"Haha, you brat dare to bully your mother, when you come out, see if I don't whip your ass." Ye Han laughed and stood up, he looked at Huang Nishang and said in a soft voice; "Nishang, it's been hard for you, carrying a son for me." At these words, the crowd collectively gave Ye Han a blank look, the child inside Huang Nishang's belly was not even born yet, who knew whether it was a boy or a girl, however, this was not a difficult task for Ye Han, with the Yin Yang Dharma Eye, his eyes worked better than an X-ray, how could he not know whether the child inside Huang Nishang's belly was a boy or a girl. "Could it be a girl and you wouldn't like it?" Huang Nishang nodded at Ye Han's forehead and said with an unhappy face. "Like, how could I not like it, but I said he is a son is a son, go, go inside, it's windy outside, don't catch a cold." Ye Han helped Huang Nishang noisily walk inside the villa of the mountain, but when he passed by Yan Qing Mu, he paused and shamelessly betrayed the maniac who helped him; "The maniac went to Xiangjiang and met a woman called Jing Yi." After saying this, Ye Han didn't bother to pay attention to Yan Qingmu whose face was gathering colour, and walked directly inside the villa. "Bastard, I told you to go to Xiangjiang to protect your son, but you went to meet your lover, when you come back, I will pick your skin." Yan Qing Mu stomped her foot fiercely, she looked at Ye Han who had already walked inside the villa and shouted; "Son, what does that woman look like? Has she become ugly or has she become old? Who is prettier than your mother?" "Quite pretty, like an eighteen year old girl." Ye Han said without turning around as he supported Huang Nishang. However, after hearing Ye Han's words, Yan Qing Mu was surprisingly not going to get angry, she looked a little excited and stunned as she looked at Ye Han's back, because she had just called Ye Han her son, however, Ye Han surprisingly did not go to reject it like he did before, instead he replied to her with these words. "Little Aunt, it seems that he is already starting to let go in his heart, try hard!" Yan Zihan walked up to Yan Qing Mu's side and said with a smile on her face, Yan Qing Mu nodded her head repeatedly and said with tears of joy; "Yes, Little Han he is already starting to accept me, Zihan, let's go and cook, Little Han must not have eaten well in these half months in Xiangjiang, let's cook a delicious meal for him together." In fact, the reason why Ye Han chose to answer Yan Qingmu in this way was also because of the effect brought by that little life, which made Ye Han feel comfortable and even looked at Yan Qingmu more smoothly, of course, there was only some recognition in it, only this, even Ye Han himself did not notice. On his first day back in Shanghai City, Ye Han didn't go anywhere, he just stayed with his family in the lodge, enjoying the happiness of being a father soon. When night came, except for Ye Han, who was with Huang Nishang, who was treated as a treasure by everyone, the rest of them all went to the kitchen to serve Yan Qingmu. "Nishang, you won't blame me for not going to see you at the Companions during this time, will you?" On the sofa, Ye Han leaned against his legs and held Huang Nishang's hands and said. "I know you're busy." Huang Nishang was likewise holding Ye Han's big hands tightly and said; "As long as you are safe and sound, to me even if you don't see me once a year I won't blame you, now I have your child, although you are not with me, but with your son with me, I am not alone." "It's been hard for you!" Ye Han held Huang Nishang tightly in his arms, of all the women around himself, he had spent the least amount of time with Huang Nishang, and for her, Ye Han always felt a little guilty, because their union had an element of compulsion in it, and was not an autonomous love affair, which was perhaps the biggest regret in a woman's life. And now that Huang Nishang was pregnant, he could not always be by her side, which made Ye Han's heart feel even more guilty. The dinner was rich, Yan Qingmu's cooking skills were naturally beyond compare, and with a group of maidens playing below, the meal was soon on the table, and a group of warblers came out from inside the kitchen carrying plates of food. "Well, it smells good!" This said, Ye Han didn't need to look, he knew it was the scruffy old dao coming, once it was time to eat, this old fellow would appear very punctually. "Kid, you didn't even say hello to Old Dao when you came back, what, pretend you didn't see me?" The scruffy old dao sat down opposite Ye Han, talking while drinking the strong wine he had brought with him. Ye Han glanced at him and said; "Old man, I've been back for most of the day, and you've been playing missing all day, where do you want me to find you." The scruffy old dao took a sip of wine and said; "Alright, don't be poor, the White Tiger Star has recently moved, it seems to be recovering soon, its location is still in the south, if you have time go and look for it, the Holy Beast White Tiger can't fall into the hands of others." "It's still in the south!" Ye Han's eyebrows stared down, he naturally thought of that forest in Tengchong, Ye Han had found it inside that forest, if the Holy Beast White Tiger was still in the south, then that forest in Tengchong would be its landing place. "Okay, I know, when the southern side is done, I will go and look for it, but it should be safe now." After saying this, Ye Han suddenly looked at the scruffy old dao and said; "Old man, since you are so good at counting, why don't you count where the other holy beasts are located? If we gather the Four Great Sacred Beasts, then I'll have a lot of fun here." "You brat is not trying enough with the last time you died, are you?" The scruffy old dao glared at Ye Han, a single holy beast, the white tiger, had almost sent Ye Han to meet the king of hell, if all the four holy beasts were here with him, then there would be no place for him in this world, unless Ye Han was strong enough. This night, Ye Han spent the night in Huang Nishang's room, for this, Zhou Yun'er and Yan Zihan had no problem with it, right now Huang Nishang was pregnant and had very little time to spend with Ye Han, it was right that Ye Han should spend more time with her on his first night back. The next morning, the gentle sunlight shone through the window, and Ye Han accompanied Huang Nishang to get up and take a walk inside the lodge, Zhou Yun'er had work to do and had already left the lodge early in the morning and would not return until the evening. At this time, Yan Qingmu strolled towards Ye Han and Huang Nishang, seeing this, Ye Han looked calm, Huang Nishang looked at Ye Han before calling out to Yan Qingmu; "Mom, you guys talk, I'm going for a walk over there." "Neishang, take it slow, don't fall." "Got it, mum." After watching Huang Nishang leave, Yan Qingmu moved her lips and said; "Son, are you really refusing to call me mother?" "Give me a reason, just because of this bloodline?" Ye Han asked rhetorically. "I" Yan Qing Mu sobbed tears and said; "Son, although what happened back then was our fault for not taking care of you, but it was all not our will, as long as you nod your head, I am willing to compensate with everything As long as you are willing to acknowledge me, I am willing to do anything, even if I lose my life, I will not hesitate, I just want you to acknowledge me as your mother, let me spend the rest of my life to make up for you, to love you!" At those words, Ye Han's heart touched down, Yan Qing Mu's goodness to him, Ye Han did not fail to see, just that, he had not yet passed his own level. "This matter will be discussed after I take down the Southern Underworld." Saying that, Ye Han walked towards Huang Nishang's location.

