

First Strong 841

Chapter 841 - Easy face

The white man still wants to hold Fan Wei, but Fan Wei's anger came up, and he couldn't hold it, and the black man was equally uncomfortable, but the three of them just threw people together!

Their thinking has been inertia, and they don't feel that they have problems. It's just playing, they are not once or twice, and they often play like this.

But let them be shameful, that is the first time, that is a very serious problem!

Shen Lang looked back at him, then smiled and looked up and down.

“Look what? The country bustle! Laozi asks you, can you afford it? If you can't afford it, let it go, this young master wants to see it!”

In fact, in their status, even if there are some bad preferences, but the basic qualities are still there, it is not good to call the words “this young master”.

But today, because of the smashing of the cave before, Fan Fan was very angry. If he did not speak like this, he could not vent. Can't you do it directly?

Then he looked at the ruined contempt: “Now you are watching something, your brother won't buy it for you! But you can ask me, I can still buy it for you, this kid can't afford it, I can afford it!”

He now does not care about the beauty of Bo Beauty, and directly differentiates each other in this way.

“I heard no! If you can't afford it, let it go, don't influence people to do business, and the outside world!” The black man also spoke ironically.

The white man is a bit helpless, but that is his friend. He and Shen Lang meet each other, and of course they can't turn faces for strangers and friends.

His literacy just made him a little sorry and regretted standing behind, not getting in front of him.

Seeing that Shen Lang did not speak, Fan Yi had a hint of happiness.

In front of the rich and powerful, how about your teeth? Can you encourage everyone to spray us, and can you encourage a product to give you the same thing?

Just as they raised this idea, the salesperson at Yipin Court in the counter was sending a few beautifully packed boxes to Shen Lang and the canoe.

As soon as I saw this, Fan Wei immediately reached for the table!

“These don’t have to show them, they can’t afford it! Show us, whether I like it or not, buy it! Buy two!”

Fan Yu’s tone of voice is with a distinct sorrow, full of rich and powerful local tyrants.

I haven’t opened it yet, I don’t know what it is, I just said that I like it, I bought it, and I bought two!

He thought he was handsome enough to make the salesperson look awkward.

Yipin Pavilion is a professional institution. The salespersons all have commissions. They are basically snobbery. Since he can bring transactions to Yipin Pavilion, he can bring benefits to individuals. Of course, he will not pay attention to the two foreigners.

That is not to discriminate against guests, it is called priority service quality customers!

Fan Yu said that he didn’t look at the inside of a product. He looked at the dark waves directly with contempt, and his mouth was almost raised to his face.

“Sorry. These are the two distinguished guests who have already bought.”

The salesperson of Yipin Pavilion certainly wants to meet such local guests, and they have also seen each other. As they are, of course, they are not guilty.

Now Fan Wei has to buy two pieces at the beginning, but after all, it is only a mouthful, and it seems more likely to be angry.

And this little brother in the field, but the real fight has already paid twenty of the finest stones!

At this time, if he goes to the possible customers and slows down the actual customers, then he really has to be punished.

After all, Yipinge can do that big, but not by a hammer. For those who can buy four items, it is impossible to buy ten more! That can't be offended.

Therefore, he not only said this in time, but also maintained a respectful attitude, saying to Shen Lang and the canoe.

“The two guests have already packed it for you. And there is also a copy of our invitation here, I hope I can accept it!”

Then both hands were sealed with a red hot stamping invitation.

“To celebrate the group meeting, a few days later, we will hold a small trade fair in Yipin Pavilion, which is a good resource. I hope that two distinguished guests can come and of course welcome friends.”

The words just had to be clarified, and now the invitation letter is sent. Of course, it is not intentional and Fan Yi to raise the bar, but the above requirements, for the invitation of potential VIPs.

If Shenlang just bought it, the scale of a few hundred medium-spirited stones would be nothing more than a guest. But if you buy a few at a time without blinking, you are a potential customer.

Their careful trade fairs, to put it bluntly, are big trade fairs.

If the invitation is not delivered, the superior knows that it will be embarrassing, so they can only send it in time.

And these, at this moment, it seems that they are helping the face of Fan Lang in the fight!

Shen Lang simply did not say a word, and completed a loading force, easily hit the face of both of them, so Fan Yan's blush is going to be dark!

He said that others can't afford it, don't show them, and people have already bought it!

He said that he can buy two pieces at a time, and the result is that people bought four pieces at a time!

He said that Yipin Pavilion was not affordable for them. As a result, Yipinge sent a VIP invitation in person...

Fan Wei began to feel that he was a big mold today. When he met such a foreigner, he was totally restrained.

Not only him, the black man is also very depressed, but now this is on the trading floor, others have not started, there is no direct offense, they can not use force!

They are used to the forced way, no matter what, so that two people do not know how to end.

The white man who was originally calm, just did not mix in the back, and then hurry up to play the round again.

"Congratulations to the two friends who bought the items they liked and were able to get an invitation from Yipin."

He arched his hand at Shen Lang and tried to show a polite smile.

“In the next Tangcheng animal husbandry on behalf of Fan Yi, Huang Wei two brothers, welcome two to Tangcheng. Just a little joke, don’t mind.”

When he spoke, he had already sent a thin metal card with a word “grazing” on it.

“This is the token of our herdsmen. Two friends can arbitrarily consume in all the inns, restaurants and other places in the pastoral industry. This is a little bit of meaning below, I hope to make friends.”

Mu Haiyuan’s attitude is very correct, and there is no slightest enthusiasm. He is more active in avoiding the canoe next to him and facing the sinking waves.

His meaning is very obvious. I hope that this kind of initiative will show off and resolve this kind of grudge.

He is obviously the oldest of the three sons. When Fan Wei and Huang Wei felt that they were seriously beaten and thought about how to pull back a city, he thought that Shen Lang was so young, he could spend it at Yipin, and there must be A lot of background!

So he will put his posture lower, so as not to believe that he has offended the strongman.

Chapter 842 - Shoot out

Shen Lang looked at the “Mu” card in his hand and was able to avoid all consumption. This is not a business card, but a super VIP card.

Undoubtedly, people who can get such cards from the herds will basically not care about consumption. This is more like a symbol of identity.

“Where is the animal husbandry? Your attitude is good, I will give you the face, I don’t know them. But I will not accept this card, it seems that I am cheaper than you.”

Shen Lang is divided into two, and he gives his face, but he does not accept the card.

In fact, his eyes have been observed. When she was introduced to her, the salespersons at the counter of the counter were changed. When they sent out the “mumu card,” they even showed the envy. .

It can be seen that this pastor, where the animal husbandry was originally located, is quite popular in Tangcheng.

Shen Lang searched the memory of Jing Rufeng and immediately got a general impression.

The shepherd is the famous gate of Tangcheng. Not only does it have a lot of masters of comprehension, but also the secular management is also very impressive. Like one of the major shareholders behind Yipin Pavilion, there is a shepherd.

Fan Yu and Huang Wei, who should also be Tangcheng's big family, did not reach the level of the shepherd. They have not heard of it in the memory of Jingrufeng.

In the view of Muhai, it is completely normal for outsiders not to recognize them a few times, but his self-introduction is tantamount to putting the family background out, and with the sincerity expressed by sincerity, it is generally impossible to refuse. his.

But I did not expect that Shen Lang was still openly rejected!

The card of the shepherd, he just carried it with him, and sent it out. Going back to the family needs to be explained in detail. If it is determined that it is not used indiscriminately, he will be given another one, and within a year, it will not exceed three. .

