

Flames 291

Chapter 291: Queen of Light's request for help!

In the forest, the Elves cheered for the Lord of Flame's generosity.

"Queen, I'm starting to think that the Lord of Flame might be able to help your sister. Let's try it. Angst was in the Sanctuary a thousand years ago, and by now, perhaps the first rule has been perfected. Even if she has mastered the dark rule, the Lord of Flame is a third-ranked God. Who knows?"

Rebecca whispered to Ophelia.

In Rebecca's heart, Lord of Flame was already considered a third-ranked God.

And it was the most powerful of the third-ranked gods.

It might even be higher!

But it was even higher. She did not dare to think about it.

Ophelia stretched out her hand and felt the blessing from the Lord of Flame. She asked with some uncertainty:

"Rebecca, if the Lord of Flame is a third-ranked God, he might not be willing to pay a great price to protect an Elf that fell into darkness. Especially if Angst grasped a perfect rule of darkness, she was already on the second rank of the Sanctuary. If the price of returning to light was to lose power, Angst might not be willing to return to the light."

When they came into contact with the rules, they were called Sanatorium.

When she first entered Sanatorium, her mastery of a rule was only 1.2%.

The strength of the Sanatorium was also determined by the degree of mastery of the rules.

Generally speaking, the old Sanatorium was a domain that had a rule mastery of more than 50%.

Once a Sanatorium mastered a rule of 100%, this Sanatorium would be able to construct godhood.

Godhood and body were completed. This God was the official God.

She was also a God of the first rank.

Among the gods of the first rank, there were also third, sixth, and ninth-ranked. Some gods that did not have their kingdom had limited Divine energy, and their strength was usually the weakest.

For example, in the previous Hun River Principality, the five gods were divided into one kingdom. Although the Hun River Principality surrendered to Lin Yan's other three kingdoms, it did not want to underestimate the five gods.

Those five gods were already very powerful among the first-ranked gods.

It could be said that it exceeded 80% of the first-rank gods.

However, the Lord of Flame's performance was too strong. Even the two second-ranked gods had surrendered to the Holy Spirit and the incarnation. The five gods felt that they could not turn the tables even if they were to lower their strength, so they simply surrendered and saved some strength.

Of course, among the gods of the first rank, strength wasn't just based on Divine energy.

If a Sanctuary didn't build godhood after mastering one of the rules, and instead chose to continue mastering the second rule, building godhood with two or more rules, this Sanctuary would be quite powerful after becoming a God.

Even when he first became a God, he had very little Divine energy, but he could still defeat more than 60% of the first-ranked gods.

It was like a sharpshooter holding a rifle with only one bullet, facing another ordinary archer with 100 arrows. A few kilometers away from the battlefield, the person holding the rifle could easily defeat the opponent.

Angst was a rare genius of the Elven race. She had touched the first rule a thousand years ago, but she had touched the dark rule. After a thousand years, with her talent, she might have already reached the peak of the rule and stood on the second step of the Sanctuary.

If Ophelia hadn't been injured, she would have been in Sanctuary by now.

Hearing Ophelia's words, Rebecca said, "But we have to try, don't we?"

Ophelia's gaze stopped on the giant tree of life.

After a long while, she nodded. "I'll talk to Lomina first. Before I ask the Lord of Flame for help, I'll go to the west and find Angst. We can only help her if she's willing to accept help."

Rebecca's face changed slightly. "Queen, that's too dangerous. Your injuries haven't completely healed yet. Even in front of the Tree of Life, you can only barely maintain your legendary strength."

Ophelia said, "Rebecca, I've decided!"

The celebration continued.

This celebration lasted for a full three days. This was also a rare occasion for the Elves.

The last event was a few decades ago, the celebration of the 1000th anniversary of the founding of the Rocky Elven Empire. At that time, many Elves participated.

However, unlike this time, more than a million Elves participated.

The Elves were very happy.

Including the Elves of the Rocky Forest.

After the initial shock, they were also genuinely happy for the Elves of the Holy Flame Forest.

This was the Elf!

The number of Elves was too small. Every Elf wanted their kind to live a carefree life.

Meng Ying stayed in the Rocky Forest for a day, and then she took the airship back to the City of Miracles.

Ophelia stayed for three days.

On the fourth day, Ophelia finally found Lomina and explained her purpose.

The reason why she was looking for Lomina was that she was more familiar with her.

“Your Excellency wants to ask for the help of my God?”

Lomina was slightly surprised when she heard Ophelia’s words.

This was because Ophelia had a God she believed in, the Goddess of Light. The Goddess of Light was also a more powerful God, even stronger than the Moon Goddess that the Night Elves had previously believed in.

However, Ophelia asked the Lord of Flame for help.

This matter naturally surprised Lomina.

Olivia nodded and said, “Yes, Lomina, have you heard the name Angst?”

“Angst ...”

Lomina softly recited the name.

She was much younger than Ophelia.

Lomina had a much better understanding of the history of the Rocky Forest than Chen Xi, but she only knew about fifty to sixty percent of the history.

She did not know much about the history.

Lomina said:

“I seem to have heard of this name. By the way, Your Excellency, I seem to have heard that you once had a sister..”

Ophelia nodded and said, “Lomina, Angst is my sister. However, a thousand years ago, she fell into darkness and became a Fallen Elf!”

Fall into the darkness and become a Fallen Elf!

These words shocked Lomina.

There were many types of Elves.

Fallen Elves were also one of them. After being tempted by the Abyss Demon God, the Elves who offered their souls to the Abyss Demon God were Fallen Elves.

There wasn’t a lot of Fallen Elves like that, but they weren’t two or one.

20 years ago, Lomina almost became a Fallen Elf.

Fortunately, she was able to repent and stick to her heart.

The Fallen Elves’ power attributes had been completely corrupted, and it was difficult to turn back. However, there was still a certain amount of light in their hearts.

And when these bright faces completely disappeared, they became Dark Elves.

From strength to the soul, they were all contaminated.

If the Fallen Elves could return to the light, the Dark Elves could not.

The Dark Elves were already authentic dark creatures.

Just like the Succubuses were?authentic Abyss Demons.

For some reason, when Lomina heard Ophelia's words, she suddenly remembered the powerful Fallen Elf she had encountered when she was chasing after the legendary Skeleton Monster.

The Fallen Elf gave her a strong feeling.

She was even stronger than the legendary here!

Could that Fallen Elf be Angst?

Thinking of this, Lomina asked, "Your Excellency, where is your sister?"

Olivia shook her head slightly and said, "I don't know where she is either. I only know that she must still be in the Dark Forest, and it's in the extreme west."

Lomina thought about it and decided to tell her?about the Fallen Elf.

"That means I might have seen her before."

Lomina described the situation.

Then, she extended her hand and used magic to form a portrait in the air.

On this portrait was the portrait of the Fallen Elf.

This portrait was vivid and lifelike, showing the Fallen Elf.

Ophelia?exclaimed, "That's her!"

Chapter 292: Yearned for light in the darkness!

The Dark Forest was incomparably wide.

The further to the west, the more dangerous the Dark Forest was.

Furthermore, after heading west, the Dark Forest continued to extend to the north.

A few hundred kilometers to the west of the Holy Flame Forest, there was a crack in the ground.

The crack was not wide. It was only a few meters wide, and it was unfathomable.

There was an endless dark aura coming out from within. This caused the area several hundred meters above the Dark Forest to be filled with dark matter.

The dark matter covered the sky, and it was even more terrifying when it reached the sky. It could reach several kilometers in height.

Of course, after leaving the forest, without the protection of the dense forest, these dark substances could not extend into the sky indefinitely.

If someone flew over the crack, they could not be able to see it.

The Dark Forest couldn't even shine through the sunlight, so it was naturally pitch-black inside. For eyes that relied on the reflection of light, it was impossible to see.

From the crack on the ground to the west, a few hundred kilometers away, there was a crack. This crack was even bigger, and there was more dark matter gushing out from it.

Further west, there were even bigger cracks.

Therefore, the further to the west, the more dark matter in the sky could be seen.

Although the sunlight could not enter the Dark Forest, it was still very useful.

At the very least, the sunlight prevented the dark matter from spreading into the sky.

After leaving the forest, the dark matter was directly exposed to the sunlight. Under long-term illumination, the sunlight would slowly decompose the dark matter.

Otherwise, after a long time, the entire continent would become like the Dark Forest.

From east to west, these cracks became bigger and bigger.

And the further west they went the more cracks they had.

