

First Strong 801

Chapter 801 - The other side of the inside

After seeing them clearly, the canoe fell off the back of Shen Lang.

“Liu predecessors, seniors, how are you here?”

Although it has already been opened, even if she falls down, including Liu Yuchang, everyone will not dare to approach, after all, there is a giant blame behind her!

Although this giant blame seems to be a bit familiar, it seems to be her mount, but in case of violent injury...

When the canoe was finished, Shen Lang was to restore the body as usual. Now you don't need to be anxious to resist the enemy. The process doesn't need to be as fast as changing your body. Slower can be a little easier.

But the whole process is still shrinking at a visible speed, so everyone is very surprised!

The canoe noticed everyone's state, and immediately reacted. I looked back at Shen Lang and then introduced it.

“Don't be afraid, this is Master Shen Lang Shen! Just now we encountered dozens of enemies attacking outside, so Master Shen used this magical power.”

Listening to her, I also saw that Shen Lang had already retracted from the original appearance, and it was clear. Qiao Yuxian and others are naturally confirmed, it is a foreigner's door, but also found this familiar giant blame, is it the former swell of the limelight on the passenger liner?

Looking at so many people, Shen Langqing fortunately let Bi Haihuan create a very flexible and flexible clothes, or else just smashed.

After retracting at the moment, he took a spare set of clothes and put it on.

“Shen brother! Falling down the palace, you have also come here!”

Both Qiao Yuxian and Nanliuchuan came forward and were quite embarrassed.

“I have been away with the Lord of the Palace for a long time before I come here. Seeing that you are not just coming, what is going on?” Shen Lang did not have anything to ask, and asked directly.

Qiao Yuxian was awkward, and other people who came close, his face was not very good-looking.

But looking around, everyone is here, and it’s shameful to lose people. So when you started talking about it, I said it and said the situation that Shen Lang had not experienced before.

As Shenlang guessed, no return to the sea of fog into the fog, the impact is far more powerful than they encountered.

Although we entered the time, almost everyone’s gap is a few seconds, but in the end there are still points, the first to bear the brunt!

Their condition, like the real people in Xiangyang and the rafting, directly stunned the past.

Then the next one came in, and the realm was relatively high. Although it was gone, the state was not very good. And the surroundings are completely invisible and inaudible, and they don’t know what to do.

In the end, Shen Lang should be the most sober one!

He benefited from several factors. On the one hand, he was not the first to enter. On the other hand, his mental strength was strong enough. Moreover, he was not completely relying on his own defense. The protection of the holy armor played a role in this impact. Great protection.

In short, if he dive to the ground like him, he might have only the five that had been repressed before. All the coma are still floating in the air, and the unconscious is also trying to find a way out.

The result is that in the thick fog that reaches out of the fingers, I don't know who is there, what kind of magic weapon is used, and they are included in it.

When they are released again, they are already in the pasture.

They are here to wake up, and then they know that their bodies have been moved, and those who come in can directly control them and make them unable to resist!

They were then asked to work, and if they did not work, they would be punished.

After the controlled people left, they also tried to leave, but found that they were trapped around them. With their strength, even if everyone joined together, they could not break this law.

The so-called "working" is a bit strange. Everyone is assigned to a small bottle, and is required to inject the power of the spirit into it. It can form a spiritual essence like a bubble, and it will be considered a success and will not be punished. .

They are not fools. Naturally, they want to absorb their spiritual strength, and they are actively released and collected. In the long run, everyone will become very weak.

Everyone also united to "strike", but the result of the protest was to let the people in control come in and punished them one by one!

Punishment is a very strange thing, from the body to the spirit, it seems to be ravaged by the collapse of people! Even if the realm is like them, it is hard to bear. In the end, it is forced to accept the situation. It is only to accept the situation, and to maintain the policy while discussing.

But day after day, all the strategies that can be tried have been tried, and there is no result at all, but they are controlled by the "spirit bubble" that has been made several times.

Because they are completely isolated, what is the situation outside, they do not know, just suddenly rushing in, will make them feel vigilant, is to become an enemy.

And besides the people they came together this time, there are some other people in the pastoral garden. Although those people are not clear about the specifics, they can basically confirm that they are from another world, and it is almost the same situation. of.

Of course, they are not the earliest, the spirit is consumed, and some of the unused value is taken away, and it is very likely to be eliminated. The longer they are held, the weaker they become.

The weaker the person, the easier it is to pin your hopes on the “miracle”, and you can't afford to resist the heart.

After that, it was not surprising that Shen Lang and the Canoe were not caught.

Shen Lang also briefly talked about their experiences. They have gone so long, and finally they came here just like them.

This information has also been analyzed in Shen Lang's mind. The people here can accurately arrest people, and there are sure to be props that can come and go in the foggy space and see everything!

Can bring them back early should be a very fast flying props!

Of course, there may be another possibility, that is, the area where no return to * appears, just in the void, there is room for overlapping intersections!

Shen Lang secretly adjusted the trajectory data of the sacred armor, compared the foggy space with the trajectory of the world, and found that although the environment is different, the trajectory here is not a straight line, but overall, it can still coincide with each other. !

If this is correct, it means that after the foggy space has landed on the ground, the thousands of miles that they have gone out of the sea have returned since the arrival of the world.

This city, or in the vicinity, there is one or more overlapping intersections, and the contact is no return to the sea of hell!

Assuming that the two spaces are two floors, then after those people caught them, they returned directly to the elevator. When they were swaying, they went to a distance, passed the stairs, or found a distant elevator, and then returned to this one.

It is coincidence or intuition, it is possible.

Chapter 802 - Alliance boss

“Is this Xiangyang? Is there life?”

After the exchanges were over, Qiao Yuxian looked at the man on the ground and sighed.

The real “burning head” of the man has not seen the appearance. It was just caught in the hand by Shen Lang. After retracting to normal, he was thrown to the ground.

The real people in Fuyang were brought by Shen Lang. When they came in, they were scattered. Since they were not “salted” with them, Shen Lang just mentioned him. It should obviously be this.

“He is not a real person in Fuyang. When Xiangyang came into the world from that foggy space, he was shocked too much. His strength was weak and he was already dead. This is their people!”

Qiao Yuxian has no feelings for Fuyang real people, not to mention other people. So if you hear death, you will regret it a little.

But what excites them even more is the identity of this person.

“So, is it a hostage?”

“What is his identity?”

“I don’t know what identity it is. From the strength point of view, he should have a late stage of the gods. He has commanded more than twenty realities to catch us. So... the thief first smashes the king, he is not the king. But the scene is the strongest, I caught him.”

The words of Shen Lang’s understatement made the scene silent.

Not only them, but other foreigners who are not close, they are also erecting their ears to listen to the movements here. It is also speechless to hear this.

This is the late stage of the transformation of the gods! Compared to the West, it is the superman of S+!

None of them came to the end of the real world!

Shen Lang faces the encirclement of more than twenty transformational gods, and can also grasp the most powerful one in the late stage of the realm. How strong is he to be?

But after a moment of speechlessness, everyone will be lost. Just now they saw the appearance of Shen Lang that turned into a giant, but everyone did not dare to approach.

After the transformation, let his strength soaring several times is certainly no problem?