To call Yan Qingmu mother and Madman father, Ye Han's heart was not ready to do so, in the end, he had not yet passed his own hurdle, since childhood, he knew that he was an abandoned child by his biological parents, so, for those biological parents whom he had never met, Ye Han's heart was resentful. This resentment, which had accumulated for more than ten years since childhood, could not be eradicated in a day or two. Although Yan Qingmu's persistence and what she had done during this period of time had touched Ye Han's heart somewhat and his impression of her and the Madman had changed greatly, however, it had not yet reached the point where Ye Han would just accept them as his parents. The people of the Companions lived inside the mountain villa, although it seemed a little crowded, but this was only temporary, after Ye Han had taken down Murong He Tu, the Companions would have their own place to live. "Holy Son." Ye Han waved his hand and said; "Grand Elder, everyone sit down, by the way, where is father-in-law? Why isn't he here?" When Ye Han arrived here, he immediately found that Huang Wutian as well as Huang Wuliang were no longer there, and there were very few elders of the Companions Master here. The eldest elder said; "Back to the holy son, Wutian took our companions to South China, which has become vacant since it was beaten down by the holy son, and the Japanese are making waves in South China right now and want to establish a Black Dragon Society stronghold, but with Wutian and the others in South China, the Japanese will not succeed in their plot." This part of South China was the place that Sun Buwei and the others went to fight down when Ye Han entered the Ghost City, but after fighting down South China, they met Ye Han's biggest crisis, so Sun Buwei and the others returned to Shanhai City before they could go to rectify South China, right now, although the South China side was said to be Ye Han's territory, but the people there had not yet declared their submission to Ye Han, so it was considered a vacant area. "Establishing a stronghold." Ye coldly laughed; "They are dreaming, how can a great country like China be a place where a despicable nation like them can run amok, but since they dare to enter China and snatch food from my mouth, I will make them regret coming here." The Grand Elder asked; "Right now, Wutian and the others are all in Southern China, I wonder when the Holy Son is planning to go to Southern China to get rid of this group of Japanese?" Upon hearing this, Ye Han said; "Since I have my father-in-law in South China, I am very relieved, Grand Elder, where are the people from the Jin family in the Stick Kingdom?" "The Jin family's people are in the southwest." The Grand Elder said; "The Jin family has come with a total of five experts this time, Mr. Leng and the others have already gone over to the southwest to prevent the experts from the Stick Kingdom from causing trouble over there." "One of these two is in South China and the other is in the Southwest, so let's beat up the Jin family first." Ye Han said; "I heard that the Jin family's people want to challenge me, good, I will do as they wish, Grand Elder, put out the word that in three days, I will personally go to the southwest to fight them, life or death." Upon hearing this, the Grand Elder pondered for a moment before saying; "Yes, Holy Son." "Right, Grand Elder, is there any movement from the forces on the domestic side?" Ye Han asked, now that the news of his return from the dead was already known to everyone, what would be the reaction of those who had dealt with him at the beginning? However, I guess that these people might have seen the Japanese and the experts from the Stick Kingdom coming to trouble you, so they want to sit on the mountain and watch the tiger fight, if the Holy Son did not repel the Japanese and the Stick Kingdom Jin Family, naturally they would not need to. Of course, there is another possibility, Madman, Madman is the son of the Ji family, the number one hidden family in China, these people are afraid of Madman, and even more afraid of the Ji family." Ye Han said; "It's just as well that they have nothing to do, so that I can settle the matter in the south painfully, but just because they won't bother me for the time being doesn't mean that I won't bother them. The northern underground world powerhouse, the eight ancient martial arts sects, these people, Ye Han would not forget them, and of course, also Nalan Miantian, a life-and-death enemy. Three days, Ye Han has been spent inside the mountain resort, even if know Ye Han back, Tang Da Shao call about him to go out Ye Han did not go, his own woman has a child, in addition to the serious business, naturally can not put the heart on the food and drink and play above, should be accompanied by the company of people to keep them company. However, on the second night of Ye Han's return from Xiangjiang, when Ye Han was ready to go back to his room to rest, he found that a delicate body covered with a quilt was already lying on the bed belonging to him. "Zihan." Although there was no light on, Ye Han still knew who this woman was. Seeing this, Ye Han's heart seemed to understand a lot and glanced towards the room next to his. "Don't turn on the light" inside the quilt, came Yan Zihan's breathless voice, hearing this, Ye Han closed the room door and walked over, lying down on the edge of the bed, without saying anything, a kiss had already fallen, since Yan Zihan had gathered courage, he Since Yan Zihan had plucked up the courage, he, as a man, naturally could not drag his feet too much, and at this time, no words were as real as actual actions. As the first woman of Ye Han, she knew Ye Han better than Yan Zihan and the others, and she understood this man better, and it was for this reason that she had to give more than other women for this man, emotionally as well. For the sake of Ye Han, Zhou Yun'er would rather have less favor, so that those who follow Ye Han's side will be harmonious, instead of competing for favor and fighting with each other as played out in the drama. If this were the case, Ye Han would not be able to go about his business outside in peace and quiet. For the sake of Ye Han, it can be said that Zhou Yun'er sacrificed a lot, more than other women. She sacrificed not only her incomplete relationship, but also gave an 'understanding' and tolerance that other women could not do. "Silly woman, why do you have to suffer yourself?" Looking at Yan Zihan, who was already asleep in his arms, Ye Han's gaze seemed to pierce through the wall and landed on Zhou Yun'er's body, did Ye Han really not feel this silent effort that Zhou Yun'er was making behind him? Naturally not. As Ye Han's first real girlfriend and first woman, she could tolerate her first night back to accompany Huang Nishang, and on the second night, she even indulged Yan Zihan to come to his room, Ye Han knew that with Yan Zihan's subtle character, she couldn't do something so bold unless someone was instigating her from behind. She had saved that last brief moment for herself and left the best time ahead for others.

On that last day, Ye Han naturally accompanied Zhou Yun'er, for this woman who was silently paying for herself in the back, Ye Han had too many emotions and words, however, in the end, these all turned into a spring rain and dew, mingling with each other, they mingled with their flesh and communicated with their hearts, they understood each other's feelings. Once the three days had passed, Ye Han also had to leave the mountain for the time being, these people in the Southern Underworld would not let him stop, and he could only settle them first. However, right now, the news that Ye Han was going to the southwest to accept the challenge from the experts of the Jin Family of the Stick Kingdom had also spread throughout the Southern Underworld. In fact, there was no need for Ye Han to publicise this matter himself, when the Grand Elder and the others had put the news out, someone had passed on this powerful news. Ye Han's resurrection from the dead was a miracle, and right now, many people wanted to see what kind of earth-shattering action he would make after his resurrection from the dead, would he perish in revenge? Or will he still be standing in revenge? Regarding Ye Han's side of the action, it is quite a concern at the moment. Qiangui Region, Qing Shui City. The experts of the Jin family of the Stick Kingdom came to the south of China to challenge Ye Han, but they were forced by the experts of the Companions to the Qiangui region. The experts of the Jin family also wanted to go to Xiangjiang to look for Ye Han, but the Companions defended them to death. However, just as the companions left the Qianguai region, Leng Wufei and his men arrived again, making the Jin family experts, who had wanted to breathe a sigh of relief, furious, and could only stay honestly in the Qianguai region, waiting for Ye Han to return to the mainland. On this day, Ye Han arrived in the Qianguai region and found Leng Wufei and the others who were in the Qianguai region.

"Sir, has there been any movement from the Jin family?" Inside a room, Ye Han asked towards Leng Wufei and the others. At this, Leng Wufei laughed; "What movement can these guys have, they are probably still holding their breath, although there are powerful figures among the Jin family experts who have come to China this time, but this is China, they do not dare to act openly, they can only stay here honestly and wait for you to appear." Ye Han asked; "Is it difficult to solve them with our power over here?" Leng Wufei said; "If that expert is solved, the other Jin Family experts are not enough to worry about." "Good." Ye coldly smiled; "Make an appointment for me with that Jin Family expert, tomorrow noon outside the outskirts of Qing Shui City for a battle, life or death, anyway, if they want to challenge me, I will fulfill them, only, this price they better be able to afford to pay to do so." "Little Han, this time, the experts of the Stick Kingdom and Little Japan have entered the land of China, however, there is no movement from above, I think you should have to understand a lot." This point, Leng Wufei did not say Ye Han also knew, when he received a call from Huang Wutian in Xiangjiang that day, Ye Han had already thought of this point, generally speaking, if there were non-human experts from other countries entering the land of China, the hidden department would definitely step in to expel them from the country, or just kill them in the land of China. But this time, there was no movement from above, purely because these people had come to find him, Ye Han, in trouble and wanted Ye Han to bear the burden himself, and they would not offer Ye Han any more help. Of course, if the Stick Kingdom experts and Little Japan went too far in the land of China, the top would still intervene and leave these people behind forever. The experts of the Jin family of the Stick Kingdom were also in Qing Shui City in the Qian Gui region, so when Leng Wufei spread this information out, the experts of the Jin family got the news first.

