Chapter 2081: Kneel To Heaven, Earth and Parents

When Ning Xi appeared at the entrance of the ward, suddenly, everyone turned to her, firmly glaring at her.

“Xiao Xi, quickly come over!” Only Ning Qitong looked relaxed and at ease. When she saw Ning Xi, she eagerly greeted her.

When she saw Ning Qitong, Ning Xi’s frown slowly relaxed. First, she called out to her grandfather and greeted him, then she walked towards Ning Qitong. “Aunty.”

Ning Qitong carefully looked at her with concern. Moments later, she let out a sigh of relief. “Not bad! You’ve become a little chubby. You finally have some meat on your face!”

When he saw that Ning Xi had come and unexpectedly started to reminisce with Ning Qitong, Ning Yaohua was so angry that his face twisted in fury. “Animal! Kneel down right now!”

Noticing Ning Yaohua’s resentful gaze as if he was looking at garbage, Ning Xi scoffed indifferently. “I will kneel to heaven, kneel to earth, and kneel to my parents. I wonder on what basis are you asking me to kneel down for, Chairman Ning?”

Ning Yaohua was furious. “You... you inhumane animal! Up until now, you’re still trying to be clever!”

On the side, some of Ning family’s relatives looked repulsed as they whispered to each other, “Look what this girl is saying! Is this not her father?”

“She dares to say such disgraceful things. Isn’t she afraid of getting struck by lightning!?”

Zhuang Lingyu had long wanted to run up and kill her the moment she saw Ning Xi. At this moment, her expression was even fiercer as she screeched, “Ning Xi! You cruel animal! You won’t even let go of children! Back then, when I gave birth to you, I should’ve just strangled you then and there!”

Ning Xueluo wept until she was slightly breathless. She seemed absent-minded. “It’s my fault... All my fault... I shouldn’t have clung onto Father and Mother’s warmth... I’ll return it to you... I’ll return it all to you... Can you give me back my child, please? Return my child to me...”

“Xueluo, Xueluo, my unfortunate daughter... It’s not your fault... It’s Mother who didn’t protect you well. Back then, I should never have brought this animal back...”

As they watched the mother and daughter’s misery and suffering, everyone around looked at Ning Xi with even more spite.

“Sinful! Killing two children at a go!”

“She’s so pretty, but who would have thought she’d be this malicious?!”

...

“Everyone, silence!” The elder thumped his staff hard.

The clamor in the ward then gradually hushed down.

“Xiao Xi, tell us what happened.” The elder asked in a quiet tone.

Ning Yaohua pressed angrily. “Father, why are you still asking her this right now? First, she hired the murderer that killed Lingyu’s child. Xueluo rushed to expose her, then she flew into a rage and poisoned Xueluo’s water, wanting to kill Xueluo’s child too!

“This animal probably intended to harm Xueluo as well! The doctor said that it was an extremely strong medication to induce abortion. She even put three times the dosage, but Xueluo survived because she was lucky! She’s practically inhumane!”

With every word that Ning Yaohua uttered, all the ruthless pairs of eyes fell on Ning Xi.

Seeing Ning Xi being condemned and attacked by everyone, Ning Xueluo leaned weakly in Su Yan’s embrace, the corners of her mouth strangely curled up. Her eyes fearlessly challenged Ning Xi to provoke her and inside her heart, she sneered madly.

Ha, Ning Xi, defend yourself! Explain! This will be your final struggle!

Chapter 2082: Admit

Say that I put those pills in myself! Say that I want to harm my own child!

Say it, then look around this room to see who will believe you?

Who would believe that I would swallow those pills and kill my own child?

On the side, Ning Qitong frowned. She was about to say something, but Ning Xi stopped her.

Ning Xi’s gaze swept across everyone with ease as the edges of her mouth curled up, outlining a cold smile. “So what if it was me? Forget about the child. Even if I wanted to poison her to death as well, what can you guys do to me?”

The instant Ning Xi said that, everyone in the room’s expression changed.

Su Yan, who had been having mixed feelings, suddenly looked startled as he was in disbelief. “Xiao Xi, you... It was really you who did it all...”

