Fit For Your Love Chapter 371

Olivia and Brayden went to have a meal after finishing the process. However, the hotel didn't provide meals, so they had to eat outside. It was normal for Olivia.

But Grayden felt bad.

He looked at her apologetically and said, "Olivia, I'm sorry. I should have arranged the house earlier."

He had failed to be a good husband. Olivia smiled.

"It's okay. It's only a few days."

It was not like she hadn't stayed in a hotel before. And he was very quick in action.

As soon as he arrived, he started looking for a house.

Brayden shook his head.

"I feel sorry."

She didn't blame him, but he blamed himself. Olivia was helpless.

"If you say this again, I'm going to be angry with you"

She didn't want him to be so nice to her. She didn't deserve it. Looking at her eyes, Brayden held her hand tightly.

"Don't be angry. I won't say that"

"Okay.

After dinner, they took a walk on the street, with Max following behind them.

Olivia said, "Now I'm starting to make sample clothes. When they are ready, I will arrange for the factory to manufacture them. When the new product was released, the order will come. And she would be very busy. She might not have time to accompany him.

Brayden understood what she meant.

"It's okay. You're busy. Don't worry about me"

He would follow her and take care of her. He was worried about her health and her being alone.

Olivia stopped and looked at him.

“Brayden, I hope you have a career of your own and don’t pay all your attention to me”

“Yes, but I will do that after the release of AK’s new products.”

Not now.

Olivia smiled bitterly.

“I’m under a lot of pressure.”

She wanted to have a fair relationship. She couldn’t just accept all his love without doing anything for him. She didn’t want to. She had to break this situation.

Otherwise, in the long run, she would lose control again.

Olivia looked at Brayden.

“Brayden, do you understand what I mean?”

Seeing the pain and pressure in her eyes, Brayden’s heart ached.

The pain and pressure came from him. He made her suffer.

At this moment, he realized that he actually made her pain. He couldn’t do this anymore.

“Okay, I promise you”

The next morning, Brayden sent Olivia to AK.

Olivia unbuckled her seat belt and looked at him.

“You’ve promised me last night. You have to obey.”

She smiled and her eyes sparkled with anticipation.

“Okay, I’ll call my assistant and get back to work when you get in.” Olivia smiled.

“I trust you.”

She took her bag and got out of the car and into AK. And she turned to look at him and waved at him at the gate.

Brayden looked at her smiling face and eyes, and he felt as if nothing could defeat her. He waved his hand to her.

He should respect her. And trust her, too. She was stronger [han anyone else.

Olivia entered AK.

Brayden watched her enter and then he took out his phone.

“Kelly, I’ll restart my work.” Kelly couldn’t believe it.

“Brayden, are you serious?”

“Yes, from now on.”

“Okay!”

Brayden hung up and made another call.

“Come over now and call me when you arrive”

“Yes, Mr. James”

Brayden looked at the building, put his phone in his pocket, and turned to get in the car. He would go to work, but at the same time, he would get someone to protect her.

She wouldn’t be left alone.

Fit For Your Love Chapter 372

As soon as Olivia arrived at the department, a red figure ran over and hugged her.

“Olivia!” Olivia was startled by the figure that suddenly appeared.

Olivia stepped back, but Grace still hugged her.

But after hearing Grace’s voice, Olivia felt calm rather than frightened.

“You’re back?” Olivia looked at Grace.

Grace let go of her and said with a smile, “Olivia, are you scared?”

Olivia curved her lips, looked at Grace’s bright smile, and said, “Yes, I was scared by you.”

It was strange not to be scared as Grace suddenly ran out.

“Haha, I was just trying to scare you!”

“Naughty.”

Grace held Olivia’s hand and said, “Olivia, I’m back. If you want me to do something, just say it.”

Speaking of little sister, Olivia thought of Ann.

She looked around and saw Ann sitting near the window in the front. She didn’t pay much attention to her colleagues in the department before because she was too busy. So She was not familiar with Ann either.

But after spending the day together yesterday, Olivia still had a good impression of Ann. Ann was serious, careful, quiet, and obedient at work.

Ann was a good assistant, Olivia called, “Ann”

Ann stood up.

“Olivia”

When Grace saw that Olivia called Ann, she looked over and frowned quickly.

Ann was her colleague after she came to AK Company. They were all on the lower floor of the designers.

Ann was at the table next to hers.

At first, Grace liked Ann very much.

Ann was quiet and didn’t gossip. She just did things without much talking.

Grace really liked this kind of person.

So, Olivia took the Initiative to chat with Ann.

At first, their conversations were good, but then there was a small matter that made Grace dislike Ann.

The reason was simple.

During the probation period, the staff had to be assessed.

The secretary asked them to give a summary of their work and the secretary was about to start the probation period assessment.

Ann came only a week before her.

They belonged to the same group of being asscscd.

But she was unlucky and caught a cold on the first day of § submitting the summary. Her illness was very serious. She asked Ann to hand it in for her.

Ann was always careful and they were friends. She believed in Ann.

Unexpectedly, she was called to the office by her brother the day after Ann handed in the summary.

She didn't understand why her brother was angry as he threw her summary to her, so she opened it and found out that the work summary Ann handed in was a draft of hers. It was not the modified one.

Ann handed in the wrong one.

But she clearly remembered that she had given Ann the modified one.

How could it be a draft? She went to find Ann and asked if she had given this document to Ann.

