

Full Marks Hidden Marriage: Pick Up a Son, Get a Free Husband

Chapter 201: Goodnight, I love you

Seeing Ning Xi arrive, Lu Ting Xiao's expression was relieved. "Are you done working?"

"Yes, mostly done" Ning Xi nodded. She sat on the bed after tucking the little bun into his quilt.

The little bun immediately grabbed the colorful fairytale book that he looked at with contempt before with his small hand and handed it to Ning Xi to read.

"Continue from where we left off last night?" Ning Xi asked.

The small bun clinging to her gave a well behaved nod.

"Well, today we will read the story of the polite little rabbit."

Ning Xi cleared her throat and began telling the story to the little bun,

"In the hot summer, the birds and the trees shouted: It's hot! The beautiful little white rabbit wearing a pretty floral skirt, was humming a song, and bouncing along a bridge. It was on its way across to go find some mushrooms....."

As Ning Xi read the story, Lu Ting Xiao sat next to her on the chair supporting his head and quietly listened to her soft, sweet voice.

He seemed to understand why his son insisted on listening to such childish content before going to sleep every night.

It's not the story's content, but rather who read the story.

Less than five minutes into the story, the little bun had fallen asleep.

"Sorry to trouble you" Lu Ting Xiao said thankfully.

"It's no trouble." Ning Xi said, and looked conflicted she continued, "Lu Ting Xiao, did you know I used to hate children?"

"Hate?"

Ning Xi nodded, but did not reveal the real reason, "Anyway, I used to think that children were annoying. I wanted to hide every time I saw them.....but I never knew that I would actually like the little bun. I'm not really clear when I developed this feeling, but I feel comfortable with him. Like we have a special connection, or maybe it is fate!"

Lu Ting Xiao looked deeply into her eyes, "In this world, nothing is impossible. Only situations that you haven't met yet."

"I would like to go back to sleep, boss you also have to rest!" Ning Xi nervously replied.

"Yes," Lu Ting Xiao replied. Then suddenly he leaned towards her. Ning Xi was shocked, and subconsciously backed away to hide. Lu Ting Xiao seeing this, moved quickly past her face, leaned over and kissed the little bun behind her and whispered, "Goodnight."

Late at night, Ning Xi was drowsy and half asleep. She dreamt that Lu Ting Xiao sat beside her, kissed her on the lips, and said "Goodnight, I love you."

Well this was obviously a dream, it had to be a dream. But why did it feel so real?

.....

At the same time in the Pearl River Apartments.

It was late at night but Ning Xuelo's apartment was still brightly lit, filled to the brim with an oppressive atmosphere.

Chang Li and Cui Caijing are sitting on the corner of the sofa, unable to utter a cry due to the atmosphere. Since things developed to this point, who wouldn't be angry at this time. Who thought that after Ning Xi was swept out, she would gain favor and sign onto Golden Age Entertainment.

If she had signed with any other company, it would be easy enough for Starlight Entertainment to block them. But it just had to be that company! In front of Golden Age, Starlight Entertainment's ban order was nothing but a joke.

Chang Li wanted to comfort Ning Xuelo and say that with Ning Xi's reputation now, even Starlight couldn't get her out of trouble. But she couldn't say those words. After all even Lu Ting Xiao came out to support her!

Chapter 202: The Lineup Of A Lifetime

It can't simply be said that they underestimated Ning Xi. Underestimation was putting it mildly!

Tomorrow morning at nine, at Golden Age Entertainment, reporters will be waiting in the conference room as if watching a time bomb. Anything was possible!

Starlight's conference had just ended, and Golden Age Entertainment will give a big announcement the day after. Many people had no doubt that this was premeditated.

As of now, even water could not reverse the public opinion. The majority of people were waiting for tomorrow's conference by Golden Age Entertainment. It was estimated that the city's major media companies will be there.

After smashing some furniture into a pile of debris, Ning Xuelo paced back and forth like a trapped animal.

"Golden Age Entertainment correspondent states that the conference is specifically about what? Our spies don't have any news yet?"