It is generally proud to get such a card. It represents the intention of the shepherd. If you take it out, you can show off your strength.

However, this foreigner actually said to give him face, and because his attitude is good, this card is not accepted!

“Oh, the herd gold card, it was the first time it was sent out and was returned.” Mu Haiyuan smiled faintly, with a self-deprecating fiddle with the card in his hand.

Fan Wei had originally apologized to them for the sake of Mu Haiyuan. It was a serious disagreement, but it was not good for the public to sneak into the pastoral.

Now that she saw that she was rejected, she could not help but reveal a hint of smirk.

“The original brother, you are a hot face sticking to someone else’s cold butt! Don’t give me a face, this is not to give you face, but it is not a shame.”

Huang Wei is also helping the side: “It’s me, I can’t bear it. You are still a good old man!”

A direct cold-spoken provocation, a kind of praise and enthusiasm, is the animal husbandry, it is difficult to remain calm.

Originally, several salesmen of Yiping also wanted to use the gas between the guests to promote as many items as possible. Now, at first glance, there is actually a son of one of the big bosses, and this guest does not give her husband a face!

Where do they dare to mix again, and quickly shrink back, hope that things can be resolved quickly, and will not affect them.

The light cane pulled the waves and signaled him to go first.

Shen Lang nodded, and things and invitations were put together.

“Good dogs don’t block, let’s let!”

This is said, let the face of Fan Yin, who is laughing and grazing in Haiyuan, change greatly!

Although a few of them are close, but only he just wants to push the waves to open the counter, go to the front, the dog is not in the way, it is him.

“You dare to say that I am a dog!”

“Who is a dog?” Shen Lang took another sentence, letting the canoe beside him couldn’t help.

“I...” Fan Yi had experience even if he was angry. When he just exported a word, he reacted and changed his mouth immediately. “I love you...”

After the word “Mom” has not been exported, he feels that a slap has been photographed next to his face!

This surprised him.

This is in Tangcheng!

They have already set their identities, even if they are arrogant, they are all outsiders. They must start by hands. He did not think that this foreigner would dare to move him!

He instinctively quickly shunned backwards and shot forward.

It is a pity that when he noticed it, it was already a bit slower than the actual situation. He wanted to dodge, and when the body began to dodge, he had to slow down a little, which was enough for the slap to hit his mouth.

Just as he blew his teeth out, he found his body actually flew up!

They have been quarreling for a while, and some people have gathered to watch the excitement. Among them, there have been stories of people who have seen them at the entrance and whispered quickly to the people around them.

When I saw it suddenly, I was excited. Everyone was excited!

That is, don't make a noise when you can do it!

But what everyone did not expect was that many of them had not seen clearly what was going on, and they found that one of the parties had already flown out.

And flying high, very far, the speed is very fast, showing a large arc, when everyone looks after the past, it has already fallen outside the trading floor!

Both Mu Haiyuan and Huang Qi, also did not expect that Shen Lang would actually do it directly, even more unexpectedly his speed is so fast.

When they reacted, Fan Wei had been beaten out of the trading floor!

“Looking for death! You are a foreign dog, but dare to go to Tangcheng to bully our locals!”

If Huang Qi came out, let the animal husbandry secretly frown. Nowadays, many people around are outsiders. Under the premise that I don't understand the situation, such a word is very easy for everyone to divide into other camps.

He rushed to remedy: “You are a bit too much, my friend has not done anything to you, you actually shot him, it is a bit inhuman!”

After staying polite and calm, he looked around again.

“This is not a foreigner or a local. We are all Han Chinese. Everyone has seen it. This friend and my friend have a bit of verbal friction, and they directly beat people out.”

However, Huang Wei's “outside dog” has already let the foreigners around him have a pre-emptive substitution This is a negative check-in!

Plus someone just told the story of “上集” , let people who don't understand it faintly know a little – these three local sons, teasing women in the field! After people walked away, they still chased after trouble!

At this time, Mu Haiyuan emphasized that regardless of you and me, they are all Han Chinese. It is hard to cause others to resonate by emphasizing that speech friction is being beaten.

“What verbal friction is the trouble you have been looking for?”

“Someone has troubled me again and again, and I will fatten him!”

“Yes! Do you want to see your face in Tangcheng? You are local to Tangcheng, Tangcheng is not your home!”

“What is this saying? Foreign dogs? Are we all dogs coming from outside the country? Tangcheng Qun Yinghui, is it a game that wants to be a native of Tangcheng?”

Because Mu Haiyuan is not directly threatened like Fan Wei, the more politeness will make everyone less scruples. When you say a word to me, they spray a sieve in an instant.

Chapter 843 - Weapon tough front

Mu Hai did not expect his fire to be unsuccessful, but instead brought the flames to his body and could not help but frown.

“Can I go? Shepherd son.” Watching them fall into the whirlpool of public opinion, Shen Lang also deliberately asked.

Muhai originally wanted to question his shots on Fan Wei, but now that everyone’s spears are pointing at them, they must calm down as soon as possible to avoid making a worse sound.

Just now was Fan Wei, this time he was self-reported.

“Please! There will be a period later.” His seemingly polite words, but said that things are not finished.

And he has no choice. Now he can’t go straight with them, otherwise people think he is retaliating.

After that, he and Huang Wei quickly moved to another direction.

Although they rarely encounter such a thing, there has been an experience just now. The debate with the opposite person will not be more and more clarified. Only more and more people will be on the lookout, and they will accidentally say the wrong words. Will be more and more chaotic.

The best way is to rush to slip away, without the object of onlookers, it will become a small topic after their meal.

In addition to avoiding greater confusion, they also wanted to hurry to find some Fan Yu, to see how his situation was, the speed was too fast, so that they were not too close to see.

They left the trading floor on two detours, but they did not leave after the waves and the canoe, or continued to go forward.

“You still have to leave here first! Just you have offended the sons of several big families in Tangcheng.”

“That is, don’t look at it just before, it’s a lot of people watching, they are afraid of bad influence. If you don’t hurry, they will definitely ask more people to wait for you!”

There are good-hearted locals in Tangcheng, reminding these two young people who don’t know the heights of the field.

“Thank you, but I believe that Tangcheng should have justice. Now it is even more time for the group, they don’t dare to come.” Shen Lang smiled and thanked and said that he did not agree.

Good-hearted people are a bit disappointed, and they can only shake their heads for young arrogance.

Although it is time for the group, but you are not a master of the public, in addition to what, how many people pay attention? Even if you are a foreigner who is here today, you will know the most.

However, they are just passers-by, reminding them with kindness, since others are not willing to listen, of course, they will not do more persuasion. In order to avoid having to know people like Hu Haiyuan, they quickly separated and stopped following them.

“What to do? Or come up with something.” The remaining two, sighed in the light cane, and whitened a wave of eyes: “You really can get into trouble everywhere.”

Shen Lang returned her with a blank eye: “This time is the cause of you! You are beautiful, and you are attracted to the butterfly.”

The canoe was trying to bicker with him. Hearing the next sentence, he couldn't help but ask a little more: “I am beautiful?”

Relying on a delicate and pretty face close to the door, with a mature in the beauty, this trip put down the cold pride of the palace owner, and also a little feminine.

“You have to be beautiful, they will harass you when they blink.” Shen Lang smiled.

“Do you think I am beautiful?” The snoring blinked and prevented him from shifting the subject.

