Chapter 541: A Trap for the Beast King

The ape king and fox king were just preparing to set off for the front line. Tonight was the time for the general attack.

“What is it?” asked the ape king. Why are you so flustered?”

The person immediately reported the information that he had just received.

“My lords, three days ago, we ordered everyone in Yan City to cooperate with us. We just received a reply that the mission cannot be carried out!”

The ape king was not very clear about the matter of Yan City’s spies, so he turned his head to look at the fox king.

The Fox King was also puzzled. Why was the mission suddenly unable to proceed?

“Hurry up and tell me what happened.”

The Fox King was obviously a little anxious. She had always been in charge of spying, and it was also one of her most useful weapons.

The person said,” According to the plan, all the spy operations will be carried out tonight. Then, I will be given a prepared message in the morning. However, I have waited for a long time without any news. I asked many of my subordinates, but most of them did not respond. Finally, one person gave me a clear message.”

“Speak!” The Fox King asked anxiously. What is it?”

“There are only a few words in the content. The spy mission has failed!”

The Fox King and Ape King looked at each other. There was a big problem. The content of the message was not that the mission had failed, but that the spy mission had failed.

The entire spy mission failed? This was simply inconceivable!

The spies were planted in Yan City a hundred years ago. After a hundred years of development, they had been deeply rooted. How could they suddenly fail? The ape king also began to be cautious and asked, “Tell me exactly what happened.”

The person who came was in charge of the entire spy army, so he couldn’t say anything.

My two kings, I’m not sure what the situation is like over there. It’s hard to estimate the failure rate of the spy mission, but I’m confident that no matter what method the humans use, it’s impossible to eradicate our people. My two kings, please wait a moment. The situation over there might not be clear yet.

There will be news when it’s clear.”

The ape king wanted to flare up but was stopped by the fox king.

“Good! You may leave!”

The person went down to continue observing the situation.

“This person is incompetent,” the ape king said. “He should be punished. Why did you stop me just now?” Are you trying to protect your own people?”

“This matter has nothing to do with him!” The Fox King explained. Think about it, no matter how bad he is, can he cause the entire spy system to collapse? There must be some other reason. It’s still useful to keep him alive. We need to know the specific situation before we deal with it.”

“Then what should we do now? Aren’t we going to launch the final attack today?”

The Fox King shook his head and said, “Now is definitely not a good time. Today was originally the time we planned to attack. What a coincidence that something went wrong at this time. I think the humans have spies here. They know when we will attack. If we attack now, the humans will definitely be well prepared. We don’t have the advantage.”

The ape king stood up and smashed the entire headboard with a punch. He said, “There are spies? Humans are really hard to deal with. We chased MO Xiu away and killed MO Li. It’s simply a haunting ghost.”

The Fox King saw that the Ape King was angry and immediately stood up to comfort him, “We’re not in a hurry. No matter how the humans do it, our sect has the absolute advantage in terms of strength.”

That night, the ape king’s mood, which had just calmed down, was ignited.

The situation in Yan City was clear now. The two Beast Kings had received accurate information and understood the situation in Yan City. They finally knew why the spy mission had failed.

This time, the Fox King did not stop him. In a fit of anger, the Ape King killed the person who reported the news.

Yan City was in chaos, and MO Xiu had set up a shocking plan to slaughter almost all the wild beasts in Yan City. The remaining forces were not enough to carry out the mission, so they could only endure it for the time being. At this moment, they were trying to smear MO Xiu.

This was all the news from Yan City. They didn’t say much because they didn’t know what method Moxiu used to find the beast spy, so they didn’t dare to contact him.

This time, it was not only the ape king who was furious. The fox king's eyes were cold and silent for a long time. It was obvious that he was really angry.

The ape king said, "This MO Xiu, I really didn't expect that an unknown junior would be able to grow to the extent of influencing our plans in just two years. This child must die!"

"We should have killed him when he was in the Western Regions," the Fox King chimed in. "He's from the Supreme Bloodline. We can't underestimate him."

The ape king's anger flared up. "This is the hundred-year-old scheme you mentioned. It was broken in a day!"

Upon hearing the ape king's mockery, the Fox King was also unwilling. He said, "You know the entire plan. There are no problems. Moxiu must have used some special method."

"There's no way to guard against it? Hahaha! Ridiculous!"

'You!'

The Fox King was furious. The purple gas around him pressed down on the Ape King.

The Ape King shouted, "Less and more!" You know very well that I can kill you before you can control me!"

The atmosphere was tense for a few minutes.

In the end, the Fox King gave in. He retracted his purple qi and said, "Now is not the time to talk about this. We should think about what to do next."

The Ape King did not really want to fight the Fox King. The only humans he feared were Wu Shang and Elder Tang.

Now that Old Tang was dead, it was a question whether Wu Shang was still alive. Therefore, he wanted to take down the humans as soon as possible to avoid any future troubles.

However, these consecutive incidents made him furious.

Moxiu, in particular, had already made the two Beast Kings feel uneasy.

Although Moxiu was only a junior, from the perspective of the two Beast Kings, Moxiu had already affected the entire situation of the war.

Even though MO Xiu had still made a move.

First, he went to the north to cause a ruckus. Regardless of whether the Turtle King's death had anything to do with Moxiu, the conflict between the Turtle clan and the bear clan had been orchestrated by Moxiu.

Without the help of the Northern Beast Region, the Western Region could only rely on themselves. There was no point in dragging it out, so they were forced to launch a general attack.

However, at this moment, Moxiu returned to the central region and pulled out all the wild beasts in Yan City.

The two seemingly unrelated matters were actually secretly linked. It was like setting a trap for Beast Western Region, waiting for Western Region to jump in.

But now, the Western Regions were neither close nor far. Their best weapons and opportunities were gone.

This was what Moxiu had been doing recently. n.ovel.com

The Fox King said, "This kid MO Xiu is too terrifying. Let's not talk about his strength. Just the judgment and decisiveness he has shown is terrifying. I don't think even Supreme would do such a thing. He killed so many people and caused the public to be angry." novel.com

"That's right. If he doesn't die, our actions will be restricted. He seems to be able to see through our thoughts."

The two kings were discussing when someone came in from outside and said, "This MO Xiu...is he really that powerful?"

Chapter 542: The King of Ten Thousand Beasts

"Is this MO Xiu really that powerful?"

The Fox King saw that the person seemed to have forgotten his previous worries and smiled. "Long Er, why are you here?"

This man called Long 'er was the savage man that Moxiu had seen with his clone. He was also the child of two Beast Kings.

There was only one word in his name, Dragon.

There was no need to explain the meaning behind it. Not only did dragons have a special meaning in human society, but to wild beasts, dragons were the strongest beasts.

Therefore, the Fox King and Ape King named him Dragon.

The Dragon smiled slightly, carrying a hint of evil.

The dragon was about the same size as the ape king. It was very strong, but it had inherited its appearance from the fox king, which was feminine.

Coupled with the unique evil aura, it gave people a very strange feeling.

"I heard you guys arguing outside just now. After I came in, I heard you guys talking about MO Xiu. Is this MO Xiu very powerful? Can you be my opponents?"

From his words and expression, it could be seen that the dragon had no respect for his biological parents.

The Fox King looked doting and did not care about the dragon's disrespect. He also seemed to have forgotten about the complete failure of the spies.

"Long 'er, you're the strongest creature in the world. MO Xiu isn't even worth mentioning in front of you."

The ape, who had been silent all this while, said, "Don't cause trouble for a child. You haven't come into contact with Moxiu yet. Why don't you go to the battlefield to gain some experience first?"

Dragon's face turned cold and he said arrogantly, "I don't need to gain experience. Are you afraid of this MO Xiu?"

"You!"

The Dragon's words revealed an insufferably arrogant tone, as if saying, "I'm the biggest in this world. Even if you serve the Ape King, you won't go against his wishes."

The ape king was already in a fit of anger. He rebuked angrily, "Little brat! I'm your father. If you dare to talk to me like this, I'll slap you!"

The Dragon was not willing to be outdone. "Then you can try. Let's see who gets slapped."'

How could the ape king endure it any longer? He took a step forward and was about to make a move on the dragon.

