

Forgiveness 29

Ex husband's Plea for Forgiveness

Chapter 29 Destruction

The Gu's mansion lit up brightly as evening fell. The bustling servants seemed to indicate that this was a luxurious family.

Nelson sat alone on the sofa, with his head slightly drooping. He looked at the direction of the front door, as if waiting for Melinda to return.

"Oh dear."

Sighing, Nelson stood up and reached for his crutch, and left. He didn't know what to expect, but when he came to this old age, he became very childish.

It seemed strange that Jonas returned home today instead of staying over at the company.

Although he didn't like Melinda, since they used to be a couple living together, Jonas experienced a strange feeling when he stepped inside their bedroom. He just couldn't explain what it was.

The next morning, when Jonas showed up at the table, he nearly triggered another world war. Nelson, upon seeing him, grew furious.

Queena perceived a headache coming. Her son and her father-in-law seldom agreed on anything, particularly about Melinda.

"Grandpa, I don't understand why you stick up for that woman. She had an affair with another man while still married to my brother. Now that they have divorced, isn't it great?"

Yulia said with a dissatisfied air. The more Nelson thought well of Melinda, the further hatred Yulia harbored against her.

"Shut up!"

"You shut up!"

This time, the two of them were on the same side. Nelson was always defending Melinda. As for Jonas, he thought it was a matter of dignity as a man. Yesterday in the coffee shop, he realized that this matter was a misunderstanding.

Yulia felt very aggrieved. She thought at least to deal with the matter related to Melinda, Jonas would help her.

Nelson gave Jonas a sidelong glance, and somehow the atmosphere around the table was more harmonious.

Nelson liked Melinda a lot. As the wife of Jonas, she should have a lot of valuables. However, she seldom used those things and just stored them all in the bedroom.

After the meal, Yulia sneaked inside Melinda's room. When she walked into the space where Melinda used to stay, she saw a lot of things she wanted. She took away all the unopened items and destroyed the rest.

She tore, in particular, Melinda's clothes, making them almost look like rags.

Jonas forgot his watch in the bedroom so he had to go back and get it, and simultaneously saw the scene. He frowned and his eyes turned cold with anger.

Yulia hesitated for a moment and instantly tuck something behind her back, as if she was hiding something.

"Jonas."