"Old Mr. Jin, that Ye Han has arrived in the Qianguai region and has met the battle, asking us to fight tomorrow in the outskirts of this Qing Shui City." Inside a hotel in Qing Shui City, five Jin Family experts were sitting together and talking, of which, two were old and three were young. At this moment, only one of them, an old man with a gloomy face, said; "That's just right, as long as he dares to meet the battle, I can kill him to avenge my nephew Jin Wu Xu, who dares to kill the heir of my Jin Family, even if he is the son of Dongfang Madman, he can hardly escape death, everyone, are you ready to do your loyalty for the family?" At those words, the remaining four bowed their heads and said; "It is our mission to do our duty for the family." "Good, you are all warriors of my Jin Clan, even if you die in battle in the land of China, the glory of your warriors will envelop the entire Jin Clan, the Jin Clan will be proud of you, I, Jin Cheng Bo, am here to thank you all." With that, Jin Cheng Bo bowed to the four men, they had come to China this time to kill Ye Han with the determination of certain death. Ye Han had killed Jin Wu Xu in the Golden Triangle, that was the heir of the Jin family in the Baton Kingdom. Originally, Jin Wu Xu had a bright future in the hidden department of the Baton Kingdom, but he was killed by Ye Han, which made the Jin family suffer a great loss, and Ye Han had to be killed in order for the Jin family to relieve their hatred. However, Ye Han was far away from China, so even if they hated Ye Han, there was nothing they could do. Therefore, they could only send their dead soldiers to China to kill Ye Han, but of course, these dead soldiers also knew that once they got their hands on him, not only would the madman not let them go, I am afraid that the Chinese secret service, which seemed to be letting them go, would also not let these murderers leave peacefully. Entering China meant that they had one foot in the coffin, and no matter how this ended, they would not survive. On the outskirts of Qing Shui City, the next day at noon, Ye Han and the others had already appeared here, however, when Ye Han and the others arrived here, the people from the Jin Clan had already arrived, their incomparably cold eyes gazing at Ye Han and the others who had arrived here. "It looks like someone is in a hurry to report to the King of Hell." Looking at the Jin Clan experts who had appeared here one step ahead of them, Leng Wufei sneered. "Chinese people, today is a fair duel, we are only looking for Ye Han, you are a nation of manners, you should not rise up in a group to attack, right?" Looking at the line-up of Ye Han's side that had arrived here, that old man of the Jin Clan, Jin Cheng Bo, said indifferently. "Do you think too highly of yourselves, do you need to attack in a group to deal with your group of people from the Stick Nation?" Ye Han laughed sarcastically and looked at Jin Cheng Bo and said; "Old man, the land of China, is it not something you can set foot on at will, I heard that you want to challenge me, so I will do as you wish, your opponent today is me, life or death." At these words, Jin Cheng Bo said with an indifferent expression; "When I came to China, I heard that Nan Ye Han was an arrogant man with many enemies, but when I saw you today, you are even more than your father, Madman. I'm afraid many people are now expecting you to die by my hand."

Ye Han let out a wild laugh and said; "Old man, there are many people who expect my death in Huaxia, but the one who can kill me is not you, from the moment you set foot in Huaxia, your destiny is already predetermined." This terrifying aura was spreading towards the whole heaven and earth in a point-breaking manner, enveloping Jin Cheng Bo. Seeing this, a murderous aura rolled out of Jin Cheng Bo's eyes as he stomped his foot on the ground, and then a heavy force came out, golden air currents spread all over Jin Cheng Bo's body, the golden Qi Gang cultivated by the Golden Clan of the Stick Kingdom was very powerful, Ye Han had already experienced it when he fought with Jin Wu Xu in the Golden Triangle, this golden Qi Gang could block Ye Han's Dragon Scale Dagger, of course, this was only before. At that time, Ye Han was not as strong as Jin Wuxu, but at this moment, Ye Han's strength was already too much stronger than in the past. Even if this Jin Cheng Bo was even more powerful than the Jin Wu Xu of that day, Ye Han had no fear. "Drink!" A terrifying loud cry came out of Jin Cheng Bo's mouth, looking at Ye Han who was strolling towards him, Jin Cheng Bo, who had already built up his momentum, waved his fist that was wrapped in golden air currents, his body turned into a lightning-like golden light, and then, a golden fist was infinitely enlarged in front of Ye Han's body, this fist, as if it could crack Ye Han's body apart with a single punch, thick and heavy power, as if it was substantial, even the void that trembled slightly. The attack of Jin Cheng Bo's fist was indeed very powerful, and it was not even a matter of seconds to kill an expert at the early stage of the Middle Ren Du realm. However, although Ye Han was currently at the early stage of the Middle Arbiter, his combat power had already far surpassed this level, not to mention that Ye Han was also carrying the terrifying Vermilion Bird Sacred Fire. "Open!" Ye Han struck out and waved his blade, a wild and overwhelming slash met Jin Cheng Bo's golden fist and chopped it, that overwhelming power, the harsh blade seemed to split Jin Cheng Bo's golden fist apart. Clang! Such a fierce clash, a terrifying and deafening sound of gold and iron spread across the void. In the next moment, Jin Cheng Bo's body swayed in the void, his face slightly changed as he felt as if his fist had been hit by a boulder as heavy as a tarzan at this moment, an intense pain that made his arm go numb. Ye Han's body was jolted back two steps in the void, he looked at Jin Cheng Bo with some surprise, this old fellow's fist was simply comparable to his Dragon Scale Dagger, with the combination of the sharpness of the Dragon Scale Dagger and the power he had at the moment, he had failed to hurt him. "Hehe, old man, you are much more powerful than that Jin Wu Xu back then, but I really want to see whether your fist is hard or my dagger is hard in the end." The corners of Ye Han's mouth grinned as the wind sprang up beneath his feet, his terrifying figure seemingly like an uncatchable black light, so swift and thunderous was his speed that Jin Cheng Bo's expression froze. "Furious Wave Fist!" Terrifying golden light streaked across the four fields of heaven and earth, at this moment, endless golden light erupted from Jin Cheng Bo's body, and the void was filled with a faint golden colour, as if a golden mauve rain had fallen. The fierce power attacked and killed, Ye Han's speed of swinging his sword remained the same, and the next moment, a sword and a fist, approached! Infinitely close in And then, it was as if two cars had madly clashed into each other, clashing force with force, powerful and fierce, a circle of terrifying qi energy rolled across heaven and earth in all directions, mercilessly destroying everything, even the ground was scraped up by this terrifying force, debris flying and rolling, dust filling the air. "This old fellow is so strong, I'm afraid that even if we two brothers strike together, we won't be able to take him." Feeling the unparalleled power sweeping across from the void, Chen Tianxing said with a grave expression on his face, beside him, Chen Tiantian nodded approvingly, within their group, only the current Ye Han could clash with such an expert. Although Ye Han's Martial Dao realm was a small realm lower than the two Chen Tianxing brothers, Ye Han's combat power had already far surpassed them. After this terrifying clash, Ye Han and Jin Cheng Bo's faces both turned incomparably red, and the two of them were half and half in this clash, neither of them gaining the slightest advantage. "Get ready, support Old Man Jin at any time, this Ye Han today, we must kill him, this is the mission we came to China for." Outside the battle circle, another old man from the Jin Clan said with a hostile face, a fair duel? They had come to China to kill, whether they could kill Ye Han or not, their chances of survival were slim, so naturally, they had to kill Ye Han at all costs so that they could die properly. Hearing the old man's words, the other three nodded with cold faces, right now Ye Han and Jin Cheng Bo were facing off for life and death. Of course, this teaming up had to be done by surprise, if Leng Wufei and the others noticed it, they would not be able to save their own lives, not to mention teaming up to kill Ye Han. "Wild Wave Fist!" Once again, Jin Cheng Bo's terrifying golden fist whistled, in the void behind him, golden light spread, fierce as the waves of the sea, fierce power converged on top of Jin Cheng Bo's fist, the power of this fist felt like it could pierce the sky. Seeing this, Ye Han's eyes narrowed, the terror of Jin Cheng Bo's fist was twice as great as that Angry Wave Fist just now. At this moment, Ye Han became curious about the golden Qi Gang that the Jin Clan possessed, how exactly did the Jin Clan cultivate this Qi Gang, not only was its defensive power perverted, but this attack power was also inhumanly powerful. "Hmph, old man, it seems that it's really hard to solve you without showing your true power!" Ye Han snorted lightly as the speed of that void stroll came to an abrupt halt, allowing Jin Cheng Bo's terrifying fist to approach towards him. However, in the next moment, a sea of fire was born, terrifying flames spread across the void, this flame seemed to come out of thin air, but that temperature, even the void was scorched, Jin Cheng Bo still killed towards Ye Han with his fist in the middle of this sea of fire, his speed was so fast that he could not stop at all, however, being in the middle of the sea of fire, Jin Cheng Bo already felt a shocking crisis. "This sea of fire is powerful, strike!" At this time, the four experts of the Jin Clan felt the power of Ye Han's sea of fire and swept out, wanting to swept into the sea of fire and kill Ye Han, however, they had only just approached the edge of the sea of fire when they could not withstand the terrifying temperature, and they all retreated back in fear, the sea of fire was so terrifying that they could not even enter. Boom! At that moment, Jin Cheng Bo's punch landed solidly on Ye Han's body, however, while trying to resist the invasion of the terrifying temperature of the sea of fire and attack Ye Han at the same time, the power of Jin Cheng Bo's punch had long since diminished, and it could not do any substantial damage to Ye Han. "Hmph, despicable nation that keeps its word, you deserve to die!" As these words fell from Ye Han's lips, the sea of fire swept up like a furious wave, burying Jin Cheng Bo's body in it.

