

FMH Marriage 1041

Chapter 1041: Do You Want To Try Me?

“Huh, so it’s enough to make you fall in love just by doing that?” The man’s tone was full of sarcasm as he regarded Ning Xi as a woman who was blinded by love.

Ning Xi took a deep breath and asked, “Okay! Let me ask you. If you entered a room and you saw the person you like fed with an aphrodisiac and wearing transparent pajamas while lying on a king-sized bed full of red flower petals, what would you make her do?”

She asked Jiang Muye the same question as well.

“Make love,” Yun Shen simply replied.

Make...love...

Good...this reply was as expected of Satan. How creepy...

Ning Xi’s mouth twitched and she rolled her eyes. “But Lu Tingxiao did not do anything! That’s the difference between the both of you! And this is why I choose him! He’ll never take advantage of me when I’m at my worst! Yun Shen, you don’t know what love is!”

The man looked annoyed. “Are you sure this is love and not sexual dysfunction?”

Ning Xi yelled at him in anger, “Shut up! You’re the one with sexual dysfunction!”

The man grinned. “Do you really want to try me?”

“I don’t have time to play games with you! Let me tell you something, it’s alright to have low EQ, you can learn! I can teach you something right now! For example, under this situation, you should learn from Lu Tingxiao and let me go like a gentleman!”
Ning Xi tried to convince him.

The man raised his eyebrows. “I don’t do what others do.”

Ning Xi clenched her teeth so hard that they almost shattered. Her brain cells were dying while her mouth was running dry. This bastard was too annoying!

“Is there anything else you’d like to say?” The man asked cheerfully as he looked at her whilst enjoying her expression.

“Bastard!”

Saying anything else to him would be useless anyway.

“Are you scolding me?”

Ning Xi kept quiet.

Finally, he understood why she was scolding him! Could he improve in other aspects as well?

“My dear, I’m asking for you to come back to me for your own good...if you continue to be with him, you’ll be really sad!” the man said.

Ning Xi rolled her eyes at him. “Why would I be sad?”

“Because you’ll become a widow!”

“You...” Ning Xi was so angry that she started to feel pain in her bones. “Don’t you talk so big. I don’t care what business you have with Lu Tingxiao, but my man isn’t someone who can go down that easily!”

“Your man...!?” Yun Shen’s carefree expression suddenly darkened. “My dear, you really know how to make me angry!”

Ning Xi knew that things were bad when she realized his change in expression. She should not have triggered him, but she really could not help it just now...

Bang!

The door was pushed open from the outside.

Tang Ye stood there with a worried expression on his face as he looked over to Ning Xi’s direction. He shouted loudly, “Satan! We’re surrounded by Lu Tingxiao’s men!”

The moment Tang Ye said those words, dust started to form a cloud outside the house as the trees and grass swayed. There was a loud whirring sound from a chopper overhead...

Chapter 1042: We Meet Again

“That’s pretty fast...good timing, I missed him too!”

The silver-haired man looked at the dozens of private helicopters outside the house, his eyes brimming with manic excitement as he stepped out quickly and totally forgot about Ning Xi.

Tang Ye followed him as well but before he left, he looked at Ning Xi with an indescribable expression. He had heard the rumors of Lu Tingxiao possessing a private army, but to deploy them in Imperial and just for a woman...

“Hey! No! Don’t go! First Senior Brother! You can still keep me in here! But have someone stay with me! You know that I’m afraid of ghosts...”

However, before Ning Xi could finish, the door closed once again.

These monsters, especially Yun Shen who ran away so quickly the moment he heard Lu Tingxiao was here! Ning Xi was going to give them a hard time if she ever got out of this place alive!

Although she was left alone in the room again, she did not feel scared anymore probably because she heard that Lu Tingxiao had arrived. She went up to the window and looked around...

Unfortunately, it was too dark, so she could only see a few choppers around. Because she was not sure of the exact situation out there, she could not see where Lu Tingxiao was. She had to get out of there!

What if that old man Feng Jin tried something funny on her again!?

Ning Xi looked around the room again but she could not find anything useful. She also could not move anything heavy since her hands were tied up. Her only option was to try to break the window by running towards it...

Unfortunately, it did not even budge an inch. Which idiot made this window so sturdy? Her bones were almost crushed by the impact.

At the grass patch in the front yard, among the dozens of choppers hovering above, one of them descended slowly on an empty spot.

A group of armed men alighted before a man in black suit with an extremely cold expression. The armed force formed a parallel formation and the man walked in between them as they moved slowly towards the creepy, old villa.