It was as if someone was holding an axe and cutting out wounds on the ground.

There were also some dark creatures crawling out of the cracks.

Far away from the Holy Flame Forest, there was a tremendous crack.

The dark matter gushing out from the crack was extremely terrifying.

Even in the daytime, the dark matter gushing out from the crack could reach thousands of meters in the sky. The size of the crack was obvious.

If one listened carefully, one could hear some terrifying roars, some horrifying laughter, and some strange sounds... It was as if there were countless demons and ghosts inside.

He finally climbed up. Is this the Continent of Gods? "What a charming aura."

At the edge of the crack, a black shadow with a dark aura climbed up and stood there, muttering to him.

An arrow pierced through the air at high speed.

The arrow pierced through the shadow with lightning speed.

A moment ago, there was a dark voice that sounded like a middle-aged man's voice. This time, it sounded like a baby's cry.

The sound was like the sound of a cat calling spring on a spring night.

"Who is it?"

The shadow's voice suddenly became normal again.

Immediately, more arrows shot at it and nailed it firmly to the ground.

“Cough~,”

The shadow once again let out a strange cry.

“You’re dead!”

It jumped up fiercely and struggled out of those arrows.

The price was that there were several arrow holes in its body. However, the black fog around its body only went into the few arrow holes, and it restored them to their original state.

“Not good, this is a legendary dark creature. Inform the Queen.”

A voice sounded in the air.

“Go inform the Queen, we will continue to suppress it.”

Another voice sounded.

Following that, more arrows shot over.

“I say, you’re dead!”

After the black shadow finished speaking, it turned into a black fog and charged at the guys shooting at it.

The arrows landed on the black fog. Although there was special energy on the arrows, they could only take away a small amount of black fog and then pass through the black fog. They could not cause too much damage to the black fog.

“Get out of the way!”

An urgent voice sounded in the distance.

The black fog was about to reach the closest person.

Suddenly, an arrow came and fixed the black fog on the ground.

This arrow was surging with the same dark aura.

Even though the guy who got up from the crack turned into a fog, the arrow still immobilized him.

“The Queen is back!”

“The Queen came back in time.”

The surroundings were filled with relaxed voices.

“Pedal.....”

The boots stepped on the hard rock, making a crisp sound.

Then, a tall elf with a dark aura appeared in his field of vision.

If Lomina was here, she would recognize her. She was the Elf that Lomina had seen last time.

Now, Lomina knew that she was Ophelia's sister, Angst!

A powerful Fallen Elf who had reached the Sanctuary!

Angst stepped on her boots and walked to the black fog that was nailed to the ground. She frowned when she heard the painful sound of the black fog.

She pulled out the arrow. Just as the black fog was about to flee, Angst stepped on the black fog with one of her boots.

This time, there was finally no sound!

Angst then withdrew the arrow.

She turned around and saw a large number of Elves holding bows and arrows in the darkness.

These were all Fallen Elves.

And she was the Queen of these Fallen Elves.

As a Fallen Elf who had grasped the power of darkness, she could naturally see things clearly in the dark matter.

"How's it going? Is this the only big guy that has come out?"

Angst spoke.

"This is the only legendary-ranked big guy, but there are several forbidden-ranked ones that were killed by us. They just climbed up and were suppressed very badly."

A Fallen Elf said.

Angst asked again, "Those guys didn't come back, did they?"

Yes! "We have three Elves that were lured into the darkness and turned into Dark Elves."

The other Fallen Elf said in frustration.

"Those guys!"

Angst snorted and jumped into the huge crack.

It was unknown how deep the crack was. It did not lead to the underground world of the Continent of Gods, but to another place that was no less terrifying than the Abyss!

Angst did not use her strength to fly at all. Instead, she allowed her body to move freely.

The sound of the wind sounded in her ears. When she had fallen to an unknown depth, she bent her bow and shot an arrow in one direction.

The arrow was blocked by something.

“Hehe, you’re still so violent. With such power, as long as you completely fall into the darkness, you can immediately become a God. You’re even more powerful than the so-called first ranked?and second-ranked?gods in the Heavenly Realm. Sister, why don’t you think about it, hehe...”

It sounded pleasant, but there was an indescribable sound inside.

Angst did not say anything. At an extremely terrifying speed, in less than one-thousandth of a second, she bent her?bow and shot again.

This time, “Ding became Ah!”

“You are so cruel~”

That sweet and strange voice sounded a little wrong.

“If you continue to tempt my clansmen, I will slaughter my way into the Dark Abyss and exterminate you!”

Angst’s cold voice sounded.

The voice did not ring again.

She?was hiding everything.

If she spoke again, she was worried that Angst would kill her.

Angst lowered her?head. Below her, it was as if there was an incomparably huge mouth. The endless darkness surged within as if it could devour her at any moment!

Angst waved her hand and retrieved the arrow. Then, she began to rise.

She flew up a huge crack and then continued to fly up. After flying for nearly 10,000 meters, the sun finally shone on her.

On her body, the dark aura began to be broken down by the sunlight.

“The sun is getting more and more annoying.”

Angst said.

She had been in the dark for too long, and the sun was repelling her more and more.

But every day, she would still spend a lot of time out to sun the sun that she hated.

Even if the sun would hurt her.

Every day for a thousand years.

This made her feel that there was still light in the endless darkness.

That was the light in her heart!

Chapter 293: Surging darkness! Black flames!

An hour later, Angst reappeared above the crack.

In the crack, the dark aura gushed out like a blowout.

Angst sat there, enduring the surging dark aura from the crack.

This made her body dark.

It was as if she was a true Demon King.

From time to time, the sound of the bowstring breaking through the air and the sound of arrows moving through the crack could be heard.

The Fallen Elves were attacking the dark creatures that were trying to climb up.

There were too many dark creatures crawling up, and there were too few of them. There was no way to kill them all, so they only attacked some of them.

The so-called big guy was a big guy above sixth-ranked.

Under the suppression of these enormous creatures, they could even kill eighth-ranked dark creatures.

Even ninth rank legendary dark creatures could be suppressed!

This was enough to show how strong they were.

“The Queen is studying the dark rules again.”

Some Fallen Elves saw Angst above the crack and could not help but say.

“Yes, the Queen said that if one’s heart is toward the light, then one can also find light in the darkness. Comprehending darkness is to better resist the darkness. If one day we can truly understand this sentence, we can try to touch the dark rules.”

Another powerful Fallen Elf said.

“Yes, protect the light in your heart. You won’t fall into darkness and become a dark Elf. The Queen is the strongest Elf I’ve ever seen. If I had been in her current state, I wouldn’t have been able to keep my heart and fall into darkness.”

Another Fallen Elf said.

Angst was the object of worship and admiration for all Fallen Elves.

Fallen Elves were unable to resist the temptation. They fell into the darkness, and their power increased rapidly.

Just like Lomina 20 years ago.

Therefore, every Fallen Elf was extremely powerful.

However, the Fallen Elves were mostly contaminated by their power.

The Fallen Elves still had more or less light in their hearts. As the Fallen Elves grew stronger, the light inside their hearts would become less and less, until it would disappear forever.

Once the surface of light disappeared forever, they would completely become Dark Elves. They were authentic dark creatures, extremely evil existences.

Angst, on the other hand, remained true to her heart after becoming a Sanctuary. She even led a large number of Fallen Elves with her strong charisma, allowing them to learn how to fight against the dark.

Angst was undoubtedly the most special Fallen Elf!

It could be said that in the entire Continent of Gods, there were very few Fallen Elves like her.

Angst stayed above the crack for many days.

At this moment, her ears tilted slightly.

Because she vaguely heard a voice.

However, this voice was not transmitted through sound, but rather through some special way.

“Angst, Angst.....”

A familiar and unfamiliar voice shouted at her.

The expression on Angst’s face did not change, but she did not move. This showed that she was listening to this voice.

“Angst, I’m Ophelia. I’ve been looking for you for half a month, but I still haven’t found you. I know you must be in the Dark Forest to the west. Lomina has seen you before. Angst, I’ve been blaming myself all these years. I should have trusted you a little more. I know you don’t want to see me. I just want to tell you that I’ve found a way to bring you back to light. If you’re willing to try, you can pray to the Lord of Flame. He’s a powerful God...”

Angst turned his face away when she heard this.

The voice disappeared.

“Lord of Flame...”

Angst whispered.

A few months ago, the Holy Light was everywhere in the Dark Forest.

With the Holy Light, in just a few months, it was able to reclaim twice the area of the Rocky Forest. This speed was unprecedented.

