

FMH Marriage 1391

Chapter 1391: Triggered?

Tang Lang leaned on the door, scowling. “That’s enough! Outsiders would think that the two of you want to elope! If we alarm Tang Ye, the unlucky one is going to be me!”

Ning Xi pulled on Annie’s hand and quickly followed Tang Lang out.

The trio smoothly reached the main entrance, but once they walked out, there was a surprise waiting for them.

16 was staggering as she ran towards them with blood all over her...

Ning Xi, Tang Lang, and Annie were all shocked.

When 16 saw Ning Xi and Tang Lang secretly helping Annie escape, she was startled too, but she did not have time to think. She looked towards the looming danger behind her, panic written all over her face.

Right at that moment, an incredibly terrifying gust of wind from the palm of a hand suddenly attacked 16. Her face was filled with near-death despair.

In the next second, Ning Xi pulled 16 behind her, then she glowered at Tang Lang and threw him forward.

“Bloody hell! Tang Xi how dare you?!” How dare she use him as a human shield?!

Tang Lang shouted furiously as he used one hand to meet with the force.

When they saw who it was, Tang Lang was dumbfounded. His legs and stomach were shaking. “Tang... Tang Ye...”

Tang Ye’s eyes were murderous. He did not have his spectacles on him — a clear sign that he had completely lost all rationale.

“What the heck!? What’s up with this guy?” Tang Lang howled in grief as he quickly handled Tang Ye’s crazy attack.

The panicked 16 looked at the man that had held her by the waist and saved her. In her daze, she took a while before she finally reacted. “Tang... Tang Xi...”

Well, after all, the last time she followed Feng Jin’s orders and kidnapped Tang Xi to the house, she was dressed like an extremely delicate, underaged girl, and was so scared of ghosts, completely ruining the image of Tang Xi she had once admired.

Thus, now when she saw the Tang Xi from her memories emerge again, she did not know how to react immediately.

“What’s wrong? Why does First Senior Brother want to kill you?” Ning Xi frowned and asked.

16 then regained her senses. "I don't know. Bro Ye suddenly started attacking me like mad... Like he had been triggered or something..."

"Triggered?" Ning Xi's expression suddenly changed.

Tang Ye had acted out like this in the past, but it was incredibly rare. What was it that could trigger him to this point?

"Tang Xi! Quickly come help me! I'm about to die because of you!" Not too far away, Tang Lang shouted as he was being pushed back step by step by Tang Ye's madness.

Facing a completely irrational Tang Ye, even Tang Lang would find it unbearable. Besides, although Tang Lang had said then that he would work hard and train, he still wasted time every day.

Ning Xi knew that Tang Lang had things on his mind, but this guy always looked so sloppy. Every time she asked, he would change the topic. Obviously, he did not want to tell her and she could not help him.

"Annie, check up on 16." Ning Xi placed 16 carefully on the sofa, then quickly joined the fight.

The last time 16 exchanged hands with Tang Xi, she knew that Tang Xi's skills had deteriorated to a tragic extent. She suddenly looked over a little worriedly.

Yet, she realized that because of Tang Xi joining them, the dynamics of the fight had suddenly changed.

In just a few short months, Tang Xi's skill had improved tremendously. In fact, her moves were a little odd. It did not look like the old moves. She had never seen them before...

Even Tang Lang was shocked. "Bloody heck! Punk! Where did you steal these moves from? Why haven't I seen these moves before? How dare you steal someone else's moves when you have me as your master?"

Chapter 1392: Would You Not Die Finishing Them?

"It's because you're useless that I have to learn from others!" Ning Xi rolled her eyes at him.

The three of them were having an intense fight. Although Ning Xi had learned a few tricks from Han Xiao, she could only hold on for a little while. The both of them were losing against Tang Ye.

Tang Ye had already lost his mind. A blow landed on Ning Xi's shoulder, then he aimed towards Tang Lang's fatal area...

Until a lazy voice came from somewhere nearby.

"Ye."

Suddenly, Tang Ye stopped. All his movements halted mid-step.

