

First Strong 771

Chapter 771 - Froststone

But basically no one can trade successfully.

At their level, the general weapons and armor are no longer used. The eye-catching must be a high-end aggressive and defensive magic weapon!

Such a thing, even if there is anyone, can not carry a lot.

If there is danger in this trip, these are equal to life-saving things. How can it be allowed to go out?

If there is no danger, then everyone will soon become a competitor, and it is even more impossible to give up weapons and armor.

Shen Lang passed the sound to the canoe and asked her to watch the items for sale.

The boat was a bit awkward. Of course, she didn't have anything worthy of being shot, and she couldn't afford anything, so she sat down and watched like a few of them.

“What did your Master ask you to do? What are the opportunities for doing? Do you have to wait until there is no return to hell?”

Hearing this, the canoe could not help but be excited.

Yes! Although Master still values the younger sister, it is still a very rare opportunity. It's exercise, and what happens when you don't return to Hell, you don't know it now, but it's also an opportunity to exercise!

Shen Lang can ignore these predecessors, can ignore these foreigners, it is because he is enough to support himself. As the head of the Tianshan Ice Palace, she should know more people and expand her knowledge.

What I got here tonight is not ordinary. Even if I can't afford it, take a look at it. It's also a long-term exercise. How can you have a global comprehension resource for you to see?

After she woke up, she immediately got up, came over to the side of the waves, and followed him to go shopping.

There was a wave of sand, and she was calm in her heart.

"I followed you, if you don't understand, I will ask you." The canoe is not polite with Shen Lang.

Shen Lang smiled faintly: "Don't expect too much, I don't know everything, there are some things that we have never seen before."

The raft was nodded, and even the so-called "arrogant" guys of Shen Lang were humbly watching long-term insights, showing the rare opportunity!

The observation of two people one by one, basically have a general understanding, but basically requires that the transaction items, there is no trade spirit.

"That table... the ore that should be put in, should you help your cultivation?" Shen Lang pulled the canoe and asked.

Because the canoe could not be afforded, I did not consider this question at all. The whole process was just to see and understand. He listened to him and then went to the past.

The thing on the table, the name written is the stone of frost, is the ore that has not been seen in the realm of Chinese comprehension. It can be felt that there is chilliness on the top, and the name is also the item of this kind.

"Well, it is in line with the practice of our ice palace."

Shen Lang knows them very well, helping the rain to get a lot of snow Lingguo. Recently, I also got a pot of excellent Yinquan. There is nothing to hide in the boat.

“I will get you over.”

Shen Lang has always been generous to close friends. Like the last time you got the Yinquan, there was only one pot. Of course, the priority was to give the rain. If there is more, it will not mind giving a canoe.

Now the traveler is going to the canoe. Whether it is the friend's point of view or the relationship between the rain and the rain, it is inevitable to take care of the canoe. If her strength can be improved, of course he can be a little more relaxed.

The effect of this “stone of frost” is not known, but it is certain that it can promote her cultivation.

“Don't mess!”

The raft was just seen. People are going to exchange powerful weapons. According to Shen Lang, it should be a weapon to attack the magic weapon level.

Naturally, she wouldn't have a bit of thought, but now Shen Lang said, “Get it” and think that this guy is going to madly rush to come over!

When she went to pull the wave, Shen Lang had already returned to the table.

The owner of the table, a white old man, saw the Shen Lang who had just strolled back and returned, showing a smile to him.

“Make it clear! Everyone's things want to trade powerful weapons or armor, but no one can succeed. I use Lingshi to exchange with you!”

“fifty.”

The white old man saw him take out a medium Lingshi, and thought that he wanted a trade in Lingshi, and he was crazy. When I heard fifty, my expression eased a little.

Shen Lang took out one, just gave him a sample, let him understand what is the spirit of the appearance, so as not to make a difference in the name, leading to misunderstanding.

Seeing that he did not respond, he continued: "Sixty."

"My friend, my frost stone is getting..."

"seventy!"

Shen Lang did not listen to him, and directly interrupted the price increase.

The canoe quickly pulled him and said, "No, you can buy a few snowfruits."

Having said that, the enough snowberry fruit is not bought if you want to buy it. Even if it is not the top price, it depends on the opportunity. Now that I have encountered this frost stone, Shen Lang will consider the price.

Of course, if the other person sits on the ground and starts an exaggerated price, he will not do a big head. Friends, you should respect me, listen to me..." The white old man frowned.

"Eight!" Shen Lang once again increased the price.

"It's not a price issue. I'm not satisfied with your attitude, and I want to exchange valuable things, or else..."

"OK, then you keep it, I don't want it."

Shen Lang directly frowned, shaking his head impatiently.

The style of this deal, let alone the white old man is a bit awkward, and everyone else around them feels amazed. However, it is necessary to see the Shen Lang, and the white old man has to make a quick decision.

“OK! Ninety! Ninety I exchanged for you!”

Shen Lang stared at the helpless white old man and kept watching for more than ten seconds.

“What? You don’t want it? If you don’t want it!”

“Do you think that tonight, or this embarrassment, can you sell this price?” Shen Lang sneered slightly.

Not to mention that this stone of frost, that is, all the items on the scene, only people watch, and no one is talking about the price.

The white old man is a bit embarrassed.

“Slow, please, just deal, I have already increased the price three times! I don’t want to.”

The white old man is very helpless. This thing does not really work. But the 80 medium-spirited stones are still unwilling. If you want to trade better things, you will not be able to sell more spiritual stones.

But now, if you talk about the waves, you can understand very well that there should be no other people besides him.

“OK, OK, eighty!” The white old man shook his head, compared to the use of the remaining, or get a practical stone.

Shen Lang directly gave eighty medium Lingshi, and then handed the stone of frost to the canoe.

This transaction, let almost everyone on the scene pay attention to him, especially his fast-fixing bidding style.

Chapter 772 - Resources buy buy buy

Everyone also sees it, and can't exchange it with the ideal weapon. Even if you want to sell it, it is not necessarily the case.

Some are mentality that can't be calculated in the face of a transaction, while others still think that it is acceptable to be able to realize the spiritual stone.

However, even if there is such a mind, it is only for them to look at the side of Shen Lang. In the end, they are all people with identity, and they will not greet Shen Lang to buy.

Shen Lang did not say much to the white old man, nor did he turn off the reaction of the canoe. He continued to go forward and walked on the things that he had seen before.

It's worth a lot of money, and it's worth a lot. Since Shen Lang gave it to her, it's definitely not going to be taken back, and she can't afford it even if she wants to return to Lingshi, she can only collect it, if she loses it, Trouble.

Then she also followed the footsteps of Shen Lang and continued to have long experience.

Shen Lang's attitude of not paying attention to the 80-year-old Lingshi also made him more curious about the foreign comprehensions he did not understand.

"Fifty sells not to sell?"

"You are a hundred, sell not to sell?"

"One hundred two, sell not to sell?"

Others are to be practical, Shenlang is no matter how much, looking at the pleasing, estimating the approximate value, directly asking for the price. If the other party is willing to trade, the transaction will be made. If you are unwilling, you will give up.

This style makes everyone very helpless. At first, the white old man is not bargaining. He has taken the initiative three times, but now it is a direct price, not willing to go!

I didn't want to sell it. Of course, there was nothing. I wanted to sell it. Because the counter-offer was missed, it was naturally a bit tangled. I couldn't let the next person say hello back.

