Chapter 41: Show Her the Door

“Humph!” Chen Hailan snorted coldly. “Stop being mysterious.”

She thought that Ye Leng’an would say something earth-shattering but didn’t expect it to be such an understatement. Everyone knew that her father was in good condition, and she didn’t need Ye Leng’an to tell her. She doubted why Ye Leng’an told the obvious thing in such a dramatic way.

She was almost certain that Ye Leng’an was a swindler, but her father was unwilling to believe her words.

“Is that so?” Chen Kang’s eyes darkened. He said with a smile, “It seems that you are very confident about my condition!”

He meant more than his words told.

“Of course.” Ye Leng’an nodded. “Since I dare to take you as my patient, I naturally have the confidence to treat you. However, you must still remember that I told you before that your heart disease couldn’t be cured radically. And all I can do is to ease your pain.”

“Then what’s the point of inviting you over?” Chen Hailan couldn’t help but interrupt, “The hospital can do all that you’ve said. So why do we need you here? I thought you were capable enough to cure his heart disease! I didn’t expect that you were just putting on airs!”

“Hailan, stop talking.” Chen Haichao held his sister’s hand and whispered, “Are you really going to piss Dad off today? You won’t stop it until you are kicked out, will you?”

He really couldn’t control his sister. When his sister was born, his father had already made some fortune and made life easier for the entire family. And his father and deceased mother doted on their only daughter. He was a boy, so he naturally wouldn’t snatch anything from his sister.

Under the connivance of the people around his sister, she had been thoughtless since she was young and tended to shoot off her mouth after she grew up. He and his father had wanted to correct her, but it never worked.

“Brother, you should persuade Dad not me!” Chen Hailan tried to shake off Chen Haichao’s hand. “Are you just going to watch Dad get cheated?”

While she was speaking, Chen Hailan’s eyes were filled with shock. She did not expect her brother to stand on the side of a swindler.

“Hailan, since you don’t want to stay, you can go back first!” Chen Kang looked at his daughter with disappointment in his eyes. He said in a flat voice, “Anyway, there’s no use for you to stay here. You only know how to make a fuss.”

“Dad!” Chen Hailan didn’t believe what she heard. “Are you making me leave?”

You want to chase me away for such a liar?”

Her father had always doted on her, but she did not expect him to kick her out today.

“I told you to leave now.” Chen Kang’s expression turned serious, and his tone was sharp. “You don’t understand what I’m saying, do you?”

“Dad, Hailan didn’t mean that. She’s just worried about you.” Zhang Hongguang quickly tried to smooth things over. “You know that she’s straightforward and outspoken, but she doesn’t have any bad intentions.”

“Hongguang, take Hailan back first!” Chen Kang said, “I don’t think it is convenient to have you here today.”

Suddenly, Zhang Hongguang’s expression froze for a moment, but he quickly recovered. “In that case, we’ll go back first today. Dad, have a good rest. We’ll come back another day.”

He didn’t look like he was asked to leave. Instead, he looked like a guest saying goodbye politely to the host before leaving.

Chen Hailan didn’t want to leave, but in the end, she couldn’t dissuade her husband and had to leave with her husband and child.

“Leng’an, if you have something to say, just say it!” Chen Kang looked at Ye

Leng’an and said, “Everyone here can be trusted. At the very least, I don’t think they want me to die.”

“Dad, what are you talking about!” Li Yiqiu’s expression changed. “You are not going to die! You’ll definitely live to a hundred years old.”

“That’s right! Grandpa,” Chen Hanxi said with a cheeky smile, “you still have to watch me get married and watch my children grow up! When the time comes, you still have to help me take care of them!”

Chapter 42: Being Poisoned

“What nonsense!” Chen Kang laughed while scolding, “If I can really live that long, I might not even be able to walk.”

Chen Haichao and the others heaved a sigh of relief when they saw that Chen

Kang seemed to be in a better mood.

“Miss Leng, how is my father?” Chen Haichao looked at Ye Leng’an, grim-faced. “You can tell us the truth. We can accept it.”

As soon as he said this, everyone’s eyes immediately focused on Ye Leng’an.

There were only Chen Kang, Chen Haichao, his wife, his son, and Ye Leng’an in the living room.

“Actually, it’s not a big problem. It’s just that your heart is failing rapidly.” Since they wanted to know, Ye Leng’an didn’t hide anything. “When I saved you last time, I took your pulse. At that time, although your heart was slowly failing, it was still under control. However, recently, the situation had become much worse. If I hadn’t come today, you would’ve died of heart failure in less than a month. No one will be able to save you by then.”

Originally, she had planned to talk to Chen Kang privately, but since he felt that everyone present was trustworthy, there was no harm in telling them on this occasion.

“What?” Chen Haichao turned pale with fright. Even his voice was trembling when he spoke. “You mean my father is...” Hopeless.

He couldn’t finish his last few words anyway. In fact, he didn’t even want to believe this fact. His father looked very healthy, but now she said that his father was seriously ill.

“That’s impossible!” Chen Hanxi could not help but say, “Grandpa looks very well. Two days ago, he still wanted to go hiking!”

