

Chapter 666

Qin Ming heard that Mu Xiaoqiao had dragged him up to the party, which turned out to be another Sun family party.

And he had already promised Nie Haitang, so this was not a good deal.

Looking at Qin Ming's hesitant look, Mu Xiaoqiao asked, "What? You don't want to? My dad and my grandfather are coming too. It seems that my sister has also come to the capital city and will also attend."

Qin Ming knew that Mu Sichen was in Beijing to participate in the show, but that wasn't what he was worried about.

Qin Ming thought about it and said, "But I still have some things to do now, so why don't I come and pick you up at eight o'clock?"

Mu Xiaoqiao said, "Eight o'clock? The party starts at seven. But forget it, if you have something to do, I'll just wait for you. Then say yes, no cheating."

Qin Ming promised, "No problem, but I have to be Zhao Zhengyin. You have to remember to cover for my identity when the time comes."

Qin Ming accompanied Mu Xiaoqiao for a while longer, and the two of them looked like a newlywed couple, buying some clothes to make Qin Ming look more formally dressed.

However, Mu Xiaoqiao couldn't move her legs when she passed a wedding dress shop.

She looked at the beautiful wedding dresses on the window and her eyes glowed since.

The shrewd saleswoman, immediately went forward and said, "Miss, you can try it on if you like. No money."

Mu Xiaoqiao recalled that in the past, she had married Qin Ming for the sake of her wedding, and at that time, she had casually bought a wedding dress of several hundred dollars, which did not look good at all, and as a result, it had now become a great regret for her.

In her heart, she still longed for a reunion with Qin Ming, who would finally choose her and then wear a wedding dress again, wear the most beautiful one and be the most beautiful bride.

Mu Xiaoqiao stole a glance at Qin Ming.

The corners of Qin Ming's mouth twitched and he said, "Just buy it if you like it. I'm not short of money now. Waiter, how much is it? Buy it!"

The female shop assistant was overjoyed and said, "Sir, this is the latest model in the shop, with an original price of eighteen hundred and eighty-eight thousand."

Mu Xiaoqiao looked at Qin Ming's bravado and bristled, "I know you're not short of money, you're short of a wife. I promised you that I would give you time, don't forget it."

Qin Ming's heart was warmed, Mu Xiao Qiao was sacrificing for him, she was such a good woman and still willing to wait for him, Qin Ming was very touched inside.

The two of them shopped for more than an hour, Qin Ming spent more than two million dollars and bought a lot of luxury goods for Mu Xiao Qiao, which kind of made her happy.

Afterwards, Mu Xiaoqiao returned to her flat to wait for Qin Ming to pick her up again at eight o'clock.

Before she left, Mu Xiaoqiao suddenly went up and hugged him, then raised her neck to give Qin Ming a kiss on the lips and said quietly, "I'll wait for you."

Then shyly, she went upstairs.

A double entendre, Qin Ming looked at Mu Xiao Qiao's distant back, and his heart was tossed in waves.

He felt that Mu Xiao Qiao had changed, no longer the high and cold queenly demeanour, becoming more gentle than before, and also more proactive, going to see the wedding dress just now was perhaps a hint to him.

"Oops, I'm really a slag." Qin Ming laughed at himself helplessly, "I'm already scum, what can I do."

Qin Ming had just returned to school when Nie Haitang's call arrived.

"Where are you, Qin Ming?" Nie Haitang asked in a petulant manner, "I'm at your dormitory door, and there's no response to my knock.

Qin Ming said, "Oh oh oh, I'll be right back. Let's go to the hotel now, right?"

Nie Haitang said, "It's still early. Wait, I need to buy some jewellery, you can go with me."

The two met at the school entrance and Nie Haitang put a mask on Qin Ming when she saw him.

Qin Ming asked, "What for?"

Nie Haitang bristled, hugged Qin Ming's arm and snuggled up to him, saying, "It covers your face, so you won't be afraid to run into Zhao Zhengyan's acquaintances. I'll be able to hug you. I haven't seen you lately."