“Beautiful.” Since he can't avoid it, Shen Lang simply acknowledged it generously. “Then is it necessary to ask me if you are more beautiful than the rain, who is more beautiful? And with Zheng Yumeng, Dorothy, even the wind without them?”

There was such a slight thought in the canoe that women would care about this.

These are the women around Shen Lang, she also wants to compare and see if they can rank first.

However, this is the first question to ask, but it is to make her embarrassed to say it again.

“Go! We don't have to go shopping, lest it really be blocked.”

“Afraid of a wool! Fighting is playing.” Shen Lang shrugged indifferently: “There are two old guys, what are you afraid of?”

“...” slammed the boat for a while, dare to love the two super-predecessors of the East and West, and he was called a bodyguard and a hitter!

Thinking of the two, she is very embarrassed, Shen Lang usually has enough miracles. In the forest of death, there is no place for anyone in the thousands of miles, and there are also deceased!

Countless Dracula, the legendary vampire of the West hundreds of years ago, and he is a friend of knowledge; and this more mysterious and powerful Xu Haoyue has even more respect for him.

However, she did not ask much about her cleverness. There are some secrets. It has not yet reached that level. It is not convenient for her to know. It is both the level of relationship and the level of her strength.

Forced to ask questions, but it will be unpleasant.

The two continued to move forward and strolled to a booth called “Tough Front”. Like the “Yige Pavilion”, it was a luxuriously arranged counter. Even those who did not know it could distinguish it. This is a big name.

Tough Feng and Yipin Pavilion can be found in the memory of Jingrufeng. Tough Feng is also a big name store.

Just like the name of the store that contains “tough” and “sharp”, they only have one big category of goods – weapons!

Of course, light is a big category of weapons, and it can cover many aspects. Such as offensive weapons, defensive appliances, auxiliary classes, training classes, magic weapons, hidden weapons, and so on.

Tough front has no branches in other places, only in Tangcheng. However, there are also rumors that the background of the tough front is very deep, not the native of Han, the tough front of Tangcheng, originally a branch in the Han Dynasty.

At the level of Jingrufeng, we can only know such a few gossips. The actual background is not clear. Perhaps for the store, I am willing to let myself be mysterious. As long as it is not a negative rumor, I will not clarify it Compared with other booths, there are stocks in the spot, and the stalls of the tough front are different. I have prepared a few thick books.

“Guests please look at the album, there are likes, we will pick it up for you. The seat here is too small, we can not be too much.” The salesman of Tingfeng explained the book to Shen Lang while explaining a bit.

The booths are only so large, even if they are rich and rich, and the locals can come to occupy the place first, and can not pack a large piece. For the weapons that occupy the place, the placement can be limited.

But look at this, they may be stored in the storage space, as long as they look at it, you can take out the spot.

Shen Lang did not clearly understand, and slowly flipped through the album with the canoe.

The canoe was already shocked and distressed by the Lingshi, who had just shot the flowers, but there was no market at this time. When I was on the passenger liner, Shen Lang had already educated her. This is a good time to learn.

The weapons on the album are not in the realm of the earth’s comprehension. To say that they are exaggerated, they can be said to be “the magic weapon of the fairyland.”

Chapter 844 - Sword sword

Shen Lang’s vision is much higher than that of the canoe, and Xu Haoyue is also inferior.

The weapon on the tough front of this album is also included in all aspects, and the price is basically not cheap. After all, they are big brands, and they are the only ones. There is no branch, and they do not do low-end traffic.

It will not be far from the cost of coming to Tangcheng to buy their weapons, or at least it will be enough to come back. There is a brand premium above the price, which is also acceptable.

However, Shen Lang does not care about the price. If there is such a good thing that makes him satisfied, even if it is expensive, there is nothing to be seen. However, there is nothing worthy of his heart!

Of course, it is not that these weapons can't be used. After all, the brands produced by Tingfeng are of a high standard, and they are not produced in batches. They are all made by famous craftsmen.

But the feeling of giving Shen Lang is that it is quite satisfactory. If you buy it, you will not regret it, but it will not surprise you.

If he doesn't have a lot of money, he can't care. He buys ten pieces and eight pieces and takes them back. But now that the stone is limited, he has to use it on the blade. If there is no special heart, let it go first, just in case. What better things are coming behind?

Seeing the back, he basically followed the raft, and it was a good opportunity for her to open her eyes.

However, the sales staff of Tingfeng is sinister!

Although Shen Lang did not reveal anything, it obviously seems to be a foreigner, but the obvious temperament is different.

This temperament does not mean that he has the tyranny of his body, nor does he say that his realm is adoring, and it is not the temperament of the appearance of clothing and other external exhibitions.

But the calm attitude of the eyes!

For the weapons produced by the tough front, the monks who deliberately came to the field are almost always amazed by the excitement. It is the local monk who has visited the tough front in Tangcheng. Every time I look at it, I will admire it.

Because they really have such a good, not only have the high standards of weapons, but the details in other aspects are just like the art.

If someone looks at it and it doesn't respond, there are only two situations, one is that people who don't understand at all, who don't have the level of possession and appreciation, and the other who are not interested in weapons.

When Shen Lang got the album, they read a look of expectation, but the more they look, the more indifferent they are, the more they are behind, the female customer is watching.

Even if there is no obvious disappointment, but in the secret sales staff, I have already felt this disappointment.

They have seen too many people, and there is no need to say anything about the external disdain. Anyone can see that if they can't afford the concealment of convergence, they can see it.

Now this guest, who has nothing to say, nor what he said to them, is such a dull state that they feel a unique temperament.

This is an expert!

This is a guest with high requirements!

But for them, it is another kind of challenge. Once it can be done, it must be a big business, and it is a case that allows the boss to pay attention to it.

After the eyes were discussed, one of the old men smiled at Shen Lang: "The guest officer seems to have not looked at it? I still have an atlas, but there is no physical preparation. It depends on the physical needs to go to our headquarters." I don't know. Interested?"

Said that he took out a significantly thinner album.

The albums that are placed on the counter for everyone are the same. There are other guests next to you, and there are other albums that I would like to see.

But I heard that there is no real thing. If you want to see the real thing, you need to go to the headquarters of the tough front, and there is no interest immediately.

The reason why this trading venue will make everyone so enthusiastic is to win. A few steps away is another, and it is concentrated in the whole of the country of China, maybe you can find a good baby.

It is necessary to go to the Tangcheng headquarters of the big-name shops one by one, and spend more time, and there is no need to join in today. When the headquarters of the tough front goes, it will not move.

Shen Lang originally wanted to be a guest, because the brand of Tingfeng already had the feeling of “but so”. But seeing that people have handed it over directly, it is a bit of a grandeur.

And he also noticed that this thinner atlas was taken out by the old man from his pocket and was not placed for inspection.

This is a good thing!

Although he did not say anything, he did not have much expression changes, but the old man has been paying attention to him. He saw that his eyelids opened a lot, and his pupils became bigger. He knew that he was right, and he met experts!

At this time, I took the light boat and read the picture book. I took a look at the side of Shen Lang.

She doesn’t say anything about her interest, she doesn’t mess with comments, and everything is magical for her. It’s worth learning.

The old man also got closer, and the sound was naturally much lower. "If the guest officer is interested, I can arrange someone to take you to the store to see the real thing."

Shen Lang shook his head: "I have interest. But I am mainly a little emotional, this sword design, let me think of a willow sword ... really is the same!"

When he said this, it was a bit embarrassing.

