

FMH Marriage 491

Chapter 491: Did Something Happen To Little Treasure?

Ning Xi's sparkling eyes looked at Lu Tingxiao, "So miraculous! Big Boss, I notice that ever since I have met you and Little Treasure, my luck has started to be positive, and no matter what I do, it all goes well! The two of you must be my lucky stars! One small lucky star and one big lucky star!"

Lu Tingxiao could not help but laugh, "Is that so?"

Cheng Feng was in tears! The lady boss was amazing! The boss was actually laughing!

Because Gong Shangze did not have a place to stay in Imperial, Lu Tingxiao accompanied Ning Xi to look for a hotel near Regal Riveria Hotel for him to settle down.

Ning Xi stood at the door and waved, "Shangze, I'll leave now! Rest well tonight, I'll come looking for you tomorrow! I'll bring you to buy new clothes, bags, handphones, and as for whatever else you're lacking, we'll see..."

Gong Shangze was touched, "Actually, there's no need for so much trouble. All I need is a place to stay..."

Ning Xi immediately pouted, "How can you say that? I'm now responsible for you!"

Gong Shangze teared and he said, "Thank you, boss!"

Haih, Gong Shangze's vulnerable demeanor really made it too easy for people to feel protective over him. Ning Xi said gently, "Good, go to sleep now!"

...

Once they walked out of the hotel, Ning Xi lamented, "Big Boss, I only now understand that it feels pretty awesome to be a boss!"

"To be your employee would be pretty awesome too..." Lu Tingxiao subconsciously mumbled to himself.

"What?" Ning Xi had not heard him.

"Hah, it's nothing...have you chosen the location of the studio yet?" Lu Tingxiao asked.

Ning Xi scratched her head as she answered, "Not yet! This is not a small issue, I need to properly give it some thought!"

"Later, let me know your requirements and budget. I can help you list down a few suitable locations," said Lu Tingxiao.

Ning Xi naturally felt bad when she heard this. "Ah? It would trouble you too much!"

Lu Tingxiao was such a busy person, how could she trouble him for something small like this!

Lu Tingxiao shot her a look instead and said carefully, "It's not too troublesome, you're my responsibility."

Ning Xi coughed. Okay, devil, you win!

The car reached Regal Riveria Hotel very soon.

Ning Xi was just about to bid Lu Tingxiao goodbye and get down from the car when his phone suddenly rang.

Lu Tingxiao indicated for Ning Xi to wait a while, then picked up the phone, "Mmm...I'm still out...what?! When did this happen? Okay, I'll return immediately!"

When she heard Lu Tingxiao's slightly panicked voice, Ning Xi immediately asked worriedly, "What's wrong?"

Lu Tingxiao remained controlled as usual. He patted her head and said, "Nothing, go rest now!"

Ning Xi did not get out of the car. Instead, she sat in the same spot and stared at him.

Lu Tingxiao laughed, "It's really nothing, there's just a slight problem at the office. I'll go over to have a look. I'm not lying to you, go now!"

Ning Xi still did not move and her gaze looked even sharper. "Did something happen to Little Treasure?"

Lu Tingxiao clearly looked a little shocked, as if he did not expect her to guess.

When she saw Lu Tingxiao's expression, Ning Xi knew that she had hit the nail on its head. Actually, she did not know why she was so confident either, but she just had a gut feeling.

"What's wrong with Little Treasure?" Suddenly, Ning Xi's heart lurched in her throat.

Lu Tingxiao gently consoled her, "It's a small thing, just a little fever. You know how it is, it's very common for a child to get a fever. The doctor has already been sent over and I'll immediately go home to see him now too, it's not too much of an issue."

Even though Lu Tingxiao said it casually, Ning Xi did not feel assured at all. She held her hand to her heart that was beating faster and she had an unexplainable bad feeling about this...

Chapter 492: Little Treasure's Old Troubles

Even though Lu Tingxiao had said it casually, Ning Xi did not feel assured at all. She held her hand to her heart that was beating faster and she had an unexplainable bad feeling about this as she pleaded, "Lu Tingxiao, bring me with you, I won't make things awkward for you. I won't go in, I'll just wait outside and if there's nothing, then I'll come back! If not, even if you let me go home now, I'd definitely not be able to fall asleep!"

