Chapter 1511: Help You To Recover

“Then, quickly come in!” The nurse urged.

It was an emergency, so Lu Tingxiao did not have time to explain to Ning Xi. He assured her, “Don’t worry, it’ll be alright.”

He then followed the nurse inside.

Tang Ye looked at the man’s back as he went inside the room. There was a shine on his glasses.

“What?! Such a coincidence? My uncle has that blood type too?” Jiang Muye was really surprised. He had no idea at all...

This was news to Ning Xi too. She stared into the direction of the emergency room. She did not expect Lu Tingxiao to come over and coincidentally have the same blood type as Yun Shen...

Yun Shen and Lu Tingxiao were both inside the room while Ning Xu sat on the bench outside. Jiang Muye was beside her as Tang Ye was making a call at the end of the corridor. The atmosphere was heavy.

As time passed by, the air became suffocating...

After a long time, the emergency room door opened again.

Ning Xi stood up instantly. “Doctor, how is it?”

The doctor in a white gown was sweating profusely as he said tiredly, “He’s not in danger for now.”

Annie then came out from the room, sweating profusely too. A few patches of blood could be seen on her clothes. “Don’t worry, Bro Xi! Thanks to Mr. Lu, Bro Shen is alright now!”

Two nurses wheeled Yun Shen out from the emergency room and were heading towards a recovery room.

Ning Xi’s tensed up nerves finally relaxed a little when she knew Yun Shen was fine at the moment, but then she became nervous all over again. She peeped inside. “Where’s Lu Tingxiao?”

Familiar footsteps came out of the room. It was Lu Tingxiao.

Probably because too much blood had been taken from him, the man looked pale. He had already taken off his coat and was only wearing a white shirt, his sleeves rolled up. He was pressing his fingers on the spot where blood had been drawn from earlier.

Ning Xi went over and held him steadily. “Are you okay? Feeling dizzy?”

Lu Tingxiao let go of the cotton ball when his bleeding stopped, then he ran his fingers through the girl’s hair. “I’m not that weak.”

Ning Xi carefully held onto Lu Tingxiao as she asked him. “How do you know what happened on my end...”

“Shi Xiao called me,” Lu Tingxiao replied.

“I see...” Ning Xi saw Lu Tingxiao’s pale expression and felt really bad. “I’ll make some nourishing food for you later. I’ll help you recover!”

Jiang Muye was speechless when he had to witness this scene after having to drive Ning Xi and Yun Shen here...

“What about me?! I spent the effort to be your chauffeur, and now blood is everywhere in my baby!”

She treated both her ex and current boyfriend so well, but treated him as her dog!

Ning Xi took out a car key. “Thanks, you can drive my Whitey first. I’ll wash your car for you later on. I’ll definitely work on it after I’m done with filming!”

Jiang Muye felt better after she said that, but was still dissatisfied anyway. It was not only towards Lu Tingxiao; he was really unhappy that Ning Xi had been so worried for Yun Shen.

The feelings he was experiencing were like when one was advised not to be jealous of Einstein but would be jealous anyway because the kid next door was better than you...

Annie followed Yun Shen into the room, and Tang Ye went up to Lu Tingxiao. With a questionable glance and tone, he said, “CEO Lu, thanks for your help.”

“Don’t worry about it. Xiao Xi’s matter is my matter as well.”

Chapter 1512: I’ll Pay Back For What She Owes

In the recovery room.

Yun Shen was not unconscious for very long; it was just a small wound after all and he would be alright once the bleeding stopped.

The man looked at peace when he was unconscious. His soft, silver hair covered his forehead and his left eye. He actually looked a little weak right then, vastly different from the arrogant vibe he usually carried.

However, when he opened his eyes, he instantly transformed back into his usual self.

The man was alert and looked around. When he saw the girl by the bedside, his playful side returned to him. “Seems like I’m not dead yet...”

“Please!” Ning Xi glared at the man. “Can you not mention dying in the hospital?”

The man said regretfully, “How disappointed...”

Ning Xi was speechless. “You’re disappointed that you’re not dead?”

The man’s eyes twinkled. “I just wanted to see what kind of expression you’d make if I died...”

