

First Strong 911

Chapter 911 - Artifact debris

Bagan was shocked by the words of Shen Lang, and it was even more low-headed. The atmosphere did not dare to breathe. After all, I had already seen the strength of Shen Lang in the venue. Shen Lang immediately received a surprised look, and then said faintly: "Okay! This is your sincerity, just let it go. Black Dragon King has a younger brother like you, he should be very pleased."

"Yes, there is no brother without me."

Bagan heard Shen Lang promised, relieved, and quickly put the box on the coffee table.

He suspected that Shen Lang should have been inspected, and confirmed that there is no trace of embarrassment before agreeing to accept it?

This made him even cold and sweaty, not knowing how Shen Lang did it.

If you can find out, can you kneel down to him without knowing it?

"You should go back first! I still have to think about it. You can rest assured. I am not thinking about saving, but how to save, where they will be." Shen Lang is also comforting.

"Thank you, thank you!"

Bagan is even more excited. After all, this can not touch the waves, he is not sure. To discuss the collection, he is far less than the Black Dragon King, and the individual can come out with limited.

If it is purely a spiritual stone, according to today's scale, Shen Lang will harvest hundreds of fine stones, then he will give one, two, ten, eight others will not be in the eyes, so prepared this I will gamble like a treasure.

The words of Shen Lang are equivalent to agreeing to him, and I dare not bother again, and quickly leave.

After he went out, Shen Lang's eyes fell back into the box.

For safety reasons, he checked it with the sacred armor, confirmed that there were no microorganisms like locusts, and then reached out and took things up.

This thing has just become familiar to him. It is not something he used in his previous life, but it is indeed an ancient treasure.

It's just a scrap, and the artifact fragments that I got with Thousand Grottoes are probably together!

Shen Lang stroked in his hand for a while, feeling the vastness of the ancient atmosphere.

The fragments obtained by Thousand Grottoes are too scattered, and they can hardly find anything. Therefore, they are also regarded as chicken ribs, but they are only collected because they are brought out from Qiangjialing.

After the efforts of the wind, I have already collected a lot.

Now this remnant, the obvious breath is not the same, so Bagan knows that this is an ancient treasure, but what is specific, it is not clear. Moreover, he also found that it was a defective product, which would be dedicated to Shen Lang. After all, he could not solve the secret.

Shen Lang took out the debris collected before.

I thought that he did not have a good effect at the beginning, but he did not understand Zheng Yumeng, but he tried to look a bit like it.

But now it is not necessary. This remnant is a subject. Other fragments, once taken out, do not need to be pieced together, and naturally fill the past with the debris.

For a moment's work, this artifact has been absorbed and filled up, and it has fallen down again, as if it were completely integrated. There are only traces of cracks that will not be scattered again.

But it can still be clearly seen that even if the debris is replenished, this is still a remnant. This ancient artifact, there are other debris and fragments scattered in the unknown.

Shen Lang did not ask Bagan where he got it, but according to his speculation, it is very likely that he also got it from Qiangjialing. This ancient artifact should be broken in the battle of Qiangjialing. It is impossible. Will be elsewhere.

But he immediately remembered that there was still the memory of Bagan, and he tried to search for it.

It is a very important thing to get this ancient treasure, and it is still very important to the unconsciousness of Bagan, so the memory has not been skipped.

As he suspects, this is not what Bagan himself got, but the one he got from the people and the trade. The convenience is brought in the Qiangjialing, because it is obviously a part of the defect, and it is useless. So it was sold.

Bagan, which has a higher realm, knows more about the goods than the original ones, so the purchase is the same as the collection of debris by Shen Lang. But Bagan himself can't study one thing, that is, the advanced "chicken ribs."

Shen Lang doesn't mind being a remnant. He closes it up, only needs to continue to buy, or has the opportunity to collect more pieces. It's just that the opening time of Qiangjialing is very long. I have to wait until the next time is too long. I hope that the last time, or when I opened it in the past, the sects who have traveled to Qiangjialing have already taken these pieces and brought them out.

"All are here, come in!"

After collecting the good things, Shen Lang said something to the outside and controlled the door to open.

"Shen brother!"

Outside the corridor, there are a group of old people headed by Qiao Tiantian and Nanliushui. They are all famous places in China.

Nanqiao had already met alone before Shen Lang and told them about the situation.

However, today's public exhibition reveals the strength, so that they do not dare to rely on the old seller, although it is still called "Shen Brother", but has become more awe.

After they came in, they also introduced a few other people. They were all sent to several family sects, including Yu Mo Liu Jia, Tian Shi Dao, Kunlun Yuxu Palace and Wuliangshan Wushuangmen.

They will take the initiative to come and visit, but also because Shen Lang just mentioned, let them have a little more emboldened, but after all, did not personally, or asked Nanliushui and Joe to come together.

"Shen brother, I believe that our intentions also understand, I don't know if my brothers are them... Is there any way to find it? The price is big, we are willing to pay!" Qiao Zhantian said on behalf of everyone.

Shen Lang glanced at all of them: "Are you going to go to the sea without a trip, or send someone to go?"

"This..." Everyone got rid of it After all, it was not clear about the specific situation before, and now there is no time to discuss with the family in detail, and there is no safe way.

"Whether you go or send someone, you may not be able to come back again."

Shen Lang directly said the worst results.

This is also the focus of everyone's concerns!

To their realm and age, they are not afraid of death, and they are also extraordinarily reluctant. Especially after missing one, they shouldered the responsibility of guarding the family and the martial art, and did not dare to take risks easily.

“There is still a plan, that is, I will replace everyone, and then go back. Even if I come back by luck, I have a layer of successful experience, and the chance of returning is even greater. But can I find it... I have no grasp.”

So many important people, if they have the chance, still have to save. However, Shen Lang will not be out of morality, and will receive the “benefit” of Bagan. Of course, other people will also benefit.

Chapter 912 - Refuse

For Shen Lang, they have different solutions before and after they come.

Before Shen Lang was killing two geniuses, the natural identity level was up, but also in this way, it was impossible to compare with other famous schools.

However, at the press conference, the strength demonstrated, as well as the crushing posture of the foreigner who asked the foreigner, let everyone realize that the strength of Shenlang has already surpassed the initial stage of the gods!

So naturally, everyone has adjusted their mental attitude.

Before coming, I wanted to let Shen Lang lead the way. The family gave a little reward, which is a very rich one.

At today’s scene, I found that people who are willing to spend a fine stone are far more than they think. Light is more than three hundred fine stones. The general reward is really unable to move. .

Up to now, I have not dared to let Shen Lang lead the way, and Shen Lang has repeatedly stressed that security is not guaranteed.

If he can run it again, of course, it would be better. Even if Shen Lang can gain other benefits, everyone will not be greedy, that is what he deserves.

If you want to let your own people return safely, then you can ask for it.

“Master Shen came back hard and could run for the same world. We are very touched. We certainly can’t let you take risks and be willing to pay back.”

One of them spoke up, but the attitude of other people is still unclear, so it is not convenient to directly represent the promise of specific remuneration.