He saw the girl's unbelievably determined attitude but Lu Tingxiao still held himself back, as if there was something he could not say.

“Okay?” Ning Xi tugged on the hem of Lu Tingxiao’s sleeves and was pretty much begging as she shook her head stubbornly.

Lu Tingxiao frowned and his expression became more serious as he contemplated it. At last, he looked at her and chose his words carefully before finally saying, “Okay, Ning Xi, listen to me, Little Treasure...he’s not just having a simple fever. Actually, it might be a little serious! I can bring you along but you can’t be too emotional!”

As soon as Lu Tingxiao said that, Ning Xi’s tears started to fall, “Little Treasure is in a serious condition? What is it? How can he be in a serious condition when he was fine before? Didn’t you just say it was only a fever? Why is the fever serious? And you said you weren’t lying to me! Is there anything else you’re hiding from me?”

Lu Tingxiao did not expect that Ning Xi would cry instantly and he did not know what to do. He quickly told Cheng Feng to drive to the old residence while he fumbled for tissue to let her wipe her tears. He said helplessly, “I was afraid that you would be exactly like this, so I did not dare bring you along. Look at you, we’re not even there yet and you’re like this. How will you be when you see Little Treasure later?”

Ning Xi cried even harder and could not even speak coherently anymore.

Lu Tingxiao’s heart was about to break at her cries and since he was not good at cheering people up, he could only hug her in his embrace and pat the back of the sobbing girl. “If I knew, I wouldn’t have told you...”

He did not expect that Ning Xi’s reaction would be even worse than he thought!

In front, Cheng Feng who was driving was also shocked speechless. He was not only shocked because someone with a strong personality like Ning Xi could display such a vulnerable side but he was even more shocked by the gentle side of his boss...

He had really broken the record today with these new insights!

What shocked him the most was the fact that the feelings between the two of them were really like a pair of husband and wife who were worried for their beloved son...

Not a single feeling of violation...

Ning Xi was already feeling remorseful. Why had she only seen Little Treasure in a rush when she sent Lu Tingxiao to the old residence back then? She had left so quickly. Why didn’t she care for Little Treasure more? Why was she afraid of contacting Little Treasure too much for the sake of the two oldies? Why was her skin not thicker?

After crying for a long while, Ning Xi finally recovered from her emotions and she begged, “Lu Tingxiao, don’t keep any secrets from me, I want to know!”

Lu Tingxiao replied, “Then, you must promise not to cry anymore.”

“I...can’t promise!”

Lu Tingxiao buried his face in his hands. Finally, he could only compromise and he tried his best to explain in a gentle tone, “Actually, it’s an old issue. From the moment Little Treasure had that incident, he would have such outbreaks once in a while and a high fever is one of the symptoms. But what's different from the usual fever is that the high fever won't stop, no matter what. There is just no way to break the fever..."

Chapter 493: Even More Serious Than He Thought

Ning Xi looked stunned, "How could this be..."

Lu Tingxiao quickly consoled her, "Since the last time this has happened half a year ago, it hasn't repeated. This time might also be just a normal fever, so don't be too worried!"

Ning Xi knew that it definitely was not just a simple fever, otherwise Lu Tingxiao would not have sounded like that earlier...

"Cheng Feng! Stop the car!!!" Ning Xi suddenly shouted at Cheng Feng.

Cheng Feng knew that even if he did not obey the boss, he had to obey the lady boss. Thus, he parked the car at the roadside obediently, "Miss Ning, what is it?"

Ning Xi did not say anything, opening the door then walking to the front to open the door of the driver's seat. "You go sit at the back!"

"Ah?" Cheng Feng was taken aback.

Ning Xi could not wait any longer. She dragged him by the collar and stuffed him into the back seat before she got into the driver's seat and stepped on the accelerator.

The engine growled fiercely and the car flew like an arrow...

Cheng Feng did not know how to react and he was so frightened that his heart felt like it could jump out any time. He quickly held tightly onto the handles in the car and looked at the girl behind the wheel in horror.

Just a second ago, she had just been a crying vulnerable little rabbit. How did she suddenly change into such a serious queen of speed...

Couldn't she at least have given him a warning?

Lu Tingxiao looked at his speeding wife and wanted to say something but did not. Fine, speed away! It was good for her to let it out too!

