

First Strong 901

Chapter 901 - Also, there are

Having already said this, it has already been shown that he will not pursue a girl like the average person, and the rest is the time to settle down.

In fact, for the rain, Yan Lang has been taking care of her for a long time, there are good things to think about her, like Yinquan is specially obtained for her, and sent directly to the Ice Palace.

This is the same as the pursuit of ordinary people to send flowers and give gifts. In essence, the route is different.

At this time, Shen Lang was so open and honest, and did not make her feel uncomfortable, but also wanted to face it.

After all, when they are not classmates, they have had two “re-recognition” contacts for more than three years.

Looked at a few of them, their eyes are watching her, Zheng Yumeng’s eyes are a bit complicated, the gaze of the raft is a guilty guilty, only Dorothy is completely no matter what the attitude of watching the lively.

“I am willing.”

The rain fell calmly and said the decision, making the scene more quiet.

“You... have you considered it clearly?” The canoe whispered a question and she didn’t know what to say.

Zheng Yumeng is a bit discouraged: “Hey! You shouldn’t be too cold, why should you share with us, boring.”

It didn’t feel embarrassing to fall into the rain. Just as she could respond calmly, it was very calm for Zheng Yumeng’s spit at the moment.

“Isn’t that cheaper for you? You know, when I was still at school, I saw my uncle and aunt as a girlfriend of Shen Lang.”

Zheng Yumeng’s eyes: “What about that? I have been with my uncle and my aunt for the past two years. They all look at me as a daughter-in-law!”

The two of them bickered, but they made the atmosphere a little more active. For Shen Lang, there was no embarrassment.

“That... since I said it, I don’t hide anything, by the way, at the beginning of the year, I didn’t have a good time... I cough...”

When he said this, the eyes of four people looked at him, and Zheng Yumeng did not reconcile with the rain.

“You really have a leg with her, is she seduce you? Hey! It’s a big breast, what good is she.” Zheng Yumeng is obviously eating.

Before Feng Jiji was “seduce” to Shen Lang in Tangyuan, it was direct, but she did not care before, and she felt that this kind of woman who looks very popular, Shen Lang would not like it.

Even after getting along a lot, the impression changed a bit. Shen Lang also helped her improve her strength, but she did not expect them to get together.

Falling rain and falling canoe did not show anything. For them, the two people together with Shen Lang have already broken the concept, and this is more than two people to share, there is nothing more to say.

Feng Wuji, they have seen it here before, although they are not familiar, but since they have been with Shenlang, it is the difference shared by two people and three people.

When the atmosphere was a bit awkward, Dorothy cleared her throat.

“Cough... Since I have said it, Miss Bihaihuan also said it together, so that everyone will have to face it again.”

Shen Lang directly looked at her, what is it with! Do your maid role, isn't this a mess?

“Bi... Haihuan? Which one is this? I haven't heard it!” Zheng Yumeng has been a little helpless.

The wind is not good, I have seen it. The chest is really letting them swear by the Buddha. The kind of feminine charm is not comparable to them.

Where is this blue sea joy? Why does Dorothy know that she doesn't know?

She spent most of the year with Dorothy.

“I haven't heard of the surname Bi.” It is a bit strange to drop the canoe and the rain.

However, it is not surprising that the surnames and surnames are fewer surnames.

“Don't listen to Dorothy's chaos, Bihai Huan's name is Bihai, it's one of my apprentices and students, not the same.” Shen Lang took a look at Dorothy.

Zheng Yumeng immediately muttered: “I also worshipped you as a teacher, and you taught me to start from scratch.”

“To the head. Miss Bihai is very attached to you, if it is not a long way, it is estimated that long ago willing to take the lead.” Dorothy smiled and continued to expose.

“Come here, you said!” Shen Lang did not say good to her.

Dorothy looked at him and seemed to be a little unhappy. He shrugged his shoulders: “I clarify, Miss Bihai, I have only seen one side. I really call the master a teacher. I really like it, but it should not be so... ...”

Silent waves are speechless, are you clarifying? Speaking like a leg, it is so bad.

Seeing the three of them, they all believed in Dorothy's words, he could only say it himself.

"In fact, there is nothing. They are from another world. When I was trapped in the forest of death, I did not get a spiritual stone for a year and a half. Even if I knew the way out, there was no energy to stimulate the formation. Later I met Bihaihuan. Asking them to ask for a spiritual stone, the feedback is to teach her how to cultivate."

"Later overseas, when she first met Dorothy, she was sacrificed and sacrificed, and opened an ancient space transmission array. When I saved her, I passed them together, that is, Bihaihuan their world."

Shen Lang looked at the canoe again: "The world we went to The place where they are called Nakajima is not the name of the world, just an island on the huge world. The mainland, and Bihaihuan where they are, is on the other continents of Nakajima overseas. It is the same but isolated world."

Because the amount of information is too large, and a lot of things can be said clearly without a few words, so everyone can still hear the clouds, even Dorothy and the canoe can not fully understand.

But the general meaning is that everyone understands – Bihaihuan is another world.

Since it is not a world, even if there is really something with Shen Lang, it can only be visited occasionally, and it will not have much impact.

At this time, a waiter began to serve, letting Shen Lang breathe a sigh of relief.

It's also a problem for women!

After cultivating to the back, it is still a temporary affair, like ah, will be more specific cultivation.

However, he is still a young man in this world, and he can't put it down. For the time being, everyone is still very good, and there is no such thing as affecting his progress.

Everyone wants to share a boyfriend, which would have been mutually exclusive. However, it is a teacher and sister to fall into the rain and the canoe, and it is recommended and allowed by Master. Even if they are jealous of each other, the two will naturally have a camp.

Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy have long been in contact with each other and are also a camp.

But now because there is still a wind that is not so familiar with them, a world girl who has only seen one side of Dorothy, Bihaihuan, four people who died together in the dead forest, they also joined together. Instead, with a meal, it dispels resistance and embarrassment and becomes harmonious.

Chapter 902 - It's useless to send Lingshi

After they had finished eating, Feng Jiji arrived, and Qiao Shuyu and Nan Yiye also got off the plane, on the way.

They all came at the fastest speed, and basically can be sure that some of the closers in the more convenient and convenient city have already arrived at Haishan.

Falling into the rain and falling in the canoe sisters, naturally it is necessary to contact the family. When the rain fell over, they also informed the contact person to return to the Ice Palace to report, and now they can also contact Master.

Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy did not care about them, and they went back to their houses.

Shen Lang booked three rooms in advance. Now that I know the relationship between Feng and Yu Ji, Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy chose to live in a room and leave another room to Feng Wuji.

Of course, this is not because of concern for the wind, but to consider them one by one. If the hotel has no room at that time, will the wind not sleep in the room? So simply the two of them together.

Before Wu Jiji had confirmed that Shen Lang had returned safely, she did not stop at this day. She personally added remote control to spread the information that Shen Lang needed to release, and collected information from all parties.

In order to save the time of the waves, in addition to filtering once, she will also cross-check and compare once again, and finally report to Shen Lang, which are the key information after the selection.

Up to now, she has received the wind, and all the world's self-cultivators are rushing to Haishan, and as the spokesperson of Shenlang's external public relations, many foreigners have contacted her and signed up for her.

After saying that after three days, the domestic comprehensions are still in the wait-and-see stage, and many of them are coming to the scene.

