Chapter 181: A High-Level Bad Luck Talisman 1

Lin Wanqin now had no feelings for Ye Leng'an at all. If she had had the chance, she would rather not have raised Ye Leng'an in the past. She didn't expect Ye Lengan to become an ingrate after so many years.

"Yes, you're noble to the bone." Sensing Lin Wanqin's disgust in her words, Ye Leng'an retorted carelessly, "No wonder you spread the rumors so casually and the police nearly came knocking on your door."

Lin Wanqin didn't have any feelings for her, and neither did she. After two lifetimes, the mother-daughter relationship had long disappeared. Moreover, she no longer had any relationship with the Ye family. So whatever they said, she would not feel sad.

Ye Xiyuan's face immediately turn pale when she heard that. She looked aggrieved. When she looked at Ye Leng'an, she wanted to say something but hesitated.

"You..." Lin Wanqin was furious. She pointed at Ye Leng'an and couldn't help but scold, "Is this how you talk to your elders? Sure enough, a person who was born low will always be low. Even if she was educated in a wealthy family, it cannot change her internal lowliness."

"You aren't nobler than me." Ye Lengan retorted sarcastically, "You just have some money. Do you think that you're one of the top wealthy families in the entire capital? Don't be ridiculous!"

In fact, sometimes she really wanted to know where their confidence came from. They were patronizing! It was undeniable that the Ye family was indeed a wealthy family. However, there were too many wealthy families in the capital. Why did they consider themselves superior?

"Ye Leng'an, shut up," Ye Li snapped. "What happens to our family has nothing to do with you. You're just a girl from the slums. You don't have the right to talk about the matters of rich and noble families. Now, I'm really glad that you're not my biological daughter. Xiyuan is so much better than you. She's my pride."

What turned him off the most was being looked down upon by others. Indeed, in the capital, the Ye family could only be considered a wealthy family. There was still a long way to go before they could be considered an aristocratic family. However, he didn't want such a fact to be brought out in his face, especially by Ye Leng'an.

"I don't care about you or your daughter at all," Ye Leng'an said indifferently. "We have nothing to do with each other anymore. If you don't want to hear those harsh words from me, then when you see me in the future, pretend that you don't know me and don't always think of forcing an association with me."

She turned to look at Ye Xiyuan when she said the last few words. It was obvious that she wanted to inform Ye Xiyuan.

She was really getting tired of Ye Xiyuan calling her sister every time. Clearly, everyone hated each other, but Ye Xiyuan insisted on disguising her hatred with a false show of sisterhood. It was extremely disturbing.

“I... Sister... No, Leng’an.” Ye Xiyuan was a little anxious. “I didn’t mean anything else. I just thought that since we all knew each other, we should just have dinner together.”

“There’s no need,” Ye Leng’an said straightforwardly. “I may not even be able to eat when sitting with you guys. I think you will also have indigestion if you dine with me! Therefore, I think it’s better for us to sit separately.”

Ye Xiyuan opened her mouth as if she wanted to continue persuading Ye Leng’an, but she was interrupted.

“Alright, Xiyuan, stop talking nonsense with her.” Ye Li said impatiently, “What’s there to say to someone like her? Since they don’t want to have anything to do with us, we should be sensible and pretend that we don’t know each other in the future.”

Ye Xiyuan looked at Ye Li, then at Ye Leng’an, her face filled with embarrassment.

Ye Leng’an ignored the Ye family and went forward, pushing Huangfu Ruiling forward. However, after a few steps, she heard an unfamiliar voice coming from behind. She didn’t care much about it at first, but when she heard the name, she couldn’t help but turn around.

“Wanqin, why didn’t you come in?” Pang Tingting came out of the private room and saw that the Yes were standing at the door. They did not come inside immediately, so she was a little curious.

She invited the Ye family to dinner today. In order to book a table at this private restaurant, she pulled a lot of strings. This private restaurant was very famous in the upper class. However, because there were very few seats available for booking every day, it was very difficult to make a reservation..

Chapter 182: A High-Level Bad Luck Talisman 2

She came to the private room early to wait for the Ye family to come, but they didn’t show up, so she came out to take a look. She happened to see that they seemed to be having some trouble with a girl.

“Tingting, you’re early!” Lin Wanqin smiled and walked towards Pang Tingting. “We just arrived and were about to go in!”

Upon hearing the name “Tingting”, Ye Leng’an turned around and saw a woman in her forties. She was dressed like an elite white-collar office lady and looked a few years older than Lin Wanqin.

Although Ye Lengan did not hear the surname, she was almost certain that this woman was Pang Tingting. Unexpectedly, Pang Tingting contacted Lin Wanqin again after she returned to the capital.

Did she really not switch the two children, or was she confident that no one would find out what she had done?

Pang Tingting suddenly noticed that someone was watching her. Following her senses, she turned around and saw a young girl with peerless beauty standing there. From her tender face, one could imagine how beautiful she would be in the future. However, compared to her appearance, what was more eye-catching was her elegance. Simply by standing there, she exuded a cold and indifferent aura.

At this moment, the young girl was standing there quietly, looking at her with a faint smile. Her eyes were clear and bright as if she could see through everything. Under that gaze, Pang Tingting somehow felt a sense of panic.