The latter part has learned the lesson, and grasped the psychological price when selling, and waited until the price of Shenlang exceeded the price, and traded directly.

So down, Shen Lang buys and buys and spends three or four hundred medium spirits!

And what he bought is not a practical good thing, let the falling canoe followed the distress, and secretly he is the loser.

Shen Lang is the performance of "having money and willfulness". In addition to the first piece of frost stone, it is necessary to increase the fare for the canoe. The other prices are not too outrageous. The other party does not want him to force it.

In general, he bought a bunch of "chicken ribs" resources with a gap that is not too high in actual value.

But he doesn't care. He has a lot of Lingshi, and even if it doesn't work for him now, he doesn't buy anything at any time. Maybe it will be used someday, or someone else can use it.

It can also be regarded as the psychology of dumping goods.

"Dear ladies and gentlemen, just got a commissioned auction!" The representative's host was talking too much at this time.

Because no one has been bidding, everyone is concerned about what others have come up with, what they want to exchange, and then Shenlang bought some, and some people bought some.

Now some people want to bid on the stage, of course, immediately attracted everyone's attention.

Shen Lang and the Canoe also returned to their seats, and they also paid attention to what was going to be auctioned.

The host put up a box and showed it to everyone: "This is the item of the auction. According to the owner of the commission, this is a magic scroll made by a great magician for more than two hundred years. Once used, it can defend against any attack. With its protection, it is equal to one more life!"

When this statement came out, everyone who was expecting it was immediately brightened.

The history of more than two hundred years may be exaggerated. It is exaggerated that any great magician can defend against any attack. However, since it is a defensive magic weapon, when it is in danger, it can block a fatal blow and gain the chance to fight back or escape.

From this perspective, it can really be said that there is more than one life!

Just now everyone took out something to trade, that is, they want to exchange such items. From a security-conservative point of view, defensive types are more popular than attack types.

Now that someone is willing to come up, it is no wonder that it will be the way to bid, and they want to sell higher prices.

Now everyone is waiting for the host to announce the price. If it is the price of Lingshi, everyone can compete. If you want to exchange things, then hope is not big, and everyone has no more surplus.

"The owner of the scroll, of course, also wants to use it to exchange the favorite items. But since I took out the bidding, I just want to give everyone a fair chance, so I don't make so many restrictions and trade directly with Lingshi!"

When the announcement came out, everyone was starting to move. Silently estimate how much it will cost, and finally how much you can get it, your budget is not enough.

Shen Lang, the “Oriental Tutor”, has just fully demonstrated his purchasing power.

But now no one regards him as a competitor – not because he does not believe in his purchasing power, but that he has just purchased three or four hundred medium-spirited stones, and then he will not carry so many spiritual stones to go to the sea. .

Those who have just traded with Shen Lang at this time are secretly glad that although there is no direct transaction to the required things, but now there are more Lingshi on hand, they can participate in the bidding.

Instead, Shen Lang acquired a variety of items, and if there is no way to get the Lingshi , there is no way to bid.

“What is the starting price?” Someone couldn’t help but asked directly.

“Two hundred medium spirit stones.”

When the price came out, it immediately ruined many people’s bidding hearts.

Listening to this meaning, it is a one-time consumption of goods, it will be gone after use, it costs two hundred medium Lingshi, the cost is too great!

Of course, compared with life, two hundred medium spirit stones are nothing. But the danger is uncertain, and the cost is immediately payable.

Everyone's tangled point is that they don't know enough about the information of the non-returned Hell. The danger is just speculation. Even if it is fierce in the past, it is only a few hundred years. If there is no danger, this is a bit of a loss.

However, some people can see it. If there is no life, it will not make sense to leave anything else.

"Two hundred and ten!" After a while, someone asked for a price.

"Sorry, sorry, I haven't said the rules yet. The bidding rules are to add at least ten medium-spirited stones at a time. If I ask three times in a row, no one will continue to increase the price, then I can close the deal."

When the host finished speaking, he pointed to the one that had just opened the price, which means that he has now raised the price to two hundred and ten.

But other people don't pay much attention to it. Who knows if it is a childcare?

Besides, it is now the trust of the owner, who is the owner who does not know, maybe it is to carry out his own hype.

"Two hundred and twenty!"

Still someone immediately spoke up.

Falling canoe and Qiao Shuyu, Nanliushui, etc., all looked at Shenlang.

They know that Shen Lang has this purchasing power, and he does not know when he will shoot, or what kind of force will be used to shoot.

Chapter 773 - Local tyrants continue to

"Old Joe, what do you think?" Shen Lang asked about Joey.

Qiao Yuxian slightly indulged: "I think the effect is definitely exaggerated, but there are some powerful comprehensions in the West, whether it is called a magician or a superpower, essentially the same."

“Specific to this scroll, I feel reliable. After all, it is only equivalent to a one-time magic weapon, the effect should still be there, but ... the price will not be high.”

Qiao Yuxian did not have the arrogance of China’s exclusive singer as she wished her son, and it was a rational affirmation for the Western comprehens.

And his evaluation is also very pertinent, no denial and no blind admiration, said two key points: one-off and cost-effective.

Shen Lang nodded, which is similar to his opinion.

He also thinks that this scroll is exaggerated, but there is still a certain protective effect. After all, the scene is all about the goods. If it is fake, then it will make people angry. And the original owner will be willing to let it out, it must be in hand.

The problem is that the value is not worth the expensive price, buy a one-time defense.

However, this is a problem that is entangled with others. For Shen Lang, it is not a problem.

Anyway, he has a lot of spiritual stones. If it really hangs in the sea of no return, isn’t everything equal to zero?

In this case, why not buy more protection?

When they discussed, the price continued to rise. Many people were weak in defense and wanted an extra layer of protection. Even if you have a magic weapon, this is much better.

But the most you want to buy, the less you can afford. Just now everyone wants to exchange unused resources in their hands to similar items. It is not necessary to directly produce Lingshi. Now it is different. Others will not want their things.

Those who have successfully traded with Shenlang have been fortunate. In addition to killing a competitor, they also have more Lingshi that they can control.

When the price rises to 320, the person who re-opens the price will be paralyzed.

The host on the stage is not really screaming three times in a row, or continues to inspire and build more people to bid for more people.

When the time is three hundred and five, the remaining two are still going on.

Qiao Yuxian and Nanliuchuan, they are very helpless, this price is already able to buy Nedan, and for the usual, who will buy a disposable armor!

“Four hundred.”

“There are people bidding for four hundred...four hundred!”

The host was excited and new people joined the offer price. When he said it, he found that the price was raised by 50, instead of increasing by ten like everyone else.

And the price of this eye-catching eye naturally let other people look over and want to see who is so local.

Seeing that it is a deep wave, everyone has an impression. Isn't that the young man who bought and bought it?

Just now he has bought three or four hundred chicken rib resources, and now he is asking for another price of four hundred!

How many Lingshi have to carry this!

However, Shen Lang has already demonstrated enough ammunition, and now it has been lifted to four hundred in an opening, and immediately the two people who have left the bidding have been discouraged.

The style of this young man is too special. If you look at the money that will increase the price three times in a row, you will not have to pay the price.

