

First Strong 861

Chapter 861 - Only 1 does not listen

I was persuaded by other people to persuade, and let the other few who were about to attack, barely suppressed the effort.

“Good domineering! Good prestige!”

They sneered a few times, flew directly away from the scene, and quickly went to see the person who was thrown far away.

And just the shot, in addition to some high-level close-up, knowing that Xu Haoyue shot, most people think it is Shen Lang shot.

Now that these people have left, some people understand and guess that they are persuaded to leave. More people think that they are scared away by Shen Lang.

For a time, everyone talked about it, and most of them were touted by Shen Lang.

Yesterday, today, they are only hearing the rumors of the gossip. Just now I saw it with my own eyes and confirmed the rumors.

Compared with Shen Lang’s several shots, at the trading floor, at the entrance of the Tingfeng store, then to the VIP building inn, and today, the scene is getting bigger and bigger.

At least there are hundreds of thousands of people, low-level monks are the majority, and high-level ones are quite a few. It is a very domineering shot to throw people out for a few miles.

Ximen, who just met Shen Lang, is waiting for people to be more excited. This will not hurt them, but they can boast that they are friends.

Under the hustle and bustle, the other people in the VIP position are also very unsettled, not to see the movements of several people in Shen Lang.

Fortunately, the pulpit started right away, and everyone's noise began to calm down.

The person in charge at the scene obviously knew this too. But the VIP is not enough, and he did not think of it. This is no way.

If they are not Shen Lang, they are occupied, but other VIPs carry more people, and the last place has no seat, it can only be counted.

But this matter, he must definitely explain it, and can't say anything about Shen Lang. This is what he arranged.

This first forum is very much anticipated by everyone. The monks from all over the world want to enlighten themselves from this free public speech.

Therefore, there is no need for more people to be restrained. When the famous master is on stage, it is naturally quiet.

I have already known before Shen Lang, this is a master of Buddhism called Zhian.

Now I saw it with my own eyes. It is an old monk with a thin face and a slim face. From shaving to smocking, it is similar to the style of the earth China, which makes Shen Lang more convinced that the Han Dynasty is a historical comprehension who came here to develop.

Zhian, who was on the pulpit, did not have any chills for the many listeners below, and began to preach at his own pace.

What he told was also in accordance with his own preparations, and did not move to which groups.

The audience at the scene, all of them are erected with their ears and remembered with their heart.

Like some monks with lower levels, Master's elders do not have such a high level. It is very difficult to understand the content of Zhi'an. Therefore, this time can only be the first to memorize and then slowly realize the enlightenment.

For them, this is a rare opportunity to even change their status.

For high-level monks, this is also an opportunity to prove each other. They don't need to memorize, but they are also absorbed, listening and comprehending.

Shen Lang and his party, the raft is the former, try to remember, slowly comprehend. And Xu Haoyue and Count Dracula need to get enlightenment from it.

As for Shen Lang himself, after listening to it for a while, there is not much interest.

The Buddhist master's secret theory, which was written by the master Zhian, was of little help to him. When he studied the creation of "Yin Yang Bo Ruozhen" in the last world, he studied the related methods and has already surpassed what he now tells.

As a result, the scene of a thousand people left him alone.

The master of Zhian above the pulpit, for the following situation, just like the teacher on the podium facing the students in the classroom, what is clear at a glance.

He talked with his heart, not to spread the secret of the sect, but to share his personal experience. Of course, I hope to help people, otherwise, this activity is meaningless.

So I saw that everyone was very serious in listening and speaking. He was also very pleased.

However, I finally found out that there was a young man who, although not looking around, apparently did not listen to what he said, which made him secretly frown.

The effect is always relative, a piece of white paper with only one black dot on it, which will be seen at a glance. A little white light in the dark is just as dazzling.

If only half of the students are listening carefully in a class, the teacher will often feel cold and give up the other half directly, only to finish the half of the lecture.

But if everyone is listening, only one person does not listen, it will often be magical, I feel that this is disrespectful to him, disturbing others to learn, will be directly named.

After discovering that Shen Lang did not listen, Master Zhi'an left such a knot. Whether his eyes were swept away or not, he always remembered that this young man was not listening.

However, he was able to invite the group to speak. It is naturally a master of identity. Even if he is a little bit guilty, it will not affect his lectures, nor does he directly express any disgusting feelings on Shen Lang.

There is more than one activity in the pulpit, not a lecture, so it is not too long in time. The whole event is about an hour or so, and after the talk, there is still a moment to communicate on the spot.

It's about fifty minutes, and I've simply answered a few questions.

There are a lot of people asking questions, but they can only look at a few pleasing eyes.

All the questions are to solve their own problems, but this involves the secrets of the teacher's practice, and the specific circumstances of the individual are also different, so Master Zhian can not solve their problems.

The basic answer to the question is also extended to a broader reference answer.

So down, many people are still unfinished, and the low-level feeling of information is very large. The high level also feels enlightened.

A few of Shen Lang are getting up and leaving. According to what they discussed before, they have to rush to see "On the Road."

Compared to the pulpit, it is possible to have a greater inspiration for the high realm, because it is easy to have a collision with each other.

However, after the speech of Master Zhian, the expectations of Shen Lang have been greatly reduced, and there is no hope.

“Master Shen... that... a few of Yangzong... I was improperly arranged, and you were affected by it...” The former person in charge, hurriedly found Shen Lang, and apologized.

Shen Lang waved his hand: “No matter what you are, it has passed.”

“No, no, it’s my problem. Just... you just shot in public and wounded a Yangzong’s predecessor. It’s a bit, a little... Can you apologize to them and let them have a good face?”

He spoke out of the vomiting, apparently afraid that Shen Lang would throw him out a few miles away if he did not agree.

Chapter 862 - Mysterious aura

Shen Lang began to think that he apologized because of the disturbances of those people. Now that he understood what he meant, he stared directly at his eyes.

“Please...” The person in charge looked at the bitter smile.

In fact, in the group will be responsible for the “lecture” of this piece of affairs, of course, he also has a background. But now one side is a Yangzong, directly fell face and injured, the other side of the wave is strong, and can not understand the details.

He is here to take charge of it. It is a cultivation exercise. Of course, he will not offend people. He would rather grieve and apologize on both sides.

“Is it a Yangzong? Are you going to ask them, I used to apologize, can they afford it?” Shen Lang said faintly.

“This.....”

The person in charge secretly smiled, you apologize, what can others afford?

But he also noticed it, this is something in the words!

Is he ready to make a big fight?

It's been a blessing to have nothing to do with the first "prayer", but now everyone is here, and if something goes wrong, it will spread soon.

Moreover, he did not have so much time to mediate between the two parties, he will soon send Master Zhian to leave, and began to prepare for the next game.

"Don't be embarrassed about you. You shouldn't be like this. I don't want to apologize to them. If they have any dissatisfaction, they will find me and won't find you."

Shen Lang nodded to him. This person has a very good attitude toward him. There is no need to be embarrassed.

The four of them went straight outside.

There are hundreds of thousands of people on the scene, and several hundred of them came together with Shen Lang.

However, most of these hundreds of people are watching many people in the air, and unknown people follow them. I really want to follow him to see the lively, that is, the dozens of deliberately going to the VIP building.

Just now, here, coupled with the domineering shot of a Yangzong, the impact has not only dozens, more than one hundred have been paying attention to his every move.

Seeing that they are leaving at the moment, they immediately stood up and gathered in the direction of his departure.