Ning Xi stayed silent...

This maniac!

“My dear, I saved you once again!” The man’s eyes were gleaming and he sounded happy.

Ning Xi had enough of him. She became wary. “Don’t try to trick me again...”

She really wished she had been the one injured!

“Anyway I’ve lost a lot of blood for you, so it’ll be alright for you to stay and take care of me, won’t it?”

Ning Xi thought this guy was about to request for something impossible, which she was going to reject instantly, but since he had returned to normal and it was a reasonable request, she suddenly had no idea how to reply him...

“Dear, go and peel me an apple!”

Before Ning Xi could reply, someone already started making requests with a big smile pasted on his face.

Ning Xi frowned. Her eyes looked at the bandages on Yun Shen’s shoulder and blood patches all around him, then she reached out for an apple.

As she was about to peel it, a hand extended from behind her.

Lu Tingxiao suddenly came over and took the apple and knife from Ning Xi’s hand. He said with a deep, cold voice, “I’ll do it.”

Yun Shen looked at the person with an odd smile.

Lu Tingxiao was really skilled and deft. He finished peeling the apple in an instant, the peel connected in one strip without any breakage at all. It was a blissful sight for those who had obsessive-compulsive disorder.

Lu Tingxiao’s long fingers passed the apple to the patient on the bed as he said expressionlessly, “I’ll pay back for what she owes.”

“Lu Tingxiao...” Ning Xi had an indescribable feeling inside her when she heard that.

The man with white hair narrowed his eyes. He let out a cold vibe but it was not shown in his expression at all. He stared at the apple Lu Tingxiao had in his hand and said with a disgusted tone, “I only eat apples in the shape of a bunny.”

Ning Xi was speechless. She had had enough of him!

Lu Tingxiao patiently took a plate and then swiftly cut the apple into shapes of bunnies.

“I suddenly don’t feel like eating an apple now!” The man on the bed said. He looked around with his seductive eyes. “Help me change my clothes...”

Ning Xi could not stand him anymore. She glared at him as if he was trying to flirt with her partner, and she was about to bite him to death. “Damn it! Enough is enough!”

Chapter 1513: I'm Not Interested In Men

Bloody hell! This dude doesn't abstain from men or women! He had better not have taken a liking to my darling!

Actually, there had been a long period of time when she had suspected that he liked men. After all, before she returned to the country, she had appeared in male outfits before this guy. When she dressed up as a man for long, she herself had almost forgotten her own gender. She remembered that when Yun Shen had suggested that they start dating, she was so shocked that she was at a complete loss and had immediately insisted, "I'm not gay!".

Later on, she and Third Senior Sister Feng Xiaoxiao had privately discussed their niggling suspicion about whether he actually liked men many times.

When he saw Ning Xi's expression, the man on the sick bed gently laughed, "Don't worry, I'm not interested in men."

Ning Xi remained alert. "Do you think your words are trustworthy? Also, even though you helped me this time, because you kept bleeding like you were on your menses and almost died, it was Lu Tingxiao's blood transfusion that saved you. We're considered even now!"

The man revealed a contemplative expression as thoughts raced through his head. He said indifferently, "As the head of the Lu family and as the Lu Corporation's helmsman, just in case of anything, do you think the entire Lu family wouldn't store such a rare blood type? Yet, he had personally transfused blood to me..."

"Huh, my dear, you can't even recognize such a shallow trick of injuring oneself to gain the enemy's confidence! Has your IQ been fed to the dogs?"

The moment he said that, Lu Tingxiao's eyes dimmed. He looked icily at the man on the sick bed who kept provoking him. At the same time, there was an indistinct worry in them.

After Ning Xi heard Yun Shen's words, she was stunned, then she looked blankly at Lu Tingxiao beside her. In the next second, she threw herself into the man's embrace and looked up with a touched expression. "Darling, thank you..."

The words that Lu Tingxiao had said to her at the start, "I just wanted to let you know, no one, and nothing can affect your decision, you only need to consider me, and one thing, that is whether you like me or not" suddenly flashed in Ning Xi's mind.

And he had really done just that just so she would not be burdened. He did not hesitate to transfuse blood for Yun Shen personally just to help her return this favor to Yun Shen.