The Fox King stood in the middle and said to the Ape King, "Alright, I know you're angry. Don't vent your anger on Long 'er. I'll accompany you properly later, okay?"

The ape king turned his back to the two of them.

The Fox King then said to the Dragon, "Little Dragon, I'll make the decision on this matter. I'll leave MO Xiu for you to kill!"

Dragon One curled his lips and raised his voice as if he was provoking the ape king. He said, "That's more like it!"

He could only turn around and leave.

After the dragon left, the ape king turned to the fox king and said, "It's all because of you that he's so arrogant. Sooner or later, he'll suffer a huge loss!"

How was he going to lead the beasts in the future?"

The Fox King said proudly, "The dragon is the strongest. It will be the king of all beasts in the future. It should have such an imposing manner."

"In this state, he will die prematurely before he becomes a king!"

This sentence angered the Fox King, and the Fox King's might pressed down on the Ape King.

"If you say one more word, I'll fight you to the death!"

The ape king's voice was slightly softer as he said, "The two of you are unreasonable. Hurry up and think of a countermeasure. How are we going to deal with Moxiu? When are we going to launch a full-scale attack on the humans?"

In a tavern at the border of Yan City.

Moxiu was looking at his phone. The latest news was that the beasts in the Western Regions were weakening. By tonight, they had already withdrawn their troops and stationed at the border.

This was the first time the Western Regions had withdrawn their troops since they had sent out their troops.

This news would be sent back to Yan City and reach the ears of every citizen.

As long as the news came back, it would greatly alleviate the pressure on Moxiu and the strongest corporation.

The people's view was very simple. They only looked at the facts.

No matter what Moxiu had done, it was a fact that he had left the central region to go to the northern region. It was also a fact that he had returned to Yan City and killed so many people.

Now, a reversed reality would come back. The Western Regions had withdrawn their troops.

The beasts of the Western Regions, which had always been very powerful and seemed to be on the verge of a general attack, had withdrawn their troops at this special time.

Coincidentally, Moxiu had withdrawn his troops the day after he killed

Carnage. Did that mean that what Moxiu had done was right? Were the people he killed really beasts and affected their plans?

Facts speak louder than words. From the moment MO Xiu broke free from his shackles, all the glory he had gained would fade. From now on, MO Xiu's reputation would have to be changed one by one, and he would have to accumulate battle merits one by one.

The direction of the wind was about to change again!

In reality, Moxiu had calculated the time accurately.

From the moment Moxiu returned to the central continent, he had been looking at his phone. In reality, he was contacting someone.

Contact the most reliable sources.

Hao Ren's know-it-all and the intelligence department controlled by Shadow King Rain.

Even this department had spies in Beast Western Region, so it was easy to find out some things.

However, things like the Fox King's direct management of beast spies were still more difficult to find out.

What surprised Moxiu was that under Hao Ren's leadership and the continuous financial support of the strongest corporation, Know-it-all had now surpassed Shadow in both scale and efficiency.

After Wang Yu knew about it, she also felt inferior and said that Hao Ren and Lin Feng were experts in this field, and he was only suitable for research.

Hao Ren was the one who found out that the Beast spies would take action in three days, and the source of the news was not from the Western Beast Region.

Because the Fox King had given the order directly to the Western Beast Region, and then someone had contacted the spies in Yan City. Nothing had been revealed in the process, so it was difficult to investigate anything.

However, things were different in Yan City. Hao Ren didn't know how many wild beasts there were in Yan City, and he didn't know who the wild beasts were, but he knew that there were a lot of them.

Therefore, Hao Ren had sent people to infiltrate the beast spies in Yan City.

The number of spies was usually relatively small because it was difficult to manage and easy to be exposed.

After all, Yan City was Hao Ren's base camp. Hao Ren was most familiar with this place, so it was easy for him to find some capable people and get in touch with them.

That was how Hao Ren got the news of the Beast Spies 'collective operation three days later.

After telling Moxiu, Moxiu was a little surprised at first. He thought that the two Beast Kings would take action after the news of the Northern Region and Eastern Region reached the Western Region, but he didn't expect them to act so quickly.

Three days was a little tight, but it was enough. MO Xiu took his time to make a trip to the Strongest Group and assign the tasks to them.

After returning, he immediately began to screen them. He wanted to make himself look relaxed so that the wild beasts would let down their guard and not alert them.

After that, Moxiu even contacted Xi Bei and told him to prepare for battle.

Moxiu's move was equivalent to pulling out the teeth of a wild beast just as it was about to bite someone. Who knew if the wild beast would fly into a rage out of humiliation?

When Xi Bei received the call, Yan Cheng hadn't made a move yet.

"MO Xiu, what are you doing? Are you trying to provoke the beast?"

Moxiu's answer was very straightforward." No, I'm going to kill some people today. The wild beasts might have two reactions.. One is to attack, and the other is to retreat temporarily!"

Chapter 543: Temporary Clear Sky

Xi Bei was skeptical at first.

He recognized Moxiu's ability, but Moxiu had just returned. How could he influence the decision of the Beast Kings of the Western Regions?

After hanging up the phone, he thought about it and felt that Moxiu should have more information and analyzed information that he didn't know.

This idea had existed for less than a day when the intelligence came that night.

Moxiu planned and organized a joint operation with the royal family, the Yan City Army, and the Law Enforcement Team to clean up the spies.

The target was very clear. The list of wild beasts was given to every soldier, and the mission was very simple: kill! There was nothing else.

Within a day, Yan City turned red.

Xi Bei couldn't judge whether MO Xiu was right or wrong.

Because Xi Bei wasn't in Yan City, he didn't know what method MO Xiu had used to find the beast spies. He didn't know if any of the ones he found had been killed by mistake, and he didn't know if any of them had escaped the net.

Xi Bei had no way to evaluate if the target was accurate, then it was definitely correct. Moreover, it could completely influence the judgment and decision of the two Beast Kings of the Western Regions.

Xi Bei still gave MO Xiu a call that night, advising him not to reveal the mastermind behind the scenes.

He didn't mention anything else. Xi Bei knew that MO Xiu had his own ideas. He didn't want to interfere, and he wouldn't interfere in the future.

That night, Xi Bei did not sleep at all. He kept wondering why MO Xiu would remember to get rid of the spies in Yan City.

After a night of repeated analysis, Xi Bei finally figured it out.

The world only knew that Xi Bei was brave and loyal, but he was also resourceful and intelligent.

Even with insufficient information, he was still able to analyze Moxiu's motive for doing so.

After thinking it through, Xi Bei exclaimed, looking up at the sky and saying, "Elder Tang, MO Xiu really has a chance of becoming a Supreme."

After the battle in the Western Region, Moxiu had only done two things. One was to trigger a war between the two races in the Northern Region, and the other was to screen and kill the wild beasts in Yan City.

The two things seemed unrelated, but in fact, they were linked together.

Moxiu had solved the problem in the north and was forcing the beasts of the Western Regions to make a move.

Xi Bei knew that Moxiu had more information than he did. He must have deduced from the relevant information that the beast spies would erupt in the near future, which was why he had acted in advance.

Then...

Everything was clear now. It was up to Beast's reaction.

If Beast really did as Moxiu said, launching a general attack or retreating without any warning, it meant that Moxiu had succeeded in eliminating most of the Beast spies.

The next day, Xi Bei spent the entire day waiting, waiting for any movement from the beasts.

From the morning onwards, Xi Bei knew that MO Xiu was right because the wild beasts' attacks were gradually weakening, and by night, they had really retreated.

At night, Beast's troops retreated.

Xi Bei stood alone at the border and looked towards Yan City.

"Moxiu, everything you do is unexpected. It makes sense. Only you can do these things!"

The next morning, the sky was clear!

The news of Beast's retreat seemed to have spread to the sky. The weather was exceptionally good today.

Moxiu had a good night's sleep last night, so the beasts did not launch a full-scale attack.

If it was a general attack, he would have to have a countermeasure and would not be so idle.

Mu Qingyi, who was lying on the side, sat up on the bed and raised her head to look at MO Xiu before placing her head on MO Xiu's lap.

“Do you have any missions today?”