Tang Lang had sweat all over his forehead. To his relief, he managed to avoid Tang Ye's fatal blow. Ning Xi was panting as she bent over and glanced over at the white-haired man. It was Yun Shen... It was over. This guy had come back.

Tang Ye's wild insanity vanished. He now looked lost and lonely.

Ning Xi was really troubled when she saw Tang Ye's expression. What exactly had happened?

First Senior Brother was seriously weird today.

After some time, Tang Ye returned to his senses and he stared right at Tang Lang. "Follow me."

Tang Lang wiped the blood from his mouth. "Damn it! Can I not go?"

He was going to die if he went now. It was all Tang Xi's fault!

Tang Ye replied with a cold voice, "If not, we'll continue."

He would continue the fight if he did not follow? Damn...

"Yes, yes, coming." Tang Lang went up with him.

Ning Xi looked at the two of them worriedly, "What happened to First Senior Brother?"

The white-haired man smiled and looked at her. "My dear, shouldn't you be worried about yourself? You want to steal my people when I'm not around?"

Ning Xi's expression darkened.

Steal his people?

Ning Xi was still worried about her First Senior Brother and Second Senior Brother, but she did not want to cause a scene. She took a deep breath and admitted, "I'm here to look for Annie. I only need half an hour with her. Under what condition will you let her leave with me? Tell me."

The man raised his eyebrows. "Beg me"

"I beg you."

The man looked disappointed. "That's not fun at all."

Ning Xi was speechless.

So, what do you want?

The man saw Ning Xi's defeated expression. "Pay me."

Ning Xi saw a chance and she perked up. "Sure, how much?"

The man then replied, "Cookies. 10,000 of them. Made by you."

Ning Xi was speechless once again.

Ten thousand cookies... Won't you die finishing them?

Annie was blaming herself now that Bro Xi had gotten into trouble. As expected, the boss was still angry about the cookies. She should have been more careful and not let the boss see the cookies! She knew that his way of thinking was very different from how normal people thought.

Annie was really anxious and she tried to help. "Bro Shen, 10,000 is a little too much! And you want her to make them herself..."

Yun Shen then thought about it and nodded. "It's a little too much indeed. 9,999 cookies then."

Ning Xi, Annie, and 16 all were dumbstruck.

Chapter 1393: Stuffed To Death

Was there any difference between 10,000 and 9,999?

One day, I'll take all the girls from your organization away!

Ning Xi was offended but she took a deep breath and said, "9,999? Sure! But my initial half an hour will take a month!"

She did not care anymore. Her priority was to bring Annie to check on Sis Tianxin, so she requested for more time in case of an emergency.

The man's white hair was swaying in the air as he smiled. "Deal."

Ning Xi was afraid that he might go back on his words, so she swiftly ran away with Annie.

"Bro Xi, are you really going to make that many? You're not going to make them all by hand, are you?" Annie looked worried.

"I'll do it. Why not? I'll make sure he's stuffed to death!" Ning Xi then took a glance at the direction Tang Ye and Tang Lang had left in.

She wondered what was the matter with them...

Nevertheless, she could not care less. Yun Shen was there. First Senior Brother had returned back to his senses, and with Tang Lang's thick skin, he would be fine!

"Get on and hang tight." Ning Xi helped Annie put a helmet on, then quickly drove towards the hospital.

At Ren Ai Hospital, Annie looked curiously at the pale white girl on the bed.

She looked really unwell and very weak, but Annie could see that she was a real beauty.

Seeing how nervous Ning Xi was, and that she had mustered up her courage to go look for her even though she was so terrified of ghosts, Annie asked, "Bro Xi, is this... Your new friend?"

"She's my cousin, Ning Tianxin," Ning Xi replied.

“Oh... She’s your cousin!” She looked much happier. “What happened to her? She looks like she’s lost a lot of blood...”

“She did abortion in an unauthorized clinic. Some accident happened and caused her to hemorrhage. She was just rescued in time and almost lost her uterus. All the doctors say she can’t have children in the future anymore.” Ning Xi sounded serious.

