

Chapter 387

After Lily left, Justin greedily sized up Krista. She was wearing an ordinary, thin white shirt and a pair of black pants. It was simple but clean.

Her face did not have any makeup on, but it was beautiful and moving.

Justin had drugged the water, so she wouldn't wake up for a while.

When she woke up, everything would have happened. He would hold the photo of them in bed. No matter what methods she used, she could only listen to him.

As for Kingston...

He didn't have time to think about Kingston. Right now, he just wanted to deal with Krista, then thought of a way to deal with Kingston.

And he thought it was just a woman. He could compensate him a lot later and let him enjoy it...

Justin was a man of simple mind and thought with his private parts. He considered that all the men in the world were controlled by sex like him.

"Little beauty, I finally got you. I miss you for a long time."

"You've made me suffer a lot. You have to make it up to me today."

There was a cruel smile on the corner of his mouth. Although Krista was unconscious, that did not mean that he would be gentle.

He wondered what kind of expression she would have when she woke up and saw that she was riddled with scars.

The more he thought about it, the more excited he felt. He took out a rope and forcefully tied Krista's hands and feet to the bed pillar.

He was not in a hurry to take off his clothes. 'Where can you go now?'

He pinched her waist and touched her skin through her clothes like a psychopath.

"Hiss —"

The unconscious Krista also can feel pain. She felt a pinch on her waist and moaned softly in pain.

Justin looked at her leeringly and prepared for action. Just as he was about to enjoy the dessert, he did not expect that the door was suddenly kicked open.

Kingston, with a terrifying face, suddenly appeared at the door. Justin was so frightened that he stood still and didn't dare to move, as if he had lost his soul.

Quincy was still holding Lily's collar in his hand. She was disheveled and her cheeks were towering. It seemed that she had gotten a lot of slaps.

"It's him. He asked me to do it..."

Lily immediately pointed to Justin when she saw him.

"I'm sorry. I was forced to do this. Please let me go..."

Then she began to cry.

Kingston walked forward and saw Krista was unconscious with a pale face.

She couldn't wake up because of the drugs, but she could still feel the pain.

Her forehead was covered in sweat, and her lips were bloodless.

Kingston's heart tightened in an instant. When he saw the skin on her chest, his eyes looked like overturned thick ink.

He immediately took off his coat and covered Krista with it. Then he turned to look at Justin.

Justin bent his body and felt that he was like an ugly monkey.

He trembled so much that he couldn't say a word, only looking at Kingston in fear.

Kingston's gaze gradually descended and landed on his penis. Justin was so scared that he broke out in a cold sweat.

It took him a while to find his voice and quickly explained, "Mr. Irwin, if you just let me explain..."

He felt that he was talking nonsense.

Chapter 388

Justin tried to explain, "Mr. Irwin, it's just a woman, there's no need to be angry. I'm just curious and want to play with her. If you're dissatisfied, I'll find a dozen pure girls for you. Women are just being played by men. I'll sleep for one night, just one night."

He thought that Kingston had already slept with the woman, and there was little passion left between them.

He would send over a dozen of girls for Kingston, so Kingston would be appeased quickly.

However, Justin was also not sure because he had wanted to tease the woman in the restaurant that day and then had almost been killed by Kingston.

"I can also ask my dad to give you some benefits. I am the only son of the Baker Family, and everything in the Baker Family is mine. I will be your dog. You can do whatever you want me to do."

Justin kept saying, but Kingston did not respond at all. Justin was very desperate.

Kingston looked at Justin indifferently. His eyes were cold as if they were covered with poison.

His face took on a ghastly expression. Kingston frowned and narrowed his eyes. He pressed his lips together and didn't reply to Justin.

He did not speak because he was thinking about how to punish Justin.

Kingston thought, 'I should cut him into pieces or put him into a bucket full of fried oil?'

But in the end, when Kingston saw the ugly face, his anger became even stronger. Killing him was no torture at all. It was more interesting for Justin to live a life worse than death.

After he thought of the solution, Kingston called Quincy's name coldly.

"Scratch his face, cut off his tongue, and break his teeth. Cut the tendons in his hands and feet, break every one of his ribs. Finally, send him to the Baker Family alive and tell his father that if he dies, I will make the Baker Family disappear completely in the City D overnight."

Lily had been crying just now, but when she heard Kingston's words, her face suddenly turned pale as death.

The air was filled with an unpleasant smell. Justin was so scared that he got incontinent.

He could not say a word. He just looked at Kingston, with eyes empty and lifeless. He thought that Kingston was terrifying, like a devil from hell.

"As for Lily, since she likes to help others, let her stay in this place forever to please others."

"Yes, Mr. Irwin."

Quincy was not surprised at such vicious punishment. Mr. Irwin was no longer a reserved person four years ago when he acted in the character of a gentleman and never suppressed people with power.

Moreover, Justin wanted to touch Ms. Compton. If they came a little later, no one knew what would happen to Ms. Compton.

In fact, working for Kingston for so long, it was the first time that Quincy had executed such an order. He was also a little afraid in his heart.

But Quincy thought, 'Mr. Irwin is really ruthless'.

He quickly took these two people away, while Kingston held Krista tightly in his arms.

Her wrists and ankles were tied to bleed, and her snow—white skin was turning green and purple. Kingston looked at her with remorse and heartache.

Kingston was here to socialize today, but unexpectedly he saw a familiar figure enter the room.

He could not conclude anything because he did not see the face at all and just saw her back.

He only had some doubts. But the next second, when he turned and went down the stairs, his heart suddenly hurt, as if something was pulled out of his chest by the force.

He realized something and rushed back in a hurry, running across Lily.

Lily proudly held a man and was not in a hurry to leave.

Kingston knew her because she had been making things difficult for Krista.

He realized that something was wrong and immediately asked Quincy to catch her, and quickly knew what had happened.
