Forbidden Love

Episode 13 & 14

The same house mother later came in and uncle Sam asked her if I could be taken home. The house mother told him that students weren't just allowed to leave the hostel but immediately she said that, uncle Sam told her that I wasn't feeling fine and needed to see our doctor and made up an excuse that he hoped would work. When he said this, the young house mother looked at me and asked why I didn't go to the sick bay and I lied. I told her I had been going to the sick bay but still hadn't felt better. I was beginning to get scared that she wasn't going to allow me leave with uncle Sam until she said;

"It's okay, let me just write your exeat and get big mummy (referring to the eldest house mother) to sign for you so you can show the security officers at the gate. I'll be back sir." before leaving the office.

I glanced at uncle Sam who was probably staring at me all along. He was definitely not happy with the whole situation but I was the damaged one, the victim, which meant it was worse for me. In less than five minutes, the house mother came in and handed the exeat to uncle Sam, telling me to go pack my things before leaving with my uncle. I went up to pack the books and assignments I would be needing for that weekend. There wasn't much to pack and so I locked my locker and gave Annabelle the keys, letting her know that I wasn't going to be around for the weekend. As expected, she started asking questions and asking if I was okay. I didn't want to explain anything just yet so I let her know that we would talk when I got back and hugged her before exiting the room to join my uncle at the hostel office.

When I got into the office again, my unclce looked up and saw me so he stood up, thanked the house mother and we both left the office. When we got to the gates, my uncle handed them the exeat and so we were allowed to pass the gates. But before we left, he reached into the pockets of his trouser and handed them some change. They were very happy and so they thanked him until we were out of sight. I got into uncle Sam's car as he started the engine before driving off. In the car, it was as silent as a graveyard until uncle Sam broke the silence.

"Meso, I'm sorry for what I'm putting you through....I still regret all that I did. I promise it won't happen again. I know that you didn't mention it to anybody that's why I'm so grateful. I sincerely love you. Don't worry, I'll fix this"

When he stopped talking, I didn't even mutter a sound. I just kept mute because honestly I didn't know what to say. I didn't hate him, as much I thought this situation would cause me to.