“In fact, we have been negotiating before, we are willing to pay, just think of danger, I am embarrassed to let the sinking brothers help. Since the sinking brothers have this heart, we are willing to contribute a little power.”

When Qiao Zhantian said, he looked around at them and confirmed that everyone was willing to pay.

“This is a little bit of ours.”

What he took out was five fine stones. Several other people have also come up with five fine stones, which have indeed been discussed.

At this cost, for an action that is not necessarily able to come back, they are not really worth it. Just like Joe Zhantian, Nanliuchuan, they are not brothers, but also brothers and sisters.

Aside from feelings, it is also a great increase in the strength of the division, and more importantly, it is the most authentic and reliable information in the world.

The information publicly announced by Shen Lang, not to be forged, must also be deleted.

“In fact, you don’t need this.”

Shen Lang said seriously, exerting a little pressure and pushing the spirit stones they presented back to the front.

“You will come to look for me. Naturally, I also trust me. And with all of you in the martial art family, I used to be friends with me. I left myself to save them last time, and I am also loyal to the loyalty. Now it is the same!”

Shen Lang will be loyal to the loyalty, without the reward they have to pay!

This surprised all of them, adding up to thirty fine stones! A huge fortune!

“Don’t worry that I won’t try because I didn’t accept it. Please rest assured, I will go all out.”

Shen Lang continues to pose high.

Of course, he needs the interests, but counting them, they are friends, they all support him. If you want to make money, you can make money from other people. Leave them a favor and you will get a good review.

The most important thing is that his previous “tickets” have already received more than 300 fine stones, which are already very wide and can be generous.

Qiao Tiantian and others immediately praised and praised the high winds and bright festivals of Shen Lang, and thanked him for his efforts.

“Shen brother, if it is convenient, let me go with you! Although I have limited strength, but also have some special abilities, maybe I can help.”

The south stream water machine is open.

As a master of the array, he felt that Shen Lang could come back because he was able to solve the array. He followed him, even if he could not play a key role, at least not hindering him, and even assisted in the waves.

Qiao Tiantian is also busy saying: "Let Yu Yu go with you, he has been with you several times, has a tacit understanding, can let him run errands to assist you."

Because according to the return of Joe Shuyu, the palace of the Tianshan Ice Palace fell into a boat, the last time I went with Liu Yichang, but because of the relationship with Shenlang, not only came back safely, but also made great strength, far away from him. opened.

If Joe Shu Yu is the same, as a friend to follow the Shen Lang, it should be safe to come back, and will certainly get great benefits.

It is a pity that Shen Lang shook his head directly.

"This is not a trivial matter. I may be in danger at any time. I will go for a trip. It is my own life. I can be responsible. Others have to follow, even if I say that I don't need to be responsible, I am really in danger, I also Can't see death, the result may be that everyone will die together."

This statement is to the South Liushui, but also to Qiao Zhantian, refused their proposal.

"Sorry, I am not portable."

If it is really cheap, it is not to take you there, first of all, it will be cheaper, and now the default is to be a few with his woman.

Nanliushui is naturally disappointing. After all, he is confident in his own strength. He did not expect to be vetoed by Shenlang.

Qiao Tiantian did not have much disappointment, because his words have a dual role, even if you can't let Joe Shu Yu together, just that is equal to everyone's surface, Qiao Shuyu and Shen Lang are good friends!

This is to release a signal.

With the influence of the current wave, the relationship with him is good, not only can force, but also indirectly.

The other couples met with Shen Lang for the first time. They were Liu Yichang, Zhang Zhulang, Dao Cong and Zhu Zikai. They also knew Shen Lang from the last event. The relationship did not reach the level of Nanqiao II. Of course, it is also interesting, and I dare not make any suggestions.

“Go back! I will think about the plan and try to bring everyone back.”

Shen Lang under the order of the passengers, with his current status, these big-name big men, do not dare to stay, and quickly politely leave.

In fact, Shen Lang sent them away because it was really not enough time.

Today, there are more than 300 people who “buy tickets”. Even if a considerable part of them can be ignored, there are still a lot of inconveniences.

The unexpected information of Bagan also gave him a little more expectation. In case there are other people who can provide clues, it is better.

A group of ten people who visit will also need a lot of time.

Soon after letting them go out, Shen Lang received a call from the wind. Although she left the venue, the contact information was hers. Everyone was still looking for her. She also tried to help Shen Lang to resign, but now there is someone who can't deny it.

Chapter 913 - Re-collecting the holy painting

This guest, who is said by Feng Jiji, is the chief bishop of the Central Bishops of the Guangming Divine Church and the No. 2 Pinochet, second only to the Pope.

If it was before, Shen Lang didn't know much about the situation of the Holy See. It really needs the wind to explain it. But this trip already knows, this Pinochet, it is to replace the Archbishop of Paul.

At that time, I went to the sea of innocence, and they were all top figures of the major sects. They were older and many of them were retiring. It is not the homeowner, the head of the contemporary incumbent, or the elders. It is basically a name, and there is no real work.

But the Archbishop of Paul is different. They are the mainstay of the Holy See. After leaving, there must be someone to succeed him. It is the Pope's departure, or death, and there must be someone who will succeed immediately.

The former No. 2 character like the "Principal Pope" is Archbishop Paul, and now is the Archbishop of Pinochet.

Shen Lang did not know Pinochet, but just after the conference, he faced more than 300 amnesties and basically had an impression. In the prominent position in front, the priest who has made many other foreigners respectful and addicted should be.

For foreign families and sects, because there is no communication in the past life, this world has not been touched. Shen Lang is really limited in understanding and does not want to involve too much.

But this Principal of Pinochet, a representative figure, still has to see.

In fact, they also came up, and after the permission of Shen Lang, the wind did not call the phone, but went outside to bring them over.

"This is Archbishop Pinochet, this is the bat club president Hughes, this is the contemporary owner of the Mars family."

Feng Wuji knew that her identity was inconvenient to stay. After briefly introducing the three people together, she first retired.

Shen Lang is a bit surprised, Pinochet will come with other foreigners, it is not surprising, after all, others will also hold a group. However, a bright sect of the Holy See, and the president of the bat club, was a little unexpected.

But again, there is nothing strange about it. After all, Pinochet was a substitute from the top a few months ago, and Hughes did the same.

Originally, the president of the Bat Society was Scott. He also traveled together last time. He was also taken over by Shen Lang with the Ba Tian Tower.

They are also considered to be a big man of a level. Almost at the same time, they need to face many people and things, and they will be closer and understandable.

“What do you think of the three people looking for me?” Shen Lang asked the mountain.

Pinochet asked politely: “His Shen Lang, I heard you talked about Archbishop Paul. It is our very respected bishop. I don’t know where he is now?”

“Bishop Pinochet did not listen carefully, would you like me to repeat it again?” Shen Lang faintly asked.

“No, no, I mean... Do you know if you are Shen Lang, or is there any way to rescue them? This is the wish of all of us.”

He seems to be very sincere, but Shen Lang suddenly thinks of a problem. Qiao Yuxian and Nanliuchuan are back, their status is unchanged, and the same is true for other big sisters. But after Paul came back?