For a time, everyone’s eyes on Shen Lang’s eyes are completely different.

Originally, I knew that he was very strong and arrogant, but after all, it was nothing more than a god. It is precisely because of this, a few foreigners in the league will feel that he has decided to eat him.

Now it’s not the same. The strength of Shen Lang – at least after the transformation, will be far better than them.

“Great! No matter how big the hostage is, the sinking brother is coming, we have a backbone!”

Nanliuchuan did not hide the Shenlang directly as the “heart of the heart.”

Everyone just saw the appearance of Shen Lang after his transformation. However, he only saw the change of Shen Lang after the scene, and he even saw a direct iron fist!

Therefore, he did not tout, and there was no irony. It was a sincere statement.

Others, although in terms of identity and seniority, are somewhat unfettered, but Shen Lang has killed the qualifications of the lord and the ghost king, and they have already been recognized by everyone, and they have killed the bat in front of them. The president, the remaining gap is just the age.

Now everyone is a prisoner, and has been trapped here, and there is no way out. I hope that there will be a new change, and Shen Lang has become their hope.

“Yes! Shen brothers, you don’t want to push, this time you have to rely on you to save us old brothers!”

“Please! I hope you can lead us out of this cage.”

On the earth, they are all big men, and even “one party overlord” is an early event, and all of them have been detached, and they are considered to be hidden.

Now it has become a prisoner, and nothing can be done. It is really shame.

Shen Lang nodded. He didn’t want to be a blind man. Of course, he couldn’t see all the ethnic compatriots being treated as blind.

“In fact, we have also negotiated, mainly in the coma, we were under an unknown ban, so now they can punish us at will. Just cancel this, just break this law, we Everyone can still play a huge role!”

Liu Yuchang's words also represent the meaning of everyone.

They all feel very wrong. If they are defeated in front and have no resistance at all, then slaves can only blame themselves for not being good at learning. Now, what is this? It is completely concealed.

“Wait!”

Everyone turned to look at the past. I saw a few foreigners who came over and spoke, because the nose collapsed, not only looked ugly, but also looked extraordinarily haze.

Just one month before and after, Shen Lang certainly remembered him, this invited him to join their strong alliance, threatened him because of rejection, directly blown his nose. Finally, I saw the boss behind him and said that he had thrown him into the sea.

Looking at this Smith, Shen Lang is very helpless. If there is no guessing, this should be the same as those in the Ba Tian Tower. I also think that they are the alliance of the strong, and want to fill the boss!

“You asked him to be the leader and asked the Archbishop of Paul?”

This time, Smith is not alone. There are still a few behind him, which makes him a little more emboldened.

And it is different from the building with several floors above the passenger ship. Everyone here is in this wide pastoral garden. Shen Lang wants to do it to him. The boss Boss behind him can directly see and directly intervene.

He knew very well that this Paul, who should be the boss of their so-called strong alliance, did not show up last time. He was sent to speak for Smith and should be him. The low-key boss that Fuyang really heard was supposed to be him.

He said this to the rug, and he did not talk to Joe.

But he didn't expect to be an archbishop, and when they flew to the sea of innocents, he didn't feel Paul appearing. It seemed that they should come in after waiting for them to enter the passenger ship.

But the results are the same, and the high-end world of comprehensions to "salvage" caught as a slave now look at this Smith's attitude, they are still exist in the strong alliance, and even if they are Under the prison, the Archbishop of Paul will continue to be the prisoner.

Therefore, his arrival, bringing together the Chinese comprehens, has not yet done anything with the enemy, it seems to touch their interests first.

Qiao Yuxian, a few of them look a little embarrassed, and then there is a Nanliuchuan voice and Shen Lang explained.

This Paul is a bishop from the Light God. Among the gods of light, the most respected is the Pope, also known as the Pope. The following is the Central Bishops' Conference, composed of the central bishops of the major parishes.

The central bishop asked for dedication, even if it bleeds, so it is wearing a red robe, also known as a cardinal.

Paul is the chief bishop of the contemporary Central Bishops' Conference. His status is under the Pope and he is almost a deputy pope. Therefore, his status as a big boss is not only because of his strength, but in the Western realm, he has a respectable status.

Chapter 803 - I am Shen Lang

When they wake up, they are treated like this. All the strong people are dignified and certainly can't stand it. As a result of the rebellion, everyone was cleaned up and felt the pain of the collapse of the physical and spiritual core.

After that, everyone still discussed the countermeasures, including various attempts, but basically no results.

Paul had originally organized an alliance, not necessarily the strongest of all, but they must be the strongest when they are added together.

This is still the premise that no one has ever seen Paul's hands, and knows Paul's identity, plus other people's attitude towards him, even if he does not know him at all, he dare not underestimate.

The final result is that Paul has become the spiritual leader of all people, saying that he will bring everyone out together, so that everyone can bear the burden for a period of time.

As for what kind of means Paul can help everyone to leave, he does not say that other people do not dare to ask.

However, under his unified coordination, everyone has to endure it first, and in accordance with the requirements, to create the spirit of the essence of bubbles. Then Paul collected it and negotiated with these people.

The people here seem to be satisfied with this result, providing them with food and water. They are not here to abuse them.

Everyone thinks about Paul's method. He suspects that he might want to let the other person numb first, and then find a chance to go out, and it has been delayed until now.

Like Qiao Yuxian, Nanliuchuan, Liu Yuchang, Zhang Zhulang, etc. Which one is not a big one? In Huaxia, they are all famous figures. The Shimen family is a famous school with a thousand years of history.

Being trapped here to lose mental strength is already a great shame. It is also very unwilling to let them obey the orders of a foreigner.

It's just that they are all between the bosses, and there isn't a strong figure who stands up to condense the Chinese comprehension. In the face of Paul's alliance, they can only succumb to reality.

After all, in addition to the unified coordination order, Paul and even the superpowers of his alliance have maintained their respect and respect for others, so everyone can still accept it.

Now it is not the same. Shenlang, the popular Chinese fried chicken in the realm of the Chinese comprehension, at this critical time, took a giant hostage in the attitude of the giant, and brought hope to everyone.

At this moment, Smith came to negotiate on behalf of Paul, and let everyone look at Shen Lang.

If Paul can't get through this level, then the hope brought by Shen Lang will be disillusioned. Therefore, as long as Shen Lang speaks, they are willing to follow Shen Lang.

change!

They are fed up with the status quo, no matter what, there is hope for change.

“Smith is it? The last time I just flattened your nose and didn't flatten your head, are you particularly sorry?”

After knowing the status quo from Nanliuchuan and knowing everyone's expectations, Shen Lang decided that he must stand up and do it!

If the number of Chinese comprehensions is to be united, let alone Paul's alliance, even if all the Western comprehens are united, they can stand up to court.

Since these old predecessors can't let go of their faces and are not convinced of others, then the leader, let him do it!

Smith has a psychological shadow for Shen Lang. He just said to others that he should try not to look at the eyes of Shen Lang.

Now Shen Lang directly named, so he had to look at the past with a hard scalp.

“Shen Lang! We are respectful of your strength, so there is no rough for you, don’t think that you are afraid of you, don’t think that you are really strong! If Paul Archbishop takes the shot, you will destroy it directly!”

