burn, and look for wild fruits that can be eaten. Qiao Shuyu and Nan Yiye are going to grab a little wild game.

Shen Lang is responsible for tying up the camp.

Shen Lang will arrange this way, because they are on the road all day long. They haven't explored it well, let them do this, and it's fun before dark.

He himself is a boring job.

When he was alone here, he would live like a wild man in the end, because there is nothing lacking, and a person will often do whatever he wants. But a year and a half of the wilderness survived and many aspects are familiar.

The situation is different now, not only is there a world of difference in strength, but there are also more convenient tools.

For example, the Juyue sword that Joe's family exchanged, this is the third super heavy sword in the world, now used to slash branches, I don't know how smooth!

In the past, even if a person would be in a storm, and did not find a cave hiding, he had to use a branch to cover the rain shed.

Now there is Juyue Sword in hand, and there are a lot of trees, directly and quickly slashing, cutting wood into boards, and taking a tree house out. The twigs are laid out in the wooden house, and then covered with a mat, which is a sleeping bag.

Such treatment is far from being comparable to ordinary outdoor camping.

The tree house for their girls is in the middle, where the three men sleep, in three different orientations.

Even if there are countless trees, don't waste them. The materials that were built in the tree house were cut out on these three trees.

This is a place on the tree that can be put to sleep. This arrangement does not require someone else to send a whistle.

The three of them who sleep on the tree serve as whistles.

Before they all came back, Shen Lang also built a simple stove with stones and the remaining wood.

The two groups of people in the division of labor are masters, and when they go deeper here, they are even more inaccessible, and all kinds of resources are big, and they will not return empty-handed.

I even found the water source and condensed it into a large ice cube to bring it back.

The fall of the canoe and the rainy sisters are very good. The Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy who were born overseas are also rich, and the two sons of the two families of Qiao Shuyu are not to mention.

Like them going out, whether it is looking for food, or chopping wood, it is a new thing that has not been done before. Everyone is playing back.

When I returned to the scene, I saw a wooden house in a short time, which made them very surprised. For the "tree bed" where they slept, they were also very satisfied with the two sons who were prepared to deal with one night.

Dinner is a busy meal for everyone. Several girls are not interested in barbecue. They just eat the picked wild fruits, but they also help to burn the fire.

To say the taste, the wild fruit here is really not much better. After all, the human fruit is cultivated and improved from generation to generation, and is improved in terms of good taste.

These are completely original, but in the depths of this dead forest, especially those who can get their eyes, can basically be regarded as a fruit of a certain year.

And of course they don't care about the taste, but the two family members have a taste for the barbecue.

The bond between them is Shen Lang, and they are not very familiar with each other. Even if I had a meal before, I was still polite, and now I am familiar with it after camping together.

When chatting, there is not much talk about falling rain, and Dorothy is more difficult to insert.

Zheng Yumeng is more active. When he is in a canoe, he can see that he is carrying a "task". Just like the exchange meeting, she took her to know more people. As a palace owner, she can't miss the North Sea Qiao family. Nantian family members have a good chance.

It's not really camping. I have to get up early tomorrow, and everyone is not too late.

During the stay, the four girls were in the sleeping bag of the wooden house, and the three men were in the trees in different directions.

Before going to sleep, Nanyiye was still hesitant. He asked about Shenlang and needed to do some defense in the outer circle.

Shen Lang pointed to everyone, "The lineup of light, are you afraid of any danger? Not to mention that there are no high-level beasts here, and if so, they are also sent to the door!"

Nanyi Ye thinks that it makes sense. Even if there is any danger, they can be aware of it for the first time.

It is said to sleep, but in fact no one really sleeps right away.

With their cultivation, sleep time can be short. It can be said that sleep is a habit and enjoyment, and the effect of cultivation on the recovery of the body is much faster than sleep.

In the depths of this dead forest, the aura is so strong that they can't help but cultivate.

The same is true for Shen Lang. Prepare to practice until the middle of the night. It is good to sleep for a few hours before dawn.

After a few hours passed, at midnight, the seven people in the cultivation were all awakened by a movement. I woke up and stopped moving.

“Shen brother, just the movement... is it an earthquake?”

Judging from the breathing, everyone did not practice, and Qiao Shuyu whispered a question and asked him on behalf of everyone.

Shen Lang certainly felt it. It just seemed to have the feeling of shaking the ground, although it didn't last long. They are still in the tree, and the feelings of several girls who want to come to the ground in the wooden house will be more real.

“No, there should be something different. Everyone is ready!”

When Shen Lang spoke, he had already jumped from the tree and reached for a wave. The remaining dead branches fell in the charcoal of the stove, then ignited the flames, burning the branches and illuminating the neighborhood.

Chapter 610 - Swallow

When I heard the waves, the other people immediately acted. Nanqiao flew down from the tree and the four girls quickly came out of the wooden house.

Everyone gathered in front of the fire and looked privately to see where the change came from.

From the shock that has just been the same, it will take a few seconds now.

After they were just ready, there was another shock. This time it was even more obvious. It really was like shaking the ground.

After Shen Lang was down, the knowledge of God had spread out. It has been found that even at this midnight, all the birds and beasts are quickly fleeing.