The chief of the Central Bishops’ Conference, there must be only one, Pinochet is on the second person, will certainly not be willing to let it out? Paul, the original chief, will hang him again? Or is the foreign party going to the local parish to be a bishop?

It seems that everything is a rather embarrassing situation.

In terms of conspiracy theory, Pinochet should not want Paul to come back from his personal interests. Or come back with a death and injury, will be more satisfied.

“When you came, you should have seen it. Just a group of friends have come over. They have the same intentions and want me to rescue everyone.”

Pinoche made a nod: “Yes, we all heard about it. Those who are willing to pay the value of five fine stones, please take a trip and save everyone.”

Shen Lang was a little surprised, but it was not too unexpected.

He did not receive their Lingshi just now and said that everyone is a friend. They are also very good at people. They say that they can't get anything when they go out and they will not be careful. So taking the opportunity to promote the revenge paid for five Lingshi, you can let other people follow this price.

“So... we are also willing.”

Pinochet took out one thing and handed it over. “Forgive us that the religious groups are poor and can't get so many fine stones. This is a painting I carry, very memorable, commercial auction, can also sell a good price... This is us A little bit of meaning.”

Holy See painting!

In the pastoral garden of Yuxianmen, the three holy paintings given by Archbishop Paul gave great help to Shen Lang, and it contained a strong spiritual power.

Now I see the holy painting again. The attraction to Shen Lang is naturally greater than the Lingshi.

Painting can be regarded as art, the same value, and it will not appear so direct, it is indeed a good cover.

“The Archbishop is very polite, and the paintings of the Holy See are naturally very precious and cannot be measured directly by price.”

When he said that he had opened up, he could feel the obvious mental power, but without investigation, he could not be sure whether the mental power contained in it was comparable to the three men that Paul had given before.

“You can feel the charm of art well.” Pinochet seemed to understand the idea and smiled and gestured to him casually.

Since it was given to him, Shen Lang is also welcome.

The last three paintings he took in one breath, but this one is really nothing. As Pinochet, it should not be more advanced than Paul has, so Shen Lang directly absorbs all the spiritual power of the paintings. As it was before, a pure spirit. The rapid absorption of force directly integrated into the spiritual world of Shen Lang.

But at this time, there was a change, and the brain seemed to be stung by needles!

The spiritual power that has just been absorbed is pure and pure, but it is different from the spiritual power of the faith collected by the believers in the previous paintings. Instead, it becomes sly and crazy, with great aggression and enters his spirit. After the world, it began a rapid destruction!

It's like drinking a glass of poisoned water. When the water is absorbed, the poison inside immediately begins to destroy various related organs.

“What do you mean?”

Shen Lang sighed low and glared at Pinochet. At the same time, he immediately mobilized his own spiritual strength and began to kill the coercive spirit of this evil spirit.

“You ask for benefits, we will give you benefits!”

Chapter 914 - Bloody spirit

“This can only blame you for being greedy! You should have an understanding of our holy paintings. Is it because the Archbishop Paul has revealed to you? How do you feel now, is this gift satisfactory?”

“So, are you coming to attack me?” Shen Lang looked at the two next to him.

Hughes shrugged: “Don’t say that. This can only blame yourself. When you come back, you will come back. Is it not good to be a low-key person? Why do you want to make everyone known and have a public release?”

Shen Lang taunted and laughed: “It seems that you don’t want people from other people to come back.”

“What are you doing back?” Hughes asked. “I’m talking about it. I’m talking about President Scott. When I was on the passenger liner, I’ve been fighting with you alone. After that, I’m not sure. I want to know this question. Where did Scott go? Was it killed by you and buried under the sea?”

“You are trying to keep your seat and don’t want Paul Archbishop to come back. You are trying to stabilize the president, and the Mars family is almost the same.”

Shen Lang looked at them again, then sneered: “So you want to kill me, so no one can get them back? It’s too special!”

He does not want to work hard, but he also needs to get a little reward for saving people. But for the nearly one hundred earth powers, he will definitely find a way to save it, just like he once did it. After all, it is related to the overall strength of the earth’s comprehension world. .

But these few people, they are worried about their position, and they will not hesitate to harm everyone. In fact, it is not necessarily threatening. After those people come back, it is estimated that they will not ask the hard work of the world.

People!

Shen Lang did not pay much attention to it. Just talking, mainly takes a little time to annihilate that strange spirit!

It is indeed a very strong mental force, and it is specifically to destroy, so that he is also a bit of a headache, replaced by the average person, has long been paralyzed.

However, Shen Lang's mental strength is far better than their predictions. Even if this strange mental power is strong, he is still caught by him and swallowed up quickly.

“Don't want to delay the time! This is the * spirit of our bat club. Joining the Holy See painting, you will soon be swallowed up. Of course, this is what we designed and can help you lift it!”

Hughes began to talk about conditions.

“What do you want?” Shen Lang sneered: “Do you think I will cooperate?”

“What if you don't cooperate? It's already isolated. Other people in your room won't know what's going on here, and we don't need much time.”

Archbishop Pinochet shook his head: “You have to delay the time you want to solve it. For us, it is actually a good thing, and it can make it more perfect.”

“But don't blame me for not reminding you that once you are completely swallowed up by the spirit of the blood, even if we want to help you lift it, it's too late. So you don't have much time, it's best to cooperate immediately!”

Hughes was scared again when two people sang together.

Another Mars is on the sidelines, so as not to have any accidents, the three people obviously have already planned.

“Okay, let me know. I listen!”

Although Shen Lang looks calm, they do not believe it. It is only that he is in a high realm. He is forced to press and only needs to wait a little longer to control it.

Pinochet said directly: "We need to read your memory! Don't worry, it won't turn you into an idiot. We don't have any interest in your personal privacy."

"Understood. The information you said to me is to remain skeptical. I want to know the true situation after I have not returned to Hell. Also, the description is more detailed than the memory I have personally seen. You don't just need to confirm. The fate of Paul, Scott, etc., wants to fully grasp the results of the exploration of the uninhabited Hell!"

"The advantage of talking to smart people is that you don't need to waste your tongue. You...maybe less than a minute, do you still need to insist?" Pinochet looked at a pocket watch.

Hughes is also showing a sneer, they are calculating the time, once the spirit of the blood clan invades the brain of the waves, it will not take long before the strong people can be conquered!

Now, they are the psychological defenses against Shen Lang in advance.

"bring it on!"

Shen Lang spread his hands.

Archbishop Pinochet smiled: "Your spirit is stronger than me. If I read your memory now, wouldn't it be controlled by you? If you want to lose both, I won't marry you!" "

"Two roads, one road is your self-ban, we confirm that you control, and then help you to remove the spirit of the blood family, and then read your memory. Another way is to wait for you to be controlled by the spirit of the blood clan Let's do it again. The latter, you are finished!"

Shen Lang shook his head: "Hey! I'm sure to start, and I'm too imposing."

When he spoke, his open hands patted.

“So be it!”

“You...” Pinochet just said a word and immediately felt that something was wrong. He found that he was bitten by something, and then the whole person was banned.