Smith was quite a bit guilty, and when he spoke, he quickly shot out Paul’s banner. Speaking here, everyone can hear that Archbishop Paul can intervene at any time, and he also has a feeling of “backing”.

“If the strong alliance of Archbishop Paul is the kind of thing like you, it is really disappointing. Roll!”

Shen Lang and Yan Yue said, suddenly screamed and scared Smith.

Because he thought that Archbishop Paul was behind him, Shen Lang should not dare to do it, so he did not have any alert. At this moment, he suddenly heard the “rolling” violent drink, which scared him to quickly retreat a few meters.

A few S-class foreigners who came with him, turned into him in front of him, and his reaction to him was very speechless.

A little farther away gathered to watch the crowd, and could not help but laugh.

This is not the same as a passenger ship with a private space barrier. Everyone is opposed to each other. It can even be said that there is no privacy. After a while, I have learned more.

Paul is less in direct contact with everyone. Smith is the main megaphone, and he has the feeling of a spokesperson. Even if he maintains a polite atmosphere, he still has a sense of superiority, which makes some sensitive people feel uncomfortable.

Shen Lang then went a few steps forward.

Smith, who had just overreacted, was trying to pull back a little momentum, but looking at Shen Lang, he did not dare to move forward.

And Shen Lang's forward, let the Chinese people who are going to see his performance, also a little more emboldened, followed the past.

So let alone Smith, those foreigners, could not help but back a few meters, or put Smith to the front.

“I am Shen Lang!”

Shen Lang's eyes crossed over Smith and others and communicated directly to everyone.

“See that you are imprisoned here – people call the animal garden, treat you as a farmer! Humans raise cows to milk. They have kept you in captivity to squeeze your mental strength!”

“As a fellow person who came together, I deeply sympathize with seeing your encounters. And I am not convinced or confessed! Here is my own rushing in. Before that, I have done it with them. One, ruining them half of the city, attracting hundreds of powerful people!”

Listening to the words of Shen Lang, Qiao Yuxian, Nan Liuchuan and others, I feel that the blood of silence began to be stimulated.

Others did not believe that Shen Lang said that he was exaggerating, but the person he caught in was really unclear. Even if he exaggerated, he must have done a big job.

“I am willing to stand up and lead everyone to go out! Please come over here with me!”

Qiao Yuxian and Nanliuchuan, who have already stood on the side of Shenlang, immediately set behind him, leaving a position for others and reaching out to welcome them.

What is lacking in the Chinese comprehension is a spiritual leader. Now that they have seen many of their families and sects, they are willing to be behind the waves and immediately come over.

But the self-cultivators in other regions remain skeptical and have no action.

This is the same as the previous meeting. First of all, through the geographical and national ethnic identity, everyone can form an alliance in the big direction.

Without this sense of identity, it is natural to look at it first and look at Paul's response.

Chapter 804 - Paul confrontation

A few of Smith's people became very passive. They came to warn these people and wanted to suppress the problem before they became a climate.

Well now, Shen Lang directly flung the flag and quickly pulled many people.

They dare not continue to stand, but quickly retreat, ran to meet other people in their alliance, and – please Paul Archbishop!

“Mr. Shen Lang, willing to stand up and save everyone, this is very good, let us also admire. But how can you lead everyone out?”

There is a far-reaching foreigner's mouth, and the attitude is polite.

Shen Lang is not sure whether he is a member of Paul or not, but he does not know whether Paul is instructed, but it is very clear that if this question cannot be answered very well, let alone others, it is the comprehension of China. suspicious.

Immediately after his opening, he attracted many people's attachments and expressed the idea of "whatever I believe everyone can take him out."

Shen Lang's eyes glanced at it. "I may be able to untie the ban on you and break this battle that traps everyone!"

When this was said, it immediately led to an excited whisper.

At the level of so many of them, it is because of these two points that they are trapped here, or else they have already done a great job.

If you can solve these two points, they don't mind rushing at the forefront!

But the excitement was only a few seconds, and some people immediately questioned it.

"Maybe? You said maybe? When we were just stuck here, we thought it might be possible, but now?"

"You just came in, you don't know anything! What you said now, it's very exciting. In fact, in the end, I want to deceive everyone and let everyone regard you as a leader!"

"Yeah, what you said is only the goal, not the means! To solve these two problems, everyone can go out. This is what everyone knows. What we want is how to solve it!"

I just evoked a little hope from everyone, and then found that it was a flicker, and there was no substantial progress. It made many people unhappy.

Nanliuchuan's voice said: "Shen brothers, I have read it! I am not familiar with them. They will not believe you. They really want to join them. Instead, they may be dragging their legs. We can do it ourselves."

Shen Lang also sent a message back to him: "Not the same, if you want to leave here, you must work together. You don't want to see us try our best to open a way, then they are cheaper?"

As a result, Nan Liuchuan immediately nodded.

Not to mention whether we can expel everyone's ban, Shen Lang wants to take everyone away, we must first break this imprisonment of everyone. Once broken, everyone will leave. As long as you can get out of here and not be cast by these people, the prohibition is not that important.

The process of breaking the waves and breaking the battle will definitely require everyone to help. If they are not included, it is really the Chinese monk who gave them a free way!

When the two of them were communicating, the voices of others questioned even more. Shen Lang did not respond in time. In their view, it was the performance of guilty conscience, that is, they flicked their lives!

As a result, the Chinese monks who were unfamiliar with Shen Lang also hesitated. Although I did not return directly to the camp there, it also slowed down or stopped.

“Big Archbishop!”

The Archbishop of Paul came out this time as a private or secret task. It was not an important activity of the sect. Therefore, he did not wear a red robe and was a black robe.

His identity is respected. When he came out, everyone consciously let them go to both sides, even if they did not block his way, they also symbolically went to the side to concede, sideways, and shoddy to show respect.

Just after Shen Lang stood up directly, but it was questioned by everyone, Paul came out at this moment, naturally it is necessary to re-consolidate his leadership position.

The arrival of Shen Lang, and the performance just now, are direct provocations for Paul's status. If he does not come out, it will be difficult to convince the public in the future.

Smith followed him behind him. His face was quite a bit like a fox and a tiger. Looking at it, it was a pity that Paul took the opportunity to teach Shen Lang and avenge him.

“You are the Archbishop of Paul?” Shen Lang asked a faintly.

Paul didn't have the same posture as Smith. When he came over, it was a peaceful look. At this moment, he smiled.

“This time everyone has a problem. Mr. Shen and his team can be without problems. I really admire me.”

An opening confirms that it was the last time on the passenger ship that it was far from the voice that sent a message to Smith.

“The problem that Mr. Shen just mentioned, in fact, we have all considered it, and every day is thinking about how to solve this problem.”

Paul has always walked to the front of Shen Lang, and he has no scruples around him surrounded by many Chinese monks. Obviously, he has enough strength!

Smith and others stayed outside a certain distance and did not follow.

During the speech, Paul extended his hand and took the initiative to shake hands with Shen Lang. It was a formal understanding.

“Given everyone has been invaded and trapped here. After the chaos, I chose to stand up and always need a leader. Of course, I don’t care about this position. Everyone is a friend who comes from the same boat. It is also very clear. This leader does not have any interest.”

