

First Strong 851

Chapter 851 - Use rules?

The tough attitude of the red wind made the Fan family stunned. They could use the Fan's signature to put pressure on them, but once they were stressed, they did not dare to represent Fan.

"Fan is not only the famous gate of Tangcheng, but also the big passenger of the tough front. Red wind management, do you really want to be a foreigner and offend Fan?"

Another person changed the word and changed it from the perspective of interest.

Offended the Fan family, not to say whether it will fight for revenge, at least will lose a big customer, is this red wind affordable?

He stressed that "the red wind is in charge of things", that is, let the red wind not forget the identity of the tough front.

But what he didn't think was that the red wind actually lifted his foot and stepped on the head of Fan Wei, who was kneeling on the steps!

Such a scene directly changed the face of Mu Haiyuan. It can be said that the red wind is the rule of maintaining the tough front. Now this is the insult to Fan Wei!

"Let's relax!" They screamed together with a few fans.

"Let's let go? The rules of the tough front, you don't understand, you can go and find out. This person directly in the tough front to break the rules of the law, I killed him?"

In the case of red wind, let Fan family not dare to stimulate him anymore. This old boy is crazy! In the unlikely event that Fan Yi's young master is killed, then Fan's anger and the tough front will be done. They will not be well protected and will not end well.

The above-mentioned hilarity is even more exciting, and it is almost loud.

What a thrilling thing, then fight each other, this is a long time no big event!

Anyway, they have nothing to do with them. They are neither made by them nor their relatives and friends. Everyone is secretly trying to cheer up. I hope that the red wind will be hot and will directly blow Fan's neck.

Of course, no one at this time dares to speak up directly, and that will become the target of the public. I hope again, and the face should be persuaded to be right.

“Red wind management, this is a misunderstanding!”

Mu Haiyuan quickly raised his hand and made a gesture of sorry, and then quickly explained: “Fan Hao brother just lost his calm, and did not want to do things in the tough front. We will withdraw from the tough front, please put Fan Fan brother.”

In order to avoid implicating the pastor, he was threatened by the tough front as he threatened with the shepherd. He added a sentence: “This is a request from the younger generation, and we really have no intention of offending.”

Mu Haiyuan's attitude is much better, and herders are more promising than Fan's.

The red wind can only ease the attitude and lift the foot.

“For our guests, Tough Feng has always been firmly defended. Several of them are the young masters of Tangcheng. Now, when the 10th session of the group will be held, I hope that everyone will tolerate it!”

In this case, he naturally has the meaning of mediation. Regardless of the grievances of both sides, let them not find the trouble of Shen Lang.

The guests onlookers, listening to this, could not help but nod their heads, and the tough front can protect the guests, which is still very rare. As long as you are still in the store, you will be protected, even if the enemy is more powerful!

Of course, there are people who think deeper, and think that the red wind is still exaggerated.

These two guests have just been easy to loosen down, so the tough front will pay so much attention. If it is a normal guest, it should not be directly shot, but let them go outside to get started?

“Understand, understand. The principle of the tough front, Haiyuan has always been clear, and it is also very admired. We and this friend, there is no big grudge, just a little friction, young people’s misunderstanding, it is easy to solve, so-called not playing If you don’t know each other, you may become friends.”

Listening to the good words of Mu Haiyuan, Fan Wei is very depressed, how can he become a friend? He can’t wait to kill this foreigner!

However, at this time, he was controlled by the red wind “sneak attack” when he shot, and he was still in front of him and had to bow his head!

He has already made plans in his heart. When he goes back, he will exaggerate this matter and let the Fan family not buy the same weapon from the tough front! Also contact friends who have made good friends, everyone has exerted influence, the best group to block the tough front!

A district selling a weapon, actually dare to be so arrogant, it is really deceiving too much...

“Go!” Red wind then turned to look at Shen Lang, seems to be asking for the meaning of Shen Lang, do you want to stay in the tough front rest?

If Shen Lang said that he would stay for a while, he can take the opportunity to go back to the second-rate tea. But if Shen Lang didn’t mean this, he wouldn’t open his mouth.

Originally, it was normal to be able to set aside. Now that I have to keep in mind, I am a little deliberate and have a few pairs of them, which affects the principle of fairness of the tough front.

Shen Lang is still very appreciative of the red wind just stepping on Fan Wei's head. I didn't expect him to be so mad at an age.

"Okay, you don't have to send it again. You don't want to jump over the clowns, thinking that I use the rules of the tough front to protect."

Shen Lang and his guest set a sentence, and then went down the stairs with the canoe.

On the steps in front of them, Fan Wei, who had just been banned by the red wind, was standing up with grievances and resentment.

Take advantage of the rules of the tough front!

The words of Shen Lang just reminded Fan Wei. He just suffered a loss and did not take into account the rules of the tough front, so that the red wind intervened.

Since this foreigner can use rules to deal with him, why can't he use the rules to deal with this foreign country?

"You! A bandit dog outside, dare to go to Tangcheng to come to the world! First wash your country's mud in the mud and clean it! Do not know where your Lingshi is from where to sell ass!"

"You! A squatting female watch! Do you think that the young master can see you? Also with me proud! The young master is teasing your low-lying villagers!"

Fan Wei suddenly exported into a dirty, let the animal husbandry and other people, and the people onlookers were shocked.

It's good to be a big-family child with a status in Tangcheng. It's just like the act of shoddy and street-stricken, it's really a lost face.

Everyone's reaction Fan Yi did not care, he only saw the face of Shen Lang and the canoe became ugly.

"How? Is it uncomfortable? The young master is yelling at you, not to serve me! Call me!"

He directly put the half of his face to the side of the waves, extremely exhaustive.

This is in the tough front, according to the principles and rules of the tough front, whether it is the guests here, whether active or passive, can not be hands-on, or they will intervene.

Now these two people, if they do it, the red wind will have to be protected and they will have to intervene to stop it.

If you don't do it, you can only be insulted by him in public. He can try his best!

"Snapped—!"

When everyone heard a loud slap in the face, Fan Wei had been fanned down on the steps, the powerful force, and let him continue to roll down the steps, and rolled all the way outside the door, being held by people. Just stop.

Chapter 852 - 1 up

Just everyone was shocked, now it is even more stunned!

Fan Wei is humiliating Sven, so that everyone realizes that the problem has been thrown into the front of Shen Lang. Will he choose to disregard the rules of Ting Feng? Or like Fan Wei, yelling at each other?

As a result, everyone just looked forward to it, and Shen Lang has already taken decisive shots.

"Everyone heard it. He repeatedly asked me to beat him. This kind of request is really rare. But I am a good person. I have to make it difficult for him to do a good job and satisfy his wish."

“Is there a principle in the tough front? Just in the scope of the tough store!”

“Why don’t someone stop blocking? Your principles, your rules, are you selective?”

“Is this specifically for our Fan family?”

It is the animal husbandry, and it is not too hard and semi-soft to ask: “Red wind housekeeper, I think you should explain, or it is difficult to serve.”

“Explain what? If you have no problems with your ears, you should hear it. Just now he told someone to beat him, and he sent his face. Our rules are that no one is allowed to use force. There are special hobbies, abused guests. We are not good at interfering.”

Hearing the response from the red wind, he said a tone with Shen Lang, and the Fan family were angry and protested.