Everyone looked at Chen Kang. Indeed, he did not look like he was incurably ill. His face was rosy, his breathing steady. When he spoke, his voice was powerful. He looked like a healthy person.

For a moment, no one knew whether they should believe what Ye Leng’an said.

Chen Kang, on the other hand, looked very calm, but when he spoke, his voice wavered. “Leng’an, I believe you. Just tell me what is wrong with my body?”

No one knew his body better than him. Indeed, he had become much healthier these days. He even thought of going hiking two days ago. However, sometimes, his heart would beat wildly all of a sudden, and it was even a little difficult for him to breathe. But these only lasted for a very short period of time, so he did not care much about that.

Now, it seemed that these were all symptoms!

“He does look very healthy.” Ye Leng’an nodded, but the words she said the next second made everyone present tremble in fear. “The things you saw are real on the surface, but everything comes with a price. He’s a heart patient, but he suddenly became so healthy. It’s all because it’s overtaxing his health.” Her simple words sounded devastating.

“Then what about my father?” Chen Haichao asked worriedly what he most wanted to know, “Healer Ye, since you’ve already figured it out, do you have any way to save my father?”

Everyone present cast their hopeful gazes on Ye Leng’an.

Although Chen Kang looked very calm, the hope in his eyes was obvious when he looked at Ye Leng’an. After all, as long as a person was alive, he or she would not want to die.

“Of course!” Ye Leng’an nodded and said casually, “However, his physical condition did not change naturally. He was drugged. If we don’t solve the problem at the source, even if I help you recuperate now, it will still worsen in the future.’

“You mean, someone poisoned my father?” Li Yiqiu quickly said, “Are you sure?”

If someone really poisoned Chen Kang, it would be too terrifying. Especially after he had a heart attack, he rarely went out and spent most of his time at home. If someone really did that to him, then the person who poisoned him was very likely...

Thinking of this, Li Yiqiu shook her head, obviously unwilling to continue thinking. Because if she continued to think about it, things would get out of hand.

Obviously, everyone present also thought of that possibility.

Chen Kang’s face darkened, and his aura changed drastically.

For a moment, the atmosphere in the entire living room was strained. Under such low pressure, no one dared to speak first..

Chapter 43: The Healthcare Medicine

The only person who was not affected was probably Ye Leng’an.

She held up the teacup, took a sip of tea, and said calmly, “I don’t want to interfere in your family affairs. My purpose here is to treat your illness. Mr.

Chen, if you have anything suspicious, you can show it to me.”

She only agreed to treat his illness and had no intention of getting involved in the Chen family’s affairs. Moreover, Chen Kang thrived in the business world for so many years, so he had the ability to solve it.

“Grandpa, you seem to have taken that healthcare medicine recently.” Chen Hanxi immediately thought of it. “And ever since you took that healthcare medicine, your body has started to get better.”

“No.” Chen Haichao retorted subconsciously, “There won’t be a problem with that healthcare medicine.”

Although he refuted it quickly, there was a trace of uncertainty in his tone. At the same time, he didn't want to believe it. Because that healthcare medicine was sent over by his sister Hailan. If there was really something wrong with that medicine, then...

Chen Hanxi seemed to realize he had said something wrong and immediately covered his mouth.

“Lao Zhang, go and get the medicine.” Chen Kang ignored the others and called the butler to bring the thing in question over.

After a while, Lao Zhang came out with a box of medicine and handed it to Chen Kang.

Chen Kang took out a bottle of medicine and gave it to Ye Leng'an.

When everyone present looked at Ye Leng'an, they held their breaths. At this moment, they were also waiting for a result, waiting for a result that would make them give up.

Ye Leng'an, on the other hand, was very calm. She opened the lid and poured out a pill. Then, she brought it closer to her nose and sniffed.

The others didn't dare to say anything. Only Chen Kang asked, “Leng'an, is there something wrong with this?”

For a moment, he had mixed feelings. Hailan sent the medicine over. If there was really something wrong with it, he didn't know what to do with his daughter. He had loved this daughter the most ever since she was young. However, she was now stabbing him behind his back.

Although he had yet to get an answer, he was almost certain of this guess.

“Yes, this is the problem.” Ye Leng'an nodded and put down the medicine bottle. “The herbs used in it are all good stuff. What a pity.”

A small pill contained a large amount of tonics. It was also because of this that he could obtain health at the cost of consuming his vitality!

It was a reckless waste of natural resources to use so many good medicinal herbs in making this medicine! However, it proved that the pharmacist was powerful enough to create such medicine.

“Hailan...” Chen Haichao lost his voice, not knowing what to say.

“Stop it.” Li Yiqiu tugged at her husband's sleeve and shook her head.

No matter what kind of secret there was in this matter, it was unsuitable to continue investigating. Especially now that there was an outsider here, it was really not appropriate to keep digging.

“Don't take this medicine again in the future.” Ye Leng'an said, “But you've been taking it for some time. Although it's not obvious on the surface, your internal organs have been damaged to a certain extent. I originally planned to give you acupuncture treatment today, but now it seems that your body can't withstand it at all. I'll prescribe you some medicine later. Take it for half a month. I'll come back in half a month to perform acupuncture on you."

