Chapter 86 - Performance Art

This rain is really shocked!

Shen Lang gave her a few bottles of treasured soup, although she knew that the sale to the Yue family was worth a lot, but in the end they refining it. Lingshi is not something that can be refining itself, but it can't be bought with money.

The master of the comprehension behind Shen Lang can directly give him a spiritual stone, which shows that the shot is wide, but the family is for the apprentice. Now Shen Lang actually gave this one stone directly to her!

“Really give me?”

Shen Lang put Lingshi directly into her hands. When she heard her doubts, she asked: “What do you say? I have given you, will you still have to go back?”

Rain fell and gave him a deep look, then reached out to him: “Thank you for your kindness. But I guess you still don't know the value of this thing. It's not as simple as your soup. You are so generous. Give it to me, even if you don't mind after knowing the value, you will be angry with the predecessors of Lingshi.”

Shen Lang waved his hand: “This does not require you to worry about it. It is not a spiritual stone! When I am developed, send a bunch to you.”

“...” I fell asleep.

Originally, she thought that Shen Lang didn't know the value of Lingshi and didn't know how to use it. I didn't expect him to be completely clear, but he still didn't take Lingshi too seriously.

“gone.”

Shen Lang is afraid that she will continue to shirk and go straight to the outside of the classroom.

“No, this is too expensive!” Rain fell and stood up.

“You’re welcome.” Shen Langtou did not meet, directly swinging his hand.

Watching him walk out of the classroom, the rain fell for a while.

As long as it is something she likes, the boys will please give it to her, and because of this, she will keep a distance directly from the boys, but those are the gifts that the students can bear.

Even the young talents of some other families give gifts up to a few hundred thousand, which is still facing the face of the family. And Shen Lang, a spiritual stone, is something that millions can’t buy!

If Shen Lang was born into a wealthy family, the family conditions were very general, he was bullied at school, and his living expenses were problematic. Now he is so generous.

Should he say that he is generous and generous, or is it a nouveau riche?

What happened to him during this time, how could there be such a big change?

She did not find the rain, she did not know, she had a lot of curiosity about this male classmate.

The sinking waves of this time, just coming out of the teaching building, were blocked by several people.

It is a boy of several other classes. They are not a class, but they all know each other in the same grade. Shen Lang knows that they are all top students.

“Shen Lang, don’t you say that you are becoming very powerful now? Why did you let you see you on the playground last night, but you dare not face, and hide outside the school?”

“Like you, are you a man?”

“Tell me clearly! You and Luo Yu are not a world person at all, you should not go to entanglement!”

“We solemnly warned you this time, if you don’t listen, you will be at your own risk!”

Shen Lang is a bit helpless. It really is because of the relationship between you and the rain. These people should be the people who signed the war book yesterday.

It seems that he did not go to the playground last night, so that their confidence increased greatly, thinking that they were afraid of them, so they were blocked here at noon.

“Come here.”

After Shen Lang finished, he went forward.

“Don’t run! Are you a man? Do you know how to hide?”

“Don’t make a guarantee today, don’t let you go!”

Several of them quickly followed and surrounded.

Shen Lang is a bit funny. In the end, there are some top students who have always achieved good results. Whether they are blocking people or swearing, they can’t compare with Dong Wenbin, who is familiar with the light car.

“I will ask you a question.” Shen Lang took a tentative period.

“Say!”

They surrounded Shen Lang, or pay attention to the surroundings. For the time being, everyone went to eat. There is no one here, but if the time drags on for too long, there will still be students coming over, at least a lot of high school students will return after dinner. The classroom is over.

“What are you counting?”

“what?”

“What east... trough! You are looking for death!”

Because Shen Lang said that he was serious, they thought that there was really something wrong. He was listening carefully and paused.

“Warning me?”

Before they rushed up, Shen Lang had already left the bow of the bow. Several boys did not have any evasive ability at all, and they were directly smothered by a big slap in the face. The whole person was dizzy and his fingers quickly appeared on his face.

This is already the feelings of Shen Lang’s men, and else they can be fanned directly like Yuan Cheng last night.

When they were dizzy, Shen Lang’s feet continued to kick, the lids of the two large trash cans bounced off, and then he grabbed them one by one, and directly put them into the trash can on the head and feet!

He will just come over here, just take them to the side of the trash can.

Several boys were stuffed into the trash can, and they couldn’t make any noise when they wanted to yell. They could only smash on two legs. If no one is helping outside, it will not work if they want to struggle.

Shen Lang took a clap and left to go to the cafeteria to eat.

Just after I arrived at the cafeteria, I found many people looking over at him and then whispering.

This made him a little bit strange, was it seen and spread? Just no one.

But even if you are seen by someone, it doesn’t matter, just go to dinner.

The river has already eaten almost, watch him come, wait for him, and then directly put a thumb on him!

“Served! Yesterday I said that you can’t be together. I didn’t expect to hit my face so quickly. It was really together.”

“What?” Shen Lang is inexplicable look at the expression of the river, and immediately reacted. It must be that the two girls just saw them holding hands and immediately spread them in the group. They just came in to see his expression, and because of this, the news has spread to other classes and grades.

Sure enough, Jianghe took out his mobile phone and showed him the group information, saying that others had already seen their two hands in the classroom. When no one was there, I still didn’t know if there was any further improvement.

At this time, his mobile phone had a message from someone else. The river opened it and it was a small video. After he finished reading, he immediately excitedly forwarded it to the group.

Soon the entire canteen was excited, and obviously other groups were spreading. The river also took it to the sinking waves that were devoted to eating, and it was a pair of feet that were exposed outside the trash can!

It seems that someone should pass by, see this scene, immediately excited to shoot the video first, and then quickly spread.

“This is what kind of performance art to do!” Jianghe said with great enthusiasm, and asked which class it was.

Shen Lang also laughed. I don’t know if these top students are going to tear the default performance art, or do you complain about his violence?