The terrifying sea of fire was so hot that anything hard in this world would become like ice when it came to this sea of fire, and would melt when it met heat.

Therefore, the power of his punch that ended up landing on Ye Han's body was only a third of what it had been in its heyday, which was nothing to Ye Han.

Bear!

Fire rushed into the sky, and the sea of fire rolled up as if it was a monstrous wave of fury, completely burying Jin Cheng Bo's body in it, leaving not even the bones of his corpse behind, turning into ashes that floated in the wind.

"Dead!"

Looking at the sea of fire that instantly disappeared, but there was no trace of Jin Cheng Bo, the other four experts of the Jin Clan's faces changed wildly, they had originally wanted to join hands with Jin Cheng Bo to kill Ye Han when Leng Wufei and the others were not prepared, but they could not even enter that sea of fire, and now that Jin Cheng Bo had disappeared, they did not need to think about it to know that Jin Cheng Bo had been swallowed up by that terrifying sea of fire, without even leaving his corpse bones behind.

This result was expected by Leng Wufei and the others. With the Vermilion Bird Sacred Fire under Ye Han's control, although Jin Cheng Bo's combat power was a little stronger than Ye Han's, he was still unable to block Ye Han's Vermilion Bird Sacred Fire.

One should know that the Vermilion Bird Sacred Flame had trapped even Jing Yi, a terrifying woman, for a minute.

"What a strange power, it can actually boost my strength!"

Ye Han's eyes were slightly closed as he was feeling the changes within his body, when that punch from Jin Cheng Bo had attacked him just now, the golden power had entered Ye Han's body with it, trying to destroy his body, however, the power was assimilated by the aura and transformed into Ye Han's own power.

Ye Han knew that a power that could be assimilated by a high level energy like aura would definitely not be much lower in level than aura, or equal to aura, otherwise, there was no way that the true qi cultivated at the Ren Du realm would not be assimilated by aura.

“The Golden Family of the Stick Kingdom.” A wicked smile appeared at the corner of Ye Han’s mouth, if he had the chance to go to the Stick Country, he must go to the Jin Family to see how they cultivated this golden power, perhaps, this cultivation method would be of great benefit to him as well.

Thinking of this, the smile on Ye Han’s face grew even bigger, and then he looked at the four Jin Clan experts whose faces were clouded with indifference and indifference and said; “A bunch of despicable fellows, now, you can go and accompany him as well.”

With that said, Ye Han’s body swept out like a gust of wind, and then appeared above those four Jin Clan experts, the Vermilion Bird Sacred Fire was once again summoned by Ye Han, and a terrifying sea of fire waved down, immediately enveloping those four Jin Clan experts.

The final result of these four could be imagined, naturally they were devoured by the Vermilion Bird Sacred Fire, turning into white powder and scattering in the air. The five experts of the Jin Clan who came to China were all obliterated by Ye Han alone, and this vast foreign land became their graveyard.

“Foreign foreigners also dare to enter the land of China to kill people, they are really tired of living.” Leng Wufei sneered and walked towards Ye Han, saying; “Little Han, the people from the Jin Clan of the Stick Kingdom are settled, next, it’s Little Japan’s turn, right?”

“It’s not just Little Japan.” Ye Han had a cold look on his face as he said; “Murong Hetu should also be taken care of, apart from him, the southern underground world will be under our control, this is our first step.”

“Yes! This bastard has gotten away with it long enough.” Leng Wufei and the others had the same cold gleam in their eyes.

The battle outside of Qing Shui City, where Ye Han alone killed five experts from the Jin Clan, had caused a great shock in the southern underground world. Since the people from the Jin Clan of the Stick Kingdom dared to come to China to kill Ye Han, it was enough to show that the strength of the people who came was definitely very strong, otherwise they would not dare to enter China in a big way and still come to kill Ye Han.

However, in the end, they still died at the hands of Ye Han’s pair.

From this alone, it was clear that Ye Han was definitely powerful after coming back from the dead, and compared to the past, this change was not a star and a half, crossing into the ranks of top experts, only qualified to call the shots with people like Murong Hetu in the south.

“The south is filled with smoke, foreign foreigners are invading, right now all the experts of the Jin clan have been killed by him, only the Japanese Black Dragon Society is left, I’m afraid they can’t stop this Ye Han, finally, it’s Murong He Tu’s turn.” In the north, in the northwest, the Northwest Wolf’s face was as deep as water, his fingers kept tapping on the table.

“Wolf King, if this Ye Han cleans up Murong He Tu and unifies the southern underground world, I am afraid that he will use the central China region as a starting point and enter the north, and then our northwest region will be his first stop. Under the Northwestern Wolf were the four wolf king experts of Wind, Thunder, Water and Fire, and they were, at the moment, all concerned about the situation in the south, once Ye Han had unified the southern underground world, his first step to the north would be their northwestern region.

After a moment of silence, the Northwestern Wolf said; “Inform down, make full preparations, probably at the beginning of the year, this Ye Han will enter the Northwest from Central China, we, as the first stop, absolutely cannot let him enter the North, right now I am afraid that the people in the North are watching us, our Northwest region absolutely cannot let people look at us as a joke, let alone be eaten by Ye Han.”

Right now, not only are the northwest wolves watching the south, in the northern underground world, there is no one in the three kings and one wolf, the grassland king, the northeast king and the king of exterminating the sky who does not have their eyes set on the south, of course, Nalan exterminating the sky is in seclusion, and the person who is in control of the group in his place is Zhuge Bongyue.

“In the south, there is no one left to stop him, however, if he dares to go north, it depends on whether he has the life to live again, Ye Han is not scary, what is scary is the people around him.” In the Northeast, the Northeast King sat on top of the big tiger skin chair, his seemingly calm face rolled with murderous intent, he was not afraid of Ye Han, but the people gathered around Ye Han were too terrifying, one madman was enough to give the Northern Underworld a headache, not to mention there was a superior master Xiao Qingshan.

