

Full-Level 151

Chapter 151: Falling Down 3

Instantly, everyone turned to look at Ye Leng'an while waiting in readiness, constantly on guard against any tricks she might play.

"Looks like you finally understood!" Ye Leng'an continued to sit there, looking calm and collected. "I'm curious about what exactly is going on with your village. Also, do you all raise Gu worms?"

Actually, she was most interested in Gu worms. As a doctor, she did not know much about Gu worms, so she wanted to find out. Of course, she was also very curious as to why the people in this village could not leave.

"Do you know that?" Duo Ji's eyes widened. When he looked at Ye Leng'an, his eyes became more vigilant. "What's your purpose for coming to our village?"

After thinking through everything, when they looked at Ye Leng'an again, they no longer saw her as a mere sacrifice and their prey.

"You don't need to know my motive." Ye Leng'an smiled and shook her head.

"You just need to know that you can't do anything to me today. However, at this point, I'm afraid there's no way for us to have a good talk."

After saying that, Ye Leng'an stood up with the dagger in her hand. She looked at the people in the village with emotionless eyes as if these people were nobody in her eyes.

Duo Ji smiled disdainfully. "I thought you had some backup plan! So that was all! You can't be so naive as to think that you can escape from here alone today, right?"

Seeing Ye Leng'an's confident look earlier, he thought that she had some other arrangement, which was why she was so calm. Now, it seemed that she wanted to leave this place all by herself. Haha, this was simply a joke.

No matter how powerful Ye Leng'an was, it was impossible for her to escape.

"Whether I can leave, we will know after I give it a try, right?" Ye Leng'an laughed coldly. "Even if I can't escape today, I'll be considered lucky to kill some people, won't I?"

At this point, Ye Leng'an looked at Duo Ji and the other four elders. "Perhaps, I should kill the few of you first. When they are leaderless, my chances of escaping will be even higher, right?"

Hearing this, Duo Ji and the four elders' expressions changed drastically. They immediately stood together. Then, Duo Ji took out a small piccolo from his pocket and began to play.

Ye Leng'an tightened her grip on the dagger in her hand when hearing the sharp voice. She was also observing the surroundings carefully.

Not long after, she heard the hissing noises. Then, she saw many snakes, insects, rats, and ants gathering in the direction of the altar where she was sitting. Moreover, these were not ordinary creatures. They seemed to be all poisonous.

From this move, she was certain that the people here definitely raised Gu worms. Moreover, Duo Ji was probably one of the best. No wonder he could sit firmly in the position of tribe leader.

Although she wasn't afraid of these things, she still couldn't help but get goosebumps when she saw the solid mass of poisonous creatures. She felt that after what happened today, she might get clusterphobia.

The people in this village obviously did not intend to let her leave. Or rather, they were already numb to such things! After all, many young girls had died here.

Since that was the case, there was no need for her to show mercy. The people in this village could not be left alive. Otherwise, even if Duo Ji and the four elders died, there would still be others to replace them. At that time, those girls who entered this place by mistake would definitely die here if they were chosen.

Such a sinful place should be eliminated.

Ye Leng'an's eyes turned cold when she thought about this. She waved her hand, and her flame of life appeared and directly burned all the snakes, insects, rats, and ants that surrounded her.

In just an instant, the crowded poisonous creatures completely disappeared. With a gust of wind, they directly dissipated, leaving only a faint burning smell.

Ye Leng'an's move shocked Duo Ji and the others greatly. Their originally confident expressions had also changed. When they looked at her, there was shocks in their expressions..

Chapter 152: Falling Down 4

"Who exactly are you?" The Great Elder stepped forward. "Are you a super-power? A fire superpower?"

Although he had been trapped in this place, the Great Elder still vaguely knew a little about the outside world. Therefore, when he saw the flames that suddenly appeared, the first thing he thought of was the super-powers.

"It's none of your business." Ye Lengan's expression was cold. "However, you've done so many heartless things, today is your day of reckoning."

At this moment, Duo Ji and the elders looked at each other and nodded.

Ye Leng'an was a little surprised by their actions, and a sense of danger flashed through her mind. However, before she could do anything, a big hole appeared in the ground and she immediately fell down.

However, when she fell, a black figure seemed to follow her down the hole.

Before Duo Ji and the others could see anything clearly, the big hole in the ground disappeared again and the ground returned to its original state, as if nothing had happened.

“Who was that person who went down with her?” The Second Elder frowned, his expression ambiguous. “Is the person the one who came with her?”

“Probably not.” Duo Ji shook his head. “Those people have all been locked up. It’s impossible for them to show up here at this time.

“Forget it. No matter who he is, he won’t be able to survive if he falls with her.” The Great Elder shook his head. “There’s no need to tie ourselves in knots over a dead person. However, today’s sacrifice rite may not be able to continue.”

The rite would definitely not be able to continue. Now that the sacrifice had disappeared, how could it continue?

“That’s really a pity.” The Third Elder stroked his beard, his tone full of regret. “Ye Leng’an is the most suitable sacrifice in all these years. If the rite had been held tonight) the curse of our village might have been broken by now.”