Even though the truth was right before him, after listening to Ning Xi admit it herself, he still could not accept it.

Zhuang Lingyu and Ning Yaohua were like savages who just saw fresh blood spilled. They wanted to rip her apart. “You animal! Animal! What sin did our Ning family do to create such an evil, shameful thing!? You won’t even let go of your own brother!”

“Oh my God! She actually dared to admit it!”

“Otherwise? There’s solid evidence. She can’t run away!”

“She doesn’t even look remorseful after doing such a thing. She’s even so arrogant, she’s too much!”

At this moment, not only Zhuang Lingyu and Ning Yaohua, but Zheng Minjun and Su Hongguang seemed aghast too.

Zheng Minjun rushed out to start scolding, “You cruel woman! Even if you like our Su Yan that much and want to enter the Su family, you can’t kill Su Yan’s child! This is Su Yan’s flesh and blood! Now, you’re just taking it out on the child. If, in the future, you really became part of the Su family, if anything doesn’t suit your taste even a little, are you going to harm me too!?”

Su Hongguang did not expect that, as the heir of the Zhuang family, Ning Xi’s morale would stoop to this poor extent.

This was not a small matter of jealousy. This was murder!

After she killed someone, she could still appear so remorseless and at ease. How terrifying was this woman?

Zhuang Lingyu gripped her chest that began to ache from rage. “You’re worse than a beast! You’re despicable and lowly. You’re not even a millionth of Xueluo, yet you’re still deluded about marrying into the Su family. You’re deluded about stealing Xueluo’s husband! Look at yourself! Do you think you’re even qualified in the least?”

Su Hongguang’s expression was solemn as he said, “I’m sorry, Yaohua. Even though Ning Xi is your daughter, she has implicated a human life. I’m afraid we can’t just let things go so easily.”

Zheng Minjun immediately shouted emotionally, “She killed my grandchild. Of course, we have to report her to the police!”

When Ning Xi heard this, she raised her brows slightly. “Oh, report me to the police?”

Upon seeing Ning Xi’s fearless attitude, Ning Yaohua became madder. “Animal! I don’t care who you have backing you or who’s supporting you! If this matter isn’t resolved, don’t think about going anywhere!”

Initially, he had still been a little wary of the Zhuang family, but when he thought about the Zhuang family’s strict ways, if they knew what Ning Xi had done, they would be the first ones to not spare her.

Zhuang Lingyu sneered. “You look so sure about being backed up. You’re probably relying on a gold mine that you have!”

For Zhuang Lingyu to say so as her mother, everyone else in the house judged Ning Xi with an even stranger expression.

“There were already rumors that she was taken in as a mistress. It turns out that it’s real!”

“Someone like this actually thought of marrying our Su Yan. What a joke!”

“Now, all the little celebrities really aren’t self-aware at all. All of them just want personal gain and they rack their brains, thinking about marrying into a rich family. They’ll dare to use all sorts of tricks, but they won’t consider what trash they are!”

Chapter 2083: Not Interested In Re-marrying

As he listened to the surrounding Su family's relatives mocking and ridicule Ning Xi, Ning Yaohua's face turned ashen. He only hoped that this dirty stain would immediately vanish from this world forever.

Initially, he had still been a little hesitant. He thought that they should not air their dirty laundry. If word ever got out, it would still be him who would be humiliated.

But, at this moment, he was already determined to send Ning Xi to jail. He wanted to completely eradicate this evil creature from everyone's line of sight. Otherwise, in the future, he would not know how many more embarrassing things would arise.

When Zheng Minjun saw that Ning Xi was definitely done for this time, fueled by the anger from her grandchild being killed, she ripped her apart on the spot. "Ning Xi, don't have an ounce of wishful thinking. For a woman like you, as long as I'm around, you don't have to think about marrying Su Yan in this lifetime!"

When she heard those words, Ning Qitong was about to explode in anger. If Ning Xi had not held her down, she would have walked off in a rage.