If these people did not intervene, could Ye Han eat the three kings and one wolf of the North with Ye Han? However, once Madman and Xiao Qingshan intervened, no one in the North would be able to stop them.

“Tiger King, even if the people converging around Ye Han Shen are terrifying, but if we, the Three Northern Kings and One Wolf, were to join forces and clash north and south, we wouldn’t necessarily be afraid of them.” Below the Northeast Tiger, Ghost Servant said calmly, he saw the situation in the North-South Underworld very clearly, the worst outcome would be the Three Kings and One Wolf of the North uniting.

Hearing this, the Northeast Tiger said indifferently; “The Northern Nalan Exterminating Heaven is equally wolfish and has always wanted to unify the Northern Underworld, this matter, for the time being, I am the only person in the North to fight against Nalan Exterminating Heaven, I cannot just let people look down on me, keep an eye on the South, Ye Han’s first step to the North is not our turn to worry about for the time being.”

“Bathing in fire and rebirth, it seems that you have really shed a lot, the southern underground world is about to be under your control, next step, is it our turn?” In Yanjing City, Zhuge Bongyu’s face was flushed with a burst of anticipation, she had fought Ye Han once in the South back then, but that time she did not have the upper hand.

And this time? Zhuge Bongrou and Ye Han belonged to the kind of rivalry that had their hearts in each other, and for the sake of that agreement, she could secretly help Ye Han through his difficulties, but they would still be rivals, unless, Ye Han defeated her again and made her willingly become a bed-warming maid for him.

These words, which Zhuge Bongyu had said to Ye Han at the beginning and which Ye Han had not objected to, had nothing to do with the agreement between them.

It was rare to meet opponents with comparable wisdom and strategy, and if they did not stage an amazing duel, would it not be a failure of their talents.

In ancient times, it was only after Liu Bei had visited his cottage three times that he obtained Zhuge Liang, the warlord who would set the world in motion, and now, between Ye Han and Zhuge Bongyou, it was similar. If Ye Han defeated Zhuge Bongyou once again in terms of wisdom and scheming, there would be an additional wise and demon-like wonder woman under his command.

In the northern underworld, gazes are moving towards the south. Although everyone can guess Ye Han's next step, what will this young man do? In what way? No one could yet guess Ye Han's mind, they would only know when he actually went through with it.

However, compared to the concern of the northern underground world, the ancient martial arts community has become very calm, even if Ye Han's movements in the south are frequent now, they have not paid much attention to it. They were already giving face to Xiao Qingshan and Madman by not continuing to look for trouble.

In the south, the city of Qing Shui in the southwest.

All the experts from the Stick Nation's Jin Clan who had come to China had been killed, Ye Han did not immediately go to South China, although the power of Little Japan in South China was not weak, however, sooner or later these people would become the same as the Stick Nation's Jin Clan, since he had come to Southwest China, Ye Han naturally had to make a trip to Tengchong.

Old Dirt had said that the White Tiger Star was still in the south, and for that, Ye Han could not think of any place other than that forest in Tengchong, which was the forest where Ye Han and Little Tiger had first met, and perhaps, that place was originally the place where Little Tiger had lived for thousands of years.

Like Ye Han, Little Tiger was a Spiritual Qi practitioner with a strong recovery ability, but in the last battle on Phoenix Mountain, Little Tiger was badly injured.

The Qiangui region and Tengchong were not far from each other, and this time when they went to Tengchong, it was only Ye Han and Zhao Hengtian, Leng Wufei and the others had already gone to the South China region to turn around with Huang Wutian and the others.

"Brother Zhao, after you go to Tengchong this time, you stay there for the time being, that group of people I want you to train them for a while, the Heavenly Dragon Guard suffered heavy losses in the battle on Phoenix Mountain, it would be best for this group of people to go to the northern battlefield next year, if we want to take the north, we have to increase our strength and take on the north, I don't want to rely on others again." On the way to Tengchong, Ye Han said to Zhao Hengtian while driving.

At these words, Zhao Hengtian was silent and said; "There is no one on the southern side that can threaten you anymore, taking the south is a matter of time, so I will train that group of people for a while longer, so that they can be useful when we go to the northern battlefield next year. However, now that our side has taken shape in terms of power, Little Han, I think we should establish a name of our own as well as a hierarchy, so that we can have a proper name in the south.”

Hearing this from Zhao Hengtian, Ye Han nodded, such as the Blood Hand Hall, the Heavenly Dignity Society, Murong He Tu and other forces back then, they all had their own titles and the people underneath them also set up a hierarchy, right now these scales had not been established on Ye Han’s side.

Ye Han said; “It is indeed necessary to do this, after we eliminate Murong He Tu, I will gather everyone together and hold a meeting, how exactly to set it up will be discussed together at that time.”

Zhao Hengtian said; “With their own name, the people below will have a stronger sense of belonging, and the Chen brothers as well as Leng Wufei they also need to have an identity, following us in such an unjustified manner is really a bit of a loss to them.”

The forest, still unchanged, had an ancient and mysterious power that enveloped the entire forest, and a terrifying aura was passed through it, and the air was filled with a dangerous smell.

When Ye Han and Zhao Hengtian appeared inside the forest, a fierce smell pervaded them in all directions, and the low roar of the beasts around them diminished as people with tattered clothes and fierce faces appeared around Ye Han and Zhao Hengtian.

It was a very evil and terrifying force, the long hours of grinding and killing had made these people forget that they were still a human being, the expressions on these people’s faces were stiff and unsmiling, but an equally bloodthirsty aura was blossoming out of them all.

More than fifty people, each and every one of them had reached the Peiyuan realm, and even more, there were already quite a few who had impacted into the late Peiyuan stage, the growth rate of this group of people had improved a lot compared to the first batch of people who trained here, elites from a military district, not ordinary retired soldiers could be compared to them.

“Young Ye, instructor!”

Looking at Ye Han and Zhao Hengtian who appeared here, the fifty or so people shouted in a low voice, their faces respectful and serious, thinking back when they were just elite soldiers from the various military regions, their dream was to improve themselves and be able to become like the soldier kings of the major military regions, but after training here, many of them here had basically reached that goal right now, and of course, continuing on, their growth would be even stronger in the future.

So, these soldiers have now changed the goal they had when they first came here. Now, they have only one goal, and that is to get stronger, to keep getting stronger, to reach the limit of their physical potential.

Of course, they would not forget that the power they had now was all given to them by these two men in front of them, so for Ye Han and Zhao Hengtian, they had nothing but admiration and respect in their hearts.

Ye Han looked at the group of blood-soaked, fierce men standing around him and said slowly; "It seems that after the inhuman training, you have changed a lot, at least you are no longer the weak ones you used to be, everyone, hang in there for a while longer, early next year will be the time for you to leave here and truly realise your values, at that time, many people will tremble because of you. In the future, you will be above the strong."

Fortune Chapter 597

"Many thanks to Young Ye for cultivating us, we will never fail Young Ye's expectations!"

Inside the forest, a low voice, as if it was an oath, and the faces of the fifty or so men flickered with a burst of fierce light.

"Very well, tell me, who are you now?" Ye Han's gaze swept over each of these people, this group of people, could not serve anyone other than him.

"We are the Heavenly Dragons, the sharp blades in Young Ye's hands, willing to exterminate all opponents for Young Ye!"

"Good, remember what you said, you are the Heavenly Dragons, destined to soar in the sky and override the supreme, however, you are not only sharp blades in my hands, but also my brothers and sisters of Ye Han, many of your previous group of brothers have already left us, I don't want to see any more brothers leave me too, so, no matter what hard times you encounter, hang in there, in the future, when I stand at the top, I hope that there will be no less than one of the brothers who accompanied me to fight together in the beginning."