Everyone quieted down immediately hearing his words. After the accident, everyone was in low spirits. Originally, they came here with high hopes. But now, it all came to nothing. The more hope they had just now, the more disappointed they were now.

“There’s nothing we can do about it.” The Second Elder sighed, “Ye Leng’an clearly came prepared. She’s not an ordinary person either. If we really have a head-on confrontation with her, who knows how many casualties there will be in our village tonight? Moreover, I’m afraid that we will not be able to catch her in the end. It will be all in vain.”

Of course, the most important thing was that if they really had a fight, the elders standing on the altar would be the first to be injured or even lose their lives.

Although they were not young anymore, they still cherished their lives.

Therefore, without hesitation, they chose such a way to save themselves. “Second Elder is right.” At this moment, the Fourth Elder also stood up and said, “If we really let Ye Leng’an start a massacre here, who knows what will happen to our village? This is the best solution now.”

The villagers on the empty ground below naturally saw what happened on the altar. They were somewhat unconvinced by the actions of the patriarch and the few elders. After all, Ye Leng’an had been the most suitable sacrifice for so many years. She was also their greatest hope. Since she had disappeared, they definitely felt displeased.

However, when faced with the patriarch and the four elders, they could only accept it.

Besides, the patriarch and the four elders had such high status not only because they were old and respected. Most importantly, their poisonous magic was definitely the best, so they could get the recognition of the villagers. Since they had already decided, the villagers could only obey.

Moreover, in the end) no one was not afraid of death. If they really lost their lives because of Ye Lengan's killing, it wouldn't be worth it. Although they couldn't get out of this place, they were unwilling to pay the price of their lives. After all, if they died, everything would be empty talk.

"What about those people?" The Elder Four Zhan asked, "I mean the people who came with Ye Leng'an. If they make it out alive, it will be a fatal blow to our village."

Although he didn't know who Ye Leng'an and Huangfu Ruiling really were, he knew they didn't look simple. They had completely offended her today. If they really let Ye Leng'an and her group off, they would definitely be retaliated against.

After thinking for a moment, Duo Ji said) "Huangfu Ruiling should not be an ordinary person. I think if he can listen to us, it will definitely be a good thing for us."

"You mean, to poison Huangfu Ruiling with Gu?" The Great Elder immediately understood Duo Ji's meaning. "But this person doesn't look simple. Can we really control him?"

"Great Elder, I have absolute confidence in Gu worms." Duo Ji's face was full of confidence. "As long as we can control Huangfu Ruiling with the Gu worms and make him work for us, it won't be so difficult to find the next sacrifice!"

This was a method that he had suddenly thought of. Ye Lengan had fallen down, so it was impossible for her to come out alive. Moreover, there was definitely no exit to that place.

If they continued to wait like this for the arrival of the next sacrifice, they did not know how long it would take. They did not even know if they could wait for it in their lifetime.

However, with Huangfu Ruiling's help, it would be different. There were so many people outside. With Huangfu Ruiling's identity, it was absolutely easy to find a suitable person. As long as they could find one, they could start the rite again.

Most importantly, if a candidate was not suitable, they could find a second one. They could try a few more times until they finally succeeded.

After they heard Duo Ji's words, the eyes of the four elders lit up. Obviously, they agreed with this method. At the same time, they felt extremely excited. The disappointment they felt from losing Ye Leng'an as a sacrifice disappeared.

The Great Elder directly made a decision. "Those people will be locked up first.

From today onwards, the four of us will assist the patriarch in refining the Puppet Gu that can control Huangfu Ruiling as soon as possible."

The others did not have any objections.

Soon, the crowd dispersed. However, after knowing that there was a better way, everyone felt much better..

Chapter 153: The Origin of the Curse 1

“You, how did you...” Ye Leng’an’s eyes popped with amazement. She was obviously shocked.

Just now, she didn’t expect that she would fail miserably in an easy task. Initially, she did not take those people seriously. Who knew that there was actually a trap on the sacrificial altar? Before she could react, she had already fallen.

However, although she was a little surprised by this sudden change, she quickly reacted and did not panic too much.

However, when she landed on the ground and saw the person standing opposite her, she could not hide her shock. Because the person standing in front of her was not anyone else but Huangfu Ruiling.

All this while, she had always seen Huangfu Ruiling sitting in a wheelchair. Now she suddenly saw him standing in front of her, one could imagine the shock she felt. Moreover, as a doctor, she didn’t find that Huangfu Ruiling’s legs were fine.

“If you can stand up, why are you always in a wheelchair?” She couldn’t help but ask the question in her heart, “There’s nothing wrong with your legs?”

Compared to Ye Leng’an who was very wound up, Huangfu Ruiling was exceptionally calm. “I never said that there was something wrong with my legs. I’m only in a wheelchair because it’s more convenient for some things.” After hearing that, Ye Lengan also silently digested this matter and did not ask too much. Because she was very clear that if he really wanted to say it, he would say it directly and not keep her in suspense. Now that he didn’t want to talk about it, she naturally wouldn’t ask. After all, she had always felt that their relationship was not that good. However...