Annie nodded. “Then... Let me take a look.”

“Okay!” Ning Xi quickly brought her a chair.

Annie sat down beside the bed. She gently took up Ning Tianxin’s wrist and started her examination.

Ning Xi stood beside quietly, not daring to interfere.

Time passed by. Annie’s expression looked more solemn by the second and Ning Xi’s heart sank little by little.

Could it be that Annie could not help either?

After about five minutes, Annie stopped and put Ning Tianxin’s wrist back under the blanket.

“Annie, how’s my cousin?” Ning Xi asked.

Annie sighed, “Does she have a cold uterus?”

“Yes!”

Annie then said, “Although she had a cold uterus before, it wasn’t really serious. Some supplements could help with that. But now, apart from having a cold uterus, her abortion severely exhausted her body. She’s lost a lot of blood, and her energy within her is depleted as well...”

“Is there any way to help? Is it true that she can’t get pregnant ever again?” Ning Xi was really nervous.

Annie chose her words carefully before saying, “The chances of her getting pregnant are very low, but it’s not impossible. The problem is that with her condition as of now, she won’t be able to keep the baby if she gets pregnant again.”

Chapter 1394: Don’t Let Him Get Near

Annie then repeated her examination and said, “But, Bro Xi, don’t worry. Fortunately, you told Bro Shen to let me go for a month. In this month, I’ll help you nurse your cousin. I’ll also use acupuncture to help her remove some toxins in her body.

“As long as she follows what I say, takes her medicine on time and rests properly, at most, it will take three to five years. If she’s lucky, she can probably recover in one to two years. Then, it might be possible for her to get pregnant successfully.”

The tensed Ning Xi was relieved. "That's great... As long as there's hope! Annie, thank you!"

"You don't have to thank me, Bro Xi. Your cousin is my cousin as well! Oh, right..."

Annie looked at the girl on the bed and she reminded, "Under this situation, the patient's psychological state is important as well. I'm not sure what she went through but, Bro Xi, you have to take care of her, and make her stay happy most of the time. If necessary, hire a professional psychiatrist!"

"Okay, I get it. Thanks for reminding! I'll contact one later. I know someone!" Ning Xi looked a little worried as she looked at Ning Tianxin.

Suddenly, her phone rang. It was Xiao Tao.

Ning Xi then remembered that today was the opening ceremony for "Nine Realms", so she quickly picked up the phone. "Hello, Xiao Tao?"

"Bro Xi, are you up yet? The ceremony is starting in two hours. Don't forget about it!"

"Alright, got it." Ning Xi ended the call.

"Bro Xi, if you're busy, you can leave first. I'll take care of her!" Annie assured.

Ning Xi hugged her gratefully. "Thank you, Annie. If it wasn't for you, I really don't know what to do. I'll leave first and I'll get back as soon as possible. If there's anything, do give me a call. If you need anything, call this number and he'll help you out!"

Ning Xi then passed Xiong Zhi's number to her.

"Okay, go now!"

After she left the room, Ning Xi called Xiong Zhi.

"Miss Xiao Xi, anything I can help?"

"My cousin is in the hospital right now. I'm fine with just Shi Xiao for now. Do help me out at the hospital. There's another girl in the room called Annie. She's my friend. If she needs anything, help her... But the most important point is not to let Mo Lingtian get near her! Remember that!"

Ning Xi especially focused on the last part of her sentence.

"Got it, Miss Ning Xi! I'll not let him get near her!" Xiong Zhi did not ask why and promised her.

"Okay, that's all for now. Thank you."

Ning Xi left the hospital after she had settled everything.

At Movie City, Ning Xi changed into her outfit and put on her makeup. She had reached half an hour earlier.

Ceremonies like these would usually have a blessed day and time picked out and being late to such a function would be deemed unlucky.

The main cast, director, filmmakers, and producers all came one after another. There were also several important investors, and of course, the media partners. The place was buzzing.

