Chapter 75 - Interested in?

“What are you doing?”

Looking at the words of this guest set, Shen Lang is a bit funny, without guessing, he also knows that he heard about the rain falling from Liu Zhilong.

“Play. Your family has already agreed with you?” Shen Lang deliberately pretended not to know.

“Hey, I told the family about that, but I still need to study it.”

“Then you are looking for me?”

“Can’t you find me if you have nothing? You are my brother, I want to worship you as a teacher.”

Yue Zhennan felt that Shen Lang could not guess his purpose, so he did not openly say it. Now the cooperation is quite good. I also hope that I can rely on him to embark on the road of comprehension. Of course, I can’t open my mouth and annoy him.

“Is it heard about falling rain?” It doesn’t mean to tease him. Shen Lang still said it was broken.

“That... you know Liu Zhilong, but he is quite diligent. He is afraid of you now, and he is afraid to look for you. So I heard that I will report to you. Of course, I have no opinion. You are with Rain. It’s a beautiful girl!”

Because there is no face to face, Yue Zhennan speaks more natural and is more natural.

“Lang Cai female appearance... You mean that the rain is just looking good, no talent, saying that I don’t look good?”

“I said wrong, Lang Ge, you and Miss Rain, you are both talented! If you are together, it is a match, the world is unparalleled!”

Yue Zhennan simply touted it, anyway, no money, no WeChat will not be flattering.

“Don’t pull the East, say your true opinion, it will not affect my impression of you.”

“Haha, it’s just my real opinion. I really think that you are very good, and only you are worthy of falling rain.”

Although Shen Lang said so, Yue Zhennan can be familiar with the world and will not take it seriously.

Regardless of the official mall, laughing and welcoming you are welcome to comment, often not really want to listen to opinions!

“and then?”

“Well, let me talk about my...worry, the situation of falling rain is really not normal! If you first communicate with each other, I feel very good, because I know that you must have a promising future, but now So high-profile... he will know at home and will find you.”

After sending this message, I quickly added a sentence: “Of course, you can rest assured that I will not disclose it! But I think that their family must have arrangements in your school!”

His concern made Shen Lang secretly nod.

Liu Zhilong, he does not care, the other boys in the school will not be on the mind, Yue Zhennan or even Yuejia, will not turn his face for the time being. But the rainy home is not necessarily the case.

And that is the family who fell into the rain, and it is not good to use force directly?

Yue Zhennan also said that there are definitely people in the L County, even the bodyguards!

Before Yuezhen South, I followed a bodyguard of a three-stage super-martial warrior, Ahu, and the family was stronger. She was a girl and went to a county to study. No one could secretly protect it. There may be more than one.

Thinking of this, the waves are stunned.

Falling rain is not someone who cares about the eyes of others. Today, walking with him is not for the other boys in the school. Maybe it is for those who secretly protect her!

In this way, when Liu Zhilong reported to Yuezhennan here, it must have been reported to her home!

Seeing that Shen Lang did not reply, Yue Zhennan quickly sent a message.

“Of course, I know that you are not afraid of anything in Lange. This is just a little bit of my concern. If it is better to avoid conflicts, is it better? If you are really together, there is nothing.”

“I am fine with her, just go out of school and go back to my house to eat. I said that I have to give my money a reasonable explanation. She pretends to be my rich girlfriend and says that she gave it.”

Yue Zhennan immediately sent a sweaty expression, but this is a matter of Shen Lang, and now it has already been like this, he is not much to say.

At the door of Licao Middle School, the rain cleared his eyes and opened the door and got off.

Shen Lang hesitated, greeted her, and then let the driver continue to move forward.

After falling off the car, the rain fell, looking at the distant waves, could not help but frown.

She is not narcissistic, but her influence is still clear. It is really intentional at noon today, and it can be guessed to what extent the consequences will be fermented.

Just now, Shen Lang has already read the information, knowing that the rumor is flying all over the sky. Now let her get off first and go in alone. It is clear that I want to avoid it!

Although Shen Lang guessed that there were people in her school who arranged her family, she did not care. It was not for suspicion at the moment, but it was really something!

His time to go to school is not enough. It is not so convenient to buy honey. After the evening of self-study, it is already ten o'clock in the evening, and there will be someone opening a shop.

So it seems that there is still a little time to go to class, he directly let the taxi driver pull the found honey shop.

In the supermarket store, there is also bottled honey for sale. But even if it is true, it is also processed later, and perhaps the ingredients are not so good. He received 50,000 yuan a bottle of money, which added 20%, which is equivalent to reducing the cost of 10,000 pieces. Of course, honey is better.

This shop is local soil honey, soil honey is not necessarily the best, but this is the beekeeper's own production and sales, the additive is less.

Because the bottle is small, he now decides to add about 20%, but in fact it is only 10 grams. A pound of honey can get 50 bottles. However, in order not to bother, he bought a lot of bottles at a time, let the taxi driver send him back, put it in the refrigerator, and then go back with the car.

All the way to let the driver wait, try to save time, but when I arrived at the school, it was time for class.

When Shen Lang entered the classroom, many people whistled.

In the midst of falling rain, they dare not scream loudly, but whistling, illuminating smiles, and eye-catching eyes are still very obvious.

Shen Lang shrugged Although the atmosphere of this gossip is strong, he does not care. And looking at it, the rain is also seriously reading, as if there is no relationship with these.

The two of them have now become the focus of everyone's attention, and it is not convenient to say hello to the past and the rain. Shen Lang returned directly to the seat.

"You can." Jianghe smiled and snorted with Shen Lang.

Shen Lang shook his head, did not explain much, and then he immediately had a few envelopes in the desk.

“what?”

The river shrugged and whispered: “I reminded you, it is estimated to be some gauntlets!”

“War Book? Are they also worthy?” Shen Lang laughed and prepared to throw a trash can.

However, it stopped again. Now we have to ask for a frame, add a friend to send a WeChat, or send a message directly to a strange number. It is also a matter of writing a “war book”.

He took a few envelopes apart and looked at it, then he was slightly surprised.