She almost wanted to walk up to the girl and ask if she knew her and why she was looking at her like that. However, she stood rooted to the ground, unable to move a single step.

“Tingting, what’s wrong?” Sensing that something was wrong with Pang Tingting, Lin Wanqin stepped forward and patted her shoulder. “What are you thinking about?”

“No, there’s nothing.” Pang Tingting came back to her senses and looked at Lin Wanqin, saying with a smile, “Let’s get inside quickly!”

Ye Leng’an retracted her gaze and turned to walk toward the private room.

Pang Tingting led the Ye family to the reserved private room. However, in the end, she couldn’t help but glance in the direction of the young girl.

Soon, they entered the private room. Pang Tingting asked everyone to take a seat. After asking about their preferences, she ordered the dishes.

“Tingting, looks like you’re doing pretty well now!” Lin Wanqin said with a smile, “I’ve heard of this private restaurant before. It’s always difficult to book a table.”

“If I want to treat you all to a meal, I naturally have to choose the best restaurant!” Pang Tingting was very skilled in speaking, and she knew how to make people happy. “I have a business acquaintance. He happened to know the owner of this private restaurant, so I asked him for a favor.”

“Then you are really too humble.” Ye Li looked at Pang Tingting with admiration in his eyes. “I really didn’t expect you to become a successful woman now. In the past, when I saw you, I thought you would be a good wife and mother!”

Naturally, he knew Pang Tingting. When he and Lin Wanqin were still dating, Lin Wanqin and Pang Tingting were good friends. At that time, Pang Tingting was always at Lin Wanqin’s side. His only impression of her was that she was a quiet and delicate little girl. Even when he heard that the two of them fell out, he didn’t feel much about it.

He did not expect that the delicate little girl from back then had now transformed into a successful businesswoman after all these years. Life happened!

“Mr. Ye, you are flattering me!” Pang Tingting laughed heartily. “I’m just making a living. To be honest, Mr. Ye is a business elite! I still have a lot to learn from you.”

Pang Tingting then looked at Lin Wanqin and continued, “That’s why Wanqin is the luckiest among us! She married a good husband and is living the most comfortable life now.”

Hearing Pang Tingting’s flattery, Lin Wanqin was in a very good mood. “Oh, stop it! You are better than me. I’ve been staying at home all these years.”

“By the way, where is your son?” Pang Tingting took a look and asked, “Didn’t you come together?”

“We planned to come together, but I received a call from him before I left.” Lin Wanqin explained with a smile, “He said that he had something urgent to attend to, so he couldn’t make it..”

Chapter 183: A High-Level Bad Luck Talisman 3

“What a pity.” Pang Tingting maintained a smile on her face. “I thought I could meet him!”

“You will, in the future!”

While they were chatting, Ye Xiyuan sat there with a smile and listened quietly, looking demure and elegant. However, in fact, she was communicating with the system.

“System, I want to exchange for a Bad Luck Talisman.” Ye Xiyuan secretly called out to the system, “I want a high-level Bad Luck Talisman.”

As long as she saw Ye Leng’an’s face, she felt uncomfortable. It seemed that every time they met, Ye Leng’an always had the upper hand. Ye Lengan was just the fake daughter of a rich family. Did she really think that she was remarkable? Ye Xiyuan wanted to let Ye Leng’an have a taste of unending misfortune.

“Host, you do not have enough points to exchange.” The system’s cold voice sounded emotionlessly.

“What?” Ye Xiyuan was surprised. “How is that possible? I remember that I have 5,000 points. Although 500 points were deducted because of the man beside Ye Lengan, there should still be 4,500 points left! A high-level Bad Luck Talisman should cost 2,000 points each. How can I not have enough points?”

Speaking of the previous 500 points, her heart ached again. The 500 points were deducted for nothing, and she found nothing in the end. However, she was willing to spend 2,000 points to exchange for a Bad Luck Talisman.

That high-level Bad Luck Talisman could make a person unlucky for a whole month. Moreover, there weren’t ordinary small accidents but fatal ones. In other words, after using this high-level Bad Luck Talisman, the person would constantly encounter life-threatening accidents in the next month.

If one had worse luck, he or she might have died in an accident. Even with a little good luck, he or she would definitely have to go to the hospital many times.

“The system malfunctioned previously. For repair, all points have to be automatically deducted. Therefore, your points have all been cleared.”

The cold mechanical voice made Ye Xiyuan so angry that she almost spit blood. The 500 points from before had been wasted) and she was already extremely distressed. And now, she was told that because of the previous malfunction, she had lost all her points. This was not about just one or two points, but all her points. She had put a lot of effort to save these points.

But now, all of them were gone.

“Why didn’t you inform me earlier?” Ye Xiyuan gnashed her teeth in anger. “Besides, why did my points have something to do with the system malfunction?”

“You didn’t ask about that before.” The system’s voice sounded again. “As long as the system malfunctions, it will automatically deduct points to recover. This is the system’s rule. If you have any objections, you can voice them. However, the system will decide whether to accept them or not.”

Ye Xiyuan didn’t even know what she was feeling right now. She had never thought that the system would actually have such an unfair clause. However, even so, she did not dare to show her dissatisfaction. Although it had been a long time, she still remembered her previous punishment.