In foreign countries, especially in some distant countries, it is suddenly necessary to arrange for people to come over and take time, and they cannot wait and see. I am afraid that there will be no quota at the time, but it can only be booked in advance.

The finest stone, of course, can only be delivered on the scene, but it can't be registered with the same sentence.

In order to show their sincerity, they all paid millions of dollars in cash.

The finest stone is the high-value of the mainland of China, where the comprehension resources are far better than the earth. This is the family life of Bi Haihuan, and it can only be used for the primary Lingshi road. The medium value is different. The fine stone is also very valuable.

On earth, the finest stone is already a rare item. If it is not because of the hundreds of years of secrets, no one will believe that it will pay for the fine stone to buy tickets.

Compared to the fine stone that can't be measured by money, the one million deposit is nothing.

Of course, there is a screening for the wind, and if the assessment is unable to pay the fine stone, she will find an excuse to reject it. If there is an institution or family that has come to the fore, it is indeed affordable, and they will first receive their deposit.

Probably the information on the overseas comprehension, it was known by the major sects in the country. So from the evening, the last time someone participated in the development plan, I began to ask her to make a reservation.

Shen Lang also told her how many people can be accommodated in the conference room scheduled for today, so that she can consider charging the quota.

Feng Wuji considers that there will be someone who is in private contact with Shen Lang, so I mainly want all the information in the conference room, indicating that she will arrange everything.

For her ability to work, Shen Lang is of course reassuring.

Just before they returned to the house, Shen Lang also gave the Wannian elixir that was given by Mo Feiqiu in the cold autumn, all to the two canoes and the falling rain. As for how they were distributed, let them go and fall again. Negotiated.

This trip has been a lot of benefits, even if the river is still eccentric, there will not be such a big gap.

For Zheng Yumeng, it was the fire crystal that was bought, and the large piece of fire spar dug in the abyss of Qiulin's swords, which was given to her once and let her go to refining and absorbing.

Dorothy has nothing to do with her this time. After all, she is still on the traditional route. The way of Count Dracula is certainly excellent, but Shen Lang knows it is limited and cannot directly copy it.

Now there is no wind in the wind, Shen Lang is also a gift, is to give her a nine-time purple lotus, let her be sure, then refine.

Soon after, Qiao Shuyu and Nan Yiye also arrived. They had already joined the plane after the plane was disembarked. They also continually contacted Shenlang on the road and went directly to the hotel room.

“Shen brother, our grandfather...”

Although they are also friends, after all, the relationship is not as good as their girls, and they are rushing around, and of course they care about their grandfather.

This is also representative of the Beihai Qiao family and the Nantian family. So after chilling, you will go straight to the topic.

“Two of Qiao Yuxian and Nanliuchuan are actually coming back than me, but I am also very confused about where I am now.”

Shen Lang said the truth, the two of them are misunderstanding.

When they rushed over, they will continue to understand the situation, and the two families will also give them the latest news, so they all know the conference after three days.

The language of Shen Lang is unknown now. In their view, it is a matter of information value.

When they came, the current homeowner of the Qiaojianan family, , had already let them carry some resources in advance. On the way to the two people, they were also ready. At this moment, they immediately took out the prepared fine stone.

Looked at the two of them, Shen Lang is speechless.

“Where do you treat me? I will collect tickets for the development of the cloth because it is not familiar with other people, and the news can not be given. With friends, you are friends, that is, Qiao Yuxian, Nanliuchuan, and friends.”

“Shen brothers don’t misunderstand, everyone is a good friend, of course we will not tarnish friendship. But this is the ticket for my grandfather. He has already come over, and will attend the three-day conference.”

“Yes, yes, mine too. It is a ticket for Grandpa.”

The grandfather they said, of course, is not the disappearance of Qiao Yuxian and Nanliuchuan, but the grandfather's brother Joe Zhantian and Nanliushui.

“It's two of them, I know it too, can't...”

“Fair, everything is still fair, otherwise other sects will say you gossip. You will accept it!”

The two men insisted on putting the one of the finest stones to make Shen Lang.

Shen Lang is now in the top of the Lingshi also has a few hundred, two are really not enough to make him heart, can not care about the human condition.

“You don't regret it, I just accepted it, and I don't know how the two of Jonan's current situation is.” Shen Lang said half-jokingly.

Qiao Shuyu and Nan Yiye smiled a little.

“I was serious! I was in danger there. I stayed hostage and held a martial art there. All the comprehens of the earth left. It was almost two months ago. It's a matter of course. They should have returned soon!”

Chapter 903 - Genius blow

Shen Lang told the two of them about the process, including the arrival of passengers on the passenger ship, and then his personal information, of course, did not say.

After listening to it, the mood of Qiao Shuyu and Nan Yiye was a bit low.

Originally, Shen Lang came back, but there was no news from their grandfather. Whether they were or the family behind them, they were worried, so they would come over urgently and would like to know more in-depth information.

But the news that is now available is not good news.

There were more than two months of sinking waves over there, and the ice palace with her was in a canoe, and they all came back safely. So many earth powers, but the collective disappeared!

This must be an accident. Otherwise, it is impossible for Shen Lang to be stronger than so many people.

“Shen brothers, according to your speculation, what will they be?” Qiao Shuyu was not willing to ask.

“It’s possible to be pitted by someone over there, or lost in another space, and you can’t find the way back.”

Shen Lang did not have a clue. After all, it has been two months. Even if I can go back and find Yuxianmen, they are really harmed and will not admit it. There is no evidence.

“Can you... take us to find out?” Nan Yiye tried to ask.

After asking it out, he also knew that the request was a bit too much. He smiled and added a sentence: “The Shen brother can come back safely, and it is not so big to think of danger, or you have a way. Of course, we must offer a generous reward. Let you run white.”

Shen Lang shook his head slightly: “If everyone has come back safely, it means that there are traces to follow. But there are dozens of them in the number of nearly one hundred, all of which are the strongest in the earth, and they are not sure to come back more confidently. The two of us are more like an unexpected miracle.”

This answer made them all silent.

is not that right?

A few hundred years ago, the group of powerful people on the planet far more than today have gone. Although there has not been a large-scale exploration in the future, but some people have been there for hundreds of years, there is no news, or there will be no “no return to hell”.

This time, most of the people did not come back. It was really a miracle if they were both swaying and falling.

This is because they are friends, I believe that the words of Shen Lang, changed to unfamiliar people, at least half suspected that Shen Lang and the two did not enter the sea without jail, but fled back, and returned after months of harboring overseas. Of course, the conference will be seen as a fraud.

“That... If we organize another person to go, how big is the chance to find them?” Qiao Shuyu asked again.

Shen Lang said seriously: “First of all, if you organize people again, the scale of strength will never reach the last time. Even if I have my experience, it is more likely to die.”

Both of them laughed bitterly.

If it has passed three or five years, it will be over, and everything will be put down. But now, let alone the interests, the emotions of my grandfather alone can't be put down!

The same is true of other sects. Master ancestors and fathers and grandfathers have both the feelings of their loved ones and the strength of the martial art. If they have the opportunity to find them, of course they still hope.

The question is how much it costs!

If it is to die, even if it has been confirmed that it can lead to other worlds, no one is willing to pay for it.

“You don't have to worry. Why do I have to do this conference?”

Shen Lang laughed and laughed at himself: “I think Lingshi wants to be crazy and dare to fool the world?”

“what do you mean.....”