Lu Tingxiao breathed a sigh of relief as he looked at the girl with an incredibly gentle gaze.

There had never been a need for words of explanations between them.

Yun Shen, who watched them hug and was almost so bitter that he was about to bleed again, was speechless.

“Ahem...” At the room entrance, Tang Ye had spoken up in time and saved his boss who was about to die from anger. “Little Junior Sister, you guys can go back now. I’ll be here to watch him.”

Ning Xi scratched her head. “Ah, that wouldn’t be too nice. I think I’ll stay to help. After all, it was because of me...”

Tang Ye only sighed and tactfully said, “With you two here, it’ll stir the patient’s emotions.”

Ning Xi just realized she seemed to have accidentally displayed her affection publicly. Yun Shen’s gaze looked murderous, so she pulled Lu Tingxiao and ran off immediately. “Ahem, okay... First Senior Brother, if there’s anything you need me for, contact me again. Bye bye...”

Tang Ye adjusted his spectacles and did not respond. “The master is on his way here.”

Yun Shen frowned and looked even worse now. “Troublesome...”

Soon after, there was the sound of many footsteps outside the room, then the door was pushed opened. A middle-aged man in a traditional Chinese outfit walked in.

Chapter 1514: More Will Be Snatched Away

The man’s gaze skimmed Yun Shen on the sick bed, and he looked very upset. “Utter nonsense!”

Then, he glared at Tang Ye, his expression darker. “Didn’t I tell you many times to watch him!?”

Tang Ye immediately admitted his mistake, “It’s my fault.”

Although, in reality, he had not watched him at all because he knew that even if he did, he would not be able to control him.

“What happened?” Qiao Yi could guess that it was partly due to Yun Shen’s temperament too, so he took a deep breath and calmed down to ask.

Tang Ye concisely explained the entire incident, then he said, “In the entire Imperial black market blood bank, Satan’s blood type is under the Lu family’s control. I thought that this time the other side would take advantage and was set to kill him... But, unexpectedly, Lu Tingxiao came over personally to transfuse blood to Satan...”

“Hmm...” On the sick bed, when the man heard this, he groaned again as if he disliked a certain person’s blood.

Qiao Yi changed his attitude and advised, “Ah Shen, it’s not that that girl Xi has no feelings for you. There’s just too much temptation outside. Lu Tingxiao is one to habitually use tricks too. It’s normal for her wisdom to be charmed. You know young ladies really don’t have much resistance towards men like Lu Tingxiao...”

When he said this, Qiao Yi suddenly changed the topic. “But if one day, you replaced that person and get everything... Just wait for the day that he’s left with nothing! Do you think there’ll still be women after him? On the other hand, more would be snatched away from you, including Tang Xi...”

Qiao Yi hinted as such, then he left the ward but not before shooting a look at Tang Ye, hinting him to follow him out.

Tang Ye’s eyes flashed, but he could only follow the man outside.

Because Tang Ye had paid for the entire floor, there was no one else on this level.

The corridor was cold and dead silent. The moment they stepped out, Qiao Yi’s murderous intentions spread. “Ah Ye, you’ve really disappointed me!”

Tang Ye immediately knelt down on one knee and lowered his head. “Tang Lang’s skills are improving rapidly...”

“Don’t tell me that even you’re no match for him.”

“Yes,” Tang Ye answered without hesitation.

Qiao Yi looked down at Tang Ye. Once he saw that expression, he knew that Tang Ye was intentionally throwing the game.

Moments later, Qiao Yi finally said, “Never mind... I will make a trip myself, and settle that evil creature!”

The fingers that Tang Ye laid by his side suddenly tensed up. “Master...”

At that moment, there was the sudden sound of abrupt footsteps from the end of the corridor, exceptionally clear in the quiet air.

When he heard these familiar footsteps, Tang Ye subconsciously looked up and saw...

“Tang Lang...” When he saw who it was, Tang Ye’s expression immediately changed.

The air surrounding Qiao Yi suddenly became dense with murderous spirit as he looked gloomily at his former disciple. “Evil creature, how dare you still appear before me?!”

