

First Strong 94

Chapter 94 - Help 2 people

Just before Mo Qi's initiative, in the view of Yue Zhennan, it was Mo Qi's understanding of him, and he shot them to scare them.

In fact, Mo Qi was here to see Shen Lang directly exploding the master of his comprehension!

It is a taboo with deep psychological shadows. If he does not shoot, he will not kick Dong Dawei down. He is really afraid of the wrath of the waves, and let them all become **** and rushing into the river!

Yue Zhennan is not aware of this layer. Now Shen Lang reminded him that he was allowed to react.

Yes, who is this sinking wave? I am not afraid of it!

When they first met, did Shen Lang not break his leg and seriously hurt his bodyguard Ahu? It is still in the hospital in Pingxi.

If you are annoyed, maybe you will really kill Dong Dawei!

in this case.....

He did not dare to guess, but reminded himself to be in a good state of mind. In the face of Shen Lang, there must be no arrogance of the young master, and he must be a younger brother.

This time, the Yue family sent over one million herbs, and said that it was sent, and it was used in the waves, not included in the materials used in the treasure.

Shen Lang now has no urgent need for medicinal herbs, nor will he greet them.

In addition to the medicinal materials, Yue Zhennan also bought a large wooden bath tub, which is also confessed by Shen Lang.

There is a bathtub in the bedroom in Shenlang, but after he cleans it up, sometimes he needs to take a bath, and of course he will not let others use it again. I originally thought about letting Yuezhen South live in Huayue Hotel and open a room with a bathtub.

This way, he does not need to clean up, but if he goes to the hotel, he is not convenient to carry the medicine. It was more troublesome to run around, so yesterday they asked them to prepare a bath tub, which was placed directly in the yard. If you want to clean up anything, let Yue Zhennan do it directly.

After Mo Qi finished the medicine, he respectfully asked Shen Lang and asked if he would stay outside.

He followed him, which is the meaning of Yue Gang. Let him help with the care, if you need, you can run errands.

But Mo Qi knows the power of Shen Lang, many things should not want him to see, so I have to ask for the meaning of Shen Lang.

After Shen Lang considered it, let him flow down.

He is not afraid of any problems, Dong Dawei should not come, but he is afraid that if there is anything, there will be no discrimination. When he is not there, he can also protect Yuezhen South.

Shen Lang didn't have that much time and started directly. Let Mo Qi take the hot water from the water heater and fill the tub.

Then he let Yue Zhennan take off his clothes and sit in the tub with his underwear.

The medicine he had smelted last night had a big pot. When he joined it directly, it mixed with hot water and immediately had a strong medicinal taste.

"Have you learned any exercises?" Shen Lang asked.

Yue Zhennan nodded: “I have practiced some basic exercises since I was a child, but because of the physical relationship, there has been no effect, but it has played a role in strengthening the body. I thought it was general qigong, now only I know that it is the heart of our Yue family.”

“You started to exercise.”

There was no nonsense in Shen Lang, let him start running his mind, and then reached out and pressed his head.

After Mo Qi’s work, he has already consciously opened the door and stood guard outside. Knowing too many secrets is dangerous, and he understands what kind of attitude he should be.

In the last night, if Shen Lang had to open all the meridians for him by his own cultivation, and to achieve the effect of easy to wash the marrow, it would still be very expensive. However, after the success of last night’s clearance, his current repairs are different.

Now I am directly working for Yue Zhennan. Although it is not a little effort, it is a lot easier. However, such pure help may not be good for Yue Zhennan.

Just like his own cultivation, it is necessary to go through pain and tempering, through his own sprint to the limit, in order to get better results, purely relying on the help of outsiders, the use and understanding of power will not be so profound.

When Shen Lang’s vitality was explored, he understood the heart of the Yue family. In his eyes, it is nothing at all, and it is garbage compared with “Yin Yang Bo Ruozhen”. However, this is his own secret and will not be imparted to Yue Zhennan.

With his cultivation, he easily guided the simple Yuejia heart and began to wash the marrow for him to get through the congested meridians. More importantly, he was guided to let him absorb the medicine and use the energy inside the medicine to sprint. .

After completing the first round of guidance, Shen Lang let him soak himself, then picked the herbs and began to cook a pot of potion.

After the pot, Shen Lang had nothing to do, and he called Mo Qi into it and went straight into the house.

“Mr.” Mo Qi respectfully said, “What do you want me to do, you tell me.”

“Hundred treasures are still **** soup, have you used it?” Shen Lang asked.

Mo Qi is more respectful: “Used, your refining is really a magical medicine, the effect is very good. I have taken a few bottles, this is just over a week, I feel that the progress is very obvious!”

“Will you come over and do things for me?”

“You mean...” Mo Qi was bright, he had mentioned this before, but Shen Lang let him continue in the Yue family.

These days, the effect of the treasures of the gods, he is amazed, if you can follow the waves, the benefits will naturally be small. In Yuejia, it is just the offering of money, but this depends on whether people are willing to ask him.

“I am willing!” He immediately stated.

“Thinking clearly, I am letting you protect my parents. I will not follow what I learned, nor the status of the Yue family.” Shen Lang reminded me.

When this statement came out, Mo Qi also hesitated. There is no doubt that following the wave, of course, I hope that after all my efforts, I can get a little bit of teaching.

Yuejia has the power to increase, or paid a major interest, in order to let Shen Lang help Yuezhen South Yijin wash the marrow, he does not have this resource, can only rely on sincerity!

Now is the time for the test!

Mo Qi immediately stated: “I am willing! Let me protect my husband’s parents, that is my trust in me, I feel very honored!”

Shen Lang nodded. “This is a good speech But it doesn’t matter. I don’t give you the benefit, how can I count on your loyalty...”

“Sir, I am real...”

Shen Lang interrupted his words: “You are willing to give up the treatment of Yuejia for me, I will not treat you badly!”

“Thank you, Mr.!” Mo Qi quickly thanked, no matter what the benefits are, it is also a promise.

Shen Lang didn’t say anything more. He directly checked his physical condition, then injected a sigh of energy and quickly changed his body for him.

This is to help Mo Qi to enhance the strength, it is much easier to get through the meridians than Yue Zhennan, but after a while, Mo Qi feels full of strength, he feels that he has upgraded to the seven realms that have been eager to reach!

“Thank you, Mr.!” Mo Qi excitedly bowed down!

This is something that his master can’t do, or is unwilling to consume his skill for him. Shen Lang has helped him at least a few years of hard work, and of course he is convinced.
