/ Fit For Your Love

Brayden drove quickly to the police station. And he kept repeating what Donald had told him in his mind.

"I gave the Secrets of Green Embroidery to Miss Hadley. I didn't expect my son to suddenly want this. I told him I burned it, but he still guessed that I gave it to Miss Hadley and kidnapped Miss Hadley."

"But don't worry. Miss Hadley is fine. Someone saved her"

"Really? Who?"

"I don't know. All I know is that Mr. Weston mentioned by the lawyer: Mr. Weston. Everett. It was he that saved Olivia. Why he was the one who saved Olivia..."

Brayden gripped the steering wheel, his veins bulging, and he stepped on the accelerator.

After arriving at the police station, Brayden got out of the car and ran in quickly.

As soon as he ran in, he saw Mr. Cruz walking out.

He was Everett's exclusive lawyer, and very famous at the Bar.

When Mr. Cruz saw Brayden, he didn't feel surprised.

He paused and greeted Brayden, "Mr. James."

Brayden strode over with a cold face.

"Where's Olivia?"

Everett wouldn't tell him where Olivia was, so Brayden came to the police station.

"I'm sorry, I don't know"

"You don't know? How can you not know? She's the victim!"

Five hours had passed since noon, and Olivia had been missing for five hours! He actually said he didn't know.

Brayden only felt that the anger fire in his body was about Visit to read the newest content, everyone! emotional changes.

“Yes”

Brayden grabbed his collar and snapped, “Don’t think you’re such a renowned lawyer that I wouldn’t dare do anything to you!”

Mr. Cruz Visit to read the newest content, everyone! Hadley is. I think it would be better if you asked Mr. Weston about this.”

He just got the order to do his job.

Other matters were not within his scope of responsibility.

Brayden looked at the calmness in Mr. Cruz’s eyes and his hands creaked.

Suddenly, Brayden let go of him and made a phone call to Everett.

“If Everett doesn’t tell him where Olivia is, don’t blame him for being rude!”

In the VIP ward of the hospital, Everett was leaning against the headboard of the bed.

In front of him was a small table with a laptop on it.

There were several people on the screen, all looking serious.

They were having a video conference.

Suddenly, the phone next to him rang.

Everett’s black eyes moved slightly, and he raised his hand.

The people on the screen stopped speaking.

Everett took his phone and looked at the screen.

Two seconds later, he put his phone aside and looked at the computer screen with his dark eyes, signaling the people to continue.

Receiving his signal, the people continued reporting on what they had just said.

Brayden listened to the unanswered phone and held it tightly.

The next moment, he hung up and called again.

He didn’t believe that Everett would never answer the phone if he kept calling! The people in the video conference listened to Everett’s phone ringing, but Everett didn’t answer it.

They were all confused, but they didn't dare to show it.

After the meeting, Everett turned off his laptop and his phone became quiet.

It wasn't because Brayden stopped calling, but because the phone was powered off.

Davis walked in and Everett handed him his phone.

"Charge it."

"Okay, Mr. Weston."

Davis took the phone, charged it, and said to Everett, "Mr. Weston, we've got Miss Hadley's test results."

Olivia woke up. She opened her eyes and stared blankly at the ceiling above her head. She had a dream about the day she met Everett two years ago, but this time she met Brayden instead.

Then, her life was on a completely different track. She was happy and blessed.

There was never any suffering.

In Her dream, she got everything she couldn't get in real life.

Olivia closed her eyes.

Dreaming was so good.

Brayden kept calling Everett for half an hour until his phone was powered off.

He knew he wouldn't answer.

He turned around and went to the SHS Building.

If Everett didn't answer his phone, he will go to him.

He didn't believe that Everett would walk away from his work in the company.

Soon the car reached the SHS Building.

He ran in and strode towards the elevator.

The security guard stopped him immediately.

“Sir, do you have an appointment?”

Brayden waved the security guard away and walked closer to the elevator.

The security guard quickly came over, took out the stun baton, and pointed at him.

“Sir, if you go any further, don’t blame me for being rude to you!”

Brayden ignored him and walked over. But just as Brayden stepped forward, his phone rang.

As soon as he stopped, he took out his cell phone.

When he saw the name on the screen, the Visit to read the newest content, everyone! swiped the answer button.

“Olivia!”

“Brayden, can you pick me up at the city hospital now?”

“City hospital?” He clenched his fists.

“Well, I’ll explain it Visit to read the newest content, everyone! okay?”

“Okay, I’ll come, I’ll be right there!”

He hung up the phone quickly, his face heavy, and turned to run out of SHS Building.

The security guard saw him run away and put away the stun stick.