Hughes and Mars are almost the same reaction, but they didn’t even speak out, and their faces have changed!

When Shen Lang just spoke, he secretly released the Yueyue needle out, and when they were smug, they had already quietly prepared.

At the moment, the Yueyue needle was directly used, and at the same time, all three of them were banned.

“How do you...” Hughes yelled.

If Shen Lang is trying to sneak up on them, it is understandable, and they will not be controlled as long as they reach the fullness of the spirit of the blood.

However, the wave of this time there is no sign of the move, even the previous frowns and discomfort are gone.

“The Archbishop of the Holy See, in fact, cooperates with the bats and vampires, and sneak attacks on a right-handed self-cultivator. Is this supposed to be a scandal for you?”

In the West, they have no earlier struggles. Everyone does not make a river, but after all, the camp is different. Usually attending the event is just a polite guest. It is not a big deal. If you are deeply united with each other, it must be for the respective camps.

Looking at their faces changed, Shen Lang asked again.

“Now, what value do you have, can you exchange with me?”

“You don’t want to marry me! The spirit of the blood family that absorbs the power of the Holy Painting is not something you can solve!”

“Then you will come and feel it yourself!”

Shen Lang reached out and grabbed Hughes’s head and began to extract his mental power!

Chapter 915 - Drain

Hughes himself has been banned by him, but in this way his mental strength can still be stubbornly resisted.

When he was only resisting, he discovered that the spirit of Shen Lang is far stronger than him!

Especially the faint feeling of the blood clan, but it is very light, as if it has been diluted by complete disintegration.

Shen Lang will not give him the time he will slowly experience, and directly extract his mental strength in the most violent way.

The spiritual power of the * spirit of the blood family did cause some trouble to Shen Lang, but he was surrendered. Then it is quickly absorbed and merged, which is a great supplement, which makes him more spiritual.

At this moment, Hughes’s mental strength is also very strong, but it can’t be compared with the * spirit that he said. The result is that after being extracted by Shen Lang, it was absorbed on the spot.

Just a little while before and after, Shen Lang took Hughes’s mental power away, making him very wilting. This scene made both Archbishop Pinochet and the owner of Mars horrified.

“Shen, Shen Lang... Your Excellency, have something to say. Actually, I didn’t offend your thoughts... I also wanted to pick up the Bishop of Paul, but I was tempted by this vampire...”

Before he started, Pinochet took the initiative to ask for mercy, and directly let Shen Lang be speechless. Should this be said that he is loyal to the body, or is it awkward?

“I carry a holy painting... No, no, this is not a problem. It is a true holy painting. The spirit of faith contained in it can be used for you.”

“I still draw your faith directly and it is more reliable!”

Shen Lang did not polite with him, grabbed his head and began to extract his mental power.

Bishop Pinochet is very remorseful. Even if Paul returns, he will not necessarily compete with him. Even if he wants to compete, he will give up the chief position of the Central Bishops.

Now, in this way, not only is it troublesome, but the crime of colluding with the vampire and murdering the Chinese comprehension will also make him ruined and may affect the reputation of the Holy See...

“Don’t struggle, you can’t escape!”

After Shen Lang quickly absorbed all the spirits of Pinochet, he immediately started to work on Mars, who was struggling to resist the imprisonment.

After a while, the mental strength of the three people was completely taken away by the waves, making them all very wilting, and seemed to fall down at any time.

Shen Lang then read their memory, focusing on Hughes.

From the point of view, Pinochet should be the most prestigious and powerful, but the mastermind is Hughes, and it is also the intellectual responsibility that drives them.

Sure enough, Hughes took the initiative, and Pinochet was tempted. Hughes suspected that Scott was dead and was killed by Shen Lang. However, because the staff on the passenger ship did not see Scott returning to the ship, he did not enter the sea without jail, in case he did not die?

He is the president of the new office for a few months, and he does not want to be the shortest president in the history of the bat. In order to firmly hold power, he must confirm that the old Scott is dead.

The details of the non-infernal sea jail are also what he wants to know.

Although Dorothy did not go to the press conference, Hughes, a senior vampire, came to her, and she also felt.

“Master, they want to harm you?” When Hughes and the people of the Holy See came together, Dorothy immediately became alert and found that they were all very strange.

“Unspeakable.” Shen Lang shook his head, then took Pinochet’s cell phone, “Help me find it, contact them Pope.”

Dorothy stunned. As a young vampire, she wanted to contact the Pope of the Holy See. It was really a bit unaccustomed.

However, she was obedient and immediately opened the app on the Pinochet mobile phone, through the video call of the communication software, found the Pope connection, and then handed it to Shen Lang.

After waiting for half a minute, there was an old man in the phone.

“Pinochet...who are you?”

“The Pope, you look carefully, you should know who I am. I am contacting you, there is one thing to give you a confession. Your Pinochet, the president of the United Bat Association, Hughes, and this Mars The family, let the spirit of the blood family enter your holy painting, and murder me in the name of sending me a holy painting. The purpose is not to let the Archbishop Paul, President Scott and others come back...”

Shen Lang simply said the passing, and also passed the pictures of the three of them to the Pope.

“I have already punished them. I will leave them on your face. I am not afraid of your revenge. I will tell you, because I am bright and open, I don’t want to be smeared by them first, but also because the Archbishop Paul gave me The impression is good.”

After the completion, Shen Lang directly smashed, and the Pope, in the Western secular and comprehension circles, had a very high-profile figure. In front of him, there was no chance to say the second sentence.

After hang up, Shen Lang took the three of them and searched for it, and then he gave up on Dorothy.

“I will hand it to you now.”

Hughes is clear, and the other is the Mars family, the second is the second person of the Holy See, and now she is blood-sucking, really a little dare!

“You’re welcome, you can turn them into waste people, leaving a life.”

Shen Lang himself has just completely extracted their mental strength, and at this moment, Dorothy will drain the blood.

The last trip to mainland China did not give the Dorothy a good thing, just take advantage of this opportunity to make up.

Dorothy looked at Shen Lang and said so, and he was not polite.

Hughes' blood, she can be absorbed directly. Mars and Pinochet are also the strongest of the gods, and they are also a big complement to her.

After such a toss, The three of them have completely turned into waste people, unless there is any anti-day technique, and they will spend huge resources, they may also let them recover, otherwise they will want to re-cultivate by themselves. Come out, it is impossible to end the life.

After becoming a waste, they are all a few decades old – they are not small, but because the realm is not so old, there are not many years of good life.

“You are a devil...” Pinochet muttered.

Shen Lang sneered: “When you cooperate with the vampire and want the devil to harm me, you are already the devil. Now I am just giving it back to you!”

Pinochet's face is like a gray, it is also a huge earthquake. Yeah, when he got the mind and started the plan, it was already the devil!

Because it will directly harm the Shen Lang, indirectly will hurt a large number of Earth Powers such as Archbishop Paul.

In the words of the Eastern religion, his current fruit is that he has planted the bad cause himself...