“My target group is all the martial art families in the previous development plan. But after all, it is not organized by me. I can’t contact them one by one, so in this way, let the families come over. Give the information to everyone, and everyone. Let’s discuss it together. After all, this is the backbone of the global comprehension, all disappeared and annihilated, and it will be a major blow to the earth’s comprehens.”

Both Qiu Yu and Nan Yiye nodded again and again, and felt that Shen Lang said it makes sense.

They were very frustrated, but if there are nearly 100 major factions from different parts of the world, there may be better ways.

“I understand that if you just openly let the people of the relevant family sects come to discuss it, you will be jealous. After all, the news has already passed, and many sects who are not qualified to go have been dissatisfied, and some people have organized the team to go. ”

“So, the admission fee for a fine stone is equal to the selection of the middle and low-end monks, otherwise it will be like a meeting, and it is not a solution.”

Both of them immediately expressed their understanding of Shen Lang.

Shen Lang smiled and did not deny it.

Although there is such a meaning, earning a stone is also very important!

First-hand confidential information, can you send it in white? He doesn’t care about a two superior stone, but dozens and hundreds are different.

After the exchange was over, Shen Lang also sent them to settle down first. The two of them naturally needed to immediately respond to the news. They were not polite, but they spent a lot of time, including calling them to fight together. friend.

Considering it, there will be a lot of entertainment tomorrow and tomorrow, and Shen Lang has no resignation, and promised to stay up late.

Feng Wuji is the busiest one. The trivial chores of Shen Lang are responsible for her. Of course, there is no time and mood to go to bed and night.

Several other people have been swaying together in the last dead forest. After Tianshan's departure, the past half a year has passed, and this is the first time that everyone has gathered together.

Qiao Zhantian and Nanliushui did not know for the time being. When they stayed up late, they were still two of them, and there was no one in Qiao's home.

The purpose of this trip has come to an end. For the time being, there is no further progress. The two of them have also been put down first. The beautiful friends who have not seen each other for a long time are also very happy.

But soon, the two people were not happy.

"So what... The sinking brother is a genius, and the miracle on his body will not be said. Dorothy, the girl, the Zheng girl, you are three higher than our realm, and you can't see your strength. But"

What makes them deeply affected is naturally the change of the canoe.

"The palace owner, in the dead forest, you are just like us, they are all in the late stage of the real thing. But now you... I am completely unable to see through!"

Joe Shu Yu smiled and sighed.

He has always been a little bit interested in the raft, going to the death forest, that is, he invited him, and Shen Lang just thought about matching them, but now they have got it together.

What he said was still euphemistic. The one that was originally the worst was the weakest. When they upgraded to a level, the canoe improved by two levels, which is already very rare, but it is even worse than them.

Now that the two of them have not seen the depth of the canoe, they can feel that they are not worse than the three of them. They should all break through the level of the gods.

This former first genius, looking at being overtaken one by one, is quite sad.

Chapter 904 - Goodbye disciple

In addition to being hit, the two people are also shocked!

The three people who fell into the rain, Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy did not say it, and they were stronger than them. Just saying that it was a canoe, there should have been no big leap in the past few months. Her change has been in the last three months!

What happened in these three months?

Is it because of the relationship that has been taken care of with Shen Lang?

Or is it because of the go to the sea of innocence, the adventures that lead to the other world?

No one needs to answer, they immediately have their own answers, it must be the reason for both!

After I figured it out, I regret it very much.

I knew that there was such a big advantage, and I followed my grandfather in the past. As long as I followed Shen Lang, I would not only return safely, but also be able to make great progress!

Did you go to the death forest for a month, but have you already verified it?

After regretting, they immediately lighted their eyes again, and their eyes turned from the canoe to the body of Shen Lang.

“Why?” Shen Lang looked at their two eyes and could not help but frowned.

“Hey, Shen brother, no! Shen Da Ge, Shen Uncle!”

Qiao Shuyu looked like a dog’s leg. He smiled and said: “Is there a chance to go to the sea without jail? I must pre-order me, and you can be a cow!”

“And me, I am the same.” Nan Yiye said with a busy schedule.

“Nerve! You two, can you have a bit of Beihai Qiaojia, Nantian Shijiazi?” Shen Lang gave them a look.

The rest of the scene, all went to the death forest together, but also first saw the change in the strength of the canoe, of course, understand why they are so dog legs.

In fact, they also want it!

However, Shen Lang today, in addition to Dorothy, has already sent them a lot of good resources, not greedy. Although everyone can guess, but don’t say it, lest they be embarrassed.

“What son! In front of you, Grandpa, I am the younger brother!” Joe Shuyu also joked and said.

Both of them have fully realized a little bit, followed by Shen Lang, the benefits are great!

Think about it a year ago, Shen Lang is just a rookie who has just entered their eyes. Six months ago, he was already talking to their grandfathers!

Now, look at this, even their grandfather is more than a lot.

A year ago, in the status of Shen Lang, I wanted to hold their thighs, but I was not qualified.

Now, it is fortunate that I put down my posture early and took the thigh of Shen Lang.

“The two sons, you can wash white this evening, invite him to talk in the candlelight night. Hehe...” Zheng Yumeng smiled a word, so everyone was sweating.

A few of them are speechless, and Shen Lang is often passively accepting the beauty. The wind is no good and the blue sea is happy. It's also a female color, and it's not a male color.

Qiao Shuyu and Nan Yiye are secretly laughing, the innate difference!

If they are beautiful, they will inevitably use physical weapons and have long been close to Shen Lang. Now, it is difficult to do, and others may not accept it.

The jokes made them all over the past six months and disappeared, and they became more harmonious.

And this meal came down, and Jonan and the two were not just joking. They had changed their attitude unconsciously.

Before they went to the death forest, even after they came back, they still had the head of the family. Even if their personal strength is not as good as the waves, the family forces are there.

But now it's not the same, let alone Shen Lang is unfathomable. The group of women around him is already above the realm!

In terms of estimating the pattern of the earth's comprehension, Shen Lang is no less inferior to any famous group.

Joe Shuyu, who is eager to fall into the canoe, because she has gone to the sea, there is no chance. Now, goodbye, I want to pay attention to speed up the progress of the pursuit, but seeing her strength, she has given up.

I don't think she can't match her, she is not worried that she can't look at him, nor does she think she has a leg with Shen Lang.

Rather, the two of them have experienced life and death in different worlds, and Shen Lang has helped her to quickly ascend to the realm of the gods. It is almost a step into the sky, reaching a realm that may not be achieved in a lifetime.

Not to mention the rewards of the body, it will certainly be secretly promised. In contrast, the aura of his Beihai Qiaojiazi is far from enough.

Although they are friends and have fought together, it is a win-win cooperation deal, unlike the early help of Yue Zhennan.

Therefore, Shen Lang will give them information in moderation, or when they are friends, but it is impossible to send them to them.

The next day, more and more monks rushed to the seamounts, even more than the last exchange meeting.

Feng Wuji also passed to the winds of all aspects of Shen Lang, and many overseas forces are also on the way. The domestic questioning of him began to become smaller, because more people feel that they are more credible, and that they come to the site to verify, they know the true and false.

The news of overseas comprehension will, of course, spread in the country, and the major sects will speed up the speed of liaison with the wind. Those who have not, or are not qualified to participate in, the non-returned plan Stayed, hurry to find her first. The last time was a passive choice. It was initiated by a foreigner. Now this time, it is eligible to buy a ticket.

