Chapter 311: Princess Barbara's master-servant contract!

Along with the battle on the battlefield, endless Dark Faith gathered towards Lin Yan's virtual godhead!

The moment these dark beliefs entered the virtual godhood, they were automatically stored by the virtual godhood. There was no need for Lin Yan to do anything.

"What are they doing?"

Lin Yan looked at the other three Demon Gods.

The Pyramids of the three Demon Gods hovered there, motionless.

The three Pyramids were not the godhoods of the three Demon Gods, but the phantom of the godhoods.

The virtual image of godhood was a projection that was driven by his Divine energy.

This was also a throne that was built for him on some official occasions when the gods descended!

Although it was phantom godhood, it was enough to gather Dark Faith.

On the Pyramid, the will of the three Demon Gods looked down at the battlefield.

Perhaps, they were also observing each other.

The Demon Gods of these three dynasties were evenly matched. Some might be slightly stronger, but they definitely would not be too strong.

If it was too strong, the balance would be broken.

Once the balance was broken, the situation in the Abyss of the Mobis would change drastically.

Even now, the Abyss of the Demons was still the three dynasties. There was no increase or decrease in one. It meant that after a thousand years, the power of the three Demon Gods was still at the same rank.

Lin Yan silently observed the three Demon Gods.

Soon, Lin Yan realized that the Dark Faith he had gained had entered virtual godhood.

However, the other three Demon Gods seemed to be different.

Their Dark Faith had to be collected through the chains of faith at the bottom of the Pyramid, which connected the four corners of the Pyramid.

As the creator of the system, the virtual godhood was indeed useful.

Perhaps it was not easy for the other gods to convert the Dark Faith into Divine energy.

Although the godhoods of other gods were equivalent to a centralized processor, they were not as useful as virtual godhoods.

To exchange for Divine energy, Lin Yan only needed to use his virtual godhood to exchange for a bit of Divine energy from the Heavenly Realm.

Or he could use two hundred thousand Dark Faiths to exchange for some chaotic Divine energy.

It was very simple.

But other gods might not be so simple.

The composition of Divine energy was more complicated. Each God's Divine energy was different, with some unique characteristics.

Every God needed a lot of time to transform their Divine energy.

However, the virtual godhood simplified the process!

It saved a lot of Lin Yan's time.

“So, the Dark Faith obtained by these three Demon Gods in this battle of sacrifice is still stored in those three Pyramids?”

Lin Yan thought.

The Dark Faith was not the power of faith. This was just a name for virtual godhood. In the Abyssal Demonic God, there might be another name.

Lin Yan focused his attention on one of the Pyramids.

Soon, Lin Yan found something different on the chain below the Pyramid.

“No, the battle of the gods shouldn't be that simple.”

Lin Yan made a discovery.

Then, he activated his virtual godhood and analyzed it.

“Yvette, send a team of sickle guards into the battlefield.”

In the high sky, Natasha stood at the bottom of the Pyramid and occasionally issued a command.

She could see the situation of the entire battlefield. Although Natasha had never seen such a huge battlefield before, Natasha learned quickly.

Natasha quickly grasped the rhythm and continuously issued orders to dispatch the entire Succubus army.

Until now, the main force of the Succubus had not attacked yet.

The main force on the battlefield was the army of demons and minions under the thirty-odd surrendered Demon Lords.

Among the thirty-plus Demon Lords, there were more than ten eighth-ranked Demon Lords, and the rest were all seventh-ranked.

Each Demon Lord had a Demon army of tens to hundreds of thousands.

As for the servant demon army, their numbers were huge!

Their strength was not weak.

In fact, after receiving Natasha's order, the 30 Demon Lords did not participate in the battle.

Among their Demon army, the Elite Demons also stopped fighting.

The battle of the gods had just begun, so there was no need to put in too much strength.

That would speed up the war.

And for some unknown reason, if the battle of sacrifices ended too soon, it was not what the Demon Gods needed.

Therefore, the main force on the battlefield was still the huge number of minions and relatively weak Demons.

There seemed to be a lot of demons in the black cloud, but most of them were below the sixth rank.

Beside Natasha, Princess Barbara stood there. She was silently staring down.

This land was once the land of the Succubus Dynasty.

After escaping from the Mobis Abyss, Princess Barbara had always wanted to return here.

But even if she became a Demon King, she knew how difficult it was to return here.

How powerful was the former Succubus Dynasty, but in such a short period?

However, the strength she had around her was less than a tenth of that of the Demon Dynasty!

Princess Barbara's heart was on the verge of despair as she watched the Succubus grow weaker and weaker after leaving the Mobis Abyss.

Until Natasha showed up.

Originally, the people around Princess Barbara did not care about Natasha.

They were just the little Succubuses from the upper level of the Abyss, yet they tried to counterattack the Mobis Abyss. It was hard to describe Natasha's arrogance even if she did not know the height of heaven and earth! However, Natasha had gathered tens of millions of Succubus along the way. Princess Barbara couldn't help but look up.

She had thought that Natasha would spend hundreds of thousands of years gathering more Succubuses and cultivating more Demon-Hunting Ants before she entered the Abyss of the Demons. Who would have thought that Natasha would directly enter the Mobis Abyss!

More importantly, Natasha had gained a foothold!

At that time, Princess Barbara realized that her chance had come.

Natasha needed the Succubus. As long as the Succubus came, she would not refuse.

Therefore, Princess Barbara successfully planted a large number of her people in Natasha's Succubus army.

However, these people did not want to enter Natasha's core layer.

Princess Barbara did not need them to enter the core layer.

After placing her people, Princess Barbara was observing and waiting.

It wasn't until Natasha stood still in the Abyss that she jumped out to seize power.

But what Princess Barbara never expected was that Natasha would be so powerful!

Natasha was not strong.

But the Lord of Flame behind Natasha was powerful!

The Lord of Flame behind Natasha was so scared that the Abyssal Demon God behind her did not dare to lower his strength!

That's right; the Succubus race was already in such a terrible state. They weren't even as powerful as some powerful servant demons. Even if they were to give some Abyss Demon Gods as their subordinates, that Abyss Demon God would not be happy.

The Abyssal Demonic God that Princess Barbara had found was just a new Abyssal Demonic God.

The newly advanced Abyssal Demon God did not dare to provoke the Lord of Flame!

Now, Princess Barbara had once again witnessed the power of the Lord of Flame.

The fact that the three Demon gods were willing to let the Lord of Flame in for a piece of the cake was enough to show how powerful the Lord of Flame was.

After Princess Barbara ate the Queen's Heart, she obtained some new memories of the Queen's Heart.

The former Succubus Queen also spent a lot of time under the throne of a God.

From the close range of her senses, Princess Barbara could feel that the Lord of Flame's Throne gave her a much greater sense of oppression than the Throne of God in the Queen's heart!

The difference was not double.

It happened many times!

The Throne of God was able to reflect the power of a God to some extent.

Too weak an Abyssal Demon God would not be willing to create too large a throne.

It would only be the work of the strong.

However, the Lord of Flame was not an outsider.

Otherwise, the resistance of the will of the gods would have allowed the Lord of Flame to reveal its true form.

Princess Barbara suddenly felt envious of Natasha.

Natasha was just a young succubus.

But she was so lucky to get the favor of such a powerful Abyssal Demon God as the Lord of Flame!

"The number of demons and the number of minions in the three dynasties is slightly higher than ours."

At this moment, Natasha's voice interrupted Princess Barbara's thoughts.

"Yes, Queen. These three dynasties have lived in the Abyss for thousands of years, and the number of Succubuses hasn't increased much in the past thousand years. However, this is mainly because there aren't enough Succubuses who have joined us, less than half of all the Succubuses. In a few days, my subordinates will bring in millions of Succubuses and a large number of Demon Hunting Ants, which will make up the difference.”

Princess Barbara said.

Those millions of Succubuses were all the wealth she had stored for the past thousand years.

Natasha said, “Let your subordinates learn to pray to the Lord of Flame, otherwise they won’t be able to beat those demons.”

This was the truth.

Princess Barbara hesitated for a moment before finally saying the decision she had just made:

“Queen, I wonder if I have the luck to become a servant of the Lord of Flame.”

Natasha said indifferently, “Master is above; this matter should be decided by Master.”

Princess Barbara nodded.

Then, she pressed her palms together and prayed to the Lord of Flame.

After submitting to Natasha, Princess Barbara’s heart, which had returned to the Succubus Dynasty, had been extinguished.

What Natasha wanted to establish was a new Succubus Dynasty. This Succubus Dynasty would only be more powerful and prosperous than the one a thousand years ago.

After witnessing the power of the Lord of Flame, Princess Barbara could already foresee the possibilities of the new Succubus Dynasty.

Princess Barbara did not want to miss such a grand banquet!

And to participate in it, becoming a servant of the Lord of Flame was the best way.

She did not want to compete with Natasha for favor or power.

Natasha had a special temperament. This temperament made Princess Barbara, who had long held a high position, admire Natasha.

Princess Barbara only wanted to gain complete recognition.

Natasha’s gaze once again fell on the entire battlefield.

Meanwhile, Princess Barbara began to pray.

Ten minutes later, Princess Barbara finally received a response.

A look of joy appeared on her face.

Because the Lord of Flame accepted the contract she handed over.

From then on, Princess Barbara became the servant of the Lord of Flame!

As a Demon King, it was not easy for Princess Barbara to make this decision.

The support that Princess Barbara had found earlier, the newly advanced Abyssal Demon God, did not hand over the master-servant contract.

In fact, the Demon Kings of the three dynasties did not necessarily hand over the master-servant contract to the Abyssal Demon God.

But Princess Barbara decided to do so.

Chapter 312: Killing Rules! The invitation letter from the Eternal Night Empire!

After becoming the servant of the Lord of Flame, Princess Barbara was in a cheerful mood.

She felt that the entire world was different.

The previous world was filled with despair and depression. There was not much light to be seen.

At that time, she felt like she was muddleheaded.

No goal!

No, she was nothing without a goal.

She had a goal, but she knew that there was no way to achieve her goal.

This was even worse than not having a goal.

Even more, it made people despair!

Honestly speaking, at that time, Princess Barbara wanted to be muddleheaded!

However, she was sober.

She stared at himself and pretended to be muddleheaded.

She looked at herself helplessly.

Until now, after signing the master-servant contract with the Lord of Flame, Princess Barbara felt that the haze in the sky had disappeared.

It was like she got a new life!

Her heart was filled with hope and confidence for the future!

Princess Barbara stood under the throne like that.

For some reason, when Natasha was commanding the Succubus army, Princess Barbara's mind was filled with the Lord of Flame.