The car kept overtaking other vehicles and speeding past with quick, skillful turns. Cheng Feng felt nauseous as he looked to his Big Boss for help, hoping that he could advise her to slow down. Who knew, that all he saw was the Big Boss' loving and tolerating gaze at her...

A moment later, they neared the old residence. The car remained at the speed of 400 miles per hour, and as he saw that the car was about to hit the gate, Cheng Feng could not bear to look and squeezed his eyes shut...

In the next second, Ning Xi hit the emergency brakes. The car stopped half a meter from the gate of the old residence.

She quickly parked and turned her head to urge, “Lu Tingxiao, go in quickly!”

“Okay, you wait for me here.” Lu Tingxiao got down from the car and walked briskly into the brightly lit residence courtyard.

In the backseat, Cheng Feng was practically crawling out of the car. As soon as he got off, he held onto a big tree and puked his guts out...

In the living room, everyone looked nervous. Lu Chongshan was anxious and Yan Ruyi had cried her eyes out.

When they saw Lu Tingxiao had returned, Yan Ruyi was relieved as though her back bone had been restored in her body. She quickly went to greet him, “Tingxiao, you’re finally back! Quickly go see Little Treasure!”

Lu Tingxiao immediately walked into Little Treasure’s room and saw that the little guy lay on the bed looking as pale as paper with cracked lips and his little body was twitching non-stop. A group of doctors surrounded him and everyone looked uneasy.

Lu Tingxiao’s expression instantly darkened. Little Treasure’s situation was even more serious than he had thought...

“How did this happen?” Lu Tingxiao questioned frigidly.

Yan Ruyi clearly tried to avoid his gaze, “We...we’re not sure either. Little Treasure didn’t look too good since this afternoon, so we got the doctors to come have a look and they said it was a small fever, not too big of a deal. In the middle of the night, his temperature suddenly shot up to 40 degrees and his body started to have spasms. His temperature would not go down, no matter what! It is the exact same situation as before!”

Chapter 494: Call Ning Xi Over To Try

“Have you tried the medication?” Lu Tingxiao asked.

Qin Mufeng, who was trying to reduce Little Treasure’s temperature with alcohol, wiped the sweat from his forehead and straightened up. He looked serious as he said, “I have, it’s the same as before, it’s helpful immediately, but very soon, the temperature went up again. Little Treasure’s body is too weak and he is not used to the frequent use of such strong medicine. Sedatives are out of the question as well, or else it would be of further harm to him than the illness!”

Yan Ruyi cried as she watched the body of her dearest grandson twitch helplessly, “Well, we can’t watch Little Treasure continue like this! All you doctors, aren’t you all of top-notch quality? Why can’t you treat a fever like this?”

Qin Mufeng said, his head aching, “There are many things that even the medical field can’t explain. We’ve already done many checks on Little Treasure before this and his body showed no other changes. Without any changes, the doctors have no reference point to deal with!”

“Little Treasure is already so ill, how could you say there was no change? Clearly, it’s your medical skills that are not up to par!” Yan Ruyi said exasperatedly, refusing to listen to any further explanations.

Lu Chongshan held his wife’s shoulders and said, “Ruyi, calm down!”

“Little Treasure is already so ill, how can I be calm? You should have listened to me and invited people over to chase the demons away! These doctors aren’t useful at all! Little Treasure looks like he’s been possessed by the devil, the more I look at it. Either that or he’s lost his soul!” Yan Ruyi said emotionally.

Lu Chongshan’s expression changed when he heard this, and he scolded her, “What devil possession and losing his soul? Why nonsense are you spewing?! Little Treasure is on holiday today, he did not go to school or even go out. He has just been at home, what devils could he have possibly met?”

Yan Ruyi still would not give up. “Then, explain to me, what’s the reason? I would much rather believe it to be the truth!”

Lu Chongshan’s face hardened and he could not help but remind her, “The last time Little Treasure had an outbreak, I listened to you and invited some medium to call his soul back, and in the end? In the end, it turned out worse than Little Treasure’s illness and you almost...how could you still think about all those nonsense, do you want to kill Little Treasure?”

“Then...then, let’s go invite Master Xuan Jing!”

“Do you think Master Xuan Jing is some wizard? You can try to invite him if you want. He never intervenes in things like this and you know that!”