The table was all prepared, covered with a red cloth. A Guan Di figurine was put on it, and beside it was an incense burner together with some fresh fruits and a roast pig as an offering.

Chapter 1395: The Mystery of Ning Xi's Boyfriend

She had been on the go since the middle of the night till now and Ning Xi felt light-headed. After she finished dealing with the media, she was about to find a spot to rest before the ceremony began.

However, the moment she pushed open the door to the resting lounge she saw...

Jiang Muye, Mo Yuxiu, and Su Yan...

Each one of them took up a corner to sit in and the vibe between them was odd.

It was fine with Jiang Muye and Mo Yuxiu, but why was Su Yan in the actor's resting lounge too?

Bloody hell, she better find somewhere else to rest!

Unfortunately, it was obviously not that easy. Ning Xi was about to escape when Su Yan, who sat on the left side of the sofa, had gotten up and started to walk towards her. "Xiao Xi..."

Xiao Xi?

Mo Yuxiu, who had been quietly observing Jiang Muye, suddenly turned his gaze towards Su Yan.

Did Su Yan and Ning Xi know each other? He even called to her so intimately...

Unfortunately, Mo Yuxiu was still there, so Ning Xi could only turn around to answer, "Yes, CEO Su?"

"Can we talk? I have something to tell you."

"Sure." To avoid Mo Yuxiu picking up anything to use against her, Ning Xi could only follow Su Yan out.

...

As he watched the two of them leave the resting lounge, Mo Yuxiu's expression instantly changed.

This Su Yan! Even his gaze towards Ning Xi was odd!

Could it be that Ning Xi's boyfriend was not Jiang Muye, but Su Yan instead?

Did Su Yan not have a girlfriend already? And the two of them were about to get married soon!

Damn it! This girl could not have gotten together with a taken man, could she?

Jiang Muye watched as Ning Xi left with Su Yan, looking quite unhappy too. What would these two talk about?

...

Moments later, Ning Xi and Su Yan found themselves in the garden behind the hotel.

“Be quick if there’s anything you want to tell me. The ceremony is about to start!”

Ning Xi glimpsed at her watch and said hurriedly.

Su Yan looked at the girl with mixed feelings. A while later, he finally took out a red invitation card and passed it to her. “Xueluo and I have decided on the wedding date. It’s on the 8th next month.”

Ning Xi took the invitation and looked at it apathetically. “Congrats!”

When he saw Ning Xi’s reaction, Su Yan did not know why he felt even worse.

If she could still mock and insult him like before, that would show that she cared, but now...

When he saw that Ning Xi just wanted to leave after receiving the invitation and offering her congratulations, Su Yan clenched his fists tightly and suddenly chased after her to pull the girl’s hand. “Xiao Xi! Don’t you have anything you want to say to me?”

Before Ning Xi could say anything, a hand suddenly appeared from behind and grabbed Ning Xi away from Su Yan.

Ning Xi turned her head. She raised her brows at Jiang Muye who had suddenly run over. “Blondie?”

Jiang Muye shot her a scowl. “What’s there to talk about with an ex? What if pictures of the two of you were taken?”

Then, he looked coldly at Su Yan. “Mr. Su, you’re about to get married. Please watch yourself. Even if you’re not afraid of gossip, my little junior sister is afraid of scandals!”

Su Yan watched the two of them leave with a frown.

Not only were the two of them close, Jiang Muye even knew about him dating Ning Xi in the past.

Could the rumors about Ning Xi dating Jiang Muye really be true?

After he brought Ning Xi away, Jiang Muye immediately demanded, “What nonsense were you talking about with that trashy man?”

Ning Xi shrugged. “He was obviously here to wait for me. I decided to just settle it once and for all to save my time!”

Jiang Muye looked at her sceptically like he did not quite believe her. “Really? You wouldn’t happen to still be hung up on this first love, would you?”

Chapter 1396: Pleased As Punch

After all, first love is the hardest to forget...

“Do you truly think I’m brainless?” Ning Xi said unhappily.