Feng Wuji has personally confirmed the size of the conference room, and has also consulted with the hotel. If there are many people, you can change to a larger conference room.

Therefore, for the tickets, of course, she is more and more good, try to “sell money” for Shen Lang.

Those powerful martial art families naturally have nothing to say and can't wait to accept their reservations. If it is weak, it is not rejected, but it is recommended that they come as soon as possible. The Lingshi can be submitted on site to confirm the quota.

On the evening of the third day, Shen Lang saw several unexpected people.

Gao Lihe and Sheng Sheng!

Last year, it was hit hard by the lord. Although there was a reduction of Dan from the Nanjia Essence, and a large number of drug spirits in Shenlang, the recovery speed was still limited. Before leaving, their status was not very good.

When I came back this time, Tianshan Jianzong heard the news and would definitely arrange for someone to come over, but Shen Lang's estimate would be to praise the representative.

Because Zun Zun and Gao Lishen San are all disabled, Chen Yuhe, Yang Songbiao and other elders should stay in Jianzong.

I didn't expect to be accompanied by the singer, but it was a high separation and a sacred sacred.

What made him a little surprised and even surprised is that the two of them have recovered to seven or eight eight!

Seeing Shen Lang again, the two of them were also very excited and bowed to Master.

Shen Lang has observed more and understands that it is definitely after he left, they are under more pressure, so they took the risk of taking Neydan to stay and refining the inner energy of Nedan to complete the injury. restore.

Chapter 905 - 2 old shocked

Shen Lang saw them both, and he was a little hesitant. Do you want to tell them about the cold autumn?

If you want to tell, naturally you need to tell his secret.

Although it is not as good as one hundred and one hundred, it is not good to know more people.

Said to a few of them, because Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy will certainly not be rumored, but the canoe and the falling rain are also guaranteed not to talk nonsense, including their masters falling.

But the two of them can't be counted as others. On the one hand, they have already worshipped him as a teacher. It is also true that he is regarded as a master. It is really difficult to do it with their centenary age and generation.

On the other hand, Shen Lang is also clear that they misunderstood him as a reincarnation of the cold autumn.

Moreover, Gao Li is still a descendant of the cold autumn, and it is said that he is qualified to know the information of his ancestors.

When they reported their respective situations and reported the situation of the Tianshan Jianzong, Shen Lang also made discretion, or decided to talk to them. Even if they don't go to the mainland of China, no one will send back information.

However, this is a confession of these two "old disciples", not to the Tianshan Jianzong, so I sent the praise to him and asked him to settle down for the three of them.

Before Shen Lang gave them to Dan, and both of them were very pessimistic. I felt that Master was ready to go.

Think about this less than two years, the emergence of Shen Lang, let the Tianshan Jianzong of the Western Region of the Pian Anzhen really brushed the sense of existence.

Although there were also crises in the crisis, including the two of them, they died a little bit, but they broke up the alliance of the masters of many people and killed the lords. I have upgraded the Tianshan Jianzong to the category of first-class sects. This is already a reputation that I don't know for many years.

Just because of the loss of Shen Lang, when Shen Lang left, they felt that their responsibilities were even greater. Even if they could not lay a bigger honor, at least they must hold the prestige created by Master, and they would not let the swordsman who had just started ZTE be beaten. Fall.

With a desperate spirit, the two old men refining and absorbing the inner Dan, and he treated himself with a self-healing injury.

Now I have the opportunity to see Shen Lang again, so that they are very excited, I feel that the future is full of hope, they can see a more brilliant future.

However, after two people are the old guys who have lived for a hundred years, they will not lose their observation of the details when they are excited. Shen Lang has just arranged to praise, although it is reasonable, but still let them feel “open”.

So at this point, let yourself keep calm and wait for Master’s instructions.

“High separation, sacred, I am not your master after all, but you two are really when I am a master?”

Shen Lang seriously asked such a sentence, let them both be shocked.

The high and the sacred sacred together.

“What is the meaning of this teacher? Although you are not the early teacher of our two, but after we accepted us, we taught us a lot of things, including the manuscripts of the cold autumn ancestor, and found us precious and precious. The inner medicine of Nedan has our present.”

“I still have to work hard to even help the Nantian family to do things in exchange for the cure for you! You are our teacher!”

Both of them are sincere and fearful. They don’t know where to let Master be dissatisfied, or that Master is not willing to stay in Tianshan Jianzong.

After returning this time, I didn’t go back to the Tianshan Jianzong. Instead, I was developing a cloth meeting here in Haishan. It was a bit unusual, but because I was too excited, they didn’t think much before.

It's starting now seven times and eight times...

"Well, then I want to tell you a secret of mine, I hope you keep it secret."

"Yes!" The two men quickly agreed, although they were still embarrassed, I don't know what Master meant.

"I used to find an excuse to come to Tianshan Jianzong, obviously to take advantage of the situation, but one thing I did not lie, I have a relationship with your founder Gao Hanqiu..."

Highly weak and weak: "Master, in fact, we all guessed, you are the reincarnation of Gaozu, to lead our swordsman to glory. Initially we did not know Taishan..."

"No, the secret I want to say is to clarify with you, I am not a reincarnation of the cold autumn, but it really has a relationship with him."

Shen Lang said this, so that both of them were taken aback. They have already recognized this point. It is precisely because of this that as a famous person, a 20-year-old boy will be called a master.

Although I have already been convinced now, I am sincerely acknowledging Master, but this answer still shocked them.

"I am reincarnation, there is nothing wrong with it, but my past life was not a cold autumn. Xiao Gao is my friend. His swordsmanship has been discussed with me. I have pointed out a lot of him, including Qiu Shuijian and Liu Ye. The sword is given to him."

When Shen Lang spoke, Liu Yejian appeared in his hand.

"Liu Yejian!"

"This, this is..."

Both of them were shocked and could not speak.

The autumn cold water sword of the cold autumn, Shen Lang gave Zheng Yumeng (in fact, for the use of bleak), they also have nothing to do, after all, it seems obvious that this is not a woman who will soon be a master, then it is a master, everyone is still a family.

But now suddenly took out the Liu Yejian, but they did not think of it.

Because Liu Yejian is only a few records inside the teacher's door Like the big elders of this level, I know that this is the sword of the cold autumn, because when I went to the sea of innocence, it was already Going, in the altar of the sword, there is no sacrifice of the willow sword.

Now Liu Yejian appears in the hands of Shen Lang, so that they are unbelievable how this came, although they have not seen the real thing.

“Long story short! This trip has no return to Hell, we have come to another world, and finally found Xiaogao – that is, your cold autumn ancestor, he is still alive!”

The two old disciples who were still squatting were immediately shocked and fell to the ground.

A few hundred years ago, I went to the high ancestors who had no return to the sea, but I was still alive in another world!

Especially high, this is his ancestor, which is even more shocking than the previous guess that Shen Lang is the reincarnation of the cold autumn. After all, the reincarnation can already be counted as another person, still alive.

Shen Lang simply said the relationship between him and Gao Hanqiu, as long as it is clear, it is not necessary to talk to them more specific.

I also said that the cold autumn and Lin Biaozi had created the Qiu Lin Jianzong.

After listening to it, Gao Li and Qi Sheng exchanged a look.

Then the two men respectfully gave Shen Lang a few heads.

“The high ancestor is still alive, we are very excited. But Master is our master, I hope not to give up on us.”