As a powerful Sanctuary Elf, Angst could easily guess how powerful the Lord of Flame, who provided endless Holy Flames, would be.

“She still hasn’t responded to me.”

In the City of Holy Light, Ophelia sighed.

“She and I were born together with the Tree of Life. We have a special connection, which allows us to connect no matter how far apart we are. The premise is that both sides are willing to connect. In the past thousand years, I’ve contacted her more than once, but she never gave me a response.”

Ophelia?continued.

In the past two weeks, she had spent half a month in the west of the Dark Forest with Lomina.

With the speed of the flying ship, the area they were looking for was astonishing.

They could also see the dark aura rushing into the sky above the broken seal. After Lomina used the Holy Flame to disperse the dark substance, they could also see the cracks that looked like wounds on the earth!

But they could not find Angst.

The Dark Forest was too large.

The further to the west, the larger the area.

Moreover, the Dark Forest had its system. Outside the Dark Forest, it was very difficult to sense the situation in the Dark Forest!

It could be said that unless Angst took the initiative to appear, they couldn’t find Angst.

It was even more unrealistic to search in the Dark Forest. It would be slower and more dangerous.

Lomina looked at Ophelia, her heart full of curiosity.

A thousand years ago, something must have happened between Ophelia?and Angst, which led to the fact that this pair of Elves?“twins” had not met for a thousand years.

However, it was normal to think about it. Light and darkness were always opposites. Ophelia?was a believer of the Goddess of Light. As the Queen of Light of the Rocky Elven Empire, she represented the ultimate light.

Her sister, Angst, fell into darkness and became a Fallen Elf.

Under such circumstances, even if Angst was Ophelia’s sister, their relationship would not be like before.

There must have been a lot of stories between them back then.

However, Ophelia?did not take the initiative to speak, and Lomina did not ask.

Lomina said, “Queen?Chen Xi has already prayed to my God and told me about Angst’s situation. If Angst is willing to ask for help from my God, my God will help.”

Ophelia revealed a grateful expression. “Thank you, Lomina. Please thank Queen Chen Xi for me.”

Ophelia?did not give up. She was still on the airship, continuing to search for Angst above the Dark Forest in the west.

Above the huge crack, Angst was still there, comprehending?the dark rules.

After reaching Sanctuary, it would take a lot of time to comprehend the rules.

After falling into the darkness, many shortcuts could be taken. These shortcuts would allow a Saint who had fallen into the darkness to have an unprecedented cultivation speed.

However, the depth of the darkness in the Sanctuary would deepen until they could no longer extricate themselves.

Angst did not choose that method.

As time went on, Angst continued to descend towards the bottom of the crack.

The deeper they went, the clearer the dark rules became.

The dark rules did not refer to a single rule, but a combination of rules. Ophelia's guess was right. Angst had already mastered a dark rule. Now, she was trying to master the second dark rule...

Soon, she descended to a place that was extremely deep in the crack.

There, an endless dark aura gushed out, as if there was another world below.

Angst stopped at the critical point and continued to comprehend the dark rules.

The danger was also quietly approaching.

A lizard-like dark creature rushed out and attacked Angst.

A pitch-black knife suddenly appeared in Angst's hand, and with one slash, the lizard-like dark creature was cut in half.

"Hehe, you've already grasped more than 30% of the second rule of darkness. When the darkness on your body is surging, you're even more like a dark creature than us. Why must you make yourself suffer? As long as you fall into the darkness forever, we're willing to worship you like a God and submit to you forever."

The voice of the Dark Elf was heard again.

For a thousand years, this Dark Elf had never forgotten to seduce Angst.

Angst was too powerful!

Although she touched the dark rules and fell into the darkness, she did not take the shortcut like the other Fallen Elves. She used dark creatures or Abyssal creatures to increase her strength.

Angst fell into the darkness as if to study the darkness.

She used the method that other sorcerers used to study the mysteries of this world. This method was destined to be slow, but the good thing was that it would not drown her body and mind in the darkness. There were very few hidden dangers.

However, her speed of advancement was not inferior to that of other dark creatures.

It could be imagined that once Angst fell into the darkness and took the shortcut, her strength would increase at an astonishing speed!

The hidden Dark Elf said that she would immediately become a God, a God that directly surpassed the first and second rank of the Heavenly Realm. It was not a lie!

Angst didn't pay any attention to the Dark Elf.

That Dark Elf was especially good at hiding. Of course, Angst spent some money to find her position, but it was difficult to deal with her in one go because that Dark Elf could sneak back to the Dark Abyss at any time, and Angst was not prepared to go there.

To Angst, as long as this Dark Elf did not provoke her and did not seduce other Fallen Elves, Angst would not bother to pay attention to her.

After seeing that Angst ignored her, the Dark Elf did not give up. She wandered around Angst, or else she would use words to lure Angst.

"Sister, only in the darkness will you have the power you need, the power to change everything... Isn't that good..."

More than an hour later, the Dark Elf was still trying to seduce her, but just as she was about to finish her sentence, she suddenly screamed and completely disappeared.

At the bottom of the crack, a black flame suddenly appeared!

This flame looked very similar to the Abyssal Demon Flame.

But it was not an Abyssal flame, but another flame.

Angst's expression did not change. Inside her body, there was a surge of power. Just as she was about to escape, the black flame seemed to jump, suddenly burning beside her.

Angst waved her hand, and a force blocked the flames. Then, with a slight leap, she charged towards the black flames.

But after Angst left, she frowned.

Because she realized that she was no longer above the crack.

Instead, they arrived at a completely new place.

This place seemed to be the source of all darkness.

The aura surging inside made Angst instantly understand what was going on.

This was the Dark Abyss!

Chapter 294: Dark Abysses! Fallen Elves' Mayday

As an existence that had been guarding the tunnel of the Dark Abyss for a long time, even though Angst had never entered the Dark Abyss, she understood the aura of the Dark Abyss too well.

She had already reached the Dark Abyss.

There was no trace of the Dark Elf around.

Angst lowered her head and saw that the black flame had disappeared again.

This flame most likely contained certain space rules. It seemed to be able to burn in different dimensions, so it brought Angst here.

Angst would not be too conflicted about one thing.

Now that she was in the Dark Abyss, it was no use trying to come here again.

The biggest problem now was how to get out?

The Dark Abyss was filled with danger. Angst was not afraid of danger, but of the Fallen Elves above the crack.

From time to time, legendary dark creatures would climb up the crack, and occasionally, Sanctuary-ranked dark creatures.

The strongest of the Fallen Elves were only eighth-ranked, but they could not deal with legendary and Saint Realm dark creatures.

In addition, these Fallen Elves were not blessed by the gods.

Just like Lomina 20 years ago, they were greedy and prayed for the power of the Abyssal Demon God and fell into the darkness. However, they met Angst in time. With Angst's help, they stopped in time and resisted the invasion of darkness.

However, they also angered the Abyss Demon God who gave them power, just like the Night Elves.

They were different from the Night Elves. Lomina had completely broken the contract and did not fall into the darkness.

They had already fallen into the darkness, so it was impossible to use the contract to punish them. If the Abyssal Demon God wanted to punish them, they could only lower their strength.

However, in the Continent of Gods, unless the gods themselves arrived, the Sanctuary was already the pinnacle of power. Angst, which was standing at the second rank of the Sanctuary, was not afraid of the power of any Abyssal Demon God.

That was why Angst was able to protect the Fallen Elves.

However, the Fallen Elves who had followed Angst had lost the protection of the gods of the Heavenly Realm and angered the Abyssal Demon God. It was equivalent to offending both sides.

Without the protection of the gods, they had to be strong enough!

In the past, they had Angst's protection.

Now, Angst had been brought to the Dark Abyss by that flame. It would be alright in a short period. As time went on, the Fallen Elves would encounter some dangers.

After all, they were in the most dangerous place on the Continent of God.

It was much more dangerous than the Demon Abyss.

The Demonic Abyss would only open once every twenty years. Only a few blind Abyssal creatures climbed up, and the dark creatures that climbed up the crack were more than a hundred times more powerful.

The entire Dark Forest was their outpost!

"We have to find a way out."

Angst thought.

She turned her gaze downwards. The Dark Abyss was extremely vast. It was like an underground world, a three-dimensional world.

The sky was filled with protruding stones. Some of them were large, and some were small. The smaller ones were just a few cubic meters, and the bigger ones were like a mountain. Some of them were burning with flames, and there were all kinds of dark creatures inside.