Tang Lang maintained his usual heartless expression before he broke into a smile. “Long time no see! I’ve especially come to ask how you’ve been doing, Master!”

Qiao Yi looked at him like he was a dead man. “I’ll allow you to leave your last words.”

“Huh...” Tang Lang chuckled and looked up at Tang Ye who was already a mess at the moment. “First Senior Brother, look at me, I’m dying soon. How about you let me have a peek at my lil credit card one last time?”

Tang Lang was speechless.

The instant Tang Lang finished, Qiao Yi charged ahead without the slightest hesitation.

He watched the intense fight between the two. One had been a brother he grew up with, the other was a master whom he viewed as a father figure and to whom he owed his upbringing. Tang Ye had no expression on his face, yet his heart was bleeding from struggling and being torn apart between the two of them...

Chapter 1515: Show No Mercy

Tang Ye was more worried about Tang Lang going up against their master. Tang Lang almost had no chance of winning at all...

Tang Lang was being pushed back by his master. There were several times that he escaped death, but Tang Ye could not just be a bystander at this point.

As expected, Tang Lang did not even reach the tenth exchange when Qiao Yi was about to go in for the kill. Tang Ye's expression changed as his hand twitched like he was going to do something. Tang Lang's body was as flexible as a gymnast and he avoided Qiao Yi's assault.

After that, Tang Lang stood about three steps away from Qiao Yi and grinned. "Master, that's ten exchanges. Please be careful from this point onwards!"

"Arrogance!" Qiao Yi roared and he attacked even more aggressively.

However, Tang Lang did not just stay on the defense like he had earlier. He countered every single attack. While Tang Lang had learned everything from Qiao Yi, Qiao Yi also knew him the best, and of course, Tang Lang knew Qiao Yi very well too.

Tang Ye was not lying when he said Tang Lang had improved tremendously. In just a short span of time, Tang Lang's improvement in skills was enough to make Qiao Yi's jaw drop.

They were tied, but after a hundred exchanges, Tang Lang gained the upper hand because he was younger and had more stamina.

Finally, Tang Lang clawed Qiao Yi's throat.

"Tang Lang!" Tang Ye interfered, blocking Tang Lang's killing move.

Qiao Yi was shocked, still reeling from the fact that he had lost to his student.

Tang Lang did not continue after Tang Ye intervened. He looked at Qiao Yi coldly. "Master, this time, I'll let you go as repayment for whatever you've done to raise me, but the next time, I'll show no mercy."

He then spun on his heel and left.

Qiao Yi cracked his finger joints and gritted his teeth. "You bastard! Bastard!"

He knew that Tang Lang was really talented, but he was lazy. If he could put in a tenth as much effort as Tang Ye, it would just be a matter of time to surpass him.

Although he had realized this a long time ago, it was still shocking for him to witness such monstrous growth, which was also why he needed to get rid of Tang Lang as soon as possible.

Still, the situation was getting trickier. Tang Ye was not able to kill him because Lu Tingxiao had always been interfering from the dark. Although he had sent many others as well, all of them failed...

Well, he was still just a small fry anyway. The top priority would still be the Lu family...

In the CEO office of the Lu Corporation.

Lu Jingli went to report to his brother after he finished investigating the matter. "Bro, I investigated... The camera falling was indeed an accident!"

Lu Tingxiao did not plan to just let Lu Jingli go. Instead, he uttered, "Video."

At the scene, there was more than just one camera, and they would have recorded what happened. Lu Jingli must have seen them all.

"Ugh..." Lu Jingli looked troubled. He coughed lightly, "Bro, I've checked through all of them. There wouldn't be any mistake, so you don't have to watch the videos, do you?"

Lu Tingxiao did not say anything. He just looked at Lu Jingli.

Lu Jingli was intimidated by his brother's heart-piercing stare, but he eyed him carefully. "Bro, are you really doubting my abilities?"

Chapter 1516: Position In Her Heart

Because Lu Jingli kept on avoiding the topic, something fishy must have been going on.

After Lu Jingli declined to show him the videos again, Lu Tingxiao did not ask anymore. He just looked at the computer on his table.

Lu Jingli thought he had covered up well, but then he heard some familiar voices from Lu Tingxiao's computer...