“Then...then you tell me what to do?!”

...

While the two old ones fought, Qin Mufeng pulled Lu Tingxiao to a corner and said in a lowered voice, “Actually, I still think the main cause is psychological. I’ll tell you secretly, the reason Little Treasure is like this is not unfounded. They were just afraid you’d be angry, so they did not dare tell you.

“Weren’t your parents busy looking to set you up with a partner for a while now? Well, today Madam Zhuang came to visit your house and brought their daughter, Zhuang Ke Er along. I’m guessing Little Treasure accidentally bumped into them and he felt provoked...”

Lu Tingxiao’s veins on his neck bulged out in vexation. Those two were his closest family members and yet, this incident was technically caused by them. Now, the two old ones were so frightened that they could get sick anytime too. He could not say a single word of unkindness.

“Little Treasure is important. Just call Ning Xi over to try and help!” Qin Mufeng expressed his final opinion.

Lu Tingxiao frowned and sounded slightly frustrated, “I’m afraid that if she comes over, there would be two sick people instead of just one!!!”

Just from hearing about this, she could barely handle it. If she really saw Little Treasure in this state, how sad would she be?

Chapter 495: Lightly Held The Little Bun In Her Embrace

Qin Mufeng rubbed his nose after being scolded, “But there aren’t any other better options now...”

Sigh, actually, he knew that his suggestion was a hard one to pull off. It was very difficult for him to even blurt it out. Only after an intense battle of his thoughts did he say it.

As a psychologist himself, he eventually had to rely on someone like Ning Xi who was not from the industry. He was truly ashamed of himself...

As she watched Little Treasure’s condition become increasingly serious, Yan Ruyi cried until she was about to faint of exhaustion. Lu Chongshan too was shaken and could not hold on any longer.

Lu Tingxiao cursed under his breath and called Ning Xi in the end, “Xiao Xi...”

“Lu Tingxiao! How’s Little Treasure? Is he okay? Is it not too big of a deal?” Ning Xi impatiently asked in one breath.

It was hard for Lu Tingxiao to say, “You...just come in! Wait, I’ll go outside to get you!”

After he hung up, Lu Tingxiao quickly walked out of the door.

Yan Ruyi became anxious when she saw Lu Tingxiao actually walking out. “Tingxiao, Little Treasure is already like this, where are you going?!”

Lu Tingxiao did not reply, continuing to make quick and long strides. He did not even turn around and just walked out.

At the courtyard gate, Ning Xi had gotten down from the car and was walking back and forth outside. She would look at the courtyard nervously from time to time.

She finally saw Lu Tingxiao’s shadow...

“Lit...”

Before Ning Xi could say anything more, Lu Tingxiao had opened the courtyard gate and grabbed her hand to walk in with him without saying anything further.

Ning Xi was speechless as she watched Lu Tingxiao hold her hand tightly and she could roughly guess what the situation was inside.

Little Treasure was probably in an even more serious condition than she could ever imagine...

A wave of fear that she had not felt before rose from her feet to her heart...

At this very moment, Little Treasure's room was in a state of chaos.

Then, from behind them came the sound of footsteps.

Everyone turned around and that was when they saw Lu Tingxiao had brought a girl along with him.

Lu Chongshan's expression immediately changed into one of fury. "Why did you bring this woman here for? Do you think Little Treasure's condition is not serious enough?"

To Lu Chongshan, Ning Xi's presence was probably worse than a witch or a medium.

Even though Yan Ruyi was not happy, she did not reject her as intensely as Lu Chongshan did. She had entirely lost all rationality.

Lu Chongshan breathed heavily and roared, "Get her out of here immediately!"

Lu Tingxiao held Ning Xi's hand tightly and was about to say something when Ning Xi shook her head at him, then wriggled out of his hand.

Ning Xi did not break down on the spot like Lu Tingxiao had predicted.

Instead, what he did not expect was to see Ning Xi's calm attitude towards Little Treasure who lay seriously ill on the bed. She did not even care about Lu Chongshan's complaints and loud scolding. After she wriggled out of Lu Tingxiao's hand, she made her way towards Little Treasure's bed...

Even though she clearly looked like a weak and gentle girl, her eyes were filled with determination, to the point that all the doctors and peasants, who had heard Lu Chongshan's orders and wanted to block Ning Xi's way, all made way for her.