More than one hundred people are surging, and there will be an obvious trend in the crowd. Some unknown, no matter how much, fear that there will be benefits to fall, and then quickly squeezed.

This made the scene a bit messy.

The person in charge originally thought that everyone would like to ask thousands and Master Zhian to ask, ask, and talk, and they are preparing to arrange for people to block it. I didn't expect these people to go to the waves!

He smiled again, and for this mysterious sinking wave, I really don't know what to say.

Shen Lang had no foundation in Tangcheng. He had offended the Fan family before, and now he has offended a Yangzong. Considering the power of this martial art, he dare not really care too much.

So I saw that many "outsiders" on the scene supported him, and they smiled and waved, and like Ximeng just met, they even greeted or nodded.

When everyone followed him, he didn't get a response. Now I see Shen Lang's response. Some of the strengths are lower, and some fans are excited.

They are now looking forward to Shenlang's next move. No matter where he goes, it is definitely the most valuable. They are also going with them!

"Don't mess with me, I..."

Shen Lang is trying to say that they are going to "talk about the road", so that everyone should not be confused, it is ok to know the direction to go first.

But this time someone called to interrupt him.

"Master Shen, please wait!"

Still the person in charge just now.

When Shen Lang looked at the past, it was not only him, but also the master of Zhian who came down from the pulpit.

The prestige of Master Zhian is not the same. One of the VIPs has been greeted with him in the past, and some of them are also known.

It was all the way, and attracted many people to come and talk to him. One or two sentences required to solve, naturally no effect, so they just talked a few words and hoped to make an impression.

But now the voice of the person in charge, plus their direction, immediately let everyone understand.

They are surrounded by masters of Zhian, but Master Zhi'an seems to be coming for the waves!

Other people are okay, and those senior monks in the Tang Dynasty are very embarrassed.

Just now they were so VIPs, they did not say hello to Shen Lang, but now it is the master of Zhian to go.

Then their minds lived up again.

Is this really a big wave?

Yesterday, the grievances of Shen Lang and Fan Jia are the key to the rumors, but there is another rumor in the small group of people at a higher level!

That was the result of the guests at the Tingfeng. According to their statement, it was seen that the Tingfeng General Manager did not personally send the Shenlang downstairs, and the Red Wind also directly protected the Shenlang.

According to this rumor, it is not the relationship between Shen Lang and the tough front, or the tough front knows that he has an unusual origin.

Many people have not believed it even before they heard it. The backstage of the tough front is the Qiulin sword, which is powerful and always has a style of loneliness and high cold. Even if there are any powerful backstage people, they are also treated lightly.

Everyone is more willing to believe that the red wind is the rule to maintain the tough front.

But today, I saw that Shen Lang did not give a Yangzong face, direct hands-on, and a large number of foreign monks took the initiative to please, and now even Master Zhian has caught up...

What the  is this guy!

On the site of the Han Dynasty, even if it is not Tangcheng, there are really big names in the field. They should all be counted. This Shenlang is absolutely unheard of, and it is out of thin air.

Is it from a distant place, a high man from outside of Han?

For a time, the Tangcheng dignitaries of these VIP seats, far from the gaze of Shen Lang, have a little scruples and awe, as if there is a mysterious aura of Shen Lang.

“Master Zhian.” Shen Lang smiled and watched them approach, and took the initiative to say hello to Master Zhian.

Although the speech has no effect on him, after all, it can be shared like this is already very rare, worthy of everyone’s respect.

“Master Shen, really young and talented!” Master Zhi’s martial arts, a polite gift, a polite one.

“I don’t know if the master is calling the junior. Is there any instruction?”

Shen Lang has already observed it quickly when they came over. It is not like the person in charge who is looking for Master Zhian to persuade him, but it seems that Master Zhian is looking for him.

“Don’t dare, don’t dare. I actually want to ask Master Shen, what I share today, I hope Master Shen can point out the shortcomings.”

Master Zhian said very politely, but this words stopped in the ears of hundreds of people around, but it seemed to be a shock like a blue sky!

Master Zhian... actually asked him for advice!

There must be a lot of magic that everyone can’t see!

What kind of character is this sinking wave?

Chapter 863 - Play pig eat tiger?

Zhian is a master of Buddhism. Although he was concerned about Shenlang before, he couldn’t talk about it, but he should be a bit puzzled.

Because the people on the scene, the realm of low realm, the young and old, all are very serious, only he does not care.

In the end, after the questioning session, he actually saw Shen Lang several times. If there is any problem with Shen Lang, he hopes to answer it.

I didn’t expect Shen Lang to look at him at all, but seemed to be waiting to leave.

This makes him self-reflective, is it that there is a problem with the content of his lecture?

There are so many people on the scene, including some very high-level ones – such as Xu Yuyue and Count Dracula, whom he can’t see, everyone is listening carefully, indicating that it is not attractive, and the content should be valuable.

The strength of the young man is not weak. It is not like someone who can’t understand it. It can be a VIP in the front row. It certainly does not pay attention to the “lecture”.

When I think about it, he thinks there is only one possibility, that is, the young man does not agree with his content!

The age of Shen Lang is there. If the strength is relatively low, for example, only the level of truth, or just breaking through the level of the gods, he will not care.

But now the realm of Shen Lang has reached the end of the realm of the gods, and the spiritual power is even stronger, so the master of Zhian pays attention to it.

When I saw the scene in which the person in charge talked to Shen Lang, I immediately went down and communicated with him a few words. After learning about the situation of Shen Lang, he was also a bit curious, and he followed.

Just on the words of Shen Lang, on the one hand, it is a modest expression. On the other hand, it is somewhat unwilling to listen to this young man because he ignores him.

However, the people on the scene, the more and more exaggerated, the misunderstanding and the brain to make up a lot of things. Now it is the master of Zhian who has taken the initiative to catch up, and the master's attitude is modest, really like the humility of asking for advice.

So everyone once again misunderstood, I think Master Zhian knows that he still has shortcomings, and this young Shenlang master seems to be able to solve this problem.

Once a person has a confirmed answer, see what will be contacted by this answer.

At this moment, including the Tangcheng VIPs, and then watching the eyes of Shen Lang, they have become very revered.

Master Zhian is not invincible in the world, but the predecessor who is his identity can still ask for advice humbly, showing the ability of the other party!

This change, Master Zhian did not know, but Shen Lang was keenly aware.

He has just been a very polite and respected guest, but he is still very cautious in observing everything so that he can read the true purpose of the words of Master Zhian.

The result is that because of Master Zhi'an's words, I feel the change in attitudes of others.

This makes speechless funny!

Xu Haoyue is his own person, helping to shoot, he can be forced to take advantage of the situation. But for the completely unfamiliar Master Zhian, I never thought about it.

Now it is the master of Zhian who used his status to help him lift the sedan.

“If you want to talk about the drawbacks, there is no such thing, but there are still some that can go further. If the master really has a heart to discuss, you can go to the VIP Building Inn, let’s talk about it in detail. But now, we are ready to talk about it.”

Master Zhi’an had a very good attitude and inadvertently helped him lift the sedan, which greatly increased his reputation. Therefore, Shen Lang was also a serious response.

Otherwise, he will not be provoked, and it will be perfunctory.

A young man who has never been seen and suddenly emerged, said frankly that he would like to point out a master who can go to the “podium” of the group.

If you put it in another moment, no matter how many dozens or hundreds of people you hear, you will feel that this guy is pretending to be a stupid person.

But now Shen Lang said this, but few people doubt it, but they are all envious. People say that they want to talk in private, they can’t hear it, it’s a pity...

