

Forsaken by my Mate

Chapter 19

Bree's POV

I am so turned on right now. I feel so good, and I want to be touched more. I can smell Nico here with me, and I feel his hand on my py and then I feel my n*e be tugged into his mouth and I moan loudly and open my eyes to see him leaning above me with my n*e still in his mouth and looking at me like I was his next meal. I wonder where my clothes are and then I remember last night when we went to bed, we weren't dressed. I blush at how bold I was last night with Nico, and I can tell how excited he is as his dk is pressing into my hip right now, and he is good to go.

I know he is going to let me run how far we go this time, and I wish I could say that I was going to deny him, but I know in my heart that I can't. I love him, and I want to be with him. I told him I would give him another chance, and it is a well-known and approved thing to sleep with your mate unless they reject you. Then you are freed from the bond, but he never accepted my rejection. I can tell by how he is looking at me that all he needs is me to give him any kind of sign that I want him to, so I send him the signal by spreading my legs further apart.

Nico immediately starts moving his hand faster up and down my slit and even starts pulling up a little on my clit and my head falls back with the pleasure that I am feeling. Goddess, he really knows what he is doing, and I am so glad I have him as a mate. I give a long low moan and I feel his dk pressing even harder into my side and giving an answering groan himself before he is up like a flash and between my legs again.

He is pushing my legs up by bending my knees, and then settling between my thighs again, and this time I am not wondering what he is about to do, I already welcome the relief that he is about to give me from my heat. I jerk a little bit at the feel of his tongue touching me so intimately but that passes quickly, and I let out a string of breathy moans and Nico works me up to my c*x. He brings me just to my breaking point and stops, he climbs up my body and licks one of my breasts, and then licks across my other breast, flicking my n*e, and then gives me a smile.

He reaches down and presses on my clit and releases another moan from me before he grabs his dk and uses it to go up and down my slit, rubbing the juices flowing out of me around and when he brushes my clit with his dk. I want him inside me right now. I have never wanted anything more than for us to be totally connected as one, and I gave a louder moan and I feel him shudder a little before continuing to use his dk to get me even wetter.

“Sabrina, are you ready to mate with me?” Nico asks me.

I nod at him as I have never wanted anything more in my life. Nico keeps teasing me as he goes up and down my slit and then uses his thumb this time to beard own on my clit and asked me again, “Sabrina are you ready to mate with me? I need your words baby, You have to tell me yes or no, OK”.

“Yeb, yes, I want to mate with you Nico,” I told him, and I heard him release the breath that he had been holding.

I feel Nico line up to me and then tell me, “This will sting a little, but then it will feel really good baby” and I nod at him in agreement I feel his tip at my entrance and then he pushes forward and breaks my barrier. I felt a little sting, but it was manageable, and I want more of him, right now, and I squeeze my nails into his back and say, “Please Nico, I need more” before he pulls back and starts a Ferryt hen. I am amazed at the feelings I am getting between me, and Nico, and I feel the familiar pressure building in my abdomen as Nico stases his speed like he can't control what he is doing, and I lay my head back and moan loudly at what I was feeling.

“Sabrina, you are so tight baby, I won't be able to hold on for long Nico tells me.

say that only encouraged me more and he is now moving at a pounding pace. His angle from where he is positioned on me is rubbing my clit with each stroke, and when he exits my heat. I cannot control myself as I start digging my nails into his back and trending out faint sounds as I get higher in higher, I never want this feeling to end, and I started feeling my legs shaking hard and knowing I am about to come undone soon

I look up at Nico and I see that he has his eyes closed and seems to be trying to hold out, and I cry out loudly as I'm hard and clamp down on his dk. I heard Nico groan loudly and then he manages one more stroke before he fills me up with his seed, calling out his pleasure as well. He came hard too, and I watch him slide out of me and hurry to the bathroom to come back with a warm wet rag to clean me up. I appreciate him tending to me, but all I want is for him to come back to me and snuggle up with me now. I am tired and want a little nap as well, and I turn to my side again and I am glad to feel him come back to me and pull me back to him and kiss my shoulder and sniff where my mark will go. I am glad that he didn't insist on marking me yet, as I won't allow it until this situation with Shelby is over and done with. I can't be bound to him, and then us all three play house together. It has to be either me, or her, there is no other option in this, and I will not allow him to mark me until he has made his choice AND kicked her out of the packhouse.