Moreover, even if she expressed her dissatisfaction, it would not be of any use. Even if the system was unfair, she could not bear to give it up. It could be said that everything she had now was because of the system. Therefore, she absolutely could not lose the system and could not be back to her former self.

She knew very well that only the current Ye Xiyuan was the one her parents liked. Without these advantages, in the eyes of her parents, she would only be someone related to them by blood and not their good daughter. Moreover...

If she lost her beauty and talent, Nangong Xuyao probably wouldn’t like her anymore!

After taking a deep breath and calming herself down, Ye Xiyuan called out to the system again. “I want to get a high-level Bad Luck Talisman on credit now.

Is that okay?”

The system’s voice sounded again. “Getting a high-grade Bad Luck Talisman on credit means you owe the system 2,500 points. Do you want to confirm the transaction?”

“2,500 points?” Ye Xiyuan couldn’t help but ask again, “Isn’t a high-level Bad Luck Talisman only worth 2,000 points?”

“Because it’s on credit, 500 points will be deducted as a handling fee.” The cold voice explained, “Please confirm your decision.”

Ye Xiyuan was naturally very unhappy about the deduction of 500 points for no reason. However, when she thought of Ye Lengan's mockery and the limelight that Ye Leng'an stole from her in school, she couldn't help but feel resentful..

Chapter 184: A High-Level Bad Luck Talisman 4

Finally, she gritted her teeth and decided. "I Confirm the exchange."

"Ding! The transaction is successful."

Ye Xiyuan looked at the system's slot space and saw a high-level Bad Luck Talisman. Although she still owed the system 2,500 points, which made her heart ache, as soon as she thought about what would happen to Ye Leng'an, she felt much better. She even felt that these 2,500 points weren't wasted.

Even though she had obtained a high-level Bad Luck Talisman now, if she wanted Ye Leng'an to suffer, she would have to find an opportunity to stick this talisman on Ye Leng'an's body. It looked like she had to find an opportunity to meet Ye Leng'an after dinner, and then make a move.

Soon, a waiter came to serve the dishes. Pang Tingting was busy taking care of everyone. They were still talking while eating at the table.

"Oh, I saw you guys at the door just now. You seemed to be talking with a girl!" Pang Tingting asked tentatively, "What's wrong? Is it someone you know?"

Why didn't you invite her to eat with us? The more people, the better!"

She felt very uncomfortable when she thought of the girl's gaze just now as if her mind was read and her secrets were exposed and she had no privacy in front of that girl.

Hearing Pang Tingting mention Ye Leng'an, Ye Li looked displeased. However, he did not say anything unpleasant. After all, Pang Tingting was only a good friend of his wife and had nothing to do with him. They had only met a few times. Therefore, he naturally wouldn't reveal his relationship with Ye Leng'an.

"I know her." Lin Wanqin pulled a long face either. "It's also an ill-fated relationship. I may as well not mention it then! Anyway, we don't have a good relationship with her."

Seeing Ye Li and Lin Wanqin's unpleasant expressions, Pang Tingting was also very watchful and did not continue to ask so as not to annoy them.

She quickly changed the topic and heated up the atmosphere on the table again.

In another private room, while waiting for the dishes, Huangfu Ruiling looked at Ye Leng'an and raised his eyebrows. "Do you know that woman just now?"

He was referring to Pang Tingting. When Ye Leng'an saw Pang Tingting earlier, her expression was a little off, which didn't escape his notice. So, he was a little curious.

"You mean Pang Tingting?" Ye Leng'an propped one elbow on the table and rested her chin on her palm, looking lazy. "If you're talking about her, then I can tell you that I don't know her. However, I feel that there is a history between us."

If her suspicion was correct, then they probably got too involved with each other!

“You feel? History?” Hearing Ye Lengan’s description, Huangfu Ruiling was even more curious. “Can you tell me more about it?”

If it was not something ineffable, then he would like to hear it. If Ye Lengan wanted to keep it to herself, then he wouldn’t force her. After all, everyone had their own privacy! He had no right to interfere in her private affairs.

“There’s nothing I can’t say.” She didn’t hide anything, mainly because she didn’t feel the need to. “If I’m not wrong, that person’s name should be Pang Tingting. Back then, the reason why Ye Xiyuan and I were carried into the wrong families wasn’t the hospital’s fault. It was probably Pang Tingting’s fault. However, I have no idea about her motive.”

Pang Tingting was quite bold. After what she had done in the past, she still dared to appear in front of the Ye family so brazenly. Moreover, it seemed that she and Lin Wanqin had repaired their relationship.

Huangfu Ruiling was a little surprised after hearing that. “You found it out on your own?”

He naturally knew that Ye Leng’an and Ye Xiyuan had been switched. When he suddenly found out that there was an additional person in his household register, he had someone investigate it. Therefore, he was very clear about this matter. But he no longer investigated anything about her after that.

“Yes!” Ye Leng’an nodded. “Although I don’t have any deep feelings for my biological parents, I still want to know who they are. Also, why did I become the daughter of the Ye family in the first place? But...”

At this point, she couldn’t help but frown. “I have a strange story of life and I haven’t been able to find any clues. However, I did find out that Pang Tingting was very likely the one who switched Ye Xiyuan and me back then. I want to see if I can get anything out of Pang Tingting. Also, back then, was the switch a coincidence because she chose me accidentally? Or was it because of some other reason?”