Another group of armed men was waiting for them right in front of the villa and it was at that moment that they realized Lu Tingxiao's men surrounded them. Yun Shen's men formed a team of about a dozen people but compared to Lu Tingxiao's serious professional team, the other party looked more carefree and less disciplined.

The door to the villa opened and the silver-haired man came out.

As soon as they saw the silver-haired man, the men with the carefree expressions suddenly turned serious. They behaved respectfully towards him and cleared a path for him as well.

Both men, one as cold as ice, the other as cunning as a demon, walked towards each other.

The air was tense and both sides were ready for a fight.

The two men stopped and stood about ten steps away from each other. Their poisonous looks at each other could almost cause a spark in the air.

The silver-haired man bit his lip. With a fire burning in his crimson red eyes, he looked at the man in the black suit, his bloodlust practically splattering everywhere. "We meet again."

Chapter 1043: Naive Child

"Give her to me," Lu Tingxiao said.

The silver-haired man put his hand on his forehead and chuckled as if he had just heard a funny joke. "You infiltrated my turf and now, you want me to hand over my people? You sure have an odd sense of humor, CEO Lu."

Lu Tingxiao looked at his watch expressionlessly. "Three minutes."

He was being fairly straightforward. If they did not hand over the girl within three minutes, then...

The silver-haired man put on a creepy smile and raised his eyebrows. "Lu Tingxiao, when she was at her worst, her most desperate and most painful period of time, I helped her. I taught her all the necessary skills she needed to survive and to protect herself. She belongs to the same world as me. Sure, the world is vast, but in the end, she'll understand where she truly belongs!"

Lu Tingxiao's expression darkened the moment the silver-haired man finished his sentence. His broodiness was even stronger than the demonic man, so much so that even Lu Tingxiao's men were slightly taken aback...

The night became darker. The ominous clouds covered the moon and only a dim light could be seen.

Sometime later, Lu Tingxiao's bloodlust vanished. He looked at the silver-haired man without any expression. "Two minutes."

At the same time, both parties were in battle-ready mode. Even the snipers were ready from afar and the tension was high as everyone was prepared to fight any moment...

In a corner nearby, Feng Xiaoxiao wiped her sweat from her forehead. "It seems like a fight's going to happen soon..."

Annie was freaking out. "What should we do!? We're not really going to fight each other, are we? Sis Xiaoxiao, I just found out that Strategist Feng kidnapped Bro Xi! How could he do this!?"

"To be honest, I didn't expect Elder Feng to be this straightforward this time as well. What is he trying to achieve?" Feng Xiaoxiao was suspicious.

Tang Ye's cold voice joined in, "Feng Jin hates anything that goes out of his control and affects Satan's decision. For a man, it's the worst thing ever to let a woman make you go berserk."

"So, Elder Feng wanted to snip the issue in the bud? So that's why Satan wanted to kidnap Little Junior Sister! This haunted house is the perfect place to keep her since she's super scared of ghosts. She'll definitely lose all her fighting power here. Moreover, she can't even fight that well now..." Feng Xiaoxiao mumbled.

Annie suddenly tensed up. "I think Boss wouldn't really do that... Although he looks like a bad guy, and he always says bad things, he treats us really well...like he always says that he's going to feed me to the fishes, but he's never actually done it!"

"Ugh, your analogy... Such a naive child..." Feng Xiaoxiao caressed Annie's head pitifully.

Feng Xiaoxiao then looked at the intense situation at hand. As both parties were ready to fight, she mumbled to herself, "Is this what Elder Feng is trying to achieve? Why does it feel like he's making trouble on purpose...?"

Chapter 1044: Are You Flaunting To Me?

Besides, the other purpose for what happened today was probably to lure Lu Tingxiao's rumored underground forces out.

Although they were just a small part of it, one could already estimate how powerful it could be. More importantly, it was no weaker than their organization...

"This cannot continue, I'm going to rescue Bro Xi! Only Bro Xi can stop this now!" Annie cried out.

Feng Xiaoxiao stopped Annie. "What can you do!? You're not a fighter, you can't even lift the door. Just stay here, I'll go!"

"But, if the Boss blames us..." Annie was worried.

"Both of you are directly under him. Of course, you two can't go. Even though I'm part of the Organization, I'm just sort of a part-timer here. I'd still have 'The Sins' behind me if I were to get in trouble! Don't worry!" Feng Xiaoxiao then swiftly went into the house.