Muhammad certainly cannot accept this explanation.

“I think... just as long as there is no problem in my head, I don’t think Fan Yu is asking for it! I don’t think he is a special hobby!”

“You mean that there is a problem with my head?” Red wind stared directly at him.

“I didn’t say that. I want to remind the Red Wind to manage things. If you want to maintain the reputation of the tough front, you should be fair and just!” Mu Haiyuan did not back down this time and directly collided.

At this time, Shen Lang blew a whistle on the top: “The friend above, the tough front is questioned and unfair. I don’t know you. You should be an objective observer. Have you heard it?”

The above is a lively one, and many of them are a bit too big to make a big difference.

Although it is now questioned by Mu Haiyuan, the people who are just now are Fan Wei, and they are not so worried.

“I have to say that although I am a young man, I have no problem with my ears. That person is really clamoring for people to beat him. This is a bit strange. I am not good at commenting whether it is a special hobby.”

“I don’t think I have a problem with my brain. If I have a problem with my brain, I will stretch my face and ask others to fight.”

“Yes! I also think that this is not a martial law. After all, it is unilateral, and it is the first to ask for it.”

Of course, these openings are not the same. They had seen an easy-going attitude before, and when they looked at the red wind, they were obviously protected.

Since the tough front wants me to support the young man, it is a good thing for them. And can still watch things escalate, why not?

Hearing the “objective views” of these bystanders, Yu Muyuan was depressed.

Fan Yu’s meaning, everyone knows, is to use the rules of the tough front, but now the other side takes up the empty space that is spoken orally on the face, so that he can not refute, is it to say that Fan Wei is to use the tough front?

This time, Mu Haiyuan wants to let Fan Hao come by himself. After all, Fan Wei has been guilty, and he can continue to stir the water even more!

In the end, he still cherishes the feathers. He should be careful that the herdsmen should not be implicated too much. Now it is just a personal friend's loyalty.

But looking around, I saw Fan Wei, who was helped by Fan's family, and I was still in a coma!

The previous time, Shen Lang directly flew Fan Fan out to the outside of the trading floor, but there was no more injuries, just let him fall into the shackles.

Now this time, although it just rolled down from the steps, it doesn't look as heavy as before, but it makes him completely unconscious!

Fan Yan's face was swollen before, and when it got here, it has faded. However, just after Shen Lang, not only let his half face swollen and hoe, but also with a finger print.

"Your shot is too embarrassing!" Muhaiyuan is full of anger.

No matter who is right or wrong, Fan Wei is his buddy, of course he is going to help himself.

He waved his hand and gestured to the Fan family to carry Fan Wei across the street, so as not to be accidentally injured.

"Please ask the young master, Huang Shaoye to take care of the young master!"

The three people who Fan Yan called were the guest of the Fan family. Now in front of them, Fan Wei is labeled like this, of course they can't stop.

Just a little red wind management, but also let them hesitate, after all, a red wind is nothing, but the later tough front has to pay attention.

It's not the same now, but it's two foreigners who don't seem to have any deep background except for a few bad money.

As for why the red wind is biased towards this foreigner, in their view, it is not partiality, but the red wind has a sense of justice and favors the weak!

Fan Wei did not have any good reputation. I just said that it is definitely more convincing, including those who watch the fun, and believe that he is bullying the female.

They didn't even think about the relationship between the tough front and Shen Lang, but they were biased toward the weak. Just after Shen Lang had stunned Fan Wei, there was no reason for the red wind.

And Shen Lang can stun Fan Yu, including the previous flight, in their view, it is because of the sneak attack!

After all, it's just that Fan Wei is too convinced of the rules. I believe that the red wind will stop and take the initiative to send the face to the past.

Really want to be positive, can they be weaker than a young man?

Mu Haiyuan has just been in the early stage of Fan Yi, but also had to be in the first place. Friends of his peers were stunned. If he still sits still, his reputation will be bad.

Now a few of the fans of Fan's family have to take things over. Of course, he is also pushing the boat and does not need to participate in person.

When they were assigned, Shen Lang had already come out with a canoe to the door of the tough front.

Looking at the lively on the second floor, they all followed the steps down, and inside, at the door of the tough front.

The conflicts just here have also allowed people passing by to find that more people join in the crowd.

However, if you can drink tea at the tough front, it is all for consumption. Whether it is local or not, there are strengths and strengths. And the ones passing by, really many passers-by, the strength is general, so that they dare not approach.

“If you want to hit it, why?”

One of them also wanted to say a reason for justice. Shen Lang interrupted his words and then stretched out.

He let the canoe stand next to the door. Once there is any danger, he will go to the tough front to take refuge.

“You three together! Come on, I have to go back to the inn to eat after the fight.”

Chapter 853 - 1 beat 3!

Shen Lang will be this attitude, really not arrogant, or deliberately stimulate them. But at a glance, it is obvious that these people are stronger than Fan Wei, but they are equivalent to the middle of the realm.

Fan Wei is almost the strength of the early days of the realm. These three are even in the middle of the realm of the gods. For the current Shenlang, it is really easy to flatten.

Since you can't avoid hitting it, it's better to solve it one by one, and how much can give a little deterrent to this animal husbandry, lest they continue to make small moves.

However, he said this, listening to the ears of everyone in the scene, I feel that this is arrogant, I do not know the words of the sky!

I have to look at the excitement, of course, don't care. Anyway, the bigger the better, the better. If you can tie the tough front, you can have more fun.

Since the young man took the initiative to pick one, they certainly followed suit.

“Good! Have aspirations!”

“I am not willing to be old, don’t think that young people will not do it!”

“Yes. Haha, the heroes of Tangcheng are sure, but don’t look down on our foreigners!”

The red wind is a dark frown. Everyone’s squatting directly makes Shen Lang have no retreat. They must fight one of them three.

However, he did not say anything, still kept in the store, and did not go out to intervene outside.

The situation here, he believes that the brothers are not always paying attention to the whole process. Since he has not ordered him to pass the sound, he can only stand still.

“Good! Young and prosperous! Since we look down on us, then we will not be dead, so we will fight it out.”

“Everyone can make a testimony. This is not because we are bullying the weak, but there is something wrong with it. You are watching the young Fan Yi...”

“Too!”

When they still wanted to create a foundation for public opinion, Shen Lang shook his head and started to work directly.

The gas is in the air, and it doesn’t look good. The three of them are also spelled out. The actual experience and attitude are still there.

When they first spoke, they were already in a state. At this moment, Shen Lang suddenly started to work and did not form a sneak attack on them.

The three of them also shot quickly and assisted each other to form a shelter. As long as the Shen Lang attacked one of them, they must be attacked by the other two!

But let everyone not think of it, let them themselves did not think, obviously prepared, and cover each other, but the speed of Shen Lang is too fast, hard to survive in the attack of one of them, turn left Attack the second person!

And they have not had time to adjust to keep up, he has already been to the third person!

Only in a flash, he has quickly ran a large circle around the three of them, and everyone hit the chest!

When they started to shoot, the onlookers, even if they were strong, were staring at them without fear. They were afraid to miss a detail.

But what surprised them was that Shen Lang had neither a hegemonic weapon nor a magic weapon. It was by speed, with his fist, almost at the same time, playing three people in different directions and flying out!