Ann said yes and asked her what was wrong. She said that Ann handed in the wrong version and she remembered that she had given the right version to Ann.

Ann then said that when she saw that there were two job summaries on the table, she wanted to ask, but seeing that Grace was not feeling well, she didn't ask.

Ann just took the wrong version and handed it in.

Ann said that it was her fault.

And she was that one that due to blame. How could Grace blame her? But ever since then, she had nothing to do with Ann.

Ann was such a meticulous person.

When she saw the two job summaries, she wouldn't leave them alone and not ask Grace.

In particular, Ann was well aware of the importance of this job summary.

If one didn't do it well, he or she was likely to be fired. It was true. If it weren't for her brother, she would have been fired.

Grace still remembered that Ann's eyes flashed with surprise when the secretary announced the names of the people who could stay.

Grace's face darkened at the thought.

Ann walked over with a polite smile on her face.

"Olivia."

Olivia nodded and smiled, "Here, let me introduce you to Grace, my former assistant."

Ann looked at Grace and said, "We know each other"

She smiled like she was talking to a friend.

There was no barrier.

Olivia was surprised.

"Do you know each other?"

Olivia looked at Grace.

Grace looked at Ann's smile, pursed her lips and said, "Yes."

Grace looked unhappy.

Olivia raised her eyebrows.

What was going on? She rarely saw Grace like this.

Ann said, "We were in the same department."

Olivia nodded.

"Well, since you both know each other, I won't introduce you anymore."

Looking at Ann, Olivia asked, "Did you do what I asked you to do yesterday?"

"It was done, Olivia"

"Well, I'll go take a look"

Olivia turned around and went to the Design Room.

Of course, when she left, she didn't forget Grace and said to her, "Yau Tao"

Grace frowned at Olivia, her eyes full of doubts and questions.

The question was that Olivia, how did you arrange things for Ann? In other words, did her job get robbed? Seeing Grace's expression, Olivia laughed and said, "In the future, you and Ann will all be my assistants. You two will be colleagues again."

Hearing Olivia's words, Grace's expression changed.

Ann smiled as usual, She looked at Grace and said with a smile, "Grace, I'm very happy"

Grace turned her head and did not answer Ann as Grace's expression became gloomy.

Grace was unhappy. She knew that there were always tricks that could not be avoided in the workplace.

But she thought of Ann as a friend, and Ann hurt Grace's friendship for her own benefit.

This made Grace be bitterly disappointed.

Olivia didn't notice the atmosphere between the two and went to the Design Room to check on Ann's work.

Olivia was satisfied.

"Well done"

"Olivia told me to do and Ann will try my best to do it." Grace squeaked.

Olivia raised her eyebrows and looked at Grace.

Grace looked even worse than before.

Olivia's eyes twitched and she did not speak.

She tidied up things in her hand and put them aside, and began to assign work to the two people.

Since they were her assistants, she had to assign the work and speed up the work.

After assigning the work, Olivia went to work.

She made a plan to make all the samples and accessories in half a month.

The accessories were already being made.

It should be ready in about a week.

Fit For Your Love Chapter 373

It was Brayden.

Olivia answered the phone.

“Brayden”

“Have you taken anything?”

Hearing his words, Olivia smiled.

“I’m going to.”

“Really?”

“Yeah, I remember your words”

“Then click the bowl with your fork and let me hear it.”

Olivia rubbed her forehead.

“I haven’t arrived at the restaurant yet.”

“So I caught you lying”

“No, I’m waiting for Grace to go with me.”

“I believe everything you say.”

Brayden sighed on the phone.

Olivia listened to his sigh, happiness and amused.

She found that she was defeated by Brayden again.

Just then, Grace came back.

Seeing Grace, Olivia called, "Grace"

Grace came over immediately.

"Olivia, what's up?"

"Let's go have dinner now."

Grace suddenly exclaimed, "dinner?"

"Yes, we are waiting for you."

Grace looked at Ann and Ann said with a smile, "Wes, Olivia wanted to call you."

Grace didn't want to talk to Ann.

She learned to Olivia and said, "Sorry, Olivia. I forgot the time"

"Is okay. Let's go cal now"

"Yeah!"

Olivia said to Brayden on the phone, "We're going to dinner. If you don't believe me, you can ask Grace"

She didn't expect Brayden to say, "Give your phone to Grace"

Olivia froze and shook her head. He really didn't believe her.

Olivia gave Grace her phone.

Grace blinked.

Olivia said, "Brayden wants to talk to you""

"Fine!" Grace took the phone.

"Hello."

"Grace, I am relieved that you are by Olivia's side. But she takes little care of her health, so please pay attention to her for me, make sure she dines on time, and If she's not feeling well, please call me immediately"

"Okay!"

"Sorry to trouble you."

"It's okay. This is what I should do!"

Olivia looked at Grace, not knowing what Brayden had told her.

Grace was very serious.

Grace gave the phone to Olivia.

"Olivia, Mr. Jarmnes wants to talk to you."

Olivia curved her lips.

"Brayden"

"I've already asked my assistant to arrange the work for me. I've done what I said, and you have to keep your promise too"

"Okay"

After hanging up the phone, Olivia felt much more relaxed.

This was the normal state of life. She loved it.

Grace look Olivia's arm.

"Olivia, let's go!"

From now on, she had to keep an eye on Olivia and make her pay attention to her health.

"Yes."

The two of them walked out.

After a few steps, Olivia stopped.