The Sins was the largest assassin group internationally. While Feng Xiaoxiao worked with the Organization, she was also a core member of The Sins.

Tang Ye did not stop Feng Xiaoxiao and just acted as if he did not see what just happened.

In the creepiest master bedroom upstairs, as Feng Xiaoxiao went into the room using a metal key, Ning Xi was still battling with the glass window.

Ning Xi held a small, sharp bone in her hand and was trying to break the window with it when suddenly someone grabbed her by her shirt and pulled her away from the window.

A black boot flew across the room...

Clang!

There was a loud sound and the window was broken...

Ning Xi was dumbfounded. The window she had been trying to break for so long was now shattered into pieces. She cried, "Oh! Third Senior Sister! You finally came!"

"Useless!" Feng Xiaoxiao rolled her eyes at her as she took out a dagger and cut open the ropes that bound Ning Xi's hands. "I've already reminded you the last time! How are you getting weaker and weaker?"

Ning Xi pouted and mumbled, "It just shows how carefree and happy my life is now ..."

Feng Xiaoxiao was annoyed by her comment. "Are you flaunting your lovey-dovey experience in front of me? I'm going to kick you!"

"You wouldn't!" Ning Xi went up to her and gave her a big hug.

Feng Xiaoxiao closed her eyes when she saw this underaged-looking girl acting so innocently in this situation. “No wonder 16 looked defeated just now. Her wonderful image of you must’ve been shattered!”

Ning Xi blinked her eyes. “16? Who’s number 16?”

“Her code name is 16! The woman who kidnapped you here!” Feng Xiaoxiao replied.

“Oh, that’s who she is... She will probably experience some mental breakdown today...” Ning Xi started perspiring guiltily

“She seemed to have a crush on you before. She probably volunteered for Feng Jin’s mission because she wanted to get closer to her idol but who knew...” Feng Xiaoxiao felt bad for 16.

Ning Xi mumbled, “So, it’s my fault now? She’s the one who tied me up and left me all alone here! It’s karma!”

Chapter 1045: There’s A Woman In Boss’ House!

“Okay, stop messing around. Get down there to your man! They’re going to fight soon! We’re in China and right in the middle of Imperial, so there’s no advantage for either of them to fight here!” Feng Xiaoxiao reminded her.

“Oh...then I’ll leave now, Third Senior Sister! Let’s have a drink next time...” Ning Xi climbed out of the window.

Feng Xiaoxiao was worried. “Are you going to be alright? Why don’t you just take the stairs?”

“That’s troublesome...stop looking down on me, alright? It’s just the third floor!” Ning Xi then climbed down along the water pipe.

Feng Xiaoxiao remained silent.

You’ve become a real little bunny now! How could I be not worried!?

But actually, as a woman, Feng Xiaoxiao was still a little jealous!

After all, she was way more experienced than Ning Xi in the field and she had gone through a lot of traumatic experiences. Nevertheless, she was also less trustful compared to Ning Xi...

Men...she would never fall in love with those creatures!

On the other hand, Ning Xi realized that she should have listened to Third Senior Sister. When Ning Xi was halfway down the pipe, her legs were trembling and she fell to the ground.

Suddenly, everyone’s attention turned to her corner...

They then saw a cute little girl getting to her feet clumsily as she seemed to be mumbling something...

“Where did this little bunny come from?” Someone from Yun Shen’s side asked.

“Big news! There’s a woman in the Boss’ house!”

“A fresh underaged girl at that!”

“Oh my gosh! Boss has that kind of fetish!?”

...

People were making a scene as they looked at Yun Shen more and more suspiciously as well until a clear, cold voice cut through their doubts, “That’s Tang Xi.”

Everyone was speechless when they heard 16’s declaration.

Was that a joke?!

Lu Tingxiao’s expression changed when he saw Ning Xi. Despite the crowd around, he could only see his own wife right now.

Yun Shen’s razor-sharp eyes glared at Feng Xiaoxiao who stood by the broken window, then he looked at Ning Xi and said in a cold tone, “Come over.”

Ning Xi’s mouth twitched in irritation. She tried to brush off the leaves and dirt on her. While she did not say anything, her expression made it obvious that she would only go over to his side if she was crazy.

Ah! The devil!!!

Ning Xi looked at Lu Tingxiao’s direction happily.

The difference in her attitude towards the two men was obvious.

The three of them formed a triangle; Lu Tingxiao and Yun Shen were about ten steps away from each other, and Ning Xi was right between them near the corner of a wall.

