

Daddy! Come Home for Dinner!

Chapter 10: Chapter 10: Hurry Up and Find a Girlfriend

Cindy Clarke looked at her son's delicate, beautiful face and his surprisingly thick skin.

She believed him.

"Probably because Arthur Woods likes our classmate Penelope Carter, but Penelope likes me. He got jealous and came to say those things." Morgan Clarke said proudly.

"..." Cindy was silent.

Are kids these days already playing the game of love and hate?

"No one has the right to belittle you or me. You know I'm a good person, but I also know you're a good person. We both shouldn't be looked down upon by others." Cindy said, "I understand you did it this time for my sake. But you can't do this anymore."

"Either way, fighting is not right. And you're so young, fighting with a friend who is older than you puts you at a disadvantage. If you don't know how hard you're hitting, what if you cause irreparable damage?"

"You can go to the teacher or come back and tell me. I'll go and ask for justice. I'll go and ask how the teacher teaches and how parents educate their children. But Morgan, you can't take matters into your own hands, you can't put yourself in danger, do you understand?"

Morgan nodded obediently: "I remember."

At the hospital, Cindy signed Morgan up quickly and took him to the surgery department.

Fortunately, it was just a superficial wound, and the doctor prescribed ointment. It would be fine with just a little application.

Sheldon Rowland hurriedly entered: "Master Adrian, I just sent the ravioli from that restaurant for testing."

"What? Anything wrong?" Adrian Zhekova asked immediately.

"Just after you left, Morgan Clarke's mother came to pick her up and tasted the ravioli soup. She said the soup had poppy shell added, and she wasn't sure about the ravioli filling because the ravioli had been soaked in the soup. It might have absorbed the taste from the soup."

"She was very sure about her claim, so I sent the ravioli for testing. The result will be out soon." Sheldon Rowland explained.

Adrian Zhekova nodded, seeing Sheldon Rowland still standing there, he raised his eyebrows: "Anything else?"

"No, but Master Adrian, I didn't expect Morgan Clarke's mother to be so young, she looks only in her early twenties. She is so beautiful ..."

Adrian Zhekova said disdainfully: "You've been single for too long. You're eyeing someone's mother now. Hurry up and find a girlfriend."

Sheldon Rowland's face turned green.

Has Adrian Zhekova forgotten that he's single himself and is driving their Old Madam crazy?

Besides, if it weren't for his constant servitude to Adrian Zhekova, would he still be single now?

Sheldon Rowland didn't want to deal with this out-of-touch boss.

Cindy and Morgan returned home. While changing shoes, Cindy asked: "What do you want to eat tonight?"

Today Morgan was wronged and Cindy wanted to find a way to make him happy.

And the thing that could make Morgan the happiest was eating.

Sure enough, foodie Morgan immediately said excitedly: "I want to eat Coke Chicken Wings!"

Cindy thought and said with a smile: "My previous video inventory is almost finished, I have to record new ones. I haven't filmed the method of making Coke Chicken Wings, so I might as well record it this time."

Cindy finished changing their shoes and asked, "Will you help me record?"

"Leave it to me!" Morgan puffed out his chest and patted it.

Cindy first accompanied him to change his clothes.

Morgan had long been able to change his clothes on his own. Today, he was injured, and Cindy was afraid that he might hurt himself if he wasn't careful with his movements.

After changing their clothes, Cindy took the chicken wings out of the refrigerator and put them in the microwave to defrost.