The three who played against him were also masters, but they were not the enemy of his punches. Without the power of resistance, they flew out without moving.

This picture is enough to shock everyone's eyes!

Because for Shen Lang, they all feel very mysterious, and their mental strength is very high, it is difficult to see through his truth, he can only speculate on his strength from his age.

But the strength of the other three people is that everyone knows a rough one.

Now, a young man in Shenlang, who shot the three people directly, has exceeded everyone's expectations.

What everyone did not expect was that after three people fell on the ground, they could not move and did not fight again.

That is to say, Shen Lang is completely a enemy, and they are all subdued!

Poor three of them, although they have shot, but they have not had the chance to meet the enemy, there is no chance for a second shot.

“Go!”

Shen Lang seems to be not moving, still standing at the door of the tough front shop, finished the rafting, and put a hand on the red wind in the store and other watching the lively, believing, and then leave directly.

Just his hand, it is too domineering, so that there is still no return to the lively, still thinking about how he just did it.

The face of Makino is a lot whiter.

I thought that this foreigner relied on the sharpness of the teeth, and the hands were all sneak attacks. As long as the shots were bright, Fan Yi was also sure to be hard. I didn't expect it to be such a situation.

He is very fortunate at this moment. Fortunately, just a few people from Fan's family are going to be in the first place. Otherwise, it's a shame that he is a former son.

If he is shameful, it is not a personal face, but the face of the entire shepherd is affected!

Huang Wei's face is even more ugly. He has been blending before. Now he discovers that Shen Lang's failure to take care of him is his luck, otherwise he will be the same.

Shen Lang is leaving, no one of them dares to step forward, from the tough front shop to the outside street, everyone sees the waves and the canoe fly away.

Everyone is asking who the young man is, so powerful.

The red wind in the store of the Tingfeng store is not only satisfied with the scene, but it is beyond expectations. He is also directly turning to the building at the moment, and he does not care about Mu Haiyuan and others.

When you look at the busy guests, you rush to come and ask him. Red wind is accompanied by one time. You should know the information of this guest.

Mu Haiyuan smiled a bit I began to look down at Fan Wei's situation and let Huang Wei go to see the situation of the three people.

Shen Lang has just been able to achieve a defeat of three, in addition to the strength of the crush, the other party is still seriously underestimated him, including the surrounding lively, almost no one knows his true strength, so they are shocked.

In fact, under his quick shots, it is not a simple punch to make this look, but when punching out, there is already a slap in the moon!

When he was boxing in the other's chest, a 鑒月針 has already burst into the other's Dantian!

Therefore, the opponent who is attacking is directly paralyzed, and then he is shot and flew out.

Just because his entire speed is too fast, and far exceeds everyone's imagination, his eyes are still tracking his figure, where you can see that there is a needle to follow.

The lunar needle is not a general hidden weapon. After the attack, he was directly taken back by him. The three men did not use the same needle, but flew a needle when they punched. Therefore, the trajectories of the three lunar needles are very short, and they are not flying in the middle of three people.

Chapter 854 - Xu Haoyue's expectation

Back to the VIP Building Inn, Shen Lang immediately went to see Xu Haoyue.

“Mr. What happened?” Xu Haoyue was a little surprised.

Shen Lang certainly has nothing to do, and if it is dangerous, he will also feel it.

“You have to be mentally prepared.”

If you are in the dark, let Xu Haoyue be surprised.

Then he smiled: “To be honest, at my age, there is really nothing that can make me mentally prepared.”

If he has lived for hundreds of years, if he can’t climb the peak, he will basically get tired. Even if he told him to hang up, he wouldn’t have any tangles.

Shen Lang also smiled: “You misunderstood, I made you mentally prepared, not necessarily telling you what bad news, but a message you always wanted to know.”

Xu Haoyue’s eyes have changed. If it is the news he always wanted to know, there is only one!

“Small high news.”

Even if Shen Lang has already taken vaccinations, but after hearing this news, Xu Yuyue is so real-world, so old, still can not help but breathe.

“Mr.’s meaning... Big Brother is also coming to this world? Is there news?”

Shen Lang nodded: “I just saw a sword like Liu Yejian in a large weapons store in the local area. I felt a sentence like Liu Yejian. The result was that the other party was careful...”

He then said the things of Ting Feng and Qiu Lin Jianzong again.

After listening to these words, Xu Haoyue couldn’t help but scream.

“I didn’t expect Big Brother and Big Brother Lin to be here, and they also raised a Qiulin sword. It is a tall brother! The most useless is me.”

Even if there is no return to hell, there is no chance to return. In another world, it is still open to the school. This is not the big brother he worships!

However, he was alone, and even the apprentice did not receive one. Before the encounter with Shen Lang, a mysterious tiger accompanied him.

“When are we...”

He can't wait to go to the Qiulin swords to see the clues of what remains in the cold autumn and Lin Biao.

Shen Lang shook his head: “This information is too shocking. It is such a big shock for you. It is the same for others. Suddenly a person comes out and says that he knows the ancestors hundreds of years ago, and you will feel incredible.”

“This is true.” Xu Haoyue nodded, but he encountered Shen Lang, and he was unbelievable.

“So we have to give them a little time. I believe that it is easy to start talking to Qiu Lin Jianzong, or go directly to the elders and ask. But...”

Shen Lang looked at Xu Haoyue, but did not say it later.

Xu Xiaoyue smiled and said: “I understand that such a long time has passed, even if the predecessor of Qiu Lin Jianzong is estimated to be the disciple of Gao Da Ge. Just...”

He did not say anything behind him, just looking at the dark waves, hoping to get confirmation from Shen Lang.

Shen Lang knows that he is hoping that they will still be alive in the cold autumn, but obviously hopes!

Xu Haoyue can live for so long because he went to the forest of death very early. It is equal to a person living in a paradise. He has basically not encountered any danger. With his continuous improvement, he will naturally survive for a long time.

But Gao Hanqiu and Lin Biao are different.

When I came here, I wanted to compete with the local “indigenous” martial art. I finally founded this Qiu Lin Jianzong. I don’t know how many years later, it must be after a lot of hard work.

This process, even if there is no major damage, it is impossible to coexist peacefully for hundreds of years.

Besides, even if there are no casualties, the resources here are far better than the earth, including the dead forest, then he should also break through to a higher level and should leave early.

However, Xu Haoyue waited for hundreds of years, Shen Lang could not bear to directly let him despair, or nodded affirmatively.

“Of course! You have all survived, and they certainly may have survived. Even if they are not in the Qiulin swords, they may just travel to other places.”

Xu Haoyue nodded, and he also had counts in his heart. He knew that Shen Lang was comforting, especially the last sentence, which almost equals him in advance to comfort him in Qiu Lin Jianzong.

“In any case, this is a wish that I will get paid soon.”

After he finished speaking, he bowed long to Shen Lang.

“Thank you, Mr.! If you haven’t met you, I am still in the forest of death, and I am so bored to live with Xiaohei.”

Shen Lang laughed and said: “Even if you want to pay for it, you don’t have to lose the motivation to live! My strength is still low, I hope you can protect and point me.”

“Hey! Protector is what I should do, but I don’t dare to give pointers. Only you can give me some advice.”

In front of Big Brother’s eldest brother, Xu Haoyue never dared to rely on old and old, and Shen Lang was really able to convince him, even if his age and appearance changed, his memory of knowledge and experience did not change.