She knew that Su Yan was Ning Xi's greatest wound. Originally, she was worried about Ning Xi, yet she saw that Ning Xi was not angry and was smiling instead. She was gazing down as the corners of her lips curled up. That smile complemented the girl's extraordinarily quiet and elegant face, making her look extremely breathtaking...

Ning Xi looked down and laughed softly, then she looked up at Zheng Minjun. "I'm sorry. I have high standards. I'm afraid your son doesn't make it into my line of sight. Besides, I've already gotten married two years ago, and I'm not interested in re-marrying, Madam Su. You're overthinking."

"You... really have the chit to talk big!" Zheng Minjun's temper flared on the spot. This witch was actually boasting of her high standards and saying that she did not fancy their Su Yan.

The second she finished, the second half of Ning Xi's sentence suddenly sunk in and she was stunned. "What did you say? You're married?"

The instant Ning Xi spoke up, Su Yan's expression abruptly changed too.

Ning Xi was already married?

In fact, she had already been married two years ago?!

Su Yan did not care to think twice. He just blurted out, "Xiao Xi, what do you mean? You're married? How could this be?!"

Ning Xi shrugged indifferently at Su Yan. "What's wrong? Do I need to report my getting married to you?"

Everyone else in the room seemed to not have expected this too. They all exchanged glances in shock as they buzzed.

"No way! Ning Xi's already married? I've never heard of that!"

“You don’t say! The people in the entertainment industry need to keep things like this a secret! Once they’re married, they’re worth nothing! Besides, who knows which old fellow she’s married to! Would she want to announce that?”

“This girl is so fearless. Could her brazenness be because of that husband of hers?”

“Pfft, she’s just a small actress! Besides, she wasn’t that popular two years ago. What good family could she marry into? It’s most likely just a newly-made rich guy!”

When Ning Xueluo heard that Ning Xi was already married, she was clearly startled too. However, she very quickly returned to ridiculing her internally.

She’s just a worn-out good that’s been married before! She can forget about fighting for Su Yan with me.

Ning Yaohua looked at her despicably with disdain. “Ning Xi, I’m telling you! I don’t care what trash you’re married to, or what backing you have. Even if God himself came today, it would be useless!”

Right at this moment, there was the sound of steady footsteps coming closer from afar.

Almost the instant Ning Yaohua finished with his roar, the ward door was pushed open by long, slender fingers.

The person who entered had a tall figure and an icy face. The air around him was extremely cold as if he had swept a world of ice and snow along with him. His cold, pit-like eyes with a chilly gaze skimmed everyone in the ward. His low and raspy, frosty voice rang in everyone’s ears.

“Is that so?”

Chapter 2084: H-Holding Hands?

The man wore a gray slim-fit suit. His collar revealed his inner white shirt and the shiny, black buttons on the sleeves gave off a cold light.

The VIP room was spacious enough to gather all the relatives and friends around, but as the man entered the room, the room seemed to become so small and crowded as though it was not enough to contain the aura he gave off.

Ning Yaohua’s arrogant expression was petrified as if he could not believe his own eyes. “Lu... Lu...”

He was so shocked that he could not say the next word after “Lu”.

The relatives from the two families who had mocked Ning Xi just now were now silent. They could not believe that the person who only existed in legends and casual chats, who was so high and mighty that even prestigious families like them might never meet him even once in their life, had just appeared before their eyes...

They did not even recall how he looked like some years ago until recently, about two years ago, Lu Tingxiao started appearing in public. His picture was framed up in the room of many girls in Imperial. With the title of “National Husband”, his popularity was even higher than some of the male celebrities in the country.

The man’s actual face was much better-looking than those blurry photos and videos, especially the aura he gave off, which was breathtakingly impactful.

He had a black windbreaker on top of his suit and an aloof assistant was behind him while two fully armed bodyguards were right outside the room.

A strong killing intent was in the air...

“G-gosh... It’s... it’s Lu... Lu Tingxiao... I’m not dreaming...” After some time, someone came back to their senses.

The others reacted as well. “Someone, pinch me!”

“Oh, so... so handsome! He’s much better-looking than in the pictures!”

“I’m going crazy! What’s happening? Why is Lu Tingxiao here?”