Chapter 916 - Our business

After driving out the three of them into waste, they did not know the wind and the situation, and they were prepared to send them to the elevator in person. After all, they were all guests with identity.

But it was stopped by Shen Lang.

The wind didn't have a stunned look, and I don't know how the three of them got into the waves.

Looking at Dorothy, she also shrugged and said nothing.

The three of them were originally strong figures in the gas field. Now, not only are they obviously a lot older, but the backs are also very embarrassing, so the wind is no wonder.

However, she did not have time to think about it, because she was not free for a moment, and many people were waiting to arrange to see Shen Lang. Many of them have come up, waiting in elevators and corridors.

If you are not afraid of offending the waves, you will line up directly at the door of the room.

Shen Lang first entered the room with her and asked about the current situation.

“This is the case. Before Joe’s predecessors and the South’s predecessors went out, they took the initiative to go out and said that they were paying five fine spirits and asked you to help find the lost people. So there is a part. I also contacted me and said that they are also willing to pay for Lingshi.”

Feng Wuji said, while she gave her list of statistics to Shen Lang.

“Just decide this! Before anyone participated in the plan of no return to the Hell, if they are willing to pay five fine stones, we will accept it. If there are no Lingshi, there are other valuable items that can be replaced. ”

Shen Lang stunned again: “I will not see people. The attitude is this, do not want to casually. Then ... let everyone be careful, especially you, it is best not to leave the floor.”

“Ok.”

The wind is not warm in the heart.

She is used to the strength of Shen Lang, but he once again emphasizes her safety. This carefulness also shows her concern for her.

Dorothy has just gone out, and now they are two people.

Although Feng Jiji wants to stay alone with Shen Lang for a while, she is responsible for handling these things. Now is the busiest time and there is no time to stop.

Just when she was going to leave, Shen Lang stopped her.

“So what... I have something to tell you.”

“Ok.”

Seeing that she is listening carefully to the record of preparation, Shen Lang is a little sweaty. “It’s not something outside, it’s our business...”

“We?” The wind did not glance at it, and then the heart sank.

The last time she was there, she was completely active, and she added the words of repaying her, and then pushed Shen Lang. It has been half a year since then, and everyone has no chance to get along with each other.

At this critical time, Shen Lang still wants to talk about their affairs. Is it necessary for her to pay attention to the impact of clearing the boundaries?

“It’s very busy now, or do we have to find another free time to talk about?”

Even if I guessed it, she is psychologically prepared for such a result, but I also hope that it will be delayed for a long time. Don’t face it immediately.

Shen Lang shook his head: “It’s not bad, but let’s make it clear.”

“I understand... I will be conscious, nothing will not appear in front of you, nor will the outside world misunderstand us, then I will try to let the name of the wind disappear, I will hide in the dark. At...”

“What are you talking about?” Shen Lang is a bit puzzling.

The wind didn’t look at him with big eyes: “Don’t you want to draw a line with me? You want to tell me that the last thing happened is just a temporary impulse that passed, I can understand, I won’t Influence you...”

“I want to say this, but it is a little different from what you think.”

Shen Lang shook her head and saw that she wanted to smash, and then accelerated her speed to express her meaning.

“Before you arrived, Zheng Yumeng, Dorothy, and the rain fell, and I ate a meal together at night, and then I made one thing clear... Are you willing to be my woman?”

When I was facing four of them, Shen Lang was a bit embarrassed.

But I have already faced it once, and now it’s a wind and no one, it’s much more frank, and it’s straightforward.

“I... can it really be?” The wind didn’t have a big eyes, it was unbelievable. Is it sure that this is not a whole girl?

She thought about it for a moment, is it a birthday today? Is it April Fool’s Day?

No reason! When he was very busy now, how could he still feel like making such a joke?

“Hey, I haven’t said it clearly. It’s not that I am married to you, but... I am following them like them.”

Shen Lang is not afraid to say it: “You know, Zheng Yumeng, and you... this time in another world, and the rafting is also so stunned...”

Feng Wuji took a deep breath: “You took down the palace owner? Isn’t she the sister of the girl?”

It is summer, wearing more light and thin, she took a deep breath of action, directly let the magnificent chest rippling up, so that Shen Lang is not good to see.

“It’s hard to say a word. When we are there, we are almost the only men and women of the earth. It is for the earth!”

The wind did not giggle ‘噗哧’ and laughed: “This reason is great enough! I understand, I was seen after coming back, so everyone will show you a showdown. Of course I have no opinion, if you ask me if I wish Willing to follow you and be your woman, is one hundred willing, ten thousand willing!”

At the beginning, she was still a joke, and she was very serious when she came back.

Shen Lang nodded: “That’s good, then it’s so decided. I also told them, I have a leg with you.”

The wind is a little sweaty, it is no wonder that everyone’s attitude towards her in these two days always makes her feel a bit strange.

“Then they... don’t you mind me? Wouldn’t you mind the Lord?”

Shen Lang shrugged: “Maybe my mind is mindful but still accepted.”

This is a very clear understanding of the wind, from the woman itself, certainly mind, no one is willing to share his beloved man with others.

But from the perspective of choice, they are willing to make this choice.

Because the current Shen Lang, like the king of the animal kingdom, the powerful king must occupy more females. As far as she is concerned, after deep contact with Shen Lang, she can’t accept other men at all, and there may be other men who can be so good to her.

The same is true of other people. They have to quit themselves on the premise that they can't confirm that they can monopolize the waves. They will meet each other in the future, and they will not be met and will be uncomfortable, and this decision will affect their lives.

"In fact, the mind is just awkward. Everyone loves you. They want to be with you forever." When Feng Jiji said it, he boldly took the initiative to hug Shen Lang.

Before, it was no name and no part. It was a point of stealing from other people. Now that she is determined to be his woman, her mentality can be more practical.

Chapter 917 - 20 holy paintings

Of course, Shen Lang did not have the rush of embarrassment, but he hugged the warmth of the wind, and then the wind did not grate to go out and be busy.

Originally she has decided to dedicate herself to serving the waves, even if it is always behind the scenes, or just doing some trivial things. But now "upgrading" to his woman, of course, she is very excited and excited.

Think about each of them being beautiful and powerful, and she has to make herself worthwhile.

When Shen Lang was alone in the room, he began to clean up the harvest.

He is really not a bandit!

I didn't even think about robbing them, wanting to sell information, and charging for the risks, all open.

But a few of them directly wanted to harm him, and that would not blame him.

Before, because I had absorbed three holy paintings, there was no problem, and the effect was very good, so he did not have any fortification. I did not expect that they would put the spirit of the blood family in the holy painting.

If his spirit is strong enough, the spirit of the blood family will swallow him directly, and may even reap the resurrection of his body!

But now it is no longer a problem. After his strong suppression, the spirit of the blood family has been completely refining.

In addition to the spirit of the blood family, plus all the spiritual power of the three of them, this is undoubtedly a great complement to the spiritual power of Shen Lang, and become more powerful.

The other is the actual harvest, and the items that the three people carried with them were searched by Shen Lang.

Looking at it one by one, I found that there is not much value for it.