"We don't have to be considerate towards the witch. Everyone, let's go!" The voices of the actors.

"Ah! Ning Xi!" The voice of a crew member.

"Yun Shen!" Ning Xi screamed.

Lu Jingli's eyes were popping out of their sockets. When he went before Lu Tingxiao's computer screen, he saw the video, which was supposed to be only in his inbox, playing.

"Hey! You hacked my computer?! How could you do that?!"

Lu Tingxiao glanced at him. His eyes seem to be saying, "Do I really need to hack your computer?"

Lu Jingli then looked properly again. His brother had simply logged into his inbox. "Damn! How do you even know my email password!"

The video was still playing on the screen, and Lu Jingli could no longer hide it anymore. He could only look on as his brother witnessed the scene where Ning Xi was extremely worried for Yun Shen.

“Bro, actually it’s nothing much. That guy got hurt because of Xiao Xi Xi anyway. It’s normal for her to be this worried...” Lu Jingli’s comforting words were contradicting himself.

Since it’s nothing much, why did you try to stop me from watching it earlier?

Lu Tingxiao looked at the screen quietly, his expression not betraying his emotions at all.

Ning Xi had been nervous because she was the cause. Because Yun Shen had coagulopathy and because he was the one who had helped her through her darkest times, even though he brought her darkness, she prevailed through it...

Even though he met Ning Xi before Yun Shen, he missed out the most important phase of her life...

No matter what, he had to admit that that man had an irreplaceable position in her heart.

...

After leaving the hospital, Ning Xi started replying her calls from everyone.

Because of this accident, the whole filming crew was in chaos. Guo Qisheng and the producer had almost gone crazy. They were only relieved after they received the call from Ning Xi that Yun Shen was okay.

Ning Xi then went back to the crew and discussed how to handle the leftover mess. In the frantic emergency earlier, someone had taken pictures of her and Jiang Muye sending Yun Shen to the hospital, and put them on the Net.

Then again, as long as Yun Shen was alright, these were not big issues, and the crew was more than capable to handle it...

The next day, Ning Xi went to the set as usual.

The accident yesterday had happened at the moment when filming was completed, so Yun Shen’s last scene was done and did not need a retake.

Most of the scenes in the next few days were between her and Meng Shiyi.

She waited from morning until afternoon, only then was she informed that Meng Shiyi could not make it for the upcoming few days.

Guo Qisheng planned to finish the remaining scenes all in one go, but he did not expect Meng Shiyi to be absent at this moment, so he could only give up and give everyone the day off.

Ning Xi held onto her car keys and went to the underground parking lot. She contemplated for a while and decided to visit the guy at the hospital, then she would go to Spirit Studio before heading to Lu Tingxiao’s place to make some tonic for his recovery.

“Don’t move.”

Ning Xi was planning her day in her mind when there was a deep voice behind her. She also felt a cold, hard tube pressing behind her lower back at the same moment.

Chapter 1517: There’s No Way

What a familiar sensation to her.

“Turn around and raise your hands!” The man yelled cruelly.

Ning Xi cooperated and put her hands up. She looked behind and saw a big guy wearing a black tank top, glaring at her fiercely while pointing a gun at her. There was also another man beside him, aiming a gun at her too. He said in a deep voice, “Get in the car!”

Ning Xi looked at the white van beside her car. There were another two people inside, all of them armed. These were definitely not your everyday kidnapers.

After assessing the situation, Ning Xi knew she could not run away from this unscathed, so she cooperated and waited for her chance to escape.

When they shoved her hard, the pink crystal hair clip on Ning Xi’s hair fell on the ground.

It was the one Little Treasure had given her on her birthday...

Ning Xi tensed up. Just as she was about to pick it up, the large man stepped on it, crushing the hair clip.

“What are you doing?! Do you want to die?!” The man pushed Ning Xi inside the car.

Ning Xi took a deep breath and hid her rising bloodlust. She was tied up after she got into the car, but they did not blindfold her.

Ning Xi frowned. They did not blindfold her... so were they not planning to let her stay alive?

“Who are you people?” Ning Xi carefully assessed the four people in the car and tried to probe.