“Why did you follow me down?” She asked curiously, “Also, when did you come?”

She didn’t notice he was around. If he had shown himself up, she would not have noticed it either. Ever since she was reborn, she had never relaxed for a moment. It was all to make herself stronger. She always felt that she was considered a survivor in this world.

However, Huangfu Ruiling made her recognize the fact that there was always someone stronger and better. He was stronger than her. This was something she had to admit. However, this would not be a blow to her. Instead, it would make her more motivated.

However, looking at Huangfu Ruiling who was standing there, she couldn’t help but sigh. He was really like a jade, having an unparalleled striking appearance in the world!

When sitting in a wheelchair, he was already a peerless existence. Now that he was standing up, coupled with his white clothes, he had lost his usual commanding manner and had an additional gentleness.

He didn’t answer her question. Instead, he looked around and said, “Let’s take a look at where we are first!”

She didn’t continue asking but started to look around.

At this moment, they seemed to be in a tunnel. There were stone walls all around, and they could not see where the exit was.

Without any hesitation, the two of them began to walk down the road.

After taking a few steps, she seemed to have kicked something. Because the tunnel was completely dark, she directly invoked her own flame of life, regardless of whether Huangfu Ruiling was beside her. Because she felt that when he was in the dark, he might have seen everything and naturally he also saw the flame of her life. Since he already knew, there was nothing to hide.

Just as she expected, after seeing the flame of her life, he was so calm that he did not even move his eyebrows as if this was something very normal.

As soon as the flames appeared, the entire tunnel was illuminated. At this moment, she finally saw what she just kicked down. It was a pile of white bones.

After seeing the pile of bones on the ground, even someone as calm as Ye Leng'an couldn't help but gasp. Because right where they were standing, there were many skeletons. Roughly speaking, there were at least more than twenty people.

Chapter 154: The Origin of the Curse 2

She knew what was going on even without asking. Obviously, these bones were the sacrifices that had been chosen. After they became sacrifices and their blood was drained, the elders immediately activated the trap and let the corpses slide into the tunnel.

Ye Leng'an squatted down and examined the bones. She couldn't help but say, "The villagers are indeed worse than beasts. These bones belong to young girls."

She was a doctor, so she could tell who these people were from these bones. Previously, she knew that the villagers wanted to choose pure girls as sacrifices. She just didn't expect that so many innocent girls had died here. Moreover, instead of being buried after death, they were casually thrown into this tunnel.

"The people here have been trapped for too long and have long lost their conscience as humans." Huangfu Ruiling frowned. "I don't know where they got the method to break the curse. They actually use so many girls as sacrifices."

"Unfortunately, they have been trapped here for generations." Ye Leng'an said with a sneer, "They deserve it. After committing so many murders, it is simply wishful thinking to want to leave this place."

Although she did not know what the so-called curse of this village was, and why the people here could not leave for generations. However, just by looking at how many innocent people they had killed, it was obvious that these people deserved to be trapped here. Moreover, she did not believe that using some pure girl as a sacrifice could break the curse. If that was really the case, then the person who cast the curse was not a good person.

"There are so many skeletons here. How did they come here?" Huangfu Ruiling frowned. "If they really came here by mistake, there wouldn't be so many people!"

“The villagers will find a way.” There was a hint of mockery on Ye Leng’an’s cold face. “I think they’re not thinking about leaving. They’re thinking about how to lure people in!”

“Let’s continue walking!” Huangfu Ruiling shook his head and said, “When we get out, let someone come in to deal with the bones here! It is time to let these people rest in peace.”

The two of them continued to walk forward. The flame was like a lamp, brightening their path.

“Look...” Ye Leng’an suddenly noticed something. She pointed at the wall and said, “Take a look. Is this a mural on the wall?”

Hearing her exclamation, Huangfu Ruiling took a closer look. “Yes, it is. Also, the mural seems to be depicting the history of this village.”

She also began to read it carefully after hearing his speculation. “It seems to be true. It is indeed the secret of this village. They are really unable to leave here for generations. And the reason behind this is actually because of the curse!” She had only heard of curses and had never been exposed to them before. She did not expect them to actually exist. When she heard that everyone in the village was cursed, she was a little skeptical.

However, after seeing the mural, she finally understood what was going on. At the same time, she could not help but sigh again. They did deserve it.

“No wonder the people here are so crazy! They’re rotten from the roots.” Her lips curled into a sarcastic smile. “Their ancestors committed such a sin, bringing disasters to their descendants. And their descendants continued the killing in order to break the curse. This is simply a vicious cycle!”

Three hundred years ago, this place was just an ordinary village in the southern boundaries. However, there was something special, the people in this village all knew how to refine Gu. However, they could only refine some simple Gu worms. As for the Gu Kings, forget about them.