She wondered what the Lord of Flame looked like.

What kind of story the Lord of Flame has.

As she thought about it, she became fascinated.

This Abyssal Succubus was an extremely evil existence. At this moment, her expression was not much different from that of the human maidens.

Well, as the princess of the Succubus Dynasty, to some extent, she was a flower in the greenhouse.

Even if she was a succubus!

Time passed day by day.

In the Abyss, time was the most meaningless thing.

But it was the most meaningful thing.

On the throne, Lin Yan was still studying the things flowing up through the chains.

A few days later, Lin Yan knew what it was!

Rules!

Those flowing things involve a rule!

This rule could be called killing!

Killing rules!

The rule of slaughter was known by its name. This was the rule of the main kill!

Needless to say, this was a very strong rule!

This Rule was?different from other rules.

The?rules were complicated, but if one simply described it, the rules were just some of the mechanisms of the world.

When many rules were used in battle, their effects were not strong.

Because people don't serve the battle.

However, when some rules were used in battle, they were quite powerful. It could be said that they controlled all rules.

This was the rule of slaughter!

A God who mastered the rules of slaughter would be much stronger than other gods.

But the rule of killing was rather difficult to get.

It wasn't like killing more Abyssal creatures would be enough.

Especially when Abyssal creatures were generally "stupid".

Even if a powerful Abyssal Demon God used an enormous amount of energy to destroy the entire Mobis Abyss, or even more Abyss, it would be difficult to get the rule of slaughter.

Well, the Abyssal Demon God had also developed from the Abyssal creatures. It might not necessarily be "smart".

The method of obtaining the rule of slaughter was not as good as having his subordinates stir up war everywhere.

"No wonder the three dynasties organized the battle of the gods."

On the throne above the Pyramid, Lin Yan said to him.

It would make sense if it was just for the Dark Faith, but if it was purely for the Dark Faith, there was no need to fight for so long.

A battle of sacrifice to God must be fought for at least a month. The larger scale the longer the war. Wars of sacrifice to God for several years also occur from time to time.

Billions of demons and minions fought endlessly. After that, even more demons and minions joined the battlefield, creating a monstrous slaughter.

The entire battlefield had been completely locked down by the Demon Gods using God's Throne and the thick black clouds in the sky.

During this monstrous slaughter, the rules of slaughter had been quietly activated and were captured by the Demon Gods.

But the amount was very small.

In the past few days, Lin Yan had obtained less than one in ten thousand killing rules.

After the battle, Lin Yan's killing rule would only reach 23%.

As a very powerful rule, the difficulty of obtaining it was quite great.

The three Abyssal Demonic Gods would probably obtain even less.

However, as long as Lin Yan obtained the Killing Rule when he leveled up in the future, his mastery of the rule would increase.

Lin Yan's upgrade mechanism was: After the flame core level was upgraded, as long as Lin Yan had what he had, it would have a significant increase.

If Lin Yan didn't, he wouldn't have improved.

After understanding the details, Lin Yan drove the virtual godhood to make a further deduction.

Although Lin Yan was able to level up, it wasn't easy for him to level up. He wouldn't refuse if he could gain more benefits from this battle.

Of course, at the same time, Lin Yan did not give up on observing the three Abyssal Demon Gods.

The rules of slaughter were indeed tempting.

But what was even more tempting was the Demonic God itself!

However, the Demonic Gods had only descended with their Will, and their strength was unknown, so Lin Yan did not act rashly.

The battle between the gods had only progressed by half, and Lin Yan was in no rush.

In the Abyss, the battle for the sacrifice of the gods was in full swing.

The Dark Abyss was relatively calm.

After Lin Yan left, the flames in the Dark Abyss were still burning for many days.

Then, in the area where Lin Yan was burning, the dark aura spread again.

The space that had been completely burned began to grow strange stones.

Among the stones, the dark creatures were born again.

Yes, whether it was the Abyss or the Dark Abyss, destroying the world was a fake.

It could not be destroyed.

It was destroyed, and it was reborn again.

The same was true for the Continent of Gods.

In ancient times, the Continent of God was not just destroyed by the war between the gods.

However, the Continent of Gods was still thriving.

The laws that supported the movement of the entire world were far more terrifying than he had imagined.

From this, it was not difficult to guess just how powerful those Master Gods who had mastered the power of law were.

In the Dark Abyss, Angst still could not find the exit.

She gave up on finding the exit.

Instead, they began to search for the Dark Elves.

The Dark Elf was able to enter and leave the Dark Abyss freely, so he should have some special methods.

However, Angst had yet to find it.

.....

On the Continent of God, the Flame Empire was ready to fight.

After such a long time, the number of flying ships in the Flame Empire had already exceeded two hundred.

Among them, there were 15 professional troop carriers, 15 large flying ships, 40 medium flying ships, and 190 small flying ships! The production lines of the airships were added several more times to create so many airships.

If there were more flying ships, they could transport more than 500,000 troops at once!

They could transport the army of the Flame Empire across the endless desert and attack the three Human kingdoms.

In addition, there was also a special type of combat flying ship, which was covered with dense crossbows!

The shooting range of these crossbows was terrifying. Coupled with the Explosive Flame, their power was not too great!

“Holy Maiden, the latest news is that the army of the Purple Gold Empire has already left for the three Human kingdoms, and there are at most two days left before the battle will be fought.”

On this day, Meng Ying reported the news to Qing Ling.

Qing Ling smiled. “Our chance is here.”

Meng Ying nodded, “Yes, Holy Maiden, our chance is here!”

It had been months since the Holy Flame Empire became a small empire.

Now, it was time to expand, annex the three human kingdoms, and further annex the Purple Gold Empire, becoming a medium-sized empire!

In the past few months, the Holy Flame Empire's strength had greatly increased.

Under Lin Yan's blessing from time to time, the power of the soldiers of the Holy Flame Empire soared.

The effect of blessing was always the most obvious when one was weak and the improvement was also the most outstanding.

Therefore, although the army of the Holy Flame Empire was still only one million, the strength of that army of one million Warriors was already quite strong.

Out of the one million soldiers, there were still two hundred thousand orc warriors. The strength of the two hundred thousand orc warriors had generally increased. Based on their combat strength alone, there were no more than two hundred thousand orc warriors.

Lion warriors were already strong, and they were at least first ranked when they were young. After being the Lord of Flame for such a long time, they were all third-ranked warriors.

There was no need to mention the bear warriors. They had always been able to fight against human third-ranked warriors. Now, they had the strength of a fourth-ranked or even a fifth-ranked warrior, but their numbers could not increase in a short period.

However, the bear people were no longer short of food. Thousands of bears were breeding at full force. Their population had doubled in the past few months, but only bears had been added.

The strength of the centaurs, werewolves, and snake warriors was already quite strong.

Even the Fox Archer had the strength of a peak first rank.

Not only had their strength increased, but their equipment had also been upgraded.

The Fox Archer's enchanted bow was upgraded again, and its effective range now reached 800 to 1,000 meters.

This range was too terrifying.

It was even more terrifying than the range of an ordinary rifle before Lin Yan transmigrated.

The damage was even more terrifying. The penetration was much stronger than a normal rifle.

In addition, with the existence of explosive flames, the range damage of the enchanted bow was also quite strong.

The shields of the warriors were also upgraded.

Now that the soldiers of a battle formation had put their shields together, it was not difficult for them to defend against the powerful magic spells of the sixth-ranked, and seven magic instructors.

In terms of human warriors, their combat strength had also been greatly improved.

Eight hundred thousand human soldiers, there were one hundred thousand of the Church's army, not a single one of them was below the third rank!

Among the other 700,000 human warriors, there were also a large number of third-ranked warriors.

And the main force was mainly first-ranked, and second-ranked warriors!

Although they were not as strong as the orc warriors, with good equipment, their combat strength was terrifying.

Apart from that, the higher-ups of the Holy Flame Empire had also made comprehensive progress.

Lin Yan's Holy Maidens had all risen to seventh rank and above. The Dwarf Queen Ivy and Princess Luo Ying had even reached the eighth rank!

The Fox Lady Qing Ling had finally become a legend.

Meng Ying was already a very powerful legend, but she had yet to reach the contact/rule rank.

The Eldest Princess was the same.

In other words, the current Flame Empire had three legendary existences.

Other than the legends, there were also the Dwarf Queen and Winnie of the tiger race.

The seventh rank appeared continuously.

It could be said that the Holy Flame Empire was already extremely powerful!

It could completely crush the Purple Gold Empire!

However, just as Qing Ling and Meng Ying were about to launch a war against the Purple Gold Empire, an unexpected visitor arrived at the Holy Flame Empire.

The visitor was an envoy sent by the Eternal Night Empire.

What he sent out was an invitation letter from the Eternal Night Empire!

Chapter 313: Millennium Birthday! A month of conquest!

The emissary of the Eternal Night Empire originally brought three letters of invitation.

These three invitations were sent to the three Grand Dukes, the kings of the three Human kingdoms, the Xi Ling Kingdom, the Horton Kingdom, and the Kingdom of Hun River Principality!

The kings of these three kingdoms were all Duke of the Eternal Night Empire and inherited from generation to generation.

The title of Viscount could be inherited!

There were quite a few such Human kingdoms around the empire.

There were many Human kingdoms around each empire.

However, it was only when the emissaries of the Eternal Night Empire arrived above the territory of the Flame Empire that they learned from the winged men guarding the border and the human warriors on the flying ship that the three Human kingdoms to the east of the Eternal Night Empire had been unified!

This shocked the emissary of the Eternal Night Empire quite a bit.

Right now, the trade between the Holy Flame Empire and the Eternal Night Empire was still going on in the three provinces on the border of the Eternal Night Empire. When the Eldest Princess had gone to those three provinces to obtain trade orders, the Flame Empire had not been established either.

Therefore, the news of the establishment of the Flame Empire had yet to reach the capital of the Eternal Night Empire.

Although surprised, the messenger of the Eternal Night Empire handed one of the invitation letters.

The contents of these three invitations were the same. The Emissary of the Eternal Night Empire handed over the invitation letter that was originally intended for the Xi Ling Kingdom, and the letter was signed by Grand Duke Xi Ling.

The title belonged to Princess Luo Ying.

“Since the three countries have been unified, I will submit a new invitation letter to the Royal Family.”

As they left, the emissary of the Eternal Night Empire said.

After the emissary left, Meng Ying opened the invitation letter.

They then understood why the Eternal Night Empire had sent out the invitation this time.

In a month, it would be the Eternal Night Emperor’s 1000th birthday, so the Eternal Night Empire invited all the surrounding Human kingdoms to participate in the celebration.