After saying these words, Ye Han slowly walked towards the forest, his back looked a bit lost and sad, for those who sincerely stood on the same line with him, who lived and died with him, Ye Han really didn't see them as subordinates, but as brothers who could share the hardship and the wealth.

In the future, when he is still alive, this group of people who once lived and died together will hopefully also be there, instead of standing alone at the top by himself, that kind of rivers and mountains is lonely, Ye Han another can not want.

Once again, Ye Han came to the small valley outside the cave, and after paying his respects to the tombstone of the real Tong Wei Manifestation, he got up and walked towards the inside of the cave, although it was dark inside the cave, but this could not block Ye Han's vision.

Looking at the empty spirit pool, Ye Han looked disappointed, he originally thought that Little Tiger would be here, but after coming here, he did not find Little Tiger's shadow.

However, just as Ye Han looked a little disappointed, a small white head poked out from inside the spirit pool, its watery green eyes staring at Ye Han, and then, as Ye Han was delighted, the little thing leapt out of the spirit pool in a flash and jumped into Ye Han's arms, and even licked Ye Han's chin with its tongue.

Hugging the little tiger, Ye Han stroked its head and said; "I knew you little thing must be here, but it's good to see that you're alright, well, it seems that you're quite a bit stronger, so it seems that I guessed correctly that this is your birthplace."

The little tiger arched in Ye Han's arms, looking very dependent, this time it had indeed been hiding in here to carefully recuperate and try to bring itself back to its peak state, just now it had emerged from inside the spirit pond after it had smelled Ye Han's scent.

Ye Han said; "Little fellow, you have only managed to get out of danger, from now on you will stay here for the time being, right now the people outside still have a thief's heart for you, if you go out you will also cause a bloodbath, that would be too dangerous for you and me, wait until I have enough strength to protect you in the future, then I will come and take you out."

Hearing Ye Han's words, the little tiger raised its head in Ye Han's arms, and those green eyes just stared at Ye Han, a trace of human touch and stubbornness flowing from them.

Seeing this, Ye Han glared at it and said; "If you want to follow me again in the future, you have to listen to me, do you understand?"

Upon hearing this, the little tiger lowered its head, but then it jumped out from Ye Han's arms and dived head first into the spirit pool, after a few seconds it reappeared from inside the spirit pool, and even gestured at Ye Han, asking him to enter the spirit pool as well.

"I go down too?" Ye Han looked at the spirit pool under his feet and looked at the little tiger in confusion.

The little tiger nodded before diving back down into the spirit pool.

Seeing this, Ye Han's heart stirred and after exhaling deeply, he likewise entered inside the spirit pond. The next moment, when Ye Han entered the spirit pond he realised that it was surprisingly deep and there was still hot air bubbling out from underneath.

Ye Han used his Yin Yang Dharma Eye to observe the position of the little tiger and immediately swam towards it. Seeing Ye Han coming, the little tiger led the way ahead of Ye Han and swam towards the deepest part of the spirit pond.

If Ye Han did not have the Yin Yang Dharma Eye, he would not have been able to see everything around him clearly. The Spiritual Qi at the bottom of the pond was very strong, and even if Ye Han did not deliberately cultivate at the bottom of the pond, he felt that the Spiritual Qi was entering his Dantian on its own.

"There is something strange about this spiritual pond!"

After this thought flashed through Ye Han's mind, he immediately accelerated his speed and followed behind the little tiger. In the past, when he came here, Ye Han had never entered the spirit pool except for cultivating at the edge of it, and he had no idea that it was so deep.

After swimming behind the little tiger for almost a minute, Ye Han felt that he had reached the bottom of the pond, and then, the little tiger immediately went in towards a place, and Ye Han also followed behind him.

When Ye Han stood up and looked around, he became amazed, because this was also a cave, and the scope of this cave was several times larger than the one above, and the spiritual qi was likewise more abundant than the one above, just by taking a breath of air in here, ordinary people would prolong their lives.

“I didn’t expect there to be another cave underneath this cave, if it wasn’t for Little Tiger leading the way, I’m afraid I would never have discovered it.” Ye Han looked up, the place he had entered was a layer of white aura, isolating the spring water from the Spirit Pond from flowing into this below, the person who could do this was definitely a peak powerhouse who was an unknown number of times more powerful than him.

At this time, the little tiger bit Ye Han’s trouser leg, signalling for Ye Han to follow it.

“Alright, lead the way.”

The little tiger shook its hips and walked towards a corner of the cave. After Ye Han followed it to this place, he immediately found that there was a thick stone platform a meter wide in this corner, and on top of this stone platform, there was an ancient wooden box with some flower patterns carved on it, its whole body was a meter long, and it was bleeding red in colour, with a thick layer of ash on it. After so many years, it had not seen any decay.

Seeing this, Ye Han was a little curious, so he removed the grey layer from the wooden box and opened it, and what he saw was a piece of thin paper, a ring and a snow-white bead.

Fortune Chapter 598

Seeing these three strange things, Ye Han first took out the piece of thin paper from inside the wooden box, this piece of thin paper was very thin and not an ordinary paper, otherwise with this wooden box which had little sealing, it would not have been possible to keep this thin paper until now.

“I am Xu Fu, the Qin Master of State. If you enter this cave, you and I are destined to meet. I was ordered by the Qin Emperor to search for the medicine of immortality.

“However, I passed through this place and found this spiritual mine, so I lived here in seclusion. 500 years passed in the blink of an eye, but when I was about to unite with the heavenly beast, I was attacked by a powerful foreign beast, and I was unable to defeat the foreign beast. The spirit in heaven curses you with eternal death and a good death

Seeing this, Ye Han’s eyes had a coldness flashing through; “Good one Xu Fu, after getting your things and not avenging you, you have to suffer your curse, no wonder you would lie to save your life and leave Qin Shi Huang, a villain.”

After saying this, Ye Han continued to look towards the bottom of the thin paper, which continued to talk about the cultivation method of the imperial spirit art as well as the use of the Sumerian Realm and that one inner elixir that Xu Fu himself had left behind.

“Inner elixir, could it be that it was condensed from the dantian of a cultivator?” Ye Han looked at that one bead that was snow white all over, the inner elixir of this inner elixir emitted a thick spiritual qi that was exceptionally powerful, from this it could be seen that Xu Fu’s cultivation back then must have been very terrifying, otherwise the inner elixir he left behind would not have been so powerful.

“Great, with this inner pellet left behind by Xu Fu, my strength will definitely grow faster, it’s like heaven is helping me!” Ye Han let out a wild laugh as he held that one inner elixir; “Xu Fu, it seems I still have to thank you properly, with your inner elixir, I have another bargaining chip to attack the Northern Underworld.”

The little tiger was also happy for Ye Han, jumping up and down happily beside him.

“Little fellow, tell me, was the foreign beast that lost both sides with Xu Fu you?” Ye Han looked down at the little tiger that was jumping around beside him with a glance, and directly told Ye Han that the fey beast that had lost the battle with Xu Fu in the first place was the little tiger.

Hearing Ye Han’s words, the little tiger blinked its eyes very humanely.

“It really is this guy!” As for these treasures he had left behind, Ye Han was certainly going to laugh at them all.

The ring was called the Sumerian Realm. According to Xu Fu, although the Sumerian Realm looked extremely small, it had space inside and was very easy to carry.

To use it, he needed to feed it with his blood. Following Xu Fu’s instructions, Ye Han bit his finger and sprinkled some blood on it. Gradually, Ye Han felt a certain connection between him and the Sumerian Realm, and it was as if a void space had appeared in his mind, a small space, only one square in size.

Sensing this, Ye Han’s mind moved and the Dragon Scale Dagger he carried with him appeared inside the Sumerian Realm.

“It really is a good thing!”

Ye Han’s face was overjoyed, such a miraculous thing was actually possessed in this world, something that simply surpassed modern technology and could not be explained by science at all, it was already out of the realm of what the martial dao could reach.