Huangfu Ruiling gave a knowing look, and then he asked, “Do you need help?”

“No.” She shook her head. “It’s not a big deal. Besides, it’s not difficult for me to get these things out of Pang Tingting. I’m just curious. If Lin Wanqin knew that Pang Tingting was the one who swapped her biological daughter, what would she think?”

After dinner, Huangfu Ruiling was going to send Ye Leng’an home.

However, before the two of them could leave the restaurant, Ye Leng’an was stopped by someone.

“Ye Lengan, please wait a moment.” Ye Xiyuan hurriedly called out to Ye Leng’an, who was about to leave.

However, it was obvious that Ye Leng’an didn’t want to bother with Ye Xiyuan. Therefore, even though she heard Ye Xiyuan’s voice, she still chose to continue walking forward.

Ye Xiyuan, who had caught up, blocked Ye Leng'an's way before she could take a few steps.

"Ye Xiyuan, good dogs don't stand in the way. What do you want to do?" Ye

Leng'an said bluntly. "Also, just now, I thought we had reached an agreement. Even if we meet again, we should pretend that we don't know each other, right?"

She was almost certain that Ye Xiyuan catching up with her at this time was definitely not a good thing.

When she heard Ye Lengan's harsh words, there was a hint of gloominess flickering in her eyes. However, she still had a gentle smile on her face, as if she didn't understand the mockery in Ye Lengan's words. "Ye Lengan, although we're no longer a family, we're still classmates. It's normal for classmates to say hello to each other when they meet. Why do you have to say such awful things?"

Ye Leng'an said with a sneer, "I don't think there's a need to say hello to you.."

Chapter 185: They Did It Deliberately 1

"Ye Lengan, there's no need for you to say that!" Ye Xiyuan didn't get angry because of Ye Leng'an's reply. She continued, "Actually, I caught up with you because I have something to tell you. Winter vacation is about to begin, and so is the training organized by the school. For mutual progress, the school decided to set the training venue in Jin City. You didn't come to school previously. I was worried that you didn't know. I just remembered and wanted to inform you."

While speaking, she kept looking for opportunities to get closer to Ye Lengan. However, Ye Leng'an kept staring at her so intently that she couldn't do anything.

"Thank you for your kindness." Ye Leng'an narrowed her eyes with a trace of doubt. "Since you've finished, can you get out of my way?"

Ye Xiyuan definitely had some scheme up her sleeve. She could naturally see through that little trick. However, she didn't understand what Ye Xiyuan wanted to do. Why Ye Xiyuan suddenly stopped her here? Moreover, if Ye Xiyuan really wanted to make a move, why didn't she do it earlier? Why now?

"I..." For a moment, Ye Xiyuan didn't know what to say.

Ye Leng'an looked at Ye Xiyuan with penetrating eyes, then turned around and left.

Seeing that Ye Leng'an was about to leave, Ye Xiyuan grew anxious. "System, do you have a way to help me stick that high-level Bad Luck Talisman on Ye Lengan's body?"

"Sure." The system's cold voice rang out. "But 500 points will be deducted."

"What?" Ye Xiyuan was furious when hearing such a ridiculous request. "I already owe 2,500 points, and now you want another 500 points. Can't you help me just once? Besides, didn't you say that you wanted me to take away Ye Leng'an's luck? As long as Ye Leng'an is unlucky, won't it be easier for me to take away her luck? Helping me is helping yourself!"

She really didn't want to owe the system so many points. She didn't know how long it would take to pay off the 2,500 points. Now, she was going to owe another 500 points. Wasn't that rubbing salt into the wound? She had a feeling that the system seemed to have undergone a huge change after it fixed the malfunction this time. In the past, the system would not deduct points so easily.

However, what she didn't notice was that when she was communicating with the system, Ye Leng'an stopped in her tracks. Even Huangfu Ruiling, who was beside her, looked behind her thoughtfully.

Ye Xiyuan kept calling out to the system, but the system seemed to be impervious. It only said one sentence over and over again, "Do you agree to point deduction?"

Seeing that Ye Lengan was about to leave, Ye Xiyuan could only grit her teeth and say, "Yes!"

She was just one step away from success and could not give up just like that. It was already the holidays, so it was impossible for her to run into Ye Leng'an at school. Moreover, even if she was in school, Ye Leng'an often took leave, so she couldn't meet her. Things had already come to this point, and she was just one step away. She naturally could not give up so easily.

She had too many troubles to worry about. In any case, she already owed 2,500 points, so it didn't matter if she owed another 500 points.

As soon as Ye Xiyuan finished speaking, the high-grade Bad Luck Talisman in her hand disappeared. Then, she saw the talisman appear on Ye Leng'an's back and vanish.

However, before she could celebrate, she saw Ye Lengan suddenly stop in her tracks and look at her. Instantly, she was on tenterhooks, afraid that Ye Leng'an had discovered something.

Ye Leng'an didn't say anything and just looked in Ye Xiyuan's direction with a deep gaze.

However, it didn't take long for Ye Leng'an to look away. Then, she turned around and got into the car with Huangfu Ruiling, and left the restaurant.