Paul’s smiling explanation allowed others to reconcile.

“Yes! The Archbishop of Paul does not have any benefits, but also needs to be under pressure to represent everyone and those people!”

“We all support Archbishop Paul!”

“This swell is too young I want to be the leader, he is worthy? Can he negotiate with those people?”

Paul didn’t seem to hear those words, or he talked with Shen Lang in a friendly conversation.

“The strength and wisdom of Mr. Shen, I have heard it before, and I have seen it on the passenger ship. I have witnessed your powerful magical skills, which makes me look forward to it. I sincerely ask for advice. What are the two questions?”

With his age and status, he is so sincere and has repeatedly stressed that he is humbly asking for advice. His attitude is not bad. Don't say that the Western monks who support him are the majority of Chinese monks, and they are also recognized.

After all, his leader is not based on the strength of the high pressure, which was recognized by everyone before.

Shen Lang smiled and said: "Since the Archbishop of Paul is so sincere, I am not welcome, do not go around. Leaders or leaders, I did not want any benefit, just want to take me out of this old man. As for you...hey, it's really for the benefit!"

When this statement came out, everyone was lost.

Chapter 805 - Suck your own blood

Shen Lang stood up for whatever purpose. Everyone just questioned his ability. Can you solve these two problems? If you can solve it, what is the purpose is nothing.

But now he can't prove that he has this ability. Instead, he is jealous of others for the sake of benefit, that is, there is something wrong with the character.

Archbishop Paul can be recognized by everyone, in addition to the high level of strength, but also because he is the top figure of the gods of light, the central bishops are famous and highly respected, he is the chief bishop, second only to the Pope.

To put it simply, Paul himself must have enough prestige, virtue and influence to become the chief red archbishop step by step.

In turn, as one of the representative archbishops of the Holy See, the entire Guangming God is equal to endorsing others.

In this way, not only the alliance members with him, but also many other Western comprehensions, even if they are the same generation, they are also admired.

This time, there was chaos. When everyone was headless and scattered, it was Paul who stood up and let everyone not chaos themselves first.

Until now, no one has been killed by the killing of chickens and apes, it is the merits of Paul.

The younger waves of the waves, the big words can bring everyone out, and the opening of the archbishop Paul is for the benefit, this is something that everyone can't bear.

“Mr. Shen Lang! You have said too much!”

“What kind of person is the Archbishop of Paul, we are all very clear, it is your friends, it should be very clear! You just talked and talked, this is disrespect for people!”

“You are a young man, you don't understand the situation, we can understand! Please apologize to Archbishop Paul!”

After someone opened this mouth, a few Smith, immediately shouted together: “Apologize to Archbishop Paul! Apologize to Archbishop Paul!”

The atmosphere was smashed, and Qiao Yuxian and Nanliuchuan were also a bit embarrassed.

It's okay to say that Paul stood up as the leader of everyone, has glory, or satisfies the minds of all the people. But if he wants to make a profit, he really can't say it. Everyone is in this place, and what good is good. Figure?

However, at this time, everyone wants to hold a group. If you are a friend, you are not quite a wave. If you are not familiar with it, how can you be quite a wave?

Paul was in front of Shen Lang, and the atmosphere at the scene became like this. He naturally felt the thoughts of Qiao Yuxian and others immediately, and then intensified the contradictions.

He immediately raised his arm and indicated to the back that everyone was quiet.

“I think all of us have not communicated much before, and everyone is unfamiliar with each other, so it is easy to misunderstand and suspicion. But in any case, in this place, under this environment, we are all people of the earth, all from the same Homeland, called a compatriot.”

“So, no matter what dissent we all have, we must not intensify and ask for the same differences. Maybe those people are looking at us somewhere. When we see our guilt, they will really be happy to see each other bite.”

Paul’s words are very sensible, and everyone is convinced.

Compared with the sudden radicals of Shen Lang, it is undoubtedly a stark contrast. They feel that it is okay to let Shen Lang go to the Pioneer. Leaders must have such characters as Archbishop Paul.

For a time, everyone looked at Shen Lang’s eyes and expressions with a trace of disdain and disdain.

Shen Lang slightly applauded: “The Archbishop of Paul said that it is very reasonable. I think so too. We can’t be guilty. But I don’t think it should absorb the blood of one’s own people, right?”

Everyone on the scene, almost all of them are not small, and they were all awkward before. Even in the East and West teams, there will be a tendency to choose a camp, and people who are familiar with each other.

But they will not be like a hot-blooded teenager, and they will not be completely blind.

When Shen Lang said “for the sake of interest”, they were angry, but now they are not only insisting, but also saying that “sucking their own blood” is to further point out.

Everyone thought about it. What does this mean?

Paul looked at the waves and his eyes flashed a trace of color.

Nan Liuchuan immediately realized that it was time for him to cooperate with the show!

“Shen brother, I am convinced of your character, knowing that you will not marry others, and you will not open your mouth. What do you say about sucking your own blood... What is it?”

Although this is the guiding word, it is also the question that everyone on the scene wants to know. For a time, everyone looked at Shen Lang and waited for his response.

“The people here, who are in captivity, want to absorb your spiritual power. Under the mediation of Archbishop Paul, everyone will bear the burden of humiliation and slowly find a way. In this process, the spiritual power of your contribution is given to Archbishop Paul, he alone faces the enemy...”

They are not ordinary people. When Shen Langyi mentioned this, everyone has already guessed.

It's just that there is no evidence, and it can only be said to be a question. And the spiritual bubbles they made are to be handed over to these people. If Paul moves his hands and feet, wouldn't they know?

“The method of Bishop Paul is very simple It should be just a little bit of each, 10%? The spiritual power of your contribution has not been destroyed, but it is only slightly worse when it is turned over. When dozens of people come down, he will get a few people!”

“So why he wants everyone to bear the burden of humiliation, because it is you who endure the humiliation, and you who bear the weight, and he can take the opportunity to quickly upgrade himself. When you don't use the value, you will be dealt with by the people here, and then The Archbishop of Paul should have grown to the realm of living alone!”

Shen Lang's remarks were made and everyone on the scene was shocked.

Even if they respect the Archbishop of Paul, they are not familiar with the iron buddies. They can support them when they do not involve their interests.

But now it is related to each of them, and it is inevitable to doubt. If this is true, it is equivalent to sucking their blood to grow up, and finally they are all dead, and the other person is alone!

“Nonsense! You are the embarrassment of Archbishop Paul! You said that you are deliberately misleading, there is no evidence!”

“I just came here, and I have not contributed to the spirit of the same as you, of course there is no evidence...”

“Look! This guy is jealous! We should burn him!”

This time, Smith did not succeed in inciting everyone. If it appears, it will not reverse so quickly.

“I have no evidence, but you have it! Do you have a little sense of familiarity with your spiritual power? When you come here, even if he can absorb it, it is difficult to completely integrate refining.”

Shen Lang said this, and everyone immediately put the focus on the Archbishop of Paul.

Chapter 806 - Return to heart

In fact, for most people, this is still in vain.

After all, it has already been absorbed, and it is already the spiritual power of others. Even if it is not fully integrated, others cannot extract it and cannot sense it.