The Eternal Night Empire had invited many other empires.

This time, it was a grand event for the Eternal Night Empire.

“The Emperor of the Eternal Night Empire is a thousand years old. Eldest Princess, do you know the Emperor of the Eternal Night Empire?”

After reading the invitation letter, Meng Ying asked the Eldest Princess.

The Eldest Princess shook her head and said, “The Emperor of the Eternal Night Empire rarely appears in public. Many people in the empire don’t even know whether the Emperor is a man or a woman, but there’s one thing for sure: the Emperor of the Eternal Night Empire must be a legend or even a saint domain.”

The lifespan of humans was not like that of Elves.

No matter how weak an elf was, they would live for thousands of years.

Strong elves could live longer.

However, humans could not live beyond a thousand years.

As one of the top ten empires in the Continent of Gods, the Emperor’s strength shouldn’t be weak.

“How long will it take from here to the imperial city of the Eternal Night Empire?”

Meng Ying asked again.

The Eldest Princess said, “The imperial city of the Eternal Night Empire is closer to the eastern border. It will take about a day and a half to take the fastest flying ship.”

A day and a half!

Currently, the fastest flying ship in the Holy Flame Empire could fly at least 600 to 700 kilometers in an hour. It could fly at least 20,000 kilometers in a day and a half.

But in a day and a half, it could only go from the eastern border of the Eternal Night Empire to the imperial city!

The size of the Eternal Night Empire was indeed huge!

It was at least ten times that of the current Holy Flame Empire!

Compared to the three Demon Dynasties in the Behemoths Abyss, they were not far off.

The land on the Continent of God was much more valuable than the land in the Abyss.

In the Continent of Gods, more land meant more population and more resources. Only then would such a country be stronger!

No wonder the Eternal Night Empire could become one of the top ten empires in the Continent of Gods!

“Eldest Princess, do you think we need to attend the celebration?”

Meng Ying asked again.

The Eldest Princess thought for a moment and said, “The Eternal Night Empire has invited a large number of kings and emperors this time. I feel that the Queen needs to participate so that she can better understand the situation on the continent.”

Meng Ying and Qing Ling looked at each other, then nodded and said:

“Alright, since we only need a day and a half, we’ll set off in the last two days. That should be enough time. There’s less than a month left, Holy Maiden. We’ll have enough time to take down the three Human kingdoms and the Purple Gold Empire.”

Qing Ling nodded and said, “Yes! Meng Ying, how can I call you?”

Meng Ying stood up and said, “The three of us will go to war. Luo Ying and Ivy will be stationed in the Imperial City and Miracle City respectively. Let’s move out tonight. Send the army over first. When they start fighting, we will split into three groups and conquer the three Human kingdoms.”

After being strong, they had confidence.

The three Human kingdoms were on par with the previous Xi Ling Kingdom.

Although the area was large, the population was about the same, and the strength in all aspects was also similar.

Every Human kingdom could gather 6 to 7 million soldiers. However, the quality of the million soldiers was not the same as the current Holy Flame Empire. A legendary existence leading two to three hundred thousand soldiers of the Flame Empire was enough to crush them.

As for the gods behind the three human kingdoms, they were even less worried.

Their backing was the great Lord of Flame.

After making the plan, the Holy Flame Empire began to operate at full speed.

The first step was to use the airship to transport the army.

In the City of Miracle, more than two hundred flying ships rose into the air, heading towards the new capital of the Holy Flame Empire.

There, the million-strong army was already waiting for them.

At the speed of the flying ship, it appeared over the new capital of the Flame Empire more than an hour later

More than two hundred flying ships could transport over half a million troops at once.

With the speed of the flying ship, it would only take more than ten hours to cross the Endless Desert.

A round trip would only take 20 hours, less than a day.

This way, in less than two days, they would be able to transport a million troops!

As for the military grain, there was no need to worry!

The magic bags were still rare, and the Holy Flame Empire could not do the same as the Elven Empire. Every Elf had a magic bag, but Meng Ying and Qing Ling had made a large number of magic bags, which contained a large number of cooked potatoes.

In the Flame Empire, the staple food for the commoners was potato and rice, and they could eat meat regularly.

Life was many times better than before.

However, in a war, there was no need to care about nutrition. To be able to replenish energy was the most important thing.

Therefore, the military food Meng Ying and Qing Ling brought was cooked potatoes.

The potatoes were very convenient. After they were cooked, as long as they were preserved by magic, they could be eaten directly without having to be heated.

Most of the millions of soldiers were above the first rank, so eating potatoes would not be a big problem.

When fighting on the front lines, the flying ship could also return to the back to transport some high-nutrition military food, such as milk and meat products, to protect the fitness of high-ranking soldiers!

Five hundred thousand troops boarded the ship one after another.

Of course, there were still hundreds of thousands of troops stationed in the kingdom.

“Holy Maiden, the Eldest Princess and I will go first. Follow the next wave of soldiers.”

Meng Ying said to Qing Ling.

“Alright, Meng Ying, have a safe journey!”

Qing Ling nodded.

More than two hundred flying ships equipped with more than half a million troops began to take off.

The first time Meng Ying and the Eldest Princess were in charge, and when the flying ship arrived near the three Human kingdoms, it just so happened that the Meng Ying Sect had already cleared their surroundings. There was no possibility of being discovered.

More than ten hours later, more than two hundred flying ships arrived at the desert behind the three Human kingdoms.

After the 500 thousand elite troops disembarked from the ship, the 200 plus airships rose into the air again and flew towards the Holy Flame Empire.

The soldiers who arrived first took out thick clothes. The temperature in the desert was not high.

They were going to spend the night there!

Less than a day later, when night fell, more than 200 flying ships came over again.

They brought the remaining troops.

At this point, when the three Human kingdoms and the princes of the Purple Gold Empire were facing each other, neither the three human kingdoms nor the people of the Purple Gold Empire thought that a million soldiers of the Flame?Empire had already crossed the Endless Desert and appeared behind the three Human kingdoms!

The one-month conquest plan officially began!

Chapter 314: Airborne army! Straight to the core!

“Report, your Highness the third prince, the Silver sand Fortress is twenty miles ahead.”

In front of the advancing army, a spy came to report.

This army was not from the Holy Flame Empire but the Purple Gold Empire.

“These guys will hide in the fortress and order the vanguard to launch an attack. We have to hurry; we can’t let Old Four take the lead.”

The third prince of the Purple Gold Empire said.

In this battle for the throne of the Purple Gold Empire, the Purple?Gold Empire had three princes, four princes, and six princes.

The three Human kingdoms at the edge of the Endless Desert were similar in strength, so the three princes each attacked the?Human Kingdom. Whoever fought first would inherit the throne.

The reason why the preparations had taken so long was that the main force of the Purple Gold Empire would not move, and the Church’s army would not move either. This time, it was the three Princes who prepared their army, cooperating with the noble’s army to attack.

Whoever got more support from the nobles would have a larger army.

The Church would also send out strong people to guard it, but the Church's strong people were evenly distributed among the three Princes, and no one was biased.

In addition, the Church would not send out too many strong espies. They were basically on par with the number and strength of the three Human kingdoms and could contain the high-end combat strength of the three Human kingdoms.

It was the armies of the three Princes that would decide this!

Through this method, they would be able to determine the candidate for the throne.

At present, the Third Prince and the Fourth Prince had the same number of nobles. The Sixth Prince was slightly behind.

The three Human kingdoms, facing the attack of the three princes of the Purple Gold Empire, took the same strategy.

That was to rely on a large number of fortresses for layer by layer defense.

These fortresses were blessed by the gods and could even defend against legendary magic.

The Third Prince of the Purple Gold Empire was in charge of the Silver Sand Kingdom in the middle. The Silver Sand Fortress was the first fortress he wanted to conquer!

Under the orders of the Third Prince, a large number of siege weapons were pulled over. His army launched a strong attack on the Silver Sand Fortress.

Following that, the other two Princes also launched attacks on the two Human kingdoms.

The three Human kingdoms on the edge of the Endless Desert fell into war at the same time.

To these three Human kingdoms, this war was a battle of life and death. Once they were defeated, the treatment of the commoners would not change much. However, the Royal Family and the nobles would suffer a hundred percent, let alone the Church!

Therefore, the three Human kingdoms, be it the Church, the Royal Family, or the nobles, all used all their strength to resist!

Every Human kingdom's army was exceptionally large, almost over a million.

Of course, the quality of these troops was no better than the millions of troops of the Xi Ling Kingdom.

Almost all the upper echelons and nobles of the three Human kingdoms had gone to the frontlines to supervise the battle. There were at most a few city guards in the kingdom!

To them, the Endless Desert that was thousands of kilometers wide was the best barrier. Their enemies would only come from one direction.

However, they never would have thought that the direction where the enemy was the least likely to come, the enemy had already successfully landed!

"Holy Maiden, you are in charge of the farthest of the Blessed?Sea Kingdom. Eldest Princess, you are in charge of the Kingdom of Garland West. Leave the Silver Sand Kingdom in the middle to me."

In the Endless Desert, Meng Ying made a plan.

Qing Ling and the Eldest Princess nodded at the same time.

The army had already been allocated.

Qing Ling and the Eldest Princess each brought 250,000 troops.

Fox Lady?Qing Ling led 500,000 troops.

However, Meng Ying's half a million troops were almost all human soldiers, not a single orc soldier.

The reason for this distribution was to facilitate the transport of troops.

The Silver Sand Kingdom was the closest, while the Blessed Sea Kingdom and Garland West were far away.

As for the army led by Qing Ling and Eldest Princess, they split the airship into two batches, which could be directly transported to the Blessed Sea?and Garland West Kingdom's imperial city in one go, and a sudden attack!

After the flying ship finished transporting the army led by Qing Ling and the Eldest Princess, it could quickly return and transport Meng Ying's army!

The three Human kingdoms didn't have many defensive measures in the Endless Desert.

Now that the entire kingdom?was fighting against the Purple Gold Empire, there were no patrols!

Even if there were defensive measures, it was useless. The flying ship could bypass their Fortress!

It could be said that in the Continent of God, other than the top empires and small empires, there was probably no other empire that had so many flying ships like the Flame Empire!

The construction of the flying ships was not easy. For example, the Purple Gold Empire had no more than fifty flying ships in the kingdom. They were all small flying ships scattered in the hands of the nobles.

"Report, Your Excellency, according to the magic message sent by the spy, the Purple Gold Empire, and the three kingdoms are at war."

A winged female sent a messenger to report.

Meng Ying did very little intelligence work. Not only did she send out a large number of spies, but there were also a large number of winged men in the sky.

It could be said that she knew the situation like the back of her hand!