Olivia stopped, and so did Grace.

Grace asked, "Olivia, what's wrong?"

Olivia glared at Grace, turned to Ann, who was standing behind her and waved at Ann.

"Ann, come on, let's go together"

Seeing Olivia waving at Ann, Grace curled her lips and turned her head.

Ann walked over with a smile.

“Okay, Olivia”

They went to the staff restaurant.

Grace told Olivia to take the seal while she went to serve Olivia's food Olivia did not refuse.

She found a seat and sat down, looking at Grace and Ann.

Although Grace and Ann knew each other, they were not on good terms.

Well, at least Grace wasn't friendly to Ann, but Ann didn't treat Grace badly.

Not long after, Grace brought the food over and sat beside Olivia.

Ann sat opposite Olivia.

Olivia looked at the food and was surprised.

“So much?”

She saw that the portion of food that was enough for two people.

Grace said, “Not much. Olivia, you're so thin. You have to eat more. Let's eat!”

Grace picked up some food for Olivia.

Olivia had no choice but to eat.

Ann looked at Olivia and then at Grace. She felt she was an outsider.

Brayden hung up and soon Kelly called him.

“Brayden, your schedule is set. Next, you're going to Italy. There's a concert there. And then Sydney, the Opera House has been waiting for you for a long time and has been hoping that you can play. And then Malaysia...”

Kelly was interrupted by Brayden before she could finish her sentence.

“Kelly, I'm married. I don't want to have too much work like I used to” Kelly was helpless.

“Brayden, I know. I don't want to, but you know, you haven't been working for a long time”

“But don’t worry, It’s only temporary.After this month, [It’ll be fine.”

Brayden pursed his lips.

put his hand in his pocket, and looked Into the distance.

“I currently live In Paris.I will only go on business trips for at most 15 days.The rest time i’ll be in Paris.Vou arrange my schedule according to this.”

“Brayden...”

Brayden hung up.

He promised to work, but that didn’t mean he had to put all his energy into work.

The day passed quickly.

By 5: 30 pm, Braydcen’s car stopped at AK on time.

Olivia went downstairs and came out.

She made an appointment with Brayden that she finished her work at 5: 30 pm at the latest every day.

Naturally, she had to do what she promised.

She set her alarm to avoid forgetting lime at work.

“Have you waited a long time?” Olivia asked as she got into the car.

“Just arrived”

Looking at the smile on her face, Brayden said softly, “You’re punctual this time.”

“Of course, you have my words.”

“Good”

Brayden started the car and took Olivia to the restaurant.

The two of them had dinner and instead of going back immediately, they were walking on the streets of Paris.

Brayden said, “Olivia, I’m going on a business trip tomorrow”

Olivia was stunned.

So fast?

“Where are you going?”

“Italy” Olivia frowned.

It was tiring to go on a business trip.

But there was no other way.

He was a talented violinist and had a great reputation in the music industry.

Olivia picked up his phone and looked at the time.

“It’s almost eight o’clock. Let’s go back”

He had to pack up and rest early.

Brayden looked at her frowning brows and clenched her hand.

Would she miss him? The next morning, Olivia sent Brayden on the plane. He was on the 6: 50 flight.

Brayden didn’t want her to go to the airport, but she insisted, and he had no choice.

Olivia watched Brayden go through the security check and watched his figure disappear from sight, she suddenly felt a sense of loss in her heart.

When he left, it seemed that there was a sudden silence around her.

Olivia shook her fingers and turned to stop a taxi to the office.

Not long after she left the airport, a man came out of the airport exit.

Fit For Your Love Chapter 374

He was wearing a black suit and black sunglasses, as usual, looking very aloof. He was Everett.

Two men in suits followed him, carrying suitcases and laptops.

The three of them looked so powerful that others kept looking at them.

The driver who was waiting outside saw Everett and immediately came over. He put the suitcase in the trunk, then got in the car, and drove the car away from the airport.

Olivia arrived at AK Company before office hours.

But the company's door was open, and she could go in.

Instead of going to the Design Department, she went straight to the design studio.

She didn't expect the door to be open when she arrived there. Olivia was surprised.

Was there anyone earlier than her? Grace's name appeared on her mind and she smiled.

It should be Grace.

She was the most active in her work.

But she didn't expect to see Ann instead of Grace when she went in.

Ann stood in front of her desk, reading some documents.

And she was taking notes while reading. She was very serious and focused. She didn't find Olivia came in.

Ann was attentive.

And Olivia was surprised to see Ann. She didn't expect that Ann had already arrived.

Olivia walked over to Ann to see what she was doing.

Olivia remembered that she had finished her work yesterday.

But when she came to Ann's side, Ann heard her footsteps and looked at her.

Her eyes widened.

"Olivia?"

Apparently, Ann was surprised to see Olivia here at this time.

Olivia smiled.

"Have you had breakfast? You arrived so early"

"Yes, I have had. Olivia, have you eaten?"

As she spoke, she took her phone to check the time. It was not even eight o'clock.

"Olivia, why do you come here so early today?"

Olivia put down her bag.

"You are early too" Even earlier than her.

Ann smiled sheepishly.

"I was afraid I couldn't do the Job you assigned to me, so I came early"

Olivia said, "You did a good job."

She didn't say that to comfort Ann. She was saying the truth.

Ann really did a good job. She was careful, serious, and responsible.

Olivia was satisfied.

"Keep it up."

"Okay, I will work hard!"