They fled faster when they just shook.

God's all-round induction, so that Shen Lang collected a lot of information.

If it is an earthquake, birds and beasts can feel the frequency of ground motion earlier, and will not wait until they start to vibrate.

Now look at their panic, it should be awakened after the first shock.

In addition, if it is an earthquake, even if it is a focal center, this local range is very large, and all animal escapes will be a general direction.

But now, the escape of the animals is based on the film they are in, and they flee around.

From this point of view, it is determined that it is not an earthquake, but what is strange around this.

Shen Lang quickly analyzed this information and immediately whispered a message.

“Everyone is ready to leave!”

And just as he said this, the third wave of vibration appeared.

This time, the situation is that everyone will take a breath!

I saw that the hillside seemed to be alive, and a mud dragon flew up from the hillside and attacked them!

“What a ghost thing?” Joe Shu Yu called.

Because Shen Lang has already reminded everyone to leave, and with their speed of response, they immediately made an action.

Several people all flew to the top of the tree, avoiding the attack of the mud dragon.

And above the top of the tree, they are not only open-minded, but the changes in the hills are even bigger.

Looking at the past from the top of the tree, you can see two huge dark red round objects that have come out, and their diameter has reached ten or twenty meters!

From the point of view of their appearance on the hillside, it seems that this mountain has two eyes.

And look at the bottom, just shot the mud dragon on the ground, the fire and the wooden house, etc., together to shoot!

Along with the large amount of soil landing, from the above point of view, it is finally clear. This is not a mud dragon flying out, but a huge object that is actually explored. Just the above is all mud.

The two large dark red objects above look like the two eyes of the mountain, and the thing that shoots them is like an arm.

The disappearance of the fire made the surroundings more dim.

However, Shen Lang has already seen a rough outline, combined with what he has just seen. It is not that this mountain is alive, but this mountain is simply a huge beast!

“Follow me back!”

Shen Lang said quickly, while the body flew backwards, and inside the hand, a flashlight was taken out, and the light was illuminated to the back, giving them a direction.

Others are unclear, so they are shocked to see what they have just heard. It is also instinctive to follow his direction.

Shen Lang retreats, and directly retreats to the back of a mountain, while falling on the hillside, reversed the flashlight, and then quickly went to the mountains.

Other talents just followed the light from the flashlight and retreated to the hillside, and immediately heard the loud noise behind them.

The slap of the palm of the wooden house, once again smashed the big tree they just stood on!

If they don't evade it in time, even if they won't be killed directly, it will be very embarrassing.

Under the light of the Shenlang flashlight, the six of them immediately followed.

"Thank you." The canoe said to Dorothy.

In the course of the recent change, she was weaker in the crowd, and the speed was slower. She was pulled by the strongest Dorothy.

"The mountain is a fierce beast, a huge beast!"

Shen Lang flashed the opposite side of the mountain with a flashlight, so that everyone could see a contour.

Look at this, the hillside where everyone rested before is not a natural hillside. It might have been a valley, because the fierce beast was there.

I don't know how many centuries or thousands of years have passed, and the landslides and the like have been completely covered, and then the grass is overgrown, which has become a mountain.

Such a beast is crouching, naturally it is cultivated here. The impact of this evening shocked it, of course, the cultivation of their seven people!

The aura of the entire dead forest is very rich, and even if they are desperately absorbed, they will only be a drop in the ocean. However, the full absorption of the seven masters can still affect the nearby aura changes.

Just as the temperature of seven people does not change the temperature of the earth, or a city, but seven people entering a small room will affect the temperature in this area.

The frequency of the aura's absorption of the aura is also constant. It is suddenly diverted by the seven masters, and it will not feel abnormal. But it lasts for several hours. It makes it realize that it is wrong, so it will wake up.

“It's not a waste of time to break through the iron shoes!”

After confirming that this was a fierce beast, Joe Shuyu did not have the previous suspicion, but became very excited.

Other people are also excited. After all, the dead forest has been on the road for a long time, and there is no shadow of the beast. Now the beast has appeared, it is still so big, naturally excited.

Dorothy saw the giant rhinoceros beast in Qianglangling last time, and the harvest was huge. Now she has a few steps in her strength. Even if she sees a bigger beast, she is not scared. She feels that she is sending resources.

Shen Lang is much more cautious, or is concentrating on the movement, and the gods capture the changes in every detail.

“Go up!”

Shen Lang had almost blurted out “cautiously”, but this time he said that he was careful, but everyone was only alert, but they still need to observe and then react, and it is likely to be late.

After shouting “flying up”, let other people do not need to observe and think, and directly follow his orders.

When everyone flew up, they found a huge dark red light shovel directly, and shoveled a large piece of the foothills they had just established!

After a shovel failed, the dark red light was taken back.

This process is clear to everyone, it is not a light, but a tongue, a huge tongue!

“Swallow the sky!”

Shen Lang snorted Shen brother, you said that this beast is swallowing? ”

“seriously!”

Both Qiao Yu and Nan Yi Ye exclaimed, and the two of them heard about this legendary beast.

The two ice palaces have not heard of it, not to mention Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy. If you are bleak, you may know.

“Flash!”