Not just these people, Ning Xi was pretty surprised herself. She never expected Lu Tingxiao to appear here, moreover, in such a high profile manner.

“Uhh... Aren’t you coming back the day after tomorrow?” Ning Xi asked.

Lu Tingxiao’s frigid eyes melted like snow in the spring when he looked at Ning Xi. He did not reply, instead, just frowning at the girl.

He took off his windbreaker and went up to her.

He touched the girl’s hands, then spread the windbreaker over her shoulders. He sounded grumpy. “Didn’t I say that the temperature’s been getting lower recently?”

Ning Xi glanced at the long woolen dress she had on. “I’ve put on a lot of layers already...”

Lu Tingxiao squeezed the girl’s hands. “Your hands are cold.”

Ning Xi was speechless. This was probably a new type of cold – “her-darling-thinks-she-is-cold” cold.

Everyone else in the room was stunned.

They... they held hands!

Lu Tingxiao had even taken his windbreaker off and put it on Ning Xi. The sweetness and intimacy between their exchanges of words were enough to melt anyone!

Lu Tingxiao and Ning Xi?

This was crazy!

W-what was happening?

What happened next would astound them even more!

Chapter 2085: High Up In The Sky

Lu Tingxiao held Ning Xi's hand, ignoring everyone's gazes as he walked through a path opened up by the crowd. He went straight to the elder.

He then called, "Grandfather."

Grandfather!

What did Lu Tingxiao just call the elder?

The elder was really thrilled to see his grandson-in-law. "You're back! Come and sit down!"

Ning Yaohua could not hold it in anymore. He rushed up to Ning Zhiyuan. "Father, this... What is this? You... you know Mr. Lu?"

The elder peered at his son and the relatives around unhappily. "What are you guys being so shocked about? Can't I know my own grandson-in-law?"

Grandson-in-law!

Everyone was stunned.

"Xiao Xi did actually get married to Tingxiao two years ago."

"How is that possible?" Ning Yaohua was floored.

"When Xiao Xi had just returned to the country, the two of them were already together. Naturally, they got married, but due to Xiao Xi's career, they didn't announce it to the public," the elder said matter-of-factly.

"But... Father, how could you not tell me of such a huge thing?!" Ning Yaohua almost broke down.

"Why should I tell you?" The elder retorted back and Ning Yaohua felt like he wanted to die.

As they heard Ning Zhiyuan and Ning Yaohua's conversation, everyone in the room were astounded.

"Oh... Oh my god! Ning Xi's husband is Lu Tingxiao?! Seriously?"

"Lu Tingxiao called the elder his grandfather. It can't be fake!"

"So, the rumored girlfriend of Lu Tingxiao... is Ning Xi!"

They stared at each other, then the relatives of the Ning family looked at the Su family oddly.

Ning Xi had gotten married to the Lu family long ago, so how could she be into Su Yan?

Suddenly, a bright-eyed and bushy-tailed man came in grinning. He said casually, "Well, my sister-in-law said so. She has high standards!"

This person was Lu Tingxiao's brother, Lu Jingli.

Lu Jingli had always been high-profile, and since he had been working in the entertainment industry before, almost everyone knew how he looked like.

Everyone's expressions darkened when they heard Lu Jingli's words.

Please! This was not just high-standard! This was high up in the sky!

They thought that Ning Xi had just been trying to brag, but actually... she was already being humble.

The relatives from the Su family looked horrified as they had mocked Ning Xi for using all sorts of methods to try to get into the Su family, especially Zheng Minjun. Her face reddened as if she had just been slapped hard and she could not say anything at the moment.

Lu Jingli's smile was like a blooming flower. He went up to greet the elder, then he went beside Ning Qitong and said, "You must be the beautiful aunt my sister-in-law mentioned! Hello, Aunt, I'm Lu Jingli!"

Ning Qitong was flattered. "Hello, thank you for looking after Xiao Xi!"

She knew a little about Xiao Xi's matters and had reminded her many times to be careful, but she never expected Xiao Xi's husband to be Lu Tingxiao.

