

Found Pregnant After Divorce Novel

Chapter 386

Moreover, Kingston and Krista had gotten along so well before, so he did not understand why their relationship was suddenly distant.

Kingston managed to be with Krista day and night to live together.

However, Kingston could only wait for Krista to fall asleep every night and secretly occupy her for a few hours.

Kingston felt furious, but he suppressed the anger.

Kingston could roughly guess what Krista was thinking, so he didn't continue. He decided to postpone the plan.

Moreover, during that period, Kingston had indeed been busy.

Krista was the first to come and the last to leave every day. When the design director saw Krista, she was rewarded.

Lily disliked Krista even more, thinking that Krista was deliberately making trouble for her and showing off to the design director at that time.

As soon as Lily started working in the afternoon, Lily walked to her and crossed her arms around her chest in disdain. Lily didn't hide her disgust and directly showed it.

"Come with me to a place to meet a client in the afternoon," Lily said.

Krista replied, "Alright."

Since it was a job, Krista had no way to refuse. Krista hoped that Lily would not use her public power to make things difficult for her.

Krista and Lily left at four in the afternoon and arrived at a clubhouse.

At the Bhopal Clubhouse, it was said that there were many beautiful models and handsome young men for entertainment.

The Bhopal Clubhouse is a nice place for rich people. upstairs is a place of sensual pleasures, and the underground is a grey industrial zone with a large casino.

Krista stood at the door with resistance, because she saw many men hugging women and talking nonsense.

Krista had once accompanied Lance to socialize. The foreigners were even more open-minded, which made her blush.

Since then, Krista had never been there again. When Krista talked with customers alone, she would meet a few lustful men. Lance would greet them, and they did not dare have any improper thoughts about Krista.

Therefore, for the past four years, Krista had been protected very well. She was innocent and did not know too many erotic things.

"Come in, what are you standing there for?"

When Lily saw that Krista was not moving, she frowned.

Krista suppressed the discomfort in her heart. Krista thought that she was there to carry things, and it was up to Lily to talk about the details.

Krista took a deep breath and followed Lily.

Lily went upstairs and soon entered the box.

"The guests are not here yet. Let's wait for a while." Lily said.

Krista sat obediently, holding the design drafts in her arms and waiting patiently.

Lily pours two cups of water for Krista. Seeing Krista drink it directly, Lily smiled.

Soon, Krista felt sleepy. Before she even had time to doubt herself, she fell backward and fell on the soft sofa.

At this time, a man walked out of the dark with greed in his eyes. He rubbed his hands together as if he could not wait.

The man was Justin.

Lily said to Justin, "I brought the person you wanted. Are you satisfied?"

Lily looked at Justin nervously. They had agreed that Lily would bring Krista and Justin would give Lily what she wanted.

"Don't worry. I'll keep my promise." Justin said.

Lily heard this and let out a sigh of relief.

Lily said, "Then take your time. I hope that you can deal with her as soon as possible. She is so annoying."

Lily couldn't wait for Krista to be kept as a mistress and leave the design department forever.

"Don't worry, as long as this girl becomes my woman, I know what to do."

Justin said cheerfully.
