

First Strong 741

Chapter 741 - North Sea without sea

Dorothy laughed: “Don’t care about him! As a president, he has more power and influence, but there are also more restrictions. If I go back, he might be me WwW..lā I don’t go back, I want to do it to our people, and I can’t tell the bats.”

Shen Lang looked at her and wanted to determine if this was her true mental reaction.

However, I thought about it. In fact, when Nicholas gave her blood to sacrifice, she had already let her completely give up the family. It’s just a power of hers, not necessarily worried.

“That’s good.”

Shen Lang immediately took out the blood of the collected iron armor, but this time there was not all, leaving a little.

Just now he used a bit to give Gao and He Sheng, to see how it works. If it is effective for healing, he can keep it for others.

“Thank you for your master. You know that your master will have a big harvest!”

Dorothy smiled and took a slap in the face. These bloods contain powerful energy. She can imagine what kind of beast is that size.

“you also have.”

Shen Lang gave the piece of fire spar to Zheng Yumeng. She is the body of a woman’s congenital pure yang. What she needs is the energy of the sun.

This fiery stone has an excellent effect on the golden giant python and the iron armor red dragon. From the perspective of the Dracula count, it is also very effective for the vampire, but for the average person, the effect is not as good as the ordinary medium spirit stone.

Zheng Yumeng's big leap started last year, which began with Shen Bo's returning from the dead forest.

Now, a year has come, and I got a lot, but this thing is still getting it for the second time.

"Thank you, I must work hard!"

The two of them also understand why Shen Lang has let them go back to Pingxi, because they are retreating here, and the elders of the swordsmen level may be aware of some, maybe they will be embarrassed.

Shen Lang has already given a great gift to the Tianshan Jianzong, but on the one hand, Yan Zun has to consider the long-term martial art. On the other hand, there are enough people, that is, the elders are not one or two, and cannot be given too much at one time.

It is the elders who are the strongest of the two, and the elders who have also joined the division, and can only help when they attack and improve.

The human heart is always greedy. The first time you give a great gratitude, you will slowly fade away, and you will not even be dissatisfied.

It is precisely because of this that Shen Lang was handed over to Yan Zun at the beginning, and this assigned task made him the master to do more appropriate. Even if he is full of treasures, he can't give Jianzong, they can't use it.

After staying for one night, I checked the wounds of 裴圣和高离 the next day. Although there was no huge change overnight, I could still feel the blood of the iron armor and help them. .

Then they were fed a little more, and they slowly self-treated themselves.

Shen Lang then sent them two down the mountain, and after learning about the situation of Jianzong, knowing that there was no problem, he also left for a while.

He is ready to go to the North Sea Joe home!

Before receiving the invitation from Joe Ue, he thought that Joe's family might have plans to cooperate with him.

But when they are arranged, let them prepare for the return to the sea in March, but it is linked together. Is it true that Qiao's family wants to discuss it?

The last time he had a martial art at the closed meeting in Haishan, he was not clear, but did that Joe's war days not go to Haishan?

At that time, Qiao Zhantian said that he was coming to Shenlang. The picture is Zhu Xianjian. Now think about it, it may be to express sincerity. In fact, he was going to attend the meeting!

At the last meeting, Shen Lang did not participate, and Tianshan Jianzong did not get an invitation. The ice palace was counted as someone else took her to participate, and the specifications were high.

However, the Beihai Qiao family must have participated in it, but it will not be revealed. It is not clear for the time being.

However, now Shen Lang from the side, but also got some news, if Joe can share some information, naturally excellent, if you don't share, you should also gain something!

So he decided to go there alone, and after sending them two to leave, he contacted Joe Shuyu and asked where the Joe family is now, and how he should go.

Qiaojia in Beihai, but not at the seaside, nor at the island.

This North Sea, also known as the "Bohai Sea", is the sea in the north of ancient times, such as "Suwu Muyang North Sea".

In fact, the ancients were limited to traffic conditions. They felt that they had come to the end and went to the beach. Actually, it should be the big lake in the north. Modern is generally considered to be Baikal.

Lake Baikal, which is thousands of miles long, is on the side of the lake, and it is difficult to walk to the edge of the lake. It is easy to think that it is to the north of the sea.

The Bohai Sea is not a place in different periods. Later, it refers to the area along the Junggar Basin. After the Yuan and Ming dynasties, it refers to the desert next door.

The Beihai Qiao family was born before the millennium. Like the Nantian family, it was because the Central Plains famous mountains and rivers and the caves were occupied by the sects, so they reached the wild basin at that time. In order to appear elegant and atmospheric, it was called the Bohai Qiao family, and later changed to the Beihai Qiao family.

It is because of the relationship between this name, Joe's family is extraordinarily mysterious. Later generations guessed by name, not to the Great Lakes in the north, or to the northern coast, but to start from the Bohai Sea, but also to guess the desert went to So whether you want to seek revenge, or want to challenge , often can't find the door of Beihai Qiao's house...

Shen Lang is not going to the beach now, nor is he going to the desert, but to the Junggar Basin. It is also a huge area.

I can reveal the address and invite you to the door. For Qiao, who has always kept mystery, this is great sincerity.

Shen Lang did not delay, traffic, and finally arrived at the Qiao family the next day.

Like the South, the Qiao family is also a "big landlord" in the local area. Although the land is sparsely populated and the land is not in front of the big city, the hectare is also a huge number.

Similarly, Qiao's modern cover is also in the name of a natural village.

Qiaojiazhuang is also quite famous in the local area. Therefore, it is said that Qiaojiazhuang has talents who are good at doing business, so even if it is far away from the town, it is still very good in the barren land where the road is inconvenient.

The current Qiaojiazhuang, of course, has been well constructed in all aspects. Under the influence of the secular and the help of the economy, Qiao's family created the convenience, but it also avoided mining development, and kept the original scene far from the town.

When Shen Lang arrived, Qiao Shuyu had already opened a high-powered off-road vehicle waiting for him.

“Hey! Welcome to the North Sea! Hahahaha...”!!

Chapter 742 Passion? Snooping?

“When you say this North Sea Qiao family, I really did not think of it. Enough thief! No wonder the intention to emphasize the North Sea Qiao family.” Shen Lang could not help but spit.

“In fact, it was a bit embarrassing. At the beginning, we called Bohai, called Beihai Qiaojia, all in order to appear a little taller. Later, the brand was formed!”

Qiao Shuyu smiled and introduced in more depth: “Now we are a thousand-year-old family, qualified friends, all know our specific situation. And the general outside world, if they let them know the truth, may be disillusioned, of course, emphasize Beihai Joe Home is better.”

Shen Lang shook his head: “You are estimated to have a lot of wind and sand here, there is no water to bathe anything. No wonder you, this Joe family son, can survive in the dead forest.”

“Don't look down, the water source here is relatively lacking. But we can't do it in Qiao's home. In ancient times, we dug deep enough wells. Hyundai has already used tap water.”

While driving while driving, it drove fast in the next door. Even if the road was well repaired, the car ran over and brought a lot of yellow dust.

Looking at the scenery outside, feeling the obvious more scarce aura nearby, Shen Lang guessed that the ancestors of Qiao family were located here, there should be other factors!

Even if there is a big name in the famous mountains and rivers, there are plenty of beautiful places in China. It is a small place like Pingxi, and it is better than here.

They can set the family here, must be strictly considered, and passed down the millennium, are trying to retain the original site, no matter how changed, reconstruction, expansion, are still on the original basis.

Like modernity, it also exerts influence to avoid the development of nearby areas. Besides keeping mystery, it is more likely to protect the secret!