MO Xiu replied straightforwardly.

“Why do you do things in bursts? Most of the time, you’re in a relaxed state.”

Mu Qingyi asked very seriously, but MO Xiu did not intend to answer her seriously. He said cheekily, “If I keep being tight, wouldn’t I be like you?”

“Hmm? Ah! MO Xiu!”

After the two of them played around, Moxiu still had a smile on his face, but... he was much more serious.

“Actually, it doesn’t matter when I do something. It depends on the timing.” Mu Qingyi tilted her head and asked, “Opportunity?”

“Yes, that’s right. The movements of the wild beasts will determine my next move.”

Mu Qingyi closed her eyes, not wanting to think about the complicated things that MO Xiu had mentioned.

“Oh right, speaking of timing, you reminded me!” said Moxiu.

“What?”

Moxiu didn’t say anything and sent a message on his phone.

It was sent to Hao Ren.

“Help me bring some tea leaves to the commander of the north, Boboqiduo!”

In the next few days, the central region was calm and peaceful, and there were no major movements in the western region.

In addition to paying attention to the real-time intelligence from Hao Ren, Moxiu also read the comments about himself on the Internet.

This time, the wind was turning, and some people began to support him.

The original article with a unique and rational analysis was dug up here. This time, the comments were different.

Of course, there were still more people who opposed the OP’s scolding of MO Xiu. However, there were finally some voices that were different.

“Beast of the Western Regions has retreated. This is unbelievable. Could it be that the analysis of the Tower Master is correct? This time, MO Xiu killed a wild beast from the ground. Did he cut off the escape route of the wild beast? Otherwise, why would the usually powerful beasts retreat?”

Let’s wait and see. We can’t just jump to conclusions after one incident. I’ve been analyzing Moxiu’s past videos at home recently. Moxiu is a very eloquent person. He has held several press conferences and his comments during the firearms war are very good at setting the pace. This time, if he steps forward to explain, there’s a chance to turn the tide. However, up until now, he hasn’t said anything publicly. Even in the previous interview video, he answered questions perfunctorily. This is abnormal.”

‘ I agree with the comment above. I’m a little confused that MO Xiucong isn’t smart, but he’s definitely not stupid. He’s eloquent. There’s something wrong with him not stepping out to speak. As for whether it’s good or bad for humans, it’s hard to say.”

There were more people who were neutral and calm in their analysis.

One reason was that Beast had retreated, and the other was that after a few days of settling down, some people had calmed down.

When Moxiu saw this, he treated it as entertainment and no longer cared about it.

However, not caring about other people's comments was one thing, and the morale of the army was another. Therefore, Moxiu still had to continue paying attention to it.

Northern Alliance, Northern Camp.

Boboqi did not have an easy time these days. The battle between the bear clan and the Turtle clan became more and more intense, and the Turtle clan's decline gradually became apparent.

In just a few days, Boboqi had led his troops to help the Turtle clan three times.

Just as MO Xiu had said, the difficulty was not leading troops to battle, but grasping the right timing to fight.

Now, Boboqi would drink tea in the camp whenever he had nothing to do. Tea could really calm his mind and make his mind clearer.

However, there was one thing that made Bopoche very uneasy. His physical condition was getting worse and worse, and he was afraid that he would not be able to hold on for long.

During this period of time, apart from constantly analyzing the situation, he also had to choose a suitable heir.

Overusing heartforce had caused his injuries to worsen..

Chapter 544: A Young Man

Boboqi was in the tent, looking at the news that kept coming in.

A person came in from outside the door and said, "Captain, the assistant selection you arranged has gone through many rounds of selection. There are now five candidates. When do you have time to take a look?"

Boboqi stood up with his hands on the table. His injuries had worsened, and it was difficult for him to even pretend that he was not injured.

Those who were close to Boboqi knew that the selection this time was to choose an assistant on the surface, but in fact, it was to choose a successor.

Judging from Boboc's performance these few days, his injuries were not light and he might not be able to hold on for long.

Fortunately, the people around Boboqi were all his trusted aides and were absolutely loyal to him. Otherwise, it would be difficult to deal with if the matter spread.

Boboc stood up, paced back and forth, and said, "Fruit! Do you think there's an ideal candidate among the five people this time?"

The person called Guo was called Boboguo. He was very strong, and in recent years, he was on par with Boboqi when he was at his peak.

The most important thing was that Bobo was the biological son of Bobocchi, so there was no possibility of him betraying him.

If it was in a peaceful era, Bobo would undoubtedly be the successor of Bobo.

However, Bobo was good in every way. He was honest and honest, but it was precisely because of that that he was not suitable to lead the north in such a critical time.

Just like Moxiu had said, the most important factor in choosing a leader in this situation was not strength, but the ability to judge the situation.

Boboguo also understood the current situation and knew that he was not the most suitable person to call. He supported Boboguo to do so. f(r)eeweb(n)ovel

During working hours, Boboqi and Bobogo never interacted as father and son. He was a little surprised when Boboqi suddenly called him ‘

“Father, what’s wrong?”

Boboqi slowly walked towards Boboguo, who immediately stepped forward to support him.

“I don’t have long to live. Choosing an assistant this time is of great significance. I hope to find someone who isn’t very strong but has a good brain to form with you. The two of you can lead the north to glory again.”

Bobo was stunned when he heard that. He didn’t expect his father to think so.

Bobo knew that he wasn’t a commander, but he could be a general. He was strong and could fight. The selection this time was to find a supreme commander to lead the north.

Boboqi could see through Bobogo’s confusion at a glance.

He smiled and explained,” There are two main reasons for this. No matter how strong the newly elected person is, his strength will definitely be lacking and it will be difficult for him to convince the masses. It will be much easier with your support. The second reason is my selfishness. I’m ashamed to say this, but I still have my selfishness under such circumstances. Since ancient times, the supreme leader of the north has only been passed down from generation to generation in our family. I don’t want to break it with you.”

Bobo nodded seriously and said, "Father, I understand. I'll do my best."

Boboqi waved his hand and said, "Go!" Find those five people!"

Bobo nodded and left. Not long after, he came back with five people.

These five people were not all young people, but there were young and old.

There was a middle-aged man who was over 50 years old, two young men in their twenties who were at the peak of their physical and mental strength, a middle-aged man in his thirties who looked calm, and the last one was a little special. He was a 14-year-old youth who had not awakened any skills at this age.

To be able to come here, the five of them were not ordinary people. Firstly, they must have passed the test in terms of family background and character. Secondly, they must have high intelligence and ability.

The five of them bowed to Bopoche after they entered.

"There's no need to be so polite," Boboc said. "I've read the information of the five of you. I'm very satisfied with all aspects. From the moment you walked in here, the five of you were both competitors and partners."

A young man asked, "Head Captain, shouldn't we choose one of the five of us to be our assistant? How is it a partnership?"

"I'll use all five of you," Boboc explained. "One of you will be my assistant, and the rest will be my advisor."

The old man said, "Captain, we have five people. How do you choose?"

"I only have one question," said Boboc. "After you answer it, I will make my choice."

"Please ask," the old man continued.

"There is only one question. Was what Moxiu did in the tent right or wrong?

Why?"

All five of them had heard of MO Xiu's matter, but MO Xiu had not done anything in the tent at that time.

To be able to pass through layers of selections and come here, the five of them were not ordinary people. They understood that this problem was not so simple.

The two young men answered first.

"There's no answer to this question. Moxiu wanted to find the best time to move out, but he missed the best opportunity, causing the bear clan and the Turtle clan to fight in the north."

Boboqi nodded and signaled for the next person. This person smiled proudly, feeling proud of his witty answer.

The second young man wanted to be like the first person and say it vaguely, but he was beaten to it. In order to show his difference, he said, "I think Moxiu is wrong! "If it were me, I would send out troops at every opportunity, but not all of them. I would send out troops in small batches. This way, I wouldn't miss out on a good opportunity even if the losses weren't great." Boboc thought for a while and then said, ""Next!"

Next was the middle-aged man.

"A mistake is a mistake. It's an indisputable fact that Moxiu missed his chance, but he's already very impressive for causing the bear clan and the Turtle clan to fight. He's a very smart person. I admire his determination as well, even if he's wrong."