As Ning Xi stepped out towards Lu Tingxiao’s direction, there was a creepy, demonic voice that rang out, “I’ll give you one last chance. Think properly before you move!”

Decide which side to move towards to!

That creepy voice halted Ning Xi mid-step. She remained stationary and looked up to see the stony-faced Lu Tingxiao and the dark-faced Yun Shen.

What should she do...?

She was not troubled by the choice of which side she was going to pick. It was not even a question! Her only concern was what would Yun Shen do if she walked towards Lu Tingxiao’s side?

Chapter 1047: Anyone Who Dares To Hurt Her

The silver-haired man's face turned as frigid as ice when he saw Ning Xi run towards Lu Tingxiao and they embraced each other.

Feng Jin covered his wounded arm and went up to the man. He quickly said, "Satan, we could let this go if Tang Xi stayed for you this time, but she has forgotten all about you and betrayed you. You don't have to involve yourself with a woman like her..."

The silver-haired man glared at him heartlessly. "I like the way she treats me and how she's unappreciative towards me. Do you have any opinions about that?"

Feng Jin kept quiet.

Seeing that Lu Tingxiao was taking Ning Xi away, he was going to lose his final chance. Feng Jin clenched his teeth and warned, "Satan! That woman will destroy you!"

"Huh, if a woman can destroy me this easily, why don't you take my position?" The man's face was suddenly full of violence.

Feng Jin bowed his head respectfully. "I'm afraid I'm not fit to be!"

The man sneered, "I'm only respecting you because of Elder Qiao. If something similar happens the next time, you'll go back to where you came from."

Feng Jin's face went pale when he heard what the silver-haired man threatened him with. He thought that Satan would surely eliminate the woman after witnessing her betrayal personally, but yet... No way! This woman could not be spared!

"Tang Ye..."

"I'm here."

The man glanced at the pale Feng Jin as he casually adjusted his sleeves. "Send a message to everyone. No matter who it is, if someone dares to hurt Tang Xi...I'll destroy him!"

"Noted," Tang Ye replied.

Feng Jin stood there without saying a word.

The man squinted his eyes and looked at the chopper as it slowly left his sight. He then opened up his palm.

It was a fluffy white ball from the girl's outfit just now, looking forlorn in his palm...

...

They did not board the chopper Lu Tingxiao came in. Instead, they left with another smaller helicopter.

Aside from Lu Tingxiao and Ning Xi, there was only the pilot in the chopper.

The moment the door closed, Ning Xi was kissed passionately...

The man's wide hand held her waist tightly and his other hand wrapped the behind of her neck as he kissed her with all his might...

The tingling sensation of hot passion lingered on Ning Xi's lips and the first thing she thought of was "Boss, will we die in this helicopter?"

How could the pilot focus in this situation...?

The pilot in front was probably facing the greatest challenge of his whole career life...

The Boss at the back did not seem to have any intention to stop and the kiss was growing more and more intense as time passed. This...would not lead to them to do it on the helicopter, would it?

Even a pilot who had been trained professionally for eight years could not stand such an intense and rousing scene...

At the same time, Lu Tingxiao went even further as he noticed the girl was not focusing, he suppressed himself so that he would not hurt the girl.

But there was still the scent of blood in their mouths...

Although Lu Tingxiao was emitting such a dark and negative aura around him at that moment, Ning Xi was not scared at all. Instead, she clung to the man's neck and kissed him back, caressing his back with her fingers...

She put her hands on his chest and pushed him down until he was pinned under her. As she leaned towards him, the bunny hood slid over her head and her lips met his, all her suppressed fears and emotions fading as they kissed...

The man used a hand to stabilize the girl's body to prevent her from falling as he returned her kiss with a more passionate one...

The pilot in front was blushing as he saw the girl riding on top of the man; one in a formal black suit, the other one wearing a cute bunny outfit...

Chapter 1048: Kiss Me Again, Then It Won't

The kiss...lasted for a long time...

From violent to passionate to gentle cuddling, none of them wanted to ever break the kiss...

In the end, Ning Xi was the one who stopped. She pushed the man away firmly. "That's enough...if we keep continuing to do this, we might really crash!"

The pilot in front almost cried out of relief. The Lady Boss was so considerate!

Lu Tingxiao rested his head in the crook of her neck, apparently still shocked by what had happened tonight.

Ning Xi looked at Lu Tingxiao with a worried expression. "We're still within Imperial's border and tonight, we really caused a big ruckus... Will it affect you?"