These Joe Shuyu did not say it, and Shen Lang certainly did not directly ask, and it was abrupt.

A few minutes drive, I came to Qiaojiazhuang.

As seen by Shen Lang, everything is very modern. Although the leaves are littered in winter, they cannot be compared with the south, but it can be seen that the green vegetation is good.

The car drove directly into a large house in the village. After Joe Shuyu came down, he joked.

“Would you like to pick up the wind and wash the dust? Let you see the tap water with enough water pressure!”

Shen Lang smiled and didn't pick up his jokes, but looked at the direction of the door inside the house.

“Shenlang Xiaoyou!” A person smiled and greeted.

“The last time I saw it in Haishan, I was so fascinated by the people, but I couldn't forget it. But in March, it's like three years! I can come to Joe's house today, and it's really making the room shine!”

Qiao Tiantian bowed his hand and bowed, and he said a welcome word.

Shen Lang also gave a ritual and took the initiative to go forward. "After Joe, it's also a more prosperous style. It seems to be quite progressive!"

"Let Xiaoyou laugh, I am old, and there is still progress! Please!"

Qiao Tiantian can personally greet the door, it is already a great glory, after all, he should be regarded as the second person of Qiao family.

"My brother is in retreat. But Shen Lang Xiaoyou can come, I have to tell him, let him come out to meet in person. Let Shu Yu first entertain the little friend!"

After going to the living room to serve the tea, Joe Zhantian immediately said it, and then he left to leave.

The brother he said should be the strongest Joe of the Qiao family.

"Call! Finally, you can feel free, or else it is too restrictive, I can't say anything." Joe Shuma shrugged, he is still not used to elders in courtesy.

Shen Lang just smiled, but he had an idea in his heart.

If he didn't guess wrong, Qiao Yuxian was not in the retreat, but in the dark to observe the situation here!

Joe's departure just after the war, that is, to discuss with Qiao Yuxian before.

Shen Lang's killing of the lord of the gods has already been spread for a month. They must be clear, so this observation will not be a way to stun the waves through gods, but in HD. Modern equipment such as a camera.

"Qiao's family is very different from what I think, but Joe's warm attitude still makes me very moved." Shen Lang deliberately said a word in the back.

“Oh! Sure enough, there is no human rights in the strength. I drove in the past to wait for you, pick you up, but I haven’t been treated as passionate!” Qiao Shuyu pretended to be depressed.

Shen Lang didn’t make a joke, but gave a sip of tea. I can feel it. The quality of this tea is very high. Qiao’s home is a good tea reception.

“Right, how have you lived in the South for so long? It’s been more than a month, and the South Brothers can’t see you. I’m worried that you’re not doing anything.”

Shen Lang didn’t know if he was purely concerned, or did he want to inquire about it, or he replied with a sentence: “What do you say, what can happen in the Nantian family.”

“That’s not necessarily, in case Nanliuchuan wants to move you? But you have given them several inners. They seem to need Nedan urgently, maybe they will catch you and force you to hand over more Nedan. maybe.”

Joe’s expression and tone seems to be casual, not a provocative relationship.

Shen Lang smiled and said: “If you think too much, Nanjia can be the same as your Qiao family. Naturally, you have your own glory. How can you do such a thing?”

This is a bit of a pun, first hit an ambush, if the Joe family has any bad intentions for him, it will be compared to the South, is sorry for family glory!

“Actually, I am studying with the Nanliushui master of the South, and I have studied some of the knowledge of the formation. I went to the South to seek the restoration of Dan, I have already sent people back, and I left nothing behind. It’s really fast to think of time!”

The words of Shen Lang are intentionally telling some truth.

He did discuss the knowledge of the formation with the Nanliushui, but he went to the scene of the hundreds of millions of ring arrays.

This truth, Qiao Shuyu may not feel enough, but behind the wait-and-see, Qiao Yuxian, Qiao Zhantian, should be able to understand, but also feel satisfied?

Qiao Shuyu is also very interesting. “You have nothing to do with it. If you don’t have anything to do, don’t say anything more, lest I say that they are arguing about their formation. The master of the Nanshui, it is said that the accomplishments in the formation are quite good.”

“What about you? Is there any skill to improve and upgrade a level?” Shen Lang began to shift the topic.

When Joe Ue was hospitalized, he was responsible for chatting and chatting. He didn’t think much, and he spoke up.

“Do you think everyone is so perverted like you? Your speed of upgrade is simply bullying! I am just an ordinary person.”

“Humble! Who doesn’t know that you are the genius of the world’s No. 1 genius.”!!

Chapter 743 - Qiao Yuxian

After chatting with Qiao Shuyu for a while, Qiao Tiantian returned.

At Qiao’s home, Shen Lang is not convenient to use God to detect, but he has already heard it from the footsteps, not only Joe, but also a person who is more gentle than him.

“Ha ha ha! Is this a small friend of Shen Lang? Long time!”

The person who came in with Joe’s battle, just stepped in, immediately greeted with a warm smile.

At first glance, Shen Lang is also a bit strange. He has not seen Qiao Yuxian, but according to Nanliuchuan, it is estimated that the age is almost the same, and as one of Qiao’s strongest ones, it should be a bit of a fairy. The look of the bones.

But this one is just a little beard with a beard on his face, a light head on his head, and his clothes, like the old farmer who just came back from work.

From the surface alone, the age is not exactly fifty or sixty years old. Compared with him, it is a lot of good sales.

“Grandpa.” Qiao Shuyu has stood up and respectfully greeted, which is enough to prove that this is Qiao Yuxian.

“Qiao Gong is polite, I am a friend with Shu Yu brother, in front of the two, it is a junior, not a small friend.” Shen Lang also guest set.

“Ha ha ha! Don’t bother, each argument!”

Qiao Yuxian has already reached the front of Shen Lang, and he laughed happily, and he patted the shoulders of Shen Lang.

This is actually a very rude behavior. Ordinary people can express their enthusiasm like this, but you are a master of comprehension. If you want to harm someone, this is enough.

What do you do for others? Defence seems guilty and not sincere; if you don’t defend, you put yourself in danger.

Joe’s eyebrows moved, and even Qiao Shuyu was aware of it, a bit embarrassing.

However, Shen Lang is not moving, neither defense nor awareness, but also keeps a smile.

“Respect is not as good as death, I am not welcome.”

“Actually, I am also thinking about myself! In fact, I am a long-time relative to your Tianshan Jianzong. I am also a disciple. Now, from this level, if you don’t talk about it, I am not Want to call Xiaoyou an elder? Hahaha!”

The overall performance of Qiao Yuxian is a heroic and no city.

Shen Lang also showed a very happy acceptance. As for the heart, of course, it would not be silly to believe that such an old man would be purely without a city.

After their respective seats, Qiao Yuxian sent Joe Yu Yu away, let him arrange a banquet for the wind and waves.

Qiao Shuyu, this is his invitation to Shen Lang, but just like the last time in Haishan, just acting as a tie, specifically the elders have something to talk with Shen Lang, so it is also awkward to leave.

After Joe Yu Yu left, they saved three of them.

In this living room, there is a careful arrangement of the array, so that everything is isolated, so no one else is here, they do not need to talk to the room.

“Shenlang Xiaoyou, the last time I gave us the sword of Zhu Xian, let us dream for a few decades, and Qiao Yuxian once again thanked!”

Qiao Yuxian put away the look of the previous haha, and earnestly prayed to Shen Lang.

Of course, this is a big face. With his age and seniority, it is impossible to really “thank you.”