The driver had a long scar across his face as if it was done by a knife. The blonde in the passenger seat looked carefree and was smoking, while the one on her left was the big-sized guy and on her right was a tall, skinny man.

After some basic evaluation, these people looked strong and they were obviously trained, but not to the level of a mercenary like Feng Xiaoxiao, so she could omit the possibility that Feng Jin had sent them.

However, of course, they were not your regular kidnapers or thugs. These guys probably came from the streets and had complicated backgrounds.

The big-sized man was playing with the gun in his hand and he said in a spooky voice, “Someone who wants your life!”

The blonde in front turned around as he rubbed his hands. "Before we take her life, let me have some fun!"

The big-sized man stared at the blonde. "It'll only be your turn if the Boss doesn't want her!"

"Ugh... She's such a beauty... There's no way the Boss won't want to do it!"

"Stop with the nonsense. Why are you so impatient when I haven't even said anything?!"

"Yes, yes... I'll just pick up whatever is left over by you guys..." The blonde smiled and eyed Ning Xi with a perverted gaze.

To the blonde, the woman in the back seat had really fair skin, and her cute little face was really impressive. In that pink number, she looked so adorable.

"Tsk... Such a cutie, no wonder Miss wants to eliminate her," he mumbled.

Ning Xi now knew who was behind this! Could it be Meng Shiyi?!

The big-sized man seemed to realize that Ning Xi might have found out the identity of his Miss, but he did not mind at all. She was about to die, after all, so it would not make a difference if she knew about it or not!

...

These people were really vigilant. They probably knew about her physical abilities beforehand, so the entire car journey, there was always a muzzle pointing at her.

Ning Xi was really obedient along the way. She closed her eyes and relaxed, curious about Meng Shiyi's rumored background. What could it be?

After some time on the road, the car stopped.

Chapter 1518: Play Until She Dies

The car door opened and Ning Xi was shoved out of the car.

What greeted her eyes was a building that looked like a martial arts center. There was a pole with a huge flag propped up in front of the door, and the sign on the flag showed the word "Qing".

Ning Xi's brows raised slightly. Tsk, the Qing Xuan Gang?

So, it turns out that... Meng Shiyi's supported by the Qing Xuan Gang...

Earlier, she overheard that blonde address her as "Miss". Could she be Qing Xuan Gang's leader, Meng Zhenhuan's daughter?

No wonder she was absolutely unrestrained, daring to order people to use guns and kidnap in places like Imperial in broad daylight. Oh, yes, and she was even about to kill her...

There were many big and small underground gangs in China. Apart from Province D's Black Tiger Fang, the most prestigious and influential one was the Qing Xuan gang. While they did not have the most members, they were the most influential. After all, they controlled the underground world of Beijing and its surrounding provinces...

Ning Xi was thinking about all this to herself as she followed them past a Taoist rites area and walked deeper in.

Probably because they had reached their base camp, they had clearly relaxed significantly. They must have thought that since she was here in their grounds, she would not be able to run even if she had wings.

Ning Xi observed her surroundings for a while. The place was not considered huge, and the members were rather scattered too although it should only be a small part of them. Of course, to Meng Shiyi, if she wanted to kill someone, mobilizing a small subsection gang leader was more than enough.

"Boss, we've brought the person Miss wants!" The big-sized guy yanked Ning Xi hard in front of someone.

In the middle of the hall was a wide, red, wooden seat. There was a lavish tiger fur spread out on the seat, and on it sat a man of tough and stocky build, with tattoos all the exposed areas of his skin. He sat cockily on the seat with women flanking his left and his right.

When he saw Ning Xi, the man pushed the two sexy and skimpy-clothed beauties beside him away and sauntered to Ning Xi with interest. "So, you're the young lady that wants to kill yourself by daring to provoke our Miss?"

Ning Xi kept quiet and cowered appropriately, showing a fearful and frightened expression. In reality, her eyes were evaluating her surroundings rapidly.

When her gaze fell on an object in an open iron trunk not too far away, Ning Xi's eyes lit up slightly. Ah, she seemed to have spotted something fun to play with...