"You can do your work first. You can ask me if you have any questions"

"Okay, Olivia"

Olivia went to work.

Not long after, Grace arrived.

But before she came in, she shouted, "Olivia!"

Hearing her loud voice, Olivia smiled.

The studio became much more lively when Grace arrived.

Grace ran in.

"Olivia, I brought something to you!"

As soon as Grace came in, she saw Ann standing inside, and her good mood instantly disappeared.

Ann looked at her and greeted her with a smile, "Good morning, Grace."

“Morning”

She replied in an aloof voice, then looked at Olivia and showed her what she had brought.

“Allvia, look what I brought.”

She put the bag on Olivia’s desk.

Olivia looked at her mysterious look and laughed.

“I don’t know.Can I have a look?”

“Olivia, guess.”

Olivia thought for a moment.

“Food?”

“Yes! That’s right!”

Olivia was surprised.

Was it really food? Grace took out the thermos in the bag and said, “You look pale, so I asked my mother to make nourishing soup for you.Try it”

Grace opened the lid, and In an Instant, a fragrance pervaded the design studio.

Olivia was stunned.

Only Brayden and Belle would make her nutritious soup, but no one else, including her relatives.

But Grace asked her mother to do It for her.

Olivia didn’t how to react for a moment.

Grace saw Olivia was just looking at the soup, she wondered, “Olivia, what’s wrong? Don’t you like it? My mom said this soup is very nourishing.Try it.It smells good.”

Grace picked up the spoon and handed It to Olivia.

“Ollvla, come on, try It”

Olivia looked at the milky white soup in the spoon, and the fragrance warmed her whole body up.

“Olivia?”

Olivia blinked and took the spoon.

“I’ll do it myself”

“Okay!”

She took the spoon.

Grace immediately asked, “How’s it?”

Olivia nodded.

“It’s good.”

Olivia looked at her with a gentle expression.

“Thank aunlie for me.”

Grace waved her hand.

“It is okay. My morn’s free anyway. I’ll ask her to clo it for you every day if you like it.”

Olivia was too thin.

Olivia hurriedly said, “No, thank you for the soup”

“Oh, you’re welcome. Olivia, our family name is the same, and I regard you as my elder sister!”

Olivia chuckled.

Only then did she realized that their family name ‘Hadley’ was the same and they could be considered a family.

“I’ll take the soup. You can go working”

“Okay! You must finish it!”

“Yes, I will”

How could she waste her goodwill? Grace went to work, while Ann was still standing there, reading the documents, taking notes, but the handwriting was not so neat.

At noon, Olivia received a call from the manager of a domestic supplier.

“Miss Hadley, I sent you what you wanted two days ago. I wonder if you have received it.”

Olivia had taken the phone numbers of every supplier manager and marked them with companics' namcs, so she knew [t was the Manager calling.

“I'm sorry. I've been busy these past two days. I haven't had lime to check it yet. I'll go and check and call you back later”

“Okay.”

Olivia hung up the phone and looked at Grace and Ann. She wondered who was free now.

But she found that both of them were busy, so she put down her work and went out alone.

But Ann stopped her, “Olivia, do you need anything?”

Olivia stopped.

“Well, I'm going to see If there's a package from home”

“I'll go then. My work is almost done”

Then she put down her work.

Olivia nodded.

“Okay, if you see any packages from home with my name on them, bring them up.”

“Okay”

Ann went out.

Olivia looked at her leaving and then at Grace.

Grace was ironing a piece of cloth very carefully and slowly.

Olivia's eyes moved and she sat down in front of the tailor.

Grace finished ironing the cloth and said happily, “Olivia, take a look. Did I do a good job?”

Olivia went over and put the cloth on the table and found that it was flat with no wrinkle.

Olivia nodded.

“Good.”

Then she took the gold thread and said, “You’re also a designer. I know you can do a good job. Can you sew this piece of cloth with this gold thread by hidden stitch?”

Grace nodded.

“Yes! Of course!”

“I know all kinds of knitting patterns!”

“Olivia, leave it to me!”

Olivia curved her lips.

“Okay, I’ll leave it to you. There’s not much thread left. Don’t waste it’

“Okay!”

Grace took the thread, threaded the needle, and began to sew.

And Olivia went to work.

Not long after, Ann came back.

Olivia heard the sound and looked over.

She was holding a bunch of parcels that were higher than herself, and Olivia immediately went to help her.

“You should have called me to help you.”

So she could go down with her together.

Ann smiled and said, “It’s okay. I can do it”

She put the packages on the ground.

“Olivia, are they what you’re looking for?”

“Let me see”

Then Olivia looked at Grace, and the smile on Ann’s face froze.

Fit For Your Love Chapter 375

Olivia checked every package.

They were all written with her name.

“Ann, bring me a pair of scissors.”

However, no one answered her.

Olivia was confused and looked at Ann.

Ann was looking at Grace without any smile. Her lips were pursed, and her hands were clenched into fists.

Olivia got up and patted Ann on the arm.

“Ann.”

Ann returned to her senses and looked at Olivia. She saw Olivia look at her.

It seemed that Olivia’s clear eyes could penetrate her heart.

Ann’s eyes dodged subconsciously, and she smiled unnaturally.

“Well, Olivia, I saw Grace sewing clothes, and I was completely attracted by it”

“Well, I asked her to do that. She used to be a designer. It’s easier for me to give her the work”

Ann was surprised.

“A designer?”