The middle-aged man's words were obviously different from the two young men's. He expressed his views in a jealous manner and did not want to show off.

Next was the old man in his fifties. He said, "Head Captain, to be honest, I don't understand what Moxiu is doing! At first, I thought he was wrong. Why didn't he take back the north when there was such a good opportunity? "However, I later heard that you discussed it with him. He strongly opposed sending troops. He seemed to be very certain that he could do what we couldn't. He must have a deeper meaning for doing so."

Boboqi nodded his head. This old man had seen through things quite clearly. If he was more well-informed, he might be able to analyze Moxiu's intentions.

Boboqi was quite satisfied with this old man, but he was a little old. He didn't know how long the war would last, and he wondered if he could hold on.

Just as Boboc was about to announce the result, the last youth said that he had won.

"Head Captain, I haven't said anything yet."

This young man hadn't spoken since he came in. Plus, he was too young, so he was ignored by Boboqi.

"I'm sorry," Boboqi said embarrassedly. "It's my fault. Tell me your answer."" The young man's words shocked everyone, including Boboc.

"I think Moxiu did the right thing! Not only was it correct, but it was also the best choice.. Everyone had misunderstood Moxiu!"

Chapter 545: Fanboy and Tea (1)

The young man's words shocked everyone.

The old man and the middle-aged man looked at the young man in confusion, waiting for the young man to continue.

The two young men were the first to be unwilling. This child couldn't speak nonsense in order to stand out.

One of them said, "Is it the right thing to do?" The best choice? Tell me your reason!"

The young man's face was expressionless, showing a calmness that did not match his young face.

He swept his gaze across the crowd and finally stopped at Boboc.

"Head Captain, can you tell me? Mr. Motheo did not explain when he left because he did not want too many people to know, right?"

The young man who spoke just now snorted coldly and said, "Humph! I thought he was very capable. He was deliberately mystifying!"

Another young man echoed, "You're not old, but you have a lot of thoughts!"

The young man turned his head to look at the two young men, then turned back to Boboqi and said, "Head Captain, if I'm not wrong, Mr. Moxiu's plan is to avoid impetuous people!"

Boboqi smiled, he smiled happily.

This was because the young man in front of him gave him a very similar feeling to MO Xiu. He shouldn't be deliberately mystifying things, and he really knew about MO Xiu's plan.

The two young men rolled their eyes, wondering why the head captain was bewitched by his words.

However, what happened next caught everyone off guard.

Boboqi waved his hand and said, "Boboguo, please get out!"

The two young men were stunned and exclaimed at the same time.

Bobo was also a little surprised. He had just said that all five of them would use it, so why did he suddenly invite two out?

However, Bobo reacted quickly. He walked up to the two young men and said, "Please, do not need me to do it!"

The two young men were asked to leave in shock.

After the two of them came out, they looked at each other. They still did not understand what was going on. Why were they chased out?

"I don't need them anymore. What's your name?" Boboqi asked in the tent.

"My name is Boboxiu!"

"Oh?" Boboc asked in surprise. Your name is also Xio?"

"Actually, my original name isn't Boboxiu. I just changed it recently."

"Why?"

"I want to be like Mister Moxiu," the young man said without hesitation. "I want to be able to stop the war with my own strength."

Bopoche then asked, "How do you know Moxiu can do it?"

"He can do it." novel.com

Bobo found it funny. Moxiu had come and gone in a hurry. Other than leaving hope for the north, he had also left behind a fanboy.

"Then tell me! Why was MO Xiu doing the right thing?"

At the mention of this, the young man's face finally revealed a different expression. He seemed a little excited.

"Balance!"

Boboqi was shocked. The word had exposed MO Xiu's plan. This young man was no small matter.

The young man wanted to continue but was stopped by Boboqi.

"Alright, there's no need to say anything else. You'll be my assistant from now on. The two of you can go back."

The second half of the sentence was directed at the old man and the middle-aged man.

The two of them were deep in thought. They knew that the word "balance" was no small matter, and it immediately changed Bopoche's attitude.

However, the two of them could not figure it out. Balance usually meant that the person with the highest position would check and balance his subordinates and let the capable people work for him.

But...the strength of the north was at the bottom. How could they balance it?

Before the two of them could figure it out, they heard Boboqi's words and immediately cupped their fists to bid farewell.

Outside the tent, two young men were waiting unwillingly. Even if the two of them were eliminated, they still wanted to see the final result. They wanted to see the young man being chased out.

Not long after, the young man did not come out. Instead, the old man and the middle-aged man came out.

The two young men went forward and asked, "What was the result? Who became the head captain's assistant? Where was that youth? You stayed behind to be punished?"

The old man seemed a little absent-minded. The middle-aged man said, "The two of you, when we came out, you should have thought that the youth had succeeded."

"What?"

The two young men couldn't understand. That young man was hired just because he said a few words?

Just as the two young men were complaining to the middle-aged man, the old man suddenly came back to his senses and turned around to look at the tent. His heart was in turmoil for a long time.

The middle-aged man felt a little strange and asked, "What's wrong? Have you thought it through?"

The old man looked at the middle-aged man with excitement in his eyes. He wanted to share the joy of knowing the truth, but he looked at the two young men beside him and ultimately did not say anything.

"I've thought it through. I understand Mister Moxiu's plan and Boboxiu's words."

Mr. Moxiu? The other three people were stunned. Why was this old man the same as the teenager? Why was he called Mr. MO Xiu?

The old man realized how powerful Moxiu was and sincerely called him Mr. Moxiu. The three of them realized the seriousness of the problem. It seemed that it was not as simple as they had imagined.

The middle-aged man cupped his fists and said, "I hope you can enlighten me."

The old man held the middle-aged man's hand and said, "'No need to be so polite. I can tell you, but I can't! I can only tell you that Boboxiu is stronger than us, much stronger. Mister Moxiu is even more inferior to us."

The old man walked away after saying that, leaving the three of them in a daze for a long time.

In the tent.

Bobosio didn't hold back and sat where Boboc was pointing.

Boboqi did not say anything, but poured a cup of tea and pushed it to Boboxiu.

As a northerner who was born and raised in Bobo City, he had never seen or drunk tea before. He looked at the cup of tea in front of him and drank it in one gulp.

Even though he had a calm personality, he still carried the fierceness of a northerner.

"Hahaha, good!"

Boboqi found it funny. He took the teacup back and poured another cup of tea before pushing it to Boboxiu.

Bobosio did not understand what he meant. This time, he picked up the teacup and took a sip before slowly putting it down.

As soon as he put down the cup, he seemed to feel something and picked it up again.

It looked like he was actually savoring this.

“Hahaha, I really didn’t choose the wrong person. He’s not stronger than me!”

This time, Boboqi laughed even more happily. When Moxiu handed him tea, he only understood Moxiu’s meaning after drinking three cups. Boboxi only drank two cups.

The current seats were the same. Boboqi sat where Moxiu used to sit, and Boboxiu sat where Boboqi used to sit.

Everything had a law, and it was like an invisible inheritance.

“Are you trying to calm me down? This strange drink was bitter but sweet. It was suitable to drink when one was meditating.”

” Yes,” Boboc said.” This is a drink from the central continent. It’s called tea.

Moxiu introduced it to me. Unfortunately, this is the last pot.””

Before he finished speaking, someone came in from outside the tent with a big bag of tea leaves..

Chapter 546: Half an hour, Two hours

The clear sky did not last long. Soon, it began to drizzle.

A few more days passed. MO Xiu was very relaxed these few days. He played around with Mu Qingyi, brought her around, and went to the Strongest Corporation to meet his old friends.

The others were still as enthusiastic, but Xiao Hong was a little strange. This time, Mu Qingyi took the initiative to greet Xiao Hong, but Xiao Hong was a little unnatural and always found an excuse to leave.

It was rare to have such leisure time in a war, and it was relatively short.

Just as MO Xiu brought Mu Qingyi and strolled around Yan City without caring about the gazes of others, a sudden phone call broke all the peace.

It was Hao Ren who called. Moxiu had been contacting Hao Ren through text messages, and something big must have happened when he called suddenly.