Seeing Ye Leng'an leave in the car, Ye Xiyuan finally heaved a sigh of relief. Just now, Ye Leng'an suddenly looked at her. She thought that she had noticed something. Fortunately, Ye Leng'an only looked at her for a while before leaving.

She should have faith in the system. After all, the system was a technology that was above this world. Therefore, Ye Leng'an shouldn't be able to sense anything when the system made a move. So, everything was just a coincidence..

Chapter 186: They Did It Deliberately 2

Ye Xiyuan was constantly comforting herself, but she knew that there was always a faint trace of worry in the depths of her heart.

Inside the limousine.

Ye Leng'an and Huangfu Ruiling sat in the back row.

At this moment, Ye Leng'an was holding a talisman in her hand.

If Ye Xiyuan was here, she would definitely be able to recognize it at a glance.

This was the high-level Bad Luck Talisman that she had just stuck on Ye Leng'an's body. She probably never dreamed that the talisman that she had paid a heavy price to exchange for and stick on Ye Leng'an would be casually held in Ye Leng'an's hand at this moment.

"Is this what your so-called sister stuck on you?" Huangfu Ruiling raised his eyebrows. "I didn't expect her to use such a method."

"Let me make it clear first. She's not my sister! I don't have any sisters." Ye Leng'an glared at Huangfu Ruiling and continued, "But, to be honest, I really underestimated her. This is a high-level Bad Luck Talisman. This high-level talisman is not something that an ordinary talisman master can create. She managed to get her hands on it. I really have no idea what is going on."

Huangfu Ruiling looked at Ye Lengan and said with a faint smile, "It seems that you really know a lot! Medicine. formations. talismans. Almost everything!"

"Yes!" Without being modest, she said straightforwardly, "However, I'm most proficient in medicine. I only know a little about formations and talismans. Why? Do you need me to treat you?"

It was probably because she was familiar with him. Now, she was no longer reserved and cautious when facing him. Sometimes, she would even joke with him.

However, she didn't notice these subtle changes.

Huangfu Ruiling, on the other hand, had already noticed the change in her. There was a glint of peculiarity in his eyes, but he did not show any emotion on his face. "If I need, I will look for you."

Ye Leng'an burst into laughter. After she rolled her eyes at him, her attention returned to the talisman in her hand. She could not help but frown slightly. 'Generally speaking, those who can become senior talisman masters are arrogant. How could such a person have any interactions with Ye Xiyuan?

If Ye Xiyuan really knew a senior talisman master, then she definitely wouldn't keep such a low profile. However, Ye Leng'an was certain that this high-level talisman was definitely not made by Ye Xiyuan. That was because there wasn't a trace of spiritual energy on Ye Xiyuan's body, which sufficed to show that Ye Xiyuan was just an ordinary person.

"Do you need me to help you investigate?" he asked.

He meant if she wanted to carry out an investigation in the Hidden World and see who made this talisman. Every talisman master would print their own unique mark when making talismans, just like their own business card. Therefore, one could detect the aura of the master from the talisman.

"No need." Ye Leng'an shook her head. Then, she clamped the talisman with two fingers. A flame suddenly appeared and burned the talisman into ashes.

“Even if we investigate, I don’t think there will be any results. I keep feeling that Ye Xiyuan is a little strange. She seemed to have some secrets.”

She had sensed that weak fluctuation just now. That should be the secret of Ye Xiyuan. This should also be the most important reason why she died tragically in her previous life.

“There was nothing unusual about her growth. If there was really anything strange, it should happen when she was around sixteen years old. After she turned sixteen, she seemed to have a sudden enlightenment and became outstanding in all aspects.”

Previously, when he investigated Ye Leng’an, he already knew about Ye Xiyuan. Although there were only a few words about her in the investigation report, it was enough for him to know all the information.

Ye Leng’an gave a thoughtful look after hearing Huangfu Ruiling’s words, but she did not say anything.

Now, she felt that Ye Xiyuan was really strange. She just didn’t know what the secret was. However, no matter what kind of secret Ye Xiyuan had, she would definitely find it out in the end and give Ye Xiyuan a fatal blow. She still remembered the hatred from her first lifetime..

Chapter 187: They Did It Deliberately 3

On the other side, Ye Xiyuan didn’t know that the high-level Bad Luck

Talisman that she had spent so many points on and wanted to use on Ye Leng’an would only stay on Ye Lengan for a few minutes. It disappeared without a trace before it could even take effect.

She returned to the private room in a good mood.

At this moment, everyone had finished their meal and was talking. Just now, Ye Xiyuan left the private room with the excuse that she needed to go to the washroom. She had asked the system to monitor the outside. As long as Ye Leng’an came out, it would inform her so that she could get out in time.

Actually, she wanted the system to monitor Ye Lengan’s private room. But for some reason, the system refused to monitor Ye Leng’an alone every time, even if she agreed to point deduction. Therefore, she could only settle for the second best and let the system monitor the hall.

Since she had stuck the high-level Bad Luck Talisman on Ye Leng’an, Ye Leng’an would have all kinds of accidents in the next month.

She couldn’t suppress the excitement in her heart at this thought. However, she also felt a little regretful that she couldn’t personally witness Ye Leng’an’s misfortune.

“Xiyuan, what’s going on?” Seeing Ye Xiyuan return, Lin Wanqin asked curiously, “Did something good happen when you were absent? You keep smiling!”