Olivia found that she had no idea that Grace was a designer before.

But they were in the same department and knew each other.

Logically, Ann should know it before.

“Don’t you know Grace was a designer before?”

Ann shook her head.

"I don't know. We were both in the Secretarial Department. She never said that she was a designer. Olivia looked at Grace, who was holding a needle and focused on sewing that she didn't notice what was going on here. Grace looked carefree, but she was not a person who liked to show off.

Ann didn't know the matter could be understandable.

"She used to be a domestic designer, and she was very talented-' Then she looked at Ann.

"You can do it in the future, too" Ann's eyes lit up.

"Olivia, can I?"

Olivia smiled.

"Sure, take your time. Don't worry"

"Everyone, as long as you are willing to work hard, then you can make achievements."

"Okay!"

"Get me a pair of scissors"

"Okay, Olivia!"

Olivia and Ann took the package apart, and Olivia asked Ann to register the information of these packages to determine which clothes she could make later.

Everyone was busy.

In a flash, it was at noon.

Olivia's phone rang.

But it wasn't a phone call, it was an alarm clock.

It was Brayden who asked her to set it.

He was on a business trip and couldn't keep an eye on her, so he could only set the alarm to remind her.

When the alarm rang, Olivia put down her work and said, "It's lunch time."

Before Grace could sew it up, Olivia walked over and said, "Grace."

Grace answered subconsciously and looked at Olivia in a daze.

Looking at her stupefied look, Olivia smiled.

“Let’s have lunch.”

“Lunch? How time flies!”

“Well, put down your work, eat and rest, and then continue”

“Okay!”

Grace immediately put down the work, took Grace’s arm, and said, “Let’s go eat!”

Olivia looked at Ann and said softly, “Ann, come together”

Ann looked at Grace holding Olivia’s arm and nodded.

Then they went to the restaurant to eat.

Just like yesterday, Olivia took up the seat, while Grace and Ann went to get the food.

But as soon as Olivia sat down, she heard the voice of the staff beside her.

It was just that everyone used English or French.

She couldn’t understand French, and she could only understand simple English words.

She didn’t want to know what they were saying either, so she took her phone to check the time.

It’s twelve fifteen.

Paris was not far from Italy.

It took a normal flight of two or three hours to get there.

Brayden’s plane would take off about seven o’clock.

If it cost two hours, it would be nine o’clock when he got there.

If it cost three hours, it would be ten o’clock.

It was 12:15, but he hadn’t replied to her message yet, so he probably hadn’t arrived yet.

Was the flight delayed? Olivia sent a message to Brayden.

“Brayden, send a message to me when getting off the plane’ After more than two hours, he still hadn’t replied to her.

She was a little worried.

Olivia looked at Grace to see if she was going to get too much food.

At this moment, the name “Everett” fell into her ears.

Olivia froze and looked at the female employees sitting at the next table.

They were all foreigners.

Fair skin.

None of them were Asian. She looked over and a few people were looking at her.

When they saw her looking at them, they immediately turned around and stood up to leave.

Not long after, a few people left the restaurant.

They even glanced at her when they left the restaurant.

That look was full of curiosity, doubt, ridicule, and disbelief. Seeing this look, Olivia’s hand tightened slightly. Was something wrong again?

“Olivia?” A hand shook in front of her eyes.

Olivia reacted and looked at Grace.

“What’s wrong?” Grace sat down.

She was confused.

“Olivia, what’s wrong with you? You keep looking at them.” Olivia’s eyes moved and she came to her senses again.

“No, I just thought of something’

“What is it?”

“Your brother-in-law: Grace chuckled.

“Olivia, you only haven’t seen him for a morning. Do you miss him now?” Olivia smiled.

“Yes, I miss him’

“Oh, so sweet. I also want to fall in love”

Hearing her exaggerated voice, Olivia patted her on the head.

“Okay, eat.” Grace looked at Olivia’s face.

“Olivia, your face blushed” Olivia was helpless.

Olivia didn’t want to admit that.

Ann looked at the two of them, her hands slightly clenched with knives and forks.

After dinner, Olivia went back to the design room.

Grace pulled her out.

“Olivia, don’t stay in the design room all day. Come out and take a breath of fresh air” Olivia asked, “Did your brother-in-law tell you so?” Grace just kept an eye on her every day.

Grace blinked.

“Yes and no.”

“Come on, don’t be so ambiguous” Grace shook her head.

“My brother-in-law told me to remind you to take rests repeatedly. But I didn’t exactly follow what he said” Olivia chuckled.

Grace was really good at complicating simple matters.

Grace looked at Olivia’s smile and blinked.

“Olivia, do you know what you look like when you smile?” Olivia was stunned.

“Hmm?”

"Your smile is like sunlight in a snowy day. It's refreshing and warm. It was so warm. Olivia patted her on the head.

"Don't flatter me" Grace suddenly said seriously, "Olivia, am I the kind of person who always compliments others?"

Olivia thought of something and asked, "What's going on between you and Ann?"

Grace frowned and her face darkened in an instant.

"I don't want to say it." Grace turned her head and looked ahead.

She really didn't want to say about it.

Olivia nodded.

"It doesn't matter if you don't say it. I just want to say that you two are my assistants now. The three of us are a small team. I hope that we can be united and help each other"

Grace frowned. It was impossible for her to work with Ann harmoniously.

Olivia saw through her mind and said, "Can't you do it?"

Grace looked at Olivia unhappily.