Shen Lang smiled indifferently: “Zhu Xian brother is polite, with the status of Joe’s family, and I am a post-life kid, but it is not cheap, the value of Juyuejian and Yundie is not lower than that of Xianjian. Needless to say thank you. , is a win-win situation.”

Just now, Qiao Yuxian patted his shoulder. It was a temptation. His temptation was his courage and discouragement!

Putting his own safety on the palm of others’ hands, Shen Lang seems to be at a loss, and Joe Qiao Xian secretly admire.

Shen Lang can’t feel this kind of unfavorable situation. It either converges well and doesn’t care. Or, it has a strong self-confidence!

Confident Qiao Yuxian will not start with him, confident and confident to protect himself!

Now, Shen Lang is even more rude to call him “Zhu Xianxiong”, but let him watch a few points.

How many young people in their early twenties are there in the whole world, dare to call him “Zhu Xianxiong”? Even if he is polite, others will have self-knowledge.

Shen Lang must also have self-knowledge, he can calmly call his brother, because he has this qualification and confidence!

After all, the current Shen Lang, and the months have also been a huge difference, is to kill a person who is a powerful god.

Do not be humble, do not stick to the secular view, have a strong confidence in yourself!

This is the face impression of Qiao Yuxian on Shen Lang.

“Very good. Then I will no longer be polite. This time, Shu Yu invites you to come to be a guest. In fact, there is something I want to do with you.” Qiao Yuxian did not delay too much and went directly to the subject.

After Joe’s appearance, he kept a low-key Joe’s battle, and explained it with a smile.

“We should have gone to Tianyou to visit the elders. But you also know that we are a few decades old, and we are a big one. It is easier for everyone to pay attention to each and every senior. Ah, the master, what is touted, is not suitable, so I have to trouble the little friend.”

Qiao Zhantian This should be the last experience of the trip to Haishan, and Qiao Yuxian should be rarely going out.

Shen Lang, Waner: “I have the opportunity to come to Qiaojia in Beihai. It is a glorious thing in itself. How can I mind?”

“With your wisdom, I believe you should be able to guess what we are looking for to discuss with you?” Qiao Yuxian continued to cut into the topic.

“No return to hell?”

Shen Lang is not confused.

“Not bad!”

Qiao Yuxian nodded: “This incident is strictly confidential, but the scope is so large, there is no wall without ventilation, I guess you should also hear the news. How? Is there any interest?”

“Are you talking about the joint action of your major sects?”

“Yes, Joe’s family is insured, you represent Tianshan Jianzong together.” Qiao Yuxian gave his suggestion directly.

This is the same as someone with a river down Qiao’s home with Shen Lang.

Shen Lang had already thought about this problem, and the human condition would not be sent away. Before the Qiao family expressed his willingness to help him get the ally of the lord, he wanted him to be a human. At that time, he did not want to owe this person, and now he does not want to!

“Do you know where my news came from?”

Shen Lang asked himself: “The last time I was at Haishan, there was a foreigner who was looking for me and told me about the joint development plan for the non-returned Hell in the Pacific Rim. The same is true in other countries. If they are not qualified to go, they want to unite and set up another team.”

Qiao Yuxian was a little surprised: “You promised them?”

Chapter 744 - Find you alliance

Qiao Yuxian thought that Shen Lang was informed by other sects in the country. He believed that no other martial art would guarantee him. The ice palace was brought down by himself. At most, he leaked a little news. .

I did not expect that Shen Lang was actually known from foreigners, and foreigners who did not participate, but also group!

Shen Lang smiled and shook his head: “No. It is too dangerous to return to Haihai. I refused him at the time. I am so young and want to enjoy more years.”

When this was said, Joey was stunned.

It is said that the invitation to the foreigner is rejected, but in fact, is it not a rumor to decline his invitation?

“The danger is definitely dangerous, but the opportunity is often accompanied by danger. For example, if you go to Qiangjialing and go to the death forest, it is a risky behavior, and the harvest is not small. No return to the sea prison... After all, it is a huge Mystery!”

Qiao Yuxian was a little lamentable. At this moment, he wanted to convince Shen Lang, and on his face, there was a longing for no cover.

Obviously, these huge mysteries of hundreds of years, even if they are in great danger, are also a huge attraction for high-level comprehensions.

Just like climbing Everest, everyone knows that it is very dangerous, but after climbing enthusiasts become mountain climbers, everyone wants to conquer the top of the earth, and many people have lost their lives in Xuefeng.

Time is a wonderful thing. After a long time, the dangerous things will be lower.

The “unknown” itself has great appeal, and the unknown opportunities are more attractive to the adventurers than the certain gains!

Hundreds of years ago, the world's top self-cultivators went to the sea of innocence. They were not fools, and they must have great appeal. Now, after so many years, even if there are dangers such as organs, it is estimated to have faded.

And now the times are different. In addition to their own strength, everyone can also bring with science and technology equipment, such as using a ship to stop far away, helicopters carrying first aid.

In general, the contemporary comprehensions feel that they have better conditions than the ancient powers and feel that they have a chance to explore this infernal sea.

“It is such a truth, but I am still afraid of death.”

Shen Lang's words made Joe Xiaoxian a little disappointed.

However, he immediately laughed again: “Is there a limited understanding of the small friend and the plan, so I want to see it behind?”

Shen Lang laughed without saying, did not admit it and did not deny it.

“When others try to test the danger first, it is a more appropriate approach. Young people tend to be more radical, and you can be so conservative, which is a very rare quality.”

Qiao Yuxian praised a sentence and then began to turn.

“But if opportunities and treasures are limited, waiting for others to explore, even if it is more secure, what else can be left? I don't think you are willing to blame others for being ruthless!”

He is very serious, and he will never be mistaken when he looks at people's skills! The trajectory of Shen Lang's rise in the past few years has also come true, and it will not be really timid and afraid of death.

Shen Lang shrugged helplessly: “You are right, I really don't want to leave others left. But I have more self-knowledge. If I don't have the qualification to grab a meal, if I want to go, I might not have grabbed it. The head is lost!”

“The reason is this, but are you willing?”

Qiao Yuxian did not give up, and continued to “encourage.”

“How about living for a few more years? I think that you are a person with a heart and a heart. You don’t care about enjoying the riches and luxuries of the world, and you don’t care about beauty money.”

“Your age is really a great future! To our age, to be honest, it is the last time.”

“We have never had such a plan before, not because we are not tempted, but because we are at your age, and your strength is still far away! Even if someone is there, we have no way.”

Looking at the salesman’s hard work, Joe Zhantian interrupted with a smile.

“Since Shen Lang Xiaoyou has other considerations, I don’t want to persuade it any more. It is a risky thing, let alone us, this is the cooperation of the Pacific Rim, and no one dares to pack the ticket and return safely.”

“Oh! The two old brothers don’t have to sing and sing together. So, open and honest. Reveal something I don’t know, which will attract me. In addition, let me know why I am willing to help me.”

After Shen Lang expressed his intention to not want to go, he took a step back and said it was straightforward.

Joe Zhantian and Qiao Yuxian exchanged their eyes.

“After all, this is a large-scale joint operation. Everyone has made a confidential commitment. I was not convenient to disclose it myself. It was just what you said.”

“That is, you can’t reveal more to you until you have approved it. As for why you choose it, it’s actually very simple...hahaha! I am afraid of death!”

Qiao Yuxian suddenly laughed and made the atmosphere a bit awkward.

“This time, our Joe family will only be me alone. I have to stay at home in the war. The dangerous environment, the master is like a cloud, I also need a reliable ally! If you like it Then, the two of us will be the minor leagues in this joint action.”