The man's lips stayed on her sensitive collarbone area. "Kiss me again, then it won't."

Ning Xi and the pilot were both speechless.

He had better change his career soon...

Please give me back my cool Boss...

They transferred from the helicopter to a car on their journey back. It was still dawn when they reached the city area and the sky was still dark.

Lu Tingxiao sent her back to Platinum Palace as he was worried that her apartment was not safe. He held her in his arms when he saw that her ankle was injured.

After putting Ning Xi down on her bed, she saw that he was about to leave, so she reached out quickly to hold his hand. "Where're you going?"

"To look for a first aid box. Your wound needs to be treated."

"Oh, hurry then!"

A while later, Lu Tingxiao came back with a first aid box.

Ning Xi was badly scratched on several parts of her body when she fell down earlier, so Lu Tingxiao used alcohol swabs to clean the wounds, then he applied some ointment. Fortunately, they were just normal scratches, so a few bandages would suffice.

Lu Tingxiao's expression darkened while he was applying ointment on her wrists as he saw the red marks caused by the ropes when she was trussed up tightly.

"Are you hurt anywhere else?" Lu Tingxiao asked.

"Yes!" Ning Xi nodded.

Lu Tingxiao frowned and his expression darkened even more. "Where?"

Ning Xi pointed at her lips sulkily. "Here."

You caused them to be hurt!

Lu Tingxiao was taken aback a little. He coughed lightly, "I'll apply some ointment for you..."

After the cool mint-colored ointment was applied to her lips, she felt a lot better.

When Ning Xi saw Lu Tingxiao turn around and was about to leave the room, Ning Xi held onto his shirt. "Where're you going?"

"I'm getting a towel for you."

"Oh...then go and come back quickly! Wait, never mind. You know what? I'll just go with you!" Ning Xi went to the toilet with him.

Lu Tingxiao rinsed the towel under some hot water, then cleaned her dirty face and hands with it. "You can't shower with all the wounds on you, so this will do for now."

"Mmm!"

“Are you sure there’re no other wounds?” Lu Tingxiao asked again after they had gone back to the bedroom.

“No more, really!” Ning Xi rolled up her sleeves to show him. “They didn’t do anything bad to me.”

They just used some cruel psychological tricks...

Lu Tingxiao was relieved now. “You should change into a clean outfit. It’ll make you feel more comfortable.”

Lu Tingxiao was about to leave the room to let her change, but Ning Xi quickly stopped him. “Where are you going again?!”

Lu Tingxiao was confused by the girl’s unusual attitude. “To let you change.”

“Why do you have to go out when I change?! Just stay here!” Ning Xi sounded anxious.

“What’s wrong?” Lu Tingxiao frowned.

Ning Xi sobbed as she hugged the man’s waist. “I’m scared...don’t go!”

Chapter 1049: Her Tail Fell Off!

Lu Tingxiao was so heartbroken seeing her act this way. “What did they do to you?”

Ning Xi could not hold it in anymore. She sobbed with her shoulders trembling, “Bastards! They’re all inhumane! Of all places, they made me go to a haunted house! They also left me alone in a dark room! That h-house...it’s the one with the rumors about a woman who hung herself there...it’s so scary! I tried to leave...b-but I was out of strength... They must’ve tried to scare me to death...”

Lu Tingxiao did not say anything. He was almost scared to death by her as well...

“Can you please stay? I don’t want to be alone! What if the female ghost followed me here?” begged Ning Xi.

Lu Tingxiao knitted his eyebrows although he felt both slightly relieved and a little helpless against her request. “I won’t leave.”

“Oh, are you sure?” asked Ning Xi as she went to the cupboard and look for clothes to change into. She turned around and asked for confirmation.

“I’m sure.”

Ning Xi asked multiple times before she finally changed out of her clothes.

When she was changing, she realized something tragic. The round tail at the back of the bunny outfit she loved had fallen off...

Ning Xi grieved for the tail. She turned around and saw Lu Tingxiao acting like a gentleman and facing his back towards her.

“I’m done changing!”

“Mmm.” Lu Tingxiao turned around and patted the girl’s head. “Rest well.”

“Will you stay with me?”

“How can I not stay with you?” Lu Tingxiao sighed.

Ning Xi was relieved.

On the soft bed, the girl curled herself into the man’s embrace, mostly because she was really terrified. She fell asleep pretty quickly.