"The time is right, attack!"

Meng Ying immediately gave the order.

The three legendary existences were separated.

Qing Ling and the Eldest Princess each brought 250,000 troops to the Blessed Sea Kingdom and the Garland West Kingdom.

The territories of the three human kingdoms were relatively vast, but with the speed of the flying ship, in just over two hours, the Eldest Princess's army was the first to arrive above the Royal City of the Garland West Kingdom.

"How is the battle on the front line?"

In the Royal City of the Garland West Kingdom, the King would pursue the battle situation at the front lines every once in a while.

"Reporting to the King, our army is fighting the Sixth Prince's army in the fortress. It is still in a stalemate." A messenger said...

"That's good. By the way, send a letter to Silver Sands and the King of Ocean to ask about the battle."

The King of the Garland West Kingdom said.

The three Human kingdoms had been working together to resist the Purple Gold Empire. They knew the truth of the death, so they were concerned about each other's situation.

"Yes, King."

The messenger went down.

The King of Garland?could not sit still at all. He swirled around the palace.

After half a day, King Galancy's eyelids suddenly twitched, and his heart inexplicably became agitated.

"Strange, why are your eyelids so twitching? Could something big have happened?"

The King of Garland?thought.

He could no longer sit still, so he left the palace and went to the transmission office responsible for sending and receiving magic letters. He asked:

"How is the battle on the front line?"

The messenger was speechless. He had only reported to the King a few minutes ago.

But when the King asked, he had no choice but to answer. The messenger had no choice but to say, "Reporting to the King, the frontline is still in a stalemate."

"That's good."

King Garance let out a sigh of relief.

However, he still felt suffocated, so he left the room and went to the small square outside the palace.

"The sun is pretty good today."

The King of Garland?thought.

At this moment, he saw many shadows on the ground in front of him.

The shadows were like ships.

“Huh, where did the shadow come from?”

King Garland could not help but feel strange.

There were many shadows, and more and more. Soon, these shadows covered the sun above the palace.

“King... King, look!”

A bodyguard’s voice was heard.

King Garland looked up.

Then, his eyes narrowed!

Because he saw that the sky above the palace was already filled with flying ships!

Chapter 315: Heavenly Armaments! Sit on the mountain and watch the tiger fight!

It would not take much effort to take down the Royal City of Garland West.

In the entire Garland Kingdom, there were only ten to twenty thousand defense troops left. There was not even a single high-ranked magister, and all the high-ranked combat strength was sent to the front lines.

Of course, the strength of King Garland was not weak, and there was also a sixth-ranked magister in the Church, but there was no resistance in the face of the legendary Eldest Princess and her army.

The Eldest Princess directly dropped 250,000 troops into the Royal City and instantly controlled the whole Royal City.

The ten to twenty thousand guards of the Royal City of Garland could not withstand a single blow!

Be it the citizens of the Royal City or the king, they were all dumbfounded.

The army of the Holy Flame Empire was like a Divine soldier descending from the sky. It made many people dizzy. They had no idea where this army came from!

However, they did not need to know where the army of the Holy Flame Empire came from. They only needed to know that the Royal City of the Garland West Kingdom had fallen.

Following that, the Eldest Princess destroyed the Church’s headquarters with thunderous methods, clearing out the Church’s people!

The Church still had a certain amount of time to react. After many members of the Church prayed to the gods of the Garland West Kingdom, the gods of the Garland West Kingdom were enraged and the Light of God’s Punishment descended.

However, the God of the Garland West Kingdom was at the same rank as the God of the Xi Ling Kingdom. After his Divine punishment was weakened by the barrier of the Heavenly Realm, the Eldest Princess, as a legendary existence, did not need to pray for the power of the Lord of Flame to block it.

After the Eldest Princess occupied the Royal City, she was not in a hurry to go to the front lines to fight with the army of the Garland West Kingdom.

The army of the Garland West Kingdom was still engaged in a fierce battle with the army of the Purple Gold Empire, and the Eldest Princess was not prepared to get involved now.

They had already made up their minds.

The Eldest Princess's first step was to eliminate the Church.

The second step was to control the Royal Family.

The King of the Garland Kingdom was stunned by the army of the Holy Flame Empire. After seeing that even the Divine Punishment could not do anything to the Eldest Princess, the King immediately expressed his submission.

After submitting, it would be easy.

The King of the Garland West Kingdom announced his abdication as soon as possible. From now on, the Garland West Kingdom would become one of the provinces of the Holy Flame Empire, the Garland West Province!

The Governor of Garland West Province was temporarily led by the Eldest Princess.

Following that, the Eldest Princess issued a few decrees in the name of the Governor of Garland West Province.

Some of these laws were aimed at nobles and some at civilians.

What targeted the civilians was the killing weapon, the reclamation order!

As soon as the reclamation order was released, after the Winged People's air-dropped propaganda, as expected, the commoners of the Garland West Kingdom's mind instantly turned to the Holy Flame Empire.

There were also preferential measures for the nobles.

The Eldest Princess' actions were completed in just a few days.

At the same time, the Fox Lady Qing Ling's movements weren't slow either. It used the same strategy.

Meng Ying was a little slower, but not too slow!

Directly parachute the Royal City, control the Royal City, and control the heart of the whole kingdom.

Controlling the Royal City, clearing out the Church, controlling the Royal Family, issuing decrees, and air-dropping propaganda. This combination of fists came down, and it was a dazzling sight.

But the effect was quite good.

The civilians of the three kingdoms almost all leaned towards the Holy Flame Empire.

Their original faith might be pious, but in front of land that could feed them and lead a good life, believing in the Lord of Flame seemed to be a better choice.

Faith was just like that.

A God that could not bring benefits to others, how could others believe in them?

Of course, the key to the problem still lies not in the Royal City, nor those decrees, but in whether the fist of the Holy Flame Empire was big enough.

The three Human kingdoms still had a large number of troops on the front lines. Now, the Holy Flame Empire had launched a sneak attack. Once the Holy Flame Empire lost the next battle, it would be nothing more than a mirror!

But Meng Ying, Qing Ling, and the others were able to use this technique quickly.

Not only could it win the hearts of the three Human kingdoms in advance, but it was also equivalent to putting the work of stabilization ahead of schedule.

The bigger effect was not here yet.....

“Not good, the imperial city sent a message; our Imperial city has been attacked!”

At the front lines of the three Human kingdoms, the higher-ups of the three Human kingdoms received news from the Imperial city.

However, this information was not clear. They did not even know who had attacked them, how many people there were, and how strong they were.

There was no other way. Whether it was the Eldest Princess, Meng Ying, or Qing Ling, their movements were all quite fast.

Airdrop the army, occupy the palace, destroy the Church’s headquarters, and eliminate the Church’s personnel. It would not even take a few hours to complete this plan.

Who knew how many people there were in the Holy Flame Empire?

The armies of the three Human kingdoms were in a dilemma.

Because the three princes of the Purple Gold Empire attacked fiercely, they were still fighting against it!

If they were to retreat to the Royal City now, the three Princes’ army would chase after them. Needless to say, it would lead to a great defeat.

“My God has sent down the Oracle. My God will send down his power to help us defeat the army of the Purple Gold Empire, and then we will rush to the Royal City!”

The gods of the three Human kingdoms had issued the Oracle!

Following that, the three Human kingdoms began to fight back crazily.

“How did they become so fierce?”

The three Princes of the Purple Gold Empire were surprised.

The Purple Gold Empire was indeed strong. Its territory was even larger than the Holy Flame Empire, and the quality of the soldiers was also generally higher.

However, the most elite Royal Army of the Purple Gold Empire did not move, and the Church did not send many troops.

The three princes were all their armies. They were stronger than the three Human kingdoms, but they had not yet been crushed.

Therefore, the counterattack of the Purple Gold Empire had some effect.

Then, to defeat the three princes as soon as possible, the three gods of the Human kingdom also repeatedly surrendered their strength and fought against the Purple Gold Empire!

The battle at the frontline was extremely intense.

For the three Human kingdoms, they had to fight back against the three princes of the Purple Gold Empire. Otherwise, once they were attacked, their army would be wiped out.

That was why they fought so hard.

In such an intense battle, both sides suffered huge losses.

In the Royal Cities of the three human kingdoms, the Fox Lady Qing Ling, the young girl Meng Ying, and the Eldest Princess were leisurely issuing orders, watching the tiger fight!

This was the power of this move that they had discussed!

Let the three Human kingdoms, as well as the gods behind them, consume the power of the Purple Gold Empire.

And they were not idle.

What they were doing now was equivalent to stabilizing the three Human kingdoms.

Therefore, he did not waste time.

Wait a few more days. When the frontlines were almost finished, we could reap the benefits!

Chapter 316: Plan to move! Angst's predicament!

“These guys are crazy, Rupert. How's Old Three and Old Four?”

At the frontline of the Garland West Kingdom, the Sixth Prince spoke with a displeased expression.

The army of the Garland West Kingdom seemed to have gone mad, attacking them crazily.

The Sixth Prince was weak, but his mother's family gave him a lot of support.

This allowed the Sixth Prince to arm an elite army of over two hundred thousand. In addition, many big nobles were supporting him.

The nobles who supported him sent more than 600,000 troops.

This time, the nobles were using their methods to stand in line.

The nobles in the right position would benefit a lot after the prince he supported became the emperor.

Even though the lives of the nobles who stood in the wrong position would not be in danger, they would be suppressed in the future.

The title of nobility was hereditary. Even the emperor couldn't deprive the title of nobility at will without the opponent making a big mistake.

And this time, the nobles in the Royal City supported the prince who they thought had potential. It was the rule of the game, and it was not a mistake.

But once a prince became the emperor, he would suppress the nobles who did not support him and support the nobles who supported him!

Therefore, once the nobles of the Purple Gold Empire chose their supporters, they would use all their strength to arm the army and support the Prince.

“Reporting to His Highness Prince, the situation of His Highness the Third Prince and the Fourth Prince is not optimistic either. The Silver Sand Kingdom and the Blessed Sea Kingdom’s counterattacks are equally fierce, and their losses are huge.” The Sixth Prince’s subordinates said.

“Immediately write to Old Three and Old Four and ask for help from the Church. Otherwise, if we continue fighting like this, even if we can fight, half of our people will die.” The Sixth Prince continued.

At the suggestion of the Sixth Prince, the three Princes joined forces to seek help from the Church.

“These three bastards, with so many nobles supporting them, won’t be able to defeat three kingdoms.”

After receiving the request for help from the three princes, the Archbishop of the Church couldn’t help but curse.

“Son of Saint, should we send troops to support them?”

After the archbishop finished scolding, he asked the Holy Son of the Purple Gold Empire Church.