They also understand that Gaozu Division has created a martial art with others. Tianshan Jianzong is just a sect of the native land. The Qiu Linjian, who has been working hard to protect and guard for hundreds of years, will have more feelings!

Therefore, the high ancestors will not come back. What they can count on is that Shen Lang should not abandon.

Chapter 906 - Ticket sales

Shen Lang sighed.

“If I was a former life, of course I would have let go of everything, but in this world, I still have a lot of jealousy, including my parents. The parents are more than the sky, without them, there is no me, no more than a few hundred years. Only have the opportunity to reincarnate.”

“Also, of course, including the Tianshan Jianzong, you recognize me as a cheap master. Although I have not managed and taught Jianzong disciples, I have also worked hard.”

“Highly separated (裴圣) on behalf of Jianzong, thanks to Master!”

Two people thanked Shen Lang in unison.

Just as Shen Lang just said, when the strength was weak, you needed to borrow the momentum of the Tianshan sword. The return to the back all the way is far greater than the borrowing.

With the strength of Shen Lang, it is completely unnecessary to pay attention to the Tianshan Jianzong, but it will still be read, and it is true that there is a heart.

They are also very worried that they will be given up by Shen Lang. At this moment, they are more pious than ever before.

“Okay, don’t worry, I won’t leave Tianshan Jianzong, and I won’t create another martial art. This is my martial art, I am the chief elder. You are also up! One age, the injury is not All good.”

“Thank you for your concern!”

When two people heard the promise of Shen Lang, they were relieved.

“Don’t blame Xiaogao. He has been practicing for hundreds of years. The current realm is far from you. Don’t say that the Tianshan Jianzong, which was created for hundreds of years, is the Jianlin Jianzong that he personally founded. It has already been underestimated.”

Shen Lang is also a bit embarrassed, the younger brother of that year, has grown into a towering tree, in fact, still a little sense of accomplishment.

“No, we can know that the Grand Master is still alive, and we are very happy and excited.”

“I will tell you two of my secrets, not because of the sword, but because you are my disciples! And because you are a descendant of Xiao Gao.” Shen Lang stressed it seriously.

Gao Li and Qi Sheng immediately made a serious statement: “Please respect the teacher, we will never spread the news, including the sovereign.”

Shen Lang did not care much about it. With his current strength, and not saying that they would not, they have this heart and they are absolutely not afraid!

Then he took out some of the medicinal herbs sent by Qiu Lin Jianzong, indicating that this is the high-cold autumn sent by the contemporary sect of Qiulin, and it is helpful to the Tianshan Jianzong.

The two of them also understood that this was the old-age compensation of the ancestors, and they also received it.

My heart is also a bit embarrassed, and now for the high ancestors, they are the poor relatives of their hometown!

As for the fine stone, Shen Lang did not give them, because the Tianshan Jianzong is not used now. The Lingshi that was given before has been a lot, and it can be reserved for a long time.

In the current world of comprehension, the fine stone in the earth does not flow out at will. It is a bit more to collect. When it is critical, it can play a big role. It is also valuable to go to the mainland of Nakajima.

In the past two days, there are naturally other martial art people, trying to find a way to pass through the wind, whether they are in a boat, or through the relationship of the Tianshan Jianzong.

For these, Shen Lang will not give face, direct deduction, and everything will wait until tomorrow's press conference. If you are willing to pay, you will not be willing to pay and wait for "piracy"!

Piracy will definitely exist, just like in the VIP building, it is a high-spirited stone for two people. There must be a paid audience to put the contents of his speech out of the lower price.

This time the information of the conference will definitely be the same.

But Shen Lang can't manage that much. For him, it is just a hammer sale. If you can afford the Lingshi, and you have this need, you will definitely be the first-hand information.

For those who attempt to explore the secrets of the sea, it is a matter of great importance. There is a slight deviation in the retelling, which may affect the life!

But just curious people, do not mind the information of the lower hand, will there be deviations.

At 9:00 am on the fourth day, at the press conference, there was a wind and no one to personally check and start to verify the admission. The earlier you book in advance, of course, there are preferential treatments, which will be arranged in the front row.

Although from the perspective of accepting information, the front row and the back row have nothing to do with each other, but from the face, of course, the more prominent the front, the more noble.

Some have arrived at Haishan, and have already delivered the Lingshi to the wind, and then do not need to come in advance, and then directly verify the entry.

If there is no reservation, there must be a first payment, or else it will be followed.

From the rest of the world, the self-cultivation people who are rushing to come over are eager to understand the truth of the matter. At this time, it is impossible to have a mood to practice in the hotel, or to eat breakfast slowly, and get the news of the admission at 9:00. Most of them came in time.

Many people who didn't sign up and heard the news came to the hotel earlier, looking outside and in the lobby.

In addition to being a lively one, hesitant to wait and see, in fact, all follow the trend, fearing that they have suffered losses. When they found that one big and one big name had arrived, they could not hold back, fearing that there would be no seats in the end.

Even if the parties are amnesty, they are still free from humanity, and the psychology of "consensus" cannot be avoided. Especially this is related to hundreds of years of secrets, related to the truth behind the return of the prison.

These hesitant, originally the last batch was not eligible to board the ship, and now do not want to miss this opportunity, after all, is the personal experience that others have personally experienced.

The more people follow, the more they attract more people. Some even want to watch the excitement. When they see everyone's enthusiasm, they are afraid of losing money. They are also rushing to sign up.

According to the estimation of Shen Lang, it is possible to receive about one hundred or so Lingshi. It is calculated according to the number of people in the previous time. After all, it is impossible to believe him 100%, except for a part, plus a few others, it is not bad to have 100 people.

But still underestimate the influence of no return to hell!

Or, underestimate the anxiety of everyone's exhaustion of the earth's comprehension resources!

It is precisely because of the exhaustion of resources more and more difficult to meet the needs of high-level cultivation, but also the long-term development of future generations, so that a large number of people will go to the aura of the year.

This time this year is the same, in addition to the first batch, there are other teams to go, such as the black team who came to pull him.

These sects all over the world, no matter whether they went or waited, did not get the news. Now Shen Lang is back alone and wants to know the truth.

A superior stone is worth a lot, but it is worthwhile compared with the new world information that represents the future.

Of course, there are also some because of the fun and the wind.

To the end result, 317 stones were collected!

As the reservation has already been arranged, there is a lot more to the temporary admission, so that the wind is no surprise, and it is too late to change the meeting room. Finally, some seats are added around, on both sides and in the aisle.

Chapter 907 - Shocked the audience

So many people on the scene, noisy, let some giants who don't show up very much, are all frowning.

But there is no way. They once expressed that they met Shen Lang in advance, even if they paid twice the Lingshi, but they were rejected.

Otherwise, they certainly don't want to be open together.

However, on the same occasion, for the genre family with insufficient grades, watching the global glory of the glory, the event will make them excited and even take photos.

There are also seniors who have come to the front and some rare predecessors to get to know each other, to communicate with foreign comprehensions, and so on.

It's hard to wait until ten o'clock, and the launch time of Shen Lang's official appearance is here!

At the moment when Shen Lang came to power, everyone was quiet.

Everyone is watching the young man on the stage. From the age and seniority of the audience, this young man is just a big man with his grandson and grandchildren. Now he is a globally eye-catching figure.