Chapter 2086: Not Worthy

In the corner, Su Yan just gawked on blankly at what had just happened.

From the moment Lu Tingxiao went up to Ning Xi and held her hands, his mind went blank. He stared at the pair of lovebirds, having lost the ability to think.

As for Ning Xueluo, who lay on the bed, she remained silent the whole time.

She looked at Lu Tingxiao and Ning Xi holding hands, then she noticed the ring around Ning Xi's neck which she had not noticed before. She saw how Lu Tingxiao was greeting the elder politely, and how Lu Jingli was striking a conversation with Ning Qitong. The poison known as jealousy had now spread through her whole body and corroded all her internal organs...

How is that possible?

How is that possible!?

The person Ning Xi is married to ... is Lu Tingxiao!

Lu Tingxiao!

"Second Master, I... I'm Ning Yaohua, Xiao Xi's father! We've met each other before. The last time, you came to pick Xiao Xi up!" Ning Yaohua quickly grabbed this chance as he thought that Lu Jingli was easier to speak to.

Damn it, no wonder Lu Jingli came to pick Ning Xi up personally during the dinner last time!

He thought that Ning Xi had something with Lu Jingli, but he never expected it not to be Lu Jingli, but Lu Tingxiao instead!

He was so penitent that he almost wanted to smash his head into a wall.

Ning Qiutong looked at Ning Yaohua as she laughed coldly. “You always think that your treasured fake daughter got married into a good family and have always boasted about it. Are you regretting now that Xiao Xi got married into an even better family?”

Ning Yaohua calmed himself down. “What is there to regret about? Xiao Xi got into a good family, so I’m happy for her as well.”

Ning Qiutong chortled out loud. “I wonder who insisted on calling the police just now, and even said that no one would affect his decision?”

Zhuang Lingyu could not hold it in anymore. “She did something so wicked. Are we really at fault here?”

She then looked at Lu Tingxiao. “CEO Lu, no matter how powerful your family is, you can’t just ignore the law. It remains a fact that Ning Xi took two lives!”

“Ah...” Suddenly, Ning Xueluo clenched her stomach and groaned.

Everyone shifted their attention back to Ning Xueluo and surrounded her.

“What’s wrong, Xueluo?”

“My stomach... It hurts...” Ning Xueluo appeared pale and exhausted just like a wilting flower, gaining sympathy from everyone.

“The poison is too strong. The doctor mentioned it’ll be painful. Hold on!”

“How miserable...”

The crowd’s gaze towards Ning Xi changed slowly when they saw Ning Xueluo’s condition.

Ning Xi was having such a good life, yet she had made Ning Xueluo suffer, and now she even started bullying her just because she married Lu Tingxiao. This was too much.

Zhuang Lingyu went beside the bed, full of worry and pain.

Zheng Minjun then said, “CEO Lu, I’m afraid that you don’t know it yet. This woman is really wicked. She harmed the child of her own mother and even poisoned the offspring of our Su family all just because of a tiny conflict! She’s not worthy of marrying into the Lu family! What a humiliation!”

Ning Xueluo’s face was filled with despair, yet in the dark, she was staring at Ning Xi’s direction with the evil eye.

Great... Just great, Ning Xi! I will make you lose everything. I will have you taste the feeling of falling into the pits of hell from the peaks of heaven!

Lu Tingxiao did not even look at the people around him. He just focused on his wife. “That’s right, it’s not worthy.”

Zheng Minjun thought Lu Tingxiao was going to consider her words, but in the next moment, Lu Tingxiao continued, “The Lu family and I aren’t worthy of Xiao Xi.”

Everyone was speechless.

Lu Jingli knew this would happen.

Chapter 2087: Like Something So Exciting

When she saw Lu Tingxiao’s attitude, Ning Xueluo’s expression changed abruptly. Her fists balled in an iron grip. In the next second, when she looked up, she already had an expression of extreme sorrow on her face.

“CEO Lu, I understand that based on your relationship with Sister, you’ll naturally be biased towards her. But I really hope that you can take a clearer look at the people beside you. Maybe she’s not even who you think she is.