The Holy Son of the Church stopped meditating and said indifferently, “Send sixty thousand Temple Knights to support them. Each of them will fight for another ten days. If they can’t fight, the Royal Family and the Church’s army will attack and take down those three kingdoms. God will decide who will be the emperor.”

The Archbishop said, “Yes.”

The Holy Son of the Church continued, “After taking down the three Human kingdoms, send people to explore the southwest side of the Endless Desert. My God has completed his promotion, it’s time to expand.”

The Archbishop said, “Yes!”

The Holy Son of the Church pondered for a moment and asked, “Is there still no news of that faction with the flame symbol?”

The Archbishop said, “No, that force seems to be the latest to appear, and it hasn’t made any major moves. Those intelligence forces haven’t recorded their information yet.”

The eyes of the Holy Son of the Church turned gloomy. “Keep searching, don’t let me find them!”

The Holy Son of the Church did not know that the faction with the flame symbol had already taken the Purple Gold Empire as their target and was preparing to speak! In the Royal City of the three kingdoms, Qing Ling, Meng Ying, and the Eldest Princess remained silent.

However, the situation at the front lines of the three kingdoms had already been fed back through spies.

Qing Ling, Meng Ying, and the Eldest Princess also kept in touch.

They were not idle. They were reorganizing the armies of the three kingdoms.

Under their prayers, the Lord of Flame sent down a miracle. In just a few days, he had already harvested a group of believers.

Following that, they armed a portion of their followers to maintain order in the Imperial city.

In addition, more than two hundred flying ships returned to the Flame Empire, bringing hundreds of thousands of troops.

The hundreds of thousands of troops did not have a million elite troops.

Whether in terms of physical fitness or equipment, they were far inferior to the one million soldiers.

But when they led the army to attack the Purple Gold Empire, it was enough to defend the three kingdoms.

“The Purple Gold Empire sent out the Temple Knights of God to participate in the battle. There was also a large-scale movement of troops in the Purple Gold Empire. We will wait a few days.” On this day, the winged man in the sky noticed the movement of the Purple Gold Empire.

The Holy Maiden?Meng Ying immediately made a decision.

As the saying goes, make plans and move backward!

Every step of the Holy Maiden’s?dream was accompanied by careful consideration.

Now they were in no rush.

What was?urgent were the three kingdoms.

There were also the three Princes who had suffered unspeakably from the crazy attacks of the three kingdoms!

The battle on the ground was lively, and the battle in the abyss was even livelier.

Only the Dark Abyss did not make much of a move.

Dark creatures were different from Abyssal creatures.

They didn’t seem to like fighting like the Abyssal creatures.

Of course, there were many battles between dark creatures. Dark Abyss was also a dangerous place for dark creatures, but compared to the Abyss, Dark Abyss was much calmer.

In the Dark Abyss filled with darkness, a terrifying aura rushed through the strange rocks.

Wherever this terrifying aura passed by, all the dark creatures were trembling in fear!

This was Angst.

The Dark Abyss was too big. She still could not find the exit, nor did she find the Dark Elf.

Angstrom realized that if she continued searching like this, she might never find an exit. As for the Dark Elves, who knew where they would hide in such a large Dark Abyss?

Angst did not hide her aura, but she slightly weakened her aura. She hoped that her aura could attract some relatively powerful existences and then use them to obtain some useful information.

After all, her understanding of the Dark Abyss was far less than the dark creatures themselves.

However, the weak dark creatures would not know too much.

As she continued to move forward, Angst did not notice that the environment in an area in front of her had quietly changed.

There seemed to be a net waiting for Angst to enter.

As expected, Angst slipped in.

The moment she entered, the surrounding environment changed.

Looking around, it was still the Dark Abyss. The endless space, the strange stones in the air, did not look any different.

However, from the perspective of a saint, the surroundings had changed.

This place had become a cage.

This cage was enough to lock Angst inside.

“Domain.”

Angst said to herself.

Whoosh!

Suddenly, a black shadow rushed towards Angst with extreme speed.

Angst, who seemed to have noticed nothing, suddenly reached out and slapped in the air.

“Pa!”

The black shadow was directly scattered.

“The taste of the Holy Land. I haven’t eaten the Holy Land for a long time. If I eat you, my rules will be more perfect”

A sinister voice sounded.

Angst stood there, seemingly sensing something.

“Go ahead and capture her. You’re already in my domain. It’s your fault that you don’t know the rules of the Dark Abyss. As a saint, you don’t hide your aura.”

The sinister voice continued.

Angst finally raised her head.

She could not see the dark creature in her vision.

For the Sanctuary, the domain was a powerful auxiliary means of combat. This was a battlefield that the Sanctuary used its own rules to construct for itself.

That was equivalent to her?home ground.

Yes, it was just an auxiliary combat technique, but it was very powerful.

In the domain, the dark creature had appeared and disappeared. Angst found it difficult to discover it.

However, she did not need to find out.

On Angst's body, dark energy surged, and she gently patted him.

"Click"

The surrounding space shattered like glass.

"How is that possible? My domain..."

Before the sinister voice could finish, Angst grabbed it.

Angst did not say anything more to it or explain anything. She simply pinched the dark creature that had reached the Sanctuary rank?until it was on the verge of death.

The second stage of Sanctuary's power was not ordinary. It was an existence that could kill the first stage of Sanctuary!

Even if he activated his domain, it was useless!

Angst threw the dark creature to the ground and asked carefully.

A few minutes later, Angst was once again disappointed.

Even this Sanctuary-ranked?dark creature did not know the exit of the Dark Abyss.

Angst stretched out her?hand. On her finger, dark energy was constantly surging.

Not long after, she found the key to this dark creature becoming a Sanctuary.

That was the dark rule she?had comprehended.

As long as she devoured this newly ascended Sanctuary-ranked?dark creature, Angst would be able to take its power and dark rules as existing.

This was the shortcut for dark creatures!

Human Sanctuary and Sanctuary?could not do this.

At most, humans in Sanctuary could only think about the Divine incarnation.

But dark creatures could. As long as they swallowed other Sanctuary, they could quickly become stronger.

Angst looked at the dark rules that seemed to be beating as if there was incomparably delicious food there.

That was indeed delicious.

As long as she ate it, her strength would skyrocket.

However, Angst would also fall deeper into the darkness.

Therefore, Angst looked away.

She endured the temptation.

However, Angst's predicament was not resolved at all.

Chapter 317: Was powerful beyond control! Angst's words!

Angstrom continued searching in the Dark Abyss.

One day later, her eyebrows wrinkled slightly.

The reason was very simple.

Angst felt her strength rise again!

That's right, after arriving at the Dark Abyss, Angst's power continued to rise.

In the past thousand years, with Angst's talent, she could reach a higher rank.

But she did not. She took the initiative to suppress her own realm.

Because once Angst became deeper and deeper in the darkness, the surface of light in her heart would become less and less.

However, ever since she arrived at the Dark Abyss, even if darkness was suppressing her, it could no longer suppress her.

In the Dark Abyss, there were dark rules everywhere.

As a second-ranked Saint Realm expert, Angst would be able to obtain some secrets of the rules even with a simple glance.

Moreover, as a Fallen Elf that was tainted by the dark aura, Angst's body was constantly surging with dark energy. That Dark Elf was right. From the surface, she looked more like a dark creature than a Dark Elf.

Every cell in her body was craving for dark energy. And in a dark place like the Dark Abyss, even if Angst forced her to sleep, she would not be able to stop her power from increasing.

On the contrary, because she had suppressed herself for too long, she was now rebounding.

The result of this backlash was that Angst could not help but grow stronger day by day!

If this continued, it would not be good!

Everyone wanted to become stronger, but Angst did not want to become stronger!

According to Angst's estimation, even if she tried her best to suppress it, she would be able to reach the peak of the second stage of Saint Realm in a hundred days.

It was very likely that she would directly breakthrough to the third stage of the Saint Realm.

Once she reached the third stage of the Sanctuary, under the attack of the dark powers, Angst could not guarantee that she would be able to hold on to her heart.

However, Angst could not find the exit of the Dark Abyss in a short period.

Angst stopped.

In front of her, a huge stone appeared.

This stone was over a hundred kilometers long, even bigger than a mountain!

The inside of this stone was empty, with a large number of passages.

In Angst's senses, the same dark creature lived in this stone.

These dark creatures didn't have any physical bodies. They were born from the darkness and disappeared without a trace. If they came to the Continent of Gods, they would be authentic ghosts or evil spirits.

Angst pondered for a moment and attacked the huge stone with her dark power.

She also knew a lot of powerful dark magic. Under the attack of this powerful dark magic, the huge stone was constantly shattered and destroyed.

The evil spirits inside didn't even have time to react before they all turned to ashes.

Under Angst's unreserved attack, the stone, which was many times larger than a mountain, shattered into powder in just an hour.

Angst exhaled lightly.

Then she continued to attack, continuously destroying the surrounding stones.

That's right, if she was unable to stop the increase in strength, then she would have to exhaust her strength.

After half a day, Angst finally felt that she had exhausted all the energy in her body.

But very quickly, Angst's expression changed.

Because she could feel that her understanding of the dark rules was rising as she continued to attack.

And in the Dark Abyss Prison, her recovery speed was unimaginable.

In other words, her half day's work had been in vain. It was only a reaction!

Angst's eyebrows frowned slightly.

As a beautiful Elf, her looks were naturally one of the best. Compared to Chen Xi, she was not much inferior. Her frowning movements had an exceptionally beautiful appearance.

After some thought, a name jumped into her heart.

That name was.

Lord of Flame.

"Perhaps, I can try asking the Lord of Flame for help."

Angst thought.

The Fallen Elves had already contributed their faith to the Lord of Flame. As a Saint, Angst was not that easy to give up her faith.

She was very close to the realm of God.

“I wonder if the Lord of Flame will respond to me.”

Angst thought again.

Then, she began to pray.

When she was praying, her mood fluctuated slightly.

Even though she did not know if the Lord of Flame would respond, Angst slowly turned to the Lord of Flame for the confusion she had encountered.

This was the first time she had revealed her heart to anyone other than herself.

More than a thousand years ago, when Angst was not a Fallen Elf, she often exchanged thoughts with Ophelia.

But ever since she had become a Fallen Elf, no one had been able to open her heart for a thousand years.

Even the Fallen Elves under her would not know what Angst was thinking when she was silent.

Much confusion had been hidden in Angst's heart for thousands of years.

That was why Angst felt like she couldn't stop her heart.

She said this for several hours.

Slowly, Angst sank into her memories.

It even told her about how she had fallen out with Ophelia a thousand years ago!