However, accompanied by Shen Lang, there are two people, Gao Li and Qi Sheng. The two of them are not weak regardless of age, seniority or strength.

Even though most people don't know it, they did their homework in advance. They also know that these two are the elders of the Tianshan Jianzong. They are said to be the peaks of the real world or the late strength, and they are naturally disciples of Shen Lang!

Disciples have a peak of truth, and this weight is not light. However, everyone knows that from the grade level, they can't be taught by Shen Lang, so I guess it is just a name. It may be that Tianshan Jianzong has created his own momentum.

"Thank you for your support, I really didn't think there would be so many friends who care about the situation of no return to hell..."

The beginning of Shen Lang's guest set is also true, and he can earn more than three hundred fine stones. Don't say that the wind has no intention to admire his appeal, he is also surprised.

This is certainly not his personal appeal.

But this is just the beginning, and someone immediately interrupted!

"Master Shen Lang, you are right, we are concerned about the situation of no return to the sea. The tickets for Lingshi, we have already paid, now you have to prove that you are back into the sea of no return, Or did you come back on the side of the no-fighting prison?"

This person is not euphemistic, it is said with a provocative tone.

Obviously, what he means is: Do you want Lingshi? I can afford it! But if you deceive everyone, then don't blame Laozi for turning his face!

He is not only a person, but also represents the mentality of a considerable number of people on the scene. Everyone has doubts about the return of Shen Lang.

After all, so many top powerhouses have not returned, why do you a young man can come back?

Shen Lang's eyes swept over and saw that this is a foreign comprehension. Of course, he does not know or know what the martial art family is.

However, he does not need to understand the background of this person. For this out to him, he also took the opportunity to kill the chicken and monkey town!

"You doubt me?"

"Yes! You must first prove that you are really coming back from there."

Shen Lang looked at him, facing his gaze, the man's body slammed, and then flew up from his seat. The whole person was hanging in the air, as if he had been caught in the neck, and the whole person could not move.

The scene immediately became quiet, and they were all masters with no realm, and no one exclaimed. This is obviously that Shen Lang and this person are up, and everyone is keeping a wait-and-see attitude.

Even a friend who is familiar with that person does not stand up for the first time, because Shen Lang is absolutely impossible to kill in front of hundreds of people, and his life is sure to be worry-free. It's just a face, it's already lost, they can't come back with it, and they might put their faces in it.

"I believe that you are not messing up, then I will give you three days, do you not do your homework?"

"I was the last group of the past, there is verification, there is a passenger ship to the past, you suspect that I did not enter the sea of innocence, why not investigate the witnesses of the passenger ship at that time?"

"Now want me to prove it to you? Love does not listen! If you don't listen, just get out and return to your spiritual stone!"

After waiting for these sentences, Shen Lang let him fall back to his seat.

Just these words, on the bright side is to say to this person, in fact, also respond to all other people who question.

The last time it was a public action, there was an organizing committee, and it was not the Chinese comprehension. The staff on the passenger ship were all self-cultivators. These are the things they can check. It is not that Shen Lang can manipulate the cooperation.

Those who have doubts in their hearts, if they listen to this, can only be squatting. No one dares to come out from the discussion, after all, they have not done this homework.

Some of the scenes were really doing this homework, and it was verified that everyone at that time went in, and no one stayed on the boat or flinched off the sea.

Although it does not mean that there is no cheating, it is also a side proof. Otherwise, how can he prove that he went to the other side of the innocent sea?

The man felt that he had been attacked by the sinking waves. After being thrown back into his seat, the anger was raging!

But immediately felt a slap in the face and forced it over!

This momentum is open, and there is more spiritual power to directly control him, so that he can not move again.

“You don’t know how to lift it, don’t blame me for throwing you out!”

If Shen Lang was just an explanation and response, this time, both imposing and spiritual, it showed the strength of his peak.

In the comprehension of the scene, some of them are the realm of the gods, which are basically the pillars of the giants all over the world, and the rest are also the end of the real world.

At this level, basically all of them are acquainted with the goods. Even if they don’t see the specific strength of Shen Lang, he smothered the rumors of the two strong players in the early days of the gods, but they got inquired, so no one felt before. The chaos came to and now the strength of the Shenlang show, not only the person who directly feels, everyone is shocked!

It is a foreign powerhouse who has not heard of Shen Lang’s reputation before, and will never doubt the strength of Shen Lang.

No one dares to doubt or despise because of his age.

So many top powers can’t come back, why can he come back? It is the strength!

After the shock, hundreds of people on the scene were also excited. If Shen Lang is so powerful, it means that he really came back from the journey of no return to Hell, which means that Lingshi will not be white, you can really know the secrets of history!

Further to Lenovo, Shen Lang's current strength seems to be much more powerful than the rumors of a few months ago. Will it be because of the adventure of no return to the Hell Hunt?

For a time, everyone was full of yearning and eager to listen to the story of Shen Lang. As for the person who came out to challenge, no one is going to take care of it.

Chapter 908 - Post information

Three days are not only prepared for others, but also for Shenlang himself to have better preparation time.

He has already thought about what can be said and what not to say to everyone.

So now, after I started to talk about it, he first talked about the last time he sailed on the seamount, and said the items on the ship's trading items. It is not only delaying the time, but also showing more content. It is also a side proof that he is really on the scene.

What everyone wants to know most is what kind of situation will happen after the entry of Haigong, and whether it has entered another world as everyone guessed.

At this point, Shen Lang did not conceal them, said the situation of the chaotic space, and the world that entered the mainland of Nakajima.

The latter content directly related to the Archbishop of Paul, the last group of related sects who went together, completely believed in the words of Shen Lang.

Because the families knew at the beginning, this time the development plan, the main initiator, is Archbishop Paul. But not everyone knows, such as falling rivers and sinking waves. These are not their initial accreditations. They are proposed to be supplemented later, or those who carry them are strictly prohibited from being disclosed.

"How do I solve the problem later, how to leave, how to come back, I will not say more, this is my personal privacy."

It's going to be here when you hear the sinking waves. There are hundreds of people on the scene who are reluctant. For them, the feeling of understanding is still very limited, the most crucial thing is – how to safely come back to the waves without saying!

“Master Shen Lang, the information you said, I am completely convinced, and I am very grateful. But everyone is from all over the world, and they have come from all over the world. It is not easy to get together like this. It can be said that there is no one in a hundred years...”

After one person raised his hand, he stood up and proposed. After a friendly tone, the key points were made.

“Can you tell more about how to confirm the arrival of the world and how to return to the earth from that world?”

Everyone is also seconding, this is the answer they most want to know.

Shen Lang said faintly: “If you have listened carefully, you should know that I have already said it before! I will emphasize it once again. No return to the sea is a small space crack, the place to be led, A person of the world, called chaotic space, is an area that connects different worlds.”

“The world we are in is just one of them. Some people have lost or died in the beginning, or have entered other worlds. The world I entered is just the world that most people have been caught in.”

“These are useful information for the entire earth comprehension community. I am here to publicly explain it. My personal experience, tell you what? If you say something bad, I am completely talking to you, even painting you.” On the map, do you think you can copy the route?”

This time, Shen Lang did not have oppressive monks, but was justified.

Everyone listened to it and it makes sense, but it is a bit frustrating.

According to Shen Lang, the world is foggy, and the scope of vision and knowledge is very small, and there is almost no reference. Such an environment is really difficult to replicate.

Shen Lang can come back, it should be along the way, perhaps why he is two months later than others!