Master Zhian is a bit surprised.

Originally, he had just asked this question. He already had an answer in his heart. He felt that Shen Lang would probably apologize to him or tout a few words. Even if he did not listen, he would say a few words.

He did not really expect this young man to point him to anything.

I did not expect that Shen Lang was a serious answer. From the tone and demeanor of this sentence, he can feel that this is not funny, nor is he playing with him, but really has ideas to communicate!

He is a young man and a master. It is very difficult to accept the guidance of a young man.

Fortunately, their teachings, including the fame and fortune, so he can just say it calmly, now even if the instinct is unacceptable, but after a little hesitation, let yourself calm down.

“So, the old man would like to thank you first.”

He once again bowed to Shen Lang, and then went on to say: “It is better to move on together and I want to learn to understand the wisdom of all the friends.”

“please!”

Shen Lang did not be polite with him, so everyone walked together.

As a result, there would have been more than a hundred followers of Shen Lang, and it turned into hundreds of people, more than he had followed him. In addition to going to the “contention” side to watch the game, the others went along with the “talking about the road.”

A few people in Yangzong are left in the periphery!

Before because of the other Tangcheng dignitaries, they all persuaded them to pay attention to the overall situation, so they held back, but also quickly went to see how the injury.

But then I found the person in charge, hoarse to the person in charge, and wanted them to come out and expel several Shen Lang.

If you are expelled from the public, you should be able to smash your face.

I did not expect that the person in charge was apologizing to them, saying that it was because of the relationship he had arranged. At that time, he did not expect other people to bring more people, resulting in insufficient seats.

In the face of his sincere apology, a few people in Yangzong were very upset, but it was not convenient for him to attack.

In the end, I could only make a concession decision, and let Shen Lang apologize to them after the lecture ended.

The position of the seat is not a wave of But throwing their people out, this can not be counted!

Just now they were watching from the outside, just waiting for Shen Lang to apologize.

The person in charge didn't have time to come, but it was far from giving them a sorry expression, apparently not talking.

So, a few of them are waiting in the direction of Shen Lang, ready to block him!

As a result, more and more people are rushing in the direction of Shen Lang. Those foreign monks who they can't see will be gone. In the end, even Master Zhian is humbly asking him!

What does this mean? Explain that this kid really has something extraordinary!

Plus, they just found the one that was thrown out, and they have already discussed it. How was it thrown out? Actually, no one can say it!

Therefore, I also suspect that Shen Lang is not a pig and a tiger. The actual strength is even stronger than the appearance.

At the moment, of course, I dare not go forward, but I can only watch them leave.

Chapter 864 - Shen Lang

There are also many people waiting for the “On the Road”, and with the hundreds of people in the past, they are full.

The person in charge over there is also nervous about seeing this battle. I don’t know about Shenlang and his party, but Master Zhian is a master of the group invited by the group, but he is very familiar.

Master Zhian came, even if it is not convenient to temporarily arrange to go to the stage to discuss, at least for him to prepare the front row of VIP seats. Can you ignore the friends who came with him?

Ever since, Shen Lang once again went directly to the VIP in the front row.

I have seen it once, and the hundreds of people who have come over are not surprised. They don’t think that Shen Lang is the light of Master Zhi’an, but it seems to be a matter of course.

Like Shen Lang’s conjecture, the famous masters of the “On the Road” have been discussed in a more in-depth way, but the benefits are relatively large, or the realm is relatively low, and the realm is relatively high, so it’s inspiring. .

For him, it is nothing, and will not give him any enlightenment.

The people who came to the scene were serious about listening to the famous scholars. This is an open opportunity once in a decade. It’s all over the place, and of course you can’t miss it.

Xu Haoyue and Earl Dracula are at such a level, and they are listening seriously. Not to mention the canoe.

But this time, two people at the scene did not listen carefully.

One is Shen Lang and the other is Master Zhian.

Master Zhi’an looked at the stage, but his mind was more on the side of Shen Lang.

He clearly noticed that Shen Lang was serious at first, but slowly began to distract as they talked, and there seems to be a bit of disappointment!

Disappointed!

He immediately realized that before Shen Lang listened to his speech, it should be the same mood. At first, he listened carefully and had great expectations. When he found that he had no gains, he would be disappointed and would not pay attention to it. .

This cognition makes him secretly cold and sweaty!

For this “lecture” event, he actually made a lot of preparations. It is difficult to disclose the sectarian cultivation method and give everyone the ability to learn and comprehend on the basis of their own cultivation experience.

For the first time, he also has some pressure, the effect is good, not to mention the history, at least for the next ten years, everyone will be praised. Even for some small family sects, it is really beneficial in the long run.

He is very convinced that there are a lot of preparations for doing this on the stage.

But these efforts, in the eyes of Shen Lang, are disappointing!

Is this young man arrogant and arrogant? Is it unfathomable?

Before I went to talk to Shen Lang in detail, even if he accepted it openly and openly, there was no expectation value. Now it is different. I really want to know earlier what Shen Lang can tell.

After the end of the Taoist activities, Master Zhi'an refused a lot of invitations to go forward, and also perfuncified some other guest sets as soon as possible, always watching Shen Lang, lest he should leave.

Shen Lang, their original arrangement, is still going to look at the “contention” scene, to understand the level of competition here.

But after these two games, Shen Lang has no interest. These famous masters must be higher than the young people who are directly on the stage. This is not a reward, and there is no need to say anything else.

Of course, Count Dracula and Xu Haoyue are not interested. If you really want something to gain, you will be in a boat.

However, now that Master Zhi'an is so sincerely waiting, Shen Lang is also a little embarrassed, and everyone will go home together.

Today is the first day of the event. It will be the most lively day for anyone, no matter which one.

However, because of the relationship between Shen Lang and his return to the government, many people who intentionally or unintentionally have regarded him as an idol, and those who follow him, feel that other meanings are not meaningful. Instead, he followed him to the VIP building.

As a result, it directly affects the audience of the entire event...

Followed by the people in the VIP building, they took the courage to send representatives and wanted to let Shen Lang also open a forum, which made Shen Lang directly refused.

joke!

He has no reputation here, he will not be kidnapped by prestige, and there is no benefit. What forum is open?

However, he invited Master Zhian to go to the residence to discuss in detail.

They simply ate a meal together and then cooked tea in the living room.

Shen Lang wants to talk to Master Zhian in detail. Count Dracula and the canoe are a bit strange. He is so young, how much knowledge and experience can he have? Even if you are genius, it will not be more cattle than the famous masters here!

But what makes them even more surprised is that Xu Qian Yue, the strongest of the four people, is obviously looking forward to it!

This made both of them more curious, why did Xu Haoyue worship the waves like that?

Is this a confused soup for him?

Xu Haoyue is so expecting, will they still miss it? Of course, I also sit and listen.

The most powerful Xu Yuyue, who looked humbly and taught, also fell into the eyes of Master Zhian. For this strength is stronger than him, he also can not see the depth of the master, he is also very respectful.

This master can be so respected, even if it is a young man, there is absolutely no problem.

By the time the discussion began, Master Zhi'an had a huge difference from the mentality after the "Lecture", and now it is really open-minded.

"Like you answer questions, it is related to the martial art of others, as well as the specific individual situation. You can't directly apply an answer. So you said that your theory has any drawbacks, and you can't simply answer it. I want to follow What you said is still from my point of view, the introduction of the big category..."

Shen Lang began with the content of the speech just made by Master Zhian.