Qin Ming smiled, Nie Haitang's smile was so sweet that it could melt an iceberg, and he was very touched that after all the storms she had been through, Nie Haitang was still by his side.

Qin Ming said, "By the way, Haitang. Why don't we get to the banquet earlier? Doesn't it start at seven? We'll go at six, how about that?"

Nie Haitang said; "Eh? Why so early? But it's good, you're afraid that people will find out, right? Well, that's right, let's keep a low profile. Now let's go buy some jewellery."

Nie Haitang drove, but instead of her old luxury car, Martha, she replaced it with a more mid-range Volkswagen.

Qin Ming said, "Haitang, this car doesn't fit your status. Let me give you a Ferrari."

Nie Haitang shook her head and said, "It's just a car, it's good to get around. I don't want you to spend money for me. This is my brother's car. You gave me a lot of money before, and I gave it all to my brother to start his business. To say the least, without you, our family would not be having a good time now."

Qin Ming said, "So is your mother looking at me in the right way yet?"

Speaking of Zhang Yao, that was the main culprit in causing Qin Ming and Nie Haitang's separation, because of Zhang Yao's snobbishness and the many tragedies that resulted from her efforts to get Nie Haitang to climb into a wealthy family.

Nie Haitang sighed and said, "Mum has gone back home to Hai City. I haven't seen my mother for months. However, what Ma did was really bad. Let's not talk about her, Qin Ming, I saw a wedding dress that I so want to try on."

After saying this, Nie Haitang looked at Qin Ming intentionally or unintentionally, she was hinting at Qin Ming.

She knew that Qin Ming must be choosing between her and Mu Xiaoqiao, she would not easily admit defeat and arrange for everything.

What could Qin Ming do? Today, her two most important women at the same time have both hinted at him with their wedding dresses. He had no other choice but to play dumb.

It wasn't long before Nie Haitang led Qin Ming to the wedding dress shop that Mu Xiaoqiao had just looked at.

It was still the same female shopper from earlier, she looked at Qin Ming, and not long after she came over with two different, yet both very beautiful girls, also with weird expressions.

"That gentleman, you wore a mask, clothes and shoes, even the hairstyle has not changed, I still recognize it ah." The female guide said, "You're really blessed then, huh huh."

Qin Ming snapped out his bank card and said, "All right, buy the most expensive set. Less talking."

"Many thanks, sir." The female shopper's eyes lit up, on the same day, the same person sold two pieces of the most expensive set, her commission was quite a lot.

Nie Haitang, however, was shocked, "Eh? Qin Ming I'm just trying it on, this wedding dress is very expensive, it costs more than 100,000."

More than 100,000 is expensive?

Qin Ming felt that Nie Haitang had changed. In the past, for a rich girl like Nie Haitang, she would not say that it was expensive at all, but now she was actually a bit reluctant to save money for Qin Ming.

Qin Ming looked at Nie Haitang smiling at him as she tried on her wedding dress, which could be described as beautiful.

Inside, Qin Ming was having an increasingly difficult time deciding.

He knew that both women were hinting at him, both were fighting for him, but the more this happened, the harder it was for him to give up either one of them.

When Nie Haitang was trying on her wedding dress, the female guide said, "Sir, please keep your card. But sir, please don't blame me for talking too much, as a woman, I would also like to say a few words for the two girls you brought with you. They both have, I can see in their eyes, pure love for you. I hope that sir will not hurt them."

Qin Ming froze and laughed at himself, "Even you can see that I am a scum?"

The female guide said, "No, no, no, I don't know your past, I can't judge arbitrarily. But I can also see that the way you look at them, sir, is also full of love. It's just that again, as women, they all want to marry the man they love. And you have a choice. I just hope that when you choose one of them, sir, you try not to hurt the other one."

Qin Ming said bitterly in his heart, "Why do I not think so?
What a rich man's trouble."