The canoe can only hear the regrets and loneliness in his jealousy, and can taste the deepness that does not meet his age, but he does not understand the deep meaning.

If Xu Haoyue is here, he will understand what Shen Lang said.

The previous generation of Shen Lang in the peak period, collecting how many treasures, he himself is not clear. Just like there are multiple storage magic weapons, many are forgotten when thrown inside, and many are given to friends.

For example, to Zheng Man, it is very low-level, including an unskilled sword. That is not to say that the relationship with Zheng Man is not good. Just like this world is like Yue Zhennan, everyone's gap is too big and can only be given to him at such a level.

And like the cold autumn, in the early days, he sent him Qiu Shuijian, which is also the sword of the high-cold autumn

The sacred sword of Qiao's heart, the rusty sword that was rusted, was not owned by Shen Lang, but only knew it, including the Juyue sword that Joe's returned to him.

But Liu Yejian is the sabre he used for a while. Later, he did not need weapons at all. Picking flowers and flying leaves are all sharp weapons, so he also gave Liu Yejian a cold autumn.

However, at that time, Gao Hanqiu was already famous. I saw that he used Liu Yejian less. The impression that he used his sword, including the information left by Tianshan Jianzong, was only Qiu Shuijian.

Chapter 845 - Nebula chain

The sword altar of the Tianshan Jianzong enshrines the famous sword of the ancestors of the past, but there is no Liu Yejian.

At that time, Shen Lang understood that Gao Hanqiu must have left with Liu Yejian. Qiu Shuijian has long been left behind, with Liu Yejian, and he can see the mysterious “Tongtian Road”. Pay attention to it.

So he did not ask about the high sword from them.

Just look at this album, put on the first page of the highlight of the light sword, fine and soft style design, and the introduction of features, are similar to Liu Yejian, let Shen wave recall.

It seems that even in another world, as long as the time is long enough, there are still many things that will be thought of and invented.

Just like a river city, the current technology is much higher than the earth, but according to the speed of the development of the earth’s science and technology, perhaps hundreds of years later, it can reach this level.

The level of technology has been reached, and the whimsical black technology will always be thought of and designed.

The sword and the willow sword are lightly raised, and the two worlds design two swords of the same style.

He is sighing the magic of “the same kind of work,” and feelings of the past, but ignores the look of the old man. – After all, it is just a salesperson. Even if the realm is high, it is also responsible for sales. It is not a weapon designer and it will not be a craftsman.

But this disregard, but let him miss the shocked expression of the old man’s flash!

The canoe is also looking at this photo album, and I did not see this.

The old man then laughed: “The weapons of our tough front are the top design, and the highest skill creation. The guest can go to see the real thing, I will love it.”

Shen Lang is undecided.

If it is really Liu Yejian, then of course he is willing to take back, but only a light sword like a style design, there is no need to spend money.

After all, it is still not enough!

This light sword is worth four thousand medium spirits!

Even with the extraordinary attack effect, for the current Shenlang, it is still nine times that Zijinlian helps to improve the cost-effective items.

Without strength, the sword can not be guarded.

He then looked through another page and had to admit that the level of this album was a step higher than the weapon of the thick album.

To put it simply, the thick maps are all high-quality weapons, but in the tough front, it is popular. This thin album is the selected boutique. For the customer, this should be considered a top grade.

Seeing the difference between the two, Shen Lang couldn't help but associate. At the headquarters of the tough front, there must be more advanced treasures than this one?

There is a public level, a small level, and there is definitely a top level of collection.

However, he did not expect to be open to him. The invitation letter of Yipin Pavilion was that he bought four items and spent two thousand medium spirits. In the tough front, he is now spending a penny and can see these small-scale selections. It is already felt that he has potential.

Those top treasures must be the guests of a large number of identities. Besides, even if he is open to him, the price is definitely not affordable.

In this case, Shen Lang simply does not think about it, so as not to be uncomfortable.

I didn't think much about it. I didn't expect to see the back, but he couldn't help it.

Because I saw a chain behind!

The weapon of the canoe is the mysterious iron chain, which is suitable for her.

The tough front is dedicated to weapons, and what types of weapons are available. However, there are more varieties like swords, and the chain is like this.

“How?” Shen Lang saw a falling canoe.

She is an eye-opener, and has a deeper understanding of the performance of various weapons, but seeing this, it is a bright, familiar and intimate feeling.

After all, she is studying this aspect and it is very attractive to her.

This nebula chain is not a general offensive weapon, but also a prop of cultivation!

Because it is able to absorb the power of the stars when it is running, it is equivalent to giving the owner a signal amplifier, which directly increases the power of the received stars, and the cultivation effect can be much faster.

This feature, in the attack process, is also a combination.

In other words, as long as you can handle it with ease, you can use the power of the stars in the actual combat process.

One person can increase the strength of a few in the battle, it is enough to exceed the enemy's predictions, and it is very scary to double and multiply the power.

And this is a growth, not the master has elevated to a higher level, you do not need it. But the higher the realm, the greater the effect after it is assisted.

This is enough to make the boat sway, but the price is also very touching, three thousand medium spirit stone.

This price, in theory, can buy a hundred snow Linguo! And this can only be used by her alone, a hundred snow Linguo, that is to make all the disciples of the Tianshan Ice Palace to be advanced, and the overall strength of the martial art has advanced by leaps and bounds.

Of course, the crux of the matter is that no matter whether it is the Tianshan Ice Palace or the home, it is impossible to add so many Lingshi.

If you really want to buy it, you can only pay for it, and whether she is following the world or going back to Earth, there is no place to earn so many spiritual stones to pay her back. Hundreds of medium-spirited stones, still have a chance.

She is so desperate that she is not sure about it. She is of course embarrassed.

It's the value of the body, it's worth it! She does not feel that she is worth so much.

Shen Lang saw her concern and immediately smiled: "Buy! This is not only what you like, but it is useful to you. Don't think about what owes me, you have to think about using it, maybe you may later Can achieve very great achievements and get more rewards than this."

The canoe still shakes his head, can she not hear it? This is just the words that Shen Lang wants to make her feel good.

"This is what I want!"

“The two have a real vision. This is an excellent weapon. It is unique in the whole of the whole country. If there is no problem in the two time, I will send two to the store headquarters to see the real thing?”

The old man simply boasted, and did not have a big bag, or insisted on taking them to see the real thing.

This is the credibility of the big store. If you now flicker the guests to buy and pay, what should you do if you look back at the real thing? Returning affects reputation, and returning does not affect reputation.

“Okay. We have nothing to do.” Shen Lang nodded and said to the canoe: “I will not change if I decide to buy it. If you don’t want it, I will bring it back to the dog!”

Not only is the canoe not speechless, the guests next to it hear this, but they also secretly force him to force, although they do not understand what they bought, but the tough front produced, bought the dog, which defeated the family to do it!

Chapter 846 - "flagship store"

The old man said that he was satisfied. He could arrange for people to take them to the store to see the real thing, but now, he is personally out.

Shen Lang is also somewhat surprised, because he can see that he is the highest level of management on the spot.

However, he did not think much. After all, the things of Tingfeng are too expensive. There may not be a few people to buy them. It is rare that a business of three thousand medium-spirited stones is a big one!

It may not be the person who is responsible for the commission.

The old man took them not to leave the entrance and exit of the trading floor, but to have another entrance and exit of their seller.

After all, they are all preparing a lot of valuable goods. Another entrance is safer. If it is connected with the customers with huge traffic, it is afraid that there will be a bad accident.