So they didn't dare to open their mouths. If they added more than four hundred, the other party suddenly stopped, so they should take it. By the time of the three hundred and five, they have reached the upper limit of their psychological price. It is not reconciled to spend dozens of hundreds more.

The host asked again several times, and no one took it anymore. The price of four hundred was used to calm everyone down.

This is already twice as high as the fixed base price. I believe that the owner is also satisfied. The host is also very excited and straightforward. This ancient scroll is Shen Lang.

After successfully detonating the atmosphere of the scene, it entered the embarrassing stage – no items that continue to be auctioned!

Because some people have let the practical things bid, and carry the Lingshi, now they are also watching the money, and they want to trade, and no one cares. Everyone will wait for the next competing product.

“ Distinguished distinguished guests! The VIPs who gave us the scrolls before, are willing to give up the same precious items!”

The host once again announced that this result made everyone excited, but it was a bit unexpected, actually still the same seller?

Is this going to go to the sea of innocence, or is it going to sell something to make a fortune?

Under your watch, the host showed off a new competing product. It was a golden rifle. It was said that it was used by a hero. It has incredible power and can penetrate everything. It is very aggressive.

The auction price of the gold gun is still the reserve price of two hundred.

This time, the enthusiasm is still the Western comprehension. Compared to the last defensive reel, this golden gun is aggressive and not practical enough for danger. But winning is not a one-off. As long as you don't experience a non-human catastrophe, you will have one more self-protection.

However, with the local style of Shen Lang, everyone is more cautious in bidding, so as not to be excited.

As the price climbed to more than three hundred, Shen Lang still did not move, let everyone start to think about it. It is here that Shen Lang has consumed 780 Lingshi, can there be more Lingshi?

Therefore, this time it was more than three hundred years before the competition began to fierce, and all the way up to four hundred.

At this time, Shen Lang felt the look of Qiao Yuxian like a smile.

"Rely! What is your vision of Joe?" Shen Lang could not help but see.

"Don't you wait for them to compete almost the same time, and directly grab it?" Qiao Yuxian took it for granted.

This time they didn't have a voice. The nearby Nanliuchuan and Liu Yuchang listened, and they also took a deep look.

Shen Lang was speechless for a while: "I am like a lot of money, stupid big heads?"

"The big head is not like a local tyrant who has more money." Qiao Yuxian commented that the other old men nodded again and again.

For the young man of Shen Lang, they are envious of envy!

It's really a lot of gold, and everyone's clear-cut wealth is better than their martial art family. And this is what he gets from himself, and he can control it at will. Unlike the first thing they have to worry about, the family and the sects have a long history.

“Shen brothers, hey! Let them feel the pride of our Chinese comprehension!”

“I support.”

“Directly shouting five hundred medium spirit stones, scaring them!”

This group of old guys, actually watching the excitement is not too big, so that Shen Lang is quite speechless.

He is not bad money and will not be chaotic. Just now, if you have money, you can buy it and buy it, it is also possible to use it. The defensive reel is practical, and the golden gun doesn't make much sense to him. He doesn't lack attack power.

Chapter 774 - Black dragon king

Everyone thought that Shen Lang would buy it. I didn't expect it to be unmoved. In the end, the price of the four hundred and three gold guns was sold out.

The auction also produced two items for this anonymous seller. No one else had any extra things to trade, and those who wanted to exchange did not sell much.

In the end, the circulation of resources this time is also a rough end.

But it is not a failure, because the original intention is to familiarize the comprehens around the world in this way, but also to make the atmosphere a little more active.

Of course, it is impossible for everyone to be familiar with it, or to divide it by geographical group. The only thing that makes everyone “familiar” is only one person – Shen Lang.

In the face of the predecessors of all walks of life, this age is already more conspicuous, let alone the local style of buying and buying.

After the end, quite a few foreigners came to greet Shen Lang.

Although it is still not listed, but he has shown a strong family, it is still very interesting to everyone.

Shen Lang didn't have much interest in their entertainment. After coping for a while, he left and went straight to the deck.

This person came over him first, but this is naturally what he said to him.

Shen Lang went straight away and stood next to this person, looking at the sea under the night.

"You recognize me and pay attention to me. I should also know who you are." Shen Lang said to the sea.

"How do you recognize it? I don't know how. I am a young man, you are a beautiful person, and naturally attract attention."

"Also, no one knows how old you are?"

Shen Lang smiled and then turned around: "Thinking * me?"

"Your wife said, you and I met for the first time today because it was just because of your limelight that I was paying attention to you. Why do you want to die?" The old man smiled and shook his head.

"Although I met for the first time, your group of disciples were killed by me, including your chief disciple. You don't hate? Lord Black Dragon King."

Shen Lang's gaze came back from the sea and turned to look at the old man next to him.

Although he has never seen the Black Dragon King before, he has never seen a photo or something, but he has just confirmed it.

The other party did not notice him because of the auction, but he had already paid attention to him. In this person, he felt the sigh of breath!

Shen Lang did not know much about 蛊 before, but the last time I personally felt it in close quarters, and the time was not long, and I was naturally impressed.

Therefore, at this moment, the old man was discovered to be the Black Dragon King. Not only did he remain vigilant, but he also secretly operated the Holy Reconnaissance.

Black Dragon Wang Xiong has been a party for decades and can be recognized by practitioners all over the world.

Guessing said that the brothers of the Nanliuchuan brothers are the emperors. They know that the methods can only be driven, but only the Black Dragon King can be lifted. This shows that their gap in shackles must be played with a 12-point spirit.

He was not surprised by Shen Lang's recognition of him.

He also regained his gaze and naturally greeted the sullen eyes.

"It's just some idiots. I have no enmity and no involvement with you. It's that they have provoked you, and you have been killed by you.

The spirit of Shen Lang was very exquisite. After the accidental absorption of the ghost king's soul beads last time, it was even stronger. Even in the face of the old monsters such as the Black Dragon King who have been famous for decades, he has the confidence to be above each other.

But at this point he couldn't feel the strange mental fluctuations of the other party!

In other words, the Black Dragon King should be the same, not the other one in his mouth, but another one in the heart, and the Holy Grail did not detect any embarrassing changes.

Shen Lang is only a little horrified, and then it is very calm.

The existence of the Black Dragon King must have seen all kinds of scenes. For the disciples, there must be more arrangements. Even if this time he suffered heavy losses, he could still be indifferent.

“So, guessing Peng has brought my words to it?” Shen Lang is quiet.

“Nature. I also agree with your suggestion. Since they are looking for death, I certainly can’t face you again for them. Right?” Black Dragon King had a smile on his face.

Facing the enemy who killed a group of disciples, he seemed to be an old friend.

“But...” He went on and said helplessly: “Southern... It seems that they are not so good, they are still asking me trouble.”

Shen Lang nodded: “Sorry, I may have a big bag. For the Nantian family, I still can’t do their Lord.”

“Understanding understanding, I also know that they want to find revenge for me, they must have invited you to work together, but you refused, so let their revenge not become a climate, just a little disgusting me.”

It’s very polite to talk to two people But in fact, in this simple and calm language, the words are exchanged a lot of information!

The South is definitely looking for ways to take revenge, but without the help of Shen Lang, plus to go to the sea of no-fail, they are estimated not to go directly to the Black Dragon King, do not know is killing his other disciples, or Sniper like business industry.