As long as he didn’t go upstairs, the security guard didn’t have to care about it.

Olivia hung up the phone and looked out the window.

It was almost seven o’clock.

The whole city was lit up and scattered with lights.

In less than 20 minutes, Brayden came to the ward.

He opened the door and ran in quickly.

But the next moment, he stopped.

Olivia was wearing a large hospital gown and leaning against the bedside table with a pale face.

When she saw him, she smiled, pale and warm.

She said, "You're here"

In an instant, Brayden's heart ached like being stabbed by a needle.

"Yes, I'm here."

He was here.

He finally found her.

Ten minutes later, Brayden completed the discharging formalities for her and carried Olivia out of the hospital.

Davis went to the ward to see if Olivia was awake, but instead he saw the scrubwoman making up the bed.

Frowning, he walked in.

"Where's the patient in this bed?"

The cleaning lady heard the voice and turned around.

"She must be discharged"

Discharged? Davis's eyes twitched and he turned to the doctor's office.

Five minutes later, he went to Everett's ward.

Everett sat on the bed and was on the phone.

Hearing the knock on the door, he said to the person on the phone, "We'll talk about it tomorrow."

He hung up and said, "Come in."

Davis came in, closed the door, and walked over.

"Mr. Weston, Mr. James picked Miss Hadley up 20 minutes ago."

Everett's hand paused slightly with an "Um" coming out of his mouth, but his face didn't change a bit.

Davis saw his look and turned to leave.

The moment the door closed, there was a loud bang in the ward, as if something had hit the wall and landed on the ground, making a loud noise.

Davis's face changed and ran in without knocking.

But after seeing what he saw, he was stunned.

Fit For Your Love Chapter 153

/ Fit For Your Love

Davis thought Everett fell to the ground.

But no.

Everett was sitting on the bed sound and safe. The ones that fell to the ground were laptops and documents.

They were scattered all over the floor.

Everett leaned against the bed, closed his eyes, and said in an indifferent voice, "Settle them done." Davis's heart trembled.

"Yes, Mr. Weston."

Mr. Weston had never been so angry before.

Davis immediately packed up his things and turned to leave.

As he left, Everett opened his eyes.

"Give me the situation over the past few months at the Hadleys."

The Hadleys. Naturally, it could only be Olivia's family.

"Okay." Everett closed his eyes.

As his eyes closed, the darkness in his eyes was covered.

The car stopped at the hotel very quickly.

Brayden carried Olivia out of the car and carried her all the way into the room, gently putting her on the bed.

He didn't know where she was hurt.

He didn't ask, nor did he want to.

At this moment, he only wanted her by his side.

He took the pillow and put it on her back, let her lean against the bedside, and covered her with the quilt.

After doing this, Brayden sat on the edge of the bed, took her hand, and looked at her with eyes full of affection.

Two hours, from the time she had the accident.

For the past two hours, he felt like he was tortured in hell.

Gradually, he lost his mind.

Now, she was in front of him, and her hand was in his palm.

He calmed down.

Olivia looked at Brayden.

There were many emotions in his eyes, but he was still calm and trustworthy.

There was no blame or anger in his eyes.

Her heart warmed, and Visit to read the newest content, everyone! was kidnapped by Bill, the son of Mr. Johnson. He wanted to..."

She told him everything about today, including Everett saving her, and the fact Visit to read the newest content, everyone! steering wheel.

There was nothing to hide.

After hearing this, Brayden's face darkened to the extreme, and his warm eyes were burning with anger.

It was as if he wanted to burn everything around him to ashes.

He got up, took her clothes and put them on her, then picked her up and walked out.

Olivia froze.

"Brayden, where are we going?"

"To the hospital."

He brought her back after she had just experienced a severe accident.

It was unreasonable.

Olivia smiled.

Brayden found her smile, he then stopped at the door and Visit to read the newest content, everyone! blamed himself.

Why couldn't he protect her well? Why! Olivia looked at the look in Brayden's eyes.

The smile on her face disappeared and she became serious.

"Brayden, I'm fine. I've already asked the doctor. I'm fine."

She paused and said, "Everett protected me when the car lost control."

It was the truth. If it weren't for him.

She would really be lying in the hospital now.

But she wouldn't think Everett was kind for that.

She would rather lie in the hospital than be protected by him.

She didn't want the kindness from him at all.

Brayden tightened his arms.

"We still have to go to the hospital."

He wouldn't rest assured until he heard the doctor say she was fine.

Brayden took Olivia to another hospital to explain the situation to the doctor and let the doctor examine her.

Olivia couldn't persuade Brayden, so she had to listen to him.

At some point, he was very domineering.

And at this moment, in the VIP room.