Perhaps they all have concerns, and they have not carried all the good things with them. Mars and Hughes have some spiritual stones, not much gain.

Archbishop Pinochet, when he finally asked for mercy, did not lie, but really carried the holy painting!

And as he said, there are not many Lingshi, the number of holy paintings is more than the expectations of Shen Lang, even as many as twenty!

After searching the memory of Archbishop Pinochet, I immediately understood what it was.

When he came here, he passed by a parish, where there is a famous cathedral with a long history. These twenty paintings were taken away by the harvest and replaced with a new set of resettlement.

These are not his personal things, but to bring them back to the Holy See.

But now that he is in the hands of Shen Lang, he can't send it back to the Holy See. I also said that I have already given the face of the Pope, but I have not crushed them, but the price still has to be paid.

How many people did not pay a painful price to kill him?

Do you want to absorb it directly?

The spiritual power of these holy paintings is very pure, but after all, it is attached to the medium of paintings. It can only be part of the church. It depends on long-term storage, and the quantity is not too large.

The last time he tried to absorb three paintings, he now has a higher realm and a stronger mental power. He absorbs ten pieces at a time and he is sure. But the twenty is still a little risky, after all, he has just absorbed a lot.

But this is like food, stacked in front of you, always wanting people to endure it, even if they are already full, they still want to taste it...

After hesitating, he decided to absorb a part. And I found a reason for myself: In case the Pope personally came over and asked for it? Don't give it when you arrive?

Absorbed first, it doesn't matter if it is back.

Just do it!

But with the previous lessons, even if it is determined that there will be no danger, Shen Lang has maintained a higher alert.

Under the cautious, absorb a picture, then the second and third...

Shen Lang feels that his current spiritual world is like a balloon. The more he blows, the feeling of swelling, as if he can cover the world!

The nature of a greedy person can't stop him, and he always thinks about one more piece.

Then one after another... I have absorbed twelve!

By this time, he felt that his body had reached the limit and he would explode again!

But this is not the body, it is expanding, but it can actually be an infinite spiritual world, and it will not really explode.

However, people have the nature of greed and the nature of being alert to danger. In the end, they have not greedy, stopped, and absorbed the spiritual power of these twelve paintings.

In fact, if you only absorb these holy paintings alone, it is very likely that Shen Lang will absorb the 20 paintings. However, because the spirit of the blood family is absorbed first, and the three spiritual powers are strong, they can no longer absorb it. Finally, only ten are completed. Two.

Even so, this is almost unique, directly raising his spiritual strength to an incredible realm.

After waiting for him to stop, he immediately sensed that everyone in the surrounding room was paying attention to his movements. Obviously everyone knows that he is practicing, although he has not come to the room to guard, but he is guarding the law on the same floor.

Shen Lang smiled and moved a thought directly, letting them all come to the room.

Soon, all the girls came over together.

Feng Youji has seen them a few days ago, but now it's the first time in front of Shen Lang, and Shen Lang told her that everyone knows about them and that she is a bit nervous now. .

"I'm fine, I have cultivated it. There is still something to gain."

“This is what I got at the Archbishop Pinochet of the Holy See. You can take it.”

Everyone is a bit puzzled, sending calligraphy and painting is also a taste, but it should not be sent to religious subjects, and it is from the archbishop, it should be religious painting, unless Pinochet himself is a painter But Shen Lang said so, they all took one and took a look.

“This is the holy painting of the Holy See. Don’t think it is very simple. In fact, there is a mystery. There is a strong spiritual power. You can try to absorb the mental power inside, and you can strengthen your mental strength.”

Shen Lang untied their doubts, but in fact they are still somewhat ignorant.

Before the canoe was followed by the sinking waves, when he was at sea, he was inspired to have an epiphany, and after the improvement of his spiritual strength, let the repairs follow the breakthrough. Later in Yuxianmen, I saw more in this regard, including personally seeing Shenlang absorption.

“It’s about the same as absorbing aura, but after absorbing aura, it is refining and strengthening our strength. And this is through the external spiritual power, which enhances our spiritual strength after absorption.”

She made an analogy. Others have not specifically studied this before, and I still don’t understand it at the moment. But the general meaning is to know, and an absorption should be able to understand the difference.

Chapter 918 - Returning to the sea

There are still eight paintings left in Shen Lang. There are three cans, such as the canoe, the rain, the Zheng Yumeng, the Dorothy, and the wind, there are five, and there are three, and he is not prepared to keep himself.

“Let the river seniors come over? You bring a picture to her, and then ask her to come over and talk about it later.” Shen Lang said to the canoe and the rain.

Then the last two are to let Zheng Yumeng take it to Gao Li and Qi Sheng, and they are all divided up.

Even if the Pope personally came over from the other side of the earth, there would be no way.

It was followed by letting Feng Jiji leave and report the current situation.

Before I passed through the wind, I wanted to meet Shen Lang privately. After being rejected, I still didn't want to leave. I still wanted to see if there was any chance. After such a burst of fermentation, he expressed his willingness to pay for Lingshi, and he began to come to her and gave him five medium-spirited stones.

However, in terms of proportion, it is only a part of it. More than half of it is still unmoved, or just stated, and there is no real payment.

Shen Lang is not in a hurry, anyway, he is not going to start soon.

By letting the wind have no screening, insisting on personally meeting the waves, and did not mention any clues, they still refused. Compared with other treasures, these wealthy and famous family members are more willing to pay Lingshi directly.

The five fine spirits are indeed valuable, but in terms of the current scarcity of resources, Nedan and magic weapons are equally rare. There are inner dan, there are magic weapons that can be sold, but there are spiritual stones that are not necessarily available.

As a result, there are more than a hundred fine stones.

Plus more than 300 tickets before, Feng Wuji was all delivered to Shen Lang, so much more to her, she is very nervous and worried.

"I feel that you should be the richest self-cultivator in the world."

What she had contacted before was only a few medium-spirited stones, or a primary stone, but now she is directly in control of the finest stone of four or five hundred!

For her intelligence gathering work, for many martial arts, there is also a little understanding of the bottom, although it can only be low-end, the top-level big-name faction is still profound, but it can also be estimated.

Four or five hundred fine stone, it is estimated that there are not many sects.

“There are people outside, there are mountains outside the mountains.” Shen Lang shook his head, and did not care too much about these.

Not to mention that he used to see the big world in his previous life. Just recently on the mainland of Nakajima, I saw a different pattern. Even if it is the richest planet, it is nothing.

After the wind has gone out, the river will come over.

The strength of the comprehension is respected, and it is not rude to let the river come to see him in the realm of Shen Lang. It should even be said that if she is not a master who falls into a canoe or falls, she will not see the waves.

After seeing Shen Lang again in half a year, it is very embarrassing to fall.

“This time there is no return to the Hell Expedition, the boat has fortunately got your help and protection, or else...”

Otherwise, even if they followed Liu Yichang, they will disappear and not come back!

“You are polite, they are all people.” They must have told her about the situation, and Shen Lang did not hide anything.

“It’s very good. You are the one they are worth to trust. Your concept is also right. The final is the form of a partner. Marriage is a secular concept.”