Therefore, Moxiu immediately picked up the call. "MO Xiu, can you talk?" Hao Ren asked."

"If you have anything to say, say it directly!"

"The Western Regions will launch a general attack on the Central Region in half an hour. I've already informed the Xi Bei Commander-in-Chief. Do you have any instructions?"

Then, Hao Ren explained why it was so sudden.

In fact, the Western Regions had begun to mobilize manpower a few days ago, but at that time, the army was concentrated in a place far away from the inner border.

At that time, everyone, including Moxiu, thought that the Beast King wanted to reorganize his army and launch a general attack after training for a period of time. They did not expect him to return so suddenly.

No matter how one looked at it, it did not make sense. The soldiers did not have time to rest or adjust, and it was easy for fatigue to lead to a decline in combat effectiveness.

The only advantage of the wild beasts doing this was that they could launch a surprise attack and catch the central region off guard.

“Moxiu, what do we do next?” Hao Ren asked.”

Moxiu didn’t even frown when he heard that. He smiled as if everything was under control.

“I didn’t expect that he would use his trump card so soon. It seems that the wild beasts can’t hold back anymore.”

“Moxiu, are you saying that we need to use them?” Hao Ren asked in surprise.” MO Xiu replied,”That’s right, I’ll use all of them as we agreed.””

Hao Ren asked again,” It’s a serious matter. Please don’t mind me nagging. Let me confirm again. Are we really going to flip the table?””

“Yes, sir! Now, immediately, immediately.”

Okay, I understand,” Hao Ren said seriously.” I’ll make the arrangements now. ””

After hanging up, Mu Qingyi asked from the side,””Mo Xiu, what’s wrong? Did something happen?”

“Yes, the beasts are about to launch a general attack. We have to go to the front line.”

When Mu Qingyi heard MO Xiu say this, she did not feel depressed that her peaceful life was about to end.

On the contrary, Mu Qingyi had been by MO Xiu's side for such a long time. She could feel that MO Xiu had always been trying to break the rules before he stood up. He had already broken the rules when he went to the north after he came out of seclusion. Now was the time.

MO Xiu saw Mu Qingyi giggling foolishly for no reason and said,""What are you laughing at? Do you really want to see war?"

Mu Qingyi smiled playfully and said," The war is already unavoidable. I want to see you end the war, just like your name, Xio!"

MO Xiu wanted to continue chatting with Mu Qingyi, but at this moment, his phone rang again.

Moxiu took a glance and answered the call.

"Uncle Xi."

The caller was Xi Bei. Xi Bei was currently in a terrible state. The wild beasts had suddenly attacked and were about to reach the border.

In half an hour, Xi Bei did not have enough time to respond. He did not even have enough time to mobilize his troops.

The soldiers nearby could arrive within half an hour, but coming was one thing, and being able to fight was another.

If they were to call for reinforcements in such a hurry, they would not have any fighting strength when facing wild beasts.

At this time, even Xi Bei did not pay attention. He definitely could not retreat. Even if he died, he had to guard the border.

Thinking that Moxiu had the most attention, he made the call.

Xi Bei was anxious and said, "Moxiu, you're in charge of the spy mission. You should have received the news I received. Do you have any good countermeasures?"

"Uncle Xi, don't worry. I've already arranged everything." MO Xiu said calmly."

"Hmm? What arrangements? Where are you now?"

"Yan City!"

"Then why did you arrange it? The wild beasts will attack in less than half an hour. This time, the Ape King and the Fox King will lead all their elites to launch a general attack. The possibility of me defending is too low. What is your plan?"

Xi Bei knew very well that since MO Xiu was able to fool the four Beast Kings of the Western Region and the Northern Region, he should be able to predict their actions.

Moreover, Moxiu didn't show any signs of panic. This meant that things weren't out of Moxiu's control.

But...the border was about to fall, how could they turn the tables?

In the face of absolute strength, was the plan really useful?

"Uncle Xi, I know your difficulties. I'll pack up and rush to the border, but I'm afraid I won't be able to make it before this battle ends."

"Sigh! "

Xi Bei sighed. That's right, no matter what, MO Xiu was still a junior. Why did he ask this junior for help in a panic?

When MO Xiu heard Xi Bei's sigh, there was a trace of helplessness, sadness, and determination.

"Uncle Xi, you don't have to worry too much. You only need to hold the fort for two hours. Once the time is up, the beasts will definitely retreat.""

"Hmm?"

Xi Bei cried out in surprise. How was this possible?

"Moxiu, you're not joking with me, right? How can you guarantee that the beasts will retreat in two hours?"

Moxiu didn't want to reveal his plan, but Xi Bei was the highest commander on the front line. If he couldn't relax, it would affect the morale of the entire army. "Uncle Xi, I only participated in one project in the entire deployment." "Spies?"

"That's right. This time, I want everyone to move and turn the world upside down!"

Xi Bei wrinkled his brows and said, "If we do this, all the spies will be withdrawn. ""

"You don't have to use everything. You just have to see how effective it is. If Beast doesn't retreat in two hours, Beast will definitely suffer a crushing defeat!"

Xi Bei's eyes darted around. This was MO Xiu's killing move. All of his previous moves were meant to guide the two beast kings of the Western Regions.

"Moxiu, I understand what you mean. However, even if it's two hours, it'll be very difficult for us at the front line to hold out against the beasts 'attack."

Moxiu suddenly laughed. He had already thought of this. Two hours was actually not difficult as long as he was flexible.

Of course, MO Xiu felt this way in his heart, but he could not say it out loud. Otherwise, he would seem to despise Xi Bei for not being smart.

“Uncle Xi, as long as we listen for two hours, the beasts will retreat. Why bother to be so calculative?”

Xi Bei didn’t understand what MO Xiu meant at first, but after thinking about it, he understood.

“You mean to say that we should fight and retreat, and not care about temporary gains and losses?”

“That’s right!” said MO Xiu.

Guarding the border had always been Xi Bei’s mission.. After some careful consideration, he said firmly,””Good! We’ll do as you say!”

Chapter 547: I Won ‘t Speak (1)

Xi Bei agreed to fight and retreat.

It was very difficult for Xi Bei to make this decision.

In the eyes of Xi Bei and most of the older generation, humans fought for every inch of land. Beasts could forget about getting an inch of land, not even temporarily.

Moxiu understood. It was a matter of human dignity.

MO Xiu was afraid that Xi Bei would not agree and would defend the border. If that happened, the casualties would multiply.

There was a reason why Xi Bei agreed to fight and retreat.

One was to choose to believe in MO Xiu. Everything was based on MO Xiu's plan. If the plan did not achieve the corresponding results, all their efforts would be in vain.

The second was the issue of casualties. Although defending to the death could preserve their dignity and reflect the spirit of iron and blood in the eyes of the people, it would hurt the foundation and the losses outweighed the gains. After weighing the pros and cons, Xi Bei decided to use MO Xiu's method.

They had already discussed what they should do next. Xi Bei hung up the phone and went to make arrangements.

Moxiu was about to head to the frontlines, so he decided to make a trip to the Strongest Group to bid farewell to his friends.

When he arrived at the Strongest Group, he discovered that there were only Mu Mu, Cao Fenglin, and Zheng Yi.

The others were either busy with their own stalls or cultivating in seclusion.

Only the three main forces of the strongest group were left.

Zheng Yi's skills and strength were slightly inferior to the others. However, after such a long period of training, his ability to handle matters was very strong. He could effectively help Mu Mu and Cao Fenglin share the pressure. "Why are these people in seclusion at this time?" asked MO Xiu."

Cao Fenglin glanced at MO Xiu and said,""Didn't I learn this from you? I went into seclusion again."

MO Xiu looked at Mu Mu and said, "Is that so?""

"There should be some reason, but it's not the main reason," Mu Mu said with a smile. "

“What’s the reason?” Mu Mu continued, “Chance! There was an opportunity right in front of him.” “Oh? What is it?”

“Our company has been developing the medicinal liquid for some time. There are many top technical talents in this area. After hundreds of experiments, we have developed a medicinal liquid with higher efficiency. However, the process is more complicated. At this stage, we can’t mass produce it.”