The days passed peacefully until an ambitious tribe leader appeared in their village. The tribe leader was called Duo Benli. Ever since he became the patriarch, he had always wanted to surpass the other villages and make their village become the number one in the southern boundaries.

However, having ambition was one thing, whether it could be realized was another. Although Duo Benli was very ambitious, if he wanted to make the village strong, he needed even more powerful Gu skills..

Chapter 155: The Origin of the Curse 3

At that time, the people of the southern boundaries all prioritized Gu techniques. Only by refining the Gu King would they have a chance to defeat the people from the other villages. However, let alone the Gu King, they could not even refine a stronger Gu.

After all, this Gu refinement technique was not innate, it was passed down from generation to generation. No one in their village knew how to refine a Gu King.

Although the reality was cruel, Duo Benli didn't give up. The turning point happened when he was 25 years old.

That year, a girl suddenly came to the village. This girl called Su Yin was beautiful and generous, and most importantly, she was very good at refining Gu worms. No one knew where she came from, but everyone knew that she had the Golden Gu King.

The Golden Gu King could almost be said to be a god-like existence respected by the Gu worms. Since Su Yin had the Golden Gu King, she could be considered invincible in the entire southern boundaries.

The moment Duo Benli saw Su Yin, he fell in love with her. It was not only because of her beauty, but also because of her lively, cheerful, strong, and independent personality. Of course, the most important thing was that her powerful strength made him even more tempted.

Duo Benli was handsome and could be considered the most handsome man in the entire southern boundaries. Under his vigorous pursuit, Su Yin quickly agreed to marry him.

The stupendous wedding of a handsome man and a beautiful woman was a great event in the southern boundaries at that time. The tribe leaders of other villages all came to congratulate him. Of course, there were some who were unconvinced. After all, there were many people who liked Su Yin. However, due to Su Yin's strength, no one dared to cause trouble.

After the marriage, Su Yin started to focus on assisting Duo Benli and taking steps in the direction of unifying the southern boundaries.

In order to increase the strength of the village, Su Yin did not hide anything.

She dedicated everything she had learned in her life to the people in the village. Soon, the Gu refinement skills of the people in the village became more and more amazing.

Later, under the leadership of Duo Benli and Su Yin, the village annexed many other villages and became stronger.

In just a short dozen years, Duo Benli had ruled over almost half of the southern boundaries.

If this continued, it would be just a matter of time before the entire southern boundaries were unified. Unfortunately, no matter how beautiful the oath was, it could not survive the passing of time. After having a taste of power, Duo Benli started swelling with pride.

No matter how beautiful Su Yin's face was, after more than ten years, he grew sick of the sight of it. In addition, over the years, in order to help Duo Benli, Su Yin had been feeding the Golden Gu King with her own blood, which accelerated her aging. Moreover, because of the excessive blood loss, her body also suffered serious damage, and she was unable to give birth.

At this moment, a person appeared. She was a delicate and pitiful girl called Lian Yi.

Unlike Su Yin who was powerful, Lian Yi looked like a weak girl. If Su Yin was a towering tree standing alone between heaven and earth, then Lian Yi was just a Cuscuta chinensis that latched onto a tree. She was vulnerable and beautiful, making people want to protect her.

Naturally, Duo Benli was also attracted by this woman. At this moment, he had long forgotten the oath of eternal love and the help that Su Yin had given him over the years. He was eager to take Lian Yi as his concubine.

That was right. Although he liked Lian Yi, he knew that he couldn't let Lian Yi be his wife. Firstly, Lian Yi's weakness meant that she could only rely on him, but she couldn't bear the burden of being the mistress. Secondly, Su Yin did not do anything wrong after all, so he could not divorce his wife so easily.

Duo Benli had planned it very well and also believed that the generous Su Yin would definitely agree. However, he didn't expect that when he said he wanted to take a concubine, Su Yin would reject him. She even said that if that was the case, she would divorce and leave.

Although he was unwilling to admit it, he knew very well that Su Yin had played a huge role in making the village strong and unifying the southern boundaries. It could even be said that if he lost Su Yin and the Golden Gu King, everything he had worked so hard for over the years might immediately disappear.

After that, Duo Benli no longer mentioned taking a concubine, but he didn't stop his secret relationship with Lian Yi.

Chapter 156: The Origin of the Curse 4

Lian Yi was already unhappy that she could only be a concubine. Now that Su Yin didn't even let her in, making her a kept woman that was only hidden in the closet, the hatred in her heart could be imagined. Of course, she didn't hate Duo Benli, but Su Yin.

In her opinion, it was all because of Su Yin's shrewish and unreasonable behavior that made her an existence that could not be seen in the light. Therefore, whenever she had the chance, she would speak ill of Su Yin in his ears.

The power of pillow talk was still very strong. As time went on, Duo Benli's dissatisfaction with Su Yin also grew. He even felt that Su Yin kept suppressing him by relying on the Golden Gu King.

Finally, Duo Benli made his move. A great man had to be ruthless. Not only did he want the Golden Gu King, but he also wanted Su Yin's life. Because he knew his wife very well, and he also knew that if he didn't get rid of Su Yin, she wouldn't let him off in the future.