This time it was straightforward, and the strength of Shen Lang got his approval!

Since all the major factions have people to participate, it is not easy to invite friends of the same level. For example, in the South, there will definitely be someone who will participate. Only familiar and friendly, take care of each other.

However, the strength that Shen Lang is showing now is a young super strong, or a real combat type.

The key Shen Lang has not been invited to go, then there will be no allies. If he invites Shen Lang to succeed, the effect of the alliance will certainly be safer.

In fact, Shen Lang will have a little bit of information on all aspects of the sea, and will definitely explore it. Personal danger is even greater!

Originally, he refused the invitation of foreigners, and did not join the actions of the major sects. The consideration was to follow them behind.

But if that's the case, it's first to be swept by a positive coalition action, and then the alliance that foreigners are doing is sweeping again. If there is limited interest, there will be nothing to gain when he goes there.

Of course, the advantage is that others will step on the thunder and he will be safer.

However, since there are plans to join the first batch of actions, so many strong people from different countries and regions join, Shen Lang does not think that he will be the worst.

If his strength is still relatively low, he will not consider it naturally, but now he has reached the middle of the realm of the gods. The ancestors of Shuiyue Dongtian can directly pinch to death. What are the fears?

For the information of no return to the sea, it is not convenient to disclose, no more material, Shen Lang did not care too much.

What he cares about is the meaning of Qiao's family. Since Qiao Yuxian went alone and hoped to get his alliance assistance, this matter can still be discussed.

“Can I still bring people?”

Chapter 745 - Heavenly man

Hearing the waves, Qiao Yuxian and Joe Zhantian were relieved, which shows that he intended to go!

Then Qiao Xianxian smiled and said: “Little brother, with your strength, still lack of women? I know your age, still care about feelings, but we are doing big things, unlike the dead forest you have been to. ”

Shen Lang said that he wanted to bring people. What they thought was that they had cooperated with Qiao Shuyu before, and asked to bring a few girls together. Now there is no return to hell, but also want to bring those girls around him.

His words made Shen Lang laugh and laugh.

“You think more, I said to bring people, not women. Just like you will leave the war brothers to guard Joe's family, since I care about them, of course, I can't take them to risk their lives.”

“Then you want to bring someone? High away from them?” Qiao Xiaoxian is a bit strange.

Shen Lang only rose for half a year (the experience before the death of Tang Banshan, they can not enter their eyes), the side of the helper is limited, that is, a few talented girls.

Just like this time, Tianshan Jianzong is not qualified. Before this, the strongest high separation is only the late stage of the real world. Others are not worth mentioning.

Later, Gao Li and Qi Sheng broke through the peak of the real world, but now they are the mainstay of the ruined gods, and can still fight for no return to hell?

Shen Lang shook his head: "About half a year ago, there was a self-proclaimed celestial founder who found me and told me about the problem of no return to hell. I felt that I would definitely go and ask me to bring it. He, I promised."

Qiao Yuxian and Joe Zhantian are very surprised: "Is this? It sounds like he should not be strong, you have no friendship, and you must bring him with you. If you take it, it will make him dangerous!" "

Half a year ago, Shen Lang did not have the strength of the present. At that time, he was "seeking him", and naturally he could not go anywhere.

What they want is a helper who can help each other, but they don't want to bring a burden.

Shen Lang shook his head: "People want to speak and have faith. If I promise him, I will bring him. Although the time is not sure, but I want to go with you, I am ready to bring him. The danger is his I have no obligation to keep his life."

The two were a little embarrassed and raised their thumbs: "The little brothers have a letter and believe, this principle is very good, but we are narrow!"

"Wait, you are talking about the descendants of the celestial plane?" Qiao Tiantian recalled and grabbed a keyword.

"Good. Self-proclaimed celestial patriarch, called Fuyang real person." Shen Lang did not hide.

Qiao Tiantian thought for a moment, "Tianji Zong is an ancient and mysterious martial art. There are not many disciples in each generation, especially the disciples who come into the room, often one or two. It is said that they have the ability to count the secrets, and they do not know it. No, I have never heard of this sect for a long time."

After he said this, Qiao Yuxian also had a little impression.

“What is this Fuyang real person has not heard, but the celestial patriarch is there. Are you sure he is really a celestial?”

After asking it, Qiao Yuxian first denied: “Whether it is a celestial patriarch, why must he go? This is not a place to play.”

Shen Lang is undecided: “I don’t know, but he is a bit different. Maybe they have any predictions about the return to the sea, or what is passed down.”

This is what makes Qiao Xianxian think about it.

If it is just a “real person” who lives in the real world, it is a burden and it will not be of any value. But if he knows some secrets that others don’t know, or clues about no return to hell, it’s another matter.

After all, this is the celestial celestial sarcasm!

And dare to take the risk, there must be a little bit of confidence.

“Good! I can’t give the face of the celestial sect. I can’t give it to the face of the little brother of Shen Lang. If you like, then bring him with him! But...”

Speaking of this, Qiao Yuxian hesitated a moment. “Maybe other people know the celestial sect. If it is spread out, it may attract people’s attention. How about letting him walk in the name of Joe’s son?”

With the qualification of Qiao’s family, there is no problem for the Tianshan Swordsman, but it will add more than one person. If he is a Qiao family, he will let Tianshan Jianzong two people, others may have opinions.

For this, Shen Lang has no opinion. It is not bad for Fuyang to take him with him. There should be no right to speak, and he decided on his behalf.

This is a matter of negotiating, and it takes time for Joe to deliver the application. But there are still three months, and I am not in a hurry.

Shen Lang has already entered the plan, and some can disclose it to him.

The meeting was represented by Qiao Tiantian, so now he is also telling.

As Shen Lang knows from Gu Peng, the specific time is in March, and the domestic martial art have another meeting, the purpose is to form a large alliance of the country's comprehensions in the entire large-scale plan.

After all, there are some big sects, and no one is convinced. It is very difficult to have a truly united alliance. The meeting is also mainly about the distribution of interests, and there is nothing to imagine the future. Practical significance.

It is precisely because of this, Qiao Yuxian will think of pulling the Shen Lang to privately form an alliance, such a small alliance, more than the alliance of all the famous nationalities in the country is more reliable.

After the key things were finished, Qiao Yuxian and Qiao Zhantian also ate a meal with Shen Lang. It was also a meaning. After that, they handed it to Joe Shuyu to play with Shen Lang for a few days.

Their identity is there, Shen Lang has been regarded as a VIP treatment, but also settled Qiao Shuyu, Shen Lang has any requirements, Qiao family must do, Qiao Shuyu can not decide, immediately reported.

Shen Lang is actually not in the mood to play anything. When people are old, they are still vying for time to practice. How can he play leisurely? In order to be able to return safely without returning to the Hell, of course, it is to practice as much as possible, and it is one point to improve one point.

However, Qiao Shuyu is very enthusiastic. He must insist on staying in the waves for a few days, and said that he will have to go back and forth for a few days, staying for a day and a half, it is not worth it.

Shen Lang is very helpless, staying here is not worth it! Qiao family has their resources for their methods, but he is practicing here, the effect is worse.

Although the environmental problems can be supplemented by Lingshi, with his current realm, this gap is also insignificant, but it is very boring to go shopping with this Gobi with Joe Shuyu.

And count it, going back to Tianshan from here, not so far, before I didn't know the road, it would be faster to go back.

In order to attract the sinking waves, Qiao Shuyu threw a big bait and said to take him to find a treasure!