“It was I who wronged Sister first. No matter what Sister does to me, I can take it, but what about Mother? What did Mother do wrong!? I definitely won’t allow anyone to harm my family, even if it’s Sister! CEO Lu, if you don’t trust us, you can ask the police to investigate! When you find out the truth, I believe you’ll definitely have a fair judgment!”

Ha! Ning Xi, your hands are stained with the blood of two lives. I would like to see whether you can stay secure in your position as the head lady!

Ning Xueluo’s words made everyone nod in agreement. At the same time, they lamented Ning Xueluo’s filial piety.

Lu Jingli stroked his chin and he clicked his tongue in disgust. His view of the world had broadened. He had never seen someone this shameless. No wonder she could coax the two fools of the Ning family despite having no blood relations. Someone so lowly was unrivaled.

In fact, with Sister-in-law’s drama this time, it was a little tricky...

Ning Xi looked up and exchanged looks with the man beside her.

Next up is my battle.

Just one look and the man understood what she meant, so he nodded slightly.

Facing everyone’s gazes ready to punish her, Ning Xi acted like she was in her own garden. She seemed calm and at ease as her glittering eyes looked towards Ning Xueluo on the sick bed who was demanding justice for her mother with righteous indignation. She said unhurriedly, “What a coincidence! I have some things here that I also wanted to let the police have a look at.”

When she heard Ning Xi, Ning Xueluo’s eyes squinted slightly. However, she very quickly returned to feeling secure in her demands. “Sister, you can just be frank. I think everyone would like to hear your explanation too.”

Huh, what explanation? No matter what she came up with in this situation, it would only make things worse.

“I just found something... interesting...” Ning Xi faintly smiled and revealed a surprised expression. “I never thought that Ms. Ning, who’s always such a proper lady, would like something so exciting like riding a motorbike?”

When Ning Xueluo heard that, her gaze tensed up.

Ning Xi continued, “Not too long ago, I got to know a well-known retired racer. I was chatting with him when I unintentionally heard him mention that Ms. Ning had actually learned to ride motorbikes for quite a long time.”

Ning Xueluo reacted as if something sad had been brought up. She looked heartbroken as she caressed her flat underbelly. “For pregnant people, no matter our tastes of hobbies, there will be some very weird changes that even we don’t understand ourselves. I was bored at home all day then. Suddenly, I saw it on television and thought that riding a motorbike looked quite cool, so I just casually wanted to learn about it. I wonder why you’d suddenly bring this up.”

Ning Xi only smiled slightly. “Is that so?”

The surrounding ladies who were married before all indicated that they agreed and nodded at Ning Xueluo’s words. At the same time, they did not understand why Ning Xi would suddenly change the topic to something completely unrelated.

Zhuang Lingyu looked at the way her daughter was so melancholic and instantly frowned. She shot Ning Xi a glare. “Ning Xi, don’t change the topic here and stall for time!”

Chapter 2088: This Was Impossible

Ning Xi lightly touched her phone. “I was just a little curious. I didn’t expect that pregnant people would have such weird interests. Put aside the fact that someone so gentle and ladylike like Ms. Ning would suddenly be interested in motorbikes... While being pregnant, you still wandered outside the city alone late at night on the bike.”

Ning Xueluo’s calm expression finally showed a crack. Her face twitched intensely, but it was just a heartbeat before she returned to her flawlessly sad and grieving expression. “Sister, I don’t know what you’re talking about. I was just curious, so I learned more about it from a professional just for the fun of it. How could I have gone to ride it myself and even go out in the middle of the night?”

When Zhuang Lingyu saw that Ning Xi was getting more and more nonsensical, she looked even more upset. “Ning Xi, what are you trying to say with all this absurdity?! Even if Xueluo rode a motorbike late at night, what’s that got to do with you?!”

Ning Xi shrugged, then she said carelessly, “Of course, it’s got nothing to do with me. After all... who she hit... was not my child.”

The instant Ning Xi said that, the whispers in the room suddenly fell to a dead silence and Zhuang Lingyu's expression froze too.

“Darling, please turn off the lights for me.”