After Shen Lang returned, he had already ordered to prepare lunch.

After they finished talking, the restaurant in the VIP building was ready, or the Yan Xiaoqi brought it over, and he himself stayed to help.

“Several objective people did not go to the trading floor today? It’s a pity, I missed the big fun!”

“What a big excitement?” Shen Lang asked with a smile: “Let’s listen, we don’t know anything outside.”

The canoe played a secret kick for him. Needless to say, it should be what they are today!

“What happened to the foreigners? I want to say that many people in Tangcheng are self-proclaimed here and still proud of themselves. Like everyone traveling around the world, it is really a big vision! I am envious.”

“Oh, you can talk. Tell me about it!”

The staff of Yan Xiaoqi’s inn, of course, is talking to the guests. When he entertains several foreigners, can he say that foreigners are swearing?

“Yes, yes! It’s very lively! There are a few foreigners today. It is said that the sons of several big families in Tangcheng have been cut off!”

Count Dracula did not care about these things, and Xu Haoyue certainly knew that they were sinking them.

“How much is it?” Shen Lang looked curious.

“You don’t know! It is said that Fan, the son of Fan, was directly beaten into an idiot. When he was unconscious, he became an idiot!”

When I said this, Yan Xiaoqi still lowered the sound and looked outside. It seems that people are afraid.

“There are also Huang Zigong, who is said to have been beaten into a pig’s head!”

“It is the former son of the shepherd’s animal husbandry, the strongest of them, and it is said that they are also being beaten to find their teeth, begging for mercy!”

“The Fan family still has a few people together and is said to have been killed directly in the street!”

Shen Lang can’t smile, this is just three people into a tiger, how long it took, the news spread, and the more outrageous.

“Is there such an exaggeration, have you seen it?”

“Where can I see it, but I’m saying it outside. There must be no wind and no waves, and it is said that it is at the door of the Tingfeng head office. Many people have seen it, and it must be wrong.”

Shen Lang slammed a few words from the side and found that he didn’t even know that it was the rumor that he had added vinegar and sent him away.

Chapter 855 - Fan Jia kills the door

“What are you doing?” Count Dracula asked directly.

Shen Lang smiled and nodded: “It is indeed us. But it is not as exaggerated as he said, we are all good people.”

The old vampire didn’t say anything. For him, good people are not good people, and they have no meaning. Like Xu Haoyue, they have long been ignorant.

After the afternoon, they did not go out again.

Lost in the canoe to get the drug that suits her, continue to race against time, and the nebula chain is not studied for the time being.

Shen Lang himself did not have the excitement of Xu Haoyue, because in the Tianshan Jianzong, the younger disciples who saw the high cold autumn, including the immediate descendants, have already been excited once, and now they can be very calm.

Today, the trading floor is a glimpse of it. With a general impression, there are still a lot of things to be dug. In general, there will be many different items coming out tomorrow and the day after tomorrow.

But this is a place that costs too much, and Lingshi is not rich enough...

Now he is a little bit of a forum, an argument, and so on. I want to hear the famous masters here.

Stones from other hills, can learn!

His previous experience helped Yuxianmen, and perhaps the high-ranking people here can also give him great insights.

As for the young talents, he is not interested.

Today, I have already played against the young talents here!

They should be regarded as the best of the younger generation, and surely there are some more outstanding geniuses everywhere. But there will be no more surprises for Shen Lang.

However, Shen Lang wants to be free and free.

For a few hours, it was enough for the snakes to act – Fan Jia has already found their foothold!

When the Fan family “sends troops” to the VIP building, the people from the store to the residents, including the people around them, are nervous.

Seeing that this is a big fight, everyone does not want to be tired.

The VIP building is the most depressing...

When such a large-scale event, I was afraid that someone would cause trouble and drag them together.

However, these residents are high-level monks who do not dare to warn others not to make trouble. Even if something is wrong now, I don't dare to blame anything. I can only apologize to Fan's nod.

However, Fan Jialai's people will not tear down the inn. They are looking for Shenlang.

This time, people are naturally much higher than Fan Wei and the previous three, and they also brought a group of people.

He still maintained his demeanor and directly let the people who were brought outside waiting for him. Only he was alone in the main building hall of the inn.

But this is not so much a demeanor, it is better to say a demonstration!

People outside, that is ready to fight, so that people inside and outside can feel the pressure.

“Guest, guest officer...” Yan Xiaoqi was ordered by the boss to ask Shen Lang this target person.

“Today's business... is it really you, are you doing it?”

He is a bit stuttering, a little unbelievable, after all, he still boasted with Shen Lang before.

“Don’t worry, I will take a trip with you, they won’t take the VIP building.”

Shen Lang did not let him be embarrassed, first said for him. Since Fan Jia came to the door, he will go out to meet.

“I am with you.” Xu Haoyue also came out.

Count Dracula naturally came out. Although he didn’t care about these things, he is now a group. Some people come to the door, and the trouble of finding a partner, of course, he can’t sit idly by.

“Count Dracula, you take care of the light boat for me, let’s go.”

Shen Lang did not refuse Xu Haoyue, but slammed the count of Count Dracula, so that Fan family would not be able to adjust the tiger to the mountain, and it would be a little trouble to catch the boat.

“Good.” Count Dracula had no more words, but since he stated his position, there would be no problem.

Yan Xiaoqi looked at them again, and they all kept the battle, and feared that they were unhappy, they screwed his head down. – He still believes that several Fan people have been killed!

If it wasn’t for the Fan family, if it wasn’t for Fan Yi’s son to be idiot, would it be just a little friction to let the Fan family move to find the door?

Leading the way in front, bypassing the courtyard, and coming to the main building lobby, seeing the situation inside, has been very different from the one he just left.

Inside the hall, the leader of Fanjia himself sat alone. There were no guests around, and all of them were evacuated to the side and left far away.

But everyone did not leave, but kept watching the lively gesture, just did not want to be caught and fish.

When Yan Xiaoqi was the most advanced, he did not hear the story of “Fox Huwei”, but at this time, he experienced the same situation.

However, he did not have the slightest pride, but tremendous pressure!

After entering, he did not dare to say anything, did not dare to stay, and quickly trembled to the side of the boss and others.

For everyone in the hall, there is no Yan Xiaoqi, everyone’s eyes directly penetrate or ignore him, watching the waves behind him!

Today’s news, everyone has heard more or less, after the Fan family came, it is their own voice exchange, already know more.

They were a little surprised when they saw the age of Shen Lang.

Just like a young man, it is said that with a girl, he took the sons of the three big families in Tangcheng?

However, those who live here in the inn, of course, are foreigners from afar. They have no good feelings for the Fan family who discriminate against “outside dogs.”

Compared with Shen Lang’s doubts, Xu Yanyue, who followed him, has a lot of self-confidence.

“Fan Yunduan of Fanjia in the Lower Tang Dynasty! I don’t know how this senior is called?”

The Fan family was waiting for a bit impatient in the inn, and finally saw the Lord came out, and directly attacked.

He asked this question directly, ignoring the Shen Lang, and seeing Xu Haoyue.

“My name is Xu.” Xu Haoyue said a little.

“You want to be a high-ranking person who is a prominent person I will honor you as a predecessor.”