It is always a small problem, which also allows the Black Dragon King to remain calm, perhaps because he has determined that Shen Lang has not shot, so that he is so polite now!

Shen Lang smiled and did not evaluate anything.

After all, Nanliuchuan, they are his friends, even if the Black Dragon King is too polite, and the enemy's ingredients must be guarded.

“I think it's good. Master Shen Lang is a very interesting person. Maybe we can get a formal understanding and become a good friend in the future!”

The Black Dragon King said that he held out his hand and seemed to use a handshake to formally understand and express his sincerity.

“Haha! Hey me!”

The Black Dragon King looked at his own hand and continually said: “I am a dark person who is invisible in the invisible name. I don't need to stick to the shape. The chat we can make today is a friend.”

Shen Lang said bluntly: “When you say a cheesy one, you can become my friend, and you will get a lot of benefits! Of course, my friend, not talking about it, needs time and action to prove it. of.”

The implication is that the Black Dragon King, even if you are in a status or strength, are very sincere, but still not qualified to be my friend!

The Black Dragon King still maintains a faint smile: “For a long time no one dared to talk to me like this, and changed to other people, this time has been thrown into the sea, and there is no possibility of coming up.”

Chapter 775 - Maritime insight

Haven't waited for Shen Lang to express his position, and the Black Dragon King has added another sentence.

“But you are different, you are really interesting, it is worthy of my attention.”

“I also value you very much.”

Shen Lang nodded and returned.

“This trip is still a long time, maybe there is time and opportunity to make us friends.”

After the Black Dragon King finished speaking, he nodded to him and turned away from the deck.

It didn't take long for Shen Lang to hear familiar footsteps.

“How come you came here alone?” Joe's voice passed from behind.

With him, there are Nanliuchuan and the canoe.

“You don't want to socialize with foreigners!” The canoe understood his mind.

Shen Lang turned back and looked at them, his eyes fell on the face of Nanliuchuan who did not speak.

“See?”

“Yeah.” Nan Liuchuan nodded. “He didn't know how to treat you?”

Qiao Yuxian and the canoe were a bit inexplicable, and immediately thought of the old man who had just met.

“What is the situation?” Qiao Yuxian whispered a question.

“The one just was the Black Dragon King of Siam.” Shen Lang said directly.

The canoe was completely unknown. Although Qiu Xianxian did not understand the details, there was friction between the Nanjia and the Black Dragon King some time ago, and I heard the wind heard.

This is a secret, it is inconvenient to say more, but now it has already arrived here. It is hard to say whether it can be returned. Moreover, Qiao Yuxian is a friend of his many years. He is a friend of Shenlang, so Nanliuchuan has not avoided it.

“When the last time the Shen brothers were with us, I had a bit of grudge with the door of the Black Dragon King. Did you just follow you?”

Although Nanliuchuan said it straight, it only said half, and the secret cannot be said.

The last time, the goal of the Black Dragon King was that they were in the south. It is accurate to say that it should be the secret of the hundreds of millions of ring arrays in the South. Shen Lang only met his meeting, and they still “supplied” the Shen Lang.

In the end, Shen Lang saved them, and also saved them from killing the disciples of the Black Dragon King.

If the Black Dragon King seeks revenge for Shen Lang, then he must stand up and help. This is the principle that cannot be erased.

Shen Lang shook his head: “When I came out here, he was already here. Just now, he did not show any malice.”

“This guy is very evil and has to be guarded!”

Nanliuchuan was beaten by an inexplicable pit, and certainly no praise.

After I finished speaking, I reminded Qiao Yuxian and Luo Cano: “When you see him, be careful, it is best to stay away from it!”

The canoe nodded in a row, although she is not familiar with Nanliuchuan, but the identity of the south of the river, still so dignified, must not be underestimated.

Just when Qiao Yuxian was a little disapproving, Shen Lang added one sentence.

“Yes! Don’t dismiss him. It’s best not to get close. The ability to squat and drop his head has been fascinating. When you don’t know what to do.”

When I heard the words of Shen Lang, Qiao Yuxian had to pay attention to it.

Shen Lang is a person who is not afraid of the sky, can make him pay attention to it, it is not easy!

This change fell in the eyes of Nan Liuchuan, so that he could not help but secretly smile.

He and Qiao Xixian are friends of more than half a century. Everyone is equal in terms of age, realm, status, etc. Especially Nantian family and Beihai Qiao family are the same, everyone is separated by thousands of miles, there will be no direct competition, you can Said to be very harmonious.

But his solemn warning, in the case of Qiao Yuxian, is not as good as a word of Shen Lang!

However, Nanliuchuan can only be a bitter smile, and he will compare his heart. If it is similar, Qiao Yuxian will tell him. He will also think that the older Joe is more cautious, and when Shen Lang says it, he will have to pay attention.

I think that the prestige of Shen Lang actually surpasses both of them, and it can only be a sigh.

“Shen brother, you are too busy now, even if you avoid the deck, everyone will still look for it. Or go back to the house!”

Qiao Yuxian suddenly said this because he felt that many people were coming over here.

Shen Lang also discovered that the knowledge of God is not only the many comprehensions of China, such as Liu Yuchang and Zhang Zhulang, but also many foreigners.

Although I can't say that others must come to him, but when I come to see him here, I will inevitably come over.

However, it was a bit deliberate to leave at this time, so Shen Lang shook his head and took it lightly.

“It doesn't matter. Let's take a look at the night view of the sea! There aren't many such opportunities in peacetime, and after this trip, maybe it will happen.”

Unlike their predecessors, she is just as prosperous, and of course she is even more worried that she will not come back. However, Shen Lang said that there is also a reason. Usually people in the Tianshan Mountains, there is really no chance to appreciate the scenery of the sea.

Even if you go to see the sea, it is also a seaside holiday. There are few places in the middle of the sea where you can't see the sides. The scenery is different.

Regardless of the trip, this is worth cherishing.

People always do this. They always feel that there are still a lot of opportunities. They often turn a blind eye to everything. When there is not much time, or when they can't go back, they will be especially cherished.

Shen Lang can completely throw away others, and the canoe is touched by his words. So it is also invested in the night view of the sea.

Qiao Yuxian and Nanliuchuan are different. They are so old, and they are hard to be touched by the scenery. And the mind can't be pure, and there are a lot of things to consider.

So even if they are facing the sea, the heart is not on it.

“how do you feel?”

“What?” Hearing the words of Shen Lang, he slammed into a boat.

“Sea and sky. The sea seems to be boundless, and it seems to be directly connected to the deep space.”

“Ok.....”

In the case of Shen Lang, let the canoe nod and promised.

However, her wise and intelligent people immediately realized that the genius of such a genius as Shen Lang would certainly not just appreciate the scenery. This should be something to say.

“You are in the ice palace, it should not be hidden. In the snowy area, is there also a sense of unity between heaven and man?”

Shen Lang’s more detailed sentence, immediately let the canoe have a “clear and cheerful” feeling!

Sea and sky, heaven and man are one!

As the second most outstanding disciple of the Ice Palace, she was the one who was the most pointed by the river when she was still young and not in the Tianshan Mountains. It is not only the grandmother of this family, but also her as a successor to cultivate, naturally not hiding.

Therefore, it is also common to retreat at the peak of Xuefeng, to understand the world and experience the realm of harmony between man and nature. A few kilometers of snow, giving people a feeling closer to the sky.