After prescribing the medicine and giving a few reminders, she left. She didn't want to get involved in the Chen family's matters. Especially now that one of their family members was involved. As an outsider, it was best for her to stay away from it.

As for Chen Kang, she believed that a person who started from scratch and made such a big fortune would be able to handle these things.

Ye Leng'an had thought that this matter would be over just like that. However, the next day, she realized she was still too naive.

Ye Lengan sat in her seat, holding a book in her hand. However, at this moment, her mind was not on the book. She was thinking about the ratio of her medicinal pills.

After moving into the villa, she spent a huge sum of money to renovate a room specially used for alchemy. Everything else was fine, but she had not found a suitable pill furnace for refining pills.

The pill furnaces in the space were of high grades, and she could not use them now.

"Ye Leng'an, you b*tch. Get out here."

Just as Ye Leng'an was deep in thought, a sharp voice thundered from outside, attracting the attention of many people.

Because it was not time for class yet, there were still many students in the corridor..

Chapter 44: Making Trouble

Ye Leng'an had originally planned to ignore the noises outside, but the remark was getting nastier and nastier and was even offensive to the ear.

More and more people were gathering outside, and the trouble was getting worse.

Ye Leng'an stood up and walked out.

As soon as she walked out of the classroom, she saw the person in the middle, cursing loudly, Chen Hailan.

"Ye Leng'an, it's all your fault." The moment she saw Ye Leng'an, Chen Hailan became even angrier. She stepped forward, raised her hand, and was about to slap Ye Leng'an's face.

Ye Leng'an was definitely not someone who would stand there and take a beating. Just as Chen Hailan was about to give her a smack, she grabbed Chen Hailan's hand and shook it off.

Chen Hailan was caught off guard and fell to the ground.

"Are you alright?"

At this moment, a gentle girl stood up and helped Chen Hailan up.

This person was Ye Xiyuan. She looked at Ye Leng'an with disapproval. "Sister, let's talk things out calmly and keep it just verbal!"

After that, she looked at Chen Hailan and said, "I'm sorry. I apologize to you on behalf of my sister. She didn't do it on purpose."

When Chen Hailan heard that Ye Xiyuan was Ye Leng'an's older sister, the color drained from her face, but Chen Hailan couldn't criticize Ye Xiyuan loudly for her servility.

"Xiyuan, why do you keep helping Ye Leng'an?" Ye Xiyuan's good friend, Qian Gumeng, stood out at this moment. She looked at Chen Hailan and explained, "Don't listen to her. Ye Leng'an is not Xiyuan's sister! To be honest, Ye Leng'an has taken Xiyuan's parents and position for more than ten years!"

"Gumeng, stop it." Ye Xiyuan quickly stopped her. "This has nothing to do with my sister. It's all the hospital's fault."

"Xiyuan, why are you so gullible?" Qian Gumeng was exasperated. "You don't have to care about Ye Leng'an's matter. Haven't you been bullied enough by

After that, she was about to urge Ye Xiyuan away.

Ye Leng'an ignored Ye Xiyuan and Qian Gumeng's double act and looked directly at Chen Hailan, saying, "You came to my school today to cause trouble."

While she was talking, her tone dropped several degrees, making her voice sound slightly cold.

"Ye Leng'an, don't you know what you've done?" Seeing Ye Leng'an's expression, Chen Hailan was more furious. "You were clearly the one who swindled people and was exposed by me. You even tried to sow discord between my father and me. You b*tch!"

Previously, when they were at home, her father asked her to leave because of Ye Leng'an. Naturally, she was very angry. Early this morning, she returned to tell her father not to be deceived. She did not expect that she was not allowed to enter the house today.

No prizes for guessing that this was definitely Ye Leng'an's fault. She immediately got someone to find out the address of Ye Leng'an's school and came straight to her door.

"Sister, what did you do?" Ye Xiyuan was very anxious. "If you really have any difficulties, you can tell us! But you shouldn't deceive other people!"

Although she looked anxious, she was secretly happy. She didn't expect Ye Leng'an to swindle and bluff. Now, they even came to her.

She wished that Chen Hailan could make a melodrama out of it. The worse the situation became, the better. It would be best if Ye Leng'an's reputation was ruined.

The surrounding people started to point fingers at Ye Leng'an. After all, it was definitely not a small matter if someone came looking for her. Moreover, Chen Hailan spoke with such certainty that something must have happened.

“Ye Xiyuan, wipe that hypocritical look off your face.” Ye Leng'an glanced at Ye Xiyuan and said calmly, “Also, don't keep calling me 'sister.' It makes me feel disgusted.”

“You...” When Ye Xiyuan heard these words, she seemed to have suffered a huge blow. She was so upset that she almost couldn't speak.

“Ye Leng'an, you ingrate.” Qian Gumeng pointed at Ye Leng'an and scolded, “Xiyuan is kind-hearted. That's why she's helping you. Also, Uncle Ye and Auntie Lin have raised you for so many years. But you have the cheek to treat their biological daughter like this?”