The surface age of Fan Yunduan seems to be about fifty or sixty years old. In fact, it does not seem too different from Xu Haoyue. Such a name is naturally polite.

For Xu Haoyue, it is also affordable to call him a senior.

“I don’t know how the predecessors taught their disciples. Your disciple, today injured four of our Fan family. I think it shouldn’t be your intention? Or is there any place where we have offended you?”

After Fan Yunduan first served the soldiers, after the politeness, he directly attacked.

Everyone is refreshed and wants to see how they will do it.

Xu Haoyue frowned. “Who are you talking about? How can this be my disciple, a person I respect very much, and it is okay to say that my teacher.”

When the words came out, the scene was stunned.

Chapter 856 - How many kills me?

Shen Lang and Xu Yuyue came out together. From the aspects of grade, demeanor and realm, everyone would think that Xu Yuyue was an elder.

Everyone’s reaction is that since the parents of Fan have come, this kid is also moving out the Master.

Fan Yunduan is also a matter of course to say hello directly to Xu Haoyue. He did not expect that he would answer this question.

When everyone didn’t know what to say, Xu Haoyue asked another question.

“You four people can’t beat a person. Shouldn’t you feel ashamed? How can you be so confident?”

When this statement came out, Fan Yunduan could not speak.

Other people can’t help but laugh, right! Even if I don’t know what level the Fan’s four people are saying, they can’t be ordinary people.

And this young man, how to look very young, one person injured four people, it is indeed a shameful thing for Fan.

“Hey! If it’s a bright and bright hand, don’t say four people, even if it’s a person, our Fan family will not lose. You...the respected person, but the sneak attack!”

Fan Yunduan immediately turned his back and turned the results to the result of the sneak attack.

There was no talking wave, and he smiled and asked: “Then you have to be ready, and the cockroaches outside of you are ready, don’t be beaten, and rely on my sneak attack.”

Fan Yunduan’s face changed.

“It is said that all of you are foreign friends. Our Fan family is also somewhat identifiable in Tangcheng. In order not to give others the impression of being bullied, I am very good to talk to you. You mean, you have nothing to talk about?”

His tone was so majestic, he placed himself at a high position and then threatened to warn him.

After all, he is not the same as Fan Wei, and it is so open to the public. If it is not taken into account, it is easy to be attacked by others.

“Of course, I have to talk about it.” Shen Lang kept smiling and his attitude was very friendly.

“If you represent your fan family... Fan Wei? It is on his behalf to apologize to me, I can accept it a lot. Although I don't know how to raise my father, there are a few scums. Very normal.”

Fan Yunduan heard the words in front of Shen Lang and thought that under pressure, Shen Lang had to bow his head.

When I heard the back, my face turned black!

“If you say this, I can think of fighting the Fan family!”

This time his tone has become fierce, and the air is filled with gunpowder.

Others who were already watching the excitement were both excited and ready to evacuate, so as not to be caught in the pool.

“How about the war? I have to see how many people in your Fan family are enough for me to kill!” Shen Lang also put away a smile.

This Fan Yun Duo is directly to pressure, it seems that the first step is to need a public apology, and then may bring back to Fanjia.

They didn't understand the matter at all, they didn't do it directly, they just worried about the impact. In this case, the explanation has not been discussed.

Shen Lang said this, and immediately filled the hall with a chilling atmosphere.

The inn clerk, I was hiding.

While watching the lively foreign monks, although the feeling that Shen Lang is a newborn calf is not afraid of tigers, but also had to take this domineering.

A foreigner, without a tail, is a man, but dares to threaten the local family of snakes... This momentum is awesome.

And the thoughtful, but also from this sentence, pondered a lot of information.

Now they see, there are two Shen Lang and Xu Haoyue, and perhaps there are associates, it is estimated that there are three or five. Fan family is not the same, the base camp is here, do not say a few hundred, at least there will be hundreds of dozens, dozens of people?

Even if Fan has a group of masters, it is impossible for all of them to be masters. Those old and weak women and women with poor strength are not killed.

If Fan Yunduan is fierce enough, he can now wipe them all out and finish. But looking at this posture, it is obviously impossible.

Once they left the VIP building and mixed into the sea of Tangcheng, they deliberately hid and wanted to find out, it was not so easy. When people are in the dark, they can directly kill the Fan family and destroy most of the industry!

Enough!

Fan Yunduan, apparently also associates with the content behind this sentence, making his face ugly.

In particular, the chill that just said Shen Lang said this time, let him suspect that this really did it!

Didn't you really do it? When the strength is not strong enough, once the Chu Mofeng is an insurmountable mountain, Shen Lang has come to Chu to have such a tactic.

The atmosphere at the scene froze, and Fan Yunduan now wants to make troubles and dare not bother.

At this time, a lot of people suddenly came out at the door!

All were brought by Fan Yunduan, they were all outside. But the content of the conversation inside can still be heard.

There are still some thoughts that are not so meticulous, and they are just getting bigger!

A foreign kid in the district, actually feels threatening to kill everyone in Fan? If you don't do it, will you still have a face to mix in the future?

So I immediately rushed over, and everyone's emotions came up. Once someone took the lead, everyone else followed them.

Fan Yunduan didn't have to look back, but he was also aware of it.

However, he did not stop it, because now he is caught in a stalemate in riding a tiger, and the pressure from many Fan family members may bring him a break!

"On these chickens and dogs?"

Shen Lang revealed a smile.

Fan Yunduan in front of him has reached the level of the late stage of the realm of the gods, and now it is mainly the beginning of the realm of the gods, that is, the level of Fan Wei and those few people.

It can be seen that even if Fan Jia pays attention to it, he still does not realize the seriousness of the problem. He still feels that a young man in Shenlang can knock down the four of them, relying on the sneak attack.

Native chicken!

I heard the words of Shen Lang I have a lot of fun, and I am angry.

This kid is really crazy!

Because the real realm is high and there is a status and status of foreign amnesty, in Tangcheng, there is no friend to invite to live, but also booked the best inn early.

Most of the people who live in the VIP building are still relatively poor, and quite a few of them are in the realm of the realm, or in the early days of the realm.

It is said that they are as strong as they are, and they are more powerful than theirs. They are called chickens and dogs. Naturally, they also feel that they have received maps.

“Fan’s son, do you want to be called a chicken and a dog?” Fan Yunduo stunned.

“Do not.....”

The Fan family behind them roared out, but what everyone didn’t think was that the sound that should have been loud and angry, like the one who was stunned by the scorpion, only a faint sigh, and could not be made later.

Chapter 857 - Strong crushing

This reaction alone has already changed Fan Yunduan’s face, and then he saw the surprise of the crowd watching the opposite side. He also quickly turned around and looked at it.

This look makes him even more shocked!

The family of Fan, who had just arrived at the door, seemed to be caught in the neck at this moment. They couldn’t make a sound at all, and the whole person could not move.

Between the time of the day, everyone seemed to be completely uncontrollable by the puppets carrying the line, and then they fell down on the ground one by one, and the stack of arhats piled up like a pile, and everyone had no movement and sound.

Fan Yunduan turned back again and stared at Shen Lang and Xu Haoyue.

“Take these chickens and dogs! If you want to continue, we will stay with you!”

It’s Xu Haoyue’s speech. He’s just starting him. To be precise, he needs to do it, and he directly crushes that group of people!