When Lu Chongshan saw this, he fumed, "Stop right there! What do you think you're doing? Didn't all you hear what I said? Who said you could let her in?!"

Lu Tingxiao held out his arm and blocked his father who about to rush out.

At this moment, Ning Xi sat on Little Treasure's bedside. First, she quickly took off the coat on her, then she reached under the thick blanket placed on Little Treasure. Lastly, she carefully held the feverish and soft little guy in her embrace...

Chapter 496: Mommy Loves You, Mommy Likes You

Lu Chongshan was so angry to a breaking point when he saw this girl who was so daring as to not listen to his warnings, even using her filthy hands to touch Little Treasure as she wished. He was about to roar at her but he did not know why he suddenly shut up...

Even though the little bun had long been in a state of confusion due to the fever, once Ning Xi held him in her embrace, it was as if he knew who was hugging him in his subconscious. He immediately used his warm little hands to hold on tightly to the hem of Ning Xi's clothes and his feverish little face was buried into Ning Xi's embrace.

Ning Xi was only pretending to be calm but because of Little Treasure's subconscious little action of pulling himself closer to her, her facade faded for a moment. Because there were still too many other people present, she could only force herself to hold it in and her eyes became slightly glazed over with stubborn tears...

At this moment, Ning Xi had already completely stopped caring about the gaze of everyone around her. She didn't care about the doctors, or Father Lu and Mother Lu who were looking on angrily. Her eyes and heart were only reserved for the weak and suffering little bun in her embrace.

Ning Xi hugged the little bun even tighter, then bent over to kiss the little bun's forehead and tiny face before she said with a very gentle tone, "Baby, Auntie is here, don't worry..."

It was as if that voice of hers held a special power to calm a person down because not only Little Treasure, but everyone else present felt like their frustration and chaos subside at the sound of it.

Lu Chongshan still stood there unmoving and he forgot about his anger momentarily...

The little bun was curled up in Ning Xi's embrace, while his little body continued to shiver slightly. However, the expression on his face was clearly different from the one earlier when he was akin to being tortured in a nightmare. Right now, he seemed assured and contented...

Ning Xi adjusted her posture, stood up and let the little bun's head rest on her shoulders.

Lu Tingxiao helped Ning Xi adjust the little bun into a comfortable position, then picked up the blanket on the bed to cover his son.

After that, Ning Xi started to walk around the room and as she walked, she started to sing gently, "Sleep, sleep, my dearest baby, mummy's hands will gently shake you..."

Sleep, sleep, my dearest baby, mummy's arms, will protect you forever...

Sleep, sleep, my dearest baby, mummy loves you, mummy likes you..."

...

This woman! She actually had the nerves to call herself Little Treasure's mother, how shameless! Lu Chongshan should have been angry but he did not know why as he watched the woman carry Little Treasure and walk around and singing a lullaby, the raging fire in him did not lash out. Instead, he felt like he did not want to ruin the moment and disturb them.

All the doctors and servants on the sidelines, especially the female ones, started to have tears well up in their eyes as they watched the little bun's head rest on the girl's shoulder, his face filled with assurance and love.

Sigh, the Little Master is so pitiful, having to live without a mother's love since such a young age. Actually, at a time like this, a mother's hug, kiss, and gentle lullaby should work even better than any miracle medications!

They even thought that if this woman was really the Little Master's mother, it would be perfect!

Yan Ruyi had the oddest look on her face.

As she watched her dear grandson who lay on Ning Xi's shoulder while he slowly calmed down and even his body stopped the spasming, she suddenly recalled Master Xuan Jing's words from the other day...

“Beyond good luck...beyond good luck...”

Chapter 497: Still Could Not Leave Ning Xi

Ning Xi was not a doctor, so there was no way she knew how to cure illnesses and she could only use the best of her abilities to console the little bun.

Apart from that, there was a strand of telepathy between them that even she could not really understand.

When the little bun made a slight movement, cough, frown or even had a difference in breathing frequency, she would naturally know where he was uncomfortable. She would change her position or let Lu Tingxiao cover the little bun with a blanket, or mumble something into the little bun's ear to indicate that she was still here.

