

Full-Level Rich Daughter Makes a Strong Comeback

Chapter 12

Yuan Silei

“Yes!” Ye Leng’an nodded. “However, I don’t have the time right now.”

She did not mind forming a good relationship with him. Besides, this old man was also a kind person. Saving him could be considered a good deed. His heart disease could only be solved through surgery, but the old man was too old. Normally doctors did not dare to operate on him because they were afraid that the old man would not be able to get off the operating table.

However, this was only a small matter to her. As an alchemist, it was essential to master medical skills.

“I can wait.” His eyes lit up when hearing that. “We can exchange contact details. You can help me whenever you’re free.”

He didn’t know why he trusted her without question. Perhaps it was because of her imposing aura, or her indifferent temperament. Moreover, given the current situation, this little girl probably really had such an ability.

After exchanging phone numbers with the old man, Ye Leng’an finally knew his name, Chen Kang.

“Miss Ye, you can contact me any time when you’re free.” Chen Kang said, “I’ll always be waiting for you.”

“I have some other things to deal with, so I don’t have the time recently.” Ye Leng’an thought for a moment and said, “I’ll start treating you half a month later. However, let me make it clear in advance. If you want me to treat you, that’ll cost a lot.”

She could save his life today for the sake of his merit, but this did not mean that she would treat him for free. Moreover, it was obvious that he was rich. She was really a pauper now, so she would not let go of such an opportunity to make money.

The next morning, Ye Leng’an walked out of the police station with a household register in her hand and a faint smile on her face.

The best thing was that she had finally moved her household registration out of the Ye family. Her surname on the household register also changed, no longer the Ye of Ye Li. In the future, she would have nothing to do with that Ye family.

When she thought about this, even her footsteps became lighter.

However, even though she no longer had anything to do with the wealthy Ye family, it didn't mean that her grudge against Ye Xiyuan was written off. She had to take revenge for her death. Moreover, she didn't think that Ye Xiyuan would let her off.

At this moment, her phone rang. She glanced at it, her expression a little dazed. The caller was her good friend, Yuan Silei. However, this good friend later became Ye Xiyuan's good friend and stood on Ye Xiyuan's side to condemn her.

"Hello, Silei?" There was an unreadable look in her eyes, but her tone was the same as usual. "What's the matter?"

She had mixed feelings about Yuan Silei. They used to be best friends. They had known each other since kindergarten and had been good friends for more than ten years.

But her best friend stood on the opposite side of her in the end. But Yuan Silei saved her once without Ye Xiyuan's knowledge.

So, she did not have much resentment toward Yuan Silei. But there was no way to maintain the friendship without any grudges.

Of course, they hadn't fallen out yet, so her attitude couldn't change too much.

"Leng'an, where are you now?" Yuan Silei sounded worried. "Is there anything you have to deal with? Why didn't you show up in class today?"