As for why he would take him, because he saw him in Tianshan Jianzong, he quickly re-arranged the Hushan array, and he was able to discuss the formation with Nanliushui. This treasure was naturally stopped by the array.

Chapter 746 - Yinjing

This is naturally not the meaning of Qiao Shuyu. It should be that Qiao Yuxian Qiaotian wants to see Shen Lang's accomplishments in the formation, but it is not convenient to open the temptation, so let Qiao Shuyu complete this way.

But seeing this layer, Shen Lang still could not refuse.

On the one hand, he must prove his worth to Qiao Yixian Qiaotiantian!

After all, the more powerful, the more stubborn the view, without knowing him in the situation of killing the lord, there will still be doubts about his strength. For example, would it be that the super-powerful Xu Haoyue in the death forest gave him a magic weapon?

On the other hand, Shen Lang is curious about the things guarded by the law.

Arranging a formation is not only a cost issue, but also requires time and effort. It is not something that a comprehension can do. It must be a master of the tactics, so there are generally good things.

Even Zheng Mu's tomb of the king of the king, there is a detachment from the sun, there are also a lot of things, let Pingxi eat a few hundred years, but also helped the early days of Shen Lang.

Qiao Shuyu arranged for Shenlang to stay for one night. After getting up the next morning, he drove a lot of food on the off-road vehicle and went deep into the Gobi for hundreds of miles.

After passing through the uninhabited area of the barren land, Qiao Shuyu parked the car on the side of the road and took him to a mountain.

“What the **** is it, don't lie in me!”

Shen Lang seriously reminded me.

He remembered the last time they broke up with Nanliuchuan, the billions of ring arrays, and sent them to the world of the city. If this is also a space transmission array, I don't know what is there, can I come back smoothly.

“Nothing, let's go explore, if there is any problem, then withdraw it.”

Qiao Shuyu obviously has no end to himself, but he still persuaded his scalp to persuade: “We have lived here for thousands of years. If there is any danger, it will definitely not wait until now. It should have appeared long ago, and there will be ancestors. Come and fix it.”

“So, this is not always there. Is it your new arrangement to test me?” Shen Lang asked half-jokingly and half-seriously.

Qiao Shuyu was a little embarrassed and shook his head. “Of course not. This is what we discovered later. It hasn't been cracked yet. It's rare to meet you as a master of the battle, so please come and see if you can't.” ,let it go!”

“You can't be smart with this radical.” Shen Lang's eyes.

“Haha! Let’s go! The brilliant way is not everywhere, I don’t believe you are not interested.” Qiao Shuyu pushed the waves and went forward.

Bypassing the foothills, Joe Shuyu stood up before a stone wall and then pushed for it.

The stone wall was pushed a few feet away!

It is not a natural stone wall, but a boulder, combined with mud and mountains.

After pushing it open, the original place reveals a hole, about a hole about one meter in diameter.

“This is a swell we found. We can’t explore it. I am afraid that someone will stray in, so I covered it with boulder.” Qiao Shuyu immediately introduced it.

It is said that this Yinjing has been discovered for decades, but there is a lawsuit that has been unable to crack, and it is impossible to know what is underneath or what it is.

Shen Lang kicked a stone to the vulture.

“It’s useless, it will...”

When Joe’s words were not finished, a stone fell in a place of more than ten meters, and it appeared as if it was falling from a height.

“See it!” He shrugged and continued to introduce: “It won’t be fixed in one place. It’s completely irregular. We have done a lot of experiments, including living things like mice and rabbits. It’s like this, it’s irregular. Appeared out of thin air.”

“It’s funny to say it. The first thing I found out was a tomb. I thought it was a grave entrance. I didn’t expect it to fall into the outside. After so many times, it was considered a ghost hitting the wall, scared to hurry. Ran.”

After knowing this news, Qiao’s family naturally tried to erase the legend of the “ghost wall” of the strange land. They monopolized it here, although it has not been studied.

Now let Shen Lang come here, it is also a dead horse as a living horse doctor. If you can crack it, if you can't crack it, there is no loss, and you can test the ability of Shen Lang.

After he had just finished speaking, he found that Shen Lang jumped in directly!

Qiao Shuyu couldn't help but be surprised. Although they had experimented with living things, no one jumped in, what if there was any problem?

When he just opened his mouth to call Shen Lang, he saw that Shen Lang appeared not far away.

"Shen brother! You are scared me, even if you want to personally test, we must be prepared." Qiao Shuyu complained.

Shen Lang has returned to the front of the Yinjing: "Do you want to try?"

After seeing Joe Yu, he shook his head. "Isn't it necessary? You just tried it yourself, and there is no difference with our conclusion."

"Then I will come again!"

After Shen Lang finished, not waiting for what Joe Shuyu was saying, people jumped into the Yinjing and went in. Qiao Shuyu spread his hand, it doesn't matter, anyway, there is no accident in Shenlang. Think of this as a toy.

But what he couldn't imagine, this time I waited for ten seconds, and I didn't see the swells appear!

He quickly looked around like a round, still did not see the shadow of the sinking waves, could not help but immediately jumped up more than a dozen meters high. But looking at everything around the mountain, but still did not see the waves!

The previous "fall" came out, although there are no rules, but they are all in a range not far away. This time it will not be a place to take Shenlang to a long distance.

After Joe Shu Yu landed, he immediately took out his mobile phone. If the Shenlang is transmitted far away, the phone can always be contacted, unless it is transferred to the depths of the underground.

And Shen Lang, at this moment, it really fell to the depths of the underground!

In fact, when he came to the scene, he felt that the Yinjing was actually a double array. One was a magical array. It looked like a hole. It was not actually a flexible array. The range is very short, and it is controlled to a radius of a dozen meters.

The person who sets up this protection method is to use this magic array to create a folklore “ghost wall”, so that ordinary people will feel that it is very evil and leave quickly.

The second weight is the true protection of this Yinjing. It is the protection of the self-cultivator. Even if the real Yinjing is discovered, it is not allowed to enter.

However, in the eyes of Shen Lang, this is nothing. Compared with the billions of rings, this is all pediatrics. Just as he can quickly arrange a magical array, this magical array can't prevent him from being a master of formation.

He just jumped in directly, and he felt it for himself. When he entered the second time, he directly avoided the illusion and cut into the second heavy array method, and then directly fell to the bottom.

Chapter 747 - Intercepting Yinquan

Qiao's family called it “stomach”, not without reason. After Shen Lang reached the bottom, he felt a kind of chilly bone!

There was no light underneath. He took out the illuminating ore of the Ice Palace and illuminated the surroundings.

There is no transmission array to other places, like a deep pit like a mine. Now in front of Shen Lang, it is a bone!

The dead bones are already covered with dust, but there is no such thing as a spider web, because under this chilly condition, spiders are afraid to appear.

Shen Lang looked down and looked at it carefully. He saw a liquid substance like water, which is probably about a handful.

The chilly atmosphere is emitted from here!

He reached out and touched it. The fingertips were bitter and icy. If it wasn't for him, if you changed to an ordinary person, I was afraid that the cold would immediately pass the finger and freeze the whole person directly!

Of course, ordinary people simply can't get here. Even if they come in, they can't stand it, and they can't get close to it.

Shen Lang did not study much, took a bottle directly, it was collected, and then it was put into the space bracelet.

In order not to waste the blood of hunting the beast, he prepared some bottles to help Dorothy collect blood beads, but now it comes in handy.

This thing has been seen in the waves, called Yinquan.

Like Lingquan, it is not as much as spring water, but has already condensed into a liquid state.

Its special feature is extremely chilly!