"I'm asking you a question! Wasn't it reported that you're quite capable? Why are you mute now?" When the subsection leader saw the girl shivering and weak, his eyes were filled with lust. He forced himself to have some self-control and asked his subordinate beside him, "What did the Miss say to do?"

The big-sized guy walked up and sneered, "The Miss asked us to shoot a few astonishing videos, then we're free to play... Play with her until she dies!"

"Hahahaha... Right in line with what I want!" That leader instantly cackled heartily. He was probably used to doing such things because very soon, someone had brought video equipment.

"Boss, you first! You first! We'll all learn from your majesticness!" The blonde eagerly licked his boss's boots.

Because Ning Xi looked like she was completely submissive, no one was guarding her securely. The leader started to remove his shirt as he impatiently made his way towards her...

Right at this moment! When everyone was not vigilant...

How dare you break the hair clip that Little Treasure gave me?! Do you want to play? I will bloody play tricks with you!

The instance the man had advanced for her, Ning Xi's hand reached behind his waist and grabbed his gun. Then, she swiftly aimed it at the man's forehead. Before everyone could react, Ning Xi had dragged him to the iron trunk she had noticed earlier and took out a tiny instrument from the trunk, stuffing it into his mouth and forcing him to swallow it...

Chapter 1519: It's Easier To Invite The Devil In Than Send Him Away

This lightning attack had happened in just three short seconds.

The blonde who kept boot-licking, the tall, skinny guy who held his handphone to vulgarly shoot the spectacle, and the perverted, big-sized guy... All the subordinates around them holding equipment were stunned like Medusa's statues!

After Ning Xi stuffed the tiny apparatus into the man's stomach, she did not care about him anymore and thrust him away like he was trash. Then, she walked unhurriedly to the tiger fur seat where the tattooed leader had sat on earlier. She casually propped up her legs and skimmed lazily at everyone.

"My god!"

"This c*nt!"

"Catch her!"

At that moment, the stunned subordinates finally returned to their senses and all of them hooted as they ran towards her.

Ning Xi looked carefreely at them run towards her. Amidst the crowd's raging call for murder, she raised her fair hand and in her fingers was a bright red device that looked like a switch.

"All of you, come back! Come back!" Behind them, that tattooed leader howled his lungs out, then he fell to Ning Xi's feet and was scared witless. "Don't! Don't, don't, don't! Don't touch it! It's dangerous... Dangerous..."

The leader wept and bawled as he used his hand to desperately dig at his throat, trying to vomit out the thing he had swallowed. Helplessly, this thing had really seemed to grow roots once it entered him. He just could not get it out no matter how...

At that second, everyone else was terrified when they saw the switch in Ning Xi's hand. They subconsciously took a few steps backward.

The man had swallowed a microbomb. After it entered the stomach, it would automatically be absorbed by the stomach wall. Even though it was minute in size, once the switch was flicked, the power was enough to annihilate a person into pieces.

And now, this switch that controlled his life and death was in the woman's hand.

The woman wore a cute and pretty dress. She was clearly still the same person, yet now the character she gave off was entirely different. Her expression was not that bone-chilling. She even smirked and smiled faintly, yet he felt like he had just come face to face with the devil.

Even though he was just a subsection gang leader, he still had the ability to make a discerning judgment. In hindsight, the entire process of her snatching the gun and forcing him to swallow the bomb were not skills a regular person would have. Even if she had done martial stunt doubling and had some foundation in fighting, she definitely would not have been able to do that to that extent...

Especially this woman's posture of holding the gun... One look and you would know she was experienced!

In fact, she unexpectedly knew how to handle these types of new firearms like the back of her hand. How would a normal person know that this was a bomb?

Bloody hell! What kind of person had they provoked?

There was not enough time for the leader to think much. He was scared out of his wits as he stared at the fuse in the woman's hand. He started to beg for forgiveness without a care for his image. "Big sister..."

Ning Xi's eyes narrowed. "Hmm? What did you call me?"

"Big... No, no, no! Great aunt! I failed to recognize your importance and great talent. Please be magnanimous! That thing really cannot be simply toyed with!"