And now it is late at night, and the sea seems to be connected to the universe with the night sky.

Not only is it the same, but there is another extension!

The ocean is wider than the mountains, and the space is wider than the earth!

At this moment, Shen Lang's point of mention made the canoe immediately have an epiphany, and the state of mind quickly rose to a realm that she had never touched before!

Chapter 776 - Want to do something?

It's a bit surprising that Shen Lang is next to it.

He is pointing at a drop boat, but for ordinary people, in addition to enjoying the night scene, it is to feel that the person is small, the comprehension is not necessarily able to realize.

What he is thinking about is to give the canoe a factor, let her understand in the course of sailing, day and night, and combine with the snow in the Tianshan Mountains, perhaps to gain something.

Unexpectedly, her reaction was so fast. When more people had not yet reached the deck, they quickly became enlightened and their mood was elevated to a new level.

This makes Shen Lang very happy, just the hint is not to play the piano, it is undoubtedly the best on the spot.

At the same time, he also felt that he might be able to push the canoe again!

The reason why he can progress so fast, in a few years to reach the present level, is not only relying on adventures, not only relying on the accumulation of various resources, but because his mood is very high!

The same resources, for Yue Zhennan, or others, are far from the same effect.

Children have the soul of a doctor, and after accelerated learning and exercise, they can jump from kindergarten to school. And true children, even if they are gifted children, can skip from kindergarten to elementary school and cannot jump to college.

Falling rain and Zheng Yumeng are already the representatives of top geniuses, and even if they are so talented, they can reach the current level and have another reason. Falling rain is a special cultivation of the river, and Zheng Yumeng is still a desolation.

Now that the boat is in a canoe, the state of mind has got a leap, which means that giving her more resources is likely to be upgraded in a short time.

Otherwise, a few months ago in the dead forest, she had already relied on resources to say that in the early days of the realm of the realm, the connection was promoted to the end of the real world, almost reached the limit.

Although Qiao Yuxian and Nanliuchuan were full of thoughts, they also felt that there was a change in the canoe.

It's just that they are not familiar with the canoe. Everyone is not their peers. This is a young girl, a friend of Shen Lang, and it is not easy to observe too much.

“Shenlang Brothers!”

When they saw Shen Lang, they were here, Liu Yichang, who came over, immediately greeted him.

Probably because Shen Lang saved the relationship between the rivers, Liu Yuchang was very enthusiastic about Shen Lang.

Zhang Zhanlang, Zhu Zikai, and Tao from the three, although not directly hands-on, but also by the daring and insight of Shen Lang, worthy of being their friend.

Although I don't talk about the gangs, everyone is trying to make a good relationship with reliable people. Plus, Qiao Yuxian and Nanliuchuan are also friends, so they are very polite to Shen Lang.

The boat that just had an epiphany was still looking at the sea. It was a bit rude and didn't turn back and say hello.

In addition to returning, Shen Lang also took the initiative to move forward and greeted them, and avoided everyone coming to the side of the canoe to disturb her.

“You guys, the old man, just don't bid or buy anything, what are you doing with so many resources? Children and grandchildren have their own children, but don't think about future generations!”

When they heard this, they couldn't help but smile.

Not only they, but also Qiao Yuxian and Nanliuchuan felt a shot.

“We are not jealous, it is poor!”

“To the head! We are all poor! Do you want to relieve us?”

“You buy some messy things, it's better to support our poor old brothers.”

Everyone laughed and joked, as if they had been friends with Shen Lang for many years.

At this time, Shen Lang's eyes crossed them and looked at the person behind.

I felt a little wrong, and several of them turned and looked over.

Just behind them, there are some foreign comprehensions who come to the deck together. At this moment, a few meters away, there is a foreigner who is directly staring at Shen Lang.

Everyone's eyes fell on his face, and he was not moved. He was still staring at the waves.

Look at this, it should be specifically to find the Shenlang, and this looks, unlike those who want to know Shenlang before, should want to do something.

However, they all smiled and did not have any dignity.

If it is someone else, they may follow it, but Shen Lang does not need it.

Who is Shen Lang?

It's just a smashing role!

From the small people a few years ago, they have been fighting all the way, and the recent record is that one person kills the ghost king and destroys more than 20 people in the hundred ghost gates!

But these are all heard, they have not seen it with their own eyes. And everyone has a good relationship and will not provoke temptation.

Now if you have a foreigner, you want to make a wave, just to see if Shen Lang is as powerful as the legend.

“Shen Lang. I know you.”

The foreigner's slow opening made a step forward.

Shen Lang faintly said: “I don't recognize you, but I am smarter. If you look at it, I can guess who you are.”

Their conversation made everyone a little surprised.

Originally thought that a foreigner is not afraid of Shen Lang to steal the limelight, want to force the provocation. Generally speaking, there are more people gathered, and there will always be a small number of people who love to make troubles. However, under such circumstances, the problem will not be too great.

But now they can listen to their dialogue. This foreigner's concern for Shen Lang is obviously not because of this evening, but because there is preparation.

Shen Lang can also guess the identity of the other party, which further shows that they should have had a grudge.

Under the leadership of Liu Yuchang, they all spread out to the surroundings, leaving space for Shen Lang in front of them. In case they really played against each other, they would not bind their hands.

Liu Yuchang went to the back and protected the canoe.

Both Qiao Yuxian and Nanliuchuan are very calm, and they are not ambiguous and want to be in the first place. They also have great confidence in the strength of Shenlang.

Especially in Nanliuchuan, he is the only person in the old generation who has seen Shenbo in person. Not to mention hundreds of millions of ring arrays, just because he turned into a super giant, not iron armor The scene of alive and dry, is lingering in his mind.

“Do you know who I am? It seems that I am coming to you, you have a few in your heart!”
The foreigner did not feel surprised.

“So, are you here to apologize to me?”

Shen Lang slightly spread his hand: “Since you are so sincere, in the face of everyone’s apologize to me, I can not swear and not go out.”

Many of the comprehensions who came to the deck came because they found that Shen Lang came here. They wanted to chat and learn about the relationship.

But I didn’t expect that there were so many people. Since there are a group of compatriots and friends in the dark, they are not good enough to take advantage of them.

But the special situation of this foreigner has also attracted everyone’s attention. They don’t know what it is. Now, listening to their conversations, they are incredible and close to a little onlookers.

Chapter 777 - President's punishment

“This is what I have to say. If you apologize to me in public, I can forgive you and not publicize it.”

The foreigner said slowly, and frowned. It seemed that Shen Lang had robbed him of his lines, and this attitude made him dissatisfied.

“Mr. Scott, there is an old saying on our side called toasting and not eating fine wine. I advise you not to toast and not to eat fine wine.”

From this person, he has already felt a familiar atmosphere, this is the breath of vampires!

With his familiarity with Dorothy, naturally he will not judge the mistake.

The vampire he knows, in addition to the dead Nicholas, Dorothy and Count Dracula, are acquaintances. There is another related one, that is Scott.

The last time I went to Haishan, Scott was the representative of the bat club. After Shen Lang was cleaned up by the sea, he made a blood oath before he let him go.

Scott is the current president of the Bat Club, and will not be willing to give up. Dorothy has not gone back, nor does she know if there is any ethnicity against her, but she does not care.

Now encountered on this ship, with a hint of hostility, Shen Lang thought of him.