"Olivia, it's not that I don't want to. It's that I can't get past the hurdle in my heart"

Olivia looked at her frowning eyes and said, "Grace, I don't know what you and Ann had in the past, and I don't want to know. But I want to tell you that in work, people need to get along with each other. Whether it's good or bad, you have to accept it"

"Do you understand?"

She was supposed to accept a person's good as well as his or her bad side.

Even if the person was in front of her every day, she had to learn to control herself.

For example, She didn't want to see Everett.

She wanted him to disappear from this world.

However, she was as calm as ever when she saw him.

Grace looked down.

"Olivia, give me some time" Let her think about it.

Olivia patted her hand and said softly, "Don't worry. I know that you're hot-tempered. Take your time"

Grace was true to herself and she was an innocent girl.

On the contrary, Ann was not so pure and simple.

The two of them chatted, left, and returned to AK Company.

But as soon as they reached the AK Company's gate, two black luxury cars stopped outside the company's gate.

Olivia stopped and looked at the black limousine parked at the door.

Her hand, which was hanging by her side, clenched slightly.

The driver got out of the car and opened the backseat door.

Aman walked out with his straight legs, and then Everett in a black suit appeared in Olivia's sight.

In an instant, Olivia's nails were pressed into her palms.

When Grace saw Everett, she opened her eyes wide and exclaimed.

Everett...

Everett looked over and one may feel his dark eyes frightening at first glance.

Grace closed her mouth and hid behind Olivia.

It was the first time that Grace had seen Everett face to face.

He was even colder than the man she saw on the Internet.

She was scared.

Everett looked at Olivia.

Olivia's shadow was reflected in his cold eyes.

Olivia could see it clearly.

However, she did not want herself to appear in Everett's eyes.

If possible, she would prefer never to see him for the rest of her life! Olivia clenched her fists and turned to walk into AK Company.

She seemed to have completely forgotten that Everett also had shares of AK Company and he was her boss.

When she saw him, she had to call him Mr. Weston.

When Grace saw that Olivia had just left, she was stunned and quickly followed.

"Olivia!" Preston looked at the figure walking in.

He put his hand in his pocket.

Olivia hated Everett.

When he didn't know Olivia, he didn't know that.

But after knowing her, he knew. She hated Everett so much that even he was implicated by Everett.

Preston walked over and stood beside Everett.

"Let's go."

Everett suddenly called him yesterday and said he wanted to know about the release of the new product. He never cared about this before.

Preston was the one who was always in charge of this.

Now that Everett suddenly said he wanted to know something about it, Preston was surprised.

But after the surprise, Preston felt nothing.

Whether Everett was genuinely concerned about the release of AK Company's new product, or he was faking it, he believed Everett would not let the release of the new product go wrong.

With this in mind, Preston was relieved of everything.

Everett watched Olivia disappear in his sight and walk in.

Grace caught up with Olivia and the two of them entered the elevator.

Olivia pressed the close button and then the floor button.

The elevator slowly rose.

Grace looked at Olivia and she was at a loss.

She knew about things related to Olivia's relationship, but she knew about them on the Internet, and she didn't know what the details were.

But Olivia's relationship had nothing to do with her, and she didn't care who Olivia had married before, or who she married now.

All she knew was that Olivia was a good person. She liked Olivia.

That's enough.

It was just that she called out and Mr. Weston looked over and then, Olivia was angry.

Grace clenched her hand, trying to say something.

But she didn't know what to say.

Ding~~~ The elevator door opened and Olivia walked out.

Grace quickly followed.

Ann was busy in the Design Room.

When she heard footsteps, she looked over and saw Olivia and Grace coming in one after another.

But the expressions of the two of them were completely different from the expressions they had when they went out.

Ann's eyes moved slightly, looking at Olivia, then at Grace.

Seeing that Grace looked like she had made a mistake, Ann was relieved.

Ann turned around and continued doing her things.

Olivia sat in her seat and looked at the computer, her face cold.

After her return, she met Everett several times, and she didn't think that they met accidentally even though they looked like accidents.

And this time, he came to AK Company, which was no coincidence.

What did he want to do? Did he want to fire her? It should be.

Firing her when she had designed everything was just a big blow to her.

He could do the punishment to her as he wanted.

This was Everett.

He always knew how to hurt people.

Grace saw Olivia looking at the computer with her eyes still.

Grace found that Olivia's expressionless face was a little scary.

Grace was scared. She was afraid of such a Olivia.

Grace couldn't help but whisper, "Olivia."

Olivia looked at Grace. Her eyes were red, and her eyes were full of caution.

Olivia's thoughts wavered and her face softened.

"Grace, go do your job." She paused and said, "I'm feeling a little emotional right now. It's none of your business."

Hearing her say that, Grace immediately said, "Really?"

Was it really none of her business? Olivia smiled.

"Of course, this is my personal matter" Grace bit her lips and said, "Olivia, don't think too much. I've always supported you"

"Yes, thank you

"Then I'll go do my things"

"Go ahead"

Grace was still worried about Olivia, but there was no use for her to say anything now. She couldn't help Olivia with Olivia's personal affairs. She could only make Olivia feel relaxed by doing her job well.

Ann listened to the two of them and her busy hands slowed down.

Olivia looked at the computer and began to work in a while.

But this time, instead of continuing the morning's work, she sorted out her work.

If Everett wanted to fire her, then he shall fire her.

If her design was given to someone else, then let it happen.