A thousand years ago, when Angst was cultivating the Dark Forest, she discovered a crack in the west of the Dark Forest.

Within that crack, powerful dark creatures kept rushing out.

Angst and Ophelia stood guard in the west, stopping the powerful dark creatures from entering the east.

However, as time passed, the dark creatures that rushed out became more and more powerful. The dark creatures that had half a foot into the Sanctuary using the dark rules even injured Ophelia.

It was precisely because of the Dark Rules that Ophelia had been injured for only a thousand years.

Angst and Ophelia also began to disagree.

In Angst's opinion, fighting these dark creatures in the Dark Forest was too much of a loss.

To solve the darkness, one must understand the darkness.

Therefore, she took the initiative to fuse with the darkness.

After Angst chose to understand the darkness and was known by Ophelia, Ophelia, as the Queen of Light, represented the existence of the ultimate light, so naturally, she could not tolerate it.

Ophelia believed that Angst had fallen for her lust for power.

The Goddess of Light was also extremely angry, and no longer favored Angst.

When Ophelia, who was heavily injured at that time, was flustered, she even announced that Angst had been expelled from the Elves.

Angstrom left silently. For a thousand years, she had never responded to Ophelia's contact.

Over the past thousand years, she had gathered a large number of Fallen Elves and was constantly studying the dark rules above the huge crack, becoming more and more powerful.....

She finally blocked the dark creatures that kept rushing out of the crack.

The Elves of the Rocky Forest would not know that they were able to enjoy the peaceful life of time because Angst was carrying the burden for them.

Of course, there were more and more cracks. After the weaker dark creatures that rushed out from the other cracks occupied the Dark Forest, they slowly became stronger.

The Skeleton Monster was an example.

However, these dark creatures were at home in the Dark Forest. As long as others did not invade their territories, they would not attack others.

That was why Angst would not care about them. The Dark Forest was so big, so she could not completely control it.

Several hours had already passed since her memories had finished.

This was the first time Angst had revealed these secrets.

Angst suddenly felt much more relaxed.

These secrets had been hidden in her heart for over a thousand years.

Now, she finally found a chance to talk.

Even though the Lord of Flame probably didn't listen to her, as long as she spoke, her entire person would be much more relaxed.

"Will the Lord of Flame respond to me?"

She couldn't help but look forward to it and became nervous again.

At this moment, she was no different from a young maiden.

It was true that before becoming a Fallen Elf, Angst was just an Elf Maiden!

At that time, she was so young. Her face was always brimming with smiles and her body was always filled with sunshine. No matter what, she was full of confidence.

Clearing the Dark Forest was her suggestion.

At that time, how young was she, but she had come up with such a bold plan!

That plan could be considered great!

She was a genius of the Elves and the most dazzling pearl of the Elves. The charm she gave off was even more charming than Ophelia.

However, ever since she took the initiative to blend into the darkness, although her face still looked so young and beautiful, her face had lost its smile.

There was also no sunlight around her body. There was only darkness so dense that it could not be dissolved!

In the past thousand years, in the first five hundred years, she had continuously studied the darkness, and her understanding of darkness had continuously deepened, using darkness to fight against darkness.

For the next five hundred years, she kept suppressing her strength to prevent her strength from increasing too quickly.

There were even many seals on her body. These seals had sealed a lot of her power.

These seals were already so many that they could no longer be increased!

After these seals were broken, her fighting strength would increase exponentially.

But she would not take the initiative to break these seals.

Regardless of whether it was humans or Elves, the increase in strength would cause a shock to their souls.

This was certain.

Just like an ordinary person, who had gone from being a pauper with nothing to being a billionaire, his mentality would change.

And power was something more fascinating than money.

Moreover, this was dark energy.

The dark energy itself was easily corroding the soul!

Angst waited quietly.

After about ten minutes, Angst's face revealed a look of joy.

Because the Lord of Flame had responded to her!

Chapter?318: Land Light and Darkness Rules! The yellow bird is behind us!

Afterward, the Lord of Flame responded.

A flame appeared in her field of vision!

Soon after, she seemed to have received a mysterious revelation! In front of her; the flame was burning very vigorously.

As the flames burned, the surrounding rocks began to melt.

“Powerful laws of flame!”

Angst thought.

Ordinary people would only feel that the temperature of the flame was extremely high when they saw this scene.

However, in Angst’s eyes, she saw something deeper.

It was something on the level of laws.

Angst looked at it seriously. She knew that since the Lord of Flame had sent a message, sending this flame must have his meaning.

The flames continued to burn, and everything around them was melting.

Following that, the flames began to change.

This change began from the very top.

The flames suddenly turned black.

Then, the black began to spread below the flames.

Angst’s eyes slowly changed.

Because she could feel the extremely dense and complete laws of darkness within this black flame!

Heavens!

Was the Lord of Flame not a God of the Heavenly Realm?

Why did he grasp at least one complete law of darkness!

At this moment, even Angst could not help but feel a short circuit in her head. She could not understand it at all!

“Could it be that the Lord of Flame is a well-disguised Abyssal Demon God?”

Angst couldn’t help but think.

She could not help but think so.

Forget about the complete laws of darkness.

The gods of the Heavenly Realm would not touch even 1% of the laws of darkness.

That was a power that was contrary to the power they possessed. No matter how much they touched it, it would cause ten times the damage to their power.

What Lord of Flame had grasped was a complete set of laws of darkness!

What did this mean?

But instinctively, Angst felt that things would not be so simple.

That was because the Lord of Flame was a Demonic God of the Abyss, then why would he do such things? In other words, Lord of Flame was evil?and chaotic Abyssal Demon God, and his actions were completely inconceivable? The angst?felt that it didn’t look like it.

She decided to continue observing.

In an extremely short amount of time, the flame completely turned black.

Angst sensed another law of darkness above the flame.

Even though this Law of Darkness was not complete, its degree of completeness had probably reached over 80%.

The fusion of the two laws of darkness caused this flame to become extremely dark. The dark aura became solid wherever it was illuminated by the burning black light!

There were even a large number of dark creatures born out of thin air.

Many dark creatures were originally the products of the extremely dense darkness aura.

But this did not end.

Following that, the third law appeared, followed by the fourth and fifth laws...

However, under the overlapping of so many laws of darkness, that black flame had already become extremely terrifying.

In Angst's senses, she probably wouldn't be able to find such a dark flame in the entire Dark Abyss!

If this flame was placed in a city among humans, it only needed a few seconds to burn, and it would make the entire city's humans fall into darkness forever, turning them into authentic dark creatures!

Angst's face grew darker and darker. This flame had reached the pinnacle of darkness.

Her heart shook repeatedly.

If the Lord of Flame was a deity of the Heavenly Realm, how could such a dark flame descend?

The feeling in her heart was getting worse and worse.

But she still did not move.

This was because she still had a trace of faith in the Lord of Flame.

She didn't know where this trace of trust came from.

Thus, Angst chose to continue watching.

With time, the dark aura produced by the burning flame was so dense that it couldn't be dissolved.

Angst's heart sank.

Finally, when her heart sank to the bottom, it changed.

A trace of pure white light shone out from the darkness that was so dense that it could not be dissolved.

This strand of pure white light seemed to have come from the deepest part of the flame. It was very weak at first, but in a brief period, it continued to grow stronger and break through the darkness.

In less than ten seconds, this flame that was still incomparably dark turned into a white Holy flame!

Amidst the white Holy flames, Angst could also feel the strong rules of light!

That was the Rule of Holy Light, and there were also several light system rules!

Angst was stunned.

That scene kept appearing in her mind!

The Holy Light rushed out from the deepest part of the black flame. In a short time, the flame from darkness to the pinnacle had turned into a Holy Flame filled with supreme light!

“The pinnacle of darkness is light!”

Angst uttered this sentence gently.

But the change was not over.

Soon, the flame changed again.

Under Angst’s perception, the rules of light and darkness coexisted and formed a new rule!

Light and dark rules!

Light and dark coexisted to form a rule!

The light could turn into darkness and darkness into light. The end of light was darkness; the end of darkness was light!

Angst was stunned again!

Light and darkness existed perfectly on the same flame.

In that flame, the light and dark rules interweaved. These two innate opposites had perfectly fused!

Angst was completely stunned.

The Lord of Flame showed her a completely different world.

It was a grand world that was filled with infinite temptation.

It was a world of light and darkness.

Angst had a feeling that as long as she comprehended the light and darkness rules, she would be like the Lord of Flame, possessing the power of both light and darkness.

At that time, she would be able to walk both in the light and the darkness!

Therefore, Angst was stunned for a very, very long time.

For a full week, Angst did not show the slightest movement.

She was still observing the flame with the rules of light and darkness.

.....

On the Continent of God, the war between the three kingdoms and the Purple Gold Empire was getting more and more intense.

As time went on, the three laws of Meng Ying and Qing Ling became more and more effective.

Among the three kings, more and more people tend to the Holy Flame Empire.

Even some nobles were tempted.

This was because the Holy Flame Empire had once again activated a killing weapon.

Potatoes!

The land area of the three kingdoms was not small. Each empire had two kingdoms, but their population was similar to the previous Xi Ling Kingdom.

The reason was that the land of the three kingdoms was poor, and many civilians would starve from time to time.

However, potatoes were not a choice of land!

As soon as the potato appeared, it was welcomed by the civilians of the three kingdoms.

First, they could reclaim the land.

After clearing the land, these civilians could still obtain high-yield crops!

These civilians were all grateful to the Lord of Flame.

They wished they could lose at the frontline and be conquered by the Holy Flame Empire. They were truly becoming one of the provinces of the Holy Flame Empire!

The nobles were also jealous.

This meant that the lands of the nobles had greater value!

The change in the direction of the wind in the kingdom caused the Church's higher-ups, who were overseeing the front lines, to panic!

If this continued, the Church's civil base would no longer exist.

Therefore, the armies of the three kingdoms simultaneously intensified their attacks!

Under the counterattack of the three kingdoms, no matter if it was the weaker Sixth Prince of the Purple Gold Empire or the stronger Third Prince and Fourth Prince, even if they received the support of 20,000 Temple Knights, they were still beaten to death.

"These three losers!"

Not far from the frontline, the Son of Saint of the Purple Gold Empire had already brought the Church and royal army here. The Church would normally not interfere with the Imperial city, lest it brings about conflict and affects stability.

Some imperial families were quite strong.

However, the old emperor of the Purple Gold Empire was dead, and the two powerful princes had died as well. Not many of the remaining princes were successful.

The power of the Church had long surpassed that of the royal family. The current royal army was temporarily managed by the Church.