Therefore, taking advantage of Su Yin's trust in him, he directly poisoned her food.

Actually, when he suggested taking a concubine, Su Yin had already been on guard. She knew very well that he was afraid of the Golden Gu King in her hands, so he would definitely think of a way to cheat her out of the Golden Gu King. She had also been on guard, but she did not expect that Duo Benli was so ruthless. Not only did he want the Golden Gu King, but he also wanted her life.

After discovering that she was poisoned, Su Yin didn't struggle much or even curse out loud. Instead, she just looked at Duo Benli quietly. There was an indescribable emotion in her eyes, but it was so strange that it made his hair stand on end.

Meeting Su Yin's gaze, Duo Benli could not help but feel scared. However, he still stood there firmly, looking at Su Yin with a hint of ruthlessness in his eyes. "Don't blame me. Blame yourself. You are just a woman, but you are so powerful. Everyone says that you should take credit for my achievement today.

As long as you are alive, no one will be able to see my efforts. So, go to hell! Only when you die will those people know that even without you, I can still unify the southern boundaries."

By the end of his sentence, his eyes had already turned red, as if he was venting his dissatisfaction.

Over the years, as the village grew stronger, his mind had long changed. He couldn't accept that he had always been suppressed by a woman. He didn't want to listen to the discussions of those people outside that his current achievements were all because of women. Since he had long been strongly dissatisfied with Su Yin, the appearance of Lian Yi was just a fuse.

"Hahaha..." Instead of getting angry, Su Yin laughed until tears came out. "I never thought that as a clever woman, my downfall was a man, my husband. Sure enough, love is not worth my trust! Duo Benli, without me, do you think you can continue to rule half of the southern boundaries?"

Su Yin looked at Duo Benli with disdain. She felt that she had been blind to fall for such an ingrate! He had nothing good other than a pretty face.

"I will unify the entire southern boundaries and become the only ruler, the only king."

Meeting Su Yin's disdainful gaze, he could not control the bloodlust in his heart. He reached out and pinched Su Yin's chin forcefully. He gritted his teeth and said, "It's a pity that you won't be able to see such a grand occasion."

Blood kept flowing out of Su Yin's mouth, and her consciousness began to blur. In the end, she took a deep breath and said with all her might, "Duo Benli, I curse you in the name of the descendants of the Sorcerer Tribe, the entire village to be trapped in this small place for generations to come. From today onwards, anyone in the village who is over 20 years old will immediately die as soon as they are 100 meters away from the village."

Soon after, Su Yin breathed her last under Duo Benli's horrified gaze.

After Su Yin passed away, the entire village could only be trapped here for generations. Of course, there were also some who did not believe in evil and wanted to leave. However, none of them survived after that.

However, the people in the village could still leave, but they had to rush back before their 20th birthday. Otherwise, the 20th birthday would become the death anniversary.

After looking through all the murals, Ye Leng'an shook her head with a smile.

"I didn't expect there to be such a melodramatic story! However, I feel that Su Yin was already merciful. She actually allowed these people to leave this village before they turned 20. If it were me, I would make them trapped in this village since they were born."

This explained why there were so many modern technologies in this village. They must have been brought back by those people when they went out before turning 20. However, because there was no signal in the village, there was no communication device.

“You are wrong.” After listening to Ye Leng’an’s words, Huangfu Ruiling shook his head. “After seeing the prosperity outside, they are forced to come back here again. Isn’t that a crueler punishment?”

If they were trapped in this place since they were born, then although they yearned for the outside world, their desire would be limited. However, it would be the cruelest if they had to return to this isolated place at a young age after seeing the outside world.

After seeing the thriving outside world, without having the time to fully enjoy it, they were forced to return to simplicity. Few people could accept such a difference, but they had no choice but to accept it because the price of not accepting it was to lose their lives.

Ye Leng’an immediately understood and nodded her head. “You’re right. It looks like it’s really killing people! Although Su Yin did not kill them, this made them feel worse than death. It was no wonder that these people were trying everything they could to break the curse.”

But that did not mean that these people could kill the innocent. Moreover, in the end, the people in this village were not innocent. It was their ancestors’ fault that they were trapped here. And now, killing so many young girls was their sin.

Huangfu Ruiling continued to look at the murals. “There is no way to break the curse in the murals.. Where did these people get the idea of using sacrifices to break the curse?”

Chapter 157: The Remnant Soul 1

Ye Leng’an also took a closer look. The murals only described the origin of the curse. After Su Yin died and left behind a curse, there was no follow-up.

“It seems like they found out from somewhere else.” Ye Leng’an shook her head.

“However, their method is definitely wrong. How can the curse left behind by a descendant of the Sorcerer Tribe be broken so easily? Moreover, as a descendant of the Sorcerer Tribe, Su Yin would not use such a method to break the curse.”

It was said that the ancient Sorcerer Tribe was the incarnation of Pangu, the ancestor of mankind, so it was absolutely impossible for them to use such a cruel method to break the curse.