Unless it is a handful of spiritually intensive monks!

At the moment, dozens of people gathered at the Archbishop of Paul, not only let him endure a lot of pressure – the real “mental pressure”!

Similarly, it makes the induction of others more ineffective, because it is already a chaotic spiritual field.

But what Shen Lang wants is this effect!

Most of them will not find any evidence, but as long as they doubt and start, they directly shake Paul's state of mind.

When dozens of people are skeptical and tempted by him, Paul is like a short gun and a spotlight in the media. Any emotional changes and abnormal expressions will be noticed.

At this time, the test is his mood and strength. If he can still be as calm as ever, dozens of spirits of the realm of the gods can not be moved, Shen Lang will be admire.

In the process, Shen Lang himself can't do anything. Although his spiritual strength should be one of the best in the field, Paul did not absorb his mental strength, so he could not participate.

Every second of the time is magnified at this moment. The minds of all of them are also contradictory. If the Archbishop of Paul is proved to have stolen their spiritual power, it means that they have supported the wrong person before.

If it proves that Paul did not do this, or could not prove that he had done it, then everyone's questioning behavior against him is another kind of disrespect and it seems that they are very inferior.

A few seconds later, when everyone was still searching and tangled, Paul spoke.

“Okay, you don't have to test me. Mr. Shen is right, I did.”

Paul's words not only made Smith and others stunned, but also let other Western comprehensions stay awake. I didn't expect him to admit it!

He will be generously acknowledging that Shen Lang is also a bit surprised.

Open the cover so openly is not only a matter of interest, but more of a face problem!

Many people know that they are wrong, they must stick to the end, use various opinions and even lies to prove that they are right, that is, they can't open their faces.

As a deputy pope-level representative of the Holy See, if he proves that he has stolen the spiritual power of everyone, this is not his personal face, but also the credibility of the Holy See, which he should not accept.

However, in the case that others may not be able to dig out clues and find evidence, the generous recognition of this is to make Shen Lang even more impressive!

"As I said before, we can't intensify contradictions and can't be guilty." Paul kept his smile and explained his point of view.

"Mr. Shen is really extraordinary. At first glance, he discovers secrets that everyone does not know. I can't let everyone split for my personal dignity, so I must admit that I did."

If Paul's bachelor is in the end, everyone will be silent. There is anger, but more is a disappointment that has been defeated!

"But I don't think I am sucking my own blood."

After saying this, Paul immediately added: "Don't misunderstand, I am not saying that everyone is not your own. I mean, the spiritual strength of your contribution is to be handed over to these people, and the tiny part I steal from it. This is theirs."

Everyone listened to this and they frowned.

This is a bit of a concept of stealing. Some people force everyone to pay the protection fee. You collect the protection fee first, and then extract a little from yourself. Isn't that a problem?

"Everyone knows very well that we are faced with two big problems. If we can't overcome them one by one, we will only have one dead end, and it will be a slow and continuous process of being squeezed!"

“So, I chose to take the initiative to attack. When they squeeze our mental power, they deduct a part of it and improve my mental strength. This environment that traps us can be broken, not to mention, my mental strength is strong. To a certain extent, there is a way to lift the ban on everyone!”

Paul is very calm, not ashamed, nor has any guilty conscience.

His starting point should really be to lift everyone’s ban. After all, the key is the high-level ban on the spiritual level. To accomplish this, you must improve your mental level.

Being trapped here, if you want to achieve this in a short time, you can only borrow the power of everyone.

Everyone’s gaze fell back on the face of Shen Lang, and now I want to see what he said.

“Yes, I believe that Archbishop Paul said. Although he personally obtained great benefits, this interest is also contributed by everyone, but his starting point should be really good, and strictly speaking, he is not a sophistry, it is indeed It was everyone who contributed.”

Shen Lang did not attack Paul, but instead helped him to speak, but it made the scene a bit unexpected.

“But one yard is one yard, even if everyone has already contributed to them, this is also forced. This is also for everyone. If this is the case, everyone needs to sacrifice a part to complete one person, then there is no way. thing.”

Speaking of this, Shen Lang re-scanned everyone at the scene: “But here, I have not yet reached this road! I have a way to help you lift the ban and break the ban here!”

His words made the spirit of the low mood on the scene alive.

“Shen brother, if you have anything, you can say it directly, not everyone, at least I fully believe and support you.” Nan Liuchuan made his first public statement.

“The method is of course my personal secret. It is impossible to openly explain it in detail! I believe that the Archbishop of Paul did not disclose all his plans.”

“I am not a saint! I am not familiar with you As far as the contact of the Earth compatriots is concerned, it is not enough for me to save everyone! So, I am ugly, I want you all. Follow me to do it together, there will be various tasks, and everyone needs to work together to complete.”

“I’m OK!”

“I... no problem!”

“We have no problems.”

Starting from Nanliuchuan and Qiao Yuxian, they met, and then went to other Chinese comprehensions who did not know, and made a public statement.

After they finished speaking, the Western comprehensions began to join.

Just Paul has directly acknowledged that it is a blow to them. Compared with Paul’s secretive start, there is something that needs to be said publicly. It seems to be more reliable.

Although they will not believe that Shen Lang really has this ability, but there is no better way, and can only be second to none.

Chapter 807 - Secret talk

Archbishop Paul did not evade, except for frankly admitting that after everyone was willing to follow Shen Lang, he was not angrily because of the leadership of the leader, and still actively communicated with Shen Lang.

There is no other way. Since Paul’s starting point is good, it’s also a blood-sucking side, but he is also confessing. What else can he do? It’s also guilty to join him and turn him over.

In particular, he still had an alliance. The only thing that can call for more people is Shen Lang. Shen Lang does not shoot, and no one dares to take the lead in Paul.

The result now is that Paul hopes to help Shen Lang, and the two of them work together to win a way out for everyone.

For Paul's initiative, Shen Lang did not refuse, immediately let other people optimistic about the hostage, but also indicated that the boat was followed by Liu Yichang and Qiao Yuxian to avoid problems.

Then he followed Paul to the side of no one.

This pastoral garden has a lot of space, not just them, but there are no more problems with people who are ten times more likely to live. But there are no houses. Everyone is like a beast and a farm animal. Everything is in the wild.

"Mr. Shen, have you already had any thoughts?" Paul asked directly.

Shen Lang faintly said: "What is the use of ideas? You have no way for so long, I need time to understand."

Paul shook his head: "In fact, I didn't lie. What I said was the truth. If you want to lift everyone's ban, you must have a strong mental power. You can see it, and you are aware of it."

Then he stared at Shen Lang: "Since everyone understands, if they can convince them, before the next collection of mental power, gather everyone's mental strength, and we will absorb them together! Maybe we can come before they come in, Lift everyone's ban!"

When I heard this, Shen Lang understood it. Paul's open-mindedness was not so unselfish.

The reason why I will cooperate with Shen Lang, and take the initiative to be honest, perhaps to ambush for this!

For more than half a month, Paul did not know how much he had tried, but obviously could not do it in the short term. Now that Shen Lang has appeared, he wants to change this situation, he just happened to take advantage of the situation.