These stones were not floating, but growing there, as if they were on the ground.

Angst kept flying upwards.

The dark aura around her was too strong. Even in the Dark Abyss, she was more like a dark creature.

It couldn't be helped. She was a Saintess.

Along the way, the dark creatures that sensed her aura moved aside.

It was the instinct of all living beings to seek benefits and avoid harm.

It was the same even for dark creatures without much intelligence.

However, Angst quickly realized that it was impossible to fly up.

In the Dark Abyss, it was not the Continent of God.

It was not necessarily the bottom of the Dark Abyss.

When someone opens his eyes and opens them again, his ideas would be refreshed.

Humans often looked in the direction of their heads, and their senses were easily confused.

However, Angst would not.

She closed her eyes and reached out her hand to pull out the rules.

Yes, she had to follow the rules.

When she opened her eyes again, the entire world had changed greatly.

After touching the rules, one could see a part of the essence of the entire world.

Angst once again started searching in the Dark Abyss.

She wanted to find the exit.

Time passed bit by bit.

On the Continent of Gods, above the Dark Forest, Ophelia was still searching for Angst.

The Holy Flame Forest was on the right track. After the Holy Flame Elven Empire was established, Chen Xi, as the Queen of the Holy Flame Elven Empire, once again sent a call to the Elves on the Continent of God.

She also briefly explained the situation of the Holy Flame Empire.

Now, many more Elves were responding.

Some of the Elves who did not respond were also moved.

So, Chen Xi got busy again. She wanted to pick up more Elves.

In the south, the Queen of the Flame Empire, Qing Ling, and Meng Ying were already preparing for a war against the Purple Gold Empire!

The Purple Gold Empire was extremely powerful. Among the two legends, one could be a third-ranked God.

The Fox Lady Qing Ling continued to pray to her God, the Lord of Flame.

She only got one word:

Fight!

God said to fight and then let's fight!

However, this was a long expedition, and the preparations for the war were not that fast.

Their first step was not the Purple Gold Empire.

It was the three Human Kingdoms near the Endless Desert in the southwest of the Purple Gold Empire.

The million-strong army had already been armed and was undergoing centralized training.

These millions of soldiers focused on training their defense against high-ranked magisters.

Now, among the millions of troops, all the equipment had been updated.

The warriors of the battle formation could already defend against the large-scale magic attacks of the Magister.

Even a forbidden spell would weaken their shield to the extreme.

The reason Qing Ling and Meng Ying had not made a move was because they were training high-ranked magisters. Also, they had to wait for an opportunity.

Meng Ying had already sent many spies into the kingdom.

The battle for the throne was not over yet.

After the Emperor died, the strongest Great Prince and the Fifth Prince were killed. Of the remaining Princes, four were evenly matched, and a few smaller Princes were eliminated.

Originally, the Second Prince had ascended to the throne, but he was assassinated.

The battle for the throne was too dangerous.

In the end, under the interference of the Church, the remaining three Princes temporarily joined forces to govern. They still decided to attack the three human kingdoms in the southwest to determine the throne.

If not for the interference of the Church, the three Princes would have already started fighting each other.

However, internal friction was not allowed.

Then let's go to war.

It could also be used to expand the territory!

That was why the three princes were preparing for the war. They would soon attack the three Human Kingdoms.

Meng Ying and Qing Ling were waiting for that opportunity!

Chapter 295: Dark Abysses! Fallen Elves' Mayday

The Holy Flame Empire was going to be a fisherman!

While the three human kingdoms were engaged in battle with the Purple Gold Empire, they directly airborne the army and caught them off guard. A yellow sparrow followed!

The three human kingdoms probably wouldn't even think about the rear. The boundless desert that was 6,000 kilometers wide was enough to block all the human kingdoms and even the small empires.

When the army of the Flame Empire arrived at the rear of the three human kingdoms, not only the three human kingdoms, even the Purple Gold Empire would be shocked!

In the Abyss of the Behemoths, the flames of war were still spreading.

As more and more Abyssal Succubus joined Natasha, her army grew larger and larger.

At the same time, Natasha began to accept some other minions.

These minions were naturally treated as cannon fodder by Natasha.

With them, the losses of the Demon Hunter Ants would be much smaller.

These minions were of all sorts. They were mostly saber guards. There were also some Life seizures, Soul Strikers, and a small number of Explosive Hammer Earth Demons.

Abyssal creatures were always strange and varied.

As for the Abyssal demons' favorite boners and ridge breakers, they were almost reduced to Demon Hunting Ants' food.

These boners were the main force of the Abyssal Succubus Dynasty many years ago. Natasha had no intention of avenging the Succubus Dynasty. It was purely because the Demon Hunter Ants needed food, and the number of boners was large, which was just right.

In the blink of an eye, a week passed.

Angst realized that it was very likely that she would not be able to leave in a short period.

The Dark Abyss was too big.

The Dark Abyss was not a plane space like the Continent of Gods or the Abyss.

Yes, although the Abyss was three-dimensional, it was flat on a certain level.

The Dark Abyss was a more three-dimensional world than the underground world of the Continent of God.

It was like the space Lin Yan had traversed. It was filled with endless space.

However, there were a lot of rocks in these spaces, like meteorites in the universe.

The difference was that these rocks did not move, but were firmly fixed as if they grew in space!

Moreover, they were strangely shaped, looking especially sinister, and their colors were all black.

This resulted from being contaminated by the dark aura for too long!

This week, Angst captured many dark creatures.

There were sixth-ranked, seventh-ranked, and eight ranked, and they even caught a legendary ninth-ranked?dark creature.

However, these dark creatures did not know the existence of the rift.

It was as if the dark creatures that had climbed onto the Continent of God had just happened to encounter that crack.

It was more likely that...

The location of the crack was changed at any time in the Dark Abyss!

After Angst made that discovery, she decided to temporarily stop looking for an exit.

She found a huge rock and kicked all the dark creatures out of it. Then, she walked into the center of the rock and sat there quietly, turning into a ball of darkness.

This rock also became a forbidden area. The surrounding dark creatures were far away and did not dare to come.

Another week passed, and Angst remained motionless.

But that day, her ears trembled.

Then, she stretched out her hand and drew in the air.

As her fingers moved, a pitch-black paper appeared in the air.

On this piece of paper, there were only four words:

The Queen is in danger.

Angst stood up when she saw these words.

This was her special method of contact with the Fallen Elves. The cost of this method was not small, so it could not be used frequently. The other party must have discovered that the other contact methods were not useful, so they chose the last contact method.

The Fallen Elves said that it was critical, which meant that there was a very powerful ninth-ranked? legend that had passed through the crack!

The Fallen Elves were able to deal with the legendary dark creatures that were suppressed by the laws of the Continent of God.

However, they could not deal with some dark creatures that did not have a physical body.

As for the legendary dark creatures, they could not handle them.

But now, Angst was trapped in the Dark Abyss!

But a second after she stood up, she sat down again.

Even if she was in the Sanctuary and couldn't find the broken seal, she wouldn't be able to escape from the Dark Abyss.

As a Sanctuary, Angst could keep calm and think in the most urgent situations.

This time, she was taken into the Dark Abyss by the flames, which was completely out of her expectations. This was something that she had not encountered in a thousand years.

The flame did not have a high attack power, but it seemed to involve the transformation of space. It should be a coincidence that it could appear in that crack.

It had never happened in the past thousand years. It was not hard to understand that an accident would happen once in a thousand years!

Angst's head spun rapidly.

She was thinking for a way.

However, there were not many ways she could think of right now.

Ophelia was the first to be excluded.

Ophelia's injuries might not have recovered. In the Dark Forest, she might not be a match for a legendary dark creature.

In addition, Angst could not ask her for help.

She had another way.

That was what the Dark Elf said. It fell into darkness forever, obliterating the bright side in her heart, and immediately becoming a God.

That way, she could lower her strength to help the Fallen Elves tied over their difficulties.

But if that happened, she would be a real dark creature!

This was the case from the body to the soul.

After being completely occupied by the darkness, her personality would slowly become extremely distorted. Compared to other dark creatures, her behavior would not be any better.

That was not what Angst wanted.

However, if she didn't use this method, what else could she think of?

At this moment, a name suddenly jumped into her mind.

This name was exactly what Ophelia told her when she wrote to her:

The Lord of Flame!

"Lord of Flame..."

After reciting these four words, Angst once again stretched out her green fingers and wrote the words "Lord of Flame" in the air.