Although he was disappointed, the general content still understands Now, it doesn't need to repeat the 1510, but analyze it from a higher level.

The more Zhian masters hear, the more amazing they are!

This young savvy master, many of the things he tells, are the same as his experience. Because it involves the secret of cultivation, those are not publicly stated.

There are still some, but it is more in-depth than his previous understanding. After some discussions, it became his humility to ask for advice, Shen Lang patiently answered, and also gave him a lot of inspiration.

Being able to listen to the enlightenment of Shen Lang is something Xu Xuan has been looking forward to. This time, of course, I listened very seriously.

The Canoe and the Count of Dracula are also eye-opening. Shen Lang does not rely on flickering, but really has a very high-level view, even if it is a response to Master Zhian, they are also very inspired.

This time, the lectures are more rewarding than the famous experts who just listened to!

Both of them once again feel that the Shen Lang is too mysterious.

Chapter 865 - Way of making money

Master Zhi'an really didn't want to end, and wanted to throw out one problem after another.

However, after Shen Lang analyzed on the basis of today's speeches, he did not explain more about him. He refused to continue the discussion on the grounds that it was inconvenient to understand the secrets of their teachers.

No good!

Shen Lang is still very realistic. He will promise and invite Master Zhian to come over. The main reason is that he has carried the sedan, even if Master Zhi'an is not intentional or aware.

He belongs to the Taobao who does not take advantage of others.

But the same, he will not give too much cheap to others!

Xu Haoyue, they are not the same, they are their own people. Other Count Dracula, even a friend, is also looking at the situation and will not help unconditionally.

Master Zhi'an is the only person who knows, and there is no interest in it.

His refusal also made Master Zhian very interested. Because after all, it is the secret of not being passed down. What he can share today is already prepared over and over again, and it has been screened over and over again.

When people pointed at him, it was also inconvenient to disclose the secret of the division.

He has been very grateful and revered for Shen Lang. This is a lecture, but he has unexpectedly got the guidance of others. This is the biggest gain.

Their arguments in the hall, of course, were set by Xu Haoyue and will not be heard by others.

However, when he was sent to send Master Zhian, Yan Xiaoqi reported a situation to him with a flattering smile.

When they talked about it, there were guests inside and outside the VIP building. The tables for eating and drinking were all full, and some had no seats.

Everyone could not hear any information and began to discuss freely.

Since even the masters of Zhian who can speak, they are so humbly asking for Shen Lang, indicating that his realm is definitely above the master of Zhian!

Master Zhi'an came to Tangcheng to speak. It is an honor that is well-known in the Han Dynasty. The same organizer of the British Association will also send him a rich return on resources. It is impossible for people to share their experiences in isolation.

In this case, why do they let people speak for them once?

This idea has been recognized by everyone. Naturally, it extends to the latter content – they can't decide to honor the honor of the Han kingdom, but they can gather resources and impress the waves through sincerity!

The next step is to discuss what resources and what to do.

After everyone talked about it, they felt that some of the “babies” they had might not have entered the eyes of Master Shen Lang. It is better to use Lingshi directly, as long as the number is enough, people can also buy other precious resources.

Everyone has Lingshi, and at their level, they give some medium spirits, and there is no problem.

After some discussion, I feel that Shen Lang will certainly not lack the medium spirit stone. To be able to impress him, perhaps there should be a group of superior Lingshi!

This has spurred the enthusiasm of some people. After all, a good spiritual stone is equal to one hundred medium-spirited stones, and the cost can be no small. The activities of the “Lecture” and “On the Road” of the group will continue, and there is free to learn.

However, even if a lot of people have retired, there are still some wealthy, or sectarian families who are willing to invest, but decided to do so.

After some discussion, they finally decided that one person would be a good stone, and look at the gathered stones, enough to impress the waves.

Now that Yan Xiaoqi came over to report, in addition to briefly describing the process, he also talked about the number of intentional intentions. There are already more than 20 copies.

More than 20 fine stone, open a pulpit?

This made Shen Lang hesitate.

On the one hand, he really lacks Lingshi. When he buys resources, he must save the flowers. He also loses the nebula chain or is easy to insist on exemption, or else he has already consumed half.

On the other hand, it is the scarcity of the Earth's spiritual stone! He is one of the finest stones in the world, or a gift from the city of Bilan.

In other words, the spiritual stone earned here, brought back to the earth, can play a greater role and have room for added value.

Just like working in a big city to make money, bring back low-income home consumption – buy a toilet in a big city, maybe build a house in your hometown!

In fact, Shen Lang wants to earn Lingshi here, but there is really no way to go. Instead, it needs to be consumed everywhere. The ideas they provide are also a way for them to make a fortune!

Knowledge is power, and knowledge is money.

Shen Lang will not give a great white delivery, but if he can exchange money, he will consider it.

When they walked to the lobby of the VIP building, many people looked at him with excitement and wanted to hear his answer.

Everyone is also concerned about the attitude of Master Zhian to Shen Lang, which is more respectful than before.

This shows that Master Zhian has already verified that Shen Lang can really benefit him!

Even the masters of the ranks of Master Zhi'an can gain something, and their harvest will definitely be even greater.

“Friends! Your enthusiasm, I have already felt it.”

Shen Lang signaled everyone to be quiet, and then made a response.

“You are willing to make a return to the spirit stone and let me open a forum. It is really very heart-warming. But I am not as great as Master Zhian, and I can’t earn everyone’s spiritual stone with my heart.”

The words of Shen Lang made everyone excited.

Look at this, Master Shen Lang not only promised to open the lecture, but also did not accept everyone’s spiritual stone?

“But if you can come here, you are very sincere friends. If I open the lecture for free, then there will be a mix of people, everyone can come together to join in the fun, but may squeeze everyone’s position, then it is not good...”

Upon hearing this turning point, someone immediately echoed it.

“There is a reason for Master Shen Lang. If it is completely free, there will be too many people coming over. And they may not be rare for you to open the lecture, or to collect tickets for Lingshi.”

“Masters have sighed for us in these places. If you want me to say something, you will receive more expensive tickets for the comprehension of Tangcheng!”

This immediately caused controversy because there are some monks in Tangcheng.

“It can’t be said that Tangcheng has some generations of people who are arrogant and arrogant, and there are many of us who are so enthusiastic about the masters of Shen Lang. We don’t all reject foreign friends!”

When everyone wants to be in the air, Shen Lang raises his hand to indicate quiet.

“We don’t like being discriminated against by individuals. If we treat them differently, isn’t it the same discrimination? It becomes a person we hate.”

One of his words was immediately supported by the applause of the Tang Dynasty monks, and everyone supported them.

“The tickets are still collected, but I am uneasy in the heart of a friend’s suggestion. So! A good spirit can be two people, whether they bring a friend, or two people together All can be.”

When Shen Lang opened his mouth, he reduced the cost by half. He was happy to pay a Lingshi before. I felt too expensive before, but it was also a heartbeat.

Chapter 866 - flash sale

Shen Lang will cut the “tickets” directly, because Yan Xiaoqi reported that they have arranged more than 20.

This means that only a small percentage of people are willing to pay this fee. If he lowered, he lost more than a dozen “tickets” of the finest Lingshi, but if most people are willing to pay, it will be a business.

Shen Lang himself is also self-aware.

Masters such as Master Zhian are invited to give free speeches. He is a young man who suddenly pops up, how can He De?

Even if some people are willing to pay the cost of a fine stone, in addition to their affordability, it is because of the master’s car lift, thinking that there will be more great gains than the master’s speech.