Obviously, there was a lot of rain falling. When I ran to Licao County for a few years, it was a mystery that they did not understand. Later in the Tianshan Ice Palace, Shen Lang knew that it was because Li Cao Middle School had a Yinquan and arranged her there because the Yinquan helped her greatly.

This is also because after the resurrection of Shen Lang, the Yinquan there has been absorbed by the rain, otherwise he will soon discover that there is no need to find wild herbs in the mountains.

However, in the case of the rain, the Yinquan should be extremely small, or relatively light. This is not comparable to the one presented here.

Shen Lang will immediately accept it. On the one hand, it is considered that this can give rain, and on the other hand, he cannot return empty-handed!

This is the site of Qiao's family. It is also the Qiao family's arrangement of Joe Shuyu to take him to explore. He really found the treasure, and he still has to be the one who has the most symbolic reward.

But he spent time and energy, which is what Joe didn't win. Of course, he can't help himself. He should pick it up first.

As for what else is there, let Joe's family get better.

After receiving this Yinquan, Shenlang did not continue to search, but went up, and then cracked the second protection of this array, and broke the mask of the above.

Looking at the sinking waves from the inside of the Yinjing, Joe Shuyu could not help but stunned!

“You... how did you do it?”

He is really unbelievable. “I just saw that you didn't come out, and told you that there was no response. After waiting for a while, I jumped again. The result is still popping up from this side. Isn't the same one you entered with me? ”

Shen Lang smiled uncontrollably. “If you can be like me, why are you still unable to enter?”

Qiao Shuyu couldn't help but turn a blind eye. “Oh! Your brother is screaming!”

Then he was a little discouraged: “Have you started practicing from the mother's stomach? I have been fighting for the second, and you are so much smaller than me. How can you understand so much?”

Shen Lang smiled faintly. He didn't start practicing from the mother's stomach. It was a lifetime experience of the past life!

"There is a mountain high in a mountain. Just when I am a more talented person than you!"

Joe Shuyu shrugged helplessly: "Fortunately, I didn't know you on the first day. I have already got used to being set off and hit by you!"

When he first met Shen Lang, he was very unconvinced and insisted on fighting for one!

"What's there? Or where is it going?" He re-applied his curiosity on the well.

Shen Lang pointed out: "Do you know if you jump in and see?"

"Crap! I didn't skip it, jumped in or was popped up..." Qiao Shuyu said that he had jumped in.

He originally wanted to verify to Shen Lang, and he proved that he would jump from the side immediately after he jumped. I didn't expect to jump this time, lose weight directly, and really fell.

However, in the end, Qiao Shuyu was in the late stage of the real world. Before the birth of Shen Lang, he was one of the best geniuses. In the immediate reaction, there was no slaughter and smooth fall.

But the surroundings are dark, looking up, faintly seeing the light of an entrance.

At this time, there was more than one person around him, and there was light at the same time.

"Wow!" Joe Shuyu was not shocked by the waves, but the sudden appearance of the bones surprised him. "What is this...?"

“How do I know? Maybe it is the ancestors of your family, or it may be the enemy that your ancestors defeated and fled here.”

Shen Lang gave an inference.

When this bone is alive, since there is a yin spring, it must be absorbed, that is, the cultivation of yin and cold, and certainly will not die for no reason.

The biggest possibility is that you are injured, and then temporarily set up such a hiding place. The result is serious injury, hanging directly here.

But what is the specific identity, who is already in what era, he knows nothing, and it is estimated that Joe's family may not be clear.

Qiao Shuyu quickly checked, except for the traces of the two of them, and the traces of Shen Lang's landing, the others remained the same, and he immediately cautiously.

“Shen brother, this Yinjing our family has been paying attention to for decades, and there has been no breakthrough. Today, you have helped us a lot. Whether this is an ancestor or an enemy, I can't do it. I must report my family and let them come. exploration.”

Shen Lang nodded: “Understood, let's go up!”

After coming out, Joe Shuyu immediately called back. Shen Lang just went in for such a short time, but also needs to crack the array. He certainly does not doubt that something has been moved.

Now that I am staying here, I am not convinced that the waves are broken, but the formation has been broken. If someone accidentally comes over, it will fall to death.

That is, you can move the boulder back, and worry about what happened, so I will report it, and when the family has taken over, they will go back. After all, there are hundreds of miles from the Joe family. It takes time to run back in person.

“My grandfather...should I want to find you somewhere?” When asked to finish the call, Qiao Shuyu asked directly.

There is no smoke here, and he is not afraid of people listening.

Shen Lang smiled.

“I understand, it is not convenient to say it! This is what I guess. After this return, they are more valued by you. Today is also a question for you. After you unlock it, you will pay more attention to you.”

Qiao Shuyu is very smart, focusing on the training of successors, of course, there is also a big picture.

“If I didn’t guess wrong... You should have gone to this place in the month of your hometown!”

Chapter 748 - Nurturing old land

For the guess of Joe Shu Yu, Shen Lang smiled and did not answer.

Qiao Shuyu does not need his answer, which is almost the default.

“Shen brother, can you help me to talk to my grandfather, take me with me? I am absolutely honest!”

Ming knows that there are secrets, but it is inconvenient to ask, so that Joe Shuyu is also tickle. If it is a general one, it will be a big secret to let your grandfather go out this time.

If the grandfather and Nanliuchuan acted together, he would be calm. It’s quite irritating to go for the waves.

“Shen Big Brother! Shen Dawei!”

“You call the uncle no use, this you have to tell your grandfather.” Shen Lang directly eyes.

Qiao Shuyu was depressed for a while. As the focus of his family’s training, he was more strict with other people’s rules.

Since this does not let him know, it means that he will not be allowed to participate at all, and he does not need to ask. If you open your mouth, you can only let Grandpa down.

Passing the waves is the way you want curves.

“how about you?”

“what?”

“Will you bring Zheng girl and Dorothy them?”

“I can’t say anything.” Shen Lang said, then shook his head.

This answer has balanced Joe’s heart. He said that the strength is already in the late stage of the real world. This age is not much in the world, but also the outstanding son of Qiao’s family.

If Zheng Yumeng Dorothy, they can follow Shen Lang, but he can’t go, it will be very depressed.

“Joe brother, I think you are a little impetuous.”

Shen Lang said seriously: “You are not like me, you can believe in Ma Yu. You are the successor of Qiao’s future, you must have your weight.”

Qiao Shuyu was discouraged: “I certainly understand that I was very heavy. I was stimulated by you! If you suddenly came out, I would be in the first place, whether at Joe or outside. The genius is the object that everyone envy.”

There is no way for this sloshing wave. His way forward is destined to step through one genius after another. Joe Shuyu is not the first one, nor will it be the last one!

In his eyes, a genius like Joe Shuyu is just a passer-by, and he can’t keep up with his footsteps. Whether it is an enemy or a friend, it is destined to be a passing sight.

“You also have places that I admire.” Shen Lang comforted.

“For example?”

“For example...you are older than me, and you have money at home. It’s definitely more than I have eaten in the mountains and seas, maybe a lot of beautiful women...”

“roll!”

Since they met, even if there was a month of death in the dead forest, there was not much time to get along alone. At this time, waiting for the Qiao family to come in the Gobi wilderness, the two men chatted and talked without any taboos. However, I am familiar with and have drawn a lot of distance.

Qiao Yuxian did not come over, but Qiao Tiantian personally led the team, and it is obvious that Qiao’s family also attaches great importance to this Yinjing.

Since the development of Qiao’s big battle, I certainly don’t want outsiders to see more, but when it is opened, they are not convenient to open.