“You still have an old saying that it is not too late to avenge a gentleman. You broke my son’s arm six months ago. Today I avenge him. It’s not too much. Just break your arms.”

When I heard this, everyone understood the origin of their grievances.

The bat club president Scott’s son, six months ago was actually broken by this Shen Lang! This is because it is secret, and no one knows. Now, when you say it in public, you are still surprised.

However, the Western monks have more to know about Scott. The president of the Bat Club is not a successor. The generations are capable.

In other words, Scott can be the president of the bat club, which is a very powerful performance, not to mention a lot of resources.

However, Shen Lang can come here, and can talk to so many older generations, and there must be people.

Just don't know that his value is not worthy of Scott's identity six months ago. If you know, you dare to do this...

"It seems that you have already released your blood for your son?"

Shen Lang slightly sneered: "I think you have made a mistake. I told him at the time that his * decision was not to reassure me, but to save your Scott family!"

Listening to their dialogue, the Chinese comprehensions did not feel that this was exaggerated. In the style of Shen Lang, it was really like this.

The huge masters' alliance is that even the thousand-year-old family like Qiao's family has the scruples. Shenlang is the one who fights for himself. The world's right path has not been eradicated for thousands of years. This time, including the ghost king, it was directly More than twenty!

But in the eyes of the Western superpowers, Shen Lang is a very arrogant big talk. It's no wonder that Scott wants to avenge now, it's just awkward!

"Right, there is one thing, you still don't know?"

Scott did not anger, but quietly announced another news.

"Your acquaintance, the traitor Dorothy in our community, assists you in killing bat members, killing Thomas, Matthew and other superpowers, has been deported by the bat!"

“What about that? Who is rare? You trash bats?” Shen Lang disdain.

“Not only the name, our bats will never cover the wicked, and for the Thomas, Matthew and other superpowers, made internal punishment! Dorothy does not go back, the punishment falls on her family, all their ethnicity All killed!”

Most of the superpowers who are on the scene today are also above the level of the gods. They are represented by S-class superpowers, and the level of A++ is almost the same.

They didn't know much about what happened in Haishan last time. But Thomas and Matthew, who were killed by the Eastern comprehens, also caused overheating. Many people also protested.

Now I hear about the members of the bat club, and the bat will kill the entire ethnic group of the murderer for justice, and it will make everyone shocked.

I don't know if I should admire Scott's grandfather, or should he say that he is cruel.

The canoe has recovered from the state of epiphany, and when I heard this, I couldn't help but bite my lip.

Others are unfamiliar, but she tried it together with Dorothy in the Death Forest. She didn't say good sisters, at least her friends who died together.

Although she did not understand the specific grievances, but this foreigner, said that the Dorothy family members were all killed, or let her blood surge, if not considering their own strength problems, simply can not help but will be shot.

The look of Shen Lang quickly cooled down.

Before Dorothy said that the bat club president can only target her, she may be confused and troublesome when she goes back. If she does not go back, her family will be fine, and the president will not be able to move them.

Now Scott said, he doesn't think it's a big exaggeration, it should be true!

That is, whether Dorothy has not received the information before, or she has already been bearish, not caring about the family's life and death. This is because his relationship is tiring!

Even if Nicholas was not a man at the time but most of his family were innocent, and now all are killed by Scott!

It is highly probable that Scott also wanted to move them. Nicholas died, it was a piece of fat, and Dorothy was not enough prestige, not to mention often.

Little Scott's business is an introduction and an excuse.

"Very good. Since your blood swears, you can all go around, then don't blame me."

Shen Lang said slowly: "Today, I am going to kill you in this Pacific Ocean. As for your Scott family, after I go back, I will completely destroy it!"

When the announcement came out, everyone on the scene was shocked.

The front is still a slap in the face, everyone threatens the warning, and this is the direct declaration of war!

Qiao Yuxian and Nanliuchuan immediately stepped forward.

"Shen brother, we absolutely support you!"

Liu Yuchang also followed the previous step: "And me!"

Zhang Zhulang, Dao Cong and Zhu Ziyu quickly glanced at each other and followed the previous step.

"And us!"

A sinking wave may not be enough, plus Qiao Yuxian of Qiaojia in Beihai, Nanliuchuan of Nantian Family, and Liu Yuchang of Liu Mo of Yumo. Is this not enough?

The three of them followed suit and there was no risk at all.

When Qiao Yuxian and Nanliuchuan expressed their attitudes, there were also Western S-class super-healers who hesitated. Would you like to go to the Scott platform?

Since they have joined, it is not only Scott's personal grievances, but also about the unity of the West.

However, with Liu Yuchang and other four people expressing their views, the hesitant person gave up decisively and even stepped back a few steps to avoid being treated as a group.

A pair of seven!

how to spell?

To support one, isn't it a fire?

Chapter 778 - Shocking 1 sword

"Everyone in the East, I think... Since it is the two personal grievances, is it better for us all to intervene? This is also the respect for the two parties!"

There is a friend who is probably a friend of Scott. I can't care about it, and I don't dare to mix it too deeply. I can only say it with a slap in the face, hoping to pick someone else out.

"It doesn't matter! Let them go together! I haven't seen anything about Scott?" Scott screamed.

This makes the talking comprehension look sly, it really is seven together, it really has nothing to do with Scott, even if he helps, it is useless.

Shen Lang is a prestige and laughter, can you not see it?

Scott is deliberately using the radical method. Qiao Yuxian is a big man who has been famous for many years. Can you not face? Just just stood up and expressed his support for him. I really want them to follow them up. It's also awkward.

Scott's words were successfully forced, but they made them six people in a dilemma.

“Thank you to my old brother, a bat mosquito in the district. It's not a matter of hand-to-hand shooting. You look at it!”

After Shen Lang finished speaking, he flew directly.

“Scott! This ship has an important role, and you can go with me to the sea!”

When he was just starting, everyone thought that he was going to sneak attack, or wanted to escape, but he did not expect to fly to the sea.

When this is said, it is for everyone to take it for granted. This passenger ship is going to go to the sea of innocence. If it is damaged here, even if they will not die, it will be very troublesome and affect the itinerary.

Scott was also an all-encompassing guard. After he understood that Shen Lang did not attack, he immediately rose up.

“Good! I won't let you have another chance to get on the boat!”

Watching them both put on the surface of the sea, everyone quickly went to the edge of the deck, the deck is big enough for everyone to be on the lookout. There are many people who have already spread the news. Many self-cultivators in the cabins have come to see the fun.

Passenger ships are always on the voyage, which allows them to fight in the sea, but also to keep the rhythm of following the ship, or else it is too much trouble to leave too far.

After Scott caught up with the sea, he waved his hands and immediately flew up a few dozen meters of huge waves, and there were countless water spots splashing into the waves.

In the process, his body is one step faster, and the arrow is directly stabbed in front of Shen Lang.

Just as he was about to go to Shen Lang, he found the deep waves that were parked in the air, holding a big sword in his hand, and quickly smashed it when he approached!

Scott's recent waves, in addition to creating momentum, are also a layer of cover under the night, so that he can attack the waves quickly.

But there is still some common sense that he still has. What is the sword of Shen Lang? He doesn't know what it is, but the speed of this sword is clearly seen!

It is precisely because of the speed of the vampire that he is more clear, how powerful this sword will be once hit.

