

First Strong 65

Chapter 65 - I missed the school flower.

After Boss Boss finished the rest of the formalities, he asked Director Yang Shuji to eat and then go back. When Han Fengying went to work late, he found the office and said this.

Han Fengying is just an ordinary worker. He was also worried that the boss would not be able to work as a young man and would expel him. I did not expect that Cai's attitude was very good, a bit of a big sister.

Then said that the factory had already sold it to her son Shen Lang. According to Shen Lang, the factory handed over to her management. Later, she was the general manager of the factory.

Han Fengying was terrified on the spot, that is, he did not believe it. He wondered if Boss Boss owed Gao Li to run the road and swindled Shen Lang into such a burden.

Boss Cai was crying and laughing. He could only call Yang Shuji and let Yang Shuji testify for him. Nai He Fengying is not the boss. He does not know the leaders in the town. He does not believe that Yang Shuji is true.

In the end, I can only call Shen Lang here.

Shen Lang told her that there was no problem in the factory, but it really let him buy it. After that, he was his own, and because he had to go to school, he could only manage his mother and let his mother bring his father back and take care of himself. Factory.

This is something that is not a few hundred yuan, but it is not believed by the biological son. It must be deceived by them. This is the number of people who have been pitted and helped!

The key is where the money comes from!

Shen Lang said the preparation, and said that he had paid a super rich girlfriend, and his girlfriend paid him for it.

Even so, it can only be reluctant to calm her down. He must bring his girlfriend back at noon tomorrow to prove that this is true, otherwise she will not only dare to pick up the factory, but also push the waves.

After hanging up the phone, Shen Lang sent a message to the rain, let her prepare, and went to see him at noon tomorrow, playing the show of a good girlfriend.

After the rain fell, there was no information. Shen Nan, the father who worked in the coastal area, called and called. He just received a call from his mother and asked what was going on. Resent him not to go to school, follow the school, how to be worthy of parents.

Shen Lang can only explain it patiently and let him hurry back, and the mother can't manage it alone.

Shennan is of course going to come back soon, but instead of returning to the factory, he is not worried about his son. He can't let his wife be busy. He didn't have time to resign, he didn't have any salary, and he automatically retired to buy tickets overnight...

I'm probably waiting for the self-study class, and I'll call the place where I'm looking for no one after the rain.

“What happened? Why didn't you have a class today!”

She had called several times, but they didn't answer. When I was out of school in the afternoon, Jiang He said that he would go at night, but did not expect to come to study later.

“Don't you tell me? It's the place that needs your help. I bought something for my parents. It's a factory. I went through various procedures today.”

“...” The rain fell silent for a few seconds.

Last night, he said that he helped, and he said that he was afraid that his parents would question the origin of the money. He knew that he had come to the province and had no money. So the guess is that the parents have a birthday, bought dozens of gifts and the like.

Towards him, even if he had no money and filial piety, he promised to help. What I heard now is to buy a factory!

“You play me?!” Shen Lang could not afford to buy a factory, and could not afford to buy it. Yue Zhennan gave him some money, and it is impossible to afford the money of a factory.

“It’s true. You still need your help tomorrow, and you will see the evidence. Can I lie to you?”
Shen Lang smiled.

“...” The rain fell silent and couldn’t help but asked: “What kind of factory? Or how much money, you let me install local tyrants, I have to know!”

“6.3 million.”

This answer, let the rain fell silent for a few seconds.

She found that Shen Lang’s embarrassment made her more and more invisible. Some dozens of people were robbed by Dong Wenbin some time ago. Now she has bought more than six million factories!

“Yue Zhennan pays for it, let you be a representative of it? It is natural that it will not fall, and this factory must have problems.”

“Oh, it’s the money I made. The factory is my mom’s factory. I don’t want her to work too hard, so if I have money, I will buy the factory and let her be the boss.”

The rain fell, and the mother who didn’t want to go to work was too hard. When she had money, she bought the factory and let her mother be the boss. This filial piety is really rare.

But what can he do to earn millions of dollars so quickly?

Even if you sell chrysanthemums, you have to sell them thousands of times?

Sell chrysanthemum? Yuezhen South?

She suddenly thought of it, is it that Yue Zhennan is watching the waves, and willing to pay for his favor?

This association made her a bit cold, and returned to Yuezhen South of Pingxi City, but also fiercely hit a few sneezes...

“It’s really my money, I didn’t steal it, I earned it hard. Just like I won’t ask you, the details will not be said. I need your help now!” Shen Lang said very sincerely. .

This is a plan that he can think of better in the future. Others, whether Yue Zhennan or Yao Houpu come forward to help, will only make parents worry more.

“No steals, no robbing”, “hard earned”... These two keywords, let the rain that has already been smashed continue to be more embarrassing.

“Isn’t it really that Yuezhen Nanqiang forced you?” She couldn’t help but ask again.

Shen Lang can’t laugh and cry: “Really not. Money is a win-win deal, specifically... look at the situation, I will have a chance to tell you later.”

His crying and laughing is for Yue Zhennan to sue, this son is obviously regarded as a bully image.

The specific transaction is not convenient to tell the rain. But after saying that it is really looking at the development of the situation, is it not more rainy than Yuezhennan? Maybe you can do business later.

However, the rain has already reached the road of rot. This is heard in her ears, but it is helpless recognition. It is said that the word “transaction” makes her feel that she has implemented the conjecture.

“Okay! Since you are not convenient to say then I will not ask. This busy, I helped!”

Did not refuse to help before, is the filial piety of Shen Lang. It’s a bit guilty to fall into the rain now. If it weren’t for her, Yue Zhennan would not be in contact with Shen Lang, and would not look at him. It would not... forget it, anyway, he is willing to trade for money. There is nothing to owe.

She is a bit stunned, no wonder that Yuezhen South is near the water platform, and it just makes people pay attention to the situation around her. He himself has not been entangled in pursuing her. It turned out to be like the Shenlang!

Yesterday's treasures were also sold to Ye Shiguang. But the last time I left was only 20 bottles of Yue Zhennan. There were still some surpluses. Shen Lang did not refine it. I took two bottles and prepared for it.

He had already taken a shower after receiving the work in the afternoon, and now he is going to practice for a while. This time, pay attention to it, don't take too long.

But before he went upstairs, he heard movements!

Yesterday Ye Shiguang still did not come in, now someone is directly over the wall into the yard!