“This has nothing to do with you.” Ye Leng'an's eyes flashed with a hint of coldness. “To repay them for their kindness of bring me up, I've already paid Ye Li and Lin Wanqin 50 million. Didn't they tell you?”

Everyone was dumbfounded by the information.

The others were just here to join in the fun, but they didn't expect to hear such shocking news. Previously, they had heard that Ye Xiyuan and Ye Leng'an had been switched and taken to the wrong family ever since they were born. Now, the two of them had returned to their respective positions.

Moreover, Ye Xiyuan had always been very protective of Ye Leng'an in school, treating Ye Leng'an like her real younger sister. She even kept saying that she wanted Ye Leng'an to return to the Ye Family.. Who would have thought that the Ye Family would actually take 50 million from Ye Leng'an?

Chapter 45: Taking Direct Action

Ye Xiyuan's body stiffened. For a moment, she didn't know how to react.

She knew about that, and she was shocked that Ye Leng'an was able to fork out 50 million. At the same time, she also felt uneasy because even the System couldn't find out where Ye Leng'an's money came from. She had a feeling that some things were beyond her control.

Moreover, Ye Leng'an looked completely different from her previous life. If the System hadn't existed, she would have thought that everything that happened in her previous life was just a dream.

“What nonsense are you talking about!” Qian Gumeng subconsciously retorted, “Ye Leng'an, stop lying! You will never have 50 million.”

“Whether it is true or not, you can ask Ye Xiyuan beside you.” Ye Leng'an raised her eyebrows. “Ye Xiyuan, do you dare to lie through your teeth?”

For a moment, Ye Xiyuan was caught in a real dilemma. If she were to lie in public, her image would definitely be affected when her lie was exposed. It was not easy for her to have such a good image in front of everyone, so she definitely could not give up. However, if she told the truth, the Ye family's reputation would absolutely be ruined. At that time, she would also take a hit. "B*tch, did you swindle my dad out of that money?"

Before Ye Xiyuan could reply, Chen Hailan was about to jump up with rage.

Without another word, Ye Leng'an stepped forward and slapped Chen Hailan across the face.

Instantly, the people around were stupefied. Who would have thought that Ye Leng'an, who looked like a delicate little girl, would actually take direct action?

Chen Hailan was also shocked by the rapid transition. She did not expect to be beaten up. In other words, from the moment she was born, no one had ever laid a finger on her. But now, she was slapped in front of everyone.

"Ye Leng'an, I'm going to kill you." Chen Hailan's eyes were red, and she looked exceptionally fierce as if she was about to pounce on Ye Leng'an.

Ye Leng'an didn't let Chen Hailan have her way and directly kicked Chen Hailan a few meters away.

Chen Hailan fell to the ground and clutched her stomach, feeling a sharp pain. She wanted to curse again, but the pain in her abdomen made her almost speechless. She felt that her internal organs were bleeding.

"Leng'an, why did you hit her?" Ye Xiyuan seemed to have woken up from a dream, a spark of excitement flashing in her eyes, but there was a reproachful look on her face. "Can't you talk nicely? She was injured. If she is going to hold you accountable, you won't be able to escape the punishment."

She didn't expect Ye Leng'an to attack Chen Hailan at the drop of a hat. After all, there were so many people watching. This woman who came to stir up trouble was definitely not an ordinary person judging from her attire. As long as she found fault with Ye Leng'an unrelentingly, Ye Leng'an would definitely have a hard time.

"Ye Xiyuan, what happened today has nothing to do with you. You'd better not get involved." Ye Leng'an's lips curled into a sneer. "If you continue to spout nonsense here, then I don't mind letting you suffer the same pain as her."

Ye Xiyuan immediately shut her mouth because she couldn't see any signs of joking from Ye Leng'an's expression. Obviously, Ye Leng'an was serious. If she continued, Ye Leng'an would really hit her. It was not worth it to bear such a consequence for a stranger.

All the people around dared not to make a sound.

Ye Leng'an took out her phone and called Chen Kang. "Come and pick her up at Sheng'an High School now. Otherwise, I'll cancel our agreement."

The agreement she mentioned was about treating Chen Kang's illness.

On the other end of the phone, Chen Kang was still confused when he received Ye Leng'an's call. However, before he could ask for an explanation, she had already hung up.

No matter what happened, he still heard the location of Sheng'an High School.

Chen Kang quickly set off for Sheng'an High School.

On the other side, after Ye Leng'an hung up the phone, she sauntered to Chen Hailan and squatted down with a wicked smile on her face, saying, "You can sue me. If the forensic expert can find any injuries on your body, then I deserve it."

As a doctor and alchemist, as long as she did not want to leave any traces, no one would be able to find out.

For some reason, when seeing the smile on Ye Leng'an's face and hearing what she said, Chen Hailan felt a chill rise from the bottom of her heart.

She could clearly feel that she was in pain, but she had a premonition in her heart. Just as Ye Leng'an had said, even if she really went to examine her injuries, she would not be able to find anything.

"Spread out, all of you!"

Before Chen Kang arrived, Sun Kai, the Director of the school's Academic Administration Office, came.

Just now, some students were afraid that something would happen, so they went to bring Sun Kai over..