Before Ning Xi had arrived, the little bun lay on the bed while his entire body was in an unstable state. No matter how many people took care of him and fussed about him, he still could not calm down. Now that he was in Ning Xi embrace, his little head leaned on her shoulder and he looked so calm and comfortable. He even entered into a sweet slumber...

The doctors who were watching on the sidelines looked at one another and all breathed a sigh of relief, but at the same time, they all kept utter silent, afraid to make a single sound, worried that they would wake the little guy up again.

If anything had really happened to the Little Master tonight, the entire house would be slaughtered!

The most serious part of Little Treasure's current situation was not the fever, but his emotions that continued to be high-strung when his body was at its weakest state and needed rest. If he could not fall asleep, it would be hard for him to recover, no matter what illness it was.

However, Ning Xi's presence had clearly resolved the most vital problem.

Ning Xi had been carrying and coaxing the little bun for a while now, and Lu Tingxiao observed that she had moved her arms slightly uncomfortably.

Of course, how could her arm not be tired?

Lu Tingxiao made Little Treasure's bed and indicated for Ning Xi to put him down to sleep.

Ning Xi looked at the little bun in her embrace and saw that the little guy's breathing had stabilized and he had completely fallen asleep. She then walked slowly to the bedside, bent over, and carefully put the little bun onto the bed...

Lu Chongshan and Yan Ruyi eventually calmed down when they saw that. However, just as Ning Xi placed the little bun onto the bed, the little guy's peaceful face immediately scrunched up and his body started to shiver again.

As they watched Little Treasure having a fit again, the two old ones were frightened. Before they could even calm down, another attack came up!

Ning Xi was obviously the first to notice, so she immediately hugged the little bun again and started to pat and sing to him again. Even though she was pretty much helpless, there were no signs of impatience from her.

Even though Lu Tingxiao was worried about his son, he was obviously distressed for his wife as well, so he walked over and had Ning Xi sit down on the bed.

“What is it?” Ning Xi hugged the little bun and looked suspiciously. In the next second, she widened her eyes in shock.

Lu Tingxiao squatted down and started to personally take her shoes off for her.

Of course, even more shocked than Ning Xi was everyone else who stood quietly in the room, as well the devil’s parents...

Only Qin Mufeng rubbed his nose, and even though it was an unexpected sight, he was already used to it.

After Lu Tingxiao had helped Ning Xi take off her shoes, he lightly put her legs onto the bed and stacked two soft pillows behind her to let her lean on the bed frame. He then adjusted her into a comfortable position, before covering her with a blanket. He looked serious when he said with a stern tone that would not tolerate rejection, “You get some sleep for a while too. You rushed over immediately after getting off the flight and you haven’t even rested yet.”

“Oh...” Ning Xi hugged the little bun on her lap and nestled into the soft pillow. She was indeed feeling much more comfortable.

Chapter 498: This Girl Can Bless Our Little Treasure

“Oh...” Ning Xi hugged the little bun on her lap and nestled into the soft pillow. She was indeed feeling much more comfortable.

Unfortunately, the scorching gazes surrounding her were a little overwhelming...

Lu Tingxiao sternly waved his hand and everyone immediately regained their senses from their shock and walked out nervously. They could only guess in their heart, “Who was this woman that the Big Master had brought back?”

Not only did she manage to coax the Little Master as soon as she arrived, but she even had the Big Master, who seemed to be void of human emotions, to be so gentle with her!

“Could it be...could it be that this woman is our Little Master’s biological mother?” one of the maids said with a look of realization dawning on her face.

“That’s not possible. Didn’t they say that the Little Master’s biological mother had long passed away? Otherwise, which woman would be so cruel as to abandon their own child?!”

“In fact, our Big Master is such an excellent man!”

“Perhaps there is something that cannot be revealed.”

“You lot, are you done with living? How dare you discuss such things? If the Master and Madam Lu find out, be prepared to get chased out!” one of the maids with a higher status scolded them and immediately, everyone shut up.

In the Lu family, the topic about the Little Master’s mother was an unspeakable taboo.

Ning Xi’s journey plus tonight’s shock by the little bun had made her quite tired.

However, in the room were still Lu Chongshan and Yan Ruyi, the two old ones. With them standing around her lying on the bed, she felt awkward, what more sleeping in front of them...