Chapter 296: Flames descended! Fallen Elves' faith!

At this moment, in the Dark Forest, above the huge crack, the sound of arrows piercing through the air could be heard. The sound of the bowstring shaking could be heard.

This showed how intense the battle in this area was.

“Polly, you lead people to support the right-wing. They can’t hold on any longer.”

“Judith, did you send a message to the Queen?”

“Yes, the Queen has yet to reply.”

“I don’t know where the Queen went. There are so many dark creatures here, and there are still many big ones inside. If the Queen doesn’t come back, we won’t be able to hold on!”

Above the crack, a few Fallen Elves spoke.

What was different from Angst’s thought was that the Fallen Elves’ crisis this time did not come from a powerful dark creature.

It was a group!

The appearance of the flame at the bottom of the crack seemed to have changed the location of the crack. The place where the crack connected became a new place in the Dark Abyss.

And there were a large number of dark creatures.

After sensing the rift, these dark creatures rushed out and rushed towards the Continent of Gods.

The Fallen Elves above the crack couldn’t hold on any longer against the surging dark creatures!

They could deal with ordinary dark creatures, but among these dark creatures, there were large creatures above sixth-ranked! An eighth-ranked?dark creature appeared!

Some Fallen Elves even sensed ninth-ranked?dark creatures inside, but the ninth dark creatures did not appear yet.

When they rushed out in groups, even if there were thousands of Fallen Elves here, it would be hard to resist!

“Angel, we can’t hold on any longer!”

Below, a Fallen Elf shouted.

“Level nine, no good!”

At this moment, a figure suddenly smashed over.

The Fallen Elf named Angel caught her and saw that she was heavily injured.

“Attack it together!”

A large number of Fallen Elves attacked the ninth-ranked?legendary dark creatures that rushed out of the crack.

This dark creature was not a non-physical dark creature like the ninth-ranked?dark creature last time.

It was physical.

Dark creatures with physical bodies were much easier to deal with than dark creatures without physical bodies.

Especially after they climbed up and were suppressed by the laws of the Continent of Gods.

Therefore, under the attacks of the Fallen Elves, the ninth-ranked?dark creature was suppressed and could only dodge their attacks.

However, in the crack, more dark creatures had charged up and started to attack the Fallen Elves. The situation suddenly became precarious.

“Angel, I’ve received a reply from the Queen!”

At this moment, a Fallen Elf ran over and slashed in the air.

Suddenly, six words appeared in the air:

The Lord of Flame! Pray!

“The Lord of Flame!”

Fallen Elven Angel read these words softly.

The bow and arrow in her hand continued to shoot out. She was the strongest Fallen Elf other than Angst, and she was already at the peak of eighth-ranked.

She was also the main force to suppress that ninth-ranked?legendary dark creature!

“Lord of Flame, who is this? Is it some God?”

A Fallen Elf asked.

“Angel, is the Queen asking us to seek help from the Lord of Flame? Our faith is already polluted. There are no gods of the heavenly world willing to visit us. The Lord of Flame is not the Abyssal Demon God, right?”

Another Fallen Elf asked.

“This is the Queen’s decision. The Queen must have encountered an accident. There are many ways to not find her. She won’t be able to return for a short period. Follow the Queen’s instructions. You guys attack it with all your strength. I’ll pray!”

The Fallen Elf named Angel was decisive.

Since Angst had given these words, the Fallen Elf named Angel decided to follow suit.

“Angel, no good, another ninth rank has charged up. He has already injured several of our sisters!”

At this moment, another Fallen Elf cried out from the crack below!

Two ninth-ranked!

The situation suddenly became extremely critical!

Angel no longer hesitated and began to pray to the Lord of Flame.

“Fallen Elf, Dark Rule.”

In the Abyss, due to Chen Xi’s prayer, Lin Yan already knew about the Fallen Elf.

The gods of the Heavenly Realm would not be willing to care for Fallen Elves. Fallen Elves were different from Lomina twenty years ago.

Twenty years ago, Lomina had only borrowed the power of the Abyssal Demon God. She had not yet become a Fallen Elf, so her power was still normal.

These Fallen Elves had been corrupted in terms of their power attributes. The faith they contributed was the dark faith.

How could the gods of the Heavenly Realm be willing to be tainted by the dark faith!

That would pollute their Divine energy and damage their power!

However, to Lin Yan, it did not matter.

In his virtual godhood, two faiths and two powers co-existed.

To Lin Yan, the amount of Chaotic Divine energy was better.

Therefore, when Angel was praying, Lin Yan already knew because he had set up the mechanism beforehand.

“Angel, the sisters can’t take it anymore!”

By the crack, the cries of many Fallen Elves could be heard.

The two legendary dark creatures, even if they had just climbed up and were suppressed by the laws of the Continent of Gods, would still cause the Fallen Elves to fall into a bitter battle.

In an instant, there were countless Fallen Elves injured.

Fortunately, these Fallen Elves had a powerful life force, and the attacks of the other Fallen Elves posed a great threat to the two legendary dark creatures. Therefore, the Fallen Elves had not died yet.

However, as time went on, when these two legendary dark creatures got more and more used to the environment of the Dark Forest, they were much less suppressed by the laws of the Continent of Gods. At that time, it would be the end of these Fallen Elves!

The Dark Forest was equivalent to the outpost of a dark creature. The environment inside was special. After a legendary dark creature lived inside for some time, it had recovered most of its strength.

Being suppressed by the laws of the Continent of Gods was only temporary!

Angel was still praying.

Below, the battle became more and more intense.

“Angel, don’t pray anymore. Let’s fight. No God of the heavenly realm is willing to give us favor unless the Lord of Flame is the Abyssal Demon God, but the Queen won’t let us turn to the Abyssal Demon God!”

A Fallen Elf drew her bow and shot an arrow.

It was useless to turn to the Abyssal Demon God.

Chapter 297: Flames descended! Fallen Elves’ faith!

The Abyssal Path had been sealed. The Abyssal Demon God could not be able to descend without paying a great price.

If Angel were to pray to the Abyssal Demon God, it was likely that the Abyssal Demon God would be willing to pay an enormous price to lower its strength.

Tempting the Sanctuary of the Continent of Gods was something that excited all the Abyssal Demons, especially since this Sanctuary was still standing on the second stage of the Sanctuary! Angel remained unmoved, still praying.

“It’s coming!” “Block it!”

The Fallen Elf had just finished speaking when he saw a legendary Dark Creature pouncing towards Angel.

Around Angel, a large number of Fallen Elves blocked the surrounding space with a rain of arrows, but the Dark Creature let out a strange cry. Its tentacles blocked all the arrows.

“Its power has increased. Angel, we can’t stop it!” Besides Angel, the faces of the fallen Elves changed. Angel was still praying. She did not pull out her bow.

“Block it!”

The Fallen Elves drew their machete and charged at the legendary Dark Creature.

But soon, the Fallen Elves were sent flying.

The legendary Dark Creature did not stop at all and pounced towards Angel, who was the most threatening to it.

“You’re praying, you’re embarrassing us!”

The Dark Creature made a strange sound, and in the blink of an eye, it pounced over. With one claw, it sent the Fallen Elf flying, and the other claw had already reached Angel!

Angel suddenly opened her eyes; the expression in her eyes did not show any signs of panic!

A ball of flame sprang up and engulfed the legendary Dark Creature!

“What kind of flame is this?”

The legendary dark creature shouted!

It no longer cared about Angel. It bounced back and tried to return to the crack. With the help of the dark aura, it extinguished the flames on its body! However, just as it pounced into the air, the body full of tentacles turned into ashes!

A legendary dark creature couldn't even hold on for a second!

Seeing this, Angel's eyes narrowed!

Even the Fallen Elves on the ground were stunned!

That dark creature was extremely powerful. They had suppressed it for so long, but it had easily turned the tables. But now, the flames had burned it down!

After the flame burned the legendary dark creature, it didn't stop at all. It was as if it could burn in the air and rush into the crack! That tremendous crack instantly created a raging flame!

The scream of another legendary Dark Creature was heard, and it soon disappeared.

This? Legendary Dark Creature had been burned to death.

The flames continued to spread. In a short period, the entire crack that was hundreds of kilometers long had been filled.

Thousands of Fallen Elves came to the crack and looked at the falling flames. Their faces were filled with shock!

In the crack, other than the flames from the Dark Abyss, ordinary flames could not be burned at all. The dark aura that kept spewing out directly extinguished them.

