

First Strong 62

Chapter 62 - Let me be a disciple.

However, Shen Lang did not ask much. Yao Houpu owed a life-saving feeling, and definitely wanted to pay it back.

At the beginning, he considered the need to borrow Yao Houpu when he needed it. He did not expect Yin Yang to be wrong with Yue Zhennan, and the successful Yue family was tied. Before he takes off to a higher level at this stage, some secular needs can still be achieved through Yue Jia.

After arriving at the private room, before the other people had not come, Yue Zhennan spit out the treasure and returned the soup, saying that after bringing it back, the family gave him a bottle. When it was a reward, he immediately diluted it. It's really too hard to drink!

Speaking of this, Shen Lang immediately stated: "I have also considered it. For ordinary people, the taste is also very important. So I have already started to improve. The next batch of tastes is very good. I will send you a few bottles by then. !"

"Are you sure to give me a few bottles?" Yue Zhennan said half-jokingly, emphasizing the word "send".

In these two transactions, Shen Lang's offer price is very high. The Yue family basically did not pay any price. Now he is so generous to send him a few bottles. Even if the cost is provided by Yuejia, you can still have a price of 50,000 for a bottle!

"In the aspect that I am not good at, you have helped me with my heart. I am giving something in my good condition, it is nothing."

Yue Zhennan saw Shen Lang said very natural, and this is not to have a good relationship with Yue Jia, just to thank him for helping him buy a factory!

This made him secretly embarrassed, originally eager to do this, in order to have a good relationship with Shen Lang, did not expect him to pay so much attention. It seems that Shen Lang is a filial person with a strong sense of righteousness. In other respects, he can take care of his parents more!

“Oh! Since you have said this, my brother is not polite. But it is a pity...” Yue Zhennan sighed.

Shen Lang did not ask what is a pity.

He had to go on and say: “Unfortunately, I am not a superb warrior, or else I will be a self-cultivator by the treasure.”

Shen Lang glanced at him with a slight surprise: “Do you want to be a comprehension?”

“Who doesn’t want to?” Yue Zhennan shrugged and then ridiculed himself: “Of course, just fantasizing. It is a superb warrior who is strong enough to be a nine-segment. It may not be able to become a self-cultivator. If I start now, I can become extraordinary.” The warrior is not bad!”

“With the conditions of your family, whether it is resources or Master, it should not be bad. If you practiced from a small age, you should not say anything else. The level of the super-armed warriors in the 3rd and 4th paragraphs should be no problem.”

Shen Lang said seriously that he now has a clearer understanding of these. However, the truth is still not said, that is, the two sons are actually eager for strength, but can not afford to practice hard.

Yue Zhennan was shaking his head with a smile: “You are right. When I was born, the influence of the super-martial and comprehensibles may be greater than now. In addition to hiring a master, our family also wants to cultivate their own. Master. I was originally one of the goals, but...”

“But what?” This time he did not intentionally pause, but hesitated, so Shen Lang asked.

“When I was a child, I asked my master, and I found out that I was born with a natural meridian...”

Yue Zhennan has no choice but to sigh: “That is to say, I can only practice hard work outside the door. The process is very hard, but the prospects are very limited. At most, the extraordinary warriors of the second and third sections will be at the top. Naturally, It doesn’t make much sense.”

Shen Lang understands nod, the level of boxing champions and special forces is great glory for ordinary people, but for Yue Jiaxuan's second son, it takes more than ten years to practice such a result. It is not cost-effective, and other paths can have greater achievements.

“Is this a wish, or obsession?”

Yue Zhen Nan smashed, and then remembered that he had hoped to become a comprehension, and the self-deprecating smile sighed.

“Maybe it. If I have this talent, if I can't get it, or if I don't want to practice hard, it's my personal choice. But without this talent, I will be more unwilling.”

Shen Lang looked at him and then nodded and agreed: “Birds don't have to go to shoot Aiwei, but you don't want to shoot, but you don't want to be inferior.”

“...” Yue Zhennan is full of black lines, and he is not angry. “What do you think of this! You want to say that you are equivalent to shooting Ai Wei, or do you want to say that you are a big bird?”

“I see if you have the possibility of saving.” Shen Lang did not make another joke, seriously said.

“You mean...” Yue Zhennan was a sneak peek, and then his eyes quickly widened. “help me!”

Shen Lang quickly reached out and did not respond in Yuezhennan, directly stunned him. Like the last time he helped Bai Shenghua, he didn't want to be looked at.

Then he reached out and pressed it on the head of Yue Zhennan, injecting a sigh of relief, and quickly searched him in his body. Without a long time, he was aware of his physical condition.

After secretly evaluating it, Shen Lang only woke him up.

“Just...” Yue Zhennan touched his head and then looked at Shen Lang with doubt.

Shen Lang said directly: “You are indeed a constitution closed by the meridians, but there is no way to solve it.”

“Do you mean that my physique can still be changed?” Yue Zhennan was excited.

Although it may not be really possible to cultivate to a high degree, it may be good to be a superb warrior, but there is a problem with the constitution, but it is a matter of regret and sorrow.

Shen Lang nodded.

Yue Zhennan’s mood is even more exciting, but he still maintains his reason. If there is a solution, it should be easier when you are younger. At that time, there is no solution. If you want to solve the problem, it is definitely a bigger project!

“If... I know this will definitely cost a lot. If I report to the family, I can get support How much does it cost?”

Shen Lang certainly can’t help him for free, so he directly asks, if the cost is too big, he will give up and stop talking to the family. After all, he has passed the best practice.

“The cost is not small.” Shen Lang is also not polite.

“How big is it?”

“It is difficult to estimate for the time being. The first step is to help you to wash the marrow and open the closed meridians. The second step is to solidify the Peiyuan and lay your foundation. The third step is to repay the treasure through the treasure. Soups and other methods are accelerated, but first you need to have the right exercises.”

If Shen Lang directly said a cost figure, such as 10 million, or 100 million. Yue Zhennan may wonder if this is a flickering of him. After all, he was checked for physical condition when he was stunned.

But now Shen Lang can’t estimate the specific cost, and given a rough plan, it is obviously more reliable. And because of his obsession, he also learned a lot about this aspect. It is indeed such a step, but other masters can’t do it.

“Master! You accept me as a disciple!” Yue Zhennan directly fell down.