“Father, Mother, you both go get some rest. I will be here to keep watch,” Lu Tingxiao said to the both of them.

Lu Chongshan looked like he was in a dilemma as he watched his beloved grandson sleeping soundly in Ning Xi’s embrace.

He frowned and was about to say something when Yan Ruyi nudged him, “Then, we’ll leave now. If there’s anything with Little Treasure, you must let us know immediately.”

“Mmm.”

In the living room, Lu Chongshan, who had been dragged out by his wife, looked unhappy. “Why did you drag me out for?”

Yan Ruyi looked hesitant. “Chongshan, don’t you feel like that girl is very special?”

“What’s so special about her? It’s just that she could coax him! Otherwise, would Little Treasure and Tingxiao be so charmed by her?” What Lu Chongshan was angriest about right now was how he had to watch his own son and grandson be completely under that woman’s control and he could not do anything.

“Little Treasure was suffering so much earlier but once she came, he became better. Is this really just a matter of coaxing? Yan Ruyi expressed her disagreement.

Lu Chongshan knew that he was prejudiced but there was no way he would admit this, so he argued, “Then, can you tell why was it so?”

Yan Ruyi started to say, “Maybe...this girl has a good birth chart with prosperous good luck and can bless our Little Treasure!”

When Lu Chongshan heard this, he said bitterly, “What nonsense are you spewing now?”

“How am I spewing nonsense? This was what Master Xuan Jing said himself!” Yan Ruyi blurted out in emotionally.

“What did you say? Why would Master Xuan Jing say something like this?” Lu Chongshan immediately questioned seriously.

Yan Ruyi evaded her gaze as she answered helplessly, “To tell you the truth, the other day when I asked Master Xuan Jing to evaluate the birth dates, I brought along the birth date of this girl too...”

Chapter 499: Little Treasure’s Mother, My Wife

“You...you...” Lu Chongshan was outraged when he heard this. “Why did you bring that girl’s birth dates over for? Unless you want to let her into our family?”

Yan Ruyi’s shoulders shrunk and she said, “No way! I...I was just worried whether this girl would jinx our Tingxiao and Little Treasure, so I wanted to let the Master evaluate.”

Lu Chongshan still felt doubtful and after cooling down, he shot her a look and asked, “What were the results then?”

Yan Ruyi looked slightly emotional as she recalled, “We chose so many girls from good families for such a long time and no one stood out. Only Ning Xi, as Master Xuan Jing said, had a birth chart which showed good luck, a happy family, prosperity, and lots of children!”

Although Lu Chongshan was mentally prepared, he was still shocked to hear the results. “How could this be? Did Master Xuan Jing really say this himself?”

“Why would I lie to you for? This were Master Xuan Jing exact words, not a single word missing! Master Xuan Jing even said that this girl’s birth chart is very compatible with our Tingxiao’s! Initially, I did not believe too much in it either, and I was afraid you’d scold me, so I didn’t tell you. Until today when Little Treasure fell sick, I recalled his words again. All of us have used up every way possible, and nothing worked. Yet, the moment this girl came, our Little Treasure’s illness immediately improved so much. Even if it was as simple as Little Treasure really liking this girl, the influence on his illness would not be this huge, would it?” Yan Ruyi deciphered bit by bit.

Lu Chongshan listened to this with a serious expression and walked back and forth in the living room. Finally, he decided and said, “The birth chart is only a proxy, how can you believe it to be entirely true? Don’t mention this ever again. Besides, whether Little Treasure has recovered fully is still unknown, what if he later...”

“Hey! Can you not curse your grandson like that?” Yan Ruyi instantly scolded her husband and looked dissatisfied.

“I was just worried about Little Treasure...” Lu Chongshan noticed that he had said the wrong thing too and was embarrassed.

Lu Chongshan deliberated as he thought about Yan Ruyi’s words earlier. He looked conflicted, and he finally stared at his wife seriously and shouted, “Things like birth charts are baseless. However, someone’s true character can be observed from all sorts of aspects. Don’t forget why Little Treasure became like this two years ago. It was because we gullibly believed someone like that...”

Actually, Yan Ruyi knew as well that even if Lu Chongshan found out what Master Xuan Jing had said the other day, his attitude would not change much. When she heard this, she looked pale and nodded, "I was just saying, obviously I will still be careful..."