After I came out, I didn't go far. The old man took out a flying magic weapon and explained it.

“Tangcheng is too big, the common means of transportation is too slow, and the high-level monks are unbearable, so they will still use the magic weapon and the like.”

Shen Lang expressed understanding.

There is no invention of a kind of technological civilization like a car. The vehicle is a carriage like a carriage. It is a kind of animal that is tamed and used to pull a car. The speed is still very fast, and it is well controlled. It is not so easy to be shocked. class.

But for high-level monks, naturally this speed can't satisfy them.

However, the gates of Tangcheng are surrounded by mountains outside the city. High-level monks will not wander around the streets every day, and there will be no superman flying.

But now, because of the relationship between the group and the British, a large number of foreign monks are coming, and the situation is much more complicated. Many people, no matter how many, don't understand the environment, and flying around can be seen everywhere.

The old man's words undoubtedly admitted that his realm is not low, and it shows that the tough front is rich and rich.

When the three of them flew away from the trading floor and went to the headquarters of the Tough Front, there were some people waiting for the waves at the entrance and exit of the trading floor!

When they continued to wander inside, Mu Haiyuan and Huang Wei went out to find Fan Wei, who was shot and flew out. Shen Lang was only a small punishment, let him fall a big fight, and he was paralyzed for a while, and did not kill him.

After finding it, the simple treatment, and he recovered as usual, just just spit a bite of blood, his face swollen.

But these injuries are secondary. For Fan Wei, flying him out is a very shameful thing!

After falling outside, he was also banned from being paralyzed, unable to move, and being surrounded by people, even more for his life.

He has never been so humiliated in his life!

The brother who is used to the tyrants, can you be willing to be teased by a foreign kid to this extent?

The rudeness of Shen Lang, so that Mu Haiyuan did not firmly persuaded him to give up, Huang Wei is even more ignited, so not only the three of them at the entrance and exit waiting for Shen Lang two, Fan Yi also contacted the helper.

He decided that this time he would not be polite, there is no need to give a lesson to this foreign dog and let them know who Tangcheng is in Tangcheng!

It's just that they have prepared a lot of people to block, but they don't know that Shen Lang has already gone with the management of "Tough Front".

When I came to the store of Tingfeng, Shen Lang couldn't help but see it.

The geographical location is a block with a large flow of people. In the words of the earth, it is the CBD of a metropolis. And with a luxurious building, the whole style is designed with great temperament and many elements of weapons.

Even if it is the first time to come to Tangcheng, Shen Lang can imagine that the store of Tingfeng is also a small landmark. It is very conspicuous and easy to find and highly recognizable.

“Please ask inside the two guests.” The old man respectfully invited Shen Lang and the canoe into it.

After entering the door, the first step is the long steps, which highlights the noble and magnificent style of the building. Many small places come over, and when you look at this battle, you will feel shocked.

The first floor of the tough front here, I do not know whether it is a warehouse or other role, and there is no display of goods, guests enter the door, first step on the stairs, to the second floor.

There is no display on the second floor, it is a spacious rest area, with a spacious and unobstructed area, and some private rooms separated by screens.

The old man also introduced it softly, saying that the second floor is a place for the guests to rest.

Some of them came from afar. The time for the appointment has not yet arrived; there are people who have agreed with the time and other people; there are also items that need to be packaged, or just want to take a break.

Tough Feng will provide guests with the best refreshments in Tangcheng, as well as the preferred maids. They just sit around and don't buy anything, so they can rest here.

The old man also expressed his meaning. He hoped that Shen Lang and the canoe would rest first. He arranged to take out the items.

However, it is also to consult their opinions. If you want to visit the tough front, you can continue to go above.

Before Shen Lang had read the album, I thought that the treasures would not be put out casually, but since I came here, I saw the real thing with the canoe.

“You go to arrange it, we just go shopping. It's not necessary to accompany us, so we are not natural.”

“Oh... then it's slow, I will come when I go.”

The old man is also not polite, after all, he is really going to prepare, and it seems that this is also to be reported.

Although Shen Lang said that it would make them unnatural, but the old man pays attention to the performance of the guests throughout the whole process. Shen Lang and the canoe are obviously the first time, but they are very calm, and there is no shock in the eyes. Let him feel more extraordinary.

I don't know if they are calm, because they see more on the earth, there are skyscrapers inside, there are giant shopping malls inside, details and luxury brand stores, etc., naturally not surprised.

Shen Lang and Luo Cano did not stay on the second floor continue to the third floor.

The second floor is a huge rest area, but it is probably influenced by the group. Some of them are busy with other things, some go to the trading area, there are basically no guests, and the third floor is also deserted.

However, the layout of the third floor has been different, and began to show the different weapons display areas.

There are waiters waiting for the stairs, corners and the like. You need to give directions and ask questions, and you can do it at any time.

While walking around with a canoe, I saw that although the classification is very detailed, the overall display area still retains a lot of space, and does not feel like a crowded warehouse.

In general, unlike the counters of large shopping malls, it is the same layout as the flagship store of luxury brands such as LV.

Another thing that is more comfortable is that the waiters in the costumes of the costumes are kept at a distance. They will not come to bother you before you greet them. They can make you walk naturally, not afraid of being blind because of little knowledge.

Chapter 847 - Big manager, gift

The third floor is full of all categories, some of which can not be displayed so much, there are detailed atlases available, you can choose to send them later.

On the fourth floor, there are fewer weapons categories, and the display is more atmospheric, and the windows are open and the view is better. Of course, the price here is much higher.

Going up to the fifth floor, there are fewer things to sell and more expensive things. With the view of Tangcheng overlooking the window, people feel full of momentum.

There is also a sixth floor above the fifth floor, but it is not open to the public. It seems to be an office floor.

After strolling through the fifth floor, Shen Lang and the canoe are ready to go back to the second floor. The purpose of their coming here is not to buy anything, but to the chain of the sword.

Of course, in the process of visiting, I also saw a lot of good things, but the price is also very beautiful. It is okay to buy a single one. It is really impossible to buy more.

Therefore, they are purely strolling mentality, anyway, “outsiders”, not the local martial arts genre, but also bought one, there is nothing to be embarrassed.

However, when they were preparing to go downstairs, the old man was already seen on the stairs on the fifth floor.

“The two guests have waited for a long time. We have already prepared the items, please come here!”

It is a bit of a surprise that the old waves and the canoe are not led by the old man to the second floor, but to the sixth floor.

The second floor is just a rest area. Perhaps the place where the cash payment is made is on the sixth floor. Shen Lang does not care, and goes up.

The sixth floor is not an unobstructed view, but a lot of rooms, like leaving the top floor to the leaders' offices.

The old man took them to one of the rooms, knocked on the door and then opened the door.

I went into the room and saw that the interior space was also very large. There was an old man sitting there. There was already a cup of tea that had just been soaked.

“Please sit down with two distinguished guests.” The old man smiled and stood up and said that he was greeted.

With the management of the old man, they introduced it in a timely manner: “This is the general manager of our tough front, and the highest person in charge of the headquarters of Tangfeng Tangcheng.”

After the introduction, he gave a slap in the face and then retired.

Shen Lang and the canoe are a bit strange at this time. From this introduction, this general manager should be the highest position, similar to the president and CEO. Although it is not necessarily equal to the boss behind the scenes, the daily basics are the most powerful.

The things they buy are even better. They need the approval of the superiors. How can they not go to the top leaders here?