However, she didn’t expect Su Yin to be a descendant of the Sorcerer Tribe. No wonder she had such an ability. It was a pity that she met a scumbag like Duo Benli. Otherwise, she would have had a wonderful life.

“Such an evil method to break the curse means the people in this village are not good people.” Huangfu Ruiling said indifferently, “Moreover, they seem not to find such a method to break the curse until the recent hundred years.”

“Forget about it.” Ye Leng’an waved her hand, her tone carrying a hint of interest.

“Compared to this curse, I’m actually more curious about where the Golden Gu King went.”

She had heard about the Golden Gu King from Duo Ji before. However, that was just a hearsay, and she had never seen it. Duo Ji did not release the Golden Gu King just now. And the murals on the wall did not mention the whereabouts of the Golden Gu King.

Duo Benli killed Su Yin for the sake of the Golden Gu King, but from the murals, he did not get the Golden Gu King in the end. That meant that after Su Yin died, the Golden Gu King also disappeared.

“Let’s not dwell on this for now.” Huangfu Ruiling said, “Let’s continue moving forward to see if there’s an exit.”

Although she was a little curious, she was a decisive person. She immediately cast aside her wandering thoughts and walked away.

In the narrow tunnel, the two of them kept walking forward, but they did not see a trace of light, nor did they see any end. If it was an ordinary person, he or she would have a mental breakdown. However, it was obvious that Ye Leng’an and Huangfu Ruiling were not ordinary people. The two of them walked side by side without a trace of anxiety. They looked so calm and relaxed as if they were not walking in a dark and deep tunnel, but taking a leisurely walk in the courtyard.

Finally, after walking for an unknown period of time, a stone wall appeared in front of them. There was no other way.

“What should we do now?” Looking at the stone wall, Ye Leng’an asked tentatively, “Why don’t we smash this wall?”

Since there was no way out, they might as well create one themselves. She felt that this was not a bad choice.

Huangfu Ruiling frowned and looked at her speechlessly. “Are you sure?”

“I’m not sure.” She scratched her head and smiled. “Alright! I was just joking.

After all, the atmosphere was too heavy now. I just wanted to relieve the tension by making a joke!”

An unknown light flickered in Huangfu Ruiling’s eyes when he saw the mischievous look that was rare to be seen on her face. Then, he said, “Alright, let’s not make a scene. This is definitely not the end. There must be a booby trap there. Let’s look for it first!”

She shrugged and didn’t say anything else.

They began to fumble around. Soon, she found a protruding rock.

“Huangfu Ruiling, come and take a look.” Ye Leng’an called out, “Look, this is mobile. Should we try it?”

He came to her side and protected her without leaving a trace. Then, he said,

“You can give it a try.”

She didn’t notice his actions. She pressed down on the stone excitedly, wanting to see what would be waiting for them.

Speaking of which, this was the first time she had encountered such a thing since she returned to this world. She thought it was quite interesting. Of course, she also felt frustrated after failing miserably in a very easy task..

Chapter 158: The Remnant Soul 2

After pressing down on the stone, they waited for a while, but there was no movement.

“Looks like this isn’t the right place.” Ye Leng’an stepped forward and spoke.

“Be careful.”

As soon as she finished speaking, many arrows shot out from all directions. The arrowhead shone coldly, and even with a black sheen.

Huangfu Ruiling reacted quickly and pulled her aside. With a wave of his hand, the arrows rained down on the ground as if they met with obstruction.

Everything happened in an instant and also seemed to end in an instant.

Ye Leng’an was still in a daze, but it wasn’t because of the sudden danger. That kind of danger was child’s play for her. Even if Huangfu Ruiling did not pull her, she could still escape. She was stunned because when she reacted, she found herself in Huangfu Ruiling’s arms.

It was the first time she was held in a man’s arms like this. In her first life, she had only thought about Li Deze, and Li Deze only had Ye Xiyuan in his eyes and heart. In her second life, she was in the cultivation world. It was a world where the strong preyed on the weak. She spent almost all her time on cultivation, so she naturally did not take these matters between men and women to heart. Moreover, she had not met a man who could set her heart aflutter.

Now that Huangfu Ruiling suddenly held her in his arms, she felt that her mind was a little muddled and she could not react. The distance between them was very close. She could even smell the faint cold fragrance coming from his body. She didn’t know what kind of taste it was, but she was mesmerized for a moment.

However, she immediately came back to her senses and pushed him away in a flurry, as if she wanted to hide something.

He felt a sense of loss when she suddenly left him. However, that feeling immediately disappeared. He sorted out his emotions and looked at her. “Are you alright?”

“I’m fine.” She shook her head as if she was trying to get rid of the thoughts that shouldn’t exist in her mind at this moment. She composed herself and walked towards the stone wall, saying, “I didn’t expect that there was such a booby trap here. No wonder Duo Ji directly triggered it and let me fall down! He must think I wouldn’t survive after falling down.”