Chang Li shook her head, "We've tried all kinds of methods. Ning Xi and Golden Age's executives are probably the only ones who know. Everyone has given us the same information as the microblogs. The only way to get more information is to see Lu Jingli himself!"

"What about Lin Zhizhi? Didn't she reblog Ning Xi's post? She is definitely Ning Xi's agent! She should definitely know what the conference is about!"

Chang Li seeing that Ning Xuelo was starting to lose her nerve, helplessly replied, "When Lin Zhizhi was still with Leng Manyun, we fought her very ruthlessly and stole a role from her. Now that we want information from her, how would she give it to us?"

Ning Xuelo was furious. "This is not okay! We're not just going to sit and wait for dawn are we?"

Chang Li thought she would like to go back. In addition to sitting, there really was nothing else they could do.

Ning Xuelo rested on the coffee table, finishing her half full glass of wine in a single gulp, her eyes flashed with an evil light. "That hillbilly! Even if she signed with Golden Age Entertainment so what? Just because she has the backing of Golden Age Entertainment, she thinks she can sit back and relax?"

Cui Caijing rushed in hastily and took the opportunity to add on some good words, "Yes Xuelo, as long as the stain is still there, if she is in front of you, for a lifetime she won't be able to lift her head! And there's also an insider inside Golden Age Entertainment. We will have plenty of opportunities to cause her to make mistakes. And when she does, sooner or later Golden Age Entertainment will get tired of her."

The next morning in the Pearl Hotel Ballroom. All of the media were ready, waiting for the protagonist of today's conference to appear. It had been a long time since the Entertainment business had such big news. Today, just any casual thing could be a headline.

In addition to the crowd of reporters, all the people concerned about this matter were also in front of their TV, computer, or watching it live. At 9:00 am sharp, everyone from Golden Age Entertainment had been seated. In the middle was Ning Xi, with Lin Zhizhi to her left and Lawyer Chen Jing to her right. On both sides of them were the Public Relations director Liang Feixing and Lu Jingli.

This lineup alone had murdered many of the reporters at the scene. "God, do my eyes deceive me? Ning Xi's agent is actually the Lin Zhizhi. So the rumor that Leng Manyun was retiring is really true! Did Golden Age Entertainment arrange for Lin Zhizhi to be her agent? What does this mean? Does Lin Zhizhi want her to be Leng Manyun's successor?"

"The man on Ning Xi's right somehow seems familiar? Isn't that the big economic lawyer Chen Jing?"

"Liang Feixing actually attended a mere reporters conference....."

"Who cares about Liang Feixing, the general Lu Jingli is here! Damn! This lineup! It's really amazing! This is the special lineup of a lifetime! "

"Right! Have you ever seen Golden Age Entertainment have a conference for a new artist with as much extravagance as this?"

Chapter 203: The Story Is Reversed

The first person to speak was Lu Jingli: "First of all, I will officially introduce you to the latest member of Golden Age Entertainment. Ning Xi."

Ning Xi got up in front of all the media and cameras, bowed, then sat down.

Photographers started shooting in a burst of flashes, one after the other.

Today Ning Xi was wearing a black dress along with a sedate makeup look, suitable for such a formal occasion.

Lu Jingli then added: "Next, for the majority of people more concerned about the problems of Leng Manyun, Miss Lin Zhizhi is here to answer your questions."

If placed before them at any other time, the topic of Leng Manyun would definitely become the focus of attention. However now, the reporters wanted it to end quickly so they could move onto the main topic of conversation.....

Fortunately, Lin Zhizhi's style had always been short and sweet. With just a few words, she succinctly announced the news of Leng Manyun's marriage as well as her future work arrangements; where she would only be focusing on her family.

Her words assured everyone's speculation that Ning Xi was indeed joining Golden Age Entertainment and was going to be raised as Leng Manyun's successor.

At this time, one of the reporters asked: "We would like to know why you decided to not only sign in, such a corrupt artist, but plan on letting her take over the position of Leng Manyun! Are you not afraid of self destruction?"