“The old age is not easy, I haven't asked the two guests how to call it?” Yi did not arch the hand, smiled and introduced himself to show respect.

“My name is Shen Lang, this is a canoe. We are the unknown young people from other places. The general manager of Yi Da will not hear it.” Shen Lang smiled lightly.

“Please sit!”

It is easy to ask them to sit down and start tea for them.

“Please use tea.”

“Good tea.”

“The two weapons we want to buy, we are ready.” After drinking a round of tea, it is easy to hand over a beautifully packaged big box.

Shen Lang was not polite, and immediately opened the box, which contained the nebula chain in the album.

The album is so beautiful that after all, it can't be compared with the real thing, the real thing appears in front of it, a special kind of texture comes to the surface, people can't help but want to grasp it.

Shen Lang did not touch, he can feel that this thing is a magical boutique, and the tough front is not likely to make a thing that affects reputation.

Since it is a genuine master, it is not like more people have to get it, then it is best to let the canoe directly get started, so as not to contaminate his breath, have an impact.

He handed the box directly to the canoe, and then glanced at her to look around.

“Easy General Manager, although it is a good thing, but for your tough front, it should not be a big deal, why do you need to personally entertain us?”

Shen Lang sent 30 fine Lingshi, which was handed over for delivery.

He also directly said the doubts, with their status, and the amount of consumption of this piece, it is absolutely not to let the easy reception.

It's easy to laugh but push the high spirits back.

“It's just a transaction. Of course, I don't need to come in person, but if I want to give such a weapon, I still need my permission.”

“Giving?” Shen Lang is a bit puzzled, he really can’t think of where it is worth giving them.

Yipin Court attached importance to them, but only sent an invitation letter. Tough front sent out a weapon worth 3,000 medium-spirited stones. How much profit did it have?

“Yes. The one who just received you, the name of the red wind, is my younger brother. He came over specially, suggesting that I give it to two and make a friend.”

“To make friends?”

Shen Lang slightly raised his eyes. Fan Wei said that he was understandable. He was understandable, and he was only a promise. Can not easily see them before, the old man has no evil thoughts in the red wind, just to make friends with them?

That is too frivolous!

Shen Lang does not feel that he has such a big charm, and there are definitely other factors in it.

“Please rest assured that we have no other attempts or conspiracy against the two.” Easy to laugh.

“That is straightforward. I can’t afford it. I can’t afford to give me a big cake for no reason. I can’t afford it.” Shen Lang put Lingshi on the table.

That chain is very suitable for the canoe, but it is not necessary to buy, if they have other attempts, he can also let the canoe down.

In fact, he didn’t need him to open his mouth. He just picked up the canoe that he felt. When he heard this, he quietly put it back and put the box on the table.

It’s a little helpless sigh: “The red wind brother said that even if we are willing to give gifts, you may not accept it. Well, then I will tell you the truth!”

“We actually want to ask you something.”

“what’s up?”

It is easy to stare at Shen Lang, and the color is correct: “When you look at the album, seeing our light sword, did you say that it is like a Liuye sword?”

Shen Lang’s pupil shrinks slightly, and he looks at it with ease and wants to see more things from his eyes.

At the same time, I also understood that the old man had a strong wind and the observation ability was really strong. A little detail was noticed.

“Yes, I have seen a sword called Liu Yejian, and your light swords are similar in design. What does the general manager ask? What does it mean?”

While acknowledging it, he threw the problem back and regained the initiative.

“What do you mean... our light sword is designed according to Liu Yejian!”

Chapter 848 - Secret of the founder

Shen Lang waited for his answer, but I didn’t expect it to be like this!

The same sword, much more manufactured, the design will always repeat, such as the most common sword, the appearance is almost the same, or even can be said to have a standard.

Across the millennium, different worlds have the same idea. It’s too normal. The waves are just sighs and don’t think much.

But now it’s easy to mean, the sword is actually designed according to the Liu Yejian. Is there a same willow sword here?

This is too coincidental.

Seeing the slight movement of Shen Lang, it is easy to laugh: “So, you should be able to understand why we want to make friends?”

“After all, if we directly ask your questions about Liu Yejian, it is a bit presumptuous, so I want to use this way to make everyone closer.”

“There is nothing to take the liberty.” Shen Lang shook his head: “Let’s just say it directly! Before I figured it out, I didn’t have a clue. You said Liu Yejian, I know the Liu Yejian... It should not be The same thing.”

“Would you like to tell you about the Liu Yejian you know?”

Shen Lang is really being enchanted by curiosity. Even if he thinks that he will not be the same, he will be a little excited when he thinks of it.

“I know that Liu Yejian, who was taken away by a master, has disappeared for hundreds of years. If the sword is really designed and unique, it should be a short time, can I have the honor to see the original Liu Ye Jian?”

Easy to frown and think about it, then shook his head.

“It’s really a short time to lightly design the sword to forge, but the original version of Liu Yejian, we are not convenient to provide.”

“Why?” Shen Lang sighed and asked.

It’s easy to look at him seriously. “Because you have too little information, I can’t provide more information. So...”

This time it was the turn of the waves that frowned.

“I don’t provide too much information because I can provide the information, you don’t know it.”

Easy to laugh, it seems that he can't provide more for the same reason.

Shen Lang is a bit helpless. His current mind has been hooked up. I really want to know if Liu Yejian here is related to Liu Yejian of Gao Hanqiu.

If it is indeed the same sword, it means that the high cold autumn also came to this world, which is a great excitement for both him and Xu Yuyue.

"I know Liu Yejian, the owner is Gao Hanqiu, a sword master who was hundreds of years ago..."

"High cold autumn?" The eyes of the easy to change have changed. "How do you know the cold autumn?"

This words immediately spurred the spirit of Shen Lang. "So, your Liu Yejian, is the willow sword from the cold autumn?"

"You answer my question first, how do you know that Liu Yejian is owned by Gao Hanqiu."

Shen Lang is very helpless. Can you still say that this sword was originally given to him? No one believes it!

"He is my teacher's master in the predecessors." Shen Lang can only use the current generation of Tianshan Jianzong.

"Impossible!" It is easy to deny it immediately: "The cold autumn ancestor is the founder of our Qiu Lin Jianzong. How could it be your master?"

After the words blurted out, he immediately frowned, probably regretting that he had missed more secrets.

"You said that the founding father of Qiu Lin Jianzong is Gao Hanqiu?"

Shen Lang does not know if the surprise is still the embarrassment.

Qiu Lin Jianzong, of course, is in the memory of Jing Rufeng, because this is one of the most powerful sects in Tangcheng, and Yuxianmen is far away.

Just because the distance is too far apart, or Jingrufeng is too young, I only know that Qiu Lin Jianzong is very bullish, and it is not clear the detailed history of Qiu Lin Jianzong, so Shen Lang does not know until now.

Of course, there are probably not many people who would have known it, or else it would not be such an expression.

The expression of Shen Lang is not like a fake, so it is easy to think for a while.

“Accurately, Gao Zu Shi is one of the founding fathers of Qiu Lin Jianzong, and there is also a founder Lin Biaozi, so the martial art is called Qiu Lin Jianzong.”

“It turned out to be created by Lin Biao.” Shen Lang laughed.

Of course, Lin Biaozi also knows him. In fact, he is also one of the friends he has taken care of.

At that time, the strength of Lin Biaozi was still relatively weak, but it was much stronger than Xu Haoyue. It's no surprise that they have come to the world and are working together to start a business.