Therefore, after accepting the thank-you of Qiao Zhantian, Shen Lang was bored with excuses, and he returned with Qiao Shuyu.

Shen Lang stayed in Qiao’s home for a day and left.

Everyone is not an ordinary person. Since a test has been given, Shen Lang has easily completed it, and it is not really necessary to keep a guest.

Qiao’s family did not elaborate on what they found in the Yinjing, nor did they say the origin of the bones. It’s just that Joe’s warfare represents Joe’s family and sent some medicinal herbs to Shen Lang. Although it is not comparable to the restored Dan of the South, it is also a very good thing.

Shen Lang is also not polite.

He then returned to the Tianshan Jianzong.

It's just a few days away, and the change of the two people from the two is quite remarkable. After all, they are masters of the true peaks of the real world. They have a very strong self-healing ability. After waking up, they can cooperate with self-healing.

They were desperate before, and after Shen Lang came back, they gave them confidence, so the progress was obvious.

Less than two of them, Tianshan Jianzong also has no pillars. Considering that the situation after three months is still unclear, Shen Lang can only encourage and stress the elders such as Chen Yuhe and Yang Yuansong!

Supervise them to speed up the progress of cultivation, if there is a chance to break through, he will personally help.

It's a pity that they were a lot worse in talent, and the time of cultivation was one or two decades worse. It's still a long way to go.

Under the situation that the gap is still relatively large, it is certainly impossible for Shen Lang to help them improve.

Then Shen Lang went to the Ice Palace, on the one hand to see the injury situation of a falling river, after all, it was also injured because of his support. On the other hand, of course, this yin spring is given to the rain.

This thing can not be tolerated by others, but it is harmful, only the Ice Palace can have an effect, especially her, can be considered a magic effect.

I have been to the Ice Palace many times, and it is also a light car.

This is not an urgent matter, Shen Lang did not use the cloud disk the road where he was injured before the road, could not help but stop, ready to go in and see.

When the rain fell, he saved him from Yunzhou, and it was not convenient to bring him back to the ice palace. He was hiding in their transfer station.

When I just pushed the slate, Shen Lang immediately found someone in the cave!

He didn't even think of someone here, or else he could detect it outside. Now that the slate has been pushed open, it is a bit embarrassing.

There can be no outsiders coming here, whether they are coming back from the outside or resting down the mountain, they will only be disciples of the Ice Palace, and the Ice Palace disciples are all women.

However, he found out the situation inside, and he should have heard the movement inside. If he left quietly, it would make people feel worried.

“Is the Ice Palace disciple resting here? I am also a friend of the Ice Palace. Passing here, there is no malice. In order to avoid abrupt, I will not go in, and I will leave!”

Shen Lang kept polite and said a word of courtesy. Basically, is the situation clear?

Although he did not say his name, as a young man, he said that he is a friend of the Ice Palace. I believe that there will not be too much, and he can guess that he is.

But what surprised him was that the people inside did not respond!

Not only that, he faintly breathed, but he could still hear the people inside get nervous.

Out of courtesy, I don't know how people are resting in it, so Shen Lang did not use God's knowledge to investigate.

But now it makes him a bit skeptical. After hesitating, he is still ready to look up.

Although it is isolated from the cold and cold, although their ice palace is not chilly, they will not rest in this cave without clothes, and should not be embarrassed.

When his knowledge extended into the cave, the situation was discovered, but he was taken aback!

Chapter 749 - Invasion Ice Palace

In the cave where he lived, there was a girl who was shrinking in the innermost corner. The whole person was shaking and looking nervously at the entrance of the hole, and there was blood on her mouth!

There is no doubt that this should be an Ice Palace disciple, but why is this?

Did you make a mistake and escape from the Ice Palace? Was still injured when I fled?

Although it was a matter of the Ice Palace, he was inconvenient to mix with an outsider, but since he met, he still had to figure it out.

After all, from the river to the canoe, it is not a cruel person, and will not be expelled from the disciples. If you can make them so hands-on, it should be an unforgivable question of mixing in to steal secrets.

Between the thoughts, Shen Lang has already appeared in the innermost part of the cave.

“what—“

The girl who was shrunk snorted and slammed her mouth, but she already knew that it was too late, and her eyes were full of despair.

“It’s you?”

Just a few waves of surprise, now after coming, I can see clearly, this female disciple, he has seen, and the sister who entered the death forest together with the rain.

“You are... Shen Lang?!” The sister squinted.

“You seem to be the sister of the rain, called...”

“Yes, my name is 馨! We have seen it in the forest of death that year!”

The voice was excited, and I quickly climbed the old friendship. After all, if I saw it in the Ice Palace, it was nothing. In the dead forest, when the waves were not so strong, I should be more impressed.

She immediately got up when she spoke, but she just fell a step.

“What is your situation?” Shen Lang stepped to her side and seized her hand without suspicion.

“You are not hurt, what happened?”

I just checked it quickly. Although it is not clear who is actually injured, it is basically certain that it is not a Tianshan ice palace injury.

It is not the ice palace to clean up the portal, then it is possible that she was injured before coming down the mountain!

“I don’t care, fast! Save us... save the rain and sisters!”

The voice knows that the relationship between Shen Lang and Luo Yu is not normal, so I immediately moved the rain.

“Don’t worry, let’s make it clear. The big thing is not a minute or two minutes.” Shen Lang has been a lot of weight, but now the first thing is to figure out the situation.

In the speech, he has already input a vitality for the voice, which directly relieves her the pain of the injury, so that her state can be better, but it takes time to heal.

“Thank you...” This obvious improvement made the voice much better. She took a hard breath: “A group of people besieged our ice palace. Master led everyone to resist, and the palace master opened a road. Let me go to Tianshan Jianzong to ask for help...”

They usually practice in the Ice Palace, and they have a very good home. The direction of the woman is often worse. Whether the voice has been to the Tianshan Jianzong is not suitable for this task.

But now the river is hurt, and the strongest rain falls, it must act as a mainstay. The boat is the main body of the palace, and it is the main heart, so neither of them can leave.

The voice was originally desperate to find the Tianshan Jianzong, find Shenlang for help, but her strength is low, and the other party's people catch up and hurt!

Not only is it far from the Tianshan Jianzong, but even the site of the Ice Palace has not escaped.

It is precisely because it is in this familiar land, so she sneaked into the land and escaped into the middle of the cave to hide, or else, then she has been killed, or grabbed back!

After arriving here, the voice found that the injury was heavier than she had imagined. Even if she went out again, she could avoid the pursuit of the outside, and she could not insist on finding the Tianshan Jianzong!

Even so, she is still preparing for the safety of the sect.

As a result, she did not wait for her to sneak out and leave, and Shen Lang entered it. Hearing the movement, she naturally thought it was the person who came to kill her!

As for the voice of Shen Lang, after two or three years, she is not likely to be familiar. That was also thought to be the person who chased and killed, deliberately let her relax her vigilance.

So she was nervous and shivering, breathing did not cover up, let Shen Lang hear it, otherwise it would be missed.

Of course, Shen Lang was originally going to the Ice Palace. Even if he passed by with the voice, he could still catch up with the rescue, but the voice may have been hung here.

“It's okay, I am coming, everything can be done.”

Shen Lang comforted a sentence, and then took out the medicinal herbs sent by Qiao's family, and found the healing treatment for her.

"You are here to rest and heal here. I will let your sisters and sisters come and borrow you. I will help you solve the problem."

The voice shook his head: "I don't matter, you are going to save the masters!"