Moxiu finally understood that there were highly effective medicines that could rapidly increase their strength. That was why they had chosen to enter closed-door cultivation at this time so that they could be of greater use in the future.

Mu Mu added, “Also, something big happened recently. The royal space disappeared, and everyone in the space is in the border tavern. You’ve been living there during this period of time, so you know better than me. After the royal family came out of the royal space, they contacted me immediately and handed over all the relevant technology for the skill training room to us.”

MO Xiu smiled. It was time for the Imperial Family to hand over the Skill Cultivation Room that he had failed to negotiate with back then. It was obvious that it was the Elder of Heavenly Secrets’ idea.

“The skill training room needs specialized people to maintain it. Mass production is also very difficult, right?”

“That’s right!” Mu Mu nodded. However, it’s not a problem for us to use it. The ones who are in seclusion are Xiao Hong, Yang Qingzhuo, Xiao Xinru, Liu

Ziyang, and Yue Yuan.”

These five people were MO Xiu’s team. The reason why the five of them had entered closed-door cultivation again was obvious. They wanted to help him, but they were very happy. Drinking the specially developed medicinal liquid in the skill training room would probably allow their strength to advance by leaps and bounds.

Among the five, Xiao Hong shouldered the heavy responsibility of the family. It was the most difficult for her to choose to enter seclusion at this time.

Next was Yue Yuan, who did not choose Hui Shun City to help Yue Long.

Moxiu understood his comrades' intentions and remembered them in his heart.

He chatted with the three of them briefly and told them that he was about to rush to the front line. He also asked them to inform the people in seclusion.

The three of them were very calm, and Zheng Yi's face was filled with anticipation.

Zheng Yi," MO Xiu teased," it looks like you really want me to go to the battlefield. Do you want something to happen to me?"

Zheng Yi smiled foolishly and said," I know your ability. You've been criticized for the past few days. Now it's time for you to prove yourself. You should be prepared to go to the battlefield, right? This time, he was really going to soar into the sky."

MO Xiu didn't answer Zheng Yi's question. Instead, he patted his shoulder. The two of them had been friends since they were young. There were some things that didn't need to be said.

MO Xiu did not say anything, but Zheng Yi said,""Mo Xiu, don't worry about the war. You already have a girlfriend."

Zheng Yi's act of not being a joker was an illusion, and it wouldn't last long.

MO Xiu said," You don't have to worry about me. Mind your own business. By the way, your goddess seems to be called Sun Yuwei. Have you taken her?"

Of course," Zheng Yi said proudly." She's working at the border now. We're in a long-distance relationship."

"Oh? So you're not coming with me this time?"

Zheng Yi looked at Mu Mu and Cao Fenglin beside him and shook his head.””Forget it. I made a good choice by staying here.”

MO Xiu nodded and did not say anything else. He held Mu Qingyi’s hand and left.

Before leaving, Mu Qingyi also bid farewell to the few of them. No one knew how long the war would last or when the two of them would return.

As for Mu Qingyi, MO Xiu had to bring her along. This was his promise to Mu Qingyi.

After walking out of the Strongest Group’s building, the reporters rushed over and surrounded Moxiu.

Moxiu summoned his Holy Sword and circled it around him, blocking the reporters.

Without waiting for the reporters to speak, MO Xiu took the lead and said, “I know what you want to ask. In the past, I liked to say it first, but now, I don’t say anything! I can only tell you that my destination is the border!” n ovel.com

After he finished speaking, he did not give the reporters any extra time as he pulled Mu Qingyi along and left on his sword.

The reporters were at a loss. What was the meaning of this? Now that the beasts had stopped fighting, why would they go to the border?

And what was the meaning of not speaking now?

After the reporters returned to the company, they reported the situation to their superiors.

The reactions of the major media outlets were surprisingly consistent. This matter had to be reported, but it could be reported casually.

In the past, no matter what kind of article it was, even if it was the words of the City Lord, the editor would add a few words of his own to make the idea of the article more clear, highlight the theme, or raise a few questions that made

No matter what, editors would always include their own subjective thoughts and judgments in their articles and reports, which would more or less affect people's judgments.

However, this time, all the media outlets reported Moxiu's original words. There was not a single comment left, not a single word added.

This was because no one knew what Moxiu was going to do. They couldn't speak blindly at this time, or they might die.

Such news had to be reported, so MO Xiu's original words were published.

As for how they understood it, it depended on what the people thought.

This was actually what the media should do. They should report the truth and leave the rest to the people to understand..

Chapter 548: War!

On the other side, the beasts of the Western Regions were advancing at full speed under the leadership of the Beast King.

In fact, the surprise attack had not only stunned the central region, but also the wild beasts of the western region.

They said that it was a heavy training, why did they suddenly announce a general attack on humans?

The two Beast Kings weren't just for show. After MO Xiu had severely injured the beast spy in Yan City, the two Beast Kings had started to plan how to find the traitor.

He definitely couldn't use the method he used to deal with MO Xiu and MO Li. If he did, it would be difficult to find spies.

Only then did the two beast kings realize that they had fallen into MO Xiu's trap.

Whether it was MO Xiu back then or MO Li who died in Ape 7 City, the two of them were indirectly hinting that there was only one spy and that they would be clean once they got rid of him.

However, the two Beast Kings now knew that this was not the truth. It was just that they did not want to see it.

Perhaps from the very beginning, there were many spies lurking in the Western Regions.

If this hypothesis was true, such a long time was enough for these people to settle down and it would be difficult to find out.

After the two Beast Kings came to this conclusion, they once again changed their opinion of Moxiu.

What did MO Xiu do?

On the battlefield? Or was he leading the overall situation?

None of them!

As far as they knew, the person who did this was a person called Xi Bei from the Xi family of the imperial family.

In other words, Moxiu's power was limited, and the things he could control were also limited.

However, it was such a person who had made a few seemingly simple moves that affected the overall situation.

It seemed simple because it was not something that Moxiu had thought of. For example, the northerners had known about the conflict between the bear clan and the Turtle clan even before the war had started in the north, and they knew it better than Moxiu.

And this time, MO Xiu had found the beast spy in Yan City.

Xi Bei had known about this for a long time and had been taking all sorts of measures. However, the wild beasts had hidden themselves too deeply and could only temporarily isolate Yan City.

And this was the miraculous part of Moxiu. He was able to do these impossible things.

How was it? Simple, right? Easy, right? But others couldn't do it.

After the two Beast Kings knew that MO Xiu was going to be their opponent for a long time, they had investigated all of MO Xiu's information. It could be said that they were very detailed about MO Xiu's favorite dishes. As for the off-topic topic, MO Xiu loved to eat hotpot. Who knew who wrote that?

In the past, MO Xiu liked to mobilize the emotions of the people and control their hearts. He did things that were strange and confusing.

He was completely different from the current Moxiu. The current Moxiu didn't use the power of the people, nor did he come up with any shocking tactics. He just calmly resolved the matter, not even caring about what the people thought of him.

Two different ways of doing things represented two different realms.

The current Moxiu was even more terrifying. This was the confidence and calmness that came from his strength.

Although schemes could allow the weak to defeat the strong, with strength, there was no need for more schemes to waste time.

He could sow discord between the Bear clan and the Turtle clan. Moxiu could choose not to pretend to be the Bear King and ambush the Turtle King, or he could use all sorts of schemes to cause the two clans to fall out. However, this could last for a very long time, months or even years. The northern side did not have that much time at the time.

After the two Beast Kings finished analyzing the situation of the human spies, they realized that it was related to Moxiu's ability.

He couldn't even divulge any more information, or else MO Yuqi would use the tiny bits of information to find the weakness of the wild beasts.

This was the reason for the surprise attack.

Don't you have a spy? I'm a high-level sneak attack. By the time you know the news, it's already too late to react.

Aren't you powerful, MO Xiu? Do you only know how to find a weak spot to fight? I won't give you time to react while I'm in the middle of it, and I won't play games with you. You can't do anything about it, right?

This was the only method the two Beast Kings could think of, and it was also the result of their embarrassment. If they couldn't outsmart him, they would fight him head-on.