It was no big deal.

No matter what he did, she would not compromise with him.

I Preston and Everett came to the President's Room.

The secretary brought in two cups of coffee and left.

Preston took a piece of document that had been sorted out on the table and handed it to Everett.

"Yesterday, you said you wanted to know about the release of the new product, so I asked someone to sort it out early. Take a look."

The document was thick.

It was as thick as a dictionary, and it contained all the work of the new product.

Most of the work was made by Olivia.

Everett took it and started flipping through it.

Preston sat beside Everett and picked up his coffee to drink.

From time to time, he looked at Everett.

In Prestons mind, Preston thought that Everett suddenly said he wanted to know about the release of the new product because of Olivia.

Intuition told him that.

Even though Everett was reading the document carefully now, Preston still thought so.

The atmosphere in the office was quiet with the sound of pages turning from time to time.

Time ticked by.

Twenty minutes later, Everett closed the document, looked at Preston, and said.

Fit For Your Love Chapter 378

“I want to set up a subsidiary in Milan’ Preston frowned.

A subsidiary in Milan? At present, AK Company had several branches all over the world, but there were no subsidiaries.

Preston looked at Everett.

“Why do you suddenly want to set up a subsidiary?” There were differences between subsidiaries and branches.

The legal person of the branch office was him.

If any problems arose in all the branches, people would look for him.

But a subsidiary company was different.

The subsidiary company could have an independent legal person.

If there was any problem, it had nothing to do with him.

But although it had nothing to do with him, it had everything to do with AK Company.

To put it simply, this was the branch to be divided.

Why did Everett suddenly want to split it up? Everett looked at him with the sharpness of a businessman in his dark eyes.

“If AK want to be stronger, it’s essential to set up a subsidiary” Preston clasped his hands and pondered.

AK Company was his painstaking effort, and he did have a bottleneck in the past two years.

Therefore, he resorted to developing new brands to break through the bottleneck and further improve AK Company.

Everett’s words made sense.

Setting up a subsidiary made everything possible.

“But when are you going to set up?”

“After the release of the new product.” Preston nodded.

With the successful launch of a new product, AK Company would be in an unprecedented heyday.

Obviously, it was a good choice to set up a subsidiary at this time.

But...

Preston suddenly thought of something and said, “You don’t want to set up a subsidiary as soon as the new product is released, do you?”

If that was the case, then we had to start preparing now! Everett looked at him with dark eyes.

“Yes, let’s get ready now” Preston immediately smiled.

“How can you...How can I manage so much?”

Now everyone at AK Company was preparing for the release of the new product in two months.How did he have time to set up a subsidiary?

“You don’t have to prepare.I’ll do it.” Preston froze.Something popped up in his eyes, then he looked at Everett and said with a smile, “Are you reaching out to the fashion industry?”

Everett picked up the coffee cup, lowered his eyes to drink coffee, and a deep voice came out of his throat.

Preston’s face slowly moved and his eyes darkened as he looked at Everett.

Olivia spent the whole afternoon finishing up the work.

This afternoon, however, she did not receive any news of her dismissal.

At five o’clock, the alarm went off and she didn’t receive any email from the human resources.

Olivia looked at the mailbox and frowned.

What did he mean? Not firing her? Or will she be fired when the new product is released? Olivia’s hands were clenched.

Grace and Ann looked at Olivia after the alarm clock rang.

Seeing Olivia sitting in front of the computer and not moving, the two of them did not know what to do.

Ann thought for a moment and continued to work, while Grace put down her work and walked over.

“Olivia, it’s five o’clock’ Her brother-in-law told her to keep an eye on Olivia.

Especially after lunch and after work.

Olivia had no concept of time.

Olivia returned to her senses and looked at Grace.

“You and Ann go back” Then she looked at Ann.

“Ann, it’s time to get off work” Ann turned around and looked at her.

“Olivia, aren’t you leaving work?” Olivia smiled and said, “I have something to deal with. You two go back first.” Grace frowned.

“Olivia, are you working overtime again?” If she had to work overtime, Olivia would accompany her.

“No, I want to talk to Mr. Smith about work” So that was how matter stand.

“Then we’ll go home, Olivia. Call me when you get home”

“Okay”

Ann and Grace packed up and left. Olivia looked at the time and sent an email to Preston.

Fit For Your Love Chapter 379

Preston was sitting in the CEO Room reading the plan. It was Everett who gave him the plan. It was about setting up a subsidiary.

After a message alert, an email came in.

Preston looked up, saw the sender’s name, and opened it.

“Mr. Smith, do you have time now? I want to talk to you.” Preston looked at the message and typed a few words on the keyboard.

"I'm free now. You can come."

"Okay"

Soon, Olivia came. She came to the CEO office and knocked on the door.

"Come in."

Olivia came in and looked at Preston.

Preston was sitting behind his desk, reading the documents.

Olivia walked over.

"Mr. Smith" Preston said, "Wait a minute" He closed the file and looked at her.

"What's the matter?" It was rare for her to take the initiative to look for him.

Olivia looked at Preston. His expression was the same as usual.

Nothing changed.

Olivia loosened her slightly clenched hand.

"Mr. Smith, I've put everything in order. Preston paused, his eyes filled with confusion. Why was she doing this? What's wrong with that?"

"What's wrong? Is there a problem?"

"Well, I don't think I can work anymore" Preston frowned.

"What do you mean? Are you sick?" He looked at her face, then at her thin body.