Chapter 46: Taking Her Back

Sun Kai pushed through the crowd and saw Chen Hailan lying on the ground and Ye Leng'an squatting beside her.

"What is going on here?" Sun Kai frowned and asked, "Didn't you say that someone was causing trouble?"

"Director, don't worry. The troublemaker was overpowered." Ye Leng'an stood up and said obediently, "But I don't think we need to call the police. Her family will come and take her back later."

With that obedient look on her face, she looked like a completely different person, definitely not the one who kicked Chen Hailan a few meters away just now.

When the people around saw this situation, they could not accept it for a moment. However, no one stepped forward to counteract her efforts. After all, what she did just now was too intimidating.

Ye Xiyuan wanted to step out and expose Ye Leng'an's lies, but she didn't do so because of Ye Leng'an's warning and to protect her image as a protective sister.

“Is that so?” Sun Kai was a little suspicious of Ye Leng’an’s reply. However, he didn’t know what he was suspecting.

He looked at Chen Hailan who was lying on the ground and seemed to be in severe pain. He was a little worried and went forward to help her up. Anyway, they were in school now. If anything happened to her, it would affect the school’s reputation.

“Director, you have to think it through.” Ye Leng’an said calmly, “This is the person who came to stir up trouble today. If she wants to scam you, then...”

Although she didn’t finish her sentence, it successfully made Sun Kai stop in his tracks. He was indeed worried about the school, but he did not want to be blackmailed! However, it was not a good idea to let this woman lie here like this!

“Don’t worry, Director.” Ye Leng’an said with a smile, “I know her. She’s not quite right in the head, so she came here to make a fuss. I’ve already informed her family. They’ll be here soon.”

Hearing Ye Leng’an say that she had mental problems, Chen Hailan became agitated. But the ripples of pain spreading from her body made her unable to even make a big move, let alone open her mouth to defend herself. She was afraid that she would die here today.

“Really?” Sun Kai didn’t quite believe it. Then, he looked around. “Does anyone want to say something?”

Everyone avoided Sun Kai’s gaze.

“Oh, it’s almost time for class. I have to go back to the classroom immediately.”
“Yes, yes, yes. Wait for me.”

“I’m leaving too. The next class is the form teacher’s class. I can’t be late!”

All the students left. Although they wanted to continue to watch the show, the current situation clearly did not allow them to stay. If they were caught and questioned by the Director of the Academic Administration Office, then whether they said it or not, they would offend someone else. It was not worth it.

Even Ye Xiyuan left along with the crowd, worried that if she continued to stay, she would be asked about that 50 million again. She really did not know how to answer.

Soon, only Sun Kai, Ye Leng’an, and Chen Hailan were left in the corridor.

Sun Kai actually wanted to leave, but he was the director after all. It was not appropriate to leave at this time, so he could only wait with them.

soon, the Dell rang, but ye Leng’an didn’t move and continued to stay there.

“Ye Leng’an, why don’t you go back to class first!” Sun Kai said after thinking for a while, “Didn’t you say that her family would be here soon? I’ll just wait here.”

Ye Leng'an shook her head. "Director, why don't you go back first? I know her family, and I'm the protagonist of this matter. It's better for me to explain it to them here."

Sun Kai thought about it and felt that it made sense, so he agreed.

In less than ten minutes, Chen Kang rushed over. Beside him was his butler, Lao Zhang.

"Leng'an, what happened?" Chen Kang saw Chen Hailan lying on the ground, but he first asked Ye Leng'an, "Hailan, did she do something?"

He knew his daughter very well, but he didn't expect Hailan to cause trouble at Ye Leng'an's school. His heart was still touched when he saw his daughter suffer like that.

However, he didn't blame Ye Leng'an because Hailan was definitely at fault.

"She's fine now. You can take her back." Ye Leng'an pointed at Chen Hailan, who was lying on the ground. "Don't worry, she's fine. She might just feel a little pain."

Although Chen Hailan was foul-tongued, Ye Leng'an would not kill her.

Moreover, she had no intention of becoming enemies with the Chen family. She could tell that Chen Kang still had some feelings for his daughter.

Hearing Ye Leng'an's reply, Chen Kang heaved a sigh of relief. He then gestured for Old Zhang to help Chen Hailan up..

Chapter 47: Playing Them off Against Each Other

After that, Chen Kang repeatedly apologized to Ye Leng'an before leaving with Chen Hailan.

Ever since Chen Kang appeared, Sun Kai looked at Ye Leng'an with an odd expression.

He didn't know who the woman coming to cause trouble was, but he knew Chen Kang. The Chen family was famous in the capital not because of their successful business, but because they had done a lot of charity. Chen Kang was the current head of the Chen Family and a famous philanthropist.

However, if people looked down on Chen Kang just because he was a philanthropist, they would be dead wrong. A person who started from scratch and made a big fortune was definitely not a simple person.

He couldn't figure out how Ye Leng'an knew a big shot like Chen Kang. Even if Ye Leng'an was still in the wealthy Ye family, she might not have the chance to meet Chen Kang. But now, not only did she know Chen Kang, but she also seemed to be very familiar with him.