“Could it be that this thing is related to something that the various forces are tracking down?” After the elation, Ye Han fell silent, when the underground world’s great powers, ancient martial arts sects, even foreign powers, they all seemed to be tracing the same clue, and according to the Shaolin Temple’s monk, if this clue was traced, the entire ancient martial arts world would enter an unprecedented heyday, a new era.

And right now, this Sumerian Realm, even if it is not something that the various forces are pursuing, is only related to the potential they are pursuing.

This Sumerian Realm was so magical that it could not be explained by common sense as well.

After thinking of this possibility, Ye Han continued to look at the thin paper, the last paragraph on this thin paper recorded the cultivation method of the Royal Spirit Technique, the Royal Spirit Technique, mainly talking about a method of controlling weapons, using spiritual energy to control weapons, after great success, can kill the enemy within a hundred meters, this method of killing the enemy, similar to a kind of flying sword technique, but although Xu Fu was a genius, and also created his own Royal Spirit Technique, but when he came out of seclusion, very He was unlucky enough to meet a little tiger, and the battle between one man and one beast cost Xu Fu half his life, so much so that he didn't even have time to practise his own Spiritual Art.

"Genius, what a pity! You created it all to end up being cheap for me." The corner of Ye Han's mouth grinned, and the moment he did so, he sat down in front of the stone platform and swallowed the inner elixir left behind by Xu Fu, which contained a majestic spirit energy, the same as what Ye Han was cultivating.

The moment the inner elixir entered his body, Ye Han had only just absorbed the power inside the inner elixir, and after that, Ye Han felt as if the dragon was sucking in water situation, a constant stream of spiritual qi inside the inner elixir frantically gushed into his dantian, even if Ye Han wanted to take his time, he couldn't do it, at this moment, it was as if it wasn't Ye Han absorbing the power inside the inner elixir, but the power inside the inner elixir was fusing the power inside Ye Han's dantian.

This situation only lasted for half an hour, and a strong force was immediately released from above Ye Han's body.

"A breakthrough!"

Inside his dantian, the power that belonged to the early stage of the middle Ren Du strengthened step by step, reaching the middle stage of the middle Ren Du in just half an hour, this speed, before this Ye Han did not even dare to think about it, it was too fast, at this rate, I am afraid that in just half a day, Ye Han could break through to the Great Ren Du realm.

Ye Han's heart was ecstatic, Xu Fu had simply left him a huge treasure, this kind of breakthrough, Ye Han did not try to suppress it for the time being, to be able to break through to the Grand Rendu realm, of course he would not refuse, however, everything has a degree, beyond this degree, it would trigger unimaginable things.

Just like that, Ye Han kept immersing himself inside the pleasure of his enhanced power, the power of the inner dan fusion was already fast, however, Ye Han's absorption speed also became frantic from slow, the two worked in tandem with each other, the situation was like a poor man suddenly getting a huge fortune, turning from a frugal person into an extravagant landlord.

For five hours, just five hours, under the fusion of the power inside the inner dan, Ye Han's realm soared step by step, from the beginning of the breakthrough to the middle stage of the middle Ren Du, then the late stage of the middle Ren Du, the peak of the late stage, and now, Ye Han had opened up the path to the Grand Ren Du, becoming a solid Grand Ren Du powerhouse.

However, all the way to this breakthrough, Ye Han's face was as red as blood, his eyes were sometimes fierce and sometimes calm, at this moment, it was as if Ye Han had become two people.

Fortune Chapter 599

With the help of Xu Fu's Inner Pill, Ye Han's realm had broken through from the early stage of the Middle Ren Du to the early stage of the Great Ren Du realm in succession, an entire major realm of advancement.

The strength of a martial artist is accumulated step by step, even if one gets a chance to break through, it is not uncontrolled like Ye Han, there must be a degree in everything, once one loses control and exceeds this degree, unbearable consequences will brew.

And now, when Ye Han was gaining strength, he was also falling into a state of enchantment, his mind, already swallowed up by the benefits brought by Xu Fu's Inner Elixir, making him a slave to Xu Fu's Inner Elixir.

His strength had increased wildly, but if his own perception and realm could not keep up, there was only one outcome, either he would die of a violent death, or he would become a demon who had lost his mind and only knew how to kill.

Now, Ye Han was unknowingly falling into this state, and this was the first time Ye Han had encountered such a situation. The temptation brought by Xu Fu's inner pellet was too powerful to be resisted by his strong mind.

The terrifying aura in Ye Han's body was growing, but if one felt it carefully, one would find that an evil power was slowly growing within this aura. Once this evil power became powerful and enslaved Ye Han's mind, then Ye Han would become a demon that had gone mad.

Roar, roar, roar!

However, just as Ye Han fell into this situation, a rolling sound wave came out of the little tiger's mouth, a powerful and intimidating sound wave that was extremely penetrating and reverberated all around, and some tiny stones on the stone walls of the cave were all shaken by this terrifying sound wave.

This sound wave also passed from Ye Han's ears into his mind, echoing in his mind as if a thunderstorm had fallen from the heavens, shaking Ye Han's mind, and a mouthful of fresh blood immediately shot out of his mouth.

The next moment, a cool sensation rose from Ye Han's dantian. Feeling this situation, Ye Han was horrified and his face changed wildly, hastily suppressing the power of Xu Fu's inner pellet from entering his dantian, if this power continued to enter his dantian, Ye Han knew that the result that awaited him would be terrifying.

"Damn it, so close to becoming a demon!"

Ye Han's face was ugly as he guarded his mind and formed a powerful defence within his body to suppress Xu Fu's Inner Elixir to death, under his desperate suppression, Xu Fu's Inner Elixir was gradually suppressed.

Although Xu Fu was a natural talent, he was an evil person in mind and body, and the inner elixir he had left behind naturally carried an evil nature with it.

It was only after an hour that Ye Han completely suppressed the remaining power inside Xu Fu's inner elixir in his body, not allowing it to continue to run amok, and only when Ye Han needed it would this power be released again.

After devouring Xu Fu's Inner Elixir and breaking through to the early stage of the Great Ren Yu realm, Ye Han had only absorbed one third of the power inside Xu Fu's Inner Elixir, and the remaining two thirds of the power was all suppressed by Ye Han.

After suppressing Xu Fu's inner elixir, Ye Han let out a deep breath and slowly opened his eyes, and only then did his face gradually return to normal, his eyes no longer showing the joy after the breakthrough, but rather a sense of gratitude after the disaster. a demon who had lost his mind.

"That was close!"

Ye Han stroked the little tiger lying beside him and said; "Little fellow, thanks."

Roar!

The little tiger roared and clung to Ye Han's thigh.

Afterwards, Ye Han once again closed his eyes and toned up, consolidating his current realm, using the Xu Fu Inner Pill to soar all the way up to the early stage of Great Ren Yu, which was already Ye Han's limit, his mind was not enough, his perception was not enough, forcing to increase would be counterproductive.

After all this, Ye Han set his eyes on the Royal Spirit Technique, which was a terrifying set of attacks. When it was fully accomplished, within a hundred meters, even without approaching the opponent's body, with a single thought, the weapon in his hand would automatically come out and kill, as if it had a spirit.

It is not difficult to start with the Royal Spirit Technique, it is to communicate with the weapon you are using with your mind and get familiar with your weapon. Once you are familiar with the weapon, a subtle connection will be established between the master and the weapon in this process, this connection is similar to the master-servant relationship, the master can order the weapon to kill for him.

Inside this cave, the object of Ye Han's experiment was naturally the Dragon Scale Dagger. His mind slowly wrapped itself around the Dragon Scale Dagger, feeling the blood emanating from the blade, feeling the joy, anger and sorrow of the blade, and slowly, under this feeling, Ye Han felt as if he himself had become the Dragon Scale Dagger, a blade with a mind and a sense of killing.