Soon Preston came out.

"Are you feeling unwell?" Seeing the worry on his face, Olivia smiled and shook her head.

"No, I don't want to make myself miserable in the end"

Now that she quit, she might be able to endure the pain, but when everything was designed and ended up being someone else's, it was heartbreaking. She didn't want to end up heartbroken. So she decided to quit in advance.

Preston listened to her but didn't understand.

“Olivia, wait a minute. I don’t understand what you mean.”

What did it mean to be miserable at the end? What did she mean? He wanted her to be clear.

Olivia’s fingertips curled up and said, “Everett.

“He won’t let my design be mine” Preston’s eyes widened.

Everett? He looked at Olivia and a lot of images flashed through his mind. He understood.

“I understand what you mean” Everett’s appearance stimulated her.

Just like when Frank brought her to AK Company and she saw Everett. She left without hesitation.

Preston smiled.

“Olivia, don’t think too much. It’s none of your business that Everett came here today” Olivia looked into Preston’s eyes with indifference.

“Mr. Smith, you don’t understand. Everett is more ruthless than anyone else. He came here to warn me”

Preston looked at the indifference in her eyes and the smile on his face disappeared.

He frowned.

“Olivia…”

“A man who doesn’t even want his own baby, would you expect him to change his nature?” Preston’s hand, which was hanging by his side, tightened in an instant.

Olivia curved her lips, her eyes filled with mockery.

“He won’t

“He can do anything for his own desires” This was Everett.

The heartless and cold-blooded Everett.

Olivia lowered her head and handed the documents to Preston.

“Mr. Smith, I’m sorry. I can’t endure it in the end if all of my designs are stolen. They are like my children.”

She couldn't do it.

So that's it. She would give up all her designs now.

Preston looked at the documents in her hand and frowned.

"Olivia, do you believe me?" Olivia looked up at him with a faint smile.

"Mr. Smith, no one can resist Everett." So, it's not a question of trust.

Olivia put the documents on his desk and turned to leave.

Preston's heart thumped. He ran over and grabbed her hand.

"Olivia!" He didn't want her to leave.

He was also a designer, and he knew exactly what a design meant to a designer.

How uncomfortable was it for her to hand over her design to him and let him give it to someone else? Olivia pulled the doorknob and did not turn around.

She turned her back to Preston and said, "Mr. Smith, thank you for your help over the past few months. She took her hand back, opened the door, and wanted to leave."

Preston called her, "Olivia!"

Fit For Your Love Chapter 380

Olivia cleaned up her desk, took all her belongs and left AK Company.

After Olivia left, Preston called Everett.

Everett suddenly told him that he wanted to start a subsidiary company.

If it was in the past, he wouldn't think too much.

But now, he would.

He even felt that Everett had other purposes of starting a subsidiary.

But he didn't know what Everett wanted. He didn't want to know either. But now, he had to ask Everett even though he didn't want to.

"Hello."

“Where are you?”

“Hotel.”

“Give me the address.I’ll be right there.”

After the phone hung up, Preston took the car key and left the company very quickly.

Everett sat on the hotel sofa with a laptop on his lap.

On the screen was an email written in German.He was reading the email, but his eyes were empty.

Preston came very soon and he knocked on the door.

Everett opened the door.

“I don’t have tea here.I only have coffee and wine.What do you want?” Preston looked at Everett.

He was wearing a shirt and trousers.His back was as handsome and aloof as usual.

The questions Preston wanted to ask before he arrived were choked up.

Preston heard that Everett had watched his own child being aborted indifferently for Melody’s sake.

Back then, Preston just felt that Everett loved Melody to the extreme.

But now he couldn’t help but think was Everett that indifferent to that? Did he really not feel anything when seeing his own child being aborted? Everett didn’t get the answer and turned to look at Preston.

Then he squinted.

“You look like you are sympathetic to me” He turned to the bar, took the wine, and opened the bottle.

Preston looked at his slender, fair fingers, and felt Everett was indifferent.

“Everett, don’t you feel bad watching your child being aborted?” Everett froze instantly.

The air in the room froze too.

The room was deadly silent.

A bitter smile appeared on Preston's face.

He didn't feel good nor did feel it ironic, but he was sad.

"I used to think that you loved Melody so much that you could abandon your child."

"You were cruel to the extreme, but you indeed loved Melody to the extreme"

"But now I think, you're just a human being, and you have the same emotions as us."

"You must have felt bad at that time, but you loved Melody more." He was not that cruel, but he was good at making decisions.

He just wanted all his want.

As a businessman, he must make accurate judgments and carry out the plans.

Everett had been in the business for so many years, and anyone knew that he was fierce, cold and heartless, and everyone was afraid of him.

He must not be sentimental.

Therefore, since he had chosen Melody, he had to give up Olivia and his child.

Heartlessly.

Preston lowered his head, his smile widened, but his eyes were full of sadness.

"Half an hour ago, Olivia demanded a resignation"

"She said you went to warn her. She didn't want all her hard work to end up being someone else's, so she chose to give up now"

"I told her that your decision had nothing to do with her. I hoped she could believe me"

"But she didn't"

"She said she wouldn't expect the man who could even abandon his own child to change." Preston looked up at Everett with a smile on his lips, but there was no smile in his eyes.

He was sad.

"Everett, you may have realized something, but the damage has been done. It's a lifetime of pain for the person who was abandoned" The pain could never be made up for.