While she was speaking, she was back to her former self again, as if the ambiguous atmosphere just now had never appeared.

He also came forward and began to look for the mechanism to open the door. "Probably not. I think that although the people in this village knew about such a tunnel, no one ever came down to investigate. In other words, even if someone really comes down, they probably can't go up, so they don't know what is going on in the tunnel."

"Why is that?" She was a little curious as to what he was thinking.

"If the people in this village really came down and went up safely, then the murals here wouldn't be like this."

She immediately understood what he meant. The murals described the history of the village and the source of the curse too clearly. If the people in the village knew about it, they would definitely change them.

Just like how history was written by the victors, everyone would glorify what they had done. Even if it was their own fault, they would say that they were on the righteous side.

Soon, Ye Leng'an found the mechanism. However, she was much more cautious this time. She only activated the mechanism after she was prepared.

Unlike before, after activating the mechanism, there was a loud bang and the door on the wall opened immediately.

Huangfu Ruiling and Ye Leng'an looked at each other and walked in together.

Just as they stepped into the stone door, there was another rumble behind them. The door was closed again.

As the door closed, the originally dark cave immediately lit up. The candles lit up as if they were controlled by someone, illuminating the cave as if it was daytime.

Since it was so bright inside, Leng'an also withdrew the flame of her life..

Chapter 159: The Remnant Soul 3

Huangfu Ruiling and Ye Leng'an didn't stay for long. They soon found their way and continued walking. Along the way, they encountered many booby traps. For ordinary people, these traps were fatal. However, to them, these were all child's play.

After walking for a long time, they arrived at a room. Perhaps it was not appropriate to call it a room. It was just a chamber built with stone walls.

This stone room was obviously a woman's room. Inside, there was a dressing table, and white voile was draped over the antique bed. On the dressing table, there seemed to be some jewelry and rouge.

However, the most eye-catching thing was not the decorations inside. On the antique bed, there seemed to be a crystal coffin. As for whether there was someone in the crystal coffin, it was unknown.

"It's actually a formation!" Ye Leng'an exclaimed, "There's actually a formation around that bed."

It was the formation that blurred their vision, preventing them from seeing clearly what was inside the crystal coffin. Otherwise, with her cultivation, it would be easy for her to find out if there was anyone in the crystal coffin.

After hearing that, Huangfu Ruiling also looked over.

“Wait a moment, let me take a look first to see where the formation core is.”

She stepped forward while talking. She could tell that this formation was not too dangerous. It was purely to blur their vision. Therefore, it was not difficult to break the formation core.

“No need.”

Huangfu Ruiling stopped her and extended his right hand. Immediately after, a blast of black fume shot out from his palm. Suddenly, the temperature in the entire stone room seemed to drop by several degrees, sending a chill in the air. Obviously, the chill came from the black fume from his palm.

The intense and pure black color was almost tangible. Just by looking at it, one could feel the danger of the black fume. It was as if everything in the world would be devoured by it.

At this moment, although Ye Leng’an still looked calm on the surface, her mind was already in turmoil. She could clearly see that Huangfu Ruiling was controlling the murderous aura in his body.

All along, she knew that Huangfu Ruiling had a murderous aura. Previously, he was always sitting in a wheelchair. She thought that his disability was caused by the murderous aura. However, when she saw that he was able to stand up, she dismissed this idea. However, under such circumstances, she did not have the time to think about it.

She did not expect that he was actually controlling the murderous aura in his body. One had to know that if an ordinary person had so much murderous aura, he would probably have already exploded and died. However, Huangfu Ruiling was still safe and sound despite having so much murderous aura in his body. Moreover, he seemed to be able to control it. This was definitely not something an ordinary person could do. She could even say that even in the cultivation world, there was probably no one who could control the murderous aura.

This was because the murderous aura could devour everything in the world, and it was absolutely uncontrollable. If one was not careful, he might be devoured by the murderous aura. Therefore, who dared to think about controlling the murderous aura? She did not expect Huangfu Ruiling to have such an ability. Moreover, the murderous aura in his hand did not show any signs of resistance. Instead, it was as docile as a little white rabbit and didn’t seem dangerous at all.

However, the chill that it sent made people know that it was definitely an existence that could not be underestimated.

But what made her even more surprised was that Huangfu Ruiling actually did this in front of her. Was this trust in her, or was it a deterrent for her?

Huangfu Ruiling didn’t know what she was thinking at the moment. He directly controlled the murderous aura to flood towards the bed.

Soon, the black fume seemed to envelop the entire bed. Then, in just a moment, the black fume ebbed away and returned to his body..

Chapter 160: The Remnant Soul 4

The crystal coffin, which they could not see clearly at first, entirely came into view. Inside it lay a woman in ancient costume.

Ye Leng'an and Huangfu Ruiling stepped forward, and they soon arrived in front of the crystal coffin. Through the transparent crystal, they could clearly see the person inside the crystal coffin.

The woman lying inside was dressed in red. She had stunning features although her eyes were closed. However, it did not affect her appearance at all. It made people look forward to what kind of beauty this woman would be when she opened her eyes.