He couldn't do it because he absorbed a small amount each time, and he was still less than one-tenth of the total. If he had more, he would not pass the "acceptance." If the mental strength of dozens of people is absorbed by him 100%, even if there is more than one sinking wave, he can also improve the effect several times.

Before he was alone, even if there was an alliance member to help, he could not do it publicly because he could not get everyone's support.

Now that Shen Lang has already been placed on the table, he also said that it can affect the words of the Eastern monks. He will influence some of the people who support him. It is not just a herd effect, but it can make others stand out from the crowd. It is.

These words do not need to be clearly stated. From his current position and the look of Shen Lang's eyes, this meaning has been conveyed.

Shen Lang had to admire this guy is really worthy of the calculations, no wonder that Xiangyang real people described him as a mysterious big boss.

"It's useless. If you do this, what are we doing with people here?" Shen Lang shook his head.

"Not the same! We will not ban everyone from dying. We don't need long-term harvesting. We just need to spend it in front of us. And we are not for our own benefit, we just want to be able to save everyone!"

"Do you think you can convince?"

"So I need Mr. Shen!"

"I want to do this and let my friends down."

"Compared with life, I think life is more important."

Shen Lang discovered that Paul is worthy of being a big man of the Holy See. Although he did not exert spiritual influence on him, the style and voice of the conversation was also very persuasive, and he had a sacred temperament, which naturally convinced him. .

“Another question?” Shen Lang shifted the topic.

“This is fundamental. As long as everyone is out of control, imprisonment is not a problem. When they come in again, we can kill it directly!”

Shen Lang looked at the confident Paul and did not say anything.

He is not so confident!

In the process of coming in, he has already seen it, and dozens of hundreds of people chasing him are all gods!

In other words, the other party does not need to mobilize more people, and those who have just chased him can suppress them.

However, this statement, in addition to defeat morale, has no more effect. It is impossible for him to stay away from it and he will not give them so much time.

Back in the crowd, everyone’s eyes are gathered on the face of Shen Lang.

These are the old guys, basically can guess a few points, just the secret talk, it must be that Paul convinced Shen Lang!

If these two powerful characters are added together, then they have no decision.

Shen Lang did not pay much attention to it, but took Nanliuchuan and Qiao Yuxian directly to the side, and checked the physical condition of both of them.

As they all know, they have already experienced it. Their spirit is deep, they are under a ban, and the control scheme is in the hands of the other party. Once they are excited, they will be instantly collapsed and there is no fighting power.

Shen Lang is the spirit of the two worlds, plus the soul of the ghost king of the hundred ghosts, but that is to make himself strong enough, want to lift their prohibition, it will be very expensive.

This is essentially the same in terms of physical strength and strength. It is one thing to be strong yourself. It is another matter to restore the injured person.

And with regard to the degree of their relationship, Shen Lang certainly cannot let himself do everything. To save everyone, you will do everything, and you may not be able to.

Therefore, Paul's suggestion may be less humane and less interesting, but it is a rational and mature proposal. It should also be considered and verified by these days.

“How?” Qiao Yuxian, they saw Shen Lang's face heavy busy asking.

Shen Lang smiled and said: “Nothing, the problem is not big, I can solve it.”

Before the Nanliuchuan, the Emperor of the Black Dragon King, Shen Lang can solve it, naturally he is very confident to him, but his heart is more like a mirror, Shen Lang can not do it!

The last time they saved their brothers, they did not mention any compensation. On the one hand, they went to the world with hundreds of millions of ring arrays, and they got the inner Dan of the iron armor. On the other hand, they rewarded them with the gift of returning Dan.

Now the South has no human feelings, even if he can help Nanliuchuan and Qiao Yuxian, what about other people?

“Shen brother, you can tell it clearly! If you want to solve it, it will consume a lot. How do you need us to support and cooperate? Although it is clear that everyone is in a cage, you don't need to be polite with your brother!”

In the words of Nanliuchuan, there is no sound, no voice is low, it is normal to say, so that other people who are paying attention to this movement can hear it.

Chapter 808 - Threat threat

Everyone has looked at this side, and in everyone's heart, there is actually a general, just waiting to see if Shen Lang is really saying this.

“The Archbishop of Paul did not lie. If you want to lift the ban, you must have an overwhelming spiritual power. To achieve this, all the spiritual power of contribution will be absorbed, or the fastest way.”

When the words were spoken, they immediately exploded.

I still thought that there would be a better plan. I found that it was still the same, and even worse, I felt cheated.

Those Western self-cultivators who had previously questioned Shen Lang had started spraying directly.

“Excuse me, Mr. Shen! You said that Archbishop Paul is sucking our blood, and he is only a small part. You must absorb it now. Is it even our meat?”

“Where did you just criticize the righteousness of others? Where did you do it yourself? Faces?”

“You don't just owe an apology to Archbishop Paul. You have to apologize to all of us! You just cheated us!”

There are also people who are uncomfortable with Paul's behavior, and they will spray together at this time.

“You two have just been on the side to discuss secret talks. Actually, what is the point of discussion? You accepted his advice and used dirty means to harvest everyone, and then you split up together!”

Archbishop Paul did not let Shen Lang bear all the firepower. At this time, he took the initiative to stand up.

In the end, he arched the leader's position, especially for the Western monks, and the main attack was the Western one.

So after he raised his hand, everyone was quiet.

“I understand your feelings. Mr. Shen’s criticism of me before is also correct. Because of this, I have not been able to tell you clearly before, but only after you hand in, secretly steal a little.”

“I have already said this today. I have just talked with Mr. Shen just now. If we can’t solve the ban on everyone, then if we have the opportunity to go out, it will be equal to zero. They can control us all at once!”

“And to solve this, this is the only way. I am the same! I am the same as everyone else. I used to improve my spiritual ability and solve everyone’s problems. In the end, no one can solve me. problem.”

“Now there is more Mr. Shen Lang, he has no ban, this is what we have the confidence to save everyone. Frankly, the most gratifying thing is me, because I am saved.”

When he said this, he calmed down a lot.

There are certain reasons for thinking about his words. If you want to lift the ban, you have to improve your mental strength; and the stronger the spirit of Paul, the more no one can save him at the end.

In this way, his original despicable behavior actually implies the dedication of sacrificing himself to save everyone!

Shen Lang patted the palm of his hand and focused everyone’s attention on him.

“First of all, I have to admit it. I used to say that it was too full. I said that the compatriots on the earth can’t bear it. I have to take everyone out. Oh, actually, I am not so sublime. For those who don’t know, it’s just a matter of hand. !”

“What I think is that I can open an exit, everyone can go out, a little more people, our strength is stronger, and the chance of living away is even greater.”

“But that’s just a problem. Everyone else’s question, I just checked it out. If you want to eliminate it, it will consume a lot of money. – Sorry, I can’t sacrifice myself to save others! Without sacrificing, it consumes a lot, I also Only save my friends.”

“So I accepted the advice of Bishop Paul and wanted to go out. It is impossible to wait for others to save, and everyone must pay!”

After the removal of the lofty veil, Shen Lang has nothing to lose.

“But this is a two-way choice. I will not steal the mental power of your supply. I will not force you to contribute. In short, just one sentence: believe me, and accept the people who pay, come here, now Just started, when I succeed, you will be lifted!”