Inside Little Treasure's room.

After Lu Chongshan and Yan Ruyi had left, sleepiness immediately came over Ning Xi. She was worried about the little bun, so she still dared not fall asleep.

Lu Tingxiao sat on the bedside and helped her arrange the blankets. "Sleep, I'm here. If anything, I'll call for you."

Then, he lightly kissed the girl's forehead.

Ning Xi's eyes immediately widened. Lu Tingxiao's move was so shocking that now her sleepiness had reduced by half. Did he genuinely want to let me sleep?

Looking at the girl's widened eyes, something flashed across Lu Tingxiao's deep gaze. "Apologies."

Even though he said he was sorry, what he did was an entirely different story. He leaned over and planted a kiss on the corner of her mouth for a long time, then only did he finally leave...

By this time, Ning Xi was already completely wide awake and shocked.

Was he taking this opportunity because she was hugging Little Treasure and dared not move?

"Ning Xi, one day you will become Little Treasure's mother." My wife.

Chapter 500: What's Wrong With Little Treasure?

In her dreams, Lu Tingxiao's words continued to replay in Ning Xi's mind...

One day, you will become Little Treasure's mother...

Mmm, become baby Little Treasure's mother...

If she really was his mother, how nice would that be...

She really, really liked Little Treasure...

She was still worried about Little Treasure after all, so she did not sleep soundly.

Ning Xi woke up after a little rest. The first thing she did after waking up was to look at the little bun in her embrace.

It was a good thing the little guy was still sleeping soundly between her arms, and his soft little fingers subconsciously held onto her clothes hem. His neck and back revealed a layer of sweat.

Good that he was starting to sweat, so that meant he was expelling the heat...

Ning Xi thought about this then immediately touched the little bun's forehead, it felt like the temperature had gone down quite a bit.

Lu Tingxiao was standing at the wide floor-to-ceiling window and looking at the sky revealing a sliver of light. When he heard movement from the bed, he immediately walked over. “You’re awake.”

Ning Xi touched the little bun’s forehead and urged softly, “Lu Tingxiao, check if baby’s fever has subsided a little? I feel like Little Treasure’s body is not as feverish as before.”

Lu Tingxiao nodded and used his huge palm to feel his son’s forehead. His expression softened, “His temperature did reduce, don’t worry, I’ll call for the doctor to check.”

“Mmm.” Ning Xi nodded.

Lu Tingxiao went out for a while, when he returned, he was followed by Qin Mufeng and two other doctors.

Qin Mufeng attentively brought a thermometer over.

Lu Tingxiao took over the thermometer and carefully put it under Little Treasure’s armpit.

A moment later, the results showed his temperature to be 37.8 degrees.

Even though it was still slightly feverish, it was much better than the previous 40-degree fever. In fact, it was reduced without any medications and this was not a simple feat.

Then, the other two doctors did a detailed check on Little Treasure again.

After last night’s check, the doctors looked much more optimistic as they reported, “At this point, the Little Master’s condition has stabilised, but we will still need to continue observing at least until tomorrow, past the 24-hour mark.”

At this moment, Lu Chongshan and Yan Ruyi had received the news and rushed in too. They quickly looked at the thermometer, and when they saw that the temperature had gone down, they breathed a sigh of relief.

“Yes, yes, we must still continue to observe. It’s best to be careful. Who knows if the fever will return since before this it was fluctuating too...” Yan Ruyi said worriedly.

Lu Chongshan nodded in agreement. After a night of being tensed, they could finally relax a little. He dared not to imagine if something were to really happen to Little Treasure...

At this moment, Ning Xi who was hugging the little bun on the bed suddenly frowned and screamed, “Ahh...”

Instantly, everyone’s nervous gazes fell on her.

Yan Ruyi, “What is it? What is wrong with Little Treasure?”

Lu Chongshan asked too, “What is it?”

The doctors’ hearts were practically at their throats too. Nothing must happen to this little heir...

With everyone’s anxious looks, Ning Xi wanted to say something but stopped. She looked awkwardly and made everyone question her even more worriedly.

At last, Lu Tingxiao walked over without a word. First, he rolled up his sleeves, then tugged Ning Xi's blanket away. His actions looked very natural as he started to massage her legs and asked with a calm voice, "Are your legs numb?"