Jiang Muye looked even more solemn. “Then, are you preparing to use those ways to handle Su Yan? Such as seducing Su Yan then dumping him?”

Ning Xi raised her brows. “Me seducing Su Yan? If I was really about to seduce him, do you think Ning Xueluo would still be in the picture?”

Jiang Muye was speechless.

It seemed that he could not argue with her.

Ning Xi suddenly stared at Jiang Muye. “Blondie, have you ever heard of a particular saying?”

Jiang Muye frowned. “What saying?”

Ning Xi shot him an aristocratic look as light as a feather. “Acting nonchalantly is the most savage revenge.”

To just let her seduce Su Yan might be a little too gross.

Ning Xi finished, then continued to say, “Right, there’s one more saying. Usually, if a person can’t move on from their ex, that must be because the current partner isn’t good enough. Thus, now that I have a partner such as my dearest darling, do you think... That I have any reason to not forget my ex?”

Jiang Muye was speechless yet again.

Well, he could consider that his mouth asked for it...

Jiang Muye took quite a few deep breaths before he recovered from the pain of being stuffed with public affection for the Nth time. He muttered to the sweet-looking girl, “Have you and Lu Tingxiao made up from your fight? Look at you, pleased as Punch!”

Previously, it was as if she had a contagious disease. Even he did not dare to get within three steps of her.

Ning Xi recalled the evening from yesterday... Spring winds in a small town... Paddy fields...

She did not care about Jiang Muye’s question. Her face revealed an incredibly gentle expression as she murmured, immersed in her own words, “Sigh, I suddenly have an impulse to propose to my dearest darling. I got to speed up on my progress of accumulating dowry...”

Jiang Muye had nothing to say.

Let’s just pretend I didn’t ask...

Very soon, it was time for the opening ceremony to begin shooting.

The main creatives from the drama team took turns to light up their joss sticks and pray to the deities. At last, the director lifted open the red cloth that covered the camera and announced the beginning of the shoot.

The scene was a wave of cheers and applauses.

Meng Shiyi, who was beside Ning Xi, had been looking around and seemed absent-minded since the ceremony began. Now, she walked to the director to ask, "Director Guo, did CEO Yun not come today?"

"We did inform Boss Yun's end, but as he's such a prominent figure, he definitely won't attend small ceremonies like this!" Guo Qisheng answered.

"Understood." Meng Shiyi revealed a disappointed expression, then she asked again, "Will he really be coming to do the cameo then?"

"Well, he only mentioned it once on the phone. As for whether he will actually come, I really am not sure. After all, the rumors have said that that CEO's temperament is a little unpredictable. We'll only know everything when the time comes," Guo Qisheng said in an unsure tone.

Meng Shiyi thought about it and suggested, "Right, Director Guo, isn't that character for Leng Aoxue's mysterious master still available? How about you let CEO Yun cameo as that? This is an upright and positive character. In fact, it was very popular among the readers of the original work. It must be more suitable than being the father of a sinister witch, isn't it?"

When he heard this, how could Guo Qisheng not understand Meng Shiyi's intentions? He cleared his throat and said with difficulty, "I'm afraid that this isn't something I can decide on. The character Yun Haotian was first chosen by Boss Yun himself."

"He chose it himself? Why did he have to choose this character?"

"Maybe because this character's surname is coincidentally also Yun, and it caught Boss Yun's interest? I'm not too sure about how rich people think either!"

Ning Xi listened to Meng Shiyi and Guo Qisheng's conversation and pinched the space between her brows. She took a long sigh, indicating that she was tired.

Chapter 1397: Could Only Rely On Herself

After the ceremony ended, Ning Xi apologetically rejected the upcoming social with the reason that her family member was ill, then she rushed right back to the hospital to observe Ning Tianxin.

Ning Xi had just reached the hospital entrance when she saw someone running towards her.

"Tang Xi, you bastard!"

"Oh, Second Senior Brother, you're back!" Ning Xi skimmed the man before her through her sunglasses.