“Thank you.” The person’s attitude is also very good. Although he did not get the answer he wanted, he was also polite.

“Master Shen Lang, my father, should be among them. Thank you for saving them. But including Archbishop Paul, I didn’t come back two months ago, until now. I don’t know what your opinion is? Can you give it? We have a suggestion?”

Another person who asks questions is also a look of filial piety.

This problem is most concerned by the people who went to the last sect.

Even if you can’t explore the magic of other new worlds, you can safely come back, at least stop loss. For those who have prepared a plan to go back, it is actually a big profit to come back.

The information revealed by Shen Lang is definitely a great cut-off. If it comes back from the parents, it will be the first-hand information that can bring real value!

Therefore, you can’t force Shen Lang to reveal more situations. It is the best plan to get the elders back.

“I will stand up and drag the martial art that day, not how great I am, but there are many friends in my life, such as Qiao Yuxian of Qiaojia in Beihai, Nanliuchuan of Nantian Family, Liu Yuchang of Liu Mo, and Tian The teacher said Zhang Zhanlang, Yuxu Gongdao, and Wushuangmen Zhuzizi.”

“Sacrificing me, I can save a lot of friends, it is a cost-effective business. This time I came back and found that they have not come back, I am also very shocked. I have been thinking about ways these days, summed up three points.”

The sensation of Shen Lang caused some small embarrassment on the scene. After all, their elders were rescued by Shen Lang, especially those “friends” who were named, and even more excited.

And when he said that there were three points, everyone immediately raised their ears.

“First, they may be pitted by that martial art. It is unlikely that they will be killed directly. After all, it is all the strongest elites on our planet. Even if they are destroyed, they will fight for their strength. But because we don’t Familiar, it is very likely to be sent to other places.”

“Second, if they follow the agreement, and our people have not returned, then it is still in the chaotic space. Two months, only lost, should not let them fall.”

“Third, they may have misunderstood and entered the door of space in other worlds. Because no one knows the environment there, there is no return to Hell, it has been open for hundreds of years, and it may appear next to it. New.”

After that, Shen Lang spread his hands and the meaning was obvious. The possibilities were all told to you. If you want to do it, you will see yourself.

The people of the major sects are still a bit disappointed After all, this is just an analysis, and there is no specific rescue plan.

However, they have nothing to say. According to Shen Lang, it was already owed to him if he sacrificed himself two months ago. Can’t you still make a rescue plan for you?

In fact, the rescue plan is not difficult to list. It is impossible to enter the sea without a return to the sea. From the chaotic space, you can’t search the world and look for the martial art question.

The question is, can it be successful?

The last batch of people, but stronger than these people, is still the result!

Even if you get more information about Shen Lang now, you can prepare for it more fully, but the chaotic space can not be searched, it is difficult to say, especially two months ago.

If you can't, even if you can find the world, you can find that martial art. Is there a strength question?

The bigger possibility is to send a batch of "scorpion animals" to others, and to be condemned by the martial art to contribute spiritual power!

Chapter 909 - Important clue

Shen Lang's earned Lingshi has already been earned. It's said that it's not going to let everyone ask questions one by one.

The press conference ended, and the people who paid a fine stone at the scene were not satisfied.

After all, according to the basic exchange, it is a hundred medium spirit stone, 10,000 elementary stone. The snow-growth fruit that the Ice Palace needs is only twenty or thirty medium-spirited stones. It is a rare flying beast, and it does not use a hundred medium-spirited stones.

At such a big price, I heard such a news, it is a bit of a loss.

Those who have participated in the famous school are still looking for elders, and may further explore. If you don't have this strength, you will listen to it.

However, the press conference has ended, and Shen Lang is strong enough, and it also shows a strong force, but no one dares to go to the wind to ask for a refund.

Some of them are ready to blow up, and they are treacherous. They are thinking about whether they can share the information for sale.

Nanliushui and Qiaotiantian are also very embarrassed and helpless. The information that Shenlang said publicly today is almost the same as that of Qiao Shuyu and Nanyiye before, indicating that the facts can only be reached to this extent. It is.

However, Nanliushui decided to see Shen Lang again!

He is different from other people, he is a master of formation. He came back with more professional insights about Shen Lang. He felt that it was Shen Lang who discovered and mastered the things like the transmission array.

The last time I went to the world of hundreds of millions of ring arrays, he felt that Shen Lang should not be willing to travel only one time. In particular, this trip has obviously gained a lot. It was stronger than when he left from the south. Know how much.

Some of the comprehens of other countries, of course, have their own calculations, and they are also family sects of their own and have a good relationship.

Shen Lang was withdrawn, and the wind was removed in advance.

Before the press conference, Feng Wuji had to guard there in advance, to verify and collect Lingshi, but not “ordinary staff.” Now staying at the scene, if someone is not willing to be willing, or wants to * the Lingshi that she collects, then she is in danger.

As for the venue, it is enough to hand over to the hotel staff. These top powers are not difficult for ordinary people.

“Hello Master, hello.”

When Shen Lang came out of the elevator, there was a person waiting outside the door.

The rooms he had arranged before were all connected on the same floor. The wind was not retracted in advance, and it was safe to get here. Falling canoe, falling rain, Zheng Yumeng, Dorothy... All four are in the realm of the gods, and the canoe and Dorothy are the strengths of the middle of the realm.

With this combination, no matter which martial art can't be singled out, under the sudden situation, it is impossible to have more than a dozen martial arts teamed up.

So for this person who came up to the room floor in advance, Shen Lang did not care much.

“Clever, stand ahead, wait here for me. I will give you a minute to your heart. First send you a sentence: Black Dragon King did not act when I was an enemy, and invited me to cooperate when I went.”

When I heard the words in front of Shen Lang, that person did not react. Even if he quietly leaves, Shen Lang can be noticed on the stage.

A minute of time is a bit arrogant, but now the Shenlang is also proud of this capital.

But the last sentence was to surprise him.

“Do you know my identity?”

Shen Lang glanced at him: “The disciple of Black Dragon King was almost done by me. With your strength, should it be his younger brother?”

“You are right, I am the brother of Black Dragon King, Bagan, who has been practicing in North Myanmar.” This self-proclaimed Bagan became more respectful.

Shenlang’s eyebrows are slightly picky. He practiced in northern Myanmar. In fact, he should be the place to be handed over to the border. With his strength, it is easy to enter the country frequently.

However, he did not say anything. After all, from the last place where Black Dragon King’s disciples tied the Nan’s brothers, their origin was from the country.

“Start counting in one minute.”

When I heard Shen Lang say this, Bagan didn’t dare to put it close, and quickly and quickly said the wording that had already been sorted out.

“Our brothers have to feed on the body, the breed is also called the emperor, we are homogenous, so I can feel it, the brother is not dead!”

Shen Lang nodded.

This is not surprising. When the Black Dragon King was in Siam, he could sense the situation of the Nanliuchuan brothers. This can be seen as a singer.

Bagan looked at Shen Lang's reaction and emphasized: "I mean, he is still on earth!"

Although it was already soundproofed before the conversation, he couldn't help but lower his voice when he said this.

When I heard this, Shen Lang's eyes lit up.

From Siemnan to the southern part of China, the distance is very far, and it is at most two or three thousand miles. When the Nanliuchuan brothers passed through the hundreds of millions of ring arrays and entered the river city, the Black Dragon King could not sense it, and then they sent their disciples to watch the past disappearance.