“It’s nothing.” Ye Xiyuan smiled and shook her head. “I don’t have anything to worry about, so I’m always smiling.”

Hearing Ye Xiyuan's reply, Lin Wanqin shook her head in amusement. "You naughty girl."

"Wanqin, I really envy you!" Pang Tingting said with a smile, "You have such a good daughter, and she is well-taught."

Hearing Pang Tingting's praise, Lin Wanqin was even happier. Ye Li, who was at the side, was also smiling. It was obvious that he was very satisfied with his daughter.

"Speaking of which, Xiyuan is almost seventeen!" Pang Tingting said with a smile, "How are you going to celebrate your 17th birthday?"

"We're planning to..." Lin Wanqin was about to talk about their plan when she suddenly seemed to have noticed something. She looked at Pang Tingting and asked in confusion, "Tingting, how did you know Xiyuan's birthday?"

Pang Tingting's face became rigid for a moment, but she quickly regained her composure. She looked at Lin Wanqin and said with a smile, "You forgot! Didn't I tell you before? I once asked our university classmates about you! So I probably know when you gave birth!"

"Oh, I see!" Lin Wanqin patted her head helplessly. "My bad, I have a short memory."

"You've been like this since university." Pang Tingting heaved a sigh of relief in her heart, but she didn't show it on her face. She immediately changed the topic. "So, what's your plan? Are you guys going to give Xiyuan a birthday party? Don't forget to invite me! I also want to give Xiyuan a big gift."

Though Ye Xiyuan, who was sitting at the side, remained silent, an idea flashed into her mind after she heard Pang Tingting's words.

Even though she returned to the Ye family in her previous life, she had a limited presence as the real daughter of the Ye family because of Ye Leng'an. They did hold a party for her first birthday after returning to the Ye family. However, she didn't become the center of attention at the party. Instead, everyone's focus was on Ye Leng'an. People looked at her with disdain as if they were looking at a country bumpkin.

There was no way she could blend into the circle of those people. She could only hide in a corner like an outsider, watching those people drink and socialize, and watching Ye Leng'an effortlessly communicate with these people.

It seemed that ever since that birthday, she felt that her parents paid less attention to her. She was in an even more precarious position in this family. All the misfortune seemed to have started from that time.

As soon as she thought of this, she wanted nothing more than to kill Ye Leng'an. However, when she thought of the high-level Bad Luck Talisman on Ye Leng'an, her mood brightened.

"Party? We're going to hold a dinner party for her!" Ye Li spoke. He had a smile on his face and looked like a kind father. "I want to tell everyone that this is my daughter, the eldest daughter of our Ye family.."

Chapter 188: They Did It Deliberately 4

Ye Xiyuan was delighted when hearing Ye Li's words.

Previously, she already thought about how she would spend her seventeenth birthday. This time, without Ye Leng'an, she would absolutely be the center of attention.

However, she did not expect her father to throw a dinner party for her birthday. This was definitely a pleasant surprise for her. After the party, everyone would know that she was the real daughter of the Ye family, and Ye Leng'an was just a shameless b*tch who had taken over.

"That's right! We've already discussed it a long time ago." Lin Wanqin looked at Ye Xiyuan and reached out her hand to stroke Ye Xiyuan's hair, saying with a smile, "It's definitely a gift from the heavens that Xiyuan came back to us. I want to legitimize her and tell everyone that she is my daughter."

"Dad, Mom, you're so good to me." Ye Xiyuan's eyes were filled with tears, and she was very touched. "It's a blessing from the heavens to be able to come back to you. I'll definitely be filial to you in the future."

"Silly, what are you talking about!" Looking at her biological daughter, Lin

Wanqin gave a gentle smile. "As long as you're well, it's our greatest blessing."

Pang Tingting, who had been listening from the side, suddenly felt a chill run down her spine. Her back was even beginning to sweat. Initially, she did not know what had happened, but now she finally understood everything. It turned out that the Ye family had already known about the swapping and Lin Wanqin's biological daughter had returned to her.

Actually, when she saw Ye Xiyuan at the yes residence previously, she already had some suspicions in her heart. However, because she just returned to the capital, she had not yet sorted out many of her connections. In addition to her guilty conscience, she did not deliberately ask about anything.

From the conversation between the Ye family members, she already knew the truth. At the same time, her heart was pounding. She did not know if it was a good thing or a bad thing for her to return to the capital.

"Hey, Tingting, you may not know about these things in my family." Lin

Wanqin looked at Pang Tingting and said apologetically, "Actually, when Xiyuan was born, she was carried away by the wrong family. We took her back not long ago. I didn't tell you before, but it was not because I wanted to hide it from you. I just felt that it was a little strange to talk about these things."

"It's okay." Pang Tingting tried her best to calm down. She put on a knowing expression and smiled. "Actually, I understand your thoughts very well. This wasn't something that could be said out loud, but speaking of which, I'm really happy for you!"

“Haha, I also feel that I’m quite lucky.” Lin Wanqin seemed very happy. “To be able to find such an outstanding daughter is definitely the greatest happiness of my life.”

Seeing the blissful smile on Lin Wanqin’s face, Pang Tingting also forced an awkward smile.