However, such flames were not destroyed. Instead, they burned brighter and brighter, as if the dark aura had become the best fuel!

In the crack, the dark creatures that were still climbing up the river were killed.

The flames burned large amounts of them to ashes!

Down below, the Dark Creatures were desperately trying to escape back to the Dark Abyss.

They even jumped down, allowing their bodies to move freely!

But that had no effect.

The flame spread far faster than their free fall.

In an instant, countless Dark Creatures were burned to death!

"Angel, is this the power of the Lord of Flame?"

Above the crack, a Fallen Elf looked at the flames spreading downwards and said blankly.

This was the Dark Forest.

Down below was the Dark Abyss.

It could be said that within this crack was the world of darkness.

Even the gods of the Heavenly Realm could not be able to do such a terrifying thing if they sent down their power through the Heavenly Realm Barrier!

But the Lord of Flame could!

Angel nodded and said, "Yes, this is the power of the Lord of Flame. The Lord of Flame responded to my prayer and was willing to give us our blessing!"

"Angel, what's the price?" A Fallen Elf asked.

Angel said, "Our faith!"

"Is it that simple?"

Beside her, a Fallen Elf found it unbelievable.

"Yes, it's that simple! I've already received the enlightenment of the Lord of Flame. It doesn't need us to return to the light, nor does it need us to fall into darkness forever. We only need to believe in the Lord of Flame, and he will give us a favor."

"Faith? The gods of the Heavenly Realm don't need our polluted faith. Could it be that the Lord of Flame is the Demon God of the Abyss?"

A Fallen Elf asked in confusion.

"The Abyssal Demonic Gods don't need faith. What they need is only war and chaos. Angel, what kind of God is the Lord of Flame? Do you believe it?"

Another Fallen Elf asked.

Angel recalled the feeling of receiving the Lord of Flame's revelation. Then, she thought about the words and said:

"Judith, I'm willing to give it a try. This is also the Queen's guide."

The Fallen Elf who asked that question was Judith. "If that's the case, Angel, I'm willing to give it a try."

Angel looked at the Fallen Elves and asked, "What about you?"

Well! "Sister Angel, I'm also willing to give it a try. We don't want to become Dark Elves, but we've fought against the darkness for hundreds of years. As our power increases, the darkness is eroding our hearts. If there is a God's blessing, we might be able to walk a new path!"

Immediately, a Fallen Elf expressed her attitude.

"Sister Angel, I'm willing to give it a try."

The second Fallen Elf said.

"Sister Angel, count me in!"

The third Fallen Elf said.

More and more Fallen Elves spoke, willing to contribute their faith to the Lord of Flame.

They had been in the dark for too long.

Many Fallen Elves were like Lomina in the beginning.

However, they were not as lucky as Lomina.

Under the temptation of the Abyssal Demon God, they fell deeper into the darkness.

However, during that process, the surface of light had always existed.

If it was possible, many Fallen Elves hoped to take the medicine of regret and return to the light.

However, there could not be any medicine of regret in the world. The attributes of strength had been completely polluted. Now, even the sunlight was repelling them. The difficulty of returning to the light was so great!

Not to mention the gods of the Heavenly Realm were willing to look after them.

As for the Abyssal Demonic God, he welcomed them very much, but wasn't that like a sheep entering a tiger's den?

And now, the Lord of Flame was willing to give them a blessing!

This was equivalent to sending charcoal in the snow!

Therefore, the Fallen Elves declared that they would hand over their faith to the Lord of Flame.

Angst did not gather many Fallen Elves.

In the entire Continent of Gods, there were not many Fallen Elves.

In the Dark Forest, there were only two thousand Fallen Elves gathered by Angst.

However, less than two thousand Fallen Elves were extremely powerful.

The weakest ones were at the peak of the fifth rank. Sixth-ranked and seventh-ranked Elves were everywhere.

There were more than one eighth-ranked Fallen Elves. Angel was just the strongest among the eighth-ranked Fallen Elves. Like Judith, she was also an eighth-ranked Fallen Elf!

It could be said that this team of Fallen Elves with less than two thousand people could sweep across the Human Kingdom if they wanted to.

Chapter 298: Burning the Dark Abyss! Four laws!

As the Fallen Elves made their decisions, flames continued to spread from the crack.

Even if those dark creatures let go of their hands and fell into the Dark Abyss as fast as they could, they would not be able to escape!

For these dark creatures, that day was a disaster!

It was unknown how deep this crack was.

The flames continued to charge at the bottom of the crack at a speed even faster than freefall.

As they continued to burn, even the dark matter was burned dry.

The flames only swept the rocks on both sides of the crack for a moment before they turned into large amounts of lava and fell from the sky.

The entire crack seemed to have turned into a Lava Abyss. It was covered in red light.

Above the crack, the more than a thousand Fallen Elves came to the side of the crack after making their decision. They looked at the flames that seemed to be about to burn through the entire crack, and their expressions couldn't help but be a little dull.

“Are we going to burn into the Dark Abyss?”

A Fallen Elf said.

Dark Abyss!

That was the source of all darkness!

This was a place where even Angst would not easily set foot.

That place was extremely terrifying!

However, the flames burned down as if they were about to charge into the Dark Abyss and burn it to the ground.

All of a sudden, the Fallen Elves were shocked by the power of the Lord of Flame!

It took more than ten minutes for the flames to reach the bottom of the rift.

The depth of this crack was obvious!

At the bottom of the crack was still bottomless darkness. An incomparably dense darkness aura rushed out.

It was as if there was a bottomless Abyss inside!

The flames didn't stop at all as they drove straight in!

“Is this the Dark Abyss?”

Lin Yan's low voice sounded within the flame.

The reason why he had personally arrived was that he was interested in the Dark Abyss that Angel had mentioned.

This place seemed to be different from the Abyss.

The Abyss passed through the Laws of Chaos. In the entire Abyss, the creatures of the Abyss fought endlessly.

The darkness in the Dark Abyss was so dense that it couldn't be dissolved.

The aura inside gave Lin Yan the feeling that it was as evil as the Abyss.

Within this surging darkness aura, Lin Yan had read countless negative information, hatred, hatred, cruelty, and destruction. As long as an ordinary person was exposed to this aura, they would feel a deep sense of despair. This sense of despair would give them the urge to destroy everything!

What passed through here was the Laws of Darkness!

Burning in the Dark Abyss was not a small consumption.

Lin Yan used the Holy Flame to cover the outer layer of his flames.

After that, Lin Yan unleashed a violent burning!

The flames spread out and covered the surrounding area, turning everything into ashes.

When Lin Yan used the Holy Flame to cover the outer layer of the flame, it did not burn as gently as the Holy Flame he had given up on the Elves.

The outer layer of the flame had the attributes of a Holy Flame, but the core of the flame still had several hundred thousand degrees of heat!

Under the raging flames, the temperature had increased several times!

Under such a high temperature, the rocks in the Dark Abyss turned into ashes. The dark creatures inside didn't even have the right to cry out before they were burned into ashes.

The intense, Holy Light emitted from the outer layer of the Holy Flame was even more terrifying. As long as the dark creatures were illuminated, they would be purified.

"Income is more than expenditure. Well, burn this place and see what the hell it is."

Lin Yan muttered to himself.

He once again expanded the flame, allowing it to spread out continuously.

"These stones are interesting."

After burning all the stones, Lin Yan quickly realized that the stones were growing in the air.

Half of them were outside, and the other half were rooted in the air as if they were in another space.

However, once these stones were burned, that space would be sealed.

However, under the constant burning of Lin Yan's Holy Flame, Lin Yan quickly found an opportunity to spread the flame.

The space where the other half of the stone grew wasn't big, and it was filled with stones as if it was just a space that had been created when the stone had grown.

The entire Dark Abyss was filled with strange stones that grew in space, and the other side of the stone was holding out quite a lot of space.

"These spaces are connected!"

Lin Yan soon made a discovery.

This discovery delighted Lin Yan because it meant that he could quickly expand the flames in the Dark Abyss.

Lin Yan was not polite.

Burning the Dark Abyss had given Lin Yan a great harvest. It would be a shame for Lin Yan to be polite.

In the Continent of Gods, there were countless intelligent beings, and Lin Yan could not burn without fear.

In the Abyss, a layer of the Abyss had a limited area and could not withstand the flame.

But it was different in the Dark Abyss.

The Dark Abyss was too big. No one knew how wide, how long, or how deep it was. It was like space, but there were many strange stones everywhere.

