

Full-Level Rich Daughter Makes a Strong Comeback

Chapter 5

Leaving

Seeing the determined look of Ye Leng'an, Ye Li's face darkened. He didn't expect her to still insist on leaving in spite of his persuasion.

Was that poor Ye family better than this one?

Lin Wanqin was very reluctant. "Leng'an, are you really going to leave us?"

"Dad, and mom." Ye Leng'an picked up the luggage by her feet. "Brother, please take care."

After saying that, she turned around and left. .

She left in such a swift and neat way that the others didn't know what else to say.

"System, what should I do now?" Ye Xiyuan called out in her heart.

However, the system did not answer for a long time, and she also stopped asking.

After leaving the villa of the Ye family, Ye Leng'an didn't go to the house where Ye Shen and Li Zhaohui lived. Instead, she went to an old neighborhood.

She didn't feel uncomfortable when looking at the small house which was completely different from the villa of the Ye family. She directly sat down on the sofa and heaved a sigh of relief.

This small house was bought with the prize money she won from the competition in her third year of junior high school. She did not know why she bought it in the first place. Now, it seemed that her decision was prescient.

She sat on the sofa, deep in thought. Ye Xiyuan behaved so strange when they were in the villa just now.

In the beginning, Ye Xiyuan clearly wanted to chase her out of the Ye family. However, she didn't know why Ye Xiyuan suddenly changed her mind. She didn't notice it in her previous life, but now it seemed that Ye Xiyuan's behavior was indeed very weird. What was the reason that made Ye Xiyuan's attitude change 180 degrees in such a short period of time?

Moreover...

A dark light flashed across Ye Leng'an's eyes.

She was different from what she used to be. Although her current cultivation base was not as good as its peak time, she dared to say that she had no equals in this world.

Just now, she could clearly feel the strange fluctuation that suddenly occurred in Ye Xiyuan's body.

It was nothing about cultivation, but it also didn't seem like anything that belonged to this world.

Maybe, her tragedy was not as simple as it seemed. At the very least, Ye Xiyuan was very suspicious, and she definitely had a secret.

"Interesting!" Ye Leng'an rested her chin on one hand. "Looks like there's a reason why I've been through so much!"

At this moment, in the villa of the Ye family...

Ye Xiyuan looked around her room, her face filled with dissatisfaction.

Just now when she passed by Ye Leng'an's room, the door wasn't completely closed. She peeked through the crack of the door and saw what was inside.

That room was almost twice as big as this one, and the furnishings there were also much better than here.

She was the real daughter of the Ye family, but the room she was living in now was actually inferior to that of a phoney.

She knew very well that even though Ye Leng'an left, it didn't mean that her parents and brother had forgotten about that woman.

Judging from what happened just now, Ye Leng'an still held a high position in their hearts. What she needed to do now was to replace Ye Leng'an in their hearts as soon as possible.

"System, are you there?" Ye Xiyuan tried to call out.

For no reason, the system suddenly stopped responding.