At this moment, her jealousy of Lin Wanqin welled up in her mind again. She didn’t expect Lin Wanqin’s biological daughter could come back to her after so many years. It was fine if she found her real daughter, but her real daughter was unexpectedly outstanding.

The heavens were really blind. Why did all the good things fall on Lin Wanqin? Who the hell Lin Wanqin was? She was able to go to university only because of the donations from her family. However, her university life was more carefree than many of them.

When Pang Tingting was studying hard at university, Lin Wanqin was eating, drinking, and playing. However, after graduation, she was busy looking for a job, while Lin Wanqin went shopping and went to beauty salons every day. In the end, Lin Wanqin even introduced her to a job. Therefore, this world was really unfair. Just because Lin Wanqin was born with a silver spoon, she could live a so much better life than her?

“Miss Pang is welcome to come and join in the fun that day!” Ye Li invited her with a smile. “You’re Wanqin’s good friend and Xiyuan’s auntie.”

“I’ll definitely be there.” Pang Tingting tried her best to suppress the jealousy in her heart. She pretended to be normal and looked at Lin Wanqin, saying casually, “How could these two children be switched back then? This was too strange! In the past, such a plot would only appear in television dramas or novels. I did not expect such a thing to happen in real life.”

“It’s been so long. How can we still find out?” Lin Wanqin smiled and shook her head. “The biggest possibility is that the hospital made a mistake. However, my husband is already investigating what happened back then. We do not know when the result will come out.”

Pang Tingting accidentally dropped the cup on the floor with a smash.

“Tingting, are you alright?” Lin Wanqin asked with concern, ‘You are so careless!’

“It is a little slippery.” Pang Tingting explained with a smile and then continued, “This sounds like a plot from a TV drama! However, in the TV series, it is always those poor families who secretly swap their children in order for their children to have better lives.”

“You mean...” Lin Wanqin’s face turned pale.

She had never thought of such a possibility before. All along, she had thought that the hospital was most likely negligent when it came to carrying the wrong child. But now when she thought about it, it was not impossible for what Tingting mentioned to happen.

Ye Li also looked displeased. Obviously, he was also considering how high the possibility was.

Ye Xiyuan clenched her fists and hatred swelled up in her heart. Did her adoptive parents deliberately do that? They did this so that Ye Leng'an could live a good life. No wonder her adoptive parents had always valued her younger brother more. It turned out that they had long known that she was not their biological daughter. Or rather, they were the ones who did everything.

"No, I'm just..." Pang Tingting looked a little flustered. She hurriedly explained, "I didn't mean that. I just said that there would be such a plot in a TV series. I didn't say that it was the poor family who swapped the children."

"Tingting, you don't have to explain." Lin Wanqin held Pang Tingting's hand and said, "Speaking of which, I still have to thank you today! If it were not for you, we might not have thought of such a possibility."

Lin Wanqin's hatred for Ye Leng'an deepened when she thought of this. In her opinion, all of this must have been done by Ye Leng'an's biological parents. They wanted to send their biological daughter to a wealthy family like theirs to enjoy a happy life..

Chapter 189: Waking Up 1

In the ward of the nursing home.

Ye Leng'an was currently standing in front of the hospital bed. In her hand, there was a cute little golden bug with feelers. It was wriggling around, looking extremely adorable. This was the Golden Gu King that Ye Leng'an had obtained from Su Yin.

Speaking of which, it was also unexpected. Previously, Ye Leng'an placed this Gu worm in the alchemy room. She planned to refine some pills this morning. As soon as she entered the alchemy room, she found that the box containing the Golden Gu King had been opened.

At that time, she was really shocked and thought that someone had taken the Gu worm away. However, when she calmed down and thought about it, she felt that it was impossible. Ordinary people had no idea about the power of the Golden Gu King. Moreover, no one knew that the Golden Gu King was in her hands.

In the end, when she found the Golden Gu King, she didn't know whether to laugh or cry. Because the Golden Gu King was in the box where she kept the medicinal pills. It was eating a pill.

However, what surprised her was that the pill that the Golden Gu King was eating was not an ordinary pill, but a Bone Corroding Pill. As the name implied, after using it, one would feel the pain as if their bones were corroded. This pill was highly toxic.

Besides the Bone Corroding Pill, there were also Nine-Cycle Soul-Returning Pills. However, it was obvious that the Golden Gu King was only interested in this highly toxic pill.

In order to verify her guess, she took out some more powerful poisons and other pills from her storage space. In the end, she realized that the Golden Gu King only liked poisonous pills. Moreover, she found that after the Golden Gu King ate the poisonous pill, the golden color on its surface seemed to be even more dazzling.

Since the Golden Gu King had awakened, she had nothing to worry about. She directly made a contract with the Golden Gu King.

Normally, the Golden Gu King wouldn't easily recognize a master. However, she had been in the cultivation world before, so she naturally knew how to contract. In addition, this Golden Gu King could understand humans and wanted to stay by her side. Therefore, everything seemed logical.

After contracting the Golden Gu King, she called Huangfu Ruiling. That was why she appeared in the ward in the afternoon.

At this moment, besides Ye Leng'an, Huangfu Ruiling and Li San were also in the ward.

However, what surprised Ye Leng was that Li Yi was also in the ward.

Previously, she remembered that Huangfu Ruiling had already sent Li Yi away. She did not expect that Li Yi was called back at this time.