What surprised him the most was that Chen Kang didn't treat Ye Leng'an casually as a little girl. Instead, he treated her with respect.

Ye Leng'an naturally noticed Sun Kai's gaze on her. She said, "Director, I'll go back to class first.

With that, she left without waiting for Sun Kai's reply.

After that, many people discussed what happened today in private, but no one knew what was going on and none of them dared to say anything in front of Ye Leng'an.

Everyone was transfixed by what Ye Leng'an did.

After class, Yuan Silei wanted to ask Ye Lengan what was going on.

However, Ye Leng'an didn't want to say anything more. After hoking Yuan Silei with a few words, she left with the excuse that she had something else to do.

Watching Ye Leng'an leave in a hurry, Yuan Silei felt a little disappointed. She didn't know why, but she felt that Ye Leng'an had become a lot more distant from her recently.

In the past, they were always together whether it was before or after school, and often hung out together even during the holidays. However, it seemed like they didn't even have the time to talk properly.

“Leilei, what's wrong with you?”

A gentle voice asked. Yuan Silei turned around and saw Ye Xiyuan walking towards her with a comforting smile on her face.

“Why are you here?” Yuan Silei's attitude was neither good nor bad.

“I just wanted to come and see my sister.” Ye Xiyuan acted as if she didn't mind Yuan Silei's strange attitude, her voice still very gentle. “What's wrong with you? Did my sister go back?”

Hearing Ye Xiyuan mention Ye Leng'an, Yuan Silei sounded a little disappointed. “She said she had something to deal with and had to go back first.

“Then it seems like today's incident didn't affect her at all!” Ye Xiyuan patted her chest and heaved a sigh of relief. “That's good. I was afraid that she would be sad!”

“Xiyuan, you've been asking me to persuade Leng'an to return to the Ye family, haven't you?” Yuan Silei suddenly thought of something and said, “Then tell me everything about that 50 million.”

Although Ye Xiyuan didn't respond at that time, the news of the 50 million had already spread all over the school.

“Actually, I'm not sure what exactly happened with that 50 million.” Ye Xiyuan shook her head with an innocent look on her face. “My parents didn't tell me in detail either. However, there must have been some dispute between her and my parents, which led to this misunderstanding. I can guarantee that the 50 million will remain intact. As long as Leng'an asked, we can transfer the 50 million to her at any time.”

Yuan Silei didn't know if she should believe Ye Xiyuan's words, but Ye Xiyuan didn't seem to be lying judging from her countenance. Moreover, to be honest, she also felt that returning to the wealthy Ye family was the best choice for Leng'an.

Ye Xiyuan seemed to be worried when looking at Yuan Silei. She wanted to say something but hesitated. "Actually, I..."

"You can speak freely if you want!" Yuan Silei's heart couldn't help but skip a beat. "Is there anything else? "

"Leilei, I'll be honest with you. I'm very worried about my sister now." Ye Xiyuan slowly said, "She's just a student, and she even left home. You also know that her biological parents only have ordinary income. It's impossible for them to give her too much money. However, she gave 50 million to my father. Have you ever wondered where she got that money from?"

Hearing Ye Xiyuan's words, Yuan Silei's heart did a flip. She subconsciously retorted, "Be careful what you say. Leng'an isn't that kind of person."

"I didn't say anything." Ye Xiyuan shook her head. "I'm just worried about my sister. So, I want to ask you to help persuade my sister to come home quickly!

You're her best friend. She'll definitely listen to you."

"I understand." Yuan Silei nodded, her expression firm. "I'll try to persuade her as soon as possible. However, this is not for you, but for Leng'an.."

Chapter 48: Coming to Her House

The moment Ye Leng'an stepped into the house, she immediately became alert.

Thinking of the things in her alchemy room, she quickly walked inside the room. Although she did not know who it was, the value of her entire house could not compare to that of the things in the alchemy room. She was not sure if the other party was here for her medicinal pills. After all, when she went to Ren Shang Tang to sell pills, she had never disguised herself.

However, as soon as she stepped into the living room, she saw two strangers in her house. One of them was sitting in a wheelchair, while the other was standing behind him. It looked like he was protecting the other one.

Ye Leng'an had the urge to turn around and leave the moment she saw the two of them.

Ever since she returned to this world, she had always felt that she was quite powerful. But when she saw the man in the wheelchair, she had the impulse to run away. It wasn't because she felt that this man was much stronger than her, but because of the murderous aura from him that made her want to retreat.

"Whv? Do you want to leave?" a cold voice asked. It was the man in the wheelchair who spoke. He looked up at Ye Leng'an and said, "This is your house. Are you sure you want to leave?"

It was only then that she noticed the man's appearance. Even though she had seen many handsome men before, she couldn't help but be captivated.

Although the man was in a wheelchair, it did not affect his charm at all. His clean and fair face was cold and handsome. His thick eyebrows, high nose, and pretty lips were all of nobleness and elegance. However, the most frightening thing was his eyes which were cold and aloof, as if they had no focus. He looked down at the world with those deep eyes filled with calmness, making people involuntarily submit.

But this stunning scene didn't make Ye Leng'an let down her guard. The more beautiful, the more poisonous. She understood this principle.

