

First Strong 63

Chapter 63 - Go to college?

Shen Lang directly eyes.

“Accepting you as a disciple, it becomes my duty, and everything is done for you in vain?”

Yue Zhennan said: “No, no... I don’t mean this. If you become my master, I and my family will offer filial piety, and will not let you work in vain. Just... I will solve it, and there is no If you want to practice the law in other places, you still have to ask for it. It is better to go directly to the teacher.”

Shen Lang has indulged a bit. If he accepts Yuezhennan as a disciple, of course, the relationship with Yuejia is not normal. If there is something in the world, you can get more help. But in the same way, in the case of treasures and gods, it may be necessary to make profits.

At present, the Yue family is a big force, but he is going to become a great  in the realm of comprehension. In the future, he will not see the Yue family. If there is a disciple of Yue Zhennan, there is also a more embarrassment.

Seeing that he doesn’t talk, he knows that he is thinking about it. Yuezen Nancheng said: “Master, I am not only having this sincerity, but also having this determination! Without your supervision, I may not persist and become your apprentice. Naturally, I dare not slack off.”

The mouth is called Master, the name has become you, and still maintains a kneeling position.

Shen Lang still shakes his head: “You think about it clearly. You will always be my junior when you are a teacher. You can also fulfill your wish without the teacher. You are a friend of the generation.”

Yue Zhennan also hesitated, and did not say that there may be a master of the comprehension behind Shen Lang. The strength of Shen Lang alone is enough to be his master. The ability is a teacher, and there is nothing younger.

But if you can achieve the same goal, even if you can’t be a brother, be a friend or even a younger brother, you must be a generation higher than your apprentice.

“Transaction.” Shen Lang continued: “The ability to take what you need is a win-win deal, you can’t get a teacher.”

Yuezhen South nodded, and a win-win transaction, in fact, very good. It is estimated that there are Masters on Shen Lang, who are young and inconvenient to accept!

“Well! Then I still call you Langge. From today, I am your younger brother. What conditions are needed, even if I propose it, I will try my best to persuade the family!”

Yue Zhennan is also free and easy. After making a decision, he got up and immediately stated his position.

“Whether it is to help you to wash the marrow, to strengthen the essence, or to provide the right method for you, if you calculate by money, it will not be cheap. But...”

Shen Lang took out a Lingshi with him.

“You can take a closer look at this. I need this thing, and I am more than good. I just said that I can get the stone for me. I can’t count the money anymore.”

Selling 50,000 with a little bit of treasure and  soup, Yue Zhennan can imagine that it will cost at least tens of millions. Now I know that Shen Lang needs this stone, and immediately pick it up and take a closer look, then take out the mobile phone, put it under the table light, license the license and record the video.

“Lang brother, you can rest assured that Sheng Shu is very good at these things, even if we don’t have a home, I believe that he can also make a hundred and eighty for you.”

Such a small stone, there can be no jade and the like, Yuezhen South can easily guess that this may be helpful for cultivation, but the stone is a stone, even if the value is not expensive, so small is not expensive, so open It is one hundred and eighty.

Shen Lang did not satirize him, and he went to find it. It was really possible to get one hundred and eighty!

Originally, Yuezheng South shouldered the responsibility of the family ambassador. To have a good relationship with Shenlang, the cooperation of Baibao and Shentang is a win-win situation. If they cooperate with other families, they will be in trouble.

Now that there is such a factor that is particularly important to him, his attitude towards Shen Lang is also more and more respectful and enthusiastic. From acting as a younger brother to being a younger brother.

After a while, Yao Houpu arrived, and he came with him, and there was an older man.

I was invited to the banquet by Yue Zhennan and Yao Houpu last time. I saw a lot of people, just glanced at them, didn't know each other, and didn't look carefully and left. Now with Yao Houpu, I think it should be one of the last guests.

But this time it was Yao Houpu's banquet. I don't know if it's a little less, or there are other people who haven't.

"Shen Lang, this one should be very familiar with you. I don't need to introduce it more?" After Yao Houpu and Yue Zhennan asked for a good greeting, they said to Shen Lang.

Shen Lang looked carefully and was a little surprised.

I didn't see much last time. I didn't think much about it when I saw it. I recognized this person when I heard the tips. Although I have not dealt with it privately, it is indeed "should" familiar.

Because of this, it is the principal of Li Cao Middle School, Mei Yuanxin!

"May Mayor, hello." For other people, no matter what big boss or official in the county, Shen Lang will not take the initiative. However, as a student in the county, it is still necessary for the principal to have a respectful attitude.

Meiyuan's new last time saw the arrogant attitude of Shen Lang. Like everyone else, he was surprised by the identity of this young man. He thought of who Yao Houpu, or who is Yue Zhennan.

Although I have figured out that I am a student of my own school, I also know that it is the savior of Yao Shuji, so there is no shelf for the principal.

“Shen Lang, your recent progress is very big, it really is a good seed!”

Shen Lang just smiled, not strange. When President Mei and Yao Shuji came together, Yao Shuji was going to entertain him. The principal would know his situation in advance and it would be normal.

Yao Houpu was more enthusiastic about this time, and he was more enthusiastic. He greeted them to sit in the room and said that the dishes had been arranged in advance, so that the waiters began to prepare for serving.

After the waiter was closed, he went straight to the front and said something right.

“Shenlang, I have a special understanding of your learning situation in the past few days. I feel that if I want to take a test, the difficulty is relatively big Yao Houpu just finished, Meiyuan New took the words. .

“It’s still me! I have some understanding and attention to your achievements. It is really a leaps and bounds. I believe that I should be able to make a difference in the college entrance examination. But Secretary Yao is very concerned about you and hopes to be safe, so after we have studied it...”

When I saw the principal, Shen Lang knew that it was related to him. It was all about graduation. It was impossible to arrange a teacher to make up classes. It can already be guessed that it is related to the college entrance examination.

Now that I heard their opening remarks, I also took the next step. “Is it necessary to give me a place to be admitted to the university? OK, as long as I can still go to the university, I am willing to accept it.”

There is no relationship with President May, this is Yao Houpu’s efforts to repay the life-saving grace, and Shen Lang is not polite.

It's been more than a month since the college entrance examination. He can't live up to his parents' expectations and can only try to get good grades. If you get a guaranteed number, you don't have to worry about learning, you can have more time to practice.

After listening to this, Meiyuan's new sigh: "This... no, it's not that easy."