As soon as this was said, everyone’s face changed.

Originally there was a big label of “Earth of the Earth”, and now Shenlang has directly become a deal!

Whoever saves money will save those who contribute to the spirit, who will help to lift it, and the nature that does not contribute will be ignored.

From the fellow human beings and humanitarianism, they will definitely leave with them together, but the ban will not be removed. Once they encounter the enemy, they will be paralyzed, still equal to zero!

But this time, they could not open their mouths and slammed the waves, because Shen Lang had already admitted that the noble words were too full and they had a two-way choice. Now you can choose not to pay, not to cooperate, but you can’t blame others for not saving you.

“Mr. Shen! Are you a disaster? You are not under control now, you are sitting on the ground!”

“You can choose not...”

“Don’t tell me what choices! We choose not to cooperate with you, we choose to die, do we have a choice?”

“Yes!” His words immediately attracted the attachment of many people.

Originally, we couldn’t directly squirt the waves, but since someone took the lead, this thick-skinned thing was done by others, and of course anyone would be willing to give themselves some benefits.

“I think this friend has neglected a bit. I am talking about two-way choices! That is, you can choose not to cooperate with me, and I can choose not to accept you.”

The faint words of Shen Lang immediately calmed down the voice of the annexation protest.

Threat! The threat of red fruit!

If you let the waves break, and he refuses to help you lift the ban, then it is really a dead end, there is no choice!

Those who control their spirits Everyone has a lingering fear, compared with being trapped here, and some of them have to contribute spiritual strength, which is completely acceptable.

The black man was not threatened at all, but instead showed a glimmer of color.

“You threaten us all? You are two people, we are the majority, you believe that we all unite, first grab both of you!”

Then his eyes looked at the man in the costumes, and continued: “You have also arrested their people. I will hand over the two of you and send the hostage back. This is our negotiating capital, enough to exchange them for us. The lifting of the ban!”

He directly confronted the anti-threat of Shen Lang and the canoe, and some people were immediately moved.

Not to please those people, to take them both to take the hostage to trade, sacrifice them both, perhaps to save everyone!

Anyway, everyone is not familiar with them. The decision just made them unhappy, and they have no moral burden. It is not despicable to sacrifice a small number to save the majority.

Chapter 809 - Subsidy "grab business"

The situation has reached this level, so that Qiao Yuxian, Nanliuchuan and other people are also under pressure.

Anyway, it is necessary to force the spirit of contribution. It is a pleasure to supply those people with humiliation, to help him grow up and to solve their problems.

But they can't really say purely objective attitudes, mainly because of acquaintances. If it is handed over to Paul, it is certainly not desirable.

Now everyone's emotions have been shaken up. Seeing that the waves can't be controlled, they must be quite tiring.

The words of the black man have already caused some people's minds to float, but everyone is an old fox. When there is no stable wind direction, it will not directly express its position.

Just when everyone thought that Shen Lang was forced to the corner, he had to make more concessions, but he saw him sneering with disdain.

"First of all, as far as you are now, what qualifications are there to negotiate with others? You have been mentally banned. If you come out, others will let you fall. Let me make a condition to talk about the transaction. Do you have it?"

When the words came out, everyone was slightly cold.

Yes, what is the qualification to talk about?

They are like cows that have been licked their noses. Can they talk to people about transactions?

“Secondly, what qualification do you have to represent you? When you go out, you are looking for death, handing me over, and killing everyone’s hopes of living out. Do you think most people will be as stupid as you are?”

Shen Lang looked at him coldly: “The traitor behavior of your betrayal partner, I am afraid that I have not touched me, I have already been killed by everyone!”

The two articles of Shen Lang said that it was embarrassing and embarrassing for the black people who thought they had threatened the Shen Lang in turn.

He can’t let Shen Lang continue to talk, and quickly argued.

“That is your wishful thinking! The people here don’t want our lives, we didn’t hurt them, you are different. You said that you destroyed a lot and caught a hostage!”

“They hate you! And if you stay here, it will make them angry and we will be tired of us!”

“I haven’t finished the third point yet. Since they can’t catch me with hundreds of them, I can destroy their buildings and catch them. Do you think you are qualified to catch me? Even if you are more than ten What are the fears of the traitors?”

Shen Lang is completely despising him. This is not just to say to him, but to other people with different feelings.

When it came to the last word, the black man suddenly found that Shen Lang was in front of him, and he was shocked that he quickly stepped back and maintained a high degree of alert.

But Shen Lang just flashed in front of him, gave him a warning, and then returned to the original place.

“Who else is like him, wants to catch me to turn in? Come out together, Laozi alone kills you all!”

Shen Lang’s ridiculous words came out, and I was glad that I had just waited and watched, and I didn’t show anything. Otherwise, it would be a big problem.

Everyone is not a fool, even Paul bowed to him, can’t you explain anything? The giants before Shen Lang also saw it with their own eyes. Before killing the bat, Scott also witnessed it... Without dozens of people, who dares to die?

After seeing a few words of Shen Lang, he once again stunned the audience. Qiao Yuxian and others secretly breathed a sigh of relief.

At the same time, it is also very embarrassing. If they change to them, they will not dare to pick all the people, but Shen Lang dares, but also let everyone dare not resist!

“Here, we are all fellow human beings on Earth. But if there are people who are traitors, I will not be soft. I am standing with Mr. Shen Lang.”

The voice of Archbishop Paul has made everyone who has been swayed without any fantasies.

“Okay, don’t delay the time. Reason and I have already said that the way of two-way choice is also very good. Now everyone can make a choice, willing to cooperate with Mr. Shen, or willing to cooperate with me, can It’s starting right away.”

Retained and timely statements, lest everyone should turn over to Shen Lang.

In any case, he is still influential. Some who are not willing to cooperate with Shen Lang are still willing to give it to him.

Shen Lang nodded and pointed to the open space next to it, indicating that it could begin.

Qiao Yuxian, Nanliuchuan and others, naturally took the lead and went to the past to express their support for Shen Lang.

After the people on Paul were not willing, Smith immediately stood in the queue.

When dozens of people began to line up separately, Shen Lang took out a batch of Lingquan.

“This is a spiritual spring that can be repaired for rapid improvement. Although it can’t directly compensate for the loss of mental strength, how much can still help a little. It is my personal point of view. Let’s take one each!”

In the past, the past of Shen Lang, in addition to Qiao Yuxian, Nanliuchuan, and then Liu Yuchang, Zhang Zhulang, Zhu Zikai, Dao Cong and other acquaintances.

Other Chinese comprehensions will definitely have to go over the Shenlang side, and it is better than going to Paul. Now, when I saw that Shen Lang actually took out the Lingquan and gave back, I immediately accelerated.

Lingquan can’t repair mental loss, but it is also very good. Just like blood donation, since it can’t be avoided, there is “high subsidy”, of course, better than nothing.

It’s not just them, but some other people can choose it. Seeing this scene is also coming directly to the side of the waves.

In this dangerous place, a little more strength will be a little more secure. The number of these springs is not enough to increase their strength, but absorption can also improve the state and repair damage.