So when he saw himself hitting it, his body swiftly flew out to the side, rubbing the edge of the hurricane, avoiding the current sword.

The sword of Shen Lang continued to smash out. Although he was standing in the sky above the sea, there was no place to borrow power, but the momentum of this sword not only forced Scott to escape, but also let the huge waves in front of tens of meters, quickly split into two!

It was already a spectacular scene that suddenly pulled up a few tens of meters of waves, directly exceeding the height of the deck. Now, when Shen Lang is a sword, it is even more domineering.

But this is not over yet!

Because the passenger liner has been advancing, the two of them paused for a while on the sea and will be separated from the passenger liner.

However, the sword of Shen Lang not only opened a few tens of meters of huge waves, but also had a fierce temperament to catch up. The people on the deck felt the feeling that the entire passenger ship was pushed to accelerate!

Zhang Zhulang is a bit strange to ask: “Qiao brother, if I am not mistaken, the Shen brothers seem to be Juyue sword, isn’t it legendary at Joe’s house? Is it...”

The first one everyone was concerned about the battle between Shen Lang and the bat club president Scott, fearing that he lost, suffered losses, and then looked at his domineering sword.

I heard Zhang Zhulang’s inquiry and paid close attention to it. Even if it was separated by an increasing distance, it was recognized by their cultivation.

The epee in the hands of Shen Lang should be Juyue Sword, which is also the sword of the world before, and Qiao Yuxian is willing to give Shen Lang!

Or change the saying – Shen Lang can get such attention from Qiao Yuxian, it can be seen!

Qiao Yuxian smiled and laughed did not explain in detail their transaction.

After all, Zhu Xianjian is a more important secret for him.

At this moment, he was more intentionally vague. “The sword is a hero! Juyue sword in the hands of the Shen brothers can really play a powerful role. In our Qiao family, it is the treasure of the collection.”

This is heard in the ears of others, and of course there are more associations.

Qiao Yuxian made a guarantee for Shen Lang, and got a quota, and also presented the world famous sword of Qiao’s collection. This is a heavy bet on Shen Lang!

In this way, Shen Lang must have many secrets that they do not know. His true strength should not be limited to those that everyone knows.

For a time, everyone has more thoughts in their hearts.

The old Joe is willing to give up the blood, and if they want to win again now, it is already late. However, it is not good to win the alliance, and it is inevitable that it will be a good friend.

Nan Liuchuan knows what is behind him, but of course he will not say it, but he is a little embarrassed and regrets.

Qiao Yuxian is still more atmospheric than him. When Shen Lang defeated Tang Banshan, everyone felt that the Lord would destroy him when he came back. Lao Qiao was willing to bet, which is also an investment in Shen Lang.

At the beginning, they also had the same opportunity in the South. They could even say that the opportunity of the South was better. Shen Lang first released the good-natured transfer of Nei Dan, and the second time he gave two Nedans.

However, they were all injured at the time, and they did not pay much attention to it. They let Nan Qilin Nan Yuying take responsibility for them, so they are not conservative, and even can be said to be tricks.

After the event, they may still feel that they are taking advantage of it. Who knows that they have lost an excellent opportunity.

Fortunately, when Shen Lang came to the South to seek medicine, they seized the opportunity.

Chapter 779 - Don't say I bully you.

When they were surprised at the Juyue sword in the hands of Shen Lang, other Western comprehensions were surprised at the speed of Shen Lang!

One of the biggest features of the vampire community is the speed, which is the magic weapon for their battle.

Imagine even if their strength is weaker than you, but when you punch a punch, they can hit you two punches; or if he hits you too late to dodge, and your blow will be avoided more quickly. Naturally, it will cause a fall in the counterattack.

The so-called “the world of martial arts, only fast not broken.” Because of this, so many superpowers, generally try not to provoke vampires, unless there is a strong strength, the winning grasp.

Just now both of them went to the sea, and the other side of the West was more assured. Because it is a space without occlusion, it is very convenient to play the speed of the vampire!

On the other hand, if Shen Lang is running into the cabin, it may also use a relatively narrow environment.

As a result, they all saw that Scott’s speed was not as fast as expected, and he also created huge waves to cover up, but Shen Lang didn’t evade, but when Scott arrived not far away. Only sword!

If it wasn’t for Scott to escape fast, then he would be fed by the sea.

For this young oriental man, their previous attention was due to his arrogance and a large number of Lingshi, and now he values his strength.

When everyone on the deck was amazed or confused, Shen Lang and Scott did not stop and continued to fight fast.

But unlike other people’s impressions, it’s not Scott’s speed suppression, but Shen Lang is chasing him all the way!

Just now Scott barely avoided the sword of Shen Lang. When he flew to the side, he also quickly flew out three daggers, and quickly shot at the head, ribs and back of the sinking waves.

However, what he did not expect was that Shen Lang actually relied on the reaction force of the sword to advance, and accelerated back to the back, not only directly avoiding the three knives flying from his side, but also directly chasing it. His side.

Then Juyue Sword took a fierce hurricane and shrouded over to Scott next to him.

Regardless of how quickly Scott rushed and rolled, the swords of the road always followed, leaving him with no moments to stop, and there was no chance to fight back.

For a moment, the two of them chased farther and farther away, and the passenger liner quickly left in the other direction, plus the night, and soon the two could not see the two.

The self-cultivators on the deck, some through the knowledge of God, can pay more attention to the situation here, but also have sufficient preparations to take out the telescope that can extend the distance.

Scott was chased by the very depressed, originally thought that he could avenge his son, did not expect the other side to be stronger than him, the speed is faster than him, the sword is strong, so that he did not have room to play.

He even thought about going back to the passenger liner. Although he lost a face, he was better off losing his life.

However, from the back, a large piece of sword net directly blocked his retreat. He wants to go back to the passenger ship, either to open a hole directly or to circumvent the attack range of the deep waves.

But these two points are equal to zero. If he tears the attack range of Shen Lang, he will not be chased.

If he can circumvent the attack range of Shen Lang, it means that the speed is very leading, and it will not be so open.

He even has an illusion that he has tried his best, but Shen Lang seems to have not used his full strength, otherwise he can catch up with him faster!

Soon, he understood why...

When the passenger ship has become a small point in the far distance, whether it is visual, telescope, or knowledge, it is impossible to detect the situation here. Shen Lang can really kill him!

Although they are personal grievances, or Scott first provocative, but this trip is to develop no return to hell, everyone is a common team member, even if the war, it must be suppressed within a certain range, can not be killed.

So next to the passenger liner, the Western S-class superpowers on the deck may be able to save his life when he sees that Scott is in danger.

Now it is different. They have been chasing away far away. The boat is not clear about the situation here. Even if someone guesses or finds that it is too late to rescue!

Realizing this, Scott was cold and sweaty.

Because the pre-judgment of Shen Lang is seriously inadequate, he is very passive. If you can't keep your life, then everything is gone. If you want to let Shen Lang go back, it will definitely destroy the Scott family!

In fact, this can not blame him for underestimating the enemy. He has already attached great importance to the Shen Lang. Why did he attack the small Scott's Shen Lang in Haishan, which is completely different from the present.

At that time, Shen Lang was the realm of the peak of the real world. Now that it has been in the middle of the realm, even if Scott has raised a realm to judge, it is still a serious deficiency.