We both take a nap and I awake to my mate stroking my body again. I lay onto my back to give him more access to touch me and accept the passionate kiss that he is leaning over to give me. I kiss him back with all the love I have for him in that kiss. I can feel him pressing against me again and I love how much he wants me. I know that what we have is special because I can see it in his eyes as he looks at me. I can feel our bond growing, even without us being marked. I know he would mark me right now, but if I allowed that I would be bound to him forever, until death, and I cannot allow that to happen yet. I don't trust him completely as he had lied to me before, and until he handles the problem with Shelby, I just can't take that chance at all. I will live with the consequences of my actions by mating with him, but I cannot be bound to him until he makes his choice, as it is either me, or her, but it won't be the both of us, no matter how much that hurts me.

I moan into the kiss and Nico lays back on the bed and picks me up at my waist and settles me above him floating right above his dk. He gets me lined up and slowly lowers me onto him, and I feel so full as I slide down his dick. I am so wet, I can feel my slick sliding out of me, and Nico groans loudly in pleasure. I am a little sore, and Nico lets me rest there impaled on his dick for a little while and then he tells me to use my knees to raise and lower myself on him. I follow his direction and after a minute I am enjoying the control I have over this situation. I started out slow as I figured out how I wanted to do this, and I tilt slightly forward to I can use his dick to drag against my clit each time up and down. I love that he is letting me set the pace as I rise and fall above him. I feel his hands come up and cup my breasts, rubbing and massaging them as I decided to go faster, making my breasts bounce in his face as he comes up to a sitting position and gives me a nip on where my mark will go, before sucking on it hard and I felt that tug in my lower abdomen again with the pleasure that I was getting from him.

Nico grabs my face and kisses me hard and I slow my pace to allow his tongue to swipe into my mouth. He kisses me with all of his pent-up passion and holds me tightly to him. I have never been kissed so thoroughly. He then pulls me up off of him and tells me to get on my knees. I get on all fours and look over my shoulder at him and see him lining up again and then plunging into me swiftly and I cried out, his hands gripping my waist, and he is smoothly sliding in and out of me. He feels so good to me, and I cannot help but moan out loud, and that gets him moving even quicker in and out of me as I press my breasts down into the bed and raise myself higher up for him. I spread my knees further apart to allow him even more access to me and press myself back towards him with my arms. He calls out his pleasure as I clamp down on him and he comes into me again. Nico kisses my back and we both lay down on our sides, with my head cradled on his bicep, as we both tried to calm our breathing down. He is sniffing me and licking where my mark should go when I stiffen up and pull away from him as I said, “No, Nico, I don't want you to mark me yet. Until you deal with Shelby, I won't allow you to mark me”

“But baby, this would feel so much better for us both, if we marked each other” Nico pointed out,

“I know it will, but that gives us something to look forward to. But you have not been totally truthful to me, and I have put up with too much Nico. Until you deal with Shelby, I won't allow you to mark me” I told him.

I feel pressure in my mind as if he was trying to Alpha command me, but I am not in his pack, and he is not my Alpha. I sit straight up in bed and yell at him, “Did you just try to Alpha command me to take your mark?”

The guilty look on his face is all the answer that I need, and I walk to the bathroom to take a shower and get the memory of his hands on me off. I am furious. I JUST told him that I needed him to deal with Shelby, and then, and only then, he can mark me, and he tries to force me into submitting to him. I locked the door and ignored him calling out to me, and banging on the door, as I slipped into the shower. I am almost shaking now, I am so mad. I allowed us to mate because I am in heat and I needed the relief, and he is going to not what I want in this. He keeps showing me who he is, and I keep giving him opportunities to hurt me again. I ignore him yelling at me and yell back to him through the door, “You can have Jaden take you back to Golden Summit Nico, I think we are done here”. I wash my hair and try to figure out what I can do to get out of here, as I am still a prisoner, and something will have to give, and soon, or I may just go mad here in frustration.