Shen Lang nodded: “Thank you for your understanding.”

Both the rain and the canoe are her apprentices and her grandsons. As I said before, it is a big concession to promise them to be with him. There are still a few now, she is not trouble, it is polite.

“You can handle this yourself and say good things. I can’t afford the tickets, I didn’t listen to your press conference, but I also knew the things from the boat. I don’t know if the other people didn’t come back, you Is there any plan?”

What Luohe knows from the canoe is bound to be more detailed than the details disclosed by Shen Lang.

The people who are not in the ice palace have already returned, she will still be so concerned, naturally it will not be because of justice, more likely because of Liu Yichang!

In the end, they are all old, and the waves are inconvenient and they are not interested in inquiring about the old sentiment.

“I still have to go. Anyway, as long as there is hope, I have to get everyone back!”

Luohe nodded. “I can’t say thank you on behalf of the comprehension community. I can only say that I personally admire it. But I also hope that you must return safely. Don’t forget that you have a lot of burdens now.”

Shen Lang smiled and nodded. She could still remember Liu Yichang. Of course, if he couldn’t come back, he would become a canoe and fall into the rain.

“How do seniors know that I will decide to go alone?”

Falling in the ocean: “The last time you took a canoe, although she ended up with a lot of money, but in the process, it should be your burden. Now there are so many people who have a showdown, who will go with no one, but they will be allocated If all goes together, the action will be inconvenient, and it may not be able to take care of it. If it is dangerous, it will be bad. So I guess you should be alone.”

Shen Lang is undecided. “It is true. I also rejected the suggestion that Nanliushui will go with me.”

“Safety first!”

Shen Lang has not seen other family members who have fallen into the boat. The river is even a family representative, so I need to see it. In fact, there are not many in-depth topics. Liu Yichang is not convenient to talk. Then she will leave.

This temporary event, which was expected by many people, did not end in the end.

Shen Lang did not disclose what changed the world information, nor did he disclose his details, as well as information from other major sects.

The content of the conference After all, a small number of people are in control. Even if someone sells it, it is still a relatively small scope. For those who are not able to reach the middle and lower level, if they arrive at Haishan, It can only be a lively event, and there is no gain.

This also makes you reluctant to leave for a long time, but they are not willing to go, have already harvested the full waves, but they left first!

He arranged it and let them go back, including Gao Li, and he was ready to go to the sea again.

Feng Wuji is his contact person and spokesperson, and all decisions and information will spread through her. When all the comprehensions in Haishan have disappeared, Shen Lang has returned to the sea!

This is another violent discussion. Some people feel that there is a letter and a letter, and they receive the rewards paid by the major sects. Some people think that Shen Lang is very likely to be a play. Whenever he finds a place to hide, he can't find it, so many of the top grades will be earned.

Most of them did not pay for Lingshi, and because of this mentality, they felt that they could not be pitted first.

Chapter 919 - Deep sea miracle

Shen Lang was the same as when he came back. He did not rely on passenger ships or planes, and he went out to sea alone.

The temporary goal is still no return to the sea.

However, he is not prepared to pass the space crack again, because according to Bagan's information, the Black Dragon King is back to Earth, and the two months have been on Earth.

If everyone has already returned, he does not need to go to the chaotic space to search, and do not have to go to Yuxianmen to verify, the first thing to do is to start from no return to the sea, search to see where they may go.

A little regrettable, Bagan and the Black Dragon King, they were inspired by the emperor who had been feeding for decades. Shen Lang just read his memory and could not feel it.

If he can feel it, as long as the world moves constantly, there will always be changes. When the distance is close to one or two thousand miles, you may feel a more detailed position.

However, the time passed two months, with Bagan's attitude towards the Black Dragon King, such an exhaustive method of carpet search, he should have tried it, but there is no clue.

This of course brings exclusion to Shen Lang!

Bagan wants to do this, and the place is also on land, and there is no effect, indicating that the matter is at a distant distance. There is no return to the sea in the Pacific Center, and it is difficult to search for at least 10,000 miles.

So this will be the biggest possible area!

Although Shen Lang has experienced it here, after all, there are rushes coming and going, the focus is on no return to hell, and there is nothing to understand about it.

Positioned by the trajectory of the holy armor, Shen Lang accurately came to the sea of no return.

At a close distance, I felt the fascinating aura of this attraction. This time, only he alone can appreciate it better.

But to be honest, if you look at it with the naked eye, it is a sea. You can't see anything, and there is no fog that projects the chaotic space here. Maybe it will look like a projected sea in the fog over there.

After “appreciating” a few eyes, Shen Lang was not interested.

The most mysterious and attractive place in this place is that when I don't know what is behind it, I have already been there, and naturally there is no mystery.

After Shen Lang turned around in the non-returned sea prison, he began to fly in the sky, and the holy armor opened to the maximum detection function, and his knowledge also spread to the maximum.

Then, starting with the center of the non-returned Hell Center, the search around the circle, expanding the search range by circle.

Because of the relationship with the holy armor, it is basically not afraid to miss which corner, and because there is almost no other barrier in the sea, the whole speed can be very fast.

This is a stupid way, but Shen Lang will not really search the entire Pacific Ocean for a full project. It is a huge project and it has no value.

The last time the person was, if it was pitted by Yuxianmen, or lost in the chaotic space, it is well understood, but only returned to the earth.

Those are the elites on the earth. Without the enemies of Yuxianmen, they should return to their own world. It should be safe. The farther away from the invaders, the easier it is for everyone to return, and at least the more information will be left.

Only when I came back, what accidents were there, so that they could not have any clues, and Bagan decided to return to Earth.

On the third lap of the no-failed Hell, Shen Lang discovered a clue!

There is a little abnormal situation, which came from the bottom of the sea under the “no return to hell”.

Shen Lang immediately used the sacred armor to open the protection, and went directly into the sea water, and quickly rushed to the abnormal place.

However, he was very cautious in the whole process, avoiding accidentally entering the chaotic space. This time he went in alone, and the space impact was completely borne by him alone.

As he approached, his speed was reduced again and again, and he had a better understanding of the return to the sea.

Space cracks are the voids that appear in that sea, from sea level to the top!

So the last time they flew into this sea, they didn't have to plunge into the sea. When they came back, they didn't appear in the water.

At first, he flew over the sky from the height of 10,000 meters, feeling the awkward aura below, thinking that it was directly from the bottom of the sea, and did not go deep into the back.

It is confirmed now, just to the surface of the sea. And now he is close to the sea floor in this sea area.

As you approached, the previously discovered anomalies became clearer and became stronger.

Because the above is the vast aura of the number of squares, whether it is passing by or deliberately to explore, the focus is there, there will be no faint anomalies in the bottom of the sea.

Counting back and forth, Shen Lang is already the third time. It is a survey of the sea area that is specifically targeted. It has just been discovered from the ring to the third circle.

At this moment, it was determined that he would not enter the chaotic space, and he also assuredly focused his attention on this.

With the dive, there is no light, it is the light of the release of the Holy Grail, and resists the increasing pressure of water.