The other journalists also echoed the statement:

"Self destructive signs are good. It shows the whole company is bad!"

"I doubt that the high level executives are in support of this!"

"Golden Age Entertainment can't tell in the end what is good anymore."

Lu Jingli gave Chen Jing a look, "The next to speak is lawyer Chen, please keep quiet.

Lawyer Chen?

Just now, they were also surprised as to why there was a lawyer at a press conference. Everyone turned to look curiously at him.

They saw Chen Jing click on the computer in front of him, and everyone heard the sound of the scene from a speaker –

[Not Ning Xi! It's not Ning Xi who bribed me! The one who gave me money to modify the sword was someone else! But I don't know who the other person is! I received an anonymous email. The other party in the email told me what to do, then directly deposited a hundred thousand now and another hundred thousand upon completion!]

The sound stopped, the room was quiet for three seconds, then audience were in an uproar.

Lu Jingli glanced out with a chilling look, "Please be quiet." The reporters immediately quieted, staring shocked.

Then the big screen behind Chen Jing lit up, showing two pictures. One was a picture showing the anonymous e-mail IP address was actually at Ning Xuelo address at Pearl River Apartments. The other showed that the anonymous account was actually from Ning Xuelo's assistant, Cui Caijing.

This time, another uproar happened that could no longer be suppressed. However,

Lawyer Chen wasn't finished yet. He released the extent of Ning Xuelo's injury and doctor's diagnosis report proving that Ning Xi had immediately withdrawn when she hit Ning Xuelo causing her injury to be very light. It was in the category of skin trauma, she could have been released that very day.

However, Ning Xuelo decided to stay in the hospital for several days. And each time she was in front of the reporters, she would claim it was a serious injury and she was weak due to massive blood loss, deliberately trying to gain sympathy.

After the release of the evidence, Chen Jing produced a lawyer's letter expressing that Ning Xi was filing a formal claim against Ning Xuelo for being framed, defamation, and libel.

Chapter 204: Of Course We Have A Special Relationship

Compared to Lu Jingli who liked to leave people guessing (with the information), Chen Jing's fast and efficient moves took over the place in three minutes. His tactics of dropping bomb after bomb left people confused and disoriented.

Liang Feixing realised that he need not say anything, held the microphone and said, "Okay, we are now opening up the panel for a Q & A session. Feel free to ask anything."

Reporters:"....."

Their, their thoughts were like a ball of yarn!

The plot had reversed too fast, like a tornado. They simply did not know what to ask!

But no one thought that the person to bribe Zhang Qiang was Ning Xuelo herself. That this was all plotted by her, directed and acted by her.

These days, these self proclaimed justice journalists who were so enthusiastically denouncing Ning Xi's friends, were just toys Ning Xuelo's used to play around with?

It was extremely difficult to accept this fact, but with the evidence right in front of them, how could they refuse to believe it?

After a long time, a weak hand finally lifted in the crowd.

Liang Feixing signaled that he could speak.

The reporter who raised his hand stood up looking at Chen Jing: "I would like to ask Mr. Lawyer, through what channels did you get the evidence. Can you legally prove the authenticity of the evidence?"

Chen Jing's gaze quietly swept through the reporters, then he replied: "I am here. That is sufficient enough to prove the authenticity."

"Uh....." the reporter was rendered speechless, unable to refute.

After all, Chen Jing's authority and professionalism put him here, yet the reporter asked such a disgraceful question.

"In addition," Chen Jing continued "We received the evidence through a legal channel, and the police have already been secretly involved." Chen Jing's face didn't change color. Looking at this fair and unselfish face, the reporters nodded, not doubting the legitimacy and authenticity of the evidence.

On the side, Ning Xi embarrassedly played with her hair. She really admired Lawyer Chen, but she could hear her own guilty conscience you know?

What legal means? The confessions were extracted under torture and Lu Ting Xiao went hacking.....