Seeing that Shen Lang's attitude toward Lin Biaozi is not respectable, it is easy to wrinkle his brows, but it seems to be very familiar, but he has not reprimanded, but is prepared to put more words.

“Although we are called Qiu Lin Jianzong, the ancestors who have always claimed to be foreign are Lin Zushi. Only we know the high ancestor inside, but also keep the secret. In short, the high ancestor is always behind the scenes, in our Qiu Lin Jianzong, later generations Disciples, not at a certain level, do not know this secret...”

Then he stared at the sinking waves, and the subtext was coming out – how do you know?

“I may be able to make up this secret for you. Gao Hanqiu was originally the lord of the Tianshan Jianzong. When Lin and Lin came to Tangcheng, they established Qiu Lin Jianzong together in order to stand here. But he still can't let go. The identity of the Tianshan Jianzong, so they are not willing to disclose.”

“Oh!” For this source, it is not natural to believe.

Shen Lang frowned, his truth. But think again, the ancestors of the family, you just say a few words, how can people believe?

“Since you are the sword of the autumn forest, and I am not the sword of the autumn forest, according to the reason of your swordsmanship, secrets of the exercises, etc., will not be known to me...”

After talking, Shen Lang was in front of his face, began to point to the sword, and did not use the ratio of the elements, just a sword.

“Is there any training for these swords in Gaochunqiu? This? This should be the trick of Lin Biao For their two tricks, Shen Lang is still fresh in memory, because he does not Like Xu Yuyue, who lived for hundreds of years, and the middle years passed away, so it is not very far away.

He did not learn the swordsmanship of Gao Hanqiu and Lin Biao, but they all got his advice. Naturally, they also openly exposed the swords and mouths to him.

Shen Lang did not deliberately go to other homes, but also through such a breakthrough in the exchange of views of the portal, so that he can understand the strengths of the family, and finally created the “Yin Yang Bo Ruozhen.”

Looking at the hands of Shen Lang, I couldn't help but be surprised. The swordsmanship that Shen Lang had drawn out belonged to Lin Zushi, and it was the sword of Qiulin's sword. Those who belong to the high ancestors are qualified to practice at a certain level.

Although it is only a simple plan, there are still many people who actually differ, but if they are not deeply in-depth, it is impossible to know and can be accurately distinguished.

“What the **** are you!”

Chapter 849 - Insist on white delivery

“My name is Shen Lang.”

Shen Lang smiled slightly: “Let’s say it! If your information is not wrong, then I and your founding fathers Gao Hanqiu, Lin Biaozi, are all people with great connections. I am accompanied by a Xu Yuyue, like them. There are many sources. As for the specific...”

He shook his head: “It is not so easy to explain, and you may not be able to believe it completely.”

It’s easy to keep an eye on the waves, and I seem to want to see through his heart.

At this time, Shen Lang felt the fluctuation of his mental power!

It seems that you don’t want to go directly into his spiritual world. By reading his memory, you can understand the truth of the matter. It is impossible to lie.

But can Shen Langzhen let the people who met for the first time invade? Who knows if he has any problems!

Therefore, his mental strength was immediately concentrated, and full protection was easy to invade.

His mental power fluctuates, and nature naturally makes it easy to detect it.

It’s not a little accidental. I didn’t expect Shen Lang to discover his attempt, and he immediately discovered that Shen Lang’s mental defense is very powerful!

If there is a surprise attack without a warning, he is likely to succeed. Now that Shen Lang is ready, he is difficult to complete.

“I am not malicious, I just want to know if you have lied.”

He was calm, even if there was no formal invasion of the waves, he explained it.

“I just don’t want others to peek into my heart, just like I don’t see how you lie in this way.”

Since both sides have doubts, it is normal to want to directly snoop. However, in the view of Yi Yong, Shen Lang has no meditation, not because of the openness, but because the strength is not as good as him...

The atmosphere at the scene was caught in the embarrassment.

“No matter what, we just came to see the group, just took advantage of this weapon on the trading floor. As for the sword and the Liuye sword, it is completely unintentional.”

Shen Lang remained calm and did not say anything more to him, then stood up.

“The gift is not needed, it is too expensive. We went back to the inn first.”

Now that you know about Qiu Lin Jianzong, go back and discuss with Xu Yuyue to see if you can go directly to Qiu Lin Jianzong to visit.

“Wait!”

It’s easy to stop Shen Lang’s: “You don’t misunderstand, what makes me wonder is the relationship between you and Gao Zu Shi, without any doubt about your intentions.”

After all, the promotion of the sword is still the first time, and there is no news before. Today, it is also the red wind personally check in the stalls, watching him have the potential to come out. Moreover, the dialogue that was just apparently did not know the relationship between Gao Zu Shi and Qiu Lin Jianzong, and did not know the relationship between Qiu Lin Jianzong and Ting Feng.

So this is really no doubt that Shen Lang will deliberately approach them.

“So very good, I have another friend in the inn, but also have a relationship with the high ... the founder, I am going to go back and discuss with him. Perhaps we will officially visit the autumn forest Jianzong!”

Shen Lang did not evade, directly said his possible arrangements.

“So... Qiu Lin Jianzong is of course very welcome. But this...”

Easy to roll a hand, all the fine Lingshi together in front of Shen Lang.

“This is a little meaning for me to represent the tough front. Anyway, as you said, you are a source of high ancestor and you can afford this little gift.”

After I finished speaking, I deliberately angered: “If you don’t accept it, you just look down on me, then I don’t want to sell it to you!”

Shen Lang slightly frowns, next to the canoe will soon say “we don’t buy it”, and it is easy to make up a sentence.

“Okay, so I am also the general manager of the tough front, give me a face, if I don’t accept the two exemptions, I am really embarrassed!”

This sentence of Shen Lang can be heard, just like the previous shepherd’s gold card sent to the pastor, this is a matter of face itself, refused is not to face.

He does not need to give the original face of the animal husbandry, and the shepherd does not matter. However, it is not the same as it is, since he is Qiu Lin Jianzong, it is also related to Gao Hanqiu and Lin Biao, and it is not helpful to Shang Qiu Lin Jianzong.

“Thank you so much.” Shen Lang took Lingshi away, then gestured to the canoe to put the box away.

“Thank you for the general manager.” The canoe also thanked him.

Seeing that they have accepted it, it is easy to restore the previous smile: “Welcome to visit Qiu Lin Jianzong, I will also return the swordsman elders, perhaps... we are really homologous branches and relatives, but it is a happy event.”

“Yeah, hope so.”

Shen Lang did not say much. Anyway, it is not unacceptable now. They still need to go back and check the information, and he also needs to go back and discuss with Xu Haoyue.

After all, he fell first in the past life, and after the cold and autumn, Lin Yizhi, Xu Haoyue may know more.

At this point, Shen Lang could not help but pay more respect to Tianji Zong.

The real people in Fuyang use the clues of the Tianji Zong, and everyone can come to this world. They were in the cold and autumn, and perhaps they may have taken a path with the predecessors of Tianji Zong.

In an easy-going manner, it was only necessary to send them to the doorway.

However, Shen Lang said that the material is too hot today, and the mouth is called the founder, but he also noticed that the soaring autumn and Lin Biao's several times are natural names! It has also been repeatedly emphasized that there is a source.

He also can see that the surprise of Shen Lang is true, and there is no hostility or malice.

It may be that the old descendants of the ancestors, he can not lose the number of gifts, so I personally sent them out, accompanied by the downstairs from the sixth floor.