Henry sat on the sofa with his legs crossed.

He opened his arms and held two sexy beauties, one leaning in his arms, drawing circles on his chest and the other feeding him wine with a glass.

There were a few men sitting on the sofa beside them, all carrying women in their arms.

Some were kissing, some were flirting.

The atmosphere in the room was ambiguous and presumptuous.

“Bang!”

The door of the room was pushed open, the good atmosphere was broken, and everyone looked at the door unhappily.

There was only one person who was not unhappy at all.

Instead, his eyes sparkled.

This person was Henry.

When Melody saw Henry, she strode in her high heels, picked up the bottle on the table, and came to Henry.

She poured the wine on his head, and in an instant, the wine was dripping down along Henry's head.

The people in the box were stunned. But the woman in Henry's arms reacted quickly and stood up to push Melody.

“What are you doing?”

But Melody caught her and slapped her back.

The sound was loud.

Henry smiled and stood up.

The woman who was beaten immediately fell into his arms.

“Henry, you have to help me...”

“Slap!”

Henry slapped the woman in the face and the woman fell to the ground directly.

The woman covered her face and looked at him in disbelief.

Henry stepped on her chest and looked at Melody.

He kicked the tip of his foot at the woman like tramping an ant.

The corners of his mouth were crooked, “Melody, are you satisfied?”

Melody sneered.

“Are you satisfied?”

“Do you think I should be satisfied now?”

She received a message from him as soon as she came here after finishing her work.

He told her that he had received news that Olivia had been kidnapped and that Everett had gone to save Olivia.

But he was in hospital now.

Hehe, what did he mean? Did he just wanted to tell her that Everett cared about Olivia! Henry frowned, as if he could not see the anger and sarcasm in Melody's eyes.

He stroked his chin and nodded in a serious manner.

“Why don't you do it yourself? Do whatever you want?”

With that, he took out a small knife and opened it with a click.

The sharp blade and the tip of the knife flashed a cold light under the light.

The private room went quiet.

No one dared to speak.

Even the woman that Henry stepped on was trembling in fear and speechless.

Her mind was completely blank.

Melody looked at Henry, whose eyes were full of evil intentions, impudence, and the certainty of controlling everything.

She hated him for those.

She took the knife and pointed it at his Adam's apple.

The man in the room immediately shouted, “Henry!”

Henry raised his hand.

“Get out.”

“But...”

“I told you to get out!”

Henry looked at the man, his eyes extremely cold.

The man did not dare to speak and left quickly.

The others followed him.

Soon, only Henry and Melody were left in the room.

Henry smiled.

“Melody, why are you so angry? I’m not the one that has wronged Visit to read the newest content, everyone! lips curved and his legs crossed, as if he was not worried that she would stab him.

Melody smiled, but her smile was Visit to read the newest content, everyone! weren’t for you, I wouldn’t end up in this.”

Just one wrong step led to her failure.

She should never have had anything to do with this person! Henry spread his hands and looked puzzled.

“Melody, I don’t agree with what you said”

“Everett had the right to do whatever he wants to do.He sent someone to follow his ex-wife.Did I ask him to do that? Did I ask him to save his ex-wife?”

“Melody, you can’t be so biased.”

“Stop it, Henry, don’t think I didn’t know you were behind this!” Henry nodded.

“OK! I am a part of this, but I didn’t force anyone”

“If Bill needs money, I’ll give him money, as long as he gives me Secrets of Green Embroidery.This is a fair deal, right?”

“But how did I know he would kidnap Olivia? How could I have imagined that Everett had sent someone to follow Olivia and would save her in person? I also didn’t know he would crash the car into a tree.Do you think it’s my fault?”

Melody clenched the knife and her hand trembled.

"Henry, shut up." Henry stood up, took her hand, approached her, and lowered his voice.

"Melody, if you don't believe what I said, you can personally ask Everett, or Olivia."

"I told you to shut up!"

Melody shook off his hand and the blade cut through Henry's palm.

Blood trickled down.

Melody raised her chin and pointed the bloody knife at him.

"Henry, I'm here to tell you that even if Everett still likes Olivia, he won't marry Olivia. The only person he can marry in his life is me!"

"And I will never like you!"

When she finished speaking, she threw the knife against the wall.

The tip of the knife was inserted into the wall, and a trace of red blood was left on the blade, emitting a cold light.

Henry watched Melody leaving, raised his hand, licked the wound on his palm with the tip of his tongue, and his smile widened.

"Melody, there is a lot that will happen. Nothing is impossible."

In the ward, Everett hung up.

He had just hung up when a call came in.

When he saw the caller's name, he looked up.

Under the light, his dark eyes did not show any light or emotion.