At this moment, she was lying in the crystal coffin. Although pale-faced, she looked like she was asleep instead of having passed away. The way she was lying there quietly made people fearful of waking her up.

"Who do you think this woman is?" Ye Lengan nudged Huangfu Ruiling with her elbow and said, "Also, don't you think that this tunnel seems a little strange?"

If everything seemed normal before, then it was quite weird now. This crystal coffin seemed to indicate that this was not an ordinary tunnel, but...

"This should be a tomb!" Huangfu Ruiling said directly, "If I'm not wrong, we should be in the main tomb now."

Ye Leng'an nodded, agreeing with his guess.

If it was just a simple tunnel, there wouldn't be so many traps. If this was a tomb, then it would make sense. Obviously, all the mechanisms outside were protecting the crystal coffin in the main tomb. To be exact, it was protecting the person in the crystal coffin.

"Tomb..." An idea flashed into her mind. She remembered the murals she saw at the beginning, and then she had a bold guess. "Do you think the person in the crystal coffin could be Su Yin?"

The woman lying inside the crystal coffin was dressed in red. It was very similar to Su Yin's dress that they had seen in the mural. But...

"If the person inside is Su Yin, then who built this tomb?"

Su Yin had left behind a curse before she died, so Duo Benli definitely wouldn't be so kind as to spend so much effort to build such a tomb for Su Yin. To be able to build such a tomb meant that there should be a deep friendship between that person and Su Yin. So who was it?

"It might be someone from the Sorcerer Tribe!" Huangfu Ruiling said flatly,

"The style of this tomb shows the characteristics of the Sorcerer Tribe. Maybe Su Yin's tribesmen found her and built such a tomb for her!"

Ye Leng'an shrugged and looked at the person in the crystal coffin, saying, "The person who built this tomb is a thoughtful person. There must be something hidden in this crystal coffin. Otherwise, it will be impossible for this corpse to not decay after so many years."

"Forget about it." Huangfu Ruiling said, "Since this tomb was built by someone, there must be a way out."

Otherwise, how could that person get out after the crystal coffin was placed here?

Ye Leng'an naturally agreed with Huangfu Ruiling. They shifted their attention away from the crystal coffin and began to look for the mechanism in the stone room to see where the exit was.

The change seemed to have happened in an instant. When she turned around, she accidentally kicked the stool. For a moment, she lost her balance and was about to fall. She turned around and immediately held onto something to stabilize her body.

After regaining her balance, she realized that the thing she had held onto to steady herself in the heat of the moment was actually the lid of the crystal coffin. At this moment, the lid of the crystal coffin actually opened a crack with her strength.

In a flash, Huangfu Ruiling came to Ye Leng'an's side.

She did not notice that he had come to her side. All her attention was on the person in the crystal coffin.

"Huangfu Ruiling, look, there seems to be a box inside."

Through the crack, she could clearly see that the woman was holding a small box in her hand. She had no idea what was inside.

Huangfu Ruiling naturally saw it. Without any hesitation, he reached out his hand and pushed the lid of the crystal coffin away.

Soon, they saw what was inside the crystal coffin, and it was different from what they saw through the crystal coffin. This time, the woman lying there could be seen more clearly. She should have been dead for many years. but she looked like she was sleeping, and people were fearful of waking her.

"Aargh..." At this moment, a faint sigh sounded. In this empty stone room, it was especially obvious, and at the same time, it was creepy.

Huangfu Ruiling immediately protected Ye Leng'an behind him, then raised his head and looked around. He knew that with Ye Leng'an's strength, she would be fine. However, he was still subconsciously protecting her.

Just as they were waiting in readiness, a blurry figure gradually appeared above the crystal coffin. The figure was faintly discernible as if it would disappear at any moment. However, the most surprising thing was that her face was exactly the same as the person lying in the crystal coffin.

"You don't have to be afraid. I never wanted to hurt you." The figure looked at the two people in front of her and a bitter smile appeared on her face.

"Moreover, I'm only a remnant soul now. I've never thought of doing anything to you."

Ye Leng'an looked at the remnant soul and understood. Then, she walked out from behind Huangfu Ruiling and looked at the blurry figure. Without beating around the bush, she asked directly, "You are Su Yin, aren't you?"

The remnant soul paused for a brief moment, seemingly not expecting Ye Leng'an to call out her name. She then nodded in agreement. "That's right, I'm Su Yin. However, this is only a wisp of my soul. After today, even this wisp of soul would disappear. At that time, I might vanish from this world."

Then, she seemed to have suddenly thought of something. When she looked at Huangfu Ruiling and Ye Leng'an, there was a faint vigilance in her eyes, as if she was going to attack at any time. "You are people from the village."

"No." Ye Leng'an said straightforwardly, "We are from the outside world. We were plotted against by the people in this village, so we fell down."

After hearing Ye Leng'an's reply, Su Yin slowly let down her guard. She then said, "It's fate that we met today. Moreover, I want to entrust my most important thing to you today.."