This sudden attack was too sudden. Many beast soldiers did not react in time. If there was another way, the two beast kings would definitely not do it.

They really couldn't drag this on any longer. If this continued, the situation would change again, and this battle might end hastily.

Half an hour!

This was the time since Beast had sent out his troops.

The beast army did not look tired after running around. Every beast had a fierce look on their faces.

The previous battles were child's play. Now that they had finally launched an all-out attack, they could let go of their killing spree.

Compared to exhaustion, the wild beast was more looking forward to the pleasure of killing that was about to arrive.

On the human side, Xi Bei stood at the very front.

Looking at the three people in the lead, Xi Bei recognized two of them. They were the Fox King and the Ape King. As for the man who looked younger, Xi Bei did not recognize him.

This person was a dragon, and he was here to kill MO Xiu.

On the side of the wild beasts, the Beast King did not give the order to attack, so all the wild beasts stopped.

Xi Bei shouted to the Beast King, "I wonder what the wind is today?" You even blew two Beast Kings here!"

The ape king was talking to the wild beast.

"Xi Bei, right? Why don't I see MO Xiu?"

Xi Bei's heart skipped a beat. It seemed that what Moxiu had done had hit the Beast King's Achilles 'heel.

"MO Xiu is rushing over. Why don't the two of you wait?"

"Hahaha!" The ape king suddenly laughed loudly. Do you think I'm stupid? Those who came with Moxiu probably had reinforcements, right? Listen up! Kill!

Leave no one alive!"

The ape king's loud shout reached the ears of every wild beast, as well as Xi Bei.

Xi Bei was a little surprised. Why did the ape king fight just like that? It was too sudden. Originally, Xi Bei had wanted to stall for as much time as possible.

"When are we retreating?" The deputy general beside Xi Bei asked."

Xi Bei told some of his trusted aides about the plan to fight and retreat. Xi Bei said, "You can't be too deliberate. Wait for my instructions later!"

"Good!"

At the ape king's command, the wild beasts on the other side shouted loudly, their voices lingering for a long time.

With a deafening sound, the wild beasts began to move, but not all of them, only a small part of them in front.

After playing chess for the past few days, Xi Bei had long since learned how wild beasts fought. The ones in front of him were not foxes or apes.

Instead, they were enslaved by two battle races, the dog race and the cow race.

These two races must have been modified by the ape and fox races. They didn't have the ability to think alone. Other than a few specific wild beasts, they didn't listen to anyone. They only knew how to eat and kill.

Fortunately, their combat strength was not particularly strong. Otherwise, such combat robots would not be easy to deal with.

The role of these two races was very simple. They were the vanguard to consume the skills of humans.

The wild beasts understood humans very well. They knew that most of the human skills had cooldowns. This wave of attacks were all cannon fodder. The humans would not be able to block it without using skills. If they used skills, they might not have any skills to deliberately use against the real main force of the wild beasts.

In the beginning, the humans were at a disadvantage because they were unprepared.

But now? Xi Bei already had a very mature method of dealing with it.

Xi Bei smiled and waved his right hand as he looked at the bull and dog with bloodshot eyes..

Chapter 549: xi Bei, 1 Must Kill

As Xi Bei put down his hand, the hundreds of people behind him wanted to cast elemental skills in the air to bombard Beast's charging troops.

The Hound and Ox tribes did have a strong impact in battle, but they lacked flexibility. They did not have the ability to fly and think independently, so they could not avoid these elemental attacks.

These elemental skills were also very particular. They had been screened when they formed the army.

The elements were mainly fire, wind, thunder, and other elements that dealt great damage and complemented each other.

The remaining elements like water, ice, wood, and other control-type elements were used as other groups, or they could be used as control support when the progress was not right.

As the skill landed, it exploded in this empty place where there were only wild beasts. The heat wave spread in all directions.

As all the skills landed on the ground and exploded, a dazzling light appeared.

After temporarily losing his sight, he looked forward again.

Most of the corpses on the ground were not breathing. Only a small number of them could still move, but they could only move.

The ape king looked at the corpses without a trace of emotion on his face. It was as if these wild beasts should have died in the first place. He had wanted to use them before they died, but now it seemed that they had no value at all.

On Xi Bei's side, the elemental troops behind him immediately left the army after releasing their skills and disappeared without a trace.

The ape king looked at Xi Bei from afar and shouted again, ""Kill them!"

This time, it was not as loud as the last time, but it gave people a different feeling.

The wild beasts did not make any noise. Their eyes were bloodshot as they looked ahead.

The ape king laughed sinisterly and was the first to move, charging towards Xi Bei.

As soon as the ape king moved, everyone charged forward. A battle to the death was imminent.

A small number of wild beasts did not move. The Fox King, the Dragon, and a small number of guards beside them.

Xi Bei looked at the wild beasts that were surging over like a tide and felt a little uneasy. The ape king was decisive enough to not be able to stall for time.

He could only accept the battle.

Looking at the time, only twenty minutes had passed.

Xi Bei turned around to look at the person behind him and said, ""Brothers, let's

Xi Bei did not stay where he was and immediately led the group behind him to welcome them.

Xi Bei, who was the highest commander, naturally went up against the ape king.

The Xi Clan was the strongest human warrior. As for the wild beasts, the ape clan and the bear clan each had their own merits. It was impossible to tell which clan was the strongest.

However, the ape king was the strongest warrior among the wild beasts.

The ape king was a wild beast that had survived the great war a hundred years ago. Its strength was publicly acknowledged as one of the top few.

Xi Bei was facing off against the ape king so quickly. The psychological pressure was still very great.

Both sides were Warriors, so there was nothing much to say. They exchanged a punch.

This punch attracted the attention of many people around. In a battle between two main generals, if one side lost, it could almost determine the outcome of the battle.

The power of this punch was so great that it sent the soldiers from both sides flying.

After the first punch, both parties withdrew their fists.

The ape king looked at Xi Bei with a serious expression.

This punch was to determine the winner and loser. It did not even determine the upper and lower hand. It was completely evenly matched.

This was a psychological pressure for the ape king. He had originally thought that humans were not worth mentioning and that there were no strong Deoole.

After Tang Old died, no one could fight with him. Only by playing tricks like Moxiu could he contend with wild beasts.

But now, it seemed that the commander of the central region was very strong.

“The Xi family? I’ve fought with your ancestor before, but I didn’t expect someone like him to appear in the Xi family.” freeweb . com

Xi Bei was delighted. He wasn’t afraid of you speaking, but he was afraid that you would say it without saying anything.

“How can I compare to a person like the family head?”

The ape king said, "You're already very strong, but you're still a little short. I want to see how many moves you can take from me today."

Without waiting for Xi Bei to speak, he punched again.

Xi Bei's reaction was fast enough. He raised his qi and punched, his fists meeting each other again.

This time, the two of them did not know who was better.

Xi Bei said, "Ape King, you're older than me by who knows how many generations. Wild beasts also have the characteristic of unlimited growth. Is that all you have?!"

"Hahaha! Boy, this is interesting. Today, I'll let you see my true strength."

When the ape king said those words, his entire aura changed. Xi Bei knew that he might not be able to withstand the next punch.

One punch!

The ape king punched again. This time, it was different from the previous two. There was no sound of wind breaking or any aura that was revealed.

This punch seemed to have not used much strength, and it came over lightly.

It was this kind of fist that made Xi Bei feel fear.

Fear of the unknown.

The ape king's current punch was beyond Xi Bei's understanding. It was a realm that Xi Bei had never reached before.

Looking at the incoming fist, Xi Bei was even a little dazed.

Just as the fist was about to land on his body, Xi Bei suddenly came back to his senses. He gritted his teeth and did not punch. Instead, he activated his skill and teleported back a distance to dodge the punch.

At this moment, Xi Bei and the Ape King were more than ten meters apart, but they still had lingering fears. If that punch had landed on Xi Bei's body, who knew what would have happened?

"Haha, what's wrong?" The ape king laughed smugly. Where was the arrogance just now? Are you scared? Why did he use a strange skill to get past them?"

Xi Bei nodded and said, "Ape King, I admit that you're stronger than me. I won't accompany you anymore!"

The ape king narrowed his eyes. What did Xi Bei mean? The central continent no longer guarded the borders?