At the moment, he was also impatient with the wave of sleeves, and Fan Yunduan, who wanted to talk, flew straight out and landed at the top of the crowd.

And everyone saw it really, when he just fell, he vomited a big mouthful of blood!

So many people have given him a human mat. Direct impact will not have much impact. Obviously this is the attacking force of Xu Qianyue.

Everyone is impressed, Xu Haoyue is undoubtedly the highest in the realm of the scene, and no one can see his specific strength.

Even so, I know how powerful he is.

Because Fan Yunduan's strength is strong, everyone still feels it, and in front of Xu Haoyue, don't say it's hard to beat, it's just a wave of it, how big is the gap!

This strength revealed by Xu Weiyue's exhibition, coupled with his previous attitude towards Shen Lang, seems to be even more mysterious.

Even with such great power and respect as a teacher, will this young man not have a huge head?

For a time, everyone was very fortunate. Fortunately, there was no gloating and no help.

Later, because of the same label of "outsiders", they were given a sense of honor and glory, as if they had sighed for everyone and pushed down the local family of Tangcheng.

"Thank you for not killing, I must bring my words!"

Fan Yunduan also couldn't see the strength of Xu Haoyue. He thought it was only a little stronger than him. He didn't expect to be so strong.

Just now he has already realized that if someone else wants to kill him, it is just between the fingers. The same is true for those who want to kill them.

Therefore, he has already deeply realized that Shen Lang said that there are many people in Fanjia who are enough to kill him. This is not an exaggeration, but a real threat!

By this time, he also realized that this time he kicked the iron plate.

If you really want to ruin the Fan family half—not necessarily win, this huge cost is impossible to fight. In comparison, I would rather sacrifice my face.

And count it, now this time lost face, but also looking for it. It can be said that it is the friction of young people, even if it is laughter, it is harmless.

As a result, in order to give Fan Yi a head, in order to maintain the face of the Fan family, so much fanfare, but lost a bigger face!

Then again, from the situation, he also felt that Fan Yi's four people were limited in injury. It's already a great legacy of others. If it's for Fan, these two waves can be killed directly!

Fan Yunduan ignored his own injury. After finishing the scene, he immediately threw the people out and quickly threw them into the beast.

The Fan family who drives, naturally, quickly settles people.

However, a few seconds of work, the pile of people piled up at the door, has been cleaned up, Fan Yunduan also left.

Listening to the sound of the faraway car, everyone looked at Shen Lang and they were full of awe.

“Boss, if we continue to live here, do you dare to accept it?”

Shen Lang looked around and shouted at everyone, saying hello, and then asked the innkeeper who was hiding far away.

Just the innkeeper is already asking God to worship Buddha, hoping not to fight. Although it was not a peaceful solution, he did not dismantle the inn. He was already greatly relieved.

Now the problem of Shen Lang, let him pick it up again.

If they continue to live here, Fanjia continues to come to trouble? This time, there is no success. Will the next time come to more and more powerful masters?

But if you don't agree at this time, can this person who can easily repel Fan's family, if it is angry? Still not here, I have turned it over!

Seeing that the boss could not answer, the Yan Xiaoqi had the courage to say a word.

"After today's events, the two must be the characters in the city. Maybe there will be heroes coming here to get a look. If they can continue to live in our VIP building, it will increase our popularity. We are of course very happy."

"Yes, yes, we are very happy!"

The boss did not think that Yan Xiaoqi was the embarrassing one, but helped him to get out in time.

In this case, the situation was named. Not only may Fan family come back to trouble, but there will also be a large number of people coming over.

If they don't want to be onlookers, they might choose to leave, so they won't offend anyone.

"If this is the case, then we will continue to live. Give you more visibility, can you save the room?"

"what?"

A word of Shen Lang, let the VIP building owner once again smashed up.

How... How did you agree? Not afraid to be onlookers?

Compared to the consequences of offending them, there is also visibility, and the benefits of passenger flow in recent days, the room rate is nothing.

After he finished speaking, he and Xu Haoyue went back.

After they left, and after they had gone far, everyone had a heated discussion like a frying pan.

However, everyone on the scene did not recognize the two people who belonged to what party, only to be sure that the cow is very arrogant but can not know their origin.

The owner of the VIP building will still do business.

Since the facts have been so unchangeable, then the crisis has not yet appeared, try to make more business and make more money.

If you can't go out, how can there be more people around to watch the fun? No one is coming, how can there be more consumption?

So he immediately pushed Yan Xiaoqi out and said that when they entered the city yesterday, Yan Xiaoqi brought it here, and he has always been entertaining, perhaps revealing more information.

Ever since, the guests warmly greeted Yan Xiaoqi in the past and asked him to tell the story of the two guests.

Yan Xiaoqi is also a shrewd person. Shen Lang continues to stay here, which shows that he does not care about Fan, so he is not worried.

As for the information about the disclosure of Shen Lang, he actually has nothing to disclose. Now it is also an active atmosphere, allowing the guests to talk more about the spread of capital.

Chapter 858 - Not good, Shen Lang brought people here!

In fact, the fire of the gossip here is also very strong.

Especially the multi-year-old group meeting, this is the gathering of people from all sides, everyone wants to watch all kinds of excitement. Regular activities have not yet begun, and such friction is a good topic.

Whether it is a gathering of friends that has not been seen for many years, or a new friend, this matter has become a topic that everyone is very open.

Therefore, even without the Internet and mobile phones, things have spread throughout the Tang Dynasty overnight.

The VIP building naturally benefited a lot. Fan did not arrange for people to come over. Everyone who heard the news wanted to come to see it.

The residence is already full, and a lot of it is to eat and drink.

However, they were sent directly to the room and no one saw it.

Unwilling people, but also heard more details, including the name of Shen Lang.

No one knows here, and there is nothing to avoid. So Shen Lang represents a few of them, registering in the VIP building, and using the real name directly.

Ever since, the name Shen Lang has spread to the high-level comprehension community in Tangcheng.

As for the news that only spread out from the VIP building, it is still easy and hard, and Shen Lang is not known. In fact, to what extent he spreads, he does not know.

The next day, a series of activities of the group was officially opened.

They are a few of them, and they want to go to the famous forum.

The result was that when I went out, I found out that inside and outside the VIP building were people who came to see him!

The innkeeper with a little nervous and flattering expression, said that they arranged the beast car for Shen Lang, listened to their call all day, and wanted to go anywhere.

For this kindness, Shen Lang has not accepted it. Tangcheng is too big, sitting in a buggy car or delaying time, they fly straight in the past, can save a lot of time, it is not difficult to find a destination from the air.

There are some people who have no clear goals, and they are also prepared to follow the crowds. The place where they go is definitely worth a visit.

I didn't expect people to take the buggy car directly and disrupt their plans.

Many of the animal cars that have been called outside the VIP building have been abandoned.

However, after a night, the rumors of the outside world became more and more fierce. The Shenlang was also exaggerated and even deified. Therefore, those who are ready to follow them feel that since they are not willing to take the buggy, they must go to a more important place!

For a time, everyone followed them in the air to fly, for fear that they could not be pulled down.

In the past few days, there have been a lot of foreign comprehensions flying around, but even if they are peers, there are usually three or five people, and it will not cause too much sensation or influence.

Now, with the four people flying in the air, at least dozens of people are flying behind!