To a certain extent, it belongs to “impulsive consumption.” Really waiting for them to calm down, they will definitely feel unworthy, or regret not reporting.

Instead of this situation, Shen Lang is not as good as his own price cuts, to a small profits but quick turnover.

This pricing is also very subtle. If you let him come out, you will have a top-ranking Lingshi at the beginning, surely everyone will still feel expensive, why not grab it?

However, he began to refuse to open the lecture. This is the price they have already discussed. Even if it has a “sincerity” premium, it is the price that everyone has accepted first, so at this time, half price will feel cheap.

Just like some domestically produced sneakers that are usually sold at a low price of more than one hundred, suddenly a pair of prices are worth 500 yuan. What do you think of you? But international brands like Nike are originally priced at a thousand, and the promotion price is half a price of 500. Many people will find it very cheap and snap up.

Absolutely cheap, not necessarily attracting consumers; to make consumers feel “to take advantage of”, especially for limited time, will be willing to spend.

So after finishing the price, I can see that everyone’s acceptance is OK. Shen Lang immediately said “limited time.”

“But then again, Masters of Master Zhian are free to speak, I can’t help you! Since everyone is so enthusiastic, then limit it.”

He just finished, and the master of Zhian, who is still next to him, sighed in a sigh.

“The master of Shen Lang is modest, and your knowledge is far better than me. If you are willing to speak, the old man will sign up for the first time.”

This sentence immediately shocked everyone on the scene.

In the status of Master Zhian, it is not to be a child care, and the purpose of their Buddhism is not to be profitable.

There is only one possibility. The argument that they just entered has been deeply impressed by Master Zhian!

Therefore, Master Zhian takes the lead in stating that perhaps he wants to return to the waves, or he may want to hear more!

Master Lian Zhian is willing, and others are still hesitating, and they have made up their minds.

“The master has a good reputation.” Shen Langke set aside and continued: “There should be not many friends, and there is no need for too much space. It’s in the open space inside the VIP building. The time is set at noon tomorrow, I have no time to get any tickets. Let’s get in first and foremost!”

After that, Shen Lang arched the master of Zhi’an and said that he was not sent, and he turned and went back.

Master Zhian also left immediately.

Other people on the scene are enthusiastically talking about it. If you are looking for a large venue, you can accommodate a lot of people. If you only have this inn, there are still a lot of open space, and the whole is limited.

Then it is really first come, first served!

So everyone asked how many people can be accommodated in the VIP building, the boss of the VIP building, know that Shen Lang put this opportunity in the inn, let them follow the money.

He certainly hopes that the more people, the better!

The seat is limited, does it need to take a place in advance? Come ahead, you can’t take up seats, you have to consume first. And tomorrow is noon, do you have to eat lunch at least?

Some people are more likely to start occupying seats this evening...

Businesses are always budget-conscious, and based on such considerations, he will immediately understand. Then a little helpless statement, although the space inside the inn is very big, but everyone is a tall man, can not be too cold, have to arrange seats overnight, can not let everyone squeeze.

Anyway, the meaning of a few words, the expression of the seat will not be too much, so that everyone has the mind to buy.

At this time, the boss is also very sorry, because Shen Lang, it was full last night, or else there will be a large number of guests tonight.

Confirmed that there is only one game, and the seat is limited, so many people are worried that they can't enter, they are willing to give the innkeeper a little money to sponsor, let them arrange seats as much as possible.

When the boss outside swayed his appetite to inspire everyone's enthusiasm, Yan Xiaoqi had been arranged to communicate with Shen Lang.

Shen Lang, they live in a separate building, and now the place is naturally in the courtyard. Space is really limited, Yan Xiaoqi also asked what Shen Lang should be arranged.

Shen Lang simply described it, and put on a high platform, so that he can overlook everyone on it. Other people just let them sit on the ground.

This can avoid the trouble of the stool, and more importantly – can sit more people!

Yan Xiaoqi is still very eye-catching, saying that he will immediately buy a batch of futon mats, which will not only take up more space, but also make these big squats really sit on the ground.

Shen Lang is still recognized by him, and he is directly responsible for the operation.

Going back to their room, I saw Xu Haoyue in the hall.

Lao Xu did not pay attention to Shen Lang's wealth plan, and seemed to have a little thought.

When Shen Lang saw his words and thoughts, he immediately thought of what it was.

“On the side of Qiu Lin Jianzong and Tingfeng, no one has come to contact me. Don't worry, this counts only a whole day. The gate of Qiu Lin Jianzong is not in the city, but in the surrounding mountains, go back to understand and ask It also takes time.”

At that time, he said that he would go to Qiu Lin Jianzong with Xu Yiyue, and he was welcome to visit, but this must also give Qiu Jianjian a little time to digest. It is best to wait for them. Inviting, that means the other party is prepared, not to appear or even misunderstand.

“Yeah. Not eager for a moment.” Xu Haoyue was a little embarrassed, and he lived a few hundred years old. He still can’t be calm.

This also makes him more admire to Shen Lang, the wave of the gods is the wave of God, can be calm and self-sufficient.

Just following it, some are just one person. It is certainly no problem to just stroll around. Now the latest developments need to use Lingshi, you can’t make your own ideas, you must go back and discuss with your elders and partners.

Time is limited and many people have left in a hurry. And some have the right to decide, know that the VIP building is full, and immediately go to the nearby inn to set the room, so as not to be able to grasp the good location, tomorrow will not have no seat.

With so many people busy, the news spread quickly to the ears of monks in Tangcheng. Everyone knows that there is also a “queue” in the VIP building here, and it is a valuable “principal”.

For a time, Shen Lang once again became the man of the discussion...

Chapter 867 - Invited by the sovereign

Originally, the location of the VIP building is relatively poor, so there is a large space, and it is only necessary to go out to pull guests, including nearby stores, business is not popular.

But this time, because of the light of the sinking waves, it’s a city. Although other stores are unknown, it is also a great effort to entertain.

The owner of the VIP building, looking at the meat at the mouth, can not fit the stomach, of course, it is a pity, and then simply put the seats outside, the aisle, maximize the use.

The monks who rushed to the Shenlang, even if they had to stay in other nearby inns, they still had to go to the VIP building to inquire about the latest news, even if they were sitting in the corridor.

Those who occupy a good position, afraid that when they are walked away and squeezed out, the wine will not continue to listen.

From the boss, the second child, to the chef and the purchase, the VIP building is completely busy.

However, Yan Xiaoqi, who was authorized by Shen Lang, also got the best cooperation from the boss. He temporarily hired people to speed up the construction of a simple table and buy futon mats.

For those who bring great benefits to them, and even the benefactors who will shape the brand, the boss is of course a full-scale cooperation. Whatever you want to eat and drink, you will definitely be satisfied for the first time.

Also in the case of tight manpower, I also arranged for Xiao Er to stay in front of their building to avoid outsiders.

This is of course a gesture. The dozens and hundreds of outside are self-cultivators. Don't say that a shop is a small one. Even if all the clerk are guarding together, they can't stop it.

But for those monks, no one dares to disturb the waves. The current Shen Lang has been passed over the gods.

Since yesterday, the earliest come to join in the fun, and now also occupy the best position, but also for their vision and with honor, become a general attitude of iron powder, acting as a role in maintaining order and maintaining the waves .

Because Yan Xiaoqi can get close to Shen Lang, not only the innkeepers are treated grandly, but other monks are also very polite to him. Some people directly give him benefits, hoping to bring words with Shen Lang.