Followed by him is also the red wind, the red wind is also because of enough strength and qualifications, will know this secret, but did not dare to decide, they will bring them back, and then negotiate with Yi.

This is the “number of rituals” that they have privately considered, but it falls in the eyes of other staff members of the tough front, as well as the guests of many layers. That is a great thing!

It is not surprising that the Red Wind Management is responsible for the reception and will accompany the guests. However, it is easy to be unscrupulous, but it is the general manager of the tough front. His identity is respected. If a general guest wants to meet him, he may not be able to see it.

can be accompanied by two people who are easy to avoid and red wind. They are often high-ranking seniors. Now this is two young people. Who are they?

There are no sneak shots like mobile phones, but the people who see them are hard to remember the face of Shen Lang and the canoe, so as not to inquire, at least the next time, to avoid conflict misunderstanding.

All the way down, Shen Lang also felt the speciality of this “Fox Huwei”. When he reached the second floor, he couldn’t help but whisper.

“Easy general manager, you are too prominent, because you are by our side, let us be everyone’s attention. Please stay away from the door, or go to the door, everyone on the street will stare at us.”

Easy to laugh: “Oh, then I will be welcome. Welcome to visit! Red wind sent me two.”

“Yes.” The old man, Red Wind nodded, and then accompanied Shen Lang to step down.

Just after coming down the long steps, I saw that Hu Haiyuan, Fan Wei, Huang Wei and others rushed to the door.

Chapter 850 - Hands-on

Fan Yan called people to help, and Mu Haiyuan and Huang Wei were waiting outside the entrance and exit of the trading floor, but they did not see them for a long time.

They feel that outsiders are not idiots. Since they have offended these local snakes, they certainly can’t stay longer. Maybe they have left from other entrances and exits!

The group did not continue to wait for the stupid, went in and found the seller's entrance and exit, and inquired, learned that there are indeed two men and one woman left from here, has been gone for a long time.

Originally they were very depressed. Since two foreigners wanted to sneak away, they would definitely hide. They didn't know the name. Nowadays, a large number of foreign monks in Tangcheng are not so easy to find out.

However, the person who inquired about the news, but said a word, said that it seems to be the red wind of the tough front to carry out.

I thought that the clue was broken. I heard that it was carried out by the tough front. It is very likely that I went to the Tingfeng store!

I think that before Shen Lang bought a lot of items in Yipin, I wanted to come to the local tyrants who are not bad money. It is really possible to go to the tough front to buy weapons!

So they didn't stop, they immediately came to the tough front here.

Fan Wei waved his hand immediately, and the person with him quickly blocked the door.

“Kid! Offended you, Grandpa Fan, don't hurry and hang around the tail, dare to shake it here, you are looking for death!”

After waiting for a long time, I didn't see it. It was like being put out of a pigeon. He was filled with anger, and he accumulated a stomach.

At this point, I finally saw the Lord, and it broke out directly.

In his view, since they came out of the tough front, whether they bought it or not, it is already completed. At this point, it will not affect the tough front to do business.

The tough front has their rules. The weapons sold here are not allowed to be used in the store, otherwise they will intervene.

But now they are at the door of the tough front, unless the two turtles are in the tenacity store, or else they will leave the shelter of the tough front as long as they take a step.

Although Mu Haiyuan was stunned by Shen Lang, he was also dissatisfied, but after all, he was the most calm one.

He noticed the words of Fan Wei, letting the face of Chi Feng sink, and quickly added with the tone of explanation.

“This friend, just at the trading floor, you injured the Fan Xi brothers in a disagreement. This is not very good? We wanted to find you to evaluate, I did not expect you to hide into the tough front.”

When he saw the red wind’s gaze, he bowed his tribute and continued.

“If your trade in the tough front has not been completed, we will not bother, continue to wait outside. If you have completed the transaction, dare to resolve the conflict with us?”

He believes that with the position and vision of the red wind, he must have recognized him as a shepherd. Now, in addition to the words, he also gave the face of the tough front and removed them. Also stressed that they have no problem with the tough front, just to find the trouble of the waves.

Moreover, Fan Wei used “to offend you Fan Ye’s uncle” and “find death”, so that people who don’t understand will listen and feel that they are bullies.

Therefore, he changed to “review the Fan Yi” “evaluation theory”, then pull the reason to their side, so that the people who listened to it would feel that these two foreigners did not make sense.

Shen Lang smiled and said: “I said that you have a few flies, but it is really a ghost. I can hurt people if I don’t agree with each other. Do you dare to say it at the trading floor? At least thirty or fifty people can prove that you are ridding My female companion, bullying our outsiders?”

“And... your Fan Xi brother is so easily injured by me. Are you indirectly saying that he is an incompetent straw bag?”

Originally, Shen Lang also thought that this person was still okay, and it was much more normal to be set off by Fan Yi. I didn't expect that this time it would help the relatives to pull the frame, so it's welcome.

To talk about the poisonous tongue, the two worlds are the sinking waves of the people, but they will not be worse than them. This gun with a stick of words, immediately let Mu Haiyuan dumbless.

Fan Wei, who was angry, heard that Shen Lang said that he was “incompetent straw bag” and couldn't help but just couldn't help it.

“That is your sneak attack!”

Speaking of this sentence, he flew directly to the past, the same is a sneak attack, ready to treat his body with his own way, also to swollen Shen Lang's face, also to fly the Shen Lang !

His body arrived faster than words, but there were people who were faster than him and stopped directly in front of him.

Red wind!

“There is no mercy!” Mu Haiyuan almost screamed at the same time, and then quickly stepped inside, but as soon as he stepped forward, he stopped again and then retired.

Fan Wei, who had just been stimulated, forgot the rules of the tough front. – The other party stopped on the steps, it is still in the store of the tough front!

Fan Yu's guests in the Tingfeng store sneaked into the past, and the people of the tough front naturally intervened.

The red wind is not a matter of welcoming guests when they are greeting customers. It seems to be an old salesperson. But when the elders of Muhai's family saw them, they were respectful and asked, and they could not be provoked.

Therefore, when the red wind blocked, he almost pleaded with the same enthusiasm, and immediately retreated after obeying the rules, so that the red wind would treat him as a provocation.

The red wind stopped Fan Yu in the air. Fan Wei kept the sneak attack and fell directly from the air, then squatted on the steps. There is no doubt that he can be like this, naturally the body is forbidden.

The taste that I have never tasted, today is a continuous experience, so Fan Yu can't wait to find a place to sneak in.

Of course, he called the Fan family. When he saw that he was humiliated, he went straight up.

At this time, Mu Haiyuan is also a person who can't command the Fan family. He can only do it urgently. The tough front protects the foreigners and wounds our Fan family. Is this against our Fan family? "One of them, directly lifted Fan Jia.

They are usually very face-to-face, but now the red wind represents the tough front, and the tough front is also coming, so this person cleverly lifts the Fan family out.

"You use Fan Jia to pressure me?" Red wind eyes stunned, the fine light burst, giving off a fierce murder!

The guests who can come here are all masters of cultivation, and they are naturally savvy. What happened on this step, where did you get the guests on the second floor?

Who can still have a mood to drink tea, they all ran over the stairs to watch the fun.

It is rare for some people to dare to make trouble in the tough front. They are very excited. They are just a young man. Now this person is carrying out the Fan family and making everyone more excited. The bigger the better.

In the past ten years, if you are old, it is too boring to start from the tough front and to do a big job. It is an interesting one!