They seem to be the head geese in the geese team, forming a square.

When flying through the air, it was a bit of a feeling of pressure, and the comprehensions in the inn, the street, etc. were strangely surprised.

Congregational psychology, let them also doubt whether something big happened, or how could so many people fly in one direction?

Ever since, many people have let go of the things at hand, and they have skyrocketed and the swordsman has followed suit.

Shen Lang, they are preparing to go to the first forum.

Although I don't know all the famous masters, today, in the first game, there should be a taste of the opening mode, which is definitely enough for the guests. These forums and arguments are not worth pursuing. You can know a little about this in this game.

There are also a large number of comprehensions who have come to listen to this "famous forum". They have the advantage of staying close and have already arrived at the scene.

The activities have not yet begun. Everyone is still a regular social, in addition to friends with their peers, looking for friends who have no friends, or meeting new people.

At this time, someone exclaimed.

For a time, everyone looked at him in the direction he pointed, and immediately saw the scene of black pressure on a large comprehension flying over! Even if you look far, there are hundreds of people!

"What is wrong with this? Is there a big enemy invasion?"

"Should... no? Is it a big sect?"

"Which gate group has such a momentum? Are all the masters coming over?"

“Is this a big deal?”

Everyone has been talking about it for a while, and they are all nervous. If there is an enemy invasion, they can be prepared to deal with it.

The staff responsible for the safety and order of this “queue” is a big increase in pressure. This is completely an unexpected situation. I have not heard of any sects coming to the scene in this state.

The person in charge of the scene did not dare to neglect, and immediately flew into the air, and then greeted him in advance.

“I don’t know where the high man is, so passionately come? Can you lower the speed and go on?”

Followed by more and more people, Shen Lang, of course, they also found out, but they do not know what these people are doing, are flying in the sky, can not be expelled not let people go, right?

At this moment, I heard the sound of the front, and then looked at the appearance of the staff wearing the venue staff. I immediately knew that the scene scared the staff below.

“My name is Shen Lang, even if I am a tall man. Is there a position?”

Seeing that they stopped in the air, everyone kept a distance of ten feet. The person in charge saw this attitude, and when he heard the request, he was relieved a little, and it seemed that he was not doing anything.

Shen Lang? Is that the last wave that everyone has been talking about from last night to today?

As soon as he realized this, the person in charge began to grow up.

This Shenlang is not a good thing. It is said that the Fan family’s team was killed yesterday without a film, and more than 10 deaths and injuries!

not good! Is he not a few people?

Why did you bring so many people together this time? There are at least a few hundred people!

“Yes! Your seat must be there!”

The person in charge greeted up to and immediately expressed a good attitude. If there is no seat, what if this kid turns his face?

It is said that one or two people have turned over Fan’s so many people. Now I don’t know where to bring hundreds of people, who dares to offend him!

When he was close, he showed helpless smiles and said in a small voice: “Shen... predecessors, although there are still seats, I can arrange the best seats for you. But you have hundreds of them... then There is really no way...”

Shen Lang can’t smile, how many things about him in the back, can only say that everyone can get along with them, can they pack their seats?

“It doesn’t matter, just give us four seats, they are casual.”

Upon hearing this promise, the person in charge was overjoyed, and immediately ignored the “following” of the latter, directly led the four people to sink, then entered the venue and led directly to the best position in front of the pulpit.

Shen Lang did not expect him to ask at random, not only the seat, but this is simply a VIP.

Chapter 859 - Master treatment

After the person in charge of the scene arranged the VIPs for the four people in Shenlang, they quickly retreated to the back.

Because the hundreds that followed, have come down from the air. Although Shen Lang said casually, he is afraid that these people will make trouble.

When he came out, he stared at the people seriously.

As a result, he was very pleased that these people were very obedient, and they were sitting in the back and looking for a seat. Without a seat, they stood behind.

This made him relieved, and could not help but sigh: it seems that Shen Lang has already been confessed!

Then I couldn't help but wonder, what exactly is this guy coming to? Actually able to drive so many people. These are obviously not a martial art or a family. They all listen to his words. Isn't he a ally?

It is said that hundreds of monks who followed Shen Lang found that the place where Shen Lang came was the first "queue" and did not feel disappointed.

They all had no specific goals. Now that even Shen Lang has come to listen, it must be this famous forum. It is very valuable. Of course, they follow it.

Before they kept a little distance behind, the result was that the person in charge here not only flew directly into the air to meet the waves, but also brought them to the best VIPs in front!

This makes them also sigh, it seems that this Shen Lang is definitely a big deal, or else in the Tang City directly offended the local family, but also get the VIP treatment of the Tang City host.

They have self-knowledge and don't dare to compare with Shen Lang. Naturally, there is a seat. However, whether they have a seat or a seat, they choose to see the direction of Shen Lang, so that when they leave, they can follow the next one.

They did not know that this attitude was mistaken by the person in charge as a sinker, or why would they be so obedient, why should they always pay attention to the direction of Shen Lang?

This person in charge is only the person in charge of maintaining the order here, and certainly not the head of the entire group.

Just this discovery, so that he did not dare to press, Shen Lang alone brought a few hundred people to come over, in case you want to do things – for example, attacking the famous speakers on the pulpit, then it is out of control.

Although the attitude of Shen Lang is very good now, he must do this preparation. So look at everything stable, take the time to report to the superior.

It's not too early for them to come, but some people who were at the scene were busy socializing. They didn't sit quietly in the seat, and there were no people around.

But the spectacular scene he brought with hundreds of people shocked everyone.

I also saw the arrangement of the person in charge, and the first-time people felt that this should be a big man.

Waiting for the rumors to inquire about it, I realized that it was the man who started to blush from yesterday afternoon.

For a time, many people are just around the corner.

Some monks in Tangcheng have to take into account the face of Fan's family and have not come to say hello to Shen Lang. But the monks from other places have not taken care of this.

"Excuse me... are you Shen Lang... Master?" The first to say hello is a young man.

When you call it, make this person a little bit guilty. Generally, the honorary title is either according to the age of seniority, and is called "predecessor" or the like, or knows the specific identity, and is called "the sovereign" and "gatekeeper", and then the broad-named "master".

For example, the person in charge just now is just a middle-aged person. It is not clear the specific age of Shen Lang, or the "predecessor" is used first.

This age is not small, hesitated for a moment, called Shen Lang as a “master.”

Shen Lang also understands that the “masters” here are still very lofty titles. For example, if they want to go to the pulpit today, they will be called “masters.” Instead of being in China, the real world is honored as a master by low-level monks.

“Masters don’t dare to be, I am Shen Lang, is there something?”

When I heard Shen Lang’s modest words, the old predecessors were a bit embarrassed: “I have heard a lot of your legends in these two days. Everyone said that you are proud and unconventional. I didn’t expect it to be so approachable.”

Shen Lang is crying and laughing. He is now a young man in his early twenties. He is said to be “easy and approachable” by an elderly person who is at least 100 years old. It is really a bit embarrassing.

“I am the West Gate of the Promise Gate, and it is also the foreigner in their mouth!” The old man suppressed his voice and laughed at himself. “So I want to know Master Shen. In fact, many people want to know you, but they don’t dare to come.”

This old man named Ximen Zheng could not help but reveal a little surprise. “Yes, it is me. I didn’t expect our remote rural people, Master Shen has heard of it, it is really good news!”