Yan Xiaoqi was originally a small two-storey store. Now it is very enthusiastic to be treated by so many senior monks. Of course, it is also very exciting and satisfying.

But he still has self-knowledge, all of which are brought about by the aura of Shen Lang. If he really swells up, he promises others, and he will not do it if he does not say that he is unhappy, he can't do it, he is offended. These comprehensions are also unimaginable.

Therefore, he is also repeatedly reciting, but still enjoy the process of refusing to deny others.

On the morning of the next day, a guest came to visit and went to see Shen Lang alone.

Naturally, the people around us are always hostile. Everyone can't see Master Shen Lang alone. Why can you see them when you come?

Yan Xiaoqi is also a polite rejection, let him prepare Lingshi to buy tickets, can be seen at noon.

But this guest insisted that Shen Lang would meet him and let him inform him.

Yan Xiaoqi also insisted on rejecting it – because everyone said so, they all felt that their face was big and they could make Shen Lang special treatment. In fact, there is no!

In the current situation, so many self-cultivators are waiting here, and no one dares to rush in, and they don't have to wait until they are inside, they will stop.

“Patience and wait! Anyone wants to see Master Shen Lang alone, can you see it when you want to see it?”

“You friends in Tangcheng always feel that you are superior, and your face is bigger than ours. Don't forget that Master Shen Lang is also from other places!”

The people around me are a little ridiculed.

At the time when the guest was entangled in asking for a direct voice, the voice of Shen Lang was directly transmitted to the front hall.

“Yan Xiaoqi, come with me with a red wind.”

The sound was transmitted directly, and Yan Xiaoqi and the people around him heard it.

Yan Xiaoqi, he is not surprised how Shenlang knows, but did not expect that it was the guest that Master Shen Lang met with!

“Yes!” His voice could not be passed to the deep waves inside, but he answered with respectful respect.

“I am very sorry, I am also performing my duties. Come with me!”

Others who heard that this was named after Shen Lang, can only be envious.

This guest is the red wind of the tough front. Just now he said the situation with Yan Xiaoqi, and did not alarm too many people. Of course, the monks from other places may not be familiar with the management of the tough front.

After watching them leave, only someone recognized and thought of the tough front. I wondered if Shen Lang had set a weapon at the tough front, and now he sent it.

So everyone is calm, and no one is better than them. It's just the delivery staff of the weapon dealer.

In fact, it is not that Shen Lang always pays attention to the situation outside, but Xu Yueyue is more anxious than him.

Xu Haoyue has been waiting for the people of Qiu Lin Jianzong. According to Shen Lang's description, this red wind is a tough front, and the tough front belongs to Qiu Lin Jianzong, so he found out to him.

After Yan Xiaoqi came in with the red wind, Shen Lang and Xu Haoyue had already waited in the living room.

“Master Shen Lang.” Red wind shook hands at Shen Lang, and then also a gift to the next Xu Yanyue.

Can be with Shen Lang, from the grade and the realm are obviously much higher, he guessed that the elders of Shen Lang, can not be scornful.

He is also very embarrassed at this moment.

Just two days ago, Shen Lang was still a strange foreign kid. Even if he was high-profile, his grudges with Fan Wei made him sweat.

But I did not expect that these two days, he turned out to be a sensational figure!

This time, the group of heroes from all over the country came over and said that the sensation of the country is justified.

His attitude two days ago was a courtesy to the client, and later it was close to the teacher. Now, “Shenlang Master” is famous, and he is also naturally called the master.

“Red wind management, please sit.” Shen Lang invited Chifeng to sit.

“Oh, your name for the past two days, but it has been ringing in my ears Shen Lang faint smile: “The red wind is coming to me, there is something to say.” But it is no problem, this friend is also very high with you, Lin Zu Shi. ”

The red wind slammed.

Because everyone has seen it once, so you still need to be subtle, and then cut into the focus. On the other hand, it is also because the matter is shut down, this is an unfamiliar person, not a girl who was together that day, so he is not good to say directly.

Now I heard Shen Lang say so, and nodded.

“Yes, there is still a lot of eye-catching talks at noon today, and I will not delay your time.”

After that, he took out a hot stamp invitation.

“This is the invitation letter of the master’s handwritten book, and I hope that the two will go to Jianzong as a guest.”

He stooped forward and presented the invitation with respectful hands.

Chapter 868 - Strongest worker

Xu Haoyue has been waiting for this invitation letter. I want to go to Qiu Lin Jianzong to take a look and see how many ruins can be seen in the cold autumn.

However, he remained calm at this moment, and the invitation was received by Shen Lang.

After Shen Lang took the invitation, he did not rush to open it in person, but first answered it.

“There is a labor crisis, and I am also thankful for the arrangement of the general manager. We will definitely visit on time.”

Although the current situation is still not very clear, it is very likely that it is homologous, so there is no problem with being collectively referred to as oneself. Before the specific generation did not figure out, the red wind did not dare to support the big.

Of course, his modest attitude is also due to his working relationship.

“Right, Fanjia, I heard the news, they said that they will not entangle you. Oh, probably afraid. Passed to my ears, perhaps also intentional, want to pass to you through us “”

“Afraid? Not at all? This is Tangcheng, it is their territory.” Shen Lang smiled.

” Having said that, there are many martial art families in Tangcheng, not the one who owns the site.”

What he said is the truth. Tang City is far better than other cities in the field, but other cities may be a sect. The competition in Tangcheng is mostly.

“Right, there is a Yangzong who was a little in conflict with you yesterday. They don’t say that they are looking for trouble. Now there are so many people in the VIP building, they can’t get close.”

“Haha, this is exaggerated. I think it is because now I am in the limelight, they want to find me trouble, the cost will be relatively large, so I gave up. If...”

Shen Lang joked: “If I lose the lecture today, and everyone will call you, they will definitely jump out and kill me.”

The red wind can only be accompanied by a smile.

His identity is limited, he can maintain politeness and respect, but he can’t represent the promise of Qiu Lin Jianzong or the help of the tough front.

Now the identity of Shen Lang is different from the previous day. The timing is different, so there is not much time for chat. The red wind is very interesting. After a few simple sentences, he will rise to leave.

Shen Lang just sent him out in the courtyard, let Yan Xiaoqi, who was waiting in the distance, send him out, otherwise he would be surrounded by many people now.

Returning to the hall, Xu Haoyue has opened the invitation to read.

The above is written to invite Shen Lang, they will go to Qiulin Jianzong tomorrow as a guest, and the payment is Mo Feiliu. According to the red wind, it should be the contemporary emperor of Qiulin.

Xu Haoyue did not understand, and Shen Lang did not understand either. The memory of Jingrufeng has limited understanding of the big sects in Tangcheng. Qiu Lin Jianzong certainly knows, but the name of the contemporary lord is not clear.

However, this is the red wind personally sent over, the day is easy to say, the red wind is his younger brother, there should be no fake.

After everyone had used the lunch in advance, the long-awaited Shenlang Forum will begin!

As a keynote speaker, Shen Lang must maintain a certain mystery and did not go out to say anything, but Lao Xu was assigned to work by him.

The first is to install a soundproof cover to isolate the entire open space of the hospital. In this case, you can only ensure that you can buy the ticket to enter the room. Otherwise, other guests living in the VIP building can also erect in the guest room. Listen to your ears.

The second is the process of personally supervising the ticket sales by Xu Haoyue.