The sensing distance of Bagan and Black Dragon King is even longer, it can reach tens of thousands of miles, and it has to be on the earth. After they entered the sea without jail, they went to another space.

In other words, if Bagan can sense it, it must have returned to Earth!

"It's hard for me to explain the principle. In short, our brothers and sisters can be sensed on the other side of the earth. But the last time they entered the sea without jail, I couldn't sense my brother."

The words of Bagan followed, confirming the conjecture of Shen Lang.

"And, I know that you are telling the truth, because it was really about two months ago, I was able to re-sensing the existence of my brother."

Shen Lang looked at him and asked carefully: "Why don't you go to him?"

There are such important clues that I don't care about a minute or so. Bagan smiles and shakes his head: "It's useless. After a certain distance, we can only feel that we are still alive, but we can't perceive the specifics. At the other end of the globe, we can know each other to live, but we don't know where it is."

Shen Lang was speechless for a while, but it was also understood. If they raise their bodies with each other, they can locate them in tens of thousands of miles. It is amazing.

"So, are you looking for my purpose...?"

Bagan immediately smashed down: "Seeking Master Shen Lang to rescue my brother! I have thought a lot of ways in these two months, but there is no clue. Just listening to you, it should be not only my brother, maybe many of them. They are all together, they are all back, just don't know where they are trapped in the earth."

His thoughts made Shen Lang think about it.

Although it is not reasonable, it is also possible. If Bagan does not lie, there is evidence.

Can Bagan believe it?

Chapter 910 - Offer treasures

In order to see the sinking waves, Bagan is also prepared.

In particular, he is different from the rest of the conference and has a clear purpose. For the reaction of Shen Lang, there are naturally various speculation presets.

At this moment, when Shen Lang did not speak, he guessed his concerns.

"Master Shen, I know, we met for the first time, you can hardly believe me. However, I believe you have a way to prove. I am willing to cooperate!"

Bagan pointed to his head.

The meaning is very clear, if Shen Lang does not believe him, then directly search his memory!

If he is willing to cooperate, it will mean letting go of the spiritual will and letting Shen Lang invade.

Regardless of whether Shen Lang can search for his memory, the way he dares to do so represents his sincerity.

“Come to my room.”

They have been here for a while, and Shen Lang has sensed that there are still some people who are coming from the elevator and want to come to him.

In the room, he can close the door directly without seeing guests. When I met this elevator, I was asked to be asked.

Bagan is happy, and quickly follow Shen Lang.

After entering the room, Shen Lang directly pressed the “Do Not Disturb” switch, and then re-opened the room inside.

“Your information is very important to me. As you said, it is not only the problem of your brother, but the relationship between the hundreds of masters. So I attach great importance to it, I have to confirm.”

“Understand! I can swear, but swear that it has no effect, or you are more assured of personal testing. I really want to cooperate!” Bagan also said seriously.

Shen Lang asked another question: “But you should understand that this is tantamount to completely undefending me. If I have evil thoughts, I can directly absorb all the mental power that has swallowed you and turn you into a waste person! Why is it worth taking this? risk?”

Bagan smiled calmly.

“Senior brother can be regarded as my half master. I can have it today, and I can live to the present. It is made by my brother. But he is a famous black dragon king, no matter the vulgar money interest, the status of fame, or the strength of the real world. And resources, there is almost no place, I can give back to him, he is helping me.”

“This time, perhaps the only time I have a chance to help my brother in this life. Going to the fire!”

He said it was easy, but the tone was very sacred and firm.

Shen Lang saw his piety and respected and grateful to the Black Dragon King, but he must be cautious about strangers.

So he nodded, saying that he can start, or to personally verify Bagan’s memory!

This is not difficult. When I said that Yuxianmen, Shen Lang extracted the memory of Jing Rufeng. At that time, Jingrufeng was in a coma, and there was no resistance, but in fact it would still instinctively resist.

Now that Bagan is voluntarily cooperating, the situation is different and much easier.

Moreover, Bagan is focused on recalling this paragraph of memory, so that Shen Lang does not need all his memory, it is more convenient to quickly extract this memory, and the other is a rough sweep.

Then Shen Lang began to integrate his memory.

Even if there are trade-offs, there are many other memories.

After all, it’s not a computer copying a file. It can’t just copy a file accurately, and the memory is all the neurons work together, like a large file composed of countless small files.

Therefore, what he skipped is basically a trace of daily insignificance. In addition to focusing on extracting this paragraph, other profound memories are also extracted.

After the memory is merged, Shen Lang has a familiar feeling. It really feels like the connection with the Black Dragon King. This is indeed always there, but it has been disconnected for about a month after going to the sea.

After the recovery, it is much weaker than the previous regular contact. It can only be determined faintly, and it is not clear in what direction, how many distances, etc.

“You didn’t lie to me.” Shen Lang said a faint sentence.

Bagan breathed a sigh of relief, and he was afraid that Shen Lang would not be successfully extracted. “Then can you... Is there any way to save my brother?”

“I have to think about it.”

Of course, you need to consider, and the Black Dragon King is not a relative, but there is even a hatred of the killer. Just for him, how can Shen Lang take risks and try to find ways?

What makes him pay attention to it is related to nearly 100 other people. According to the truth, the Black Dragon King should be with them. If the Black Dragon King is back, then other people should be back, but where is the person?

“Master Shen Lang, this is my sincerity. My personal collection is limited, but my brother has a rich family, and when he saves him back, there must be a thank you!”

In Bagan, the words of Shen Lang just said that it is a dodge that needs interest to be impressed.

Since he was prepared, of course, he also considered this point. At this moment, he did not retain it and took the biggest reliance directly.

“I don’t want to collect your money to save people. You just give me a thousand fine stones. I also need to think about it.”

Shen Lang emphasized that he did not pick up a box he sent.

Of course, Bagan felt that this was a deliberate dodge. He quickly piled up a smile: "I understand that you are doing something big, and you must consider it carefully. This is my wish. I am very worried about my brother, and I hope you will laugh."

When he spoke, he immediately woke up. The reputation of the Black Dragon King was outside. Shen Lang should be thinking of their things, and they would be poisonous, jealous, and so on.

"You can rest assured that this is not something we have at the teacher's door, and we dare not squat. This is an ancient treasure that I personally have. It is useless to keep me around, or a big person like you may have something to do. reward."

He opened the box and presented the things inside.

"If you want to kneel down to me, there is no fart. There are a few disciples of your brother I used to attack me with scorpion techniques, and I was killed. Your brother has been planning to use it in Nantian family for many years. The emperor of the Nanliuchuan brothers was also lifted by me."

Shen Lang said a faint sentence, and then his eyes fell on the things in the box, and it was attracted!

This thing is too familiar!

Bagan certainly knows that a group of disciples of Black Dragon King had an accident last year, but did not understand the details. At this moment, I heard that it was actually caused by Shen Lang. It is already very surprising. Last year's Shen Lang should be a lot worse than now.

And the last sentence, even shocked him!

The brothers of the Nantian family of the Nantian family started their success and succeeded in the emperor! And this can actually be solved by Shen Lang!

Doesn't this mean... Shen Lang is their nemesis?

Because the evil spirits of the gods are not known, the general self-cultivators meet them, they are all respectful, do not dare to offend, but also remain vigilant, did not expect in front of Shen Lang, but nothing!