Although this is a subsidy for Shen Lang’s self-sufficient pockets, there is no doubt that Paul has the meaning of “grabbing business”, which makes Smith a bit uncomfortable.

But Paul didn’t say anything. He didn’t follow the resources to attract people. After all, it was a good resource.

Soon the situation was fixed, including the Black Dragon King on the edge of the crowd, and more than two-thirds of the people went to the side of Shen Lang.

Shen Lang also did not treat it differently Whether it is a familiar friend, or a completely unfamiliar, or even a Western comprehension who had previously smashed him, he gave a Lingquan one by one.

The other one is on the side of Archbishop Paul. The black man is undoubtedly the most embarrassing one. He must not come to the side of the waves. He is worried about being rejected by Paul. Fortunately, Paul maintains the church's fraternity and does not mind accepting it. He.

Everyone's opinions have been unified. Shenlang has received subsidies in advance, so I used to grind my work. When I can't extract my spiritual power, I will start working now.

If you want to leave here, you must first lift the ban; if you want to lift the ban, you must first increase the spiritual strength of Shen Lang; and if you want to increase the spirit of Shen Lang, they must first contribute spiritual power...

As a result, only the Shen Lang, the Canoe and the Paul were temporarily idle.

"Mr. Shen, this is what I have left here." Paul directly gave Shen Lang a small utensil, which he extracted from everyone's spiritual bubble.

He couldn't absorb it at the end. He was originally absorbed and slowly absorbed. Now he also needs Shenlang to help him lift the ban, and of course he is actively sharing.

Chapter 810 - Invading the spiritual world

Shen Lang did not be polite with him. Considering that there will be a lot of mental power to absorb, he did not waste time and started immediately.

When Shen Lang began to prepare for absorption, the canoe was naturally around him, and the chain was taken out, ready to fight.

The black man just said that if she wants to take the two of them to trade, how can she be assured?

Paul himself also left away from the suspicion and did not stay around the waves.

The spirit of the spirit contained in it is also a matter of substance. Although it is only a little bubble, it is not easy to condense the power of the spirit into this way.

How is Paul slowly absorbed, Shen Lang is not very clear, but he does not need so many steps, directly to absorb these spiritual powers!

Such a bold approach is because he has a strong spiritual strength, and the last accidentally absorbed the soul beads, and did not cause much impact on him.

After absorbing these spiritual forces, Shen Lang also has a feeling of incomprehensibility, as if there is a kind of intoxicating general.

He didn't have much love and enjoyment of this feeling, and immediately merged it with his own spiritual power to make it a part of his spiritual strength.

"Is it finished?" It is maintaining a highly guarded canoe. Seeing that the waves are getting up very quickly, I can't help but be surprised.

"nailed it."

"but....."

Listening to their narrative, isn't this a very difficult thing? Archbishop Paul is also a little bit absorbed. How can he get it?

But soon she was relieved, who is this, this is the first wave of the world!

She did not forget that the last time she had been smashed for a few hours in the minefield, she and Fuyang lived on the ice and concentrated on it. People learned the skills of controlling lightning!

"Let's check what's in this guy."

When Shen Lang had time, he raised his hand and grabbed the hostage on the ground.

The strength of the man in the costumes has at least the late stage of the gods, and can command so many people, there must be a little identity, there should be some treasures on the body.

This is the hostage he brought with him. Others are busy contributing to their spiritual strength, and no one has ever moved.

The costumes of the man have been ruined, and the whole body has been shocked by the shock of the waves.

On his wrist, he found a storage bracelet and nothing else.

However, Shen Lang could not open this bracelet, because the owner is still alive and must be able to open the owner's consciousness.

If the fingerprint is turned on, it is better to pick up the hand directly, but now it is much more complicated. The hostages are still valuable, and they cannot be killed directly.

However, Shen Lang just took him to practice his hand!

Next, we must remove the mental ban for everyone. First of all, we must enter the spiritual will of others. Now that this person is still in a coma, there is no resistance. It is indifferent to make him stupid. It is the enemy.

Shen Lang directly grasped his head, first injecting a vitality through the contact of the hand, so that two people can make a contact.

Then began to infiltrate his mental strength.

Just a moment, Shen Lang was aware that this person's mental strength is very powerful!

If it is not a heavy blow to a coma, even if it is a deep wave, it is not so easy to invade his brain consciousness, and it will encounter a counterattack.

Even if you lose the control of the main consciousness, there is still a stubborn defense.

Shen Lang thought for a moment, immediately released a lunar needle, pierced the man's head Baihui point!

He maintains a good degree and will not stab people, but can greatly suppress the other's brain consciousness.

After such control, the possibility that the man is now waking up is greatly reduced, and after being suppressed, the defense is greatly reduced.

After Shen Lang invaded his brain consciousness, he did not rush to open the storage bracelet, but tried to search his memory!

Just like hacking a computer, the difficulty is in the process of intrusion. Once you invade, you want to search for copy content, but it is very simple.

The information memory of this person's brain was quickly shared into the thoughts of Shen Lang. He did not go through the combing in this state. In order to avoid the state, he was sealed first.

Then it opened the man's storage bracelet and found that it has a lot of space, far more than the Tang Banshan, the lord and so on.

In this way, Shen Lang was too lazy to move out again, directly cutting off the connection between the consciousness of the person and the magic weapon, turning it into something of no ownership.

Then before the launch, Shen Lang hesitated.

This person called them scorpions, and they also used everyone as a livestock. The spiritual power of their contribution was naturally what they enjoyed.

They are the first time in a few hundred years that they have entered the sea of innocence on such a large scale. It is a coincidence that these people can happen by themselves, and it is too clever to capture the "salvage" of people in a timely manner.

Even if it is a coincidence, if you encounter such a situation in the past few hundred years, even if you treat the Earth as an inferior and become a farmer, you should study it. They are thrown directly here, let them immediately enter the stage of contributing spiritual power.

This place is called the “grazing garden” and it is not like the newly built one.

All of this shows that they are used to it!

When I talked with Paul, and when I was just dividing it, I have already confirmed Shen Lang. In addition to dozens of people on the planet, there are a few other people in the world who are trapped.

As such, all of them illustrate a situation: people here often enter the foggy space! There are often people from other worlds coming in there!

Even they may have mastered a certain technology. Once someone enters, they can quickly know and locate, so they can catch fish in time.

After entering, they grabbed two people and sank at least 10,000 meters of them. There are five others, which are considered to be net fish.

Since it is a long-term, normal state, then this person may not be the highest level, and certainly a beneficiary.

Considering this, Shen Lang has no psychological burden, and begins to take advantage of the current suppression and directly draw the spiritual power of that person!

In the state of their current connection, he now controls the state of the other party. This kind of extraction is much faster than they are condensed and absorbed. It is much faster, the efficiency will be much better, there will be no more waste, and no use. So much time for integration.

All of these are only clear, the original Paul, the nearby canoe, seeing the closed eyes, they feel that he is using this hostage to experiment and practice how to control the spiritual world.

At this time, Shen Lang entered a very dangerous state!

Because it is far better than the mental bubble just now, it is the state of two people connected. Once the other person wakes up, or there is interference from outsiders, he is very likely to be greatly stimulated or even phasing.