Let the old man make a horse, no doubt because his realm is high, and his soundproof cover can not be seen by others. And when he was in town, no one dared to play a slippery head.

After all, the base is large, what kind of people have, and there is no quality, or sincerely want to come to chaos and see the collapse of the waves.

Yan Xiaoqi is only the person responsible for it. The respect for him is from the authorization of Shen Lang. He has no strength.

There are Xu Haoyue, other talents are afraid to come.

In order to save time and ensure fluency, they are also required to prepare Lingshi in advance, and the two enter.

These have been waiting for a long time, of course, very exciting. Those who occupy a good position are expected from yesterday, and they all want to enter as soon as possible, and they also occupy a good position in it.

Shen Lang said at the time, first come first served, and finally there may be no seat!

Under the strong momentum of Xu Haoyue, the whole process is very smooth, and even those who are anxious will not dare to squash. And those who are upset and confused have also put away their minds.

After entering one by one, everyone chose to take a futon.

Some of them have successfully stayed in the VIP building. They thought they could be exposed to light. They found that the sound was completely isolated. When they started, they could only be anxious.

In order to avoid having no seats, I rushed to queue up to buy tickets.

After a while, I received more than one hundred of the finest stones.

Xu Haoyue, who didn't pay much attention to this plan, couldn't help but look at so many Lingshi.

Shen Lang is concerned about the number of people in the near field. Basically, the attendance rate has been completed, and the number of plugs is not enough. I will inform Xu Haoyue to stop "selling tickets."

The scene has already entered more than 200 people, but the lobby of the VIP building is not empty. Some people have entered, and they have come in outside, and there are still many hesitations to entangle whether to buy tickets.

After all, it is a person who is fifty in the middle of the stone. If it is the same door, it is a martial art family to pay one hundred.

As a result, I heard the suspension now. Ten of the original entanglements immediately rushed over to sell tickets.

In the capacity of Xu Haoyue, let him supervise the collection of tickets, and only Shen Lang can let him do it. Of course, it is impossible to be as excited as Yan Xiaoqi. When it is time to stop, he will close immediately.

For those who chased him to enter, he refused directly.

“Why! Two people are a fine stone, this is your open price, and we are not saving money.”

“Yes! Everyone is in, you can’t discriminate against us!”

“We have to go in too.”

Xu Haoyue stared at them coldly: “What have you done early? Now people are full!”

Just after the ticket purchase speed is full, they are only entangled because of expensive, but also want to wait, see if the last big sale, I did not expect to stop directly.

When Xu Haoyue’s eyes gazed over, they immediately let their hearts tremble, only to realize that this is a super powerful person, not that they can solve it.

Yan Xiaoqi beat the round field: “The masters will wait a little. If the response is good, and the voices of the people demanding are very high, maybe the Master Shen Lang will add up?”

Originally, Shen Lang refused, and later it was everyone’s appeal, and it was impressed by the sincerity of Lingshi. This time I earned it, maybe it will really add up.

With such a thought, they are relieved. Let others try water, maybe there is no value? Then don’t waste it.

Xu Haoyue did not pay attention to them at all, and brought Lingshi into it. He could not miss the opening of Shen Lang.

Chapter 869 - Successful teaching

The forum of Shen Lang, of course, can’t compare with the activities of the group, the scene environment, the number of people accommodated, etc., there is no way to compare.

However, because of the Master Zhian who opened the lecture yesterday, everyone’s expectations are very high.

Today, Master Zhian is also in the crowd. He and everyone buy tickets to listen to Shen Lang's opening.

After the scene was confirmed, Shen Lang appeared on the pulpit.

Although there are more than two hundred people, and more than half of them are older seniors, the young man of Shen Lang has no market at all.

In this regard, he still wants to thank Master Zhian. Although he heard nothing in the past yesterday, he also understood some theoretical status quo here.

Otherwise, he does not know where to start. As a lower-level human civilization, he does not dare to speak to more advanced civilizations.

Master Zhi'an, who was speaking yesterday, and several of the talkers, are very cautious. The content of the speeches and discussions cannot involve the secrets of their own teachers.

However, Shen Lang is not the same. He was originally the leader of the family, and he combined the excellent ideas of all parties, directly making his concept higher. Now, there is no need to worry about leaking anything.

In his opening process, there is a comprehensive introduction to the general direction, as well as specific details of the point operation.

Originally, everyone's expectations are very high, but I still feel a little worried. After all, he is too young. Everyone is worried that if one is a person who is good at speculation, he will lose.

But with the beginning of the speech, everyone was seriously immersed in it. Just like listening to the speech of Master Zhian yesterday, carefully remembering every sentence, every word, these can be repeatedly studied.

Shen Lang received more than one hundred of the finest stones. Of course, I was too embarrassed to cut corners. I talked more than Zhian Master for a while, about an hour, and then left for half an hour to answer the question.

When the speech ended, everyone felt that time passed too fast, and after all, the fee was paid, and it felt too little.

However, this time has already been announced, and the next time will be the time for questioning. Everyone took the time of Master Zhian yesterday, and didn't have time to worry about it. Hurry and ask questions.

With the answer to the questions, they began to discover different things. Shen Lang's answering questions was more careful and deeper than Master Zhi'an. Of course, it is not specific to tailor-made, but it is the point of clear and straightforward application.

As a result, more people want to get a chance to ask questions.

"Everyone! When someone asks questions, when I answer, I hope that you don't feel that you don't care about yourself. Listen well. Because I am willing to expand a bit more, but time is limited, it is impossible to repeat it again and again, the same kind of problem. I will only answer once!"

The people who were excited, everyone had to calm down and began to work hard to listen to the questions one by one.

Some of them can be inspired by the answer, and it is estimated that Shen Lang will not answer, and will no longer raise their hands.

Even if it was filtered so much, and time was controlled as much as possible, it was timed out and it was answered for forty minutes.

When I started to listen, because everyone was focused, I felt that time passed quickly. But now because of other people's questions, it is equal to splitting again and again. Everyone discovers that Shen Lang is actually kind, and when he answers the questions, he can catch up with the speech time of Master Zhi'an.

In the end, although everyone did not be satisfied, basically everyone's problems were solved, or they all inspired themselves from the process of answering questions.

This lecture, the perfect end.

However, people at the scene are reluctant to get up, and some people have made a suggestion.

“Master Shen Lang! If we are willing to pay another Lingshi, can we continue to talk to us?”

This proposal has received the support of quite a few people, and they all feel that they have benefited a lot. If you come back again, you can better cherish every detail and have more to gain.

However, some of them felt that it was enough and did not respond.

Shen Lang smiled and said: “You guys! If you really open another game, but don’t give others the opportunity to sign up, then let’s talk for everyone, isn’t this a cut-off? Say it, greed is not bad! Give you too much at a time. The content, you will get smaller.”

It’s not bad to greedy and chew... Everyone wonders if this is the truth.

At this time, Shen Lang had already bowed to everyone and then left the pulpit.

Of course, he actually wants to continue to talk about one more, more than one hundred elite stones!

However, he is more aware of the truth that “things are rare”. These people are willing to buy tickets, not because of sincerity, but because of rarity.

If Shen Lang’s speech is free and open, or missed today, there will be so many people who care about the second and third games tomorrow.

Shen Lang left, everyone was helpless and began to excel. But I didn’t leave immediately, but I first discussed it with people around me.

The specific content of others will not say too much, discussion, inquiry, that is, some have not heard clearly, understand.

Shen Lang is now back in their living room.