No wonder when she first saw Chen Jing, she felt a sense of déjà vu. Now she finally understood, Chen Jing and Lu Ting Xiao's style of doing things were exactly the same.

Sure enough, birds of the same feather really flock together. The reporters began to recover from the shock and began to fire off questions.

Reporter: "I would like to ask General Manager Lu, why did you spend so much time and energy to help Ning Xi? Are the rumors true? Did you have any special relationship with Ning Xi privately?"

Lu Jingli touched his chin thinking, of course there is a special relationship! Ning Xi is his future sister-in-law!

"The reason we spent so much time and energy is of course because I believe in my own eyes to scout potential and believe that she is worth it. Today, I'll put this sentence here. In the future, you will know that what I have done is the best for the business. Rather, Starlight will be sorry for the loss of Ning Xi!"

Chapter 205: Help The Boss Make More Money

After Lu Jingli's perfect answer, people couldn't find the trace of any flaws.

The reporters could not understand Lu Jingli's words, and finally began to look at Ning Xi.

While she was today's hero, with Golden Age Entertainment watertight protection, she almost did not need to come forward and speak.

Reporter: "Ning Xi, as far as I know your and Ning Xuelo's relationship is very good, what is the motivation for her to do this? Is there a problem between you two?"

Ning Xi: "This question, why don't you ask her?"

Reporter: "In the apartment that you live in, the staff said that from a few months ago you don't live there. Don't you need to explain?"

Ning Xi: "No. Where I want to live is my choice."

Reporter: "Where you are living right now, can you reveal it?"

Ning Xi: "With friends."

Reporter: "You joining the company, does Jiang Muye know? I heard from the cast that you guys had a good relationship. Is this something he set up?"

Ning Xi: "Pretty good relationship and no."

Reporter: "....."

This Ning Xi, it was too tricky, and wanting to get some gossip from her was simply impossible

The reporter was helpless, he could only give up on the too sensitive questions, and asked another question: "This blessing to join Golden Age, what are your plans?"

Ning Xi: "I want to work, to help the boss make more money. Since he helped me with my career, I will prove people wrong and that he didn't make the wrong decision."

The reporter automatically thought she was referring to the boss Lu Jingli, only

Lu Jingli knew that she meant his brother!

Gee, if his brother heard this, his heart must have died.

"Okay, today's press conference ends here. If you have any questions, there will be private interviews. All matters relating to Ning Xi will be handled in the future by her agent Miss Lin Zhizhi." Liang Feixing got up, ending the press conference.

All the reporters were full of all types of expressions. Yesterday, Starlight held a press conference for a full three hours! Through it, all kinds of condemnation was thrown at Ning Xi, but here at Golden Age Entertainment held theirs only for a short, half hour. This showed the level, who was high and who was low, it was quite obvious.

When the reporters were about to finish and leave, Lu Jingli suddenly announced,

“Stop.”

What happened? Was there more news? The reporters looked around with a face full of excitement.

Lu Jingli, his face full of a smile as always, kindly reminded them: “Don’t tell me you forgot?”

Uh? Forgot what? The reporters glanced at each other, at a loss. Lu Jingli started laughing, but there’s not a trace of amusement in his eyes.

“Ning Xi was so vainly scolded by you all for so many days. You guys repeated unwarranted charges and you still have nothing to say? Are you saying it’s all in the past?”

When the reporters heard this, they had a look of embarrassment. Suddenly they started competing to apologize to Ning Xi while hating Ning Xuelo in their hearts.

At that moment, Ning Xi raised her eyebrows in surprise. I thought he was funny, but this little prince could get quite serious and was very good at intimidating people.

However, Lu Jingli immediately reverted back to his prototype, his face in an excited expression.

“Little XiXi, my darling, my sweet, how about you cook dinner at home? I’ll wash my vegetables and buy the groceries but you are responsible for cooking!”

.....

Ning Xi completely recovered, and thought that she really wanted to kick him and send him to heaven. In the end doesn’t he understand how his words could lead to a misunderstanding?