However, this was not enough, this connection needed to be deepened, it was just like making friends, once or twice would not gain the trust of the other party, the only way was to keep interacting over a long period of time, exchanging hearts with hearts, so that a relationship of mutual trust would exist between the two parties.

In this way, Ye Han spent a whole day and night inside the cave, his mind and soul were in constant contact with the Dragon Scale Dagger every second, and under his unremitting efforts, the Dragon Scale Dagger placed in front of Ye Han slowly moved on the ground, the beating gradually turned from slight to violent, and finally slowly rose into the air and floated in front of Ye Han.

This scene was very magical and supernatural, just like some kind of supernatural function that controlled objects.

As Ye Han sensed this situation, he opened his eyes once again and with a thought; "Go!"

The next moment, under Ye Han's control, the Dragon Scale Dagger floating in front of him shot out like a sharp sword and ruthlessly plunged into the cave wall that was about ten metres away in front of Ye Han.

"It's done!"

A smile hung on the corner of Ye Han's mouth, and the next moment, his thoughts moved again, and the Dragon Scale Dagger that had ruthlessly plunged into the cave wall automatically flew back and landed in Ye Han's hand.

Fortune Chapter 600

On the passage into the cave, Ye Han slowly walked out from inside, as for the little tiger, it was ruthlessly abandoned inside by Ye Han, right now at this time, the little tiger was not suitable to accompany him out.

Although Ye Han's strength had skyrocketed to a terrifyingly early stage of the Great Renmin realm, there were still many people outside who were even more powerful than Ye Han. If Little Tiger were to show himself again, the forces that had not succeeded last time would inevitably come back again. At that time, a bloodbath would definitely start again.

However, Ye Han had come to the right place this time to look for the little tiger in the forest of Tengchong. Underneath the spiritual pond, there was still this huge treasure hidden, whether it was the Royal Spirit Technique, the Sumerian Realm or Xu Fu's inner pellet, once these three items were revealed in the jianghu, they would definitely lead to a bloody rush.

Opportunity and danger go hand in hand, and Ye Han was given the opportunity and relieved of the danger.

When the Tong Wei Manifestation Realm was here in seclusion and cultivation, he was only afraid that he had not even discovered the secrets that existed underneath that Spirit Pond, otherwise, Xu Fu's Inner Pill and the Sumerian Realm as well as the Royal Spirit Art would have been left without Ye Han.

"I wonder if wearing this will be misunderstood by Yun'er and the others?" Looking at the Sumeru Realm that was worn on top of his index finger, the corners of Ye Han's mouth grinned before he quickly ran towards the inside of the forest, that kind of speed, so fast that people could not even see Ye Han's shadow.

However, as his strength had increased so much this time, Ye Han did not dare to be too flamboyant, if his opponents knew about his current strength, they would probably become even more restless and take some extreme measures to wipe him out.

At this time, Zhao Hengtian was supervising the training of the fifty-odd people, occasionally pointing out at the side, but at this time, our Great Instructor Zhao did not notice in the slightest that there was an additional person behind him.

However, half a minute later, Zhao Hengtian sensed something strange, he turned around and looked at Ye Han, who was standing behind him and looking at him with a smile, and immediately asked with great surprise; "Little Han, have you made another breakthrough?"

Ye Han laughed; "Brother Zhao, it seems that your sixth sense of crisis is still not very strong, if I were your enemy, I'm afraid you would have died four or five times by now."

Zhao Hengtian let out a bitter laugh and said; "I know even if you don't say it, you guy must have made another breakthrough, and a little bit more, otherwise I couldn't have detected you when you appeared, forget it, compared to you pervert, I admit that I am inferior, but, you kid tell me honestly, what level have you broken through to now? I can't even feel which realm you belong to."

Upon hearing this, Ye Han said; "I had some chance inside the cave and broke through to a new level, as for which level it is, I'd rather not say."

"You guy is still hiding and choking and not saying anything, you are afraid of hitting me by saying it, right?" Zhao Hengtian shook his head speechlessly and said; "The faster you break through, the greater the benefit to our side, how about it? Have you found that little guy yet?"

Ye Han nodded and said; "It's inside the cave, but now is not the time to take the little tiger out, it's safest to leave it here, moreover, it can only improve its strength faster here, Brother Zhao, I'll trouble you with this side, I should also go over to South China now to meet that group of Japanese."

"Good, go ahead, I'm waiting here for the good news that you've taken down the southern underground world."

Looking at Ye Han's departing back, Zhao Hengtian rubbed his nose and said to himself; "This kid is simply too perverted, what realm is he at right now, I can't even feel it at all, could it be that he has already surpassed the Middle Renminbi?"

After leaving the forest, Ye Han drove his car alone and headed straight to South China, right now Leng Wufei and the others as well as Ye Han's father-in-law Huang Wutian were over in South China keeping an eye on the Japanese, Ye Han had received information that the Japanese had come to China with a force that was not weak, three Heavenly Shinobi and twelve Upper Shinobi, this force was much stronger than the force that Yamamoto Takeo had brought with him when he was in the Golden Triangle.

East Canton Province, Zhujiang City.

Ye Han drove his car inside a villa, and Leng Wufei and Huang Wutian, who had already gotten the news, walked out.

"Oh, Little Han, you came at the right time, a few of us were discussing about stirring up the Japanese, now that you are here, let you do this matter." Looking at Ye Han who was walking towards them, Leng Wufei said with a smile.

"Father-in-law, sir, what is it that makes you guys so happy?" Ye Han walked over and asked with a smile.

"Let's go, let's talk inside."

The three of them walked inside the villa, the Chen brothers, Huang Wufei, Sun Buwei, Zhou Lie, Silly Ben and Lin Qi, the backbone of the force, were all there.

“Xiao Han, it’s like this, today the Japanese have asked a number of leading figures in South China to prepare for a party, we are discussing whether we should go and stir up trouble, the Japanese are thinking, it’s obvious to everyone.” Huang Wutian said; “Since the destruction of the Tianzun Society, several leaders who used to be under the hand of Huo Tianzun have dominated their own side, although they have not declared their submission to us, but they also dare not oppose us, but since the Japanese came, some of them have become foolish, it seems that they are ready to become traitors and traitors. ”

At these words, Ye Han laughed; “Since there are people who want to be traitors and traitors, I, a member of the traitorous team, naturally have to go and take a look, Father-in-law, where is the place where they are meeting?”

Huang Wutian said; “At the Sea Island Hotel in Zhujiang City, counting the time, they should be starting now too.”

Hearing Huang Wutian’s words, Ye Han stood up and smiled; “In that case, what are we waiting for, maybe someone will even treat us to lunch if we go there earlier.”

The Sea Island Hotel was a five-star hotel in Zhujiang City, in the heart of the city, usually some of the rich and famous people went in and out of this place, but today it had been booked and did not receive other guests.

When Ye Han and the others arrived here, at the entrance of the Sea Island Hotel, the welcome guests there had turned into two Japanese samurai wearing kimonos to prevent others from entering inside the Sea Island Hotel.

“Oh, in our country’s territory, they still dare to strut around like this, it seems that if they are not allowed to pay a price, they really think that our great country of China is still a place where they can spread their wildness at will.”

Looking at the two Japanese samurai wearing kimonos at the entrance of the hotel, Ye coldly laughed and walked straight over, with Leng Wufei and the others and Huang Wutian following behind them.

“Sir, I’m sorry, this place has already been chartered by us, you guys please come back tomorrow.” A little Japanese looked at Ye Han who was walking and said politely, however, Ye Han just couldn’t stand to see this kind of nation that was courteous on the surface but evil on the inside.

“Oh, our country’s five-star hotel has you Japanese as doormen, it seems that you have the potential to be watchdogs.” Ye Han smiled lightly at the two Japanese.

“Baka!” Hearing Ye Han’s words, the two Japanese were furious and were ready to teach Ye Han a lesson, but they had already been kicked in by one of Ye Han before they could strike.