Something flashed in the corner of Ning Xi's eyes. She got up and kicked the blonde who had tried to come and snatch the device from her hand. "Tsk, leader, looks like someone wants you to die sooner!"

"Bastard! Are you trying to die?! No one move!" The leader snarled, then kicked the blonde guy again after he had been kicked to confusion by Ning Xi.

Then, he looked carefully at Ning Xi again. "Great aunt, I'm wrong... I really know it's my fault... I'll send you out now. How about that?"

Ning Xi spun the fuse under the leader's frightened gaze and giggled. "Send me out?"

"Yes, yes, yes..."

Chapter 1520: We Try Switching To Woman?

"Who said I wanted to leave?"

"Uhh..." The man was dumbfounded and everyone else exchanged glances too.

“Then... Then, what do you want?”

“Wait till I’m done having fun!” Ning Xi looked smug and had an expression that said she wanted to stay and settle down. Everyone’s faces darkened at this sight. They were speechless.

Not only that, Ning Xi had even used her finger to poke at the armrest of the red wooden seat. She then said, “All of you, everyone eat one of the microbombs!”

Then, she added on, “Women don’t need to.”

“What?!” Suddenly, everyone was afraid. The two girls, who had been serving the leader earlier, sighed in relief.

“This... We don’t need to do this, do we?” The tall, skinny one started to back away.

The big-sized guy cleared his throat too. “This is our leader. His life is in her grasp! How dare we say no?”

Ning Xi pouted. “What if anyone of you wants him to die and seize the throne for yourselves?”

The leader instantly jumped up and slapped all of them. “Swallow it! All of you! I’ve already swallowed it! Can’t you? Huh? Quick! Are you trying to revolt?”

The big-sized guy looked miserable. “If we all eat it, you won’t be able to differentiate whose number is which!”

All the bombs had corresponding numbers and the fuse in Ning Xi’s hand allowed her to select the bomb number to defuse, but if everyone swallowed it, she definitely would not be able to differentiate which number was whose.

Ning Xi pretended to ponder. With everyone anticipating their bomb being let off anytime, Ning Xi blinked and then said, “I’ll just click on the main switch and bomb everyone!”

Everyone was speechless.

Bloody hell! Monster! A female monster!

They were practically meat on her chopping board. Because their leader’s life was hanging so precariously in Ning Xi’s hands, everyone was forced to swallow one bomb.

“Great aunt, are you happy now?” The leader rubbed his hands and asked even more carefully.

Ning Xi turned the fuse in her hand and looked bored stiff. “Boring...”

These words were like a voodoo that hastened their death, frightening the souls out of everyone.

The leader quickly followed up to ask, “What do you like then? What do you want to play? I’ll get it for you! Are you willing to leave once you’re happy with the fun you’re having?”

The priority was to quickly coax this little devil well. Otherwise, their bodies might be dismembered on the spot if they were not careful!

“We’ll see...”

The blonde submissively walked up to the leader who was discussing and said, “I-I... I have an idea!”

“What idea?” The leader looked lamentably at him.

The blonde leaned into his ear and said softly, “Boss, call Sis Hua Hua to send over some obedient, pretty boys...”

“Would this really work?” The leader and big-sized guy looked at him, full of doubt.

The blonde quickly said, “Maybe it’ll work! All woman are all interested in those...”

The leader contemplated. As he was desperate, he quickly walked to a corner and made a call.

Moments later, a long line of more than ten handsome, attractive, and trained to be respectful boys stood before Ning Xi.

The leader rubbed his hands and asked nervously, “Great aunt, take a look and see if you like these? You can have fun as you wish! They’ve all been trained well! They’re especially good at serving people!”

Ning Xi sat on the tiger fur seat just like the king of a mountain as her eyes skimmed the men below. She immediately frowned.

Her eyes were used to Lu Tingxiao’s type. How could she be interested in these?

When he saw Ning Xi frown, the leader felt sweat drip down his face as he quickly chased them all away. He kicked the blonde again. “Look at the rotten idea you came up with!”

The blonde cried out and scowled miserably, “This doesn’t make sense! Even this can’t do... This was the best stock already... Hmm, could it be... Could it be that this great aunt’s appetite doesn’t swing this way? How about... We try switching to women?”