Lu Tingxiao's long hand stretched out and then the room was instantly pitch black.

In the next second, Ning Xi lightly tapped on the phone in her hands, and a video was projected on the wide, white wall behind everyone.

There was no audio from the video. It was probably at night, so the lighting was very fuzzy. The video was static for three seconds, then a black motorbike appeared in the projection.

The instant she saw that motorbike, Zhuang Lingyu's pupils abruptly shrunk. “That bike... It's the one that hit me... It's the one that hit me!”

Even though the entire accident had happened in a split second, she would definitely not forget how that bike looked like.

When they heard Zhuang Lingyu's words, there was a commotion. Suddenly, everyone fixed their gazes on the wall.

The scene seemed to show an uninhabited junkyard for cars. The owner of the bike first got down and then took off all the clothes she wore, even her gloves and helmet. Then, she kicked the motorbike down and threw a lighter towards it...

Bam! Everything vanished into the flames.

At the same time, the rising flames all at once illuminated the face of the bike's owner.

That was not a man, but a delicate-looking woman...

That was... Ning... Ning Xueluo!

The instant they had a clear look of the face, everyone in the ward was stunned. Everyone stared in disbelief towards Ning Xueluo who was on the sick bed.

Zhuang Lingyu's mouth was even wide open as she stared at the screen. She did not return to her senses for a long while.

“What... What is this? How could this person be Xueluo!?”

“But that face is Ning Xueluo! Earlier, when the fire was burning, you could see it clearly! After she took off her clothes outside, you could even tell from her belly!”

“Impossible... Impossible! This is impossible!”

The instant the projection on the wall lit up with this familiar scene, Ning Xueluo's expression had already changed. Within just a few short seconds of the video, she felt as if she had walked through hell. When her face was illuminated by the flames and appeared before everyone, she felt her soul leave her.

Chapter 2089: Where Did She Go Wrong

As if there was a ball of fire burning in Ning Xueluo's breath, she quickly said in a hoarse voice, "It's fake! This video is forged! Ning Xi! Why did you do something like this to slander me!? Why would I hurt Mother's child!?"

Ning Xi did not refute at all. She just nodded. "Right, I forged this video. Not only is this video fake, I even forged your fingerprints and blood samples. Ms. Ning, do you want to see it?"

Ning Xueluo turned pale.

If there were fingerprints and blood samples, then she definitely could not worm her way out of this.

But this was impossible!

She had already destroyed all the traces. Where did she get that!?

She even managed to get the security footage!

She had previously confirmed in every possible way that that place definitely did not have any security cameras!

Where did she go wrong?

Lu Tingxiao...

Could Lu Tingxiao have helped her?

"Darling, give me the items," Ning Xi looked over to Lu Tingxiao and said gently. Then, she looked down at the woman on the sick bed who was clearly slowly breaking down, her eyes filled with taunt.

Lu Tingxiao nodded as he passed a brown case file to her.

Ning Xueluo's body trembled violently. The way Ning Xi looked at her now was as if she was the devil demanding for her life...

She stared at the brown case file in Ning Xi's hands as her breathing quickened. Indeed! Indeed it was Lu Tingxiao!

Just as Ning Xi was taking something out from the file, Ning Xueluo saw Ning Xi's pejorative expression, and then she caught a glimpse of Lu Tingxiao icy gaze. Finally, the last sliver of hope she had was gone too. She closed her eyes and shouted, "It was me! I hit her! I hit and killed that child! So what if I did it?!"

Her voice was sharp and ear-piercing, causing discomfort to everyone's eardrums.

Inside the entire ward, there was dead silence. Only Ning Xueluo's shout rang out and she looked like a devil with disheveled hair and a sinister expression.

Zhuang Lingyu's lips trembled as she blacked out, then Ning Yaohua quickly supported her and put pressure on her solar plexus before she slowly regained consciousness. She looked ashen as she trembled. "Xueluo... What are you saying? Don't frighten Mother... You were just simply saying that, weren't you?"

Ning Xueluo's laugh was exceptionally horrifying. "Ha... Haha... Mother... Madam Zhuang... When did you become my mother? Aren't you the mother of that son inside of you?"