"I don't know why, but this time, these three kingdoms' counterattacks were especially intense. It was as if they were going crazy."

The Archbishop of the Purple Gold Church said.

The Holy son of God of the Church asked, "Have you sent someone to the rear of the Three Kingdoms? Is there anything going on in the Three Kingdoms?"

The Archbishop shook his head and said, "We sent a lot of people, but they were all intercepted. No news came back."

The Holy Son of the Church stood up and said, "Although the three kingdoms' counterattacks were fierce, they were about to reach their limits. They sent the Church's and Royal's troops to attack and split them into three, directly destroying them."

The Archbishop said respectfully, "Yes, Lord Saint."

In the Purple Gold Church, even the power of the Archbishop could not compare to this Holy Son of the Church.

Of course, there were many Holy Sons of the Church, but this one was the most powerful.

Following that, the Purple Gold Empire's Church and the Royal Army split into three groups and joined the battlefield.

The Purple Gold Empire's Church's army was quite powerful. They had 150,000 Church troops.

These 150,000 troops of the Church were warriors above the second rank.

Previously, they had each sent 20,000 Temple Knights of God to support the three princes. This time, the 150,000 troops of the Church were divided into three groups, and 31,000 of them joined the battlefield.

And the Royal Army was 600,000!

Yes, the military system of the Purple Gold Empire was still similar to that of the Xi Ling Kingdom.

When the war arrived, they would still recruit from the nobles.

The 600,000 people of the Royal Army were already three times the size of the previous Royal Army of the King of Xi Ling Kingdom, but the equipment was much better than the previous Royal Army of the King of Xi Ling Kingdom. The individual strength of the soldiers was also much stronger!

The 600,000 troops were also divided into three groups and joined the battlefield.

The Holy Son of the Church was right.

After the Church and Royal Army joined the battlefield, the three kingdoms could not stop them.

However, the resistance of the three Human kingdoms was still fierce. They still had gods.

Both sides fought intensely, and even the Holy Son of the Church and another legend made their move.

After half a day of fighting, the three kingdoms could no longer hold on. Even their gods could not afford to be consumed. The Purple Gold Empire's gods were equivalent to one against three. The consumption was not small either.

Although the consumption was not small, the Purple Gold Empire was already in an absolute victory.

The armies of the three kingdoms began to collapse!

"The time has come!"

Meng Ying, who had received the news, said indifferently.

The mantis caught cicadas, and the Yellow finches were behind.

Now, the Holy Flame Empire was that yellow bird!

Chapter 319: Ambushes! All three wins!

“All of you chase after me. I’ll reward you with a million gold coins for the first person to ascend to the Silver Sand Kingdom!”

At the frontline of the Silver Sand Kingdom, the Fourth Prince who was in charge of attacking the Silver Sand Kingdom shouted when he saw the army of the Silver Sand Kingdom collapse!

Until now, less than half of the Fourth Prince’s army was left, and the nobles who supported him also sent less than half of the army.

The fortress tactics used by the three kingdoms were too difficult to deal with.

One fortress after another consumed a lot of the Fourth Prince’s forces.

After the Silver Sand Kingdom launched a wild counterattack, the Fourth Prince’s army suffered heavy losses.

Of course, even if the Church and the Royal Army did not join, the chance of the Fourth Prince losing was still low.

Most likely, both sides were injured.

However, after the Church and the Royal Army joined in, the battle was instantly reversed.

The current Fourth Prince did not know that the Holy Son of the Church had already decided to hand over the selection of the Emperor to God. He had thought that it would be the same as before. Whoever conquered the three kingdoms first would be able to ascend the throne.

Therefore, whether it was the Fourth Prince, the Third Prince, or the Sixth Prince, they all spent a lot of money to encourage their subordinates to pursue the armies of the three Human kingdoms.

Now that the three Human kingdoms had collapsed, occupying their Imperial city was equivalent to conquering the three kingdoms first.

After all, the capital of a kingdom was of great significance!

That was the center of the entire kingdom!

“Lord Holy Son, the three princes have led the army to chase after the armies of the three kingdoms. Do the armies of the Church and the royal family want to follow?”

The Archbishop asked.

During the battle, the Holy Son of the Church frequently attacked, fighting against the power of the God of the Silver Sand Kingdom, the consumption was not small.

At this moment, the Holy Son of the Church was meditating on a flying ship to recover his Divine energy.

Hearing this, the Holy Son of the Church said, "Send the Royal Army to follow, the Church's army can be withdrawn. Behind the three kingdoms are the Endless Desert and no other forces will interfere? Let the National Preceptor be here to guard. If anything happens, we can help. Let's go back to Imperial City. My losses are not small, I need to recover properly."

"Yes, Lord!"

The Archbishop went down to make arrangements.

Meanwhile, the Holy Son of the Church's flying ship rose into the air and flew towards the Imperial City of the Purple Gold Empire.

In the air at the command center of the front line, there was a flying ship. It was another legendary existence of the Purple Gold Empire, the Imperial Tutor's flying ship.

Up until now, the situation had been decided. Every prince's army had an eighth-ranked forbidden magister, and these forbidden magisters could also pray for the power of the gods.

The gods of the three kingdoms had consumed a great deal of energy in this battle, and they might not be willing to drop their strength again and again.

Therefore, there was no need for the Imperial Tutor of the Purple Gold Empire to attack.

The Imperial Tutor only needed to be here.

The territory of the three kingdoms was vast.

The territory of every kingdom was about twice that of the Xi Ling Kingdom.

For example, the Silver Sand Kingdom was about two thousand kilometers away from the border of the Endless Desert and the Purple Gold Empire.

The Imperial City was a thousand kilometers away from the border of the Purple Gold Empire.

There was only about a third of the army left in the Silver Sand Kingdom, and the loss of high-ranked warriors was even greater.

At this moment, the three hundred thousand soldiers would continue to flee. Behind them, the Fourth Prince's army chased after them, and behind them, two hundred thousand Royal soldiers.

The two hundred thousand Royal soldiers were here to guard the Fourth Prince.

In the midst of a great retreat, many of the forces of the Silver Sand Kingdom were caught up, and their losses continued to increase.

"Lord Bishop, the Imperial City has been occupied by another force, where are we going now?"

In the army of the Silver Sand Kingdom, a wounded general asked.

"We're not going to the Royal City; we're going to Northern Rock City. The princes of the Purple Gold Empire will go to the Royal City for the throne. The forces in the Royal City are not weak. Since they're all plotting against the Silver Sand Kingdom, let them both suffer."

The Archbishop of the Church of the Silver Sand Kingdom said.

Then, they began to change the direction of their escape.

The reason why he didn't use this method was simple.

Previously, they had a million troops. If they let the Purple Gold Empire's troops in, their million troops would be defeated.

The Purple Gold Empire would not give them a chance to retreat.

Therefore, they could only fight, and they felt that they could fight.

Right now, it was just a forced choice.

"Your Highness the Fourth Prince, the army of the Silver Sand Kingdom did not flee to the Royal City. Should we chase after them?"

The movements of the Silver Sand Kingdom's army were quickly reported to the Fourth Prince.

The Fourth Prince didn't even think about it. He said, "There's no need to chase. We'll occupy the Imperial City first."

In Wes's opinion, occupying the Imperial City was the most important thing.

As for the remaining soldiers of the Silver Sand Kingdom, they would be slowly cleaned up in the future.

Thus, the Fourth Prince led his army to rush towards the Silver Sand Kingdom.

The defeated soldiers of the other two kingdoms used the same method: not to flee to the Imperial City, but to let the army of the Purple Gold Empire pass.

The other two princes made the same decision.

That was to take the Imperial City first.

All of a sudden, the three princes started a competition!

As the overall situation had been decided, the three princes were in a hurry, and they did not even do any reconnaissance work.

In their eyes, it was time to fight for time!

As for the high-ranked magisters in the army, due to the heavy consumption in the previous battle, they were all recovering their strength in the air above the army.

Besides, the status of a high-ranked magister was noble, how could he be a scout?

Of course, they still sent a lot of scouts, but because they were marching too fast, they did not notice that their scouts did not return after reaching a certain area!

"Here they are."

When the Fourth Prince's army passed a relatively narrow valley, Meng Ying had already led her army to ambush them.

After the Fourth Prince and the imperial army of the Purple Gold Empire entered the valley, Meng Ying gave the order to attack.

The first to attack was still Meng Ying.

As a Legendary-ranked magister, Meng Ying could cast magic instantly. She immediately smashed Legendary-ranked magic and decapitated the Fourth Prince.

The Fourth Prince did not react at all, and even the Church's forbidden spell magister was captured in one fell swoop.

In addition, the other high-ranked magisters of the Church had been killed by Meng Ying.

After Meng Ying was beheaded, she used a few more powerful spells to kill all the higher-ups of the Royal Army.

Following that, 500,000 soldiers of the Holy Flame Empire rushed out from all directions and attacked the Fourth Prince and Royal Army.

A large number of arrows with explosive flames exploded in the army of the Purple Gold Empire.

“What's going on? Where did this army come from?”

The army of the Purple Gold Empire was stunned.

Due to Meng Ying's temporary action, the command of the entire army was completely in disarray. Under the attack of the Holy Flame Empire, the army immediately collapsed.

This battle did not seem like a confrontation between two empires.

It was more like torture.

The legendary rank of power launched a sneak attack, directly destroying the high-end combat strength. A large number of Church magisters did not even have time to react, let alone pray. They were already dead, how could they fight?

Even the God of the Purple Gold Empire could not react.

No God would ever keep an eye on the situation in the Continent of Gods.

God was not that free.

After being beaten dumb, many soldiers had no time to pray and were forced to fight.

A few soldiers who were prepared to pray were killed by the thousand winged warriors in the sky.

This time, Princess Meng Ying each brought a thousand winged warriors.

These winged warriors were all Divine Archers, so their attacks from above were quite powerful.

No one prayed, and even the gods could not find the right position and lower their strength.

After a battle, the Holy Flame Empire did not lose much.

The Purple Gold Empire was almost wiped out.

Of course, many surrendered.

Meng Ying still had these surrendered soldiers. She would not do such a thing. Moreover, after conquering the Purple Gold Empire, these surrendered soldiers would become the citizens of the Holy Flame Empire.

After disarming them, Meng Ying sent them to the Silver Sand Kingdom, where they would be taken care of first.

Weapons and equipment were extremely useful. These soldiers had no weapons, no equipment, and could not cause any trouble.

“Holy Maiden, how is your battle?”

Meng Ying asked the Fox Lady Qing Ling through the magic letter.

“Sister Meng Ying, it went well. We’ve already defeated the army of the Purple Gold Empire. Now we have hundreds of thousands of soldiers in our hands. We need to send some troops to guard these soldiers.”