She did not seem to have a good rest though as she kept on frowning in her sleep and had beads of sweat on her forehead. Lu Tingxiao stayed right beside her and comforted her lightly...

At six in the morning, there were sounds of footsteps approaching.

Lu Tingxiao looked up. As expected, it was his son. He made a hand gesture and signaled him to be quiet. Ning Xi had only slept around 4 a.m. and if she woke up now, she would not get enough sleep.

The little bun noticed his father’s serious expression, so he did not mess around and only stood beside the bed to look at his mother.

“Your mother slept very late last night. Don’t wake her up,” said Lu Tingxiao in a low voice.

The little bun nodded obediently. He left after a short while because he had school today and could not be late.

Soon, the little bun returned to the bedroom with his writing board. He wrote a few words: [I’ll share your burden.]

Lu Tingxiao was surprised.

The child had probably noticed his odd expression and wanted him to share his worries.

Lu Tingxiao smiled. “Wait until you get a little older.”

Little Treasure pouted. He was trying really hard to grow up already. Furthermore, he had gained 2 kilograms of weight recently!

Before he went to school, Little Treasure gave his mother a light kiss.

Lu Tingxiao looked at the girl quietly, not giving into slumber, then he realized that something was wrong.

Her temperature...it was rising!

Chapter 1050: Is Your Wife Pregnant?

Because he was hugging her the whole time, he did not realize that the girl's cheeks were bright pink. It seemed unusual and when he touched her forehead, it was feverish!

Ning Xi was having a fever!

Lu Tingxiao got up and quickly made a call to Qin Mufeng.

An hour later, Qin Mufeng came over with a suitcase.

“Dude...do you always spy on me or something? The moment I return, you call me!”

Qin Mufeng had gone overseas for an academic conference and had just touched down when Lu Tingxiao called him.

However, he was glad that Lu Tingxiao called. Ever since Ning Xi was there, both father and son had become really healthy. In fact, he felt guilty for doing nothing while continuing to receive his salary.

“What's happened that you had to call me this urgently?” Qin Mufeng asked.

“Fever,” Lu Tingxiao said.

Qin Mufeng explained patiently, “My dear CEO, a fever is just a normal thing. You called me here just for this? I thought your wife was pregnant!”

Qin Mufeng felt that even that was overthinking. Knowing Lu Tingxiao's personality, the both of them had probably never even done it yet...

Speaking of which, if he was this worried when his wife got a fever, what would happen if she actually gave birth in the future?

Qin Mufeng kept these thoughts to himself as he took out some equipment from his suitcase. He did some simple check up procedures on Ning Xi and measured her temperature.

“How is she?” Lu Tingxiao asked.

Qin Mufeng took a look at the thermometer and frowned. “How did her fever get so bad? I'm going to prescribe her some medication. You should try and lower her temperature physically. If her fever doesn't get better by tonight, she'll have to get an injection and be put on drips!”

“Okay, don't leave. Stay here for the night,” said Lu Tingxiao without any expression.

Qin Mufeng's mouth twitched. “Roger, CEO Lu!”

The girl's face was red and her breathing hastened.

Lu Tingxiao helped the girl up and fed her some medicine, then he rubbed some alcohol all over her body to try cooling her down.

After a whole day, her body temperature stabilized around the evening, but she was still unconscious...

The next morning, the sun shone brightly and warm rays peaked through the curtains. Birds were singing and as some petals from the garden were swept inside, the fragrance of the flowers filled up the room...

On the bed, the girl frowned. Her eyelashes fluttered and she suddenly woke up with her forehead full of sweat. It seemed like she had just woken up from a nightmare.

Ning Xi was a little confused when she woke up. She looked around and saw that it was the bedroom she was familiar with. There was a bundle of flowers by her side, combined with the scent of flowers and nature from outside as the curtain swayed in the wind...

Beside the window, a man was sitting on the chair with a book in his hand. He did not flip the book and was looking outside the window.

Ning Xi's eyes finally opened wide, then she realized that she was still alive and not in hell...

Lu Tingxiao walked over when he realized she had moved. He caressed the girl's head. "You're awake?"

"How long have I slept?" Ning Xi asked.

"Two days."

"That's long..." muttered Ning Xi as she held her head, then she saw the man's unshaven facial hair and felt her heart ache. "You haven't been sleeping?"

This time around, it was probably Lu Tingxiao who was most frightened and not Ning Xi. She wondered how Lu Tingxiao had found her so quickly. Maybe he had a spy...

Or...had Feng Jin intentionally leaked the information...?