“...”

Shen Lang is a little sweaty, he will be surprised and repeated, these two keywords are linked together, let him think of a person, a former opponent.

The Promise Gate joins the West Gate of the Masters League.

The sect of this old man is also called the Promise Gate, and it is also called Ximen. Will it be the founder of the Promise Gate of China, the descendants and disciples who left behind here?

The descendants of Gao Hanqiu, Lin Biaozi and Tianji Zong are all in this world. It is not impossible for more people from the same batch to come here.

This is a little more evidence of his previous conjecture – Han Guo, Tang Cheng, perhaps rooted in the earth, from the ancient Chinese comprehension!

But now, Shen Lang is not good to say “I have not heard your name, I may have heard you are the relatives of the same ancestor”, and the West Gate seal is already dead.

Thinking of the West Gate, he remembered that there is still a jade peach that has never been used...

“Long time and longitude.”

The one who made the mistake was wrong also made Ximen also excited.

Then Simon was directly welcoming some of his friends, and everyone was proud to know this popular man.

For their enthusiasm, Xu Yuyue and Count Dracula are all closed-eyed, and they are too lazy to cope.

It is quite embarrassing to fall into a canoe.

Because of the behavior of these people, she is empathetic.

Obviously, even if they are old and have a certain reputation, they have not yet reached the level of a famous school. They have different appeals on their own sites, but when they come to Tangcheng, they are just a foreign martial art. The identity.

As the owner of the Tianshan Ice Palace, she is the same when she meets with the masters of the famous predecessors. Including this trip to Haikou, even if Liu Yichang took care of it, it was still very cautious and accompanied with a smile.

In comparison, the few sons who met yesterday, because the family is Tangcheng, is born with a sense of superiority.

Chapter 860 - Go to 1 side

After a long chill, Shen Lang has already known a dozen people. Although not yet familiar, but also made him the most surrounded by the crowd.

The person in charge, after quickly arranging the letter, saw this scene again and secretly groaned again.

It is possible to make so many foreigners enthusiasm and enthusiasm. This swell is really a big deal.

But... why haven't you heard of it before?

This question made him unable to self-review: he stayed in Tangcheng for a long time, and he did not feel the superiority of the center of Han Dynasty. He did not see the monks in other places, nor did he pay attention to the situation in the field!

Those who followed Shen Lang, because of the large number, have a certain understanding and identity for Ximen waiting for one or twenty people. Seeing these people who are usually the dominant players, they are so respectful to Shen Lang, and they are also convinced that they are not mistaken, and they are more determined to follow the journey of Shen Lang.

As the time for the opening of the forum approached, other VIPs also came. These Shenlang did not know one, and the other party did not greet him like Simon.

A few moments before the opening, a few more people came over. At this moment, the VIP position is gone.

The VIP seats were originally reserved, and they were four and they were not super. However, if there are more than one or two other VIPs, it will not be enough until later.

The person in charge who had already gone to the stage masters was not on the scene.

The few people glanced at it. Others knew each other and knew their identity. They also greeted each other. The stranger sitting in the VIP area was the four of them.

So those people also stopped directly in front of Shen Lang.

“These friends, you are sitting in the wrong position. This is the seat reserved in advance. Even if you don’t have a seat, you can’t come here to sit here,” one of the openings said.

Shen Lang glanced at him: “Get it?”

“Take... what?” The man stunned.

“Certification. This son did not write your name. Since you are the seat you booked in advance, take the proof.”

Shen Lang said that he was serious and made that person speechless.

This is an open occasion, and some people maintain order, how can VIPs be robbed? Of course, no name will be written, and no one will ask for a post.

In fact, this does not require the activity of buying tickets. They only have identity in Tangcheng, and they greeted in advance to reserve.

“It’s the staff here who arranged us to sit here.” In order to avoid friction, the canoe was explained to them with a good attitude.

“What is the staff arranged here? Which one?”

The man had just been questioned by Shen Lang, and at this moment he just followed the words of the canoe.

After looking at the surroundings, I didn't see the person in charge before, and I was embarrassed.

Is it that the person has arranged so much, so this time I hide?

"Less nonsense! Since there is nothing to prove that this child is yours, go and go! Who will arrange you, who are you looking for!" Shen Lang did not polite with him, directly frowning.

"This friend, you have no reason for this. We have booked the seat in advance. When did you decide?"

Although Shen Lang used the roll, but watching more and more people pay attention, he still maintains patience, try to press the tone.

"Go on the side."

When Shen Lang spoke, he took out a few banknotes and directly stuffed him: "Let's go."

This action makes everyone a glimpse.

what's the situation? Fighting for a VIP seat, how is it saved?

After the end of the meal, everyone reacted. Is this a beggar?

The faces of those people were immediately dark.

"You are too much! I must teach you today!"

Shen Lang snorted: "So many people are sitting here, you have no opinions. It is not too much to go straight up."

"Because it is necessary to be qualified to sit, others are qualified. And you, no qualifications!" The man sneered.

The scene was quiet and I looked at their situation here.

The VIP position is to be qualified. This is something that everyone is unaware of. If you come from a foreign country and have not been invited by the staff, you will naturally not be boring.

But now that he said this, he would feel a little uncomfortable in addition to the VIPs. That is not to say a few waves, but to say that all of them are not qualified!

Self-knowledge is one thing, and being publicly stated is another matter.

Even if the staff here, explain, it will be said that those seats are booked in advance, and will not say that you are not qualified to do it.

After he had just finished speaking, there was probably someone who told him the identity of Shen Lang, and the man then laughed.

“It turned out to be the one who had a conflict with Fan Jia yesterday. Hey, do you think that the strength of the Fan family represents the strength of all the strong people in Tangcheng? Fan family is not willing to see you in general, and a foreigner in the district really thinks that he Can you be rampant in Tangcheng?”

When he was just questioning, he had already made Xu Haoyue feel very noisy. At this moment, he is more and more disrespectful to Shen Lang, so he can't help it.

Ever since, this person just dismissed the sinking waves, and the whole person flew up!

Under the eyes of a hundred thousand people at the scene, the man's body tumbling rapidly in the air, and then flew to the distance, at least two or three miles away.

“Shenlang is a deep wave, domineering!”

“It's really eager for us outsiders. I didn't expect Tangcheng to be so taller than the top.”

From the inn, there are dozens of people who come to Shenlang. It was originally to watch the excitement, some saw it yesterday, and some missed it yesterday. Of course, today, there is something to happen.

The hundreds of people who followed, of course, are basically foreign, and they will be so busy and so conspicuous, they will not be top-notch strength, younger and lighter, and they all want to see the battle.

Because after the comparison, they are not afraid to offend those few people, and they have been talking about it.

This was originally like an explosive charge, and some people have discussed it, and more people are talking about it soon.

Some of the people sitting on the VIP seat are also a bit uncomfortable. Most of them are local to Tangcheng. The behavior of Fanjia yesterday has affected the sects and families of the entire Tangcheng area.

There is a tendency of opposing camps between local and foreign monks in the city, which is why someone has just reminded that person. I did not expect that the person did not have the “big picture”, but also intensified the contradiction.

And now the pulpit is about to start, and then fight it up, it is to destroy the first forum, this is the highlight of the group.