In the Dark Abyss, the number of dark creatures was also endless.

Lin Yan decided to burn enough this time.

Let's see what kind of hell this Dark Abyss was.

What kind of healthy creature?was there!

He was not worried about his safety.

After rising to the flame of destruction, Lin Yan has been quite difficult to kill.

He was still the flame of indestructibility. Once the flame was restrained, the water would not be destroyed and the ice would not be destroyed. It could be said that Lin Yan would not be extinguished in any way.

Moreover, even if he met some people who were a threat to him, Lin Yan could leave at any time through the thread of faith.

In the Dark Abyss, the flames continued to spread. When the flames spread, the Holy Light had purified everything. The dark creatures purified by the Holy Light also became Lin Yan's evolution points and energy points.

Through the space where the stones grew, Lin Yan's flame spread at an exceptionally fast speed.

The place where the flame passed by, whether it was the stone or the dark creatures, was completely burned, turning into the purest space.

This time, Lin Yan was planning to burn the entire Dark Abyss.

It was unknown just how big the Dark Abyss was, but it could make Lin Yan burn happily!

In the Dark Abyss, time had lost its meaning.

But Lin Yan could know the time through his Holy Maidens.

In the blink of an eye, a week had passed. Lin Yan's flames were already boundless. A large net spread over the Dark Abyss, and then the net began to spread down.

During this process, Lin Yan's flames continued to travel through the space where the stones grew to other areas and then continued to expand the burning range.

As Lin Yan was burning, a black flame suddenly appeared beside him.

As soon as the flame appeared, the flame trembled and prepared to escape.

“Special Flame!”

Lin Yan didn't hesitate and rushed forward to devour the special flame.

His harvest was not bad.

After swallowing this special flame, Lin Yan's Dark Rule had reached 100%.

This was the rule for Lin Yan's fourth door to reach 100%.

After Natasha entered the Abyss, Lin Yan's evolution points increased in speed.

The current Lin Yan had already raised several levels.

As he continued to rank up, Lin Yan's rules also improved.

Yes, Lin Yan did not need to comprehend slowly the rules like the other gods. As he ranked up, his mastery of the rules was constantly improving.

His four 100% rules were:

Flame Rule, Life Rule, Ice Rule, Darkness Rule.

If virtual godhood was converted into real godhood, its functions would not be lacking. Instead, it would increase and become more powerful. However, the foundation of building godhood must be well established.

Therefore, Lin Yan would not switch between the 100% rules for the four gates. At least, he would need three to four gates to reach the 100% rule before he could switch.

And this special flame contained quite a few-dimensional rules.

This was a rather rare rule.

Lin Yan looked at his panel. The spacing rule had reached 35%.

This allowed Lin Yan to find quickly the space where the stones grew and spread the flames to expand the flame!

Lin Yan continued to burn.

Chapter 299: Demon Union! The princess of the Succubus Dynasty!

This time, Lin Yan was burning very well.

The Dark Abyss was too big.

Lin Yan had been burning for so many days; perhaps not even a tenth of the area had been burned.

In this mysterious and terrifying place, some truly terrifying existences did not have much reaction to Lin Yan's burning.

Perhaps because the Dark Abyss was too large, Lin Yan was still far from reaching the core area!

And Angst was still deducing the dark rules, trying to find the exit.

She knew that the Fallen Elves' crisis was over.

Angst's heart was filled with gratitude for the Lord of Flame's assistance and protection. She even prayed to the Lord of Flame to express her gratitude.

It was unknown how far away she was from Lin Yan's burning spot.

There was no interaction between the two sides!

Meanwhile, in the Demon Abyss, the number of Demon Lords destroyed by Natasha was increasing.

Some Demon Lords felt threatened, and they began to gather together.

These Demon Lords couldn't retreat.

These Demon Lords did not belong to the three dynasties, but to the Demon Lords who had attacked the Mobis Abyss many years ago.

The war that destroyed the Succubus Dynasty in the Behemoths Abyss, the three demons that established the three dynasties, called for a large number of Demon Lords in the lower Abyss, gathered an unimaginable Demon Army Human and destroyed the Succubus Dynasty in a short period.

After the destruction of the Succubus Dynasty, the three demons became more and more powerful and eventually established the three dynasties.

They had previously signed some contracts with other Demon Lords, promising to divide the Demon Bees Abyss.

But the demons had too many ways to avoid the contract.

The contracts of demons were always binding others. If a human signed a contract with a Demon, they would soon know how quickly the Demons would turn hostile.

Therefore, the three dynasties destroyed a large number of weaker Demon Lords.

The reason why there were still a large number of Demon Lords outside the three Demon Dynasties was that the three dynasties were holding each other back and fighting each other. They also needed buffer and cannon fodder to leave behind the more powerful Demon Lords.

"Lord Barcelona, are you sure that the leader of the Succubus is a Demon King?"

A low voice came from a Demon Castle.

"That's right, Lord Collin. I'm sure that's a Demon-Rank Succubus!"

Barcelona's leader said.

This guy was the first Demon Lord to be defeated by the Succubus army.

Natasha used its mouth to release the news that she was the Demon King.

As an eighth-ranked Demon Lord, Lord Barcelona was powerful. If it was an ordinary Succubus, even a ninth-ranked Succubus might not be its match.

The combat power of demons was not ordinary.

Coupled with the fact that Barcelona's leader was protecting his face, it insisted that Natasha was the devil in front of anyone!

“With the combat power of the Succubus, if we don’t reach the Demon King, I’m afraid we won’t be able to defeat Lord Barcelona. The three dynasties still haven’t made any movements. Looks like they want to use us to test the Demon King’s strength. Colin, do we want to fight?”

At this moment, another humanoid demon said.

From the way it addressed Lord Collin, it should be a powerhouse on the same rank as Collin. Humans had a very one-sided understanding of the Abyssal creatures. They also had a lot of misconceptions about the hierarchy and address of demons.

Because humans could not reach the lower Abyss.

In the eyes of the demons of the lower Abyss, the Abyss is the Demon Abyss.

Before the ninth rank, they could only be Demon Lords.

Only a ninth-ranked Demon was qualified to be called a Great Lord.

Meanwhile, Collin and another humanoid Demon were ninth-ranked Demon Lords!

He was only one step away from the tenth-ranked Demon Lord!

“Fight, of course, we have to fight. A tenth-ranked Succubus isn’t necessarily that strong. Bick, our combined force is enough to fight against one. As for the Succubus army.....”

Great Lord Collin’s gaze swept around. This castle was densely populated with Demon Lords. There were at least a few dozen of them.

The dozens of Demon Lords were joining forces to deal with Natasha and her Succubus army!

“You 32 guys shouldn’t be a problem against the Succubus’ army, right?”

A cruel smile appeared on Lord Collin’s face.

“No problem, as long as you stall that Demon, leave the other Succubuses to us.”

The other 32 Demon Lords shouted.

“Alright, but for the sake of safety, I need to prepare another weapon. The Succubus is still fighting in the east. Gather your servants; we will wait for them in the Rocky Forest! This time, let us join forces to annihilate a Demon King!”

Big Bick’s Lord stood up and clenched his hands so hard that they cracked.

“Spare me, I am willing to submit!”

On the pitch-black ground, a Demon Lord was kneeling there, desperately begging for mercy.

Friends were not afraid of death.

In the kingdom, Demons didn’t have morals. As long as they could survive, they were willing to do anything.

Don't expect them to be so loyal after surrendering. As long as you show any weakness, you will be caught by them and give you a fatal blow!

There was only one way to make Demons loyal.

Powerful.

It must always be strong enough!

Natasha extended her sword.

This Demon Lord was a Demon Hunter.

The Demon Hunting Spider was different from the Demon-Hunters encountered when Chen Xi entered the upper Abyss.

Demon Hunting Spider was just a human name for the Abyss Spider.

That was an ordinary Abyss Spider, not a demon!

Demon-Hunting Spiders were Abyss Demons. Their strength was much stronger than Spider Demons.

"I'm willing to trade a secret for my life."

The face of the Demon-Hunting Spider changed when it saw Natasha preparing to kill it.

"Speak."

Natasha retrieved her sword.

"Lord Bick and Lord Colin have joined 32 Lords to defeat you in the Rock Forest."

The Demon Hunting Spider said.

"Two Demon Lords!"

Natasha whispered.

"Yes, and they are two Great Lords backed by the Abyss Demon God. Bick and Colin are both from the dark soul Abyss. They are all dark soul Demons. In the battle, they have the qualification to pray to the dark soul Demon God."