When things are urgent, but also when they know each other, she does not have a respectful name for her master. She is the name of Shen Lang.

Shen Lang nodded and did not stop.

He is calm and uneasy, but he is also worried about the safety of the Ice Palace Even if it rains, can it hold on, other people?

After coming out, I put the slate together and went outside the cave. I saw two people outside and staring at the cave.

"Awkward! Actually let her hide."

"There is still a man! It won't be a golden house."

"Hey! What can this be called Jinwu Zangjiao? This is called the cave Tibetan!"

"It's really inconvenient to freeze this cold. Since there is a cave, it should be warmer to think of it. Just the girl is very watery, and she has absolutely no resistance."

"Hey, the female disciples of the Tianshan Ice Palace are all called fairy, and they can be one on the other, and they can boast for a long time!"

The two of them are in the same way in the face of the waves, without any scruples.

In their view, this man must be similar to the female disciple who just fled, but the district is still in the early days of the virtual world.

“Who are you, how many people, why should you besiege the Ice Palace.” Shen Lang directly asked three questions.

“Hey, boy, I am going to press you here, freeze, wait for us to finish your woman, then answer your question!”

“Then you have to hold on, our brothers can stick to it for a long time. When you think about the taste of the ice palace female disciple, you can let me have a few more...”

These two are all self-cultivators who are still in the late stage of the virtual world. They are also in their prime, and there are evil thoughts in this respect.

But when they just finished speaking, they found a problem. How did the body suddenly stumble?

Then they found themselves caught on the ice, but only half of the body, the lower half of the body that was disconnected from the waist, fell to the ground.

“You, you... I... ah!”

“What the **** are you!”

Both people screamed.

Chapter 750 - 0 Demon rampant

Neither of them felt pain and the body was separated!

Because the speed is so fast that I first saw it and found that this picture gave them an indescribable fear.

The feelings of the nerves began to catch up, and began to feel pain, feeling the rapid flow of blood, and did not feel the lower half of the body...

Their bodies were poked on the ice, but they could not freeze the wound. Instead, the blood flowed down and a little bit of thawing.

“You, who are you? If you have the ability, kill me!”

“I will never say that I will die!”

Fear made them bark out, but from the sound, they have clearly felt weak, even if they are all self-cultivators, they can feel the body is obviously weak.

“You want to say, I will not give you a happy! Let’s die!”

Shen Lang’s hand moved, flew over two ice ridges, and hit them into the mouth of each of them, so that they could no longer speak. Then two people face each other and look at each other’s situation and feel the passing of their lives!

When they want to ask for mercy, and even want to ask for a good time, it’s too late, and the Shenlang people have left.

When he left, he also flew directly to the heights. He observed with the naked eye and the gods, and confirmed that there were no two of them in the vicinity, and he quickly rushed to the Ice Palace.

In the end, who is there, how many people, these confidences are of little value to Shen Lang. Anyway, after he passed, he will kill those people without leaving a piece of film!

If you need a joint siege of the Ice Palace, you should not be able to go anywhere. If there is a divine situation, there is no need for siege, and it is impossible for the voice to escape.

Driving the cloud, Shen Lang quickly rushed to the valley of the ice palace.

According to the voice of the voice, it was the canoe that opened an encirclement and dragged the enemy to let her escape. That battle line should be a little big, but when Shen Lang arrived, I saw three people who were in the family, and they were recalcitrant at the entrance of the Ice Palace Cave!

The magical array of hidden entrances of the Ice Palace has disappeared, and other disciples should have been evacuated. Now, three people who have fallen into the river, fallen in the rain, and lost in the canoe have been closed to the mouth of the cave.

There are bloodstains on the river and the canoe. I don't know if they are enemies or their own, but they are almost unable to hold them.

The situation of falling rain is slightly better, but it is also left and right, and in addition to the enemy, there are two to protect them. Although she has the strength to survive the peak of the real world, but the actual combat experience is seriously inadequate, and the most experienced rivers are seriously injured.

“Lowering the river! Do you really want us to wash the ice palace? At that time, you just figured it out, and it was too late!”

There are one or twenty people on the side of the siege, but some of them are still in the virtual world. When they are not able to insert their hands, they are shouting at the back.

There are nine people in the official offensive, each of which is a real thing!

The one who spoke at the moment is actually a master of the gods!

It can be seen that this person has not been hands-on until now, or else the Ice Palace will not have a chance to shoot.

“Ghost King! You are also a strong man, have you fallen to bully our women?”

Luohe first ridiculed a sentence, and then said coldly: “My ice palace is a female stream, but I don't want to be eyebrows, I will never give in to you!”

“Toasting, not eating and drinking!” The man known as the Ghost King shook his head and ordered the nine people who were attacking.

“Put them all!”

The other ten are still in the virtual world. At this moment, they are blaming for cheering. The three people who were barely supported by the river are not able to support it.

The entrance to the cave behind, once lost, all the disciples of the entire ice palace are all arrested, so it is not their retreat, but their weakness!

“Be careful!”

The masters of the real world who were attacking all the way suddenly heard the ghost king’s scream.

Then all of them felt a pressure that was overwhelming and coming from the top!

When I looked up, I found out that a sword had broken through the air. It was actually covering the entire valley, and the moment had already approached them, and it changed from a sword to a thousand swords!

These masters did not dare to neglect, and quickly retraced the body.

The one who was called the Ghost King, after warning the public, turned his head and stared at the volley.

The remaining ten are still in the virtual world, but they are not so lucky, they are directly penetrated by the sword, and one by one vomiting blood!

Ghost Wang’s brow wrinkled, although he did not care so much about the lives and deaths of these people, but one or two will be considered, once killed a batch, the loss can be a bit big.

“Who is here?”

As he asked, the nine men barely resisted the Jianqi attack and temporarily stopped.

Looking at the rushing waves, the three people in the river are all relaxed.

Shen Lang is a person who has created too many miracles. The recent record is that the lord of the sacred gods has been killed. When he comes, the natural pressure is greatly reduced.

“Hundred Ghosts do things idlers avoid!”

When Shen Lang came, he gave them a horse, and the ghost king was also a bit scrupulous. Before he could not see the details of the coming, he did not attack, but he reminded him.

This is to lift his martial art, let the other side understand who is against, and the value is not worthy of their sins for the ice palace.

Before I heard the name of the ghost king, Shen Lang thought it was a nickname and did not pay much attention. But now I hear the hundred ghost gates, and naturally understand.

This is an old martial art and one of the famous evils. The evil factions are not because of their evil spirits, but because they will use many evil means to complete the exercises.

For example, directly use the living people to sacrifice, capture the gods of other monks to strengthen themselves and so on.

Other righteous people are generally bound by ethical principles. They are in places like Qiangjialing, and only some of them will kill people, but they usually aim at murdering other monks.

Because of such factors, it has always been suppressed by the righteous people, all of which are low-key crouching, or far away from the wilderness. Generally, only in times of trouble, will they wait for opportunities and make waves.

Knowing that it is a hundred ghost gates, Shen Lang will understand the nine realities of the real world, why it is difficult to force the three people to fall.

Because of their sinister methods, the gods who devour others have grown stronger, and their spiritual power is far better than the average self-cultivator. Therefore, even if the strength of the rain is stronger than them, it is difficult to surrender them under the siege of many parties.

“Tangtang Tianshan, is it a group of you who can be rampant? If you want to be a ghost, then I will fulfill you!”

The sinking waves at the moment have already landed in the valley, between the nine men and the three men in the river, and they are in front of them.

When talking about this, Shen Lang’s figure flashed quickly!
