

For Dinner 366

Chapter 366: It's Nice to Have a Wealthy Daddy

After all, a confidante at one's side is crucial.

He does not know how well Adrian Zhekova treats Cindy Clarke.

But judging from the way Adrian Zhekova avenged Cindy Clarke just now, it was pretty good at least.

Cindy's words should carry weight.

Who would have thought? Knowing that Adrian Zhekova is petty, but didn't expect he could be this petty.

He wasn't pleased with him trying to appease Cindy.

He even disallowed him from adding Cindy on Whatsapp.

He had no ulterior motives.

He just wanted to appease Cindy a bit.

With Adrian Zhekova around, who would dare do anything to Cindy!

As a result of this, Adrian Zhekova was still not pleased!

This made Wyatt Kirk reassess Cindy Clarke's position in Adrian Zhekova's heart.

It seemed to be much higher than he initially thought.

But, this time the gain was quite significant.

He managed to add Adrian Zhekova on Whatsapp.

After all, it's really not easy to add Adrian Zhekova on Whatsapp.

This was already the greatest gain.

"Got it!" Having added Adrian Zhekova as a Whatsapp friend, Wyatt Kirk couldn't wait to show off to his friends.

Most importantly, he could go back and show off to his old man.

So his old man would stop saying he was incompetent and unskilled.

With all his skills, how come his old man didn't have any of the Whatsapp friends from The Big Eight families?

He needed to let his old man know that every profession has its master.

There were things he was good at too.

"Nothing else?" Adrian Zhekova asked.

Wyatt Kirk, in his surprise, thought that Adrian Zhekova wanted to thank him by inviting him to dinner.

Who paid didn't matter, what was important was being able to have a meal with Adrian Zhekova.

“No!” Wyatt Kirk said excitedly, “Master Adrian, shall we have a meal together?”

Going back to calling him Master Adrian again, Wyatt Kirk didn’t dare to overstep his familiarity.

Morgan Zhekova, on the sidelines, mentally lighted a candle for Wyatt Kirk.

This uncle had never personally experienced Adrian Zhekova turning on him!

He was still too young.

If it were Sheldon Rowland right now, he’d definitely have suggested leaving.

No, there would be no need for Adrian Zhekova to ask.

Sheldon Rowland would have proposed it himself.

Under Wyatt Kirk’s hopeful gaze, Adrian Zhekova ruthlessly said, “If you have nothing to do, you can go play, we are going to eat. We’re leaving first.”

Just now he said that Wyatt Kirk was observant, but now he’s gotten dumb again.

Didn’t he see that they were a family of three out on a trip?

Why was he trying to impose when he had nothing to do!

Wyatt Kirk:

“Let’s go, the food should be ready by now.” Adrian Zhekova said to Cindy Clarke.

Cindy nodded, thanking Wyatt Kirk once again.

However, Cindy didn't seem to have any intention of dining with Wyatt Kirk.

This was their family of three's first time going out for a meal and shopping, and Cindy didn't want anyone else to suddenly join.

Morgan Zhekova, even more carefree, waved at Wyatt Kirk, "Uncle, thank you."

Wyatt Kirk:

Wyatt Kirk thought to himself, no wonder Adrian Zhekova has been with Cindy Clarke for so long.

The three of them were really a perfect match!

Heartless and ruthless, burning their bridges after crossing!

Wyatt Kirk watched the departing figures of Adrian's family and heard Adrian praising the little one, "You did quite well just now, you even know how to protect Cindy."

"Of course, I am a man!" Morgan's proud voice responded.

Adrian Zhekova laughed and said, "For that, today I'll reward you. I'll take you to the Lego Store, you can buy anything you like."

"There's no such thing as buying anything you like." Cindy quickly interjected, there were quite a lot of things in the store.

If Adrian Zhekova said this, Morgan could really empty the store, would he believe it?

Morgan was stunned. This was the first time he truly felt that having a wealthy dad was really great.