Tang Lang's hair was messy and his clothes were a dirty grey. He had even rolled through tree leaves, the bits making him look even more disheveled. One look and it was clear that the tumble had been pretty vigorous...

"Punk, I went to help you, but at last, you ditched me and left me alone!"

"I just didn't want to disturb you and First Senior Brother's love for one another! I haven't even asked you yet. What did you do to trigger First Senior Brother like this?" Ning Xi looked curious and closed in to ask.

Tang Lang's expression changed slightly and he said unhappily, "Go away! Children shouldn't be so bothered about adult matters!"

Then, he ran off.

It was probably related to Tang Lang betraying the faction and the reason he left the organization. Previously, she had wanted to ask Lu Tingxiao about it, but with Tang Lang's secretive attitude that clearly did not want anyone to know, she felt it would not be good to randomly ask such a question...

She walked to the ward and saw that Xiong Zhi was guarding the door diligently like a statue.

"Miss Xiao Xi!"

"Did anyone come while I was away?" Ning Xi asked.

"No."

Ning Xi nodded. At least, that guy was tactful.

Ning Xi pushed open the door and saw that Annie was talking to Ning Tianxin who was lying on the sick bed.

"Sis Tianxin, you're awake!" Ning Xi quickly walked over.

"Bro Xi, you're back. Sis Tianxin just woke up!" Annie said.

Ning Tianxin's gaze skimmed the drip on the back of her hand. Then, she looked around the white ward, her face at a loss. "Xiao Xi... How did I get here?"

"There was a problem when you did the abortion at the clinic. You were bleeding non-stop. We transferred you here at dawn."

When Ning Tianxin heard this, she sub-consciously ran her hands over her flat stomach and there was a distance in her eyes. Last night's memories were slowly coming back to her...

When Ning Xi saw Ning Tianxin's sub-conscious action and the hollow expression on her face, her heart tightened. "Sis Tianxin, how do you feel now? Are you unwell anywhere?"

Ning Tianxin was slow to shake her head, she looked to Ning Xi, "I'm sorry for worrying you, Xiao Xi."

Ning Xi sighed, "I was frightened to death by you..."

"Does the family know?" Ning Tianxin asked first.

"Don't worry. I didn't tell them. I'm helping you keep this a secret! But the Mo family already knows. In the morning, Mo Lingtian's parents and aunty were here to see you, I was worried that you would be agitated, so I had them leave, and Mo Lingtian... That guy said something about wanting to take a look at you. I chased him away too.

"You still need a few days of observation before you can check out of the hospital. After that, you can go to my place for a while. I really am not okay with leaving you alone. Oh, and this is my friend, Annie. Her medical expertise is especially awesome. With her helping you heal, your body can definitely recover!"

"Thank you, Xiao Xi."

Ning Xi noticed that Ning Tianxin's expression had been unenthusiastic since she woke up. There was neither sadness nor happiness, much less any vigorous reaction. This made Ning Xi even more worried instead.

However, she knew that worrying would not help such situations. She could only rely on herself, and on time to help her out of this rut...

Chapter 1398: I Don't Believe That I Can't

These few days, everyone in the Lu Corporation was pretty tense.

The annual general meeting would be held soon. Every manager and supervisor from each business under the Lu Corporation would gather in Imperial and the meeting would last for a week.

In this period of time, everything could not go wrong.

The director's meeting had just adjourned and people started to leave. Finally, only Lu Tingxiao and Lu Jingli were left in the room.

Lu Jingli leaned back into the chair, seeming exhausted. "The scariest time of the year is coming again!"

Every time the annual meeting arrived, apart from talking business, it was a regular phenomenon for people to start introducing girls to his brother.

Of course, he would get a lot of introductions as well.

He could not stand it even with him liking girls so much. However, his brother had it worse.

Although his brother was no longer single, his relationship with Ning Xi could not be announced yet. Even if everyone knew, people would still introduce him girls anyway because of Ning Xi's less-than-desirable societal standing.

It was an important position, after all. Huge amounts of benefit were involved and everyone wanted to have someone they knew to be in the coveted position.