Zhuang Lingyu had never seen such a strange and scary expression on Ning Xueluo. She gasped emotionally, "Xueluo, what are you saying? Of course, I'm your mother! Tell me that you didn't do all of this! You didn't do this, did you?!"

At this moment, the gentleness on Ning Xueluo's face had completely vanished and was replaced with malevolence and bitter resentment. It was the reckless insanity of being pushed to the edge. "It was me! Of course, I did it! Because I hate you! I hate every one of you people in the Ning family! I'm the heiress of the Ning family. Ever since I was born, I was the lady of the Ning family! Everything of the Ning family is mine! Why did you have to take Ning Xi, that wild chicken, back?

"I've finally chased that wild chicken away, and now you guys actually came up with another son to fight for the inheritance with me. The child hasn't even been born and already you've begun to impatiently take away all the privileges I have! Why!?"

"If I didn't settle Su Yan, what would you Nings have today? Now that you have a son, you want to kick me aside!? I'm afraid your abacus has been calculating quite loudly! Did you really take me for an idiot?"

Chapter 2090: How Terrifying

Zhuang Lingyu was dumbfounded. She could not believe it. Ning Yaohua was shocked as well. He could not believe the girl in front of him right now was Ning Xueluo, the sweet and obedient daughter of theirs.

He could not believe that she had been harboring thoughts like those!

"G-gosh..." No one expected such a twist and they were all stunned.

Zhuang Lingyu's child was not harmed by someone else. It had been killed by her filial daughter, Ning Xueluo.

Moreover, she had driven the motorbike herself, almost killing the mother who had been treating her like a real daughter for the past twenty-odd years.

She was just a daughter of a village woman, who got to enjoy all the privileges over the years because of a mistake. These were all not hers to begin with. Without the Ning family, she would just be another ordinary girl from a rural area, yet she took everything from the Ning family for granted. She felt that everything from the Ning family should be hers.

Just because Zhuang Lingyu's son might take the inheritance away from her, she had killed the child.

What was really scary was that she had been taking on the role of the victim, even trying to blame everything on Ning Xi.

Everyone felt chills run down their spine.

This woman had tricked everyone. Just how cunning could she be?

How terrifying!

Ning Yaohua was shocked to his core. He was very enraged by Ning Xueluo's ridiculous reasoning. "You monster! The Ning family took care of you for twenty over years. We've never asked for your gratitude, yet you repay us with such evil behavior!"

Ning Xueluo cackled as if she had just heard a joke. "Haha, gratitude? What should I be thankful for? I got everything I had today because of myself! And just what did Ning Xi do!? She just has some blood of the Ning family inside her. She didn't even do anything and this old geezer gave her 10% of shares. I didn't even get any!"

Ning Yaohua yelled at her, "But I've transferred all the shares I have to you! You already have 20% in your hands. Are you not satisfied!?"

Ning Xueluo laughed sarcastically, "President Ning, don't make it sound so kind. The reason you gave me the shares was all for the marriage with the Su family. Could you really say that you'd still give them to me if you had a son?"

"That's why you killed your mother's child!?" Ning Yaohua shrieked.

Ning Xueluo did not have any sense of remorse in her eyes. "Don't blame me when you're forcing me into a corner! This child should have never existed!"

Ning Xi stood aside watching the three of them attacking each other.

She then interrupted, "Sorry to interrupt, but I'd like to ask Ms. Ning, did you... really do it?"

Ning Xueluo glared at Ning Xi. "Stop pretending you don't know already, Ning Xi!"

Ning Xi put up an innocent expression. "But I really did fake the video. The place where you destroyed the evidence had no security cameras at all, don't you know? I asked the special effects artist from the 'Thunderbolt Secret Service Squad' to help me remake the scene. It's pretty rough around the edges, so I didn't expect you to believe it... Oh right, the fingerprints and blood samples..."

Ning Xi glanced at Lu Tingxiao.

He opened the brown folder and there was no evidence inside. It was all... pictures of a wedding in a cathedral...