Xu Haoyue also sat in town to maintain order, so as to avoid confusion. Count Dracula and the canoe are also back, and the eyes of both of them looking at the waves are full of incredible.

Earl Dracula was the one who saw the low strength of Shen Lang in the past. Even if he grew fast, he really grew up.

Falling in the canoe is a lot of contact with Shenlang, and I know a lot.

However, listening to Shen Lang's more than an hour of speech today, it seems that they really listen to the speech of a famous master, not at all like a young man's opinion.

This makes them very unbelievable. If Xu Haoyue said this, it would be normal.

If Xu Haoyue is a adoration for Shen Lang and is arranged to collect tickets, they really have to suspect that Shen Lang is the support of Xu Haoyue.

For this unexplained magic They are not good to ask, but further feel that the deep waves are unfathomable.

Needless to say, the relationship between the canoe and the Shenlang, although the Count of Dracula is a friend, but in the end it is the intersection of that time, after all, is not profound, the three people are the weakest link.

This time, he is also a friend. Everything is obeying the arrangement of Shen Lang, but he is too lazy to pay attention to many things, not like Xu Haoyue is very respectful to Shen Lang.

With today's speech, he was more respected for Shen Lang.

At this time, there was a sigh of relief in the lobby of the VIP Building, which was not so small, and it was not like the shackles of those who had just left.

The Shenlang gods examined the past and immediately frowned.

“I’ll go see it.” After talking to the two of them, he went straight out.

The canoe and Count Dracula were also busy going out.

Chapter 870 - Turn in the income.

Shen Lang just left the podium directly, just want to maintain the mystery of the “master.”

If the outside is just a normal thing, he will not run out in person, and this is really a trouble!

Because of the relationship that has just ended, many people are still communicating in the hospital and are not willing to let go. Therefore, in the front hall of the main building of the inn, only a small part of it has just come out. Most of the people have not bought tickets and left to watch the fun.

Just before the moment, three people came.

When they came in, they announced a message directly to the owner of the VIP building:

Because the VIP Building is not the co-organizer of the Great Britain Club and does not have the qualification to hold the forum. Their activities here today must be handed over to the organizers of the group, and then the organizer will send the reward to the presenter.

The VIP building owner has all the employees, and they can maintain a certain degree of hardship in these two days. Because Shen Lang lives here, they have this scarce resource. Otherwise, so many senior comprehensions, if they are looking for trouble, can’t stand it anymore.

But now it’s not the same. This is the organizer of the group, and it directly binds the problem to them and lets them turn in all the income.

The boss was scared to the ground, and they could bear the crime. If they want to destroy them, it is just a matter of raising their hands!

There is income, although his buddy Yan Xiaoqi is responsible for the statistics of “receiving tickets”, but all the Lingshi, are the masters of Shen Lang took away, he can still find it?

After being intimidated, he immediately began to cry for mercy.

The scene left to see the lively, although some are not willing to enter the market, have opinions on Shen Lang and Xu Haoyue. But more is not willing to pay for it, so I want to stay and see if I can hear something from everyone’s mouth.

There is not even a bit of darkness in my heart, waiting to see jokes, seeing that everyone has not learned anything at a high price.

But no matter how it is, it will not be directed at the inn. Now, I heard the announcement of the staff of the three organizers of the group.

“Who has opinions? Stand out and say! Qunying will be a grand event of Tangcheng for ten years. It is responsible for organizing the Tangcheng multi-party alliance. Everyone started working hard a year ago.”

“And the forum activities of the group will be free to everyone. It is not for some businessmen to make money!”

Originally everyone was dissatisfied with them on behalf of the organizers. Is this not a rush? Said to be some businessmen, what is actually meant by Master Shen Lang?

But most of them are unwilling to spend money, and others are price-sensitive. When I heard the last sentence, I felt very reasonable.

The activities of the “Lecture” and “On the Road” of the Qunying Club are all free. Why can he make money by breaking the waves?

Or to say that, Shen Lang wants to pay, it should also be given by the organizer, and everyone who listens does not need to pay.

From the point of view of interest, let them all be quiet, no longer for the irrelevant Shen Lang and the inn.

At this time, Shen Lang has arrived!

At the end of the speech, Xu Haoyue also withdrew the soundproof cover. Just now, the people inside have heard it. Everyone has come out here to see what happened.

“You want to do something?”

“This.....”

The three of them have just been here, directly to the innkeeper announced that they want to express their meaning clearly, but do not need to face Shen Lang personally.

If you are interested in the waves, you will naturally ask them to go in, or go with them, and communicate privately.

However, I did not expect that Shen Lang would appear directly and openly, and directly questioned whether they were going to “do things.”

“You are the master of Shen Lang that everyone said?” The one among the three is still calmer.

Shen Lang glanced at him: “Say!”

“This is the case. You can come out and speak for everyone. The organizers of our group are very welcome and happy. But the external charges are debatable. We can’t let such profiteers break the signs of the group.”

While talking about it, the man’s big move reached out to the innkeeper, indicating that it was not aimed at Shen Lang.

“If the organizer does not punish this kind of behavior, it will be done here today. There will be such behaviors tomorrow, and the day after tomorrow, then the group will be messed up, and the comprehension friends who have arrived in the distance will also spend money and disappointed.”

“So, we specifically convey the above instructions, so that the profiteers will hand over all the income. Of course, our organizers will pay the compensation of Master Shen Lang at their discretion.”

He spoke very quickly, explaining the problem as much as possible, so as not to let the Shen Lang move in the middle.

Fan Jia, Yi Yangzong, but this is the encounter

“Is it finished?” Shen Lang was patiently waiting for him to finish.

At this time, most of the people also came out, making the hall look a bit crowded.

“It’s over.” The man tried to squeeze out a smile.

The innkeeper wants to shout, but he also understands that in front of these self-cultivators, there is no such thing as his mouth. He can only wait for the “sentence judgment”. The only thing he can do is to secretly pray.

After asking for him, Shen Lang said directly and bluntly: “The profiteer is me.”

“...”

Upon hearing this, the innkeeper took a long sigh of relief, and the master of Shen Lang was still derogatory! Directly helped him to smash the black pot that was buckled.

The three staff members were embarrassed.

They will point to the innkeeper in person, not to refer to the mulberry, but to give Shen Lang a step, so that everyone has a buffer, this ordinary boss, sacrificed to sacrifice.

Who can think of it, Shen Lang directly took the body!

“I didn’t use the signs of your group to attract people. Second, I didn’t occupy your channels and platforms. Why should I become an illegal profiteer, I have to hand over all the income that everyone gave me?”

Just listening to the speech, I was deeply impressed by Shen Lang. At the moment, I just came out and saw that Shen Lang and the people were squatting, and I still haven’t figured out the situation. I heard it now, I know someone is coming to pick a peach!

The temper is directly screaming fuck! What are you counting? We are willing to pay the spirit stone to listen to the master of Shen Lang to speak, shut your ass? ”

“What do you want to do? Master Shen’s income is for you? Can you grab it?”

They have more than two hundred people. Once someone opens their mouths, everyone else will follow suit and the momentum will rise.

The three people felt that they were about to be swallowed by the spit. They could barely explain: “This is not the meaning of this. We are talking about rape... The inn has not been allowed, it is not qualified to do the pulpit...”

“Use your home? Or use the people of your organizers?”

“Let’s have a meeting together to discuss what’s going on? Are you looking for a signboard with your group’s forum?”

I don’t need to talk about it any more. Everyone followed the two points that Shen Lang just emphasized and shouted loudly.
