

First Strong 85

Chapter 85 - The bottom of the family is rich.

The coldness of the rain and the palm of your hand is fleeting, appearing quickly, and collecting faster.

Obviously, she just wants to show her identity, and she doesn't want to let Shen Lang misunderstand it to attack him.

However, the contact with this moment has already made Shen Lang feel that this classmate's beautiful school flower for a few years is not only a very good schoolmaster in all aspects of the front, but also a master who is hidden!

Just as she claimed to be a self-cultivator, Shen Lang thought she was swindling him. It is not surprising that she knows the existence of the self-cultivator, but like Yue Zhennan, it is unlikely that she will really be a self-cultivator.

This not only requires a long period of hard work and hard work, but also requires talent! Looking at the book reading in her school for so much time, it is not like having time to cultivate.

But now it is clear that she has not touched the self-cultivator, followed by the self-cultivation of the "realist", not to swindle him, but to achieve the standard of the current self-cultivation, at least to return Yuanjing!

"It's really hidden in the rain, my classmates."

"Shenlang classmates, you are also eye-catching."

Both of them have words in their words, and this handshake does not require Shen Lang to admit it. Rain can confirm that he is a self-cultivator, or else it will just be a flash, it is enough for him to marry. Even shock.

When they wanted to talk in depth, they heard footsteps.

In fact, the footsteps have always been there. The students in their class have just avoided walking. Some students in other classes are still late. Therefore, it is now at the door of the classroom that they are valued.

Shen Lang immediately released his hand, but the rain fell but his hand was not released, unless it was pulled out or opened.

At this time, two girls appeared at the door of the classroom, and they looked like they were missing something. The result has not come in, I will see the hands of Shen Lang and the rain falling!

Who can believe that it is just a polite handshake?

Everyone is a classmate, do you still need to shake hands to meet?

Shen Lang stood, falling in the rain and sitting in the seat, so that the two people's hands were held together, in the eyes of others, that is, Shen Lang reached out and took her up.

"Ah... no, sorry, we are not coming back..."

"That, what, we haven't seen anything, you continue!"

The two girls felt awkward and excited, but they bumped into the two hands. They didn't come in after they finished, they didn't take things, and they hurried away.

"You deliberately."

After the two girls left, the rain fell and the hand holding the waves was released. But this time, Shen Lang did not let go, but grasped her softness.

"Yes." Falling rain directly acknowledges.

"..." I thought she would find an excuse. Now she directly admits it, but instead let Shen Lang know what to say. "why?"

“Don’t you want me to pretend to be your girlfriend?” The rain and the beautiful glimmers flashed a smile.

“It was already pretending yesterday.”

“Do you think your parents have no doubt at all? In the whole school, your parents don’t know other students? Don’t you ask?”

Shen Lang thinks that it really makes sense. Even if it rains well yesterday, it is still too ridiculous, and parents are not at ease.

“So, I should thank you.”

“Can you let go now?”

Shen Lang nodded. He had no intersection with the rain. He could only be the goddess of Yuanwang. There have been several intersections recently, but including returning to his hometown yesterday, everyone still has a stranger.

Under such circumstances, the rain fell to the generous initiative to shake hands with him, just holding on, is obviously a very assertive girl.

“But what?”

He nodded but did not let go, and the rain did not rush.

Shen Lang did not answer, but raised her hand a little, while bowing down, kissed directly on the back of her hand.

“I am also a gentleman once.”

When the lips touched the back of the hand, let the rain stunned him slightly, and then pulled back with a strong hand.

Shen Lang smiled, how calm and calm, compared with him, still tender!

“Where is this medicine coming from?” The rain has shifted the subject, and it is not polite to take out a wet tissue to wipe the back of the hand.

“There is no need to tell you! Anyway, it is not stolen. But since you are a self-cultivator, the efficacy is limited for you. It is all right to drink it all at once.”

He refused to disclose that after the rain fell, he changed the way: “Do you still have a lot?”

Shen Lang smiled uncontrollably.

“I understand!” The rain suddenly reacted, and then said with a smile: “Where do you buy the money from the factory, the money that Yue Zhennan gave you is to sell it with this treasure?”

“What do you think?”

Since it has already arrived, Shen Lang has not concealed so much, the default transaction with Yue Jia, but the previous transaction and Bai Shenghua’s compensation did not say much.

“I thought... you have a leg with him.”

It’s quite a bit embarrassing to fall into the rain. When it comes to the back, the sound is very small and it has become a whisper.

However, there are no other people in the classroom. Shen Lang’s current ear power is far better than ordinary people. Naturally, he hears very clearly.

“What a mess!”

The rain fell and shrugged, and did not explain why I thought about it at the time. “Can make the Yue family give you so much money, it seems that you are not selling this thing cheaply.”

The dark waves of the black line still gave her a blank look. Today’s understanding of the falling rain is really a lot deeper, so the beautiful and elegant temperament of the beautiful woman, actually has a corrupt side.

“That is of course, this thank you can’t be light. You want to buy?”

“Free!” Raining, shaking his head directly: “I can’t afford it.”

“I can’t afford it or can’t see it!” Shen Lang smiled and moved. “What about this thing?”

He took out a Lingshi in front of the palm of his hand.

It’s good to see the rain, but the treasure is still good, but to her realm, unless it is injured, the usual practice is useful, but the demand will be relatively large, so she directly said that there is no interest in buying.

However, Lingshi is not the same. It is much more helpful for cultivation than this soup, and it is easy to carry, and contains a lot of aura.

“It seems that your family is very rich.” The rain fell awkwardly and then sighed: “This is a good thing, but I can’t afford it.”

She has been to Shen Langjia and knows what it is. This is of course a comprehension resource. Obviously, she now feels that Shen Lang is not only a master of the comprehension, but also a master with a rich family.

Can give him refining the treasure and return the soup to change the money, but also directly to a spiritual stone, to see the handwriting of others.

“Send you!”

Shen Lang directly put Lingshi into her hands.