The murderous aura this man emitted was so thick that it was almost tangible, which would suffice to illustrate this point. If an ordinary person was tainted with a bit of this murderous aura, he or she would probably immediately have a mental breakdown and die an unnatural death. However, this man seemed to be able to coexist peacefully with this baleful aura and could even control himself from hurting the people around him. She felt that even at her peak, she might not be able to do this.

However, even though she was wary of the man in the wheelchair, she kept an eye on the man standing behind the wheelchair in a protective posture. He wasn't a good person either. Moreover, there seemed to be a force circulating in his body. Although it wasn't spiritual power, it wasn't weak.

The man sitting in the wheelchair was definitely not an ordinary person for being able to make such a man bow before him.

She just didn't know what their purpose was.

"Since you know that this is my house, you should also know that you are trespassing!" Ye Leng'an looked at the man in the wheelchair and asked, "Are you waiting for me to call the police?"

"Call the police?" The man sitting in the wheelchair chuckled. When he looked at her, his eyes were filled with mockery. "Are you sure? If the police come, how are you going to explain to them? This is our family affair!" Family affair!

After hearing that, she had a bad feeling. "What do you mean?"

"Strictly speaking, we are on the same household register." The man looked at her and said word by word, "You're still underage, so I am your guardian!"

Her heart skipped a beat as a thought flashed through her mind. She blurted out, "You're Huangfu Ruiling!"

No way! She just randomly picked up a person and had her household registration affiliated with his. But now this person came to her door and seemed to be difficult to deal with.

"Looks like you know me!" The man nodded and a smile flashed across his eyes.

“So, we’re really a family now. Isn’t it normal for me to come and see you now?”

“Haha!” She only wanted to slap herself. “Actually, if I say that this is a misunderstanding, will you believe me?”

Oh God! She just obeyed the law and found herself a guardian when she was still underage in this life. Why did she get herself into trouble?

Moreover, she only secretly added her name to his household register, and ordinary people should not be able to notice that. However, not only did he know about it, but he also came knocking on her door. What kind of luck was this?

“Oh, then can you tell me how this misunderstanding was caused?” Huangfu Ruiling looked at her with great interest. “I suddenly have a, uh, daughter in my household register?”

“No, no.” She hurriedly explained, “I’m definitely not your daughter. Besides, at your age, it’s impossible for you to have a daughter as old as me..”

Chapter 49: His Purpose

She clearly remembered that the person she chose should be at least in his thirties. However, although the man in front of her was somewhat disabled, he seemed only to be around 20 years old.

Huangfu Ruiling said with a faint smile, “My age? Do I look old?”

“No, no, absolutely not.” She shook her head repeatedly. “You’re so young. Why did I say that? I just wanted to be polite.”

To be honest, when she first saw him, she only felt wary. However, after finding out who he was, she only felt guilty. In the end, she was indeed in the wrong because she added her name to his household register without his consent. Although this had done little harm to him, she felt like she was a thief being caught by the owner.

“Oh, looks like you know you are in the wrong!” Huangfu Ruiling raised his eyebrows.

“This is indeed my fault.” Ye Leng’an took a deep breath and tried to calm herself down. “It was my fault for making you my guardian without your permission. No matter what the reason was, a mistake was a mistake, and I admit it. Don’t worry, I’ll immediately remove my name from your household register. As for my mistake, whether it caused you any losses or not, you can ask for reasonable compensation. I will consider it.”

That was right, she would only consider it if the compensation was reasonable. She wouldn’t make her remark of absolutes. After all, if he asked for an exorbitant price, she wouldn’t be able to agree.

Huangfu Ruiling didn't look like a person to be trifled with. She didn't want to have any contact with him at all. If she had known it earlier, she would not have chosen a guardian randomly or would have investigated the candidates carefully. And nothing like this would have happened today.

However, his murderous aura was powerfully threatening. This kind of killing intent could even devour a powerhouse at the Ascension Stage. However, Huangfu Ruiling acted as if nothing had happened and did not even let it hurt the people around him. If they had stood on the same footing, she would have really wanted to study it carefully.

"I don't need any compensation from you." Huangfu Ruiling said, "As for the household registration, you don't need to change it. I don't mind having one more person in my household register."

His answer did not make Ye Leng'an feel relieved. Instead, it made her even more vigilant. "What do you mean?"

She did not believe that he came to her house today just to take a look at the person on his household register. However, no matter what his goal was, she would not sit still and wait for death.

"I mean I don't need you to give me any compensation." Huangfu Ruiling looked at Ye Leng'an, "And you don't need to change your household registration. You can't do anything with it right now either."

It was easy to add her name, but it was not so easy to remove it.

"What do you want from me?" Ye Leng'an calmed down and looked at Huangfu Ruiling. "Or should I say, what is your purpose for coming here today?"

He must have a purpose for coming here today. Since things had reached such a pass, there was no need to continue hiding. It was better to get everything out in the open. Moreover, she was not to be trifled with. If he really angered her, she would just fight to the death.

"You don't have to be so nervous." Huangfu Ruiling looked at Ye Leng'an and said, "You must be a cultivator! "

"You..." Ye Leng'an seemed to have suddenly thought of something. "You were at the sales center back then!"

