

Full-Level Rich Daughter Makes a Strong Comeback

- Chapter 1

Chapter 1

Rebirth and Return

She actually returned.

Sitting on the bed, Ye Leng'an was a little dazed. Looking at the familiar yet unfamiliar environment around her, she couldn't tell if it was real or just an illusion.

This was a luxurious yet stylish room. The room was decorated in blue and white. It was simple and elegant, revealing a hint of luxury. Although the furnishings in the room were simple, one could tell that they were expensive.

From this, it could be seen that the owner of this room really had good taste.

Ye Leng'an was no stranger to this room. This was her room in the Ye family.

No, to be precise, this was the room she stayed before Ye Xiyuan returned. After Ye Xiyuan returned to the Ye Family, Ye Leng'an moved out, and Ye Xiyuan moved into this room and renovated it.

Instead, Ye Leng'an moved into the guest room, like an outsider living in the Ye family. In fact, she was indeed an outsider in this so-called family.

She used to be the eldest daughter of the Ye family, but on the eve of her sixteenth birthday, an accident shattered the peace of her life.

Lin Wanqin, the matriarch of the Ye family, had a car accident and needed a blood transfusion from her family. After the blood testing, Ye Leng'an found that her blood type did not match those of her parents. In other words, she was not the daughter of the Ye family at all.

Looking at this once unfamiliar yet familiar place, she maintained a state of inner peace.

If she was reborn immediately after her first life, she might be very excited and want to take revenge and seek justice for herself. However, after spending so many years in the cultivation world, she was very calm at this moment.

Of course, this did not mean that she could completely forgive and forget what had happened in the past. After so many years, she still remembered everything clearly, including her tragic death.

Ye Leng'an looked up at the calendar and remained silent.

If she remembered correctly, today was the day Ye Xiyuan returned to the Ye family!

Previously, after Ye Xiyuan returned to the Ye Family, Ye Leng'an planned to leave this place. After all, Ye Leng'an knew very well that she had occupied Ye Xiyuan's position for so long. If she continued to stay, it would not be good for anyone.

However, Ye Xiyuan kept asking Ye Leng'an to stay and even asked her parents to persuade Ye Leng'an, and told her that they could be good sisters.

Ye Leng'an was reluctant to part with her adoptive parents. Also, since Ye Xiyuan repeatedly persuaded her to stay, she chose to stay in the end.

However, she did not expect that her choice of staying would be the beginning of her nightmare. She was constantly framed by Ye Xiyuan, but everyone was on Ye Xiyuan's side. They thought that she kept targeting Ye Xiyuan because she felt that her position was threatened.

No one believed her. Everyone thought that she was vain and that was why she didn't want to leave the Ye family.

At last, she was chased out of the Ye family in a sorry state.

However, that was not the end of the story. Even after she was kicked out, Ye Xiyuan did not let her off. In the end, she died after all her bone marrow was taken out, because Ye Xiyuan had leukemia, and her bone marrow was the perfect match.

She was kidnapped by Ye Xiyuan's admirer, her bone marrow was drawn, and she died on the operating table.

Ye Leng'an flipped over and stood up.

She closed her eyes and sensed it.

When she opened her eyes again, they were filled with joy. She raised her hand with her palm facing up. With a thought, a cluster of golden and black flames leaped between her palms.

The Netherworld Hellfire was her flame of life.

She did not expect that her flame of life followed her here when she returned to this world. Moreover, just now, she actually felt the existence of her spiritual energy.

Most importantly, she realized that her cultivation base did not completely disappear. Although it regressed quite a bit, she could still improve it.

“Miss, Mr. and Mrs. Ye want you downstairs.”

Just as Ye Leng’an was still immersed in her joy, there was a knock on the door.