Suddenly, Scott, who fled in the air, slammed into the sea!

Look at him like this seems to have been hit by a sword, but in the back chasing his sinking waves, all the way to bring him here, can not understand his own shot?

Since it is pretending, it must be fraudulent!

However, Shen Lang did not care, and he continued to swing his sword, and people quickly approached.

If Scott does not flee forward, continue to fall like this, and when he has not touched the surface of the sea, he will first be hit by the sword.

Scott snorted and slammed his body and quickly translated for a few tens of meters.

While avoiding the Jianqi attack, there was something in his hand, which was actually an assault gun!

Just after the trick, I wanted to attract the sinking waves. When the distance approached, the rifle immediately began to bulge and screamed at the waves.

What he didn't expect was that Shen Lang actually had nothing at all!

All the bullets hit him, but they fell and did not pierce him.

The monks who turn the gods can of course block bullets, but this is a certain degree of defense. For example, it is prepared to keep the bullets in front of them.

Scott had just been a sneak attack. Suddenly a large number of bullets were sprayed intensively. As long as one did not defend, he might be seriously injured!

He does not ask for this to kill the sinking waves, but all he needs is to pull back the situation. Once he is given the opportunity, he can directly kill the sinking waves.

But now the picture... Is the body of Shen Lang already like steel?

These bullets were not blocked in front of them, but they really hit his body! Why is there nothing at all?

“Since you take the initiative to play with a gun, don't say I bully you!”

Shen Lang smiled slightly, Juyue Jian took it up, and while talking, the holy armor had already transferred the laser to bombard the past!

Chapter 780 - Can I let him go?

When the Scott bullets were lighted, people were still worried and fell to the surface.

At this time, when I saw Shen Lang's hand with a big gun, I couldn't help but be amazed.

Their characteristics are fast and one is strong, but like his sneak attack, the impact of hot weapons is unquestionable.

Although he couldn't recognize the gun used by Shen Lang, he was cautiously dodging, but there was no direct hard battle.

It is a pity that the sacred armor of the city's black technology is the control of the brain and the brain. It does not need to use the hands of the waves to operate. When speaking, the mind has been controlled.

Moreover, the holy armor can still monitor and analyze all aspects, even if he is the most likely to escape to that direction, the maximum possible escape, is counted. So the laser cannon directly hit him a quasi!

A few consecutive shots came one after another, and Scott immediately fell to the sea.

Scott is very depressed. Today, he is crushed by the real ability. Attacking with an assault gun is also a surprise, but the opponent is actually a stronger gun than him!

At the moment of being hit, he has already denied it. It is not a gun. It is a cannon!

If it is not his strength is strong enough, for the low strength, it should be directly smashed.

Even so, he could not bear the bombardment of several laser cannons...

He wanted to use the modern weapon to fight the waves and make a surprise. He did not expect to be reversed by Shen Lang.

When he was about to fall to the surface of the sea, Shen Lang's hand appeared in the sky!

Even if Shen Lang repeatedly reminded himself not to use this tower that is against the sky, but in the face of Scott, he really wants to use this as if to punish!

Whether he recognizes or likes the vampires of the Dorothy family is another matter. Scott's direct anger and extinction must be severely punished!

After Scott was included in the Ba Tian Tower, Shen Lang packed up and Yu Jian chased the passenger liner.

The comprehensions on the deck, because they are too far apart, do not know what the situation is, until they see the shadow of the waves.

If two people leave the battle so far, there will be death and injury. If only one person returns, the other one must be less optimistic.

To this end, everyone expects to see the side that they support back.

At this moment, I saw Shen Lang, and the Chinese side was excited and cheered up. Not only people who know him, such as Qiao Yuxian, other unfamiliar waves, but also a kind of compatriots with the same enemy.

The Western comprehensions were frustrated and didn't know how Scott's current results were.

“Shen brother!”

Qiao Yuxian and others have gathered around, and everyone has intentionally or unintentionally formed an encirclement, protecting Shen Lang in it.

After all, this is not on the land of oneself. For the comprehens at the scene, they still have limited mutual understanding. It is not certain that there is no Scott's party. Shen Lang does not know if there is any injury. In case someone wants to get close to the attack, it is not very good.

At the same time, he also saw that he was worried about watching him in the back of the canoe, and nodded to her.

"I said that the sinking brother must return quickly and triumphantly!" Zhu Zi said with a smile, as if he had won the battle.

Although he is a bit of a big mind, but it is also a relatively straight person, of course, it is quite the end.

"No problem?" Qiao Yuxian whispered a question.

Shen Lang shook his head: "Do not worry, what can I do?"

At this time, the Western comprehension camp, together with a few representatives.

However, this representative just came out to the front, but did not come close, so as not to make the atmosphere of the scene stiff.

"Mr. Shen, congratulations on winning this battle. I don't know Mr. Scott..."

One of them finished, seeing that Shen Lang was unmoved, he could only ask more clearly.

"How is Mr. Scott's situation? Is he still alive?"

"What do you say?" Shen Lang separated the crowd and went straight to him.

“This...” This is hard to say.

“He wants to kill me, you all saw it. He killed a group, and you heard it. Since someone is going to kill me, can I let him go?”

“...”

“Okay! I will simply reveal that he is not my opponent at all, but it may not be dead at this time! But sooner or later it is dying.”

Shen Lang said that he was ingested in the Ba Tian Tower, but listening to the ears of the people in the West, still not dying and dying sooner or later, thought that Scott was shot down into the sea.

Then there is not such a worry, even if there is no boat rescue, Scott should have the opportunity to fly back to the shore, which has not yet reached the center of the Pacific.

“Mr. Shen is strong, we are very admired, Scott he... It’s really asking for trouble...”

Looking at the words that were barely spoken, Shen Lang asked directly: “What about you? Is it also looking for trouble?”

“No, no We don’t have trouble, we don’t have any grudges with you, and we don’t want any complaints.”

“You forgot, we just traded!”

Scott is not dead, they will not pay attention, because they go to the sea without jail, do not know the life and death, this will of course not be associated with Scott, and some even with the relationship.

Shen Lang glanced around in a circle, dozens of people have gathered on the deck, and some have not come out.

This is the bottom of the story, it is the Western people, but also feel that this is affirmative. Even if Scott is still not dead, he has escaped from the sea, and it is impossible to board the ship again!

Shen Lang is on the boat first. If Scott returns, it is really dead.

After that, Shen Lang did not have the mind to continue to watch the sea here, and then walked to the cabin under the crowd of everyone.

Originally, what they meant by Qiao Yuxian was to find a drink with Shen Lang. Let's contact us and get familiar with it. It is also more Chinese monks holding a group, which was discussed before the meeting.

However, Shen Lang did not have this interest. He would form an alliance with Qiao Yuxian. It was Qiao Yuxian who helped him get the "admission ticket". Others could just meet each other and he didn't want to involve so much.

So he found an excuse to say that he had to go back to rest.

Everyone suspects that he is injured. After all, it is a vampire that is equivalent to a deified situation. Even if it is not injured, it may be very expensive and needs to be repaired.

And Shen Lang was a voice to the canoe, let her wait a minute to go to his room.

At the same time, Shen Lang was also a bit curious. Before the real people in Fuyang, they didn't have to be with them. This time, the big excitement didn't go out on the deck to see what was going on?