"Everett, where are you now?"

"In the hospital."

Melody listened to the cold voice and clenched her hand.

"Why are you in the hospital? Are you sick?"

"I had an accident."

"Accident? What accident? Which hospital are you in now? I'll be right over"

"In the City Hospital."

"Okay, I'll be right over"

Melody hung up the phone.

She looked as anxious as when she knew that he was sick.

But in reality, she was not in a hurry, but very calm.

Quite calm.

He didn't hide it from her. If she continued to ask, would he tell her that he had saved Olivia?

Fit For Your Love Chapter 155

/ Fit For Your Love

The car arrived at the city hospital very quickly.

Melody got out of the car and immediately went to the VIP ward of the inpatient department. Davis was coming out of the ward when he saw her.

He stopped her.

"Miss Johnson." Melody nodded.

"Where's Everett?"

"Mr. Weston is inside."

"Well, you can go back. I'm here."

"Okay."

Davis left and Melody went in.

Everett leaned against the bed and was reading.

He didn't move when he heard the sound.

Melody stopped when she came in.

Because it was the first time she saw him get hurt so badly.

His left hand was hung in front of his chest and his right foot was hung up.

And he got hurt so badly because of his ex-wife.

Not her. For the first time, Melody was jealous.

She was insanely jealous.

She did not move for a long time.

The person who was reading finally raised his eyes and his eyes fell on her face.

Melody met Everett's eyes.

She clenched her hands and suppressed the emotions in her heart.

The expression in her eyes also recovered very quickly.

She walked over quickly, put her bag on the bedside table, and looked at him nervously.

"How could it be so serious?"

"Not very serious."

Everett closed his book and looked at her.

"Didn't you say you were going to attend the fashion week?"

"Yes, but I missed you, so I rushed back. I didn't expect to Visit to read the newest content, everyone! back"

Melody sat on the stool and looked at him with worry and anger in her eyes.

It was difficult for ordinary people to Visit to read the newest content, everyone! want to present.

But for an actor as smart and capable as Melody, it was not difficult.

"Everett, how can I rest assured?"

Everett looked into her eyes.

"After all these years, have you always been worried about me?"

Melody shook her head.

"No, I used to rest assured, but now I didn't."

“Everett, I’ve made up my mind. I will ease my workload. I want to spend more time with you.”

Brayden was helping Olivia do the examination in the hospital and they were waiting for the results.

Three hours later, the Visit to read the newest content, everyone! wrong with her body.

But the wound on her left shoulder became more serious.

She was originally at the healing stage.

But the car accident made the injury on her shoulder was more serious and got inflamed.

She needed to be hospitalized for two days.

Brayden immediately went through the hospitalization procedures.

After completing the hospitalization procedures, he said with a serious face, “I don’t care what you say this time. As long as the doctor doesn’t let you out, I won’t let you out.”

He would never let her not care about her own health.

Olivia was helpless.

“This kind of wound can only recover after a long time. It’s useless to be hospitalized. It’s a waste of money.’ She really didn’t want to be in the hospital, where she was restricted.

She couldn’t do anything she wanted to.

“Then it only costs me money, too. You are now my fiancée, and I have to look after you.’ Olivia had a headache.

“Brayden....”

“Olivia, it doesn’t matter what you are going to say. If you really want to get out of the hospital early, then you should stay in the hospital, listen to the doctor, and cooperate with the treatment. Otherwise, I won’t let you out.”

Brayden had never said so firmly.

Olivia sighed.

Brayden looked at her pale face and said, “Haven’t you eaten yet?”

“Yes.”

“I’ll have someone deliver some food. From now on, I’ll be with you 24 hours a day.”

Brayden really did what he said. He was around her all the time as he said so.

Except for answering the phone and going to the bathroom, he was always in her sight.

Olivia was helpless.

She didn’t know how to persuade him even though she really wanted to.

When he became stubborn, there was nothing she could do.

Besides, he was doing it for her good.

Soon, someone brought food over.

Olivia’s shoulder was badly injured, but fortunately, it was her left shoulder.

It didn’t affect her action badly.

But Brayden didn’t let her move.

He fed her every meal.

This made Olivia feel very delicate.

“Brayden, it’s okay. I can eat it myself”

Olivia pushed his spoon away.

Brayden was holding a bowl in his hand and a spoon on top of it.

He looked at her and said, “If you don’t eat, I’ll keep holding it like this.”

“You...”

Looking at Brayden’s serious expression, Olivia was discouraged.

“Okay, I’ll eat.”

She opened her mouth and Brayden fed her the porridge.

One fed and the other ate.

They cooperated well.

Halfway through the meal, Olivia's cell phone suddenly rang.