Qing Ling said.

Meng Ying asked the Eldest Princess about the situation.

The Eldest Princess quickly responded. Her side was also going smoothly!

However, Qing Ling and the Eldest Princess were still unable to stop the soldiers from praying. The God of the Purple Gold Empire was furious, and they were able to stop them.

Even though the God of the purple gold empire might be the third-ranked God, it was still the weakest of the third-rank gods. Otherwise, the three kingdoms would not have existed for so long.

In the previous battle, the gods of the three kingdoms used three against one. Both sides consumed a lot of energy.

When the situation was settled, the power of the Purple Gold Empire was only to vent its anger.

The God of the Purple Gold Empire would preserve its power because the next war was the key!

Three ambushes, with minimal loss, captured the elite Imperial Army and the Royal Army!

Such a battle had rarely happened in the Continent of God, and it could not be replicated.

Chapter 320: Five Holy Spirits! Deity Transformation!

“Imperial Tutor, this isn’t good. The three princes’ troops have been ambushed and their entire army has been wiped out!” The Imperial Tutor who was stationed at the border of the Purple Gold Empire received the news.

“What?”

The Imperial Tutor was shocked!

Under his command, the flying ship quickly rose into the air and flew towards the nearest Silver Sand Kingdom.

He wanted to check on the situation!

At the same time, the Holy Son of the Church who had returned to the Purple Gold Empire also received the news. The Holy Son of the Church stood up in shock!

“What force did this?”

The Holy Son of the Church asked.

“Reporting to the Son of Saint, the information sent back is limited. I don’t know yet.”

The archbishop said.

The Holy Son of the Church’s face darkened. “These three kingdoms are backed by the Endless Desert and are not connected to other forces. Could it be that they came from the Endless Desert?”

The Archbishop said cautiously, “It’s possible, Lord Saint, the enemy attacked three times at the same time, and defeated the three princes’ armies at almost the same time. Our Royal Army was also captured more than half of the time. Their real intentions are probably...”

“Well!”

The Holy Son of the Church accepted the Archbishop’s words.

At this moment, he seemed to have heard something. His gloomy face suddenly became extremely pious:

“My God has sent the Oracle!”

In the Silver Sand Kingdom, the Imperial Tutor’s flying ship was flying fast.

“Stop.”

The Imperial Tutor said in a low voice.

The flying ship stopped.

“You guys wait for me here.”

The Imperial Tutor flew into the sky.

Legendary-ranked beings would naturally be faster than flying ships if they flew at full speed.

The Imperial Tutor flew to the battlefield alone, but he was cautious and did not fly too fast.

Instead, he kept using magic to explore his surroundings and fell into a trap!

The three armies of the Purple Gold Empire were all wiped out at the same time. This was no small matter.

Although there were no powerful Temple of God soldiers among the three armies, there was a Royal Army in charge. Even if the Royal Army was divided into three groups, their combat strength was not small.

Moreover, there was the Church’s Curse-forbidden Magic Magister Garrison!

But just like that, he was still annihilated by the opponent at the same time!

And the fact that the opponent dared to attack the Purple Gold Empire was enough to explain the problem!

That was because the opponent's strength was probably not weaker than the Purple Gold Empire!

His real target was probably the Purple Gold Empire!

This could not be helped by the Imperial Tutor's carelessness.

After a few minutes, the Imperial Tutor had cast a concealment spell on himself and finally approached the battlefield.

In the sky, he saw a lot of winged men flying around. He also saw the army of the Purple Gold Empire that had been disarmed and was being reorganized.

Imperial Tutor's gaze paused on the winged men.

Then, he saw a familiar symbol on the armor of the winged men!

It was a burning flame symbol!

Flames!

The Imperial Tutor's heart trembled!

This flame symbol left a deep impression on him!

A few months ago, it was the two legendary sorcerers in this flame symbol force that killed the imperial family of the Purple Gold Empire in a single strike, infuriating the old emperor. As a result, the throne of the Purple Gold Empire had yet to be settled!

The strength of the two legendary magisters left a deep impression on him. Especially that Human Maiden, her strength was far greater than his.

"Are they finally going to attack the Purple Gold Empire?" The Imperial Tutor shouted in his heart.

"But where did they come from?"

The Imperial Tutor was puzzled.

After all, the rear of the three kingdoms was a vast and Endless Desert!

Thinking of the flying ship with thousands of warriors above the Purple Gold Empire, the National Master had a bold idea:

"Could it be that in these past few months, they used flying ships to bring the army here bit by bit?"

He had guessed part of it, but not all!

The army of the Holy Flame Empire was not brought here bit by bit, but directly dropped here in two days!

At this moment, the Imperial Tutor saw a magister in a white dress flying into the sky.

“It’s her!”

The Imperial?Tutor instantly recognized Meng Ying!

Meng Ying’s strength left an indelible impression on him.

“We can’t stay any longer. If we’re discovered, we’re dead.”

The moment he thought of the possibility of being discovered by Meng Ying, the Imperial Tutor could not sit still.

She was just a Human Maiden, but in her?eyes, she was even more terrifying than a ferocious beast. The Imperial?Tutor no longer dared to step forward. He took advantage of the fact that the concealment magic had yet to fail, so he quickly flew back.

More than ten hours later, the Imperial Tutor returned to the Imperial City of the Purple Gold Empire and found the Holy Son of the Church.

“Imperial Tutor, are you saying that the one who ambushed our army is the one with the flame symbol?” The archbishop asked.

The Imperial?Tutor nodded. “I saw it with my own eyes.”

“It’s them!”

There was faint anger on the face of the Holy Son of the Church.

“Did you see those Elves?”

The Archbishop asked from the side.

The Imperial?Tutor shook his head and said, “I didn’t see the Elves.”

“So, this is human power, it should be a small empire. Strange, how did humans and Elves get involved?” The Archbishop exclaimed.

The Holy Son of the Church said, “In that case, none of the Royal Army escaped.”

The Imperial?Tutor said, “I’m afraid so, you’re Excellency.”

The face of the Holy Son of the Church darkened once again.

This time, the Purple Gold Empire suffered heavy losses.

Six hundred thousand elite Royal soldiers died captured.

The three princes who were qualified to inherit the throne all died.

The three princes also lost their armies.

In addition, the nobles who supported the three princes also had no soldiers left!

Whether they died or were captured, they had lost their combat strength.

To?support the three princes, 70% of the nobles in the Purple Gold Kingdom were willing to pay for their help. These nobles would not be able to arm a similar army in a short period!

The Purple Gold Empire was indeed strong.

This was a small empire that had developed for nearly a century.

The Purple Gold Empire had also expanded from a small kingdom.

However, the Purple Gold Empire was not like the Holy Flame Empire. After conquering a kingdom, it would recover and stabilize.

After the Purple Gold Empire conquered a kingdom, it would take at least ten years or even decades to stabilize.

They didn't have the Holy Flame Empire's weapons.

Their gods were not as generous as the Lord of Flame.

Similarly, in terms of certain concepts, they were far inferior to the Lord of Flame.

This was the normal state of the Continent of God.

Even if it was a powerful empire, it would take a few years to completely conquer a kingdom.

Fighting down was one thing.

Digestion was another matter.

Just like the Holy Flame Empire, those with such a fast digestion rate could be said to have no right to do so.

In other words, in the battle between the three kingdoms, the Purple Gold Empire lost 600,000 Royal Troops, plus two million Royal and Noble troops!

Of course, half of the troops of the two million princes and nobles were lost in the battle with the three kingdoms.

There were only 100,000 garrison troops in the Imperial City, 150,000 Church troops, and hundreds of thousands of garrison troops in the kingdom.

The fighting strength of the local garrison was worrying.

The only ones who could fight were the 150,000 troops of the Church and the 100,000 garrison troops of the Imperial City.

With this careful calculation, the few people present did not look too good.

The Imperial?Tutor hesitated for a moment before finally saying, "Master Holy Son, according to my estimation, they should be attacking us soon."

The Holy Son of the Church said, "There are still many big nobles who haven't sent out their troops. They can gather hundreds of thousands of troops and give them the armor that the Church has accumulated for many years. Then they can pay a high price to gather the Knights. We can also equip a Knight with an age?of more than 100,000."

After saying that, he turned his head and asked the Archbishop, "How's everything going?"

The archbishop said, "Reporting to the Son of Saint, we're almost ready."

The Holy Son of the Church's face relaxed slightly, "That's good, let the local guards guard the city, stall for time, we'll give them a surprise!"

Around a cathedral full of sacred aura, countless devout believers were singing praises.

In the church, waves of Holy Light kept rushing out.

Every time a Holy Light rushed out, the voices of these devout believers would become even more pious.

The Holy Son and the Archbishop of the Church had already arrived in the church, but they did not enter the core area of the church. Instead, they waited quietly outside.

In the church, one after another, the Holy Son walked into the core area.

Then, the Holy Sons walked out one after another.

The entire process lasted for three days.

When the Saints came out, the feeling they gave off had changed.

They already possessed some “Divine reserves “.

When they faced the number one Holy Son of the Church, the legendary Holy Son, their attitude was no longer as respectful as before.

And they only nodded slightly, as if they had become people of the same status!

These? Saints were no longer the former Saints!

Instead, it became another kind of thing — the Holy Spirit!

These Saints had become the vessels of the Holy Spirit.

Unless it was a critical moment, the Church would rarely do this.

After becoming a vessel, although these Holy Sons would not die and would still have control of their bodies after the Holy Spirit left, being occupied by the Holy Spirit for a long time would bring about many hidden dangers.

These hidden dangers were very likely to affect the strength of these saints.

But now, the God of the Purple Gold Empire chose this method without hesitation.

In three days, more than five Holy Spirits were coming out!

These five Holy Spirits were not weak, and two of them were Legendary ranked!

The other three were also at the peak of the forbidden spell, only one step away from the legend.

It wasn't that they weren't strong enough, but that the quality of the container wasn't good enough!

The conditions of the Pentecost were quite harsh.

“Purple Light Holy Son, long time no see.”

Three days later, the Last Son of Saint walked out and said expressionlessly.

The Church's number one Son of Saint, the Holy?Son of God, was pleasantly surprised:

“Lord Sean, my God sent you here. What a surprise!”

The Holy Spirit Sean said faintly, “Really? Greater surprises are still ahead.”

“What?”

The Holy Son of God was stunned.

The Holy Spirit Sean said, “My God will come to a combat incarnation to meet each other. Holy Son of God, prepare for the coming of my God.”

Some gods will have battle avatars, but the main character will not have any avatars. Don’t worry!