The Demon-Hunter Spider continued.

"What else do you know?"

Natasha's eyes did not change.

The Demon-Hunting Spider revealed everything it knew.

This was a Demon.

It was impossible to keep them a secret.

Signing a contract was useless!

"Can I leave now?"

The Demon Hunter Spider asked.

“No.”

Natasha cut the spider in half.

“You promised me...”

The Demon-Hunting Spider was still speaking.

“I didn’t agree to anything.”

Natasha said coldly and waved her hand. Next to her, Yvette released the Evil Flames and burned the powerful Demon Hunter Arachnid into ashes.

“Papa!”

Suddenly, clapping sounds rang out.

Natasha turned her head and saw a succubus wearing a crown walking towards them.

“Not bad Natasha. This is the 32nd Demon Lord you defeated.”

The crowned succubus spoke with a faint dignified tone.

“Who are you? He dared to speak to my King with such a tone.”

Natasha did not say anything. It was Yvette who spoke.

The way the Crowned Demon spoke was the way the superior spoke to the subordinate.

“This is the only successor of the Succubus Dynasty a thousand years ago, Princess Barbara!”

Besides the crowned Succubus, a Succubus spoke with a loud voice.

Chapter 300: To seize power? Demon King and two Legendary Succubuses!

Princess Barbara!

The words of the succubus caused quite a commotion!

Among the surrounding Succubuses, many were new generation Succubuses. They were not 1,000 years old, so they had not seen the strength of the Succubus Dynasty a thousand years ago.

But they had all heard of it!

These Succubuses were wandering in the middle and upper ranks of the Abyss. Every Succubus was hoping that one day they would return to the Abyss and rebuild the Succubus Dynasty!

This was also the reason why the Succubuses continued to join Natasha from the upper and middle levels of the Abyss!

The entire Succubuses who joined had a dream to rebuild the Succubus Dynasty!

And now, the princess of the Succubus Dynasty appeared a thousand years ago!

Instantly, it attracted the attention of countless Succubuses!

Moreover, many Succubuses were over a thousand years old!

These Succubuses had seen the strength of the Succubus Dynasty!

There were even many people among these elderly Succubuses who had seen Princess Barbara!

“Princess Barbara, is it you?”

Amongst the Succubus, an elderly Succubus said excitedly.

The lifespan of Abyssal creatures depended on their strength and luck. The stronger they were, the longer they lived.

As a Demon, the Succubuses, even the weakest Demon, naturally had a long lifespan. Even if they lived for a thousand years, they would only look a little thinner and not look too old.

“That’s right, it’s me!”

Princess Barbara flew into the sky, allowing the entire Succubuses to see her more clearly!

“It is Princess Barbara!”

Amongst the Succubus, much older Succubus recognized her!

“It is you, Princess Barbara!”

Many Succubuses were so excited that their eyes were brimming with tears!

These Succubuses had been wandering in the middle and upper Abyss for more than a thousand years. They missed the strong Succubus Dynasty a thousand years ago.

At that time, the Succubus Dynasty occupied the entire Abyss. Although the Succubus Dynasty had the same hierarchy, the Succubus could freely live in the Abyss.

At that time, every Succubus had many Demon Hunter Ants as their servants. These Demon Hunter Ants would fight for them and find food for them.

They didn’t have to worry about food and clothing; they didn’t lose their lives at any time, becoming the food of other demons!

How could they be like now!

Following that, more Succubuses recognized Princess Barbara, and some succubus over a thousand ran over.

There were quite many Succubuses.

And because they were older and stronger, they had a high status in their respective Succubus race. Many of the older Succubuses were clan leaders or elders.

Princess Barbara descended and reminisced with these Succubuses. Many of the older Succubuses were moved once again!

If it had been a thousand years ago, with their identities, they would not have been able to chat so closely with Princess Barbara!

In the world of demons, levels were strict, strength was paramount, and the Succubus Dynasty was the same.

Princess Barbara was already a legendary existence a thousand years ago.

After a thousand years, she had probably become a Demon!

Natasha watched calmly from the side, not expressing her opinion.

Yvette and Enos, who were under her command, looked at each other and saw some worry in her eyes.

This Princess Barbara did not come out long ago. She did not come out late. Now that she came out, it was obvious that her intentions were not good!

“Queen, this Princess Barbara is probably plotting something.”

Yvette whispered to Natasha.

Natasha’s expression was still calm.

“No defense.”

She said calmly.

After more than half an hour, Princess Barbara finally had a good chat with the old Succubuses.

Princess Barbara walked out and looked at Natasha:

“Natasha thanks you for your hard work. Now that your mission has been completed, you can become my subordinate and continue to fight for me!”

“Barbara, what do you mean?”

Natasha did not speak, but Yvette was the first to speak.

Princess Barbara said indifferently, “As far as I know, Natasha is not a Demon King, right?”

Her words caused Yvette’s expression to change.

The surrounding succubuses immediately buzzed.

Especially the succubuses who joined later!

Natasha was indeed not a Demon King.

She was still a ninth-ranked legend.

The Succubus who had followed her all the way down from the middle Abyss knew about this.

But the Succubuses did not say it.

Later, more and more succubuses joined. These succubuses all thought Natasha was the Demon.

Natasha’s performance in the battle was truly terrifying.

Therefore, there was no doubt from the Succubuses.

From the looks of it, Princess Barbara had clearly understood this through some Succubuses.

After all, there were tens of millions of Succubuses who followed Natasha down from the middle and upper Abyss. There would be a few of them who would reveal the news!

“Look, I’m right, right?”

Princess Barbara looked at Yvette’s changed expression and said indifferently.

“Queen Natasha, is it true??You’re not a demon king?”

At this moment, a Succubus who joined behind asked.

Natasha was now recognized as the Succubuses Queen by the Succubuses army.

Following that, more Succubuses joined in and asked.

Some of the Succubuses were led by the people that Princess Barbara had sent over long ago. They brought the rhythm to bear on Natasha, causing the other entire Succubus to burn.

“So what if it’s the Demon King? The Queen’s strength is not less than the Demon King’s. Have you forgotten who led you down from the upper Abyss and into the Demonic Bees Abyss?”

Some Succubuses also spoke loudly for Natasha.

These Succubuses were the Succubuses who had followed Natasha down from the middle and upper Abyss.

“Humph, there are three Demon Kings in the three Demon Dynasties. Natasha, you are not a Demon King. How can you compete with them? Princess Barbara is the rightful heir of the demon Dynasty. Natasha, obey Princess Barbara. You can continue to fight for Princess Barbara!”

At this moment, Princess Barbara’s people began to move in rhythm again.

The surroundings suddenly became chaotic.

Those who supported Natasha and those who supported Princess Barbara quarreled!

As for the Demon servants, they were all on alert.

The voices of tens of millions of Succubuses, even though everyone’s voice was not loud, still reverberated in the sky. If there were clouds in the sky, even the clouds could be torn apart.

At the center of the vortex, Princess Barbara and Natasha did not speak.

The expression on Princess Barbara’s face was relaxed and relaxed. She had the languid air of someone who had been in high office for a long time. In her eyes, she had already won, so Princess Barbara seemed very calm!

Seeing that the surrounding squabbles were almost over, a Succubus suddenly spread his wings and flew into the sky beside Princess Barbara!

The actions of this Succubus shocked many Succubuses!

Legend!

Only a legendary ninth-ranked Succubus would have wings!

“Princess Barbara has a Legendary Succubus beside her. Heavens, what realm is Princess Barbara in?”

A succubus exclaimed.

Although the Succubus Dynasty of a thousand years ago had been destroyed by the lower-class demons, its foundation was indeed not something to be underestimated. Even though it had been destroyed for a thousand years, Princess Barbara still had a ninth-ranked legendary existence by her side!

“Princess Barbara had already become a Demon King 500 years ago. The reason why she didn’t move was that she had been waiting for an opportunity. Natasha, although you are a new generation of Succubus, you have contributed greatly to the gathering of Succubus. You have to submit to my king. When my king recovers the Succubus Dynasty, I can give you the title of general!”

In mid-air, the legendary Succubus shouted.

Her voice spread throughout the space.

Next to Princess Barbara, another legendary succubus spread its wings and flew into the sky!

Two Legendary Succubuses!

The thousands of years of Succubuses around them were shocked!

Now not only Princess Barbara had become the Demon King!

Beside her, there were two Legendary Succubuses!

This strength was truly terrifying!