The ape king was still puzzled a second ago, but in the next second, he knew what was going on.

Xi Bei shouted, "Retreat!"

His voice was very loud. Xi Bei wanted to make sure that everyone could hear him.

After Xi Bei shouted, he turned around and ran without any hesitation.

The ape king tried to grab Xi Bei, but Xi Bei had the ability to move, so he could not catch him.

This was the difference between humans and wild beasts. Even at the level of Beast Kings and Xi Bei, this still existed.

Beast Kings had unlimited growth potential, stronger vitality, and most of their skills did not have cooldowns.

Therefore, the longer a wild beast lived, the stronger it was in theory. Its ability to fight a prolonged battle was stronger than that of humans.

Humans had a lot of skills, and the effects of skills combined were different. They were changeable and difficult to defend against.

It was a stark contrast to the wild beast's single prediction skill.

The ape king couldn't hold onto Xi Bei and stopped where he was."Xi Bei, even if you run, do you not want your soldiers anymore?"

Xi Bei didn't reply and disappeared into the distance. He had already run far away.

The ape king flew into a rage and felt like he couldn't exert any strength. Just as he was about to turn around to vent his anger, he realized that there were no humans behind him. Only his subordinates looked at each other in dismay.

"What happened?" asked the ape king.

One of the subordinates said," Beast King, we are not sure either. These humans are very fast. They have been hiding during the battle and have not fought head-on. After the retreat just now, all the humans disappeared into thin air."

The ape king wrinkled his nose and panted heavily. It was obvious that he was angry. This was a human's invisibility skill.

"Xi Bei, how dare you trick me? I will kill you!"

Chapter 550: Another Battle!

“Xi Bei, I must kill you!”

The ape king’s voice was very loud and shook the heavens and earth. The fox king and dragon in the distance also heard it.

“What’s going on?” The Fox King asked in surprise. There were only a few humans, how could they make the ape angry?”

The Dragon looked at the battlefield and said disdainfully, “This trash can’t even handle two things properly!”

The ape king was his father. Since he had said such words, the fox king was not surprised at all, nor did he try to dissuade him.

The Fox King’s body emitted a purple aura. The purple aura was like a pair of large hands. The Fox King rode on the purple hands and flew forward. “Ape, what’s going on?” The Fox King asked.”

“Quickly use the purple gas to check if there are any humans around!” the ape king said.”

The Fox King did as he was told. He closed his eyes and expanded the range of the purple gas. Two minutes later, he opened his eyes and shook his head. “Damn it, I was played. These human fists ran away.”

The Fox King looked into the depths of the human territory and said, ““The humans are doing useless things. If they don’t die and guard the border, how are they going to chase us out when we go in and take a look?”

The ape king was in a better mood after hearing the Fox King's words. That's right, so what if Xi Bei had played a trick on him? The humans would definitely lose this battle.

The ape tribe had impulsive behavior, but the ape king had lived for more than a hundred years. He could quickly adjust his mentality.

There were too many beasts in the army, and they had arrived here after half an hour of running. They had just used their emotions to charge, so they did not need to rest. Otherwise, when they fought again later, they might not even be able to maintain their formation.

After a quick adjustment, the ape king led the army and continued to set off.

The main focus of this battle was a surprise attack. If it was delayed for too long, it would be meaningless to give the humans time to prepare.

The beast army continued to advance, and as they walked, there was a series of explosions.

There was a trap!

The ape king's head was bulging. What was this? What era was it already and he was still playing with traps?

Traps were created by people using skills. Generally, trap skills were placed in advance, but their power was limited.

The ape king ordered the strong ape troops with strong defense to walk at the front and eliminate the traps.

In order to prevent the humans from using the same trick again, the Fox King and the Ape King attacked together.

"Ape," the Fox King said. "I think something is wrong. The humans are obviously stalling for time."

"I thought of that too. This also proves that the humans are afraid. They know that they don't have the strength to fight us head-on, so they're thinking of ways to stall for time. When reinforcements arrive, their chances of winning will be higher."

The Fox King did not think too much about it. This was the current situation that the humans were facing. It was impossible for Xi Bei and his men at the border to resist the attacks of the wild beasts.

If the Fox King was Xi Bei, he would probably use the same method.

On the other side, Xi Bei came to a hill in the distance. After waiting for a while, many people appeared beside him. They were the soldiers who had been on the battlefield just now.

These people were not particularly strong, but they had a common characteristic. They could turn invisible and had very strong mobility.

Most of the people here were members of the Rong family!

He used the Rong family's innate skill to escape from the battlefield.

"Supreme Commander, what should we do next?" asked one of them. The beast did not stay for long. It had already passed the trap area and was estimated to reach here in ten minutes."

"Call the Bei family and the Cha family over. Our four families must defend today!"

"Yes, sir!"

On the Beast army's side, after passing through the trap area, there was a bumpy road. Even if the Beast army could adapt to many complicated terrains, they still had to slow down when faced with such terrain.

This section of the road is man-made, but it is not just ready, it is learning from the north, before the war begins, it is looking for people to deliberately cultivate this.

The purpose was simple. He wanted to leave a backup plan.

If the wild beasts of the Western Regions wanted to attack the Central Region, they would have to pass through this part of the road.

After careful consideration, Xi Bei understood that the humans might not be able to win this war.

The purpose of this path was to slow down the speed of wild beasts.

He had originally thought that if the border guards failed, this path would increase the time it took for the wild beasts to enter the territory.

It gave the ordinary people more time to evacuate or escape.

Xi Bei had never thought that he would use this last resort so quickly.

It was not easy for the wild beasts to walk through this section of the road. It was a test of their fighting spirit.

Although the wild beasts were very belligerent and murderous, that was only when they were full or hungry. Right now, the wild beast army was very tired.

After walking this path, they could see the hill where Xi Bei was.

Xi Bei shouted, "Two Beast Kings, we meet again!"

The ape king gnashed his teeth in hatred. Humans really knew how to play tricks. Once again, he ordered the entire army to attack.

The beast army was also frustrated- When they heard the order. they immediately rushed out. Halfway through, something happened again.

Elemental skills filled the sky, and there were even more than when he was dealing with the dissuasion and ox tribe.

The ape king did not manage to take a breather. If they continued to charge forward, they would have damaged the army for nothing.

He had no choice but to order the entire army to retreat.

The ape king did not want to do something like slapping himself in the face, but he had no choice.

After calming himself down, he looked at the terrain seriously. This place was surrounded by four sides and was the best place for humans to attack with elemental skills.

Moreover, it was easy to defend and difficult to attack. There were also soldiers with elemental attacks on the beast side, the magic fox!

However, in this kind of terrain, it was easy to throw skills from the top down, but it was too difficult to throw skills from the bottom up the mountain.

There was no way to deal with it, so he could only wait for the humans to finish throwing their skills before advancing.

Even though the ape king's orders had been issued in a timely manner, some of the wild beasts were still injured.

After a round of human elemental skills, the ape king led a group of soldiers with the strongest elemental defense forward.

Just as they reached the middle, another wave of elemental skills was thrown down. The ape king had no choice but to retreat with the soldiers.

The dragon watched the show from the side and revealed a disdainful expression towards the ape king.

The ape king became even angrier when he saw this. It was one thing that the humans had many tricks up their sleeves, but his son was still mocking them.

“Dragon, what do you mean?”

Dragon said, “ Nothing. I’m just laughing at you for being stupid. If your subordinates can’t handle these skills, can’t you?” Couldn’t you just kill your way over?”

“Hahaha!”

The ape king said to the fox king,” This is the smart son you gave me. A large number of humans have combined skills. The power can severely injure me.

You’re really not afraid of death!”

The Ape King had made the logic very clear, but the dragon still had a look of disdain.

The Fox King said,” Let’s go and check it out again. After all, human skills are limited. This kind of elemental array won’t last long.””

The ape king really wanted to educate his son, but the current situation did not allow it.

The ape king led his troops to continue exploring. After another three times, there were finally no more elemental skills appearing on the hill.

In order to prevent any fraud, the beast continued to move forward until there was no skill appearing under the hill. Only then did he relax..