Although she was a little surprised, she did not ask anything. She felt that Huangfu Ruiling must have his own way of doing things. As an outsider, she should not care so much. Besides, it didn't matter to her whether Li Yi was there or not.

At this moment, Li Yi was standing behind Huangfu Ruiling with Li San and did not know why his master called him back at this time. However, he didn't have the mood to think about this now. All his attention was on Miss Yiran. He just wanted to see Miss Yiran wake up as soon as possible.

"Do you want us to leave?" Huangfu Ruiling asked directly. "If you need, we can go out now."

"No." Ye Lengan waved her hand and said nonchalantly, "This time, the doctor isn't me. It's Xiao Jin, so you don't need to step aside."

"Xiao Jin?" Huangfu Ruiling raised his eyebrows.

Ye Leng'an stretched out her hand and pointed at the Golden Gu King in her palm, saying with a smile, "This is Xiao Jin! What do you think about the name? It sounds so good, doesn't it? It is simple and clear, and it is very cheerful. "

"As long as you like it." Huangfu Ruiling's mouth twitched.

To be honest, it was simple and clear, but he did not think that the Golden Gu King would like this name. However, it was fine as long as she was happy.

"I do like this name!" She even nodded her head in a serious manner. "Furthermore, I think Xiao Jin should like this new name of his. Right? Xiao Jin."

While speaking, she gave Xiao Jin a poisonous pill.

Xiao Jin was very excited. It directly picked up the medicinal pill and began to eat it. At the same time, its feelers moved from time to time, indicating that it was in a good mood..

Chapter 190: Waking Up 2

Ye Leng'an looked up at Huangfu Ruiling and lifted her chin proudly as if to say, "Look!"

Huangfu Ruiling laughed. "This is what you said. It likes its own name."

"The process is not important." Ye Leng'an waved her hand and said nonchalantly, "What's important is the result, isn't it?"

Huangfu Ruiling felt that it was funny that she appeared so confident. He shook his head and did not say anything else.

Li San's face was empty of all expression when he saw how the two of them interacted. He wasn't surprised either because he was already used to it. There were many times when he could not see through his master's attitude toward Ye Leng'an. However, there was one thing that he knew. She was special in his master's heart.

On the other hand, Li Yi's heart was already in turmoil. Because he had never seen his master treat a girl like this. No, perhaps anyone like this. Even the old madam couldn't be so relaxed when facing his master. How could Ye Lengan make it?

However, he was a little worried now. When Miss Yiran woke up and saw how his master and Ye Leng'an got along, would she feel sad? In the past, his master was always cold and icy. Only when he was facing Miss Yiran would he be a little better. Therefore, everyone felt that Miss Yiran was very special to him.

But now, compared to Ye Leng'an, Miss Yiran had become dispensable. He wondered if Miss Yiran could accept it when seeing such a situation in the future.

"Alright, I'm going to start now." Ye Leng'an glanced at the rest of the people in the ward, and her gaze finally fell on Li Yi. "After I start the treatment, no matter what happens, you must not interfere. There is only one chance to lure the Gu worms out. If I miss it, I don't know what the consequences will be. Because if we lure the Child Gu out this time, the Mother Gu will definitely find out. If we fail, who knows what will happen to the Mother Gu. It is possible that the other party will directly awake the Mother Gu and take Zhongyu Yiran's life."

She had to tell him how serious this matter was. Zhongyu Yiran would definitely be in a lot of pain during the treatment later. After all, she was going to lure the Gu worms out. If anyone couldn't stand it and interfered with the treatment, there was a high chance that she wouldn't have a second chance.

Seeing Ye Leng'an's gaze on him, Li Yi was stunned. However, he immediately understood that she was talking about him. He quickly promised that he would not do anything later.

Soon, Ye Leng'an began to treat Zhongyu Yiran. She prised open the mouth of the person on the bed and put a pill into it.

Now, Zhongyu Yiran's body was a little too weak. If she directly let Xiao Jin lure out the Gu worm in Zhongyu Yiran's body, there would be too much damage. Although it was not fatal, it would undoubtedly add to the problems of her already weak body. In particular, Zhongyu Yiran had previously taken a medicinal pill that made the Gu worms sleep, which was already very harmful to her body.

After roughly estimating the time and knowing that the medicinal pill had already taken effect in Zhongyu Yiran's body, Ye Leng'an took out a golden needle and pricked Zhongyu Yiran's body. Then, she placed Xiao Jin on Zhongyu Yiran's face and took a step back.

Under everyone's gaze, Xiao Jin quickly crawled to Zhongyu Yiran's mouth and stopped. Then, its feelers began to move. At the same time, it made a strange sound. The voice was slightly sharp, but it was still at a tolerable level.

Soon, everyone saw a pained expression come over Zhongyu Yiran's face. She even moaned softly, but she could not move no matter what.

Li Yi took a step forward as if he wanted to do something. However, just as he took a step, he was stopped by a hand. He looked up and immediately saw Li San's warning gaze.

He suddenly came back to his senses and stopped in his tracks. At the present moment, Miss Yiran was in the middle of treatment. He absolutely could not interfere. Earlier, Ye Leng'an had already said that no mistakes could be made during the treatment. If he made a move now, he would probably harm Miss Yiran..
