

Found Pregnant After Divorce Novel

Chapter 383

Krista was afraid, but she chose to protect the others.

John was not a good person. He had committed a lot of crimes and had never thought of cleaning up his act. He tried his best to do bad things and attract others' attention.

But Krista shocked him at that time.

A man was born evil and selfish.

Why was Krista so innocent and foolish that she was willing to sacrifice herself for others?

Kingston caught John and tortured him. John almost died. After Quincy left, John actually came back to life.

John was caught by the police and he was supposed to stay in jail for a few years.

But John Riley cleaned up his act this time and performed well in prison. To make up for his mistakes, he acted as an undercover agent in the criminal gangs. With his help, several smuggling teams were broken.

John did too much field work and became well-known. It was impossible for him to continue to be an undercover agent. So he was appointed to manage the police station in City D.

John had looked for Krista and wanted to ask her why. But he was told that Krista was dead.

John felt sorry and even suffered a lot.

John cooperated with the police and made great contributions. He was nearly killed. He did all these because he wanted to ask Krista why.

But Krista died.

It took him a long time to accept Krista's death and John had less passion for his work. But things have become interesting now.

"If you think I am good, then I am a good person. My name is John Riley. Please remember me."

"I will, officer."

Krista was happy to know the name of the police.

"It's time to go back, Mr. Riley."

Someone shouted from behind.

John knew that he still had many things to do.

John looked at Krista lovingly.

He took out a pen and wrote down his phone numbers.

"I'm leaving. Call me if you need anything. I will come at any time!"

John said the last sentence firmly.

Then John returned to his team and left.

Krista saved the number. After all, there was no harm. What if she really needed his help in the future?

The police left and the crowd dispersed.

She saw Kingston.

When Kingston saw her, he quickly came to Krista.

Kingston was relieved to see Krista safe and sound.

"It's good that you're fine."

Kingston couldn't help but pull Krista into his arms and stroke her head.

Krista leaned against his chest and heard his heartbeat. She knew that Kingston ran here and he was out of breath now.

Was Krista so worried about Krista?

Krista wanted to push him away but she didn't.

"What can happen to me?"

"There are traffickers here. I'm afraid that you..."

Krista remembered what happened in the past clearly. If he did not arrive on time, would the wolves surround Krista and eat her?

"I'm an adult. I believe that Luck may have been kidnapped. I am clever and I just met a policeman. He is a good person. If I have difficulties, I can turn to him."

Kingston did not think too much.

"No matter what, it's good that you're fine."

Kingston was finally relieved.

Since Kingston was here, Kingston, Krista and Luck had dinner together.

But Justin saw them.

He was sitting at the table in the corner.

He hated Kingston a lot. Justin was taught a good lesson by his father because of Kingston. He broke his bones and was sent to the hospital. He just recovered.

Justin hated Kingston a lot, but he did not dare to make trouble for Kingston.