What happened to Ning Xi in the past was worrying Lu Tingxiao as well...

Lu Tingxiao looked out of the window at the sunset. "How's the investigation going?"

Lu Jingli scratched his head. "It's pretty tricky to find out. It's such a big hotel with so many rooms, so it was really difficult to check. Moreover, it's Qin Yuan Hotel after all. They are renowned for having great privacy. There aren't any security cameras anywhere within 10 miles in the radius of the hotel. But it's alright. I'll make sure to vet through everyone who stayed in the hotel that night. I don't believe that I can't get him!"

"I'll give you seven days of leave."

"No problem! I'll get it done as soon as possible."

...

After Ning Tianxin was discharged she stayed at Peachwood. Aside from Annie, Ning Xi had Qin Mufeng go over as well.

The breeze blew through the night.

Ning Tianxin was sitting on a rattan chair and drinking a special herbal tea made by Annie. It had a slightly bitter but refreshing fragrance.

She looked at the man beside her and said, "Doctor Qin, Xiao Xi is too nervous. I'm really alright. When I decided to do the operation, I've already anticipated the worst, and I was already sure that I could take it.

"From the beginning till now, I've never regretted any of my decisions. Sometimes, clinging to hope is more painful than losing all hope."

Qin Mufeng looked a little defeated because he realized he had nothing to do there.

"I knew Mo Lingtian as well. To be honest, I can't believe that you fell for him!"

One was an infamous rich kid in Imperial while the other one was a kind and strong girl. Their personalities were totally different.

Ning Tianxin raised her head and looked up at the moon in a melancholic way. "It was easy to fall in love back then. I didn't need any particularly strong reason. Maybe that someone just happened to wear that particular white shirt that I liked, or maybe just one look..."

Chapter 1399: Not Knowing Where Love Comes From

“I remember that the first time I met him was on a bus. I was on my period and had bad stomach cramps. He was sitting next to where I was standing with dyed hair and odd clothes, yet he stood up and offered me the seat.”

Qin Mufeng looked at the girl as she was reminiscing about the past. He suddenly thought of a saying, “Love; not knowing where it comes from, deep into it we fall.”

Damn it! Was Mo Lingtian blind?

After Qin Mufeng was done chatting with Ning Tianxin, Ning Xi dragged him into the kitchen. “Qin Mufeng, be honest with me. How’s Sis Tianxin’s condition?”

Qin Mufeng looked helplessly at her. “Boss, I’ve told you a lot of times. Don’t fret thing. Tianxin has a frail outer appearance but she’s strong inside. She’s really calm! She won’t fall into depression or seek death!”

“Are you sure?”

“Trust in my professionalism, alright?”

Ning Xi’s expression indicated she had serious doubts.

Qin Mufeng glanced at the girl in the garden. She looked so thin and pale, but there were no signs of resentment in her expression. Instead, she was relaxed.

Ning Xi waved her hands in front of Qin Mufeng’s eyes. “What are you staring at?”

“With my past experience, I thought her psychological state would be unstable, but in the past few days, she’s really surprised me. In a nutshell, Tianxin is really alright. Maybe she was revived after experiencing death once!”

Ning Xi was relieved.

“So, my job as a psychiatrist is done here! The therapy is finished!” Qin Mufeng said.

Ning Xi was surprised. “Huh? This soon? It’s only been a few days!”

“Nonsense. If I continue to be her psychiatrist, how do I get closer to her?”

Ning Xi’s eyes flew wide. “What did you say?”

“Uhm... Nope! Nothing!”

Ning Xi squinted her eyes and looked at him. “You said it. You want to get closer to her!”

Qin Mufeng was dripping with sweat. He could only admit, “Fine, well... Tianxin... She’s totally my type! I want to get closer to her!”

In his profession, he could not have any other special relationships with his patients.

“You bastard! She just went through such a traumatic experience!” Ning Xi looked like she was about to kill him.

Qin Mufeng waved his hand and shrugged. “It’s exactly because of this that she needs a new relationship to forget about her past painful experience!”