She said that in an affirmative tone, and it was not a question. When she saw Huangfu Ruiling's murderous aura, she was vigilant and did not remember that. When she was at the sales center, she sensed a very strong murderous aura. When she thought about it now, it must come from him.

"That's right." He nodded. "Do you know that all cultivators must register in the Hidden World? This is also for the convenience of management."

"The Hidden World?" She frowned slightly. "I don't know about that."

Although she had heard of the Hidden World before, she was still unclear about some of the rules and regulations. In her previous life, she had never had the chance to come into contact with these things.

“Cultivators are much more powerful than ordinary people. If there are no restrictions, the world will be in chaos.” He explained, “So all cultivators must accept the rules and regulations set by the Hidden World’s law enforcement team. If you violate them, you will be hunted down by the law enforcement team.”

“You didn’t come here today just to tell me these things, right?” Her face was still full of vigilance. “Why don’t you just tell me your purpose directly?”

“Very good. Since you’re being honest, I won’t hide it too.” He said directly,

“You are an alchemist, so you are also a doctor. I came here today to ask you to help me save someone..”

Chapter 50: The Strange Patient

“Save someone?” She subconsciously asked, “How did you know...”

Before she could finish speaking, she immediately understood. She had never hidden what she had done, so it was not surprising that he guessed her identity.

Then, she continued to ask, “Who do you want me to save?”

Huangfu Ruiling did not look like an ordinary person and could definitely find the best doctor in the world. Why did he come to her? Even though she thought that she was better than all the other doctors, no one else knew it! As to Chen Kang’s illness, she had only seen him a few times and had not really started to treat him.

Huangfu Ruiling gestured for Li Yi to pass the medical records to her.

After she took the medical chart, she began to read it carefully. Because of her cultivation and her powerful mental strength, she could now read ten lines at a glance and remember everything she saw. She finished reading the thick stack of medical records in less than ten minutes.

However, after reading the medical records, she could not help but frown.

Because from the chart, that person seemed to be asleep instead of being sick. However, this patient had already been asleep for three years. It was impossible for ordinary people to sleep for such a long time.

Accurately speaking, the patient was not in a vegetative state. Most vegetables would lose most of their body functions, and various parts of their body would continue to degenerate. Although the person in the medical chart had not woken up, everything was normal. The bodily functions did deteriorate, but it was not that serious. Even if the patient woke up, that wouldn’t do much damage to the body.

Huangfu Ruiling sat there quietly and didn't press her for a reply. On the contrary, Li Yi, who was standing behind him, looked like he wanted to say something but hesitated. When he looked at Ye Leng'an, there were complicated feelings in his eyes. He seemed to want to say something, but he didn't open his mouth.

After a long while, Ye Leng'an put down the medical records and did not answer if she was willing to treat the patient. Instead, she asked, "Why do you think that I can cure her?"

The person on the medical chart was a woman, and she was still very young.

"I believe you can do it." Huangfu Ruiling didn't answer her question directly.

"Do you believe that you can do that?"

"I need to check the patient." Ye Leng'an said after pondering for a moment.

She couldn't tell anything from the medical records, so, she needed to see the patient personally and to confirm if she could do that. She did think that her medical skills were superb, but she would not boast that she could cure any illness.

"Sure. When are you free?" Huangfu Ruiling nodded. "I will bring you there."

Ye Leng'an nodded and said, "As for the household registration, I'm very sorry. I hacked into the public security system without your permission and added my name to your household register. Don't worry, I'll move it out soon."

After knowing his real purpose, she felt much more at ease. However, she had no intention of staying in Huangfu Ruiling's household register. He did not look like someone to be trifled with and could be considered as the byword of trouble. She did not want to mess with such a person. If she really cured the patient that he mentioned, she did not want to have anything to do with him anymore.

Therefore, she must change her household registration.

"No need." Huangfu Ruiling's attitude was very firm. "Since I said that you could continue to stay in my household register, there is no need to change it."

Ye Leng'an didn't insist on saying anything when she saw the determined look on his face. But she secretly made up her mind that after he left, she would immediately change her guardian. Moreover, she had to be extremely cautious this time and definitely could not get herself into such trouble again.

After agreeing on the time to see the patient, Ye Leng'an also gave some basic information about herself to Huangfu Ruiling and asked him to help her register in the Hidden World.

Since she was living in this world, she felt that she had to follow the rules of this world. Moreover, to be honest, she was still a little curious about that Hidden World. If she had the chance, she planned to take a look.

After Huangfu Ruiling left, she immediately took out her laptop and planned to change her household registration as well as her guardian.

This time, she carefully chose a lonely old man in his sixties and would never provoke a troublesome person like Huangfu Ruiling again.

She planned to give the old man financial aid anonymously after she transferred her household registration under the old man's name so that the lonely old man could live comfortably for the rest of his life. This was also her gratitude to the old man, and it could also be considered a kind of deal, although the old man would not know it.

A moment later, Ye Leng'an looked at the screen and couldn't help but curse,

“Huangfu Ruiling, you won..”