I don't know how many kilometers down, Shen Lang saw the huge reef of the uplift, it seems to have reached the bottom of the sea, but with the scope of the expansion of the Reconnaissance, it is more like a mountain on the seabed.

Shen Lang slowed down the speed. With the search, I saw somewhere on the top of the mountain. There was a seemingly whirlpool change, and this is exactly what he found to be the same!

It is from here that there are abnormal energy fluctuations.

Nowadays, this is already a very deep deep sea. It is impossible to have such a vortex. It is impossible to determine whether there is a vortex formed by seawater infused into the seamount.

But the truth is that it doesn't make sense, because it is in the ocean for countless years, even if there is still a hole in the mountain already full, it is impossible to see the vortex flowing into the perfusion.

Shen Lang regrets that if he can have the feeling of Bagan and Black Dragon King, you can test it at this time to see if Black Dragon King is under this, and will not be in vain.

However, when you come here, you will find such an unusual place. If you don't look at it, you still can't feel at ease.

As in the case of entering the sea without jail, Shen Lang made a layer of protection to ensure that after the final safety, let himself approach and enter the waters of the vortex.

This vortex at the top of the deep sea peak, because of his entry, quickly changed, and under the full-scale alert of Shen Lang, I felt that the body was quickly pulled into another place!

Suddenly, his eyes were bright and his body was not in the deep sea of high pressure, as if in the air. Although the gravity is still different, he is indeed at high altitude and is falling down!

Shen Lang immediately stabilized the speed of his body's fall, slowly fluttering, and quickly observed everything around him.

Chapter 920 - Submarine pyramid

Shen Lang is indeed landing from the air, but not in the normal air, but in the air within a limited range, he estimated that this is within the seamount just seen!

Just the whirlpool is the gateway that connects into this mountain. Now that he is landing in the air, he can also see a clear view of all of the following.

Inside this huge mountain, it seems to be an independent paradise. There is a magnificent city below, and there is a pyramid-like building in the center. There are also other kinds of landscapes, including landscapes and rivers.

He had just stopped the speed of the landing, but in order to see the following situation, he must speed up a little.

At this time, from the city below, I quickly flew up a few figures, but in an instant, I was already at his side, and he was squatting in the air.

“You...what is this place?”

Shen Lang looked at people in these somewhat bizarre underwater worlds.

Those people did not speak, and when they listened to Shen Lang's words, they had already observed him and immediately launched an offensive!

From the perspective of them, Shen Lang can see that several of them have reached the initial strength of the realm of the gods. If only a few guarded soldiers, then the strength of the underwater world is at least not inferior to Yuxianmen.

After coming in, Shen Lang can feel more clearly that the strangeness that was previously noticed is transmitted from here.

It seems to be the top of the pyramid in the city below. It is aimed at the vortex above the mountain. If you don't know a few kilometers, it is the center of the sea.

This is too coincidental! There must be an unknowable secret. Since it has already arrived here, no matter whether it has anything to do with Black Dragon King or so, Shen Lang wants to figure it out.

Under the Pacific Ocean, there is such a world in the mountains, and there are powerful human beings. This is the information that shocks the whole world. It is also a huge impact on the realm of cultivation.

Who are they?

When did you build such a world on the seabed?

How long have they been out of contact with the outside world?

What is the relationship between them and the space cracks that have no return to hell?

With numerous mysteries, Shen Lang did not want to directly offend them, so as not to be resisted from contact, so in the moment when these people started, his body quickly sank and directly shunned their attacks.

When the above few people reacted and chased, Shen Lang had already ran straight to the top of the pyramid below!

This pyramid is the core and the key to all coincidences. It can be imagined that there will be high-ranking people, and when he is close to the past, he will lead people with identity.

At the same time as the rapid approximation is approached, the knowledge of Shen Lang has also spread out. With his current spiritual power, the entire city centered on the pyramid is completely shrouded.

He has just appeared, and some people have already dealt with it, and it has not attracted more people's attention. But now this investigation is to alert many people.

What makes Shen Lang a bit disappointing is that in the entire city, there is no shadow of people such as Qiao Yuxian, Nanliuchuan, and Black Dragon King.

However, this pyramid is somewhat obstructed. Even his knowledge of the gods cannot detect the information inside.

“presumptuous!”

I don't know where it came from.

And a big hand suddenly appeared from the air, flying directly to the sinking waves of the pyramid, pinching the past!

The speed of the following chasing soldiers is not comparable to that of Shen Lang. But the big hand that suddenly appeared, as if it was just a shadow, but it was directly tied to him.

This big hand is not only strange, but also very fast, that is, Shen Lang is not prepared enough, and it is difficult to avoid.

At this time, Shen Lang had already had a sword in his hand.

Juyue Sword with a strong gravity, like a wind and thunder, formed a sword net directly around him, just in time when the big hand grabbed it, blocked in front.

“what?”

The people behind the scenes did not seem to think of this layer, the strength of the Juyue sword, so that the big hand did not succeed in catching the waves.

However, the people behind the scenes were just amazed, and they didn't wait for the wait. The palm of the hand once again caught over to Shen Lang.

This time, it is a big hand with a virtual reality, and the speed is also a lot faster. The direct presentation is a hand shadow.

And the people behind the scenes do not know what this is, and the giant Yue sword that has not been collected, even if it is still a strong sword, it can't stop it!

It seems that the big hand in the air completely becomes a virtual one, and when it is beyond the encirclement of the sword, when it reaches the side of Shen Lang, it becomes a physical again!

But the people behind the scenes were once again surprised.

Because his big hand is very fast, and it is surrounded by swords, but he looks at the tight waves, but actually squeezes an empty!

The deep waves caught by the big hands in the air seem to have become a virtual shadow in a moment.

This time, it was Shen Lang who gave the other party a time difference.

After feeling the unusualness of the big hand, Shen Lang speeded up, no longer landing, but flew away in the air with a "phantom meteor step".

But at the moment of his departure, he had a mischievous mentality, and his mind controlled the sacred armor to quickly cast a shadow in the air.

So what the big hand grabs is not the virtual shadow of the visual residue, but the virtual shadow that is actually projected.

The swordsman who avoided the big hand, but still a little delayed the real sword.

“Bold!”

“presumptuous!”

The few people who chased in the sky Although it is a little slower than Shen Lang, but after all, it is the strength of the gods, just as they fly out very fast, the speed of chasing is also very Fast, the whole height is not unlimited, just a little worse.

Now that they are catching up, it is clear that Shen Lang has landed at the top of the pyramid, so he immediately yelled.

However, they are rodents, and people are surrounded by the air around them.

People stood at the top of the pyramid, and Shen Lang felt a very unusual experience.

The top of the pyramid is of course pointed, but because of its large size, the tip is also opposite. For the individual of the person, this top is actually a small platform with a few square meters, and it is not as sharp as a sword, and even less like a needle.

But on this small platform, after landing, it is a huge energy shock!

Even if Shen Lang self-contained the body, plus he was far better than the powerful body of the same realm, as well as the protection of the Holy Grail, this time also felt the almost unbearable strong impact.