Ning Xi stared at him. “And... You don’t mind Sis Tianxin’s condition?”

Qin Mufeng replied, “Of course not. It’s not her fault that she fell in love with the wrong person. As for having a child, I don’t mind at all! I have seven siblings at home. I’m not tasked to have children! My parents are both overseas and they’re pretty open about stuff like these!”

“Are you serious?” Ning Xi frowned.

Qin Mufeng sighed, “Bro, Tianxin is your cousin. Would I tell you all this without being serious? If I’m just fooling around, don’t you think that I’ll be afraid you’ll break my third leg?”

“Great that you’re aware about that!”

“But well, don’t tell her that I like her. It’ll scare her off if you tell her now while her current condition is stable. She’ll have severe trauma!”

Chapter 1400: Take A Look At Her

“What trauma?” Ning Xi stiffened.

“It’ll be very difficult for her to accept another person. Didn’t you realize that she doesn’t care about whether she can have a child in the future again? She planned to be alone until her death. If you let her know what I think now, then it’ll be the end for me,” Qin Mufeng analyzed.

“I’m quite worried about that too,” Ning Xi sighed.

“Now, you don’t have to worry. Of course, it’ll be the end for others, but I’m a professional!” Qin Mufeng gave her a triumphant look.

Ning Xi looked at him squarely. “Qin Mufeng, I realized your profession is pretty handy when it comes to wooing girls!”

“Of course, let me tell you. There isn’t any girl I can’t get except those that I don’t want to.”

Ning Xi stared at him. “Just how many girls have you wooed before?”

“Well, I’m just saying, up until now Tianxin is the only girl that can make my heart race!”

Seeing how Ning Xi was looking at him like he was a pervert, Qin Mufeng started sweating again. "Don't be so riled up. It's not like I'm going to abduct her right away. I just like her for now. Even if we don't get to become lovers in the end, we can still be friends! I won't force her!"

Ning Xi relaxed a little after hearing what Qin Mufeng said.

If he said he could not have anyone else besides her just after three days, she would never believe him!

...

At the same time, somewhere near Peachwood, a car was parked quietly by the roadside.

A man leaned on the car, still wearing the same pajamas he had worn to the hospital the other day. He had a cigarette lit and was staring at a garden nearby.

His phone on the driving seat had a notification, and he picked it up. After seeing the incoming call, he answered it after a while, "Hello?"

"Lingtian, what happened? Why didn't you pick up your phone?" The girl's worried voice came through the phone.

"Nothing... What's the matter?"

"I'm sorry, Lingtian. I was too harsh the other night."

"It's alright."

"Lingtian, you don't sound right. Are you sick?"

"No."

"Are you still troubled over that woman? She probably just wants money anyway. If she doesn't want to take it, she probably just wants more..."

Mo Lingtian was not paying any attention to Guan Ziyao. Halfway through their conversation, he mumbled something and quickly ended the call. He gazed at the direction of the garden nervously.

The door suddenly opened. A familiar figure came out of the house and was walking nearer towards his direction.

Mo Lingtian quickly put out his cigarette, then hid behind a tree.

The thin figure walked towards a trash can near him and she threw a black plastic bag inside.

Under the dim light of the night, he could see the girl was getting gaunt. She looked really pale as well and would probably be blown away by a slightly stronger gust of wind.

"Sis Tianxin, why are you outside?! Just let me handle the trash!" Ning Xi had followed her out and she carefully held Ning Tianxin.

"I'm not that weak. It's just a few steps anyway." Ning Tianxin sounded helpless.

“No! Annie said that you need bed rest these few days!”

...

Only when the girl had entered the house did Mo Lingtian slowly come out from behind the tree.

He had already lingered there quietly for three days.

Finally, he saw her...

However, his first reaction was to hide himself...

Ning Xi was right. So what if he met her?

He knew that he had no right to see her, but... He could not control himself...

He was anxious and frustrated at whatever he did for the past few days. Despite his exhaustion, he could not sleep. He could only feel better when he was somewhere near her...
