

Chapter 366

"You'll understand later when you meet a girl you like."

"I like Krista. I like Aracely. They are both girls."

"You're still too young. You'll understand. Next time, don't hug your sister in that way."

"Why? She is my sister."

"I'm not asking for your opinion. I'm making a request."

"Okay..."

Luck curled his lips unhappily. He thought Kingston was so overbearing and fierce.

"Oh, you're here."

Kingston came out of the kitchen and saw Krista, who has just woken up. Krista still looked sleepy. Her small body was wrapped in a large robe, which made her look like a tiny elf.

"Aren't you working today? Why are you dressed so casually?"

"Today we're going for a picnic. We'll leave after breakfast. You, me, Quincy and Luck."

"Really?"

Krista's eyes lit up. She needed to step outside for some fresh air. Otherwise, she would get sick if she spent all day alone thinking indoors.

"Okay, hurry up and have breakfast, then change your clothes."

Krista nodded vigorously and quickly went upstairs to change her clothes.

She wore a simple white T-shirt and light blue jeans. Her hair was casually tied up.

She didn't put on any makeup but still looked pretty and attractive.

The only sad thing was that Krista's beautiful sparkling eyes were not as bright as they used to be.

Kingston knew that this was all Lance's fault.

It didn't matter. He would slowly heal her and make her happy.

The group set off to the suburbs, picked a small hill full of wildflowers, and laid a tablecloth under the tree.

At the bottom of the hill was a crystal clear stream with many fish in it.

Quincy took Luck to catch fish, and the two enjoyed themselves in the water.

Krista went to pick some flowers and planned to make some decorations.

But Suddenly Krista felt something wrong at her feet. A snake was hiding there. Since it felt someone coming, the snake looked up at Krista with its eyes wide open as if it was about to attack her.

"A snake ... A snake ..."

Krista shouted. Kingston was the first to rush over and let out a sigh of relief when he saw that it was not a poisonous snake.

Kingston drove the snake off with a stick. Krista was so frightened that she could barely stand.

Seeing this, Kingston immediately stepped forward and held her firmly in his arms.

Krista wanted to break free, but she was still scared, weak, and sweaty.

"Go back. I will deal with it."

"But..."

"Don't worry."

His simple words were filled with love.

Krista was a bit moved and she didn't say anything else.

She went back to the tablecloth and unwrapped what they had brought. There were lots of snacks and super cute lunch boxes.

Krista quickly knew it was Luck who prepared this. She could not help opening them one by one to see what was inside.

She tasted them surreptitiously and found several dishes were really good, which were her favorite meat dishes.

The meat was carefully prepared and tasted very delicious.

At this moment, Luck and Quincy came back after catching the fish and found Krista eating Kingston's food. Luck went unhappy right away.

Krista didn't notice and continued to praise her, saying, "Luck, your food is amazing. You know me best. I really like it and I'll eat it all."